enient License d After "Ding"

Outdoor enthusiasts will have the opportunity to begin a new tradition with the purchase of the new license, effective in 1990.

The new license is available for purchase from the Des Moines Department of Natural Resources.

The license is for Iowa residents and includes fishing, hunting and trapping permits (for furharvesters 16 and over) and the state stamps for waterfowl and trout. At $46.50, it is $46.50 if all of these licenses were purchased separately.

The first edition of this license featuring the Darling self-portrait, printed on quality, waterproof and tear-resistant paper.

In addition to being a good value, the license provides a convenience to outdoor enthusiasts, purchasers will be given a complimentary vehicle decal that is only available with the Ding license purchase. The Darling Foundation has given 1,000, 50-year anniversary complimentary federal duck stamps, designed by the late Jack Musgrove.

The Darling Foundation is also providing the first 2,000 license purchasers a hardbound book, Waterfowl in Iowa, a 130-page book by the late Jack Musgrove with color illustrations by internationally known artist Maynard Reece.

Convenient New License Named After "Ding"

Iowa outdoor enthusiasts will have the opportunity to begin a new tradition in licensing, in 1990.

Called the J.N. "Ding" Darling License, after one of Iowa's most famous conservationists, a new license is available for purchase from the Des Moines office of the Department of Natural Resources.

The license is for Iowa residents and it covers fishing, hunting and trapping requirements (for furharvesters 16 and over), plus the state stamps for waterfowl, habitat and trout. At $46.50, it is $4 less than if all of these licenses were bought separately.

The first edition of this license features a Ding Darling self-portrait, printed on a high quality, waterproof and tear-resistant paper.

In addition to being a good value, well designed and a convenience to outdoor enthusiasts, purchasers will be given an attractive vehicle decal that is only available with the Ding license purchase. Also, the Darling Foundation has given the DNR 1,000, 50-year anniversary commemorative federal duck stamps, designed by Darling in 1935, to give away with the first 1,000 licenses purchased. The DNR also is providing the first 2,000 first-year license purchasers a hardbound copy of Waterfowl in Iowa, a 130-page book by the late Jack Musgrove with color illustrations by internationally known Iowa artist Maynard Reece.

See reverse side for the Ding Darling License Application. The completed application and a check for $46.50 may be mailed or hand delivered to the Iowa Department of Natural Resources, Wallace State Office Building, Des Moines, Iowa, 50319-0034. As with all hunting and fishing licenses, the 1990 edition is effective beginning December 15, 1989.
