Triple Advantage: Iowa's Three-Tier System

With the Division's Symposium 21: From Production to Consumption just around the corner, I feel it is appropriate to discuss the three-tier regulatory framework and the advantages the structure offers. As many of you already know, the three-tier system is a way of distributing alcohol instituted in the United States after Prohibition to regulate the alcohol industry. Although each state has its own variation of the three-tier system, each structure involves alcoholic beverages flowing from a manufacturer through a wholesaler to a retailer for sale to consumers. The three-tier model is undoubtedly a benefit to the alcoholic beverages industry, retailers and the public.

Alcoholic Beverages Industry

Before Prohibition, alcohol manufacturers either owned or controlled most retail outlets. These monopolistic activities were unfair to others in the alcoholic beverage industry. The formation of the three-tier structure allows for a transparent and accountable system that permits a level playing field for all market participants. The wholesaler/distributor tier enables manufacturers small and large to get products into the marketplace and provides retailers equal opportunity to purchase alcoholic beverage products.

Retailers

During the pre-Prohibition era vertical monopolies and corrupt sales practices were widespread in the alcohol industry. To prevent such practices after Prohibition, a structure that required each level (manufacturer tier, wholesaler tier and retailer tier) to operate independent of one another was developed. Federal and state statutes and regulations were implemented to further prohibit manufacturers and wholesalers from having financial interests with retailers or influence over retailers. Basically, there was an elimination of manufacturers picking and choosing who they sell product to, and as a result, an environment for healthy competition was created. Consequently, retailers are allowed greater access to products and brand selections than otherwise would be available.

Public

Prior to Prohibition manufacturers either owned or controlled most retail outlets which provided easy access to alcohol resulting in high levels of alcohol abuse and underage sales. Society sought to decrease the amount of alcoholic beverages people were consuming, leading to Prohibition. After Prohibition, society recognized the critical importance of controlling the access and use of alcoholic beverages. The three-tier system inherently facilitates the control and access of alcoholic beverages by state and local licensing. Moreover, the licensing system provides enforcement capabilities to encourage moderate and legal sales and consumption of alcoholic beverages.

Closing

With alcoholic beverage usage prevalent in society through social, religious and medicinal roles, a system to regulate alcohol consistently is essential. The three-tier system provides an accountable regulatory framework that allows society to enjoy a wide variety of choice in alcoholic beverages, while encouraging consumption in moderation. However, changes in the marketplace and the evolving presence of wineries and distilleries in Iowa have created challenges to the three-tier system. In addition, citizens' thoughts on alcohol convenience and consumption have transformed, further supporting modifications to the three-tier system.

As I close, I leave you with this question "Do you want a three-tier system?" When reflecting on this question, keep in mind that altering the three-tier system inevitably distorts the separation of each tier and jeopardizes the control and access of alcoholic beverages to Iowans. I encourage you to contact me with questions or concerns you may have about the three-tier system used in Iowa to regulate the manufacture and distribution of alcoholic beverages.

