Motorcycle Top Prize in Second-Chance Promotion

A new second-chance promotion from the Iowa Lottery offers players the chance to win one of two Victory® Kingpin™ motorcycle packages that include cash!

Enter With Nonwinning "Pinball Wizard" Ticket

From Feb. 27 through March 27, players should go to the lottery's web site at www.ialottery.com to enter the Polaris Victory Kingpin Motorcycle Promotion for a chance to win one of the two bike packages. To enter, players must type in the serial number from a nonwinning $10 "Pinball Wizard" scratch ticket.

Each $19,000 motorcycle prize package includes: a 2004 Polaris Victory Kingpin motorcycle; $601 cash; all required federal and state withholding taxes paid; and shipping, handling and delivery of the motorcycle to the Victory motorcycle dealer located nearest to the winner. The dealer will be chosen by Victory Motorcycles.

The Victory Kingpin motorcycle

One drawing for two winners will be held on April 1. Ticket serial numbers entered will be verified against serial numbers drawn. Players must keep all "Pinball Wizard" tickets they enter and may only use each ticket once as an eligible entry. Winners will be contacted and asked to mail their nonwinning "Pinball Wizard" ticket to the Iowa Lottery.

Victory Motorcycles Made In Iowa Since 1998

Victory motorcycles have been produced by Polaris Industries, Inc., at a facility in Spirit Lake since 1998. Victory bikes are called the "New American Motorcycle." The award-winning Vegas was introduced in 2003 and this year's Kingpin is called "the perfect union of form and function." Polaris, which began manufacturing snowmobiles in 1954, will celebrate its 50th anniversary in business this year.

Remind players to enter today! 🍀

Arlington Woman Wins Hawaii Trip to See Hawks

LouAnn Shaffer, 42, of Arlington has won a trip to the EA Sports Maui Invitational basketball tournament in the Hawkeye Hawaii web site promotion.

"I just didn't believe her. Isn't that terrible?" said Shaffer upon receiving the call from the lottery's promotions manager. But she had her husband's cell phone with her just in case the call came!

Shaffer was drawn from a group of 21 players who won pairs of tickets to University of Iowa men's basketball games in the promotion. Players entered with a nonwinning $5 Hot Lotto play through the lottery's web site.

The trip, which is Nov. 20-26, includes airfare, hotel, welcome reception, ground transportation, luggage transfers, special Thanksgiving dinner, tickets to Iowa games, special Hawkeye souvenirs plus $1,020 in cash and required federal and state withholding taxes paid. The trip is worth $8,600!

This will be Shaffer's first trip to Hawaii! 🍀

Lightning-Struck Douds Man Wins Another Big Prize

A Douds man who was once struck by lightning considers himself a very lucky man.

Matthew Zeitler, 37, of Douds, is so lucky that he's made two trips to the lottery headquarters in as many weeks to claim two big prizes! And don't forget that he was struck by lightning two years ago.

Zeitler won $30,000 in early February playing the "Wild Crossword" scratch game, and just one week earlier he had arrived at lottery headquarters with a top prize-winning "Trucks & Bucks" scratch ticket. He won a 2003 Chevrolet S-10 truck playing that game. The truck prize package is valued at $28,000, including required federal and state withholding taxes.

He purchased the truck-winning ticket at Kum & Go, 955 Mormon Trek in Iowa City, and he bought the "Wild Crossword" ticket at the Circle B in Keosauqua.

It appears that luck runs in the Zeitler family. Zeitler said after he picked up the truck, he stopped at a casino and won $3,500. His father won $12,000 at the same casino several days later. He said he seems to have the best lottery luck when he stops to buy tickets when his daughter plays basketball. He won the truck on a ticket he stopped for in Iowa City after his daughter played basketball. He picked up the "Wild Crossword" ticket before a game. Zeitler also coaches youth basketball.

"My daughter played a game and I'd coached basketball all day. She talked me into going to eat steak, which I didn't want to do," he explained about the day he purchased the truck-winning ticket. "We ended up [at the store] and I told them we'd stop and get some lottery tickets so when I got home I'd have something to do when I was still awake."

Zeitler said he let the store clerk decide which tickets he would buy.

"[He] talked me into buying this [Trucks & Bucks] ticket because they've been doing real well," he said.

When Zeitler claimed the truck prize package, he told the lottery that if his luck would hold, he'd be back to claim more. Zeitler said after the unlikely event of being struck by lightning two years ago and overcoming the odds to win a $28,000 truck package, he had his eyes on an even bigger prize.

His statement turned out to be very prophetic! 🍀

Webster City Woman Keeps $7,000 Secret From Husband

Virginia Gourley of Webster City

A central Iowa woman won a large prize in a lottery scratch game—and kept it secret from her husband for a week afterwards!

Virginia Gourley of Webster City won $7,000 playing the "Ruby Red 7s" scratch game. She purchased her ticket at Doc's Stop, 407 Closz Dr. in Webster City.

Gourley claimed her prize at Iowa Lottery headquarters in Des Moines.

"I just scratched them all off ... I was surprised. I thought I had $70 instead of $7,000," she said.

Gourley brought her husband, Don, with her to claim her prize. She waited to tell him she had won.

"A whole week," he interjected.

Gourley admitted to having kept mum, and said she was good at keeping secrets.

"Try me," she said, grinning.

The Gourleys own a farm, which is where much of the money will be used.

"If you're a farmer, you have plans," she said.

Gourley also said they would try to buy something fun, too. And, she still plans on playing the lottery. After all, you can't win if you don't play, she said.

"Don't talk about it—do it," she said. 🍀

Free
Midday
Pick 3
Promotion
Continues

On Feb. 25 and 26 and March 1 and 2, when a player buys either a Pick 3 or Pick 4 evening play, they'll receive a free play for the midday Pick 3 drawing.

When retailers sell the evening play for Pick 3 or Pick 4 during these special time periods, the free Pick 3 midday play will be generated automatically by the lotto terminal. 🍀
