Events All Over State Kick Off Sales of Mega Millions® Tickets in February

Shortly after Mega Millions tickets hit the streets in Iowa on Jan. 31, the Iowa Lottery staff hit the road to get the word out about the new game.

The lottery held events at retailers around the state, giving away Mega Millions with Megaplier* coupons and speaking to the media about the new game. Photos from two events in eastern Iowa are pictured here.

Clive Woman Researches Lucky Diamonds, Wins $250,000 Top Prize

After doing some research on Iowa Lottery scratch games, a Clive woman decided to buy a "Lucky Diamonds" scratch ticket and ended up winning the game's top prize of $250,000!

Sheryl Crossett said she visited the Iowa Lottery's Web site and looked at the scratch tickets with the largest top prizes and the most top prizes left to win. She decided on Lucky Diamonds and purchased one.

"I went back to my vehicle and I scratched the ticket, and I couldn't believe it!" said Crossett. "So I went back inside and I asked if anybody had better eyes than me because I wanted to be sure it was real!"

When another person assured her it was real, the cashier offered to run the ticket through the lottery terminal to validate it.

"He did that and his eyes got really big but he said, 'I need to shake your hand and congratulate you! It's for $250,000!" Crossett said.

The cashier who sold Crossett the ticket also was at the store when the ticket was validated, so Crossett said they also got to shake hands.

Crossett had to go to work after discovering her win, but called her husband Tim, her mother and two of her children to tell them the news while on the way.

Urge Players To Buy Raffle Tickets Now

Players should hurry to purchase Pot O' Gold Raffle tickets - they're on sale through March 13 or until all 120,000 tickets are sold, whichever occurs first.

The Iowa Lottery's new cash raffle game offers players 112 prizes ranging from an estimated $1,000 up to an estimated $1 million in a St. Patrick's Day drawing.

After the March 17 drawing, the winning raffle numbers will be posted on the lottery Web site at ialottery.com and will be available via print-out from lottery terminals. In addition, the lottery will provide a list of the winning numbers on posters that will be put up in stores and at the lottery's regional offices.

See ialottery.com for rules and complete details.

"They're still in disbelief. I had to send them pictures of the tickets," she said.

Crossett said she plans to continue playing and has several plans for her winnings.

"I would like to take a vacation. I would like to get out of the Iowa snow and go somewhere really, really warm!" she laughed. "I have some bills I would like to take care of. I would also like to purchase myself a new truck and then I plan to invest the rest."

She purchased her winning ticket at Petropointe, 11408 Forest Ave. in Clive.