Sincerely,

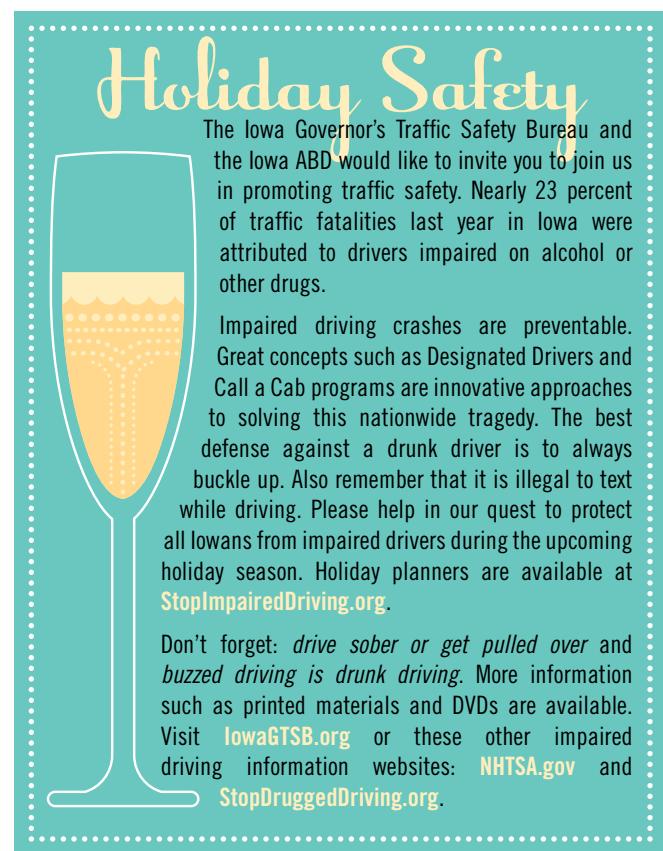

Stephen Larson

Holiday Safety

The Iowa Governor's Traffic Safety Bureau and the Iowa ABD would like to invite you to join us in promoting traffic safety. Nearly 23 percent of traffic fatalities last year in Iowa were attributed to drivers impaired on alcohol or other drugs.

Impaired driving crashes are preventable. Great concepts such as Designated Drivers and Call a Cab programs are innovative approaches to solving this nationwide tragedy. The best defense against a drunk driver is to always buckle up. Also remember that it is illegal to text while driving. Please help in our quest to protect all Iowans from impaired drivers during the upcoming holiday season. Holiday planners are available at StopImpairedDriving.org.

Don't forget: drive sober or get pulled over and buzzed driving is drunk driving. More information such as printed materials and DVDs are available. Visit IowaGTSB.org or these other impaired driving information websites: NHTSA.gov and StopDruggedDriving.org.

FAVORITE ASPECT OF THE DIVISION

The fast moving industry allows for many innovative products to be presented from across spirits categories and all different types of flavors are introduced and brought into the warehouse. It is interesting to see how quickly product in the warehouse changes based on season and what the popular flavor is at the time.

and distribute inventory and sales reports weekly and monthly.

What is the most challenging part of your job?

It is difficult to turn down a product that someone has put so much work into because it does not meet the criteria to be listed. I also have to create and maintain accurate documentation for these products to keep on file for any future interactions with these same items.

What is the best part of your job?

I enjoy being involved with the new products that are accepted into Iowa and watch to see which products succeed. It is also interesting to see all the new innovations and flavors that are out in the industry before making their way to Iowa.

What do you do in your free time?

My husband and I both enjoy traveling to warm, tropical destinations. We have made a few voyages to the Caribbean on cruise ships and have visited all-inclusive resorts in Mexico and Jamaica. It is very interesting to see the different ways of life at the places we have visited. When we are not traveling, I am spending my time trying to plan our next vacation!

I also enjoy spending time with Mike, going shopping and hanging around the house with our cat, Calli. We recently moved into a new house and are currently planning all our decorating and landscaping that will be done throughout the next year.

Think Frosty (Drinks)!

Highlight the beginning of the winter season—and heat up your sales—by promoting frosty drinks featuring shaved ice, ice milk, or ice cream flavored with a wide variety of alcoholic beverages. From easy-to-make adult “cones” and floats to coffee coolers, let it snow, let it snow, let it snow!

Spirited Snowballs

Serve in chilled cocktail or martini glasses. If desired, rim the serving glasses with finely flaked coconut, colored sugar, powdered sugar or cocoa, shaved chocolate, or another garnish that complements the liqueur or spirit of choice.

Fresh ice

Liqueur, brandy/flavored brandy, cognac/flavored cognac, or favorite mixed drink

Complementary fruit, chocolate, candy, or other garnish

Grate fresh ice in a food processor until finely shaved but not powdered. Shape a heaping scoopful of the shaved ice into a ball, and place it in a prepared serving glass. Slowly pour the liqueur, brandy, or cognac of choice or favorite mixed drink over the “snowball.” Garnish, if desired.

Frosted Floats

Serve in a frosted cocktail or martini glass. If desired, rim the serving glass with finely flaked coconut, colored sugar, powdered sugar or cocoa, shaved chocolate, or another garnish that complements the liqueur of choice.

1-2 ounces liqueur of choice

1 scoop ice milk or ice cream of choice

Complementary fruit, chocolate, candy, or other garnish

Pour the liqueur into the prepared serving glass. Carefully float the ice milk or ice cream on top. Garnish, if desired.

Coffee Coolers

Serve in a chilled coffee glass or mug with a chocolate-covered spoon, if desired.

¾-1 cup fresh brewed coffee, chilled

¾-1 cup fresh crushed ice

1½-2 scoops ice milk or ice cream of choice

5-6 tablespoons brandy or flavored brandy of choice

5-6 tablespoons liqueur of choice

Heavy cream to taste, if desired

Combine all of the ingredients in a heavy-duty blender, and process until smooth. Pour into the prepared serving glass or mug.

