Office Hours @ Northwest District

Online Conversations Resume In Zoom Tuesday April 14

Thanks to everyone who attended our first "Office Hours" conversation yesterday! Many expressed that this format will be helpful in the days ahead and is sure to prove a nice way to renew connections with each other. So this will definitely continue in the short term--and will likely be extended even after things return to normal.

For today, this reminder: the next Northwest Office Hours opportunity will be Tuesday April 14 (see details below) We're skipping a week to avoid crowding out the calendar because: the Kids First 2020 Conference takes place next Monday and Tuesday (April 6-7) It's been moved online: plenty of c.e. credit awaits and there's still time to register.

Back to NW Office Hours: If you missed it yesterday, the format is informal: drop in just to chat. These are casual conversations (not for c.e. credit) Come as you are, where you are, whether logging in from home or library. It's especially effective to bring a microphone-headset combo to the conversation. And a web cam, even better!
