The included three lists tell the final stories of people who have been killed or reported to have been killed in Iowa in domestic violence related murders from 1/1/1995 through 3/31/22. Full stories of the people killed between 1995-2017 have been archived and can be found at www.iowaattorneygeneral.gov in the "Publications" folder on the Crime Victim Assistance Division's page.

Please treat this information with the dignity and respect deserved by each of the persons noted.

7 women have been added to the list since it was last distributed in September 2021. There is a short summary of each murder and statistical summaries for each list. There is also a statistical list of the combined data of the three lists.

The information in this document is public information and was gathered from the Crime Victim Compensation Program, designated Iowa domestic abuse programs, law enforcement reports, prosecutor reports, and media. Each of the three lists gives a short summary of each homicide case:

2. Men murdered by an intimate partner: A man was killed by his spouse, former spouse, or intimate partner with whom he had lived, dated, or has a child.
3. Bystanders murdered in a domestic abuse related crime: A person killed at the scene of a domestic abuse murder or was related to domestic abuse committed against a family member, friend, or another.

The statistical summaries include:

1. An OVERALL statistical summary and analysis combining data from the other three lists.
2. A statistical summary and analysis of the women killed by their current or former intimate partner;
3. A statistical summary and analysis of the men killed by their current or past intimate partner; and
4. A statistical summary and analysis of the bystanders killed in a domestic violence crime.

The next update of this list will be distributed September 2022, which may be useful in your observance of Domestic Violence Awareness Month in October 2022.

Thank you for the lifesaving work you do and your commitment to Justice.
