Action Briefs

Answers to Common Lottery Questions....

Q. When does the Iowa Lottery deduct state and federal tax from a player's prize?

A. The Iowa Lottery does not withhold tax for prizes of $600 or less. By law, prizes of more than $600 will face a 5 percent state withholding tax. If a player wins more than $5,000, an additional 25 percent federal withholding tax will be withheld when the prize is claimed.

Q. What tax information is provided to the winner?

A. All winners of prizes of $600 or more will receive an IRS Form W2-G from the Iowa Lottery. This form will show the prize won and all tax withheld. This information should be filed with the winner's income tax form. The tax withheld will be a credit toward taxes owed; winners may get some of it back, or may have to pay more, depending on their income.

For prizes won in 2012, Form W2-G will be mailed out no later than Jan. 31, 2013. If a player won a prize greater than $600 in 2012 and moved since they claimed the prize, they should contact the Iowa Lottery at 515.725.7900 with their updated address information.

Clinton Man Wins $30,000 Prize on Wedding Anniversary

A Clinton man said the day couldn't get any better after discovering he won a $30,000 prize playing the lottery's "Holiday Crossword" scratch game on his wedding anniversary.

Terrance Cavanagh, 71, said he was passing the time while his wife was at the dentist by scratching a few lottery tickets, but he wasn't expecting to win a top prize.

"It was raining; I just sat in there and scratched them off and there was thirty thousand dollars," Cavanagh said.

Cavanagh claimed his prize Oct. 22, the same day he won it, at the Iowa Lottery's regional office in Cedar Rapids.

He tried to call his wife, Jacky, to tell her the good news but she was still in the dentist's office. He was able to share the news with his children.

"I've got three children and my grandkids and I just called them all," he said. "They said, 'It's not for real.' I said, 'Yes it is.'"

Cavanagh, who is retired, purchased his winning ticket at Casey's, 1107 13th Ave. N. in Clinton. He and Jacky were celebrating their 52nd wedding anniversary.

The couple had already planned a trip to Las Vegas for their anniversary, so Cavanagh said the winnings will just enhance that trip.

"We're leaving in the morning, we were leaving for Las Vegas," he said.
