

Lottery Bucks Work Like a Coupon

Enter Numbers on the Left Like You Would With a Coupon

Enter one of these numbers as the “coupon” number on the lotto terminal.

Iowa Lottery Bucks work just like cash for the player. For the retailer, they work like a coupon. We’d like to review some things to remember when cashing Lottery Bucks to assure you get proper credit.

Remember that you must make the play first, then use the Lottery Buck. When cashing Lottery Bucks, use the three-digit “coupon” number listed on the left-hand side of the coupon that corresponds to the game that the player wants to use it for. In other words, if the player wants to buy $5 worth of Powerball tickets, the retailer should enter the number “200” for the $5 Lottery Buck or the number “193” for the $1 Lottery Buck. Enter one of these numbers when asked for the “coupon” number by the lottery terminal. Don’t use the control number printed in the lower right-hand corner of the Lottery Buck. This is an internal control number for the lottery’s use only.

As the example above illustrates, there are two denominations of Lottery Bucks—$1 and $5. The “coupon” numbers on the $5 Lottery Bucks are different than those on the $1 Lottery Bucks.

Remember to keep the cashed Lottery Bucks in your drawer to give back to the lottery in your envelope for proper credit. Please direct any questions to your DSR or to the lottery hot line. 📞

At A Glance...

On This Date in Iowa Lottery History . . .

Nov. 16, 1992: The lottery introduced Bingo, its first $2 game. It played just like the regular bingo game. Customers responded and weekly sales for Bingo checked in at nearly $700,000. Eleven years later, it still remains the favorite scratch ticket of many Iowa Lottery players. 🎰

Lottery Can’t Accept Expired Coupons

When a coupon expires, it must be returned in the Weekly Settlement Envelope for the week it expired or in either of the Weekly Settlement Envelopes for the next two weeks. Expiration dates are printed on the bottom of all lottery coupons. 🎰

There are Lots of Ways to Find Drawing Results Fast!

Most Iowa Lottery drawings are not televised live, but players and retailers alike can still find results fast.

Here's a list of ways you can find drawing results quickly and easily.

- Visit our web site at www.ialottery.com. You'll see the latest results on the home page and you can click on any game to get information about past drawings.
- Many television newscasts carry the results of Iowa Lottery drawings during the news or show the results on the screen as soon as they are available.
- Radio stations broadcast drawing results.
- Most daily newspapers across the state print drawing results in a regular location in the paper each day.
- When you need Powerball jackpot information, check lottery billboards placed in many locations across the state that are updated with the current jackpot information twice per week.

- You can print drawing results for any game from your lotto terminal. Print several so you have them on hand when players ask.

- The lottery has five "Winning Numbers" hot lines you can call to get a recorded listing of the latest numbers drawn. The numbers are: Des Moines: 515-323-4633; Cedar Rapids: 319-393-7884; Mason City: 641-424-9111; Storm Lake: 712-732-2558 and Council Bluffs: 712-242-2163.

- More than 70 radio stations across the state carry a regular feature called "Winning Minute" that airs at a regular time each day and features stories about winners and the latest drawing results.

Don't be at a loss the next time you need drawing results—post this list somewhere handy!

Webster City Woman Wins $200,000 With Power Play

A Webster City woman said she barely believed it herself when she first realized she had won a $200,000 Powerball prize.

"I found out on the Internet," Melody Young said. "I looked it up and I couldn't believe it. I was checking the numbers."

Melody (left) and Marty Young of Webster City

"He didn't believe me, nobody believed me!" Young said with a laugh to her husband Marty.

Young, 38, claimed her $200,000 prize at Iowa Lottery headquarters in Des Moines. She came close to winning it all, matching the first five numbers but missing the Powerball.

Her ticket, purchased at the Kum & Go at 1803 Superior in Webster City, was a $100,000 winner. However, Young also purchased the Power Play option for another $1. The Power Play number in the drawing was 2, which multiplied her prize to $200,000.

"We're going to pay bills. We'll be debt free," Young said. "We're going to pay the house off."

Young, who has twin 19-year-old daughters and a 16-year-old son, said her son picked the numbers that won the $200,000 prize. 🍀

Players Should Be 'Wild' About New Pull-tab!

Double Wild Deuces (pull-tab)

Cost: 50 cents

Top Prize: $50

Odds: 1 in 6.51

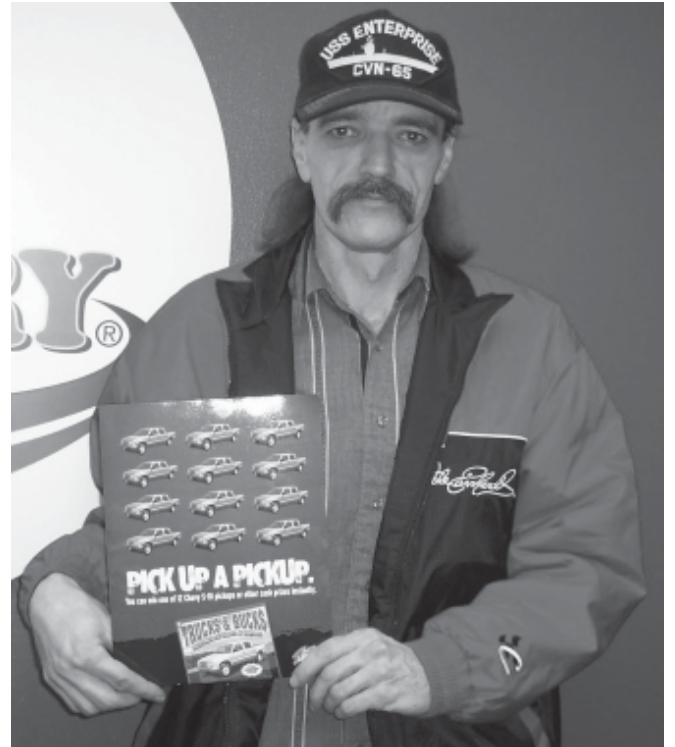

Begin Ordering: Dec. 1

Peel apart the five tabs located on the back of the ticket. Three symbols are printed under each tab. Check all five tab areas. If three consecutive symbols printed vertically or diagonally under any of the tabs match identically any of the winning combinations shown on the ticket front, the player wins the corresponding prize. The "2" symbol is wild. The arrow connecting the symbols indicates a winner. 🍀

Truck Winner Tries To Keep Secret

Ray Britt of Sigourney

A Sigourney man said he almost fell out of his chair when he realized he had scratched a winning ticket for a new truck from the Iowa Lottery.

Ray Britt, 44, of Sigourney, won a 2003 Chevrolet S-10 truck, a prize package valued at $28,000 including required federal and state withholding taxes. Britt said he tried to keep his prize a secret at first.

"I didn't really tell anybody for two or three days. I just kept it quiet," he said.

Britt claimed his prize at Iowa Lottery headquarters in Des Moines. He bought his winning ticket at T-N-T Liquor at 110 East Main in Sigourney, where he works.

Britt says his new truck will come in handy when he drives to California to visit his son, who will be on military leave in November. He also plans to give his grandkids a lift now and then.

"That's enough seating for five grandchildren in there," he said.

Britt claimed the first of twelve trucks available as top prizes in the scratch game. 🍀
