Iowa Lottery Pays Record Prize to Fort Dodge Couple

Tim and Kellie Guderian claim the state's largest prize ever: Sept. 23 $200.8 Million Powerball Jackpot

Last month, Tim and Kellie Guderian claimed the largest lottery prize ever won in Iowa, a $200.8 million Powerball jackpot.

Understandably, the couple said they were still a bit in shock over the news when they claimed their prize.

“We played the lottery about twice a month but never expected to win,” Tim Guderian said. “We had ... stopped to buy a pop and decided to buy a [Powerball®] ticket as well.”

The couple said they didn't check their ticket until they saw the drawing results in the newspaper the next day.

“We have been in shock ever since,” Kellie Guderian said. “Winning this amount of money is simply overwhelming.”

The Guderians bought their winning ticket at Kum & Go, 115 N. 22nd St. in Fort Dodge for the Sept. 23 Powerball drawing. The winning numbers that night were: 13-21-26-45-50 and Powerball 20. The Power Play® number was 4. The jackpot-winning ticket became the sixth ticket sold in Iowa to win the game's big prize.

Tim Guderian, 36, is a former U.S. Marine Corps member who served in the Gulf War and left active duty in 1994. He now works as an automotive detailer at Irwin Auto Company in Fort Dodge. Kellie Guderian, 44, has worked at Wal-Mart for nine years. They have been married for nearly seven years and said they'll likely be spoiling their cat Wally, who is named after the Fort Dodge Wal-Mart store, where they found him as a stray.

The couple said they plan several charitable donations, most within the Fort Dodge community. Both said they plan to continue working, and aren't anticipating any big lifestyle changes.

“We are planning to take a vacation - the first since our honeymoon six years ago - hopefully to Australia,” Tim said. “We are going to pay bills and probably buy a new car.” 🐾

Big Wins Shock Davenport Dad, Buffalo Center Woman

Floyd Rasso, 45, of Davenport won $15,000 playing the "On A Roll" instant-scratch ticket. He purchased his winning ticket at Hy-Vee, 2200 W. Kimberly Road in Davenport.

Rasso, who is a custodial worker for the Davenport school system, made a regular stop with his wife to the Hy-Vee store to return some cans and pick up groceries. They purchased the big winner from an instant-ticket machine on the way out the door.

"I've never seen a big ticket like that before," Rasso said, noting that he had been extremely nervous while holding the winning ticket.

Immediately after scratching the ticket, the Rassos asked the store clerks to verify the ticket was a winner and then received instructions on how to collect their winnings.

"We ... go to the store all the time," he said. "[The store clerks] were happy for us."

Rasso said he will probably pay bills, buy his wife a used motorcycle and give their two children, aged 18 and 13, some spending money with his prize money. 🍀

Deb Anderson, 50, of Buffalo Center won $10,000 in the Oct. 4 Powerball drawing. She purchased the winning ticket at Casey's in Buffalo Center.

"I'm still shaking," she said. "This is one of the [sets of] numbers I've been playing for over 12 years."

The winning Powerball numbers for the Oct. 4 drawing were: 3-7-27-39-40. The Powerball was 8. The Power Play® multiplier was 5.

Deb Anderson of Buffalo Center

"I am going to buy a new stove, refrigerator, washer and dryer," Anderson said. "And a grill!" 🍀
