OpCert Web-based Database Getting an Upgrade

On Monday, February 12th, the Operator Certification, Web-based Database will be down for a few hours in the morning and then back up with a brand new look and functionality. This online site provides quick and easy access to essential certification functions for Drinking Water Treatment, Water Distribution Treatment and Wastewater Treatment Operators, as well as, Private Well Drillers and Pump Installers.

The following online services have been enhanced:

- Exam Eligibility Application submittal and tracking;
- Access to Renewal Application for quick processing;
- Access to online payment function using an electronic check or credit card for all exam application submittal, retest, certification and renewal fees (new “shopping cart” feature added so multiple fees for multiple operators can be made in one transaction);
- On-line registration as an affidavit operator; and
- Access to individual operator details for personal tracking of continuing education and application processing.