Scotch: Blending the Old and the New

Hand-selling and personal recommendations can be immensely helpful when it comes to Scotch. . . . Retailers and their staff are perceived as experts, and the more knowledge they can impart to the consumer, the more they will enjoy and experiment within the category.

This past year or so has featured the release of new and tremendously exciting malts, each nudging the envelope and expanding the horizon. So discard the notion of “best” as outdated and overtly subjective. Instead, line your shelves with genuinely intriguing whiskies.

Sharing insider information with a whisky aficionado is an irresistible hook, instilling the person with a sense of ownership in the brand that won’t soon be forgotten.

1-1½ ounces coffee-flavored liqueur

Freshly made hot chocolate

Whipped cream

Chocolate stick or chocolate-covered spoon

Combine the schnapps and liqueur in the prepared serving glass or mug, and top with hot chocolate. Garnish with whipped cream, and serve with a chocolate stick or chocolate-covered spoon.

Mr. P's Pizza & Sports Grill

Pizza and Burgers - NOT by the book

Story & Photos by Zach Schrom and Erin Fitzgerald

“Don’t judge a book by its cover” is an English idiom that holds a sometimes forgotten message: do not judge someone or something before you get to know them. Unfortunately it is part of human nature to forget such a thing. Mr. P’s Pizza and Sports Grill is a book that looks like many others, but inside is one spectacular story.

Renovated dining area

Marty Pippett started Mr. P’s Pizza and Sports Grill 16 years ago in Le Mars, Iowa. Over the years, Mr. P’s became a well-recognized restaurant in the community. Then in 2009, Pippett (the real Mr. P) sold Mr. P’s Pizza and Sports Grill to current owner, Joe Sitzmann. When Sitzmann took over things really started to change.

Over the past four years Sitzmann has been slowly renovating Mr. P’s to make it into something he calls, “What a good sports bar should be.” Mr. P’s is taking on a very modern appearance but with a lot of vintage alcohol and sports memorabilia.

Things started off by installing 15 TVs in the dinning and bar areas so that customers can watch all things sports. Remodels in the main dining section and bathrooms have given Mr. P’s the modern look Sitzmann wants.

“I use a lot of local memorabilia. Iowa pieces, stuff that is a good conversation starter. We are starting to turn into more of an Iowa Hawkeye bar.”

— Sitzmann

Removing many of the artifacts that cluttered the walls was another big change to Mr. P’s. Now the walls hold a variety of original beer memorabilia that gives a vintage look. Sitzmann has a diverse collection of Iowa Hawkeye pieces including autographed jerseys and an original illustration of Herky the Hawkeye.

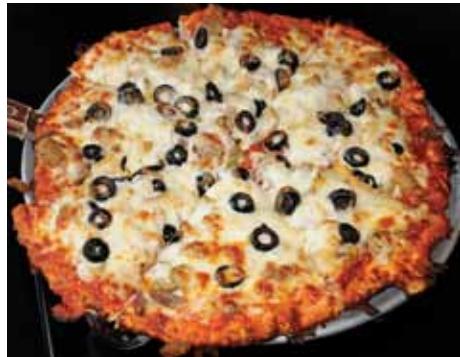

There have been more than just cosmetic changes to Mr. P’s. A big emphasis of change was on improving the menu. The selection of food periodically goes through changes by adding different items or tweaking existing ones. This is all part of Sitzmann's efforts to keep things new, fresh and interesting.

"The Midwest has been a challenge because people don't deviate in taste. So I give them what they like in a new, fresh way."

— Sitzmann

An emphasis has been put on improving the quality of the food as well. By upgrading the standards of ingredients, Sitzmann has revamped the food that Le Mars has come to love. All of the new changes to the menu have not affected what Mr. P's was founded on, pizza. With everything still being made from scratch, Mr. P's special pizza recipe is staying the same.

Combination Pizza

The beverage selection has also undertaken some drastic changes. In the past, there was not much to the drink menu. Now Mr. P's has a cocktail list and a variety of craft beers along with standard brews. People are starting to take notice of the selection, as Mr. P's offers Des Moines beers that are not found elsewhere in the area.

The "Homer" is a local favorite originating to the days when Pippett ran things. The chilled 32 oz mugs filled with a beer of choice is another tradition that is not going anywhere.

