

Lottery to Warm Players With Lennox Furnace or $1,500 Cash for Heat Bills

The Iowa Lottery is offering players the chance to win a Dave Lennox Signature Collection furnace worth up to $3,000 or $1,500 “cold” cash to pay their heating bills this winter!

From Jan. 18 through Feb. 14, players who purchase $5 or more of any lotto game on one ticket will automatically receive a raffle ticket from the lottery terminal for the “Heating Bills” promotion. They might win one of five Lennox Signature Collection furnaces installed in their home or one of 20 cash prizes of $1,500 to heat their home and help ward off the cold this winter! These Lennox furnaces are the most quiet and efficient available in the industry.

25 Players Can Win Prizes in Raffle

Players need to keep their raffle tickets because the lottery will draw for 25 winners on Feb. 16. Winning numbers will be posted at retailers, available to be printed out by the lotto terminal and on our web site at www.ialottery.com. They also will be available by calling our “Heating Bills” hot line at (515) 323-4770.

If a player has a winning numbered ticket, they should call the Iowa Lottery at 515-281-7900 weekdays between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. They must call before 4:30 p.m. on March 1 to receive instructions on how to claim their prize. Players must contact the lottery by March 1 to be eligible for a prize if they have a winning ticket.

Lennox Corporation In Iowa Over 100 Years

The lottery is pleased to partner with the Lennox Corporation, which was founded over 100 years ago by Dave Lennox in Marshalltown, Iowa. Dave Lennox built and marketed the world’s first riveted-steel furnace in 1895. One of the corporation’s three factories—the largest—is still located in Marshalltown.

Pull-Tab Machines to Gain Extra Security Software

Iowa Lottery pull-tab machines are getting new bill acceptor software

As part of an improvement to its bill acceptors, the Iowa Lottery will be updating pull-tab vending machines with software that increases security by preventing theft.

The new software allows the machine to display an LED message if it senses any kind of tampering with the bill acceptor. In addition, an alarm will sound and the machine will be temporarily disabled. The machine will reset itself after a period of time and be available to use again.

The machine will print a report automatically with the date, time, a code and the credit amount cleared (if applicable). The same information may be manually retrieved using the "Audit Report" function. 🗑️

Spinach Won't Make You Richer, But 'Popeye' Could!

Popeye (pull-tab)

Cost: $2
Top Prize: $100 (3 per sleeve)
Odds: 1 in 4.19
Begin Ordering: Jan. 12

The Iowa Lottery's newest pull-tab—"Popeye"—could put some muscle in your sales and make players richer!

Play by peeling apart the five tabs located on the back of the ticket. Three symbols are printed under each tab. Check all five tab areas. If three consecutive symbols printed vertically or diagonally under any of the tabs match identically any of the winning combinations shown on the ticket front, the player wins the corresponding prize. In addition, the special "wild" symbol may represent any winning symbol. The arrow connecting the symbols indicates you are a winner. 🗑️

'Santa' Visits Two More Iowa Lottery Players

Mason City Man Shaky After Win

A Mason City man discovered the scratch ticket he purchased after work was a winner.

Tim Jeffries, 48, of Mason City won $12,000 playing Secret Santa, one of the holiday scratch games from the Iowa Lottery. He admitted revealing his winning ticket made him a bit uneasy.

Players like to tell when they win playing "Secret Santa"!

"I kind of started shaking and turned a little white," he said. "I hollered at the little woman to have her come to look at it ... and then I had my daughter look at it, and then we had to go down to Hy-Vee to make sure [the ticket] was telling the truth!"

Jeffries purchased his winning ticket at Quick Shop, 904 N. 8th Street, in Clear Lake. He claimed his prize at the Iowa Lottery's regional office in Mason City.

Jeffries, who drives a truck for an excavation company in Clear Lake, said he'll buy more presents this Christmas than he had originally planned.

Car Repairs Help Illinois Man Become Big Winner

Woody Weeks, 33, who works and plays in Iowa passed the time as his car was being fixed by winning big.

The Silvis, Ill., man also won $12,000 playing Secret Santa. He said he doesn't normally buy scratch tickets but winning "is pretty good incentive," to keep playing.

Weeks purchased his winning ticket at Graverts Auto Service, 333 14th Street, in Bettendorf. He claimed his prize at the Iowa Lottery's regional office in Cedar Rapids.

Weeks said when he won he was in shock, so the reality of the big win didn't sink in right away.

"It took ... about twenty minutes to sink in before I realized it, and then I was just very happy," he said.

Weeks is a construction worker and does much of his work in Bettendorf. With his prize money, though, he will be able to have some fun and get away from cold weather of the Midwest.

"I'm going to pay off my house and maybe go on a vacation," he said. "We're thinking about Scottsdale, Arizona today. It could be something different tomorrow," he joked. 🗑️
