Quad Cities Man Wins $50,000 Halloween Millions Prize

A Quad-Cities area man said he didn't realize for a week that he had a $50,000-winning lottery ticket because he just hadn't checked it.

Bob Schissel of Milan, Ill., had a ticket that won a $50,000 prize in the "Halloween Millions Raffle" drawing on Nov. 1, but said he usually only checks his lottery tickets when he stops to buy gasoline and he didn't do that until a week after the drawing.

"I had the clerk check the two tickets. She said, 'You won $50,000!'" Schissel said. "I said, 'Really.' I asked again and she said, 'No, really.'"

Schissel, 58, who works as a fork-truck driver at Nestle-Purina PetCare in Davenport, said that in all the excitement, he then made a mistake.

"I walked out to the car and forgot to put the gas in that I had prepaid for," he recalled. "I drove down the road for about two miles and I said, 'Oops!' I turned around and went back and I was still able to get the gas. Somebody could have walked away with $30 in free gas."

Tickets in the $10 "Halloween Millions Raffle" game were sold from Sept. 23-Oct. 31 in Iowa and six other states. The game's drawing was held Nov. 1, and three top prizes of $1 million were awarded, one each in Michigan, New Jersey and Ohio. If a participating state did not have a $1 million winner, a $50,000 prize was awarded in a separate drawing to someone who bought a ticket in that state.

Schissel's ticket was selected as the $50,000 winner in Iowa. The unique eight-digit number on his ticket was 10017104 and he bought it at the Kwik Shop, 3129 Rockingham Road in Davenport. He said he bought just two tickets in the raffle game, and he decided to do so because they cost less than those being sold in a different raffle game in his home state.

"I was just going to get one and then they were $10 apiece," he said. "In Illinois where we reside, it was $20, so I got two."

Schissel said he and his wife, Valerie, planned to pay bills with the raffle winnings. And he predicted that news of his good luck would spread quickly.

"Probably by the time I get back to work, everybody in the whole plant will know," he said with a laugh.

"I had the clerk check the two tickets. She said, 'You won $50,000!' I said, 'Really.' I asked again and she said, 'No, really.'"
 — Robert Schissel

Hall of Fame Ultimate Tailgate Party Promotion Reminders

- Players need to make a qualifying Powerball® purchase in Iowa through Saturday, Feb. 8: $10 or more on one ticket. This can include any combination of plays such as multiple plays for the same drawing, plays for different drawings or plays with the Power Play® option.
- Players then need to enter the code from a qualifying Iowa Powerball ticket at ialottery.com by noon (CT) on Monday, Feb. 10, for a chance to win one of the six trip packages (see ialottery.com for more information on the prizes). They'll need to join or be a current member of the lottery's free VIP Club to enter.
- You do not need to press the "Hall of Fame" button to sell a qualifying Powerball ticket eligible for entry in the promotion. Any Powerball ticket you sell that is worth $10 or more will automatically generate a code on the ticket, including manually generated plays and those made with a play slip.
- Any Powerball purchase of $10 or more on one ticket with a code qualifies for entry, regardless of whether the ticket wins a prize.
- Remind players that they should keep their Powerball tickets until the drawing has been held for which they are eligible. And, they should enter their code online before cashing their qualifying Powerball ticket for any prizes won in the Powerball drawing. 🐾

Eighteen Co-Workers From Winterset Plant Split $40,000 Powerball Prize

The 18 members of the Mahle Filter Systems group are:
From Winterset: Jill Beck (right), Tamra Beason, Lowell Smith, Toni Moon, Anita Smuck, Michael Wise, Richard Schneider, Mark Ham and Betty Moore.

From Des Moines: Larry Forbes, Toan Dang, Jessica Hobbs, Ai Ca Lovan, Shanda Volker and Don Sousavanh.
Also, Aaron Christenson of Adel; Darin Mills of Linden; and Amanda Mittlestadt of Newton.

Eighteen co-workers from a manufacturing plant in Winterset have split a $40,000 Powerball prize that they won with a ticket they pooled their money to buy at a Winterset convenience store.

The group calls itself "Mahle Filter Systems," the name of the Winterset plant where the members all work. Group spokeswoman Jill Beck said each group member contributes $6 a week to buy Powerball tickets for the Wednesday and Saturday drawings.

Beck, of Winterset, claimed the prize on behalf of the group. She works in the finance department at Mahle.

Beck purchased the group's winning ticket at Casey's, 1021 N. First St. in Winterset for the Oct. 19 Powerball drawing.

Each member of the group received about $1,555 after taxes. Beck said the group will continue to pool money together to buy Powerball tickets.
