Cyclone Victory Promo Roars on Through Sept. 24

Players have a chance through Sept. 24 to enter the "Cyclone Victory" drawing for their chance to win a custom-painted Cyclone Victory Vegas Jackpot™ motorcycle! The promotion began Aug. 25.

If a player's lotto ticket worth $5 or more does not win a prize (this includes Powerball, Hot Lotto, Iowa's $100,000 Cash Game, Pick 3 and Pick 4), they should go to www.ialottery.com to enter the Cyclone Victory 26, 2006.

enter the Cyclone Victory promotion! Please note: plays must be on one ticket to be eligible for entry. Eligible nonwinning tickets must have been purchased Aug. 25 through Sept. 23, 2006, for drawings ending no later than Sept. 23, 2006. Nonwinning tickets must be entered in the promotion on the lottery's Web site by midnight on Sept. 24, 2006. The drawing is Sept.

Players must keep all nonwinning lotto tickets they enter and may use each ticket only once as an eligible entry. For a copy of the official promotion rules, contact any Lottery regional office or go to www.ialottery.com.

Creston Woman Wins $100,000 With Free Ticket

Eulla Genners of Creston

Eulla Genners had never played Iowa's $100,000 Cash Game before, but a birthday coupon she received from the Iowa Lottery made her a big winner.

Genners, 79, of Creston, won the $100,000 top prize playing Iowa's $100,000 Cash Game. The winning ticket was purchased at Hy-Vee, 600 Sheldon in Creston.

Genners said, "I got the birthday card [with the VIP Club coupon] through the mail and that's how we purchased it. Otherwise we don't buy that many lottery tickets. Art plays Powerball when [the jackpot] gets up there and I used to tell him, 'I'd be satisfied with $100,000!' He'd just shake his head."

Genners finally got her wish just in time for her 80th birthday on Sept. 2.

Genners' husband Art checked the winning numbers in the Creston newspaper. Eulla Genners was watching television when seconds later she heard Art shout, "I can't believe it. There must be something wrong!"

She said they will most likely put their winnings in the bank. 🐾

Action Briefs

Players Can't Use Credit Cards for Tickets

Remember that there's a big difference between a debit card and a credit card — even though they may look the same. Many banks offer their customers debit cards that can be used to withdraw money from their checking or savings account. Plus some cards are combination credit cards and debit cards.

If a lottery player hands you a card, it's important that you ask the player which kind of card they are using before you make the transaction. Lottery players can use debit cards to purchase lottery products. However, state law prohibits the use of credit cards to make a lottery purchase. Avoid inconveniencing your customers by checking carefully any card presented to you.

Mary Goodman of Battle Creek

Quick Gas Stop Worth $50,000 for Battle Creek Woman

Mary Goodman, 58, of Battle Creek, won $50,000 playing the “Lucky 7’s” scratch game. She bought the ticket at the Coon Rapids Country Store off Highway 141 in Coon Rapids.

“I scratched off the numbers to match and I’m like, ‘There are a lot of zeros there.’ I scratched some more. I’m like, ‘I don’t know if this is right!’” said Goodman.

“I want to make our living room bigger, pay off a couple of credit card bills. And I have five kids that will probably want something,” said Goodman. “We’re all just very excited!” 🐾

Sapp Bros. Greets Guests With Customer Appreciation Days

Sapp Bros.' coffeepot logo, recognized nationwide, invites all to stop at their locations and "Be our Guest." And for Council Bluffs Customer Appreciation Days in August, Sapp Bros. certainly rolled out the welcome mat!

Sapp Bros. Truck Stops' motto is "Be our Guest."

A whole lot of guests showed up at Sapp Bros.' Customer Appreciation Days held Aug. 7-11 in Council Bluffs, located at the junction of Interstate 80 and Interstate 29.

To celebrate its customers this year, Sapp Bros. Council Bluffs held a pancake breakfast one day and a free lunch the next. General Manager Paulette Cramer said she expected to serve at least 300 free lunches. She added that since they advertised their party in the local newspaper, more would probably come.

"I'm seeing people here that I've never seen before that are not drivers. We're thinking that's the general public, which is what we're trying to do. We want more people to know we're down here," she said as she helped serve food to hungry customers.

The more the merrier, she said. It's good for business!

"They love it! Free food and the drivers are happy campers. A driver today, in fact, told me, 'The only thing better than food is free food!'" Cramer laughed.

35th Anniversary Celebration

Customer Appreciation Days happen every year, but they were extra special this year because it's the company's 35th anniversary, and the Council Bluffs location is celebrating 28 years in business this year.

Sapp Bros. Truck Stops was started by the four Sapp brothers in Omaha, Neb., in 1971. Sapp Bros. has 16 locations across eight states, including the location in Council Bluffs.

Cramer said her store has been having Customer Appreciation Days for about 20 years. They are good for the customer, of course, but she said the celebrations also are good for the employees.

"They love it! Free food and the drivers are happy campers. A driver today, in fact, told me, 'The only thing better than food is free food!'" — Paulette Cramer

"We enjoy it. It gets us out of the offices and out [from] behind the desk and we can talk and chit chat. We see some people come through that maybe we hadn't seen before [or] in a while," Cramer said.

Also during August and early September, Sapp Bros. in Council Bluffs has food specials in its restaurant, 35 percent-off specials in the store and many items on sale for $19.71 to further commemorate the milestone. The restaurant served a chicken fried steak dinner for $3.50, which included a free piece of anniversary cake.

Lottery Retailer Since 1985

Sapp Bros. in Council Bluffs has been selling lottery products since the lottery's inception in August of 1985, and they now sell every lottery product available. Cramer said lottery is very popular at the store and customers like the convenience of being able to buy every product in one place.

Sapp Bros.' lottery sales rank in the top eight percent for overall sales among all Iowa Lottery retailers. The store ranked ninth among 263 retailers in the southwest part of Iowa during the period from April 1 through June 30, 2006.

To boost the lottery's presence in the store, Cramer said Sapp Bros. sometimes gives away lottery merchandise to its customers in drawings.

Sapp Bros. invites you to be their guest next time you're in Council Bluffs! 🍷
