Action Briefs

Halloween Millions Raffle Sales End Oct. 31

There are only a few days left to sell Halloween Millions Raffle tickets! Players can buy them through midnight on Oct. 31.

Tickets are $10 and are being sold in Iowa and six other states. A minimum of two $1 million prizes, allocated across the Halloween Millions Raffle participating lotteries, will be awarded in the multi-state drawing on Nov. 1.

- Press the "Halloween Millions Raffle" button, which is located on Page 2 of the "Games" screens on the lottery terminal. Then choose the button that corresponds to the number of tickets the player wants to purchase, up to 10.
- After a screen about the amount of purchase is displayed and the clerk chooses "Yes," the lottery terminal will produce a raffle ticket with a unique eight-digit number. Ticket numbers are issued in numerical order. (An approval code is required for transactions of $50 and over.)
- Raffle tickets are easy pick only. Players may not pick their own raffle numbers.
- Raffle tickets cannot be cancelled.
- Remind players they must KEEP THEIR TICKETS to check them against the winning raffle numbers and to claim a prize.

Visit ialottery.com for details.

These and six other holiday scratch games that were released on Oct. 2 are eligible for the "Gifts Galore" Play It Again® promotion. For more information, visit ialottery.com.

Play by peeling apart the five tabs located on the back of the ticket. Three symbols are printed under each tab. Check all five tab areas. If three consecutive symbols printed vertically or diagonally under any of the tabs match identically any of the winning combinations shown on the ticket front, the player wins the corresponding prize. The arrow connecting the symbols indicates a winner.

Sheldon Couple Wins $1 Million in Oct. 5 Powerball® drawing

The Schillings' ticket came ever so close to taking the $88 million jackpot on Oct. 5, matching the first five numbers but missing the Powerball to win a $1 million prize.

Debbie Schilling said she was helping to host an open house on Oct. 6 for her mother's 80th birthday when her children began to call her, asking if she'd heard that there had been a $1 million winner in Sheldon.

"I said, 'Well that's cool! Wouldn't it be cool to have that ticket?'" she recalled. Then she remembered that she had a Powerball ticket in her wallet and after she pulled over to the side of the road, they began to compare the numbers over the phone.

"And then I screamed," she said. "I drove home with a death grip on the steering wheel. I told them where my billfold was at in the car in case I got into a crash so they could get the ticket. But I made it. I thought I was going to die of thirst, I wouldn't even stop to get anything to drink. And then I got home and I was shaking so bad."

Dave Schilling, 51, who works at the Norwesco plastics manufacturing plant in Sheldon, said he didn't believe the good news at first.

"I said, 'There's no way, you've got to be kidding,'" he recalled. "I said, 'I'm not going to believe it until the ticket is here. I want to see it.' And sure as heck, we had it."

The couple, who have six adult children, two of whom are in college, and seven grandchildren, said they look forward to using their lottery winnings to help their family.

"We'll help our kids out and put a little bit of money away and hopefully we have something to retire on," Dave said.

Debbie added, "We'll pay some debts, be able to breathe financially a little bit now."

Even after learning she'd won a $1 million Powerball prize, a Sheldon woman still went into work for a few hours the morning before heading to the lottery to claim her winnings.

"It was payroll," Debbie Schilling said as she and her husband claimed their $1 million prize. "Yep, I had to make sure everybody got paid."

Schilling, 52, who works in human resources at V.H. Manufacturing in Rock Valley, split the prize with her husband, Dave. Debbie Schilling bought the couple's winning ticket at Casey's, 504 Second Ave. in Sheldon.
