Front Pair, Back Pair Offer Fun Options in Pick 3, Pick 4

Players are enjoying the new Pick 4 game and the expanded Pick 3 game, but they still have some questions about playing them.

One common question from players (and retailers) is about how the “front pair” and “back pair” options work in Pick 3 and Pick 4. Here are several points to remember when players ask about the “front pair” and “back pair” options.

- The player must specify that they want to bet front pair or back pair when they make their play. The player cannot win unless they make a specific front pair or back pair bet.
- The player only needs to pick two numbers when betting front pair or back pair. If the player fills out three or four numbers on the play slip when making either of these bets, the lotto terminal registers only the first two or last two numbers and places an “X” on the ticket where the other numbers would be.
- The player must match the first two numbers drawn in exact order in order to win with the front pair bet, and they must match the last two numbers drawn in exact order to win with the back pair bet. For example, if the player picked “4-5” for front pair and the numbers drawn were “4-5-6”, that player would win the bet. 🍀

Pick 3/Pick 4 Software, Midday Draw Breaks Are New

During the draw break before each lotto drawing, your lotto terminal is not able to generate tickets for a few seconds for the game that is being drawn. Clerks who work in the evening probably are more familiar with this occurrence than those who work during the day. Now that Pick 3 and Pick 4 both have midday drawings, it’s important for day clerks to be alerted of this as well. See the back of each “Lottery Action” for the draw times for each lotto game.

Also, two recent large downloads have slowed service at times on lotto terminals. With the recent changes in games and promotions the lottery has run, we’ve needed to do these large downloads to assure the terminals have the information they need to work correctly. We thank you for your patience. 🍀

At A Glance...

On This Date in Iowa Lottery History . . .

November 1994: The lottery started a new validation system that allowed players to take winning tickets to any retail location. Instant tickets were printed with a bar code and retail locations were equipped with bar code readers to check tickets to ensure they were winners. With the new system, sales increased and players were able to cash tickets more easily. Security for tickets was also increased. 🍀

Check your Lotto Terminal’s Paper Supply

With several promotions running in a row, it’s a good time to check your lotto terminal’s paper supply. Call Scientific Games or use your lotto terminal to order paper. 🍀

Always Ask Customer if Card Is Credit or Debit

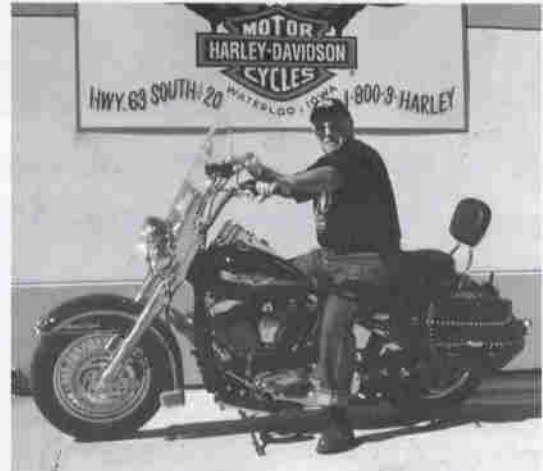

It is acceptable for a player to use a debit card to pay for lottery purchases, but it is illegal for them to use a credit card to do so.

As you sell lottery tickets, remember that there's a big difference between a debit card and a credit card—even though they may look the same. Many banks offer their customers debit cards that can be used to withdraw money from their checking or savings account. Plus, some cards are combination credit cards and debit cards.

If the lottery player hands you a card, it's important to ask the player which kind of card it is before you make the transaction. Avoid inconveniencing your customers by checking carefully any card presented to you.

Harley-Davidson® Winner Riding High With Prize

Jerry Hall of Waterloo, the winner of the lottery's Harley-Davidson® promotion, picked up his 100th Anniversary Heritage Softail® Classic recently in Waterloo. He said he can't wait to show his friends! Hall says he will have to clean out his garage in order to store his new motorcycle, but he doesn't mind!

Coworkers Share $5,000 Powerball Prize

John Ortega of Bettendorf is in charge of purchasing tickets for his office Powerball pool. He likely will keep his position as buyer since the group has now won a $5,000 Powerball prize!

"They are Illinois people, so they don't come across the bridge. I have to do it every day, so I just buy the tickets for us," Ortega said as he claimed the prize for the group.

Ortega purchased the ticket at Gary's Quik Serv, 2545 18th St., Bettendorf. He and the other four in the group work in Rock Island, Ill. He said they will continue to play and hope to win the jackpot next time. He added that he won't come alone to claim the prize next time!

"We're going to ride a limousine all together the next time. I'm hoping to get here soon!" he said.

Surprised Walcott Woman Wins $5,000 Powerball Prize

Barbara Sapp of Walcott

Barbara Sapp experienced a series of emotions as she checked her Powerball ticket and realized that she had won $5,000!

"The first thing I always do is check to see if I have the Powerball. I had the Powerball, so then I started checking the numbers. When I had one, it didn't hit too bad. When I had two, then it started getting better. When I hit three, my knees started shaking. When I hit four, it was just unbelievable. And I just kept thinking, 'Oh, it can't be!'" the Walcott woman said as she claimed her prize.

Sapp, 64, bought her ticket at Mart Stop, 3527 Spring St., Davenport. She said she will put the money in the bank and pay some bills with her winnings.

"I stopped at the bank this morning and told them I'd be back later today, but I didn't know with how much!" she said.
