Tech The Halls Promotion Has Record Entries, 275 Prize Winners Drawn

For a second straight year, Iowa Lottery players turned out in droves to enter the lottery's holiday bonus promotion.

On Jan. 20, the lottery held drawings in its "Tech The Halls" promotion to determine the winners of the electronics and cash prizes offered in the drawing. The original version of the Tech The Halls concept in 2009 had set records for the lottery. More than 405,000 entries were received in that promotion, the most entries the lottery had ever received in a single Web-based promotion since it began offering them in November 2001.

This year's promotion also was a hit, with the lottery receiving more than 844,000 entries.

"We've just finished up another successful holiday business season," said Iowa Lottery CEO Terry Rich. "We're glad to see our players were so excited about the Sony® electronics and cash prizes offered in Tech the Halls."

Players entered their nonwinning holiday-themed scratch tickets in the promotion for a chance to win one of 250 Sony® electronics prizes or one of 25 cash prizes ranging from $500 to $5,000. Players can find all of the winning numbers selected in the promotion drawing by going to the Lottery's website at ialottery.com. Players should hang on to their tickets - if any winner is unable to produce their winning ticket, we will move on to the next alternate number drawn until all prizes are awarded.

In order to claim a prize, players need to sign and complete the back of their tickets and submit them, along with a completed claim form, to any of the five Lottery offices. Players can also mail their claims to the Iowa Lottery. Claim forms must be received by mail or at a Lottery regional office by 4 p.m. on Feb. 21. The lottery has offices in Council Bluffs, Storm Lake, Mason City, Des Moines and Cedar Rapids. 📍

Answers to Common Lottery Questions...

If I won Powerball, how would I get paid?

If you won the Powerball jackpot, you'd have 60 days following the date of ticket validation to decide whether to collect the prize with the annuity or cash option. If you chose the annuity, you'd receive one payment about 15 days after the drawing date followed by 29 annual payments funded by an annuity. Since the Multi-State Lottery Association purchases an annuity to fund the payments, the exact amount you receive depends on current interest rates.

If you selected the cash option, you'd receive a single cash payment amount that is determined by the actual sales for this grand prize. The cash prize is estimated to be approximately one-half of the estimated annuitized jackpot, depending on current interest rates. The cash prize is less than the annuitized prize because the entire amount is paid in one check about two weeks after the drawing. The cash has no time to sit in the bank and accrue interest like the annuity does. If you don't choose a payment option within 60 days of ticket validation, the jackpot is paid as an annuity.

Black Ticket Spells Big Win for Muscatine Woman

A Muscatine woman discovered she'd won the top prize of $50,000 playing the lottery's new "The Black Ticket" scratch game after leaving the tickets in her purse for several days.

Amanda Martinez, 31, said between a broken washing machine, a sick husband and other errands she just didn't think about scratching her tickets until several days after she bought them.

"I was scratching them off and was just kind of in disbelief," Martinez said.

Martinez, who is a homemaker, said she chose to try The Black Ticket because she is an Iowa Hawkeye fan and the ticket is black and gold. Her husband, Jose, was home sick when she scratched the ticket.

"He was ecstatic, but I think he didn't believe me," she said. "He was just so tickled but he was so sick he couldn't get up and run around the house with me."

Martinez has also told her two children about the win as well and said neither of them could believe it.

Martinez said she plans to use some of her winnings to replace her broken washing machine, as well as take a short vacation to Mexico to visit Jose's family.

Martinez purchased her winning ticket at Kum & Go, 709 Grandview Ave. in Muscatine. 📌

Clinton Man Tries New Game, Wins $15,000 Top Prize

A Clinton man decided to pick up a couple "Cash Vault" instant-scratch tickets when he stopped for soda and a snack on his break and ended up winning the top prize.

John Spitzer, 40, said he usually plays the lottery's "Crossword" scratch game, but wanted to try something new. He just never thought he'd end up with a $15,000 prize.

"I must not have scratched it off all the way because I thought I only won five thousand," Spitzer said.

Spitzer's boss at the ADM alcohol plant in Clinton was with him when he scratched the ticket.

"I didn't even know if I won at first, so I go over to my foreman and say, 'Take a look at this. Did I win?'" Spitzer said. "And he looks at it and goes, 'Oh my gosh you won five thousand dollars!'"

Spitzer said when he finished scratching the ticket he realized he'd actually won the top prize. He said his boss asked him if he was going to take the rest of the day off to celebrate, but he elected to finish out the day.

The next person Spitzer told was his wife.

"She was like, 'You're lying!'" he said.

Spitzer said he plans to use some of his winnings to pay bills and plans to save the rest for a trip with his family this summer.

Spitzer purchased his winning ticket at Porter's, 1512 Lincolnway in Clinton. 📌
