Looking for an outdoor activity for your kids this summer?

Register now for Wildlife Camps at State Parks

The University of Iowa is hosting wildlife day camps in several state parks this summer, and there's still time to sign up!

Summer day camps are for 3rd – 7th graders and taught by teachers, naturalist staff and college students. Kids will learn about animals, ecology and the outdoors in a fun, safe environment. Day camps are Monday – Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. each day. Check out the list below to find a wildlife day camp near you!
