Action Briefs

Coupons Are Different on New System

Lottery coupons are being handled differently on the new system and now have a bar code on them.

All previous versions of coupons expired at the beginning of July.

You must scan the 2D bar code BEFORE the play is made (sample is shown at left).

Each coupon is a single-use coupon. Once entered into the system, it cannot be used again.

The bar code is designed to produce a play that corresponds with the offer on the coupon.

The terminal will allow you to scan a play slip or press the "Easy Pick" button. Touch "Cancel" to exit the screen.

You are automatically credited for the coupon.

You do not need to return the coupon to the lottery. Keep it for balancing purposes and then destroy it when finished.

If you have a question about a coupon, ask your DSR or call the hotline at 1-800-858-4744.

Boone Couple Claims $1 Million Powerball with Power Play® Prize

A Boone couple admitted that they'd told some little white lies about whether they were big lottery winners. "Just a little bit," Mary Tillman said with a laugh as she and her family claimed a $1 million Powerball prize.

Mary Tillman, her husband, Chad; her oldest daughter, Killashandra, 14; and she and Chad's daughters, Maryjane, 6; and Laurlien, 9 months; all went to lottery headquarters together on to June 8 claim the prize.

Mary Tillman said she and Chad had realized shortly after the April 30 Powerball® drawing that they'd won a big prize, but they wanted to take the time to do some financial planning before coming forward to claim it. So with that in mind, they didn't tell the girls about their good fortune until a few days ago.

"We didn't let them know about the winnings until after school was out for the year," said Chad Tillman, who works at a Fareway warehouse in Boone.

The Tillmans' prize is the fifth won by Iowa Lottery players of at least $1 million this year.

Mary Tillman purchased their $1 million-winning ticket at Casey's, 1127 Story St. in Boone, for the Powerball drawing on April 30. It was one of two tickets nationwide to win a $1 million prize that night. The other was purchased in Ohio.

It also was the second Powerball ticket in two months to win a $1 million prize in Iowa. Eric Shaffer of Marion won a $1 million Powerball prize with a ticket he purchased at a Cedar Rapids convenience store for the March 9 drawing.

Mary Tillman, a stay-at-home mom, said her mother-in-law called her shortly after the drawing to see if she'd checked their ticket yet. Mary said she had played numbers based on family ages and birthdays, so when she began to review the numbers, they jumped right out at her.

"I said, 'Oh my gosh! Oh my gosh! It was me!'" she said.

The Tillmans' ticket originally matched the first five numbers but missed the Powerball to win a $200,000 prize. But Mary also had added the Power Play® option to the winning play, which multiplied the prize to $1 million.

Iowa Lottery CEO Terry Rich said it's always fun to see another instant millionaire in Iowa.

"The Power Play feature is definitely delivering big winners here in Iowa," Rich said.

If your ticket matches the first five numbers in a Powerball drawing and you've added the Power Play, the prize you'll win is always $1 million, no matter what the Power Play number is for that drawing.

The winning numbers in the April 30 Powerball drawing were: 6-13-15-32-41 and Powerball 3. The Power Play number was 2.

Prize Amount: $1 million cash

Federal withholding: $250,000

State withholding: $50,000

Net amount: $700,000

Salute New Veterans' Games in July

Iowa Lottery players will continue to have the opportunity to support veterans' causes in Iowa by purchasing tickets in two new lottery games set to debut in July.

Since July 2008, a portion of lottery proceeds has been dedicated to the Iowa Veterans Trust Fund, where they are used to support our state's veterans. In about three years, the Lottery has raised nearly $8.4 million for the Iowa Veterans Trust Fund. Lottery tickets for the cause debuted in July 2008. Legislation approved that year authorized the Iowa Lottery to create two new instant-scratch games and two additional pull-tab games each year, with all profits from the games dedicated to the Veterans Trust Fund.
