EXECUTIVE ORDER NUMBER THREE

WHEREAS, the State of Iowa is one of a number of states of the Union which has enacted the Uniform Criminal Extradition Act which is designated as Chapter 759 of the 1962 Code of Iowa, and

WHEREAS, the Governor of the State of Iowa is charged with the administration of the Iowa Uniform Criminal Extradition Act, and

WHEREAS, the Governor of the State of Iowa desires that his administration of the Uniform Criminal Extradition Act be as uniform, fair and equitable as possible, and

WHEREAS, for sometime the State of Iowa has been charging a $5.00 fee as a service charge for handling requisition requests from the sister states of this nation, and

WHEREAS, the Attorney General of the State of Iowa has officially advised the Governor that there is no statutory requirement that a $5.00 service charge be collected, and

WHEREAS, experience has shown that the expense of processing these funds is greater than the amount of income received, and

WHEREAS, fewer than one-half of the states charge such fee and the National Conference of Extradition officials has recommended that this fee be abolished:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of Article IV, Section 1 of the Constitution of the State of Iowa which vests the supreme executive power of the State of Iowa in the Governor, I hereby order the pardon clerk and all those handling extraditions to cease collecting any service charge after December 31, 1965, and I further order that the pardon clerk should notify all extradition officials of the sister states of the Union that the State of Iowa henceforth will not request of collect a $5.00 fee for processing an extradition from another state.
