Policy

From the WIC Program Goals Manual - 215.08 Notification of Ineligibility Status

You have the right to a hearing if you wish to appeal this decision. Your appeal rights are explained below.

1. Send a written request for a hearing to your local WIC agency within 90 days of receiving this notice.
2. The hearing officer will schedule a hearing within 21 days of receiving your request. You will receive notice of the time, place and date at least 10 days before the hearing.
3. Before and during the hearing, you have the right to read all of the public documents on file about the decision that is under appeal.
4. During the hearing you may speak for yourself or be assisted by a relative, friend, other person, or lawyer at your expense; bring witnesses; question or refute any testimony or evidence; question any adverse witnesses; and provide evidence to establish facts and circumstances related to your case.
5. The local hearing officer will issue a written decision within 45 days of your request for the hearing unless a longer time period is agreed upon by both parties.
6. Either party may appeal the written decision to the Division Director, Division of Health Promotion & Chronic Disease Management, Iowa Department of Public Health. This appeal must be made within 15 days of the mailing date of the decision made by the local hearing officer. The procedures listed above must be followed for a second appeal about the decision.

Information

New Community Health Consultant

The state WIC office is pleased to announce that Nikki Davenport accepted the position for Community Health Consultant! Nikki has worked with the Broadlawns Medical Center WIC Program for seven years. For the past 18 months she has also provided services to the Drake University Head Start Program. Prior to working for WIC, Nikki was employed as a Health Market Manager for Hy-Vee Food Stores for several years. Nikki's enthusiasm, leadership skills and team orientation combined with her WIC experience and program understanding will significantly contribute to state office operations supporting quality nutrition services for all WIC participants.

Nikki will begin work in the state office at the end of August 2012.
