Omaha Mill Worker Claims $14.4 Million Powerball Prize

Jacquelyn Moore of Omaha, Neb., receives a ceremonial $14.4 million check from Iowa Lottery CEO Ed Stanek.

The Iowa Lottery's latest Powerball jackpot winner said that she has a convenience store clerk to thank for her big win, and thank her she will.

"I always said, 'When you're in Vegas, you tip the dealer,' so I've got to give the clerk something," Jacquelyn Moore of Omaha, Neb., said at Iowa Lottery headquarters, where she claimed the $14.4 million Powerball jackpot from the Oct. 16 drawing. "You cannot not give her something."

Moore, 54, a mother of three, has worked for 25 years at a Kellogg's™ cereal plant in Omaha, where her main job is to make Corn Pops™ cereal. She said that the Jump Start convenience store in Carter Lake is a regular stop on her way to work—and the regular spot where she buys Powerball tickets.

The Jump Start will receive a $10,000 bonus from the Iowa Lottery for selling the jackpot-winning ticket in Powerball.

Moore said she stuck her Powerball ticket above one of the sun visors in her pick-up and didn't check it for a few days. Before that, she admits she was growing frustrated with the as-yet-unknown jackpot winner.

"I kept telling my sister, 'Why doesn't that idiot say something or do something?'" she said with a laugh. "Well, I'm the idiot."

"I think my family has been more excited than I am. I called my sister yesterday to tell her and I think she's still screaming, 'I can't believe it! You won, you won!'"

Moore said that while she often plays a set of her own numbers, this time, she bought the easy-pick ticket that clerk Sheila Wright offered her at the convenience store. Moore said it has been fun to see people's reactions.

"I think my family has been more excited than I am. I called my sister yesterday to tell her and I think she's still screaming, 'I can't believe it! You won, you won!' And, I did get four proposals of marriage from co-workers," she said.

Moore, who chose to claim her jackpot as a lump-sum payment of $7.9 million, said that she plans to continue working. She also said she has dreamed all her life of owning a black Porsche, and she just may buy one now. She also plans to pay off debt for herself and her family.

"Debt-free is No. 1 on the agenda," she said. "And part of that debt-free is helping my family. And then, whatever we need to take care of after that." 🐾

Tiffin Man Carries $100,000 Winning Ticket in Truck

An eastern Iowa man picked up a cool check recently as a result of playing the lottery.

Daniel Johnson of Tiffin won $100,000 in the Oct. 13 Powerball® drawing. He purchased his ticket at Suburban BP Amoco, 403 Stephans St. in Tiffin.

Johnson claimed his prize at the Iowa Lottery's regional office in Cedar Rapids.

He said he usually stops at BP Amoco before work. The ticket was clipped in the visor of his truck.

Daniel Johnson of Tiffin

"They ran it through the machine and the guy at the counter said, 'I think you won something big.' Then the other employee came over and said they'd been waiting for me because they knew the $100,000 ticket was sold out of that store, and that's when they told me I won $100,000," he said. "It's Christmas early, I guess!"

Johnson said he will pay a couple of bills and then put the money in the bank for a while. He may invest some of it. He's also thinking ahead to some spring fun.

"I think when it starts to get nice, I'll go shopping for motorcycles," he said.

If Johnson had chosen to play the Power Play, he would have won $400,000.

Players can increase their prizes with the Power Play (except the jackpot) up to five times. Just before the Powerball numbers are drawn, the Power Play wheel is spun. Slots on the wheel list the numbers 2 through 5, indicating the amount prizes (except the jackpot) will be multiplied if that number is drawn.

Powerball Tickets Now Sold Through 29 Lotteries

Powerball®, the most popular lottery game in the U.S., is now sold in 27 states, plus the District of Columbia and the Virgin Islands.

On April 22, 1992 the first Powerball tickets were sold in Iowa and 14 other states. On July 30, Maine became the most recent state to join Powerball.

Back in 1992, Powerball jackpots started at $2 million and rose from there, now they begin at $10 million. Changes also have been made to the pool of numbers players pick from when they play. Most recently, in October 2002, four numbers were added to the first pool of numbers (white balls), allowing players to pick from 1 to 53 instead of 1 to 49.

Due to the larger number of states selling tickets, changes to the pool were necessary to keep the large jackpots coming!
