$100,000 Win Great Medicine for Altoona Man After Doctor Visit

A trip to the doctor's office Monday was memorable for an Altoona man when he realized he'd won a top prize of $100,000 on an Iowa Lottery scratch game.

Randy Babcock stopped into the Kum & Go, 5970 Morning Star Court in Pleasant Hill for a cup of coffee following his doctor's visit and said he "had a feeling" to purchase a lottery scratch ticket as well.

"I got goose bumps," Babcock, 53, said. "I picked it and started scratching and I went, 'Oh, here we go it's not going to be a winner.' Then I saw the 14. I hadn't scratched the prize amount yet and when I did, I looked at it, did a double-take and I went, 'No, no way!'"

Babcock, who works for ACDelco®, claimed the second of eight top prizes of $100,000 available in the lottery's "Double Dollar Fortune" instant-scratch game. He claimed his prize the same day at the lottery's headquarters in Des Moines.

Babcock and his wife, Jan, said the lottery winnings will be used for a down payment on a house and to start college savings funds for their two boys, ages 12 and 14.

"I think that's the most important part," Babcock said. "We're old enough that we're kind of set in our ways, but I want to make sure both boys, when they graduate from high school, are set to go to college." 🍀
