Thinking Ahead to Reimbursement

Once the Grant Agreement is signed and you begin making qualifying purchases, keep in mind that taking a few extra steps to print and set things aside in a dedicated folder now can make things much easier down the road when it comes time to filing for reimbursement. Keep all of the following:

- Invoice(s) showing paid in full
- Receipt(s) and bill(s) of sale with a zero balance
- Order confirmation for online purchases
- Payment confirmation for online purchases
- Credit card statements for any purchases made with a credit card
- Copies of checks used to pay either invoices or credit card balances
- Packing slips or bill(s) of goods
- Delivery confirmation emails

Your best bet is to save anything and everything that shows you ordered it, received it, were charged for it, and paid it. Submit all this as proof when you request reimbursement. Make sure the dates on all of the documents are between the date on the signed Grant Agreement and January 22, 2022.
