$100,000 Win Brings Delayed Shock for La Porte City Woman

A La Porte City woman has won the top prize in "Iowa's $100,000 Cash Game."

When Shirley Caldwell had her ticket checked, she didn't realize there had been a $100,000-winning ticket sold at the Pronto where she purchased it.

"I was going to get new ones, so I picked it up and took it up there," explained Caldwell. "First he said it was $1,000. Then he said it was $10,000. And then he said, 'Oh my gosh. It's $100,000!' And I came home."

Shirley Caldwell of La Porte City

She bought her winning ticket at Pronto, 7305 La Porte Road in Washburn. It didn't hit Caldwell that she had won such a large prize until she got home.

"I got in the car and I went home, and I got in my garage and threw some garbage away," said Caldwell. "And I thought, 'Oh my gosh. I'm going to throw up. I won $100,000!' That's when it hit me. It took a few blocks."

Caldwell won the top prize in the Feb. 28 drawing of Iowa's $100,000 Cash Game. Her ticket matched all five numbers drawn.

She had some immediate plans for her winnings, including a car.

"I'm going to pay bills and I'm going to buy a new car," said Caldwell. "I kind of need one. I haven't been looking because I didn't have any money for it." 🎰

Oelwein Man Wins $21,000

Todd Gloede, 44, of Oelwein won $21,000 playing the "Hot Hand" scratch game. He purchased his ticket at Casey's, 105 First Ave. S.E. in Oelwein. Gloede is pictured here holding his winning ticket beside Helen Gilson, the clerk at the Casey's store who sold him the lucky ticket!

"She ran out from behind the counter and gave me a kiss on the cheek!" Gloede laughed. She told him she'd never sold a bigger winning scratch ticket!

Gloede, a purchasing manager for Transco Railway Products, plans to pay bills with his winnings. 🎰