The 32 oz Homer

As the seasons change so does the drink selection. Sitzmann likes having beers that are suited with the time of year, so the options are never quite the same. Loast Coast, Bells, Millstream, Great River, Brau Brothers, Breckenridge and Fort Collins are the more popular offerings in Mr. P's stock.

Lemon Drop Martini

While it is easy to judge a book by its cover, you should read a page or two and find the real story. Mr. P's Pizza and Sports Grill is one story that offers fresh innovative ideas that will make you want to grab pizza and beer while you watch the game.

Balancing tradition and innovation, Scotch producers are offering more interesting and complex products than ever before.

BY ROBERT PLOTKIN

Note: This excerpt is printed with permission from the March/April 2012 issue of StateWays—the Beverage Alcohol Merchandising Magazine for Control States.

While dwarfed by the relative size of the bourbon whiskey and Canadian whisky markets, Scotch remains one of the identifiable standard-bearers of the urbane consumer. Its cache of quality, breadth of expression, and dynamic range of flavor has made Scotch a global heavyweight.

Even though Scotch is not the largest of the whiskey/whisky markets, the category still manages to carry more gravitas than others. Single malts have been offering more expressions, superb marketing and packaging, and a strong academic/educational bent. Collectively, they're positioned in a sophisticated, upscale way, lending an importance and weight that's disproportionate to case sales. And despite the difficult economy of the last several years, Scotch distillers have been anything but complacent. To the contrary, they have been working to raise the bar and improve on what they've offered in the past. And great examples of this quest can be found throughout the often overlooked and unheralded category of blended Scotch.

By their very nature, these blended Scotch whiskies are artistic endeavors, the combination of dozens of spirits varying in ages and compositions, produced at a number of distilleries. For retailers, selling these products requires focusing their efforts on educating consumers. Hand-selling and personal recommendations can be immensely helpful when it comes to Scotch. As such, the retail trade is the single-most important entity in the education of consumers. Retailers and their staff are perceived as experts, and the more knowledge they can impart to the consumer, the more they will enjoy and experiment within the category. These are certainly the best of times for devotees of exceptional Scotch.

Single malts have a loyal consumer base, one that is particularly well heeled and diversified in age. The category's strength continues to be with men in the 40- to 50-year-old demographic. More often than not, these consumers purchase based on a recommendation from retailers or through their own discovery and research.

This past year or so has featured the release of new and tremendously exciting malts, each nudging the envelope and expanding the horizon. So discard the notion of "best" as outdated and overtly subjective. Instead, line your shelves with genuinely intriguing whiskies.

Distillers are passionate about what they do, and it is helpful to try to impart the romance and passion behind a brand. Sharing insider information with a whisky aficionado is an irresistible hook, instilling the person with a sense of ownership in the brand that won't soon be forgotten.

- ## TIPS FOR ENJOYING SCOTCH TO THE FULLEST
- For centuries, people have enjoyed the rich, full-bodied taste of scotch neat (straight up with no ice), on the rocks (poured over clean, fresh ice), or with a splash of water. Today's Scotch aficionados, however, argue that to fully enjoy the luscious taste as well as the memorable aroma of Scotch, it must be served neat at room temperature in a tall, narrow snifter or similarly shaped specialty glass.
  - They explain that adding water—or worse, a carbonated beverage—can spoil the taste of Scotch, although they concede that a drop or two of top-quality spring or mineral water can enhance the taste and aroma. They emphasize that chilling Scotch can make it hazy and serving it over ice can change both the taste and aroma. They highly recommend a snifter-style glass to capture the aroma and allow it to be savored.
  - Be sure to help your customers enjoy Scotch to the fullest by giving them serving tips and offering them a variety of both blended as well as single malts so they can discover which ones they enjoy the most.

ABD is launching CALCohol, a mobile site so consumers can calculate their alcohol intake.

Why Calculate?

What is a standard drink? USDA guidelines state that 0.6 ounce of alcohol constitutes a standard drink. However, with new products, container sizes, serving practices and variations in alcohol concentrations, this no longer tells the whole story.

Many new alcoholic beverage products blur the lines between the traditional categories of beer, wine and liquor. The parameters of established alcoholic content have expanded as well. Package shapes and sizes have evolved into boxes, cans and pouches, and the alcoholic content varies widely within each category.

Moderation is a universal guideline. But it is more difficult than ever to determine how much alcohol one is consuming per serving. Making the vague notion of "moderation" even more elusive.

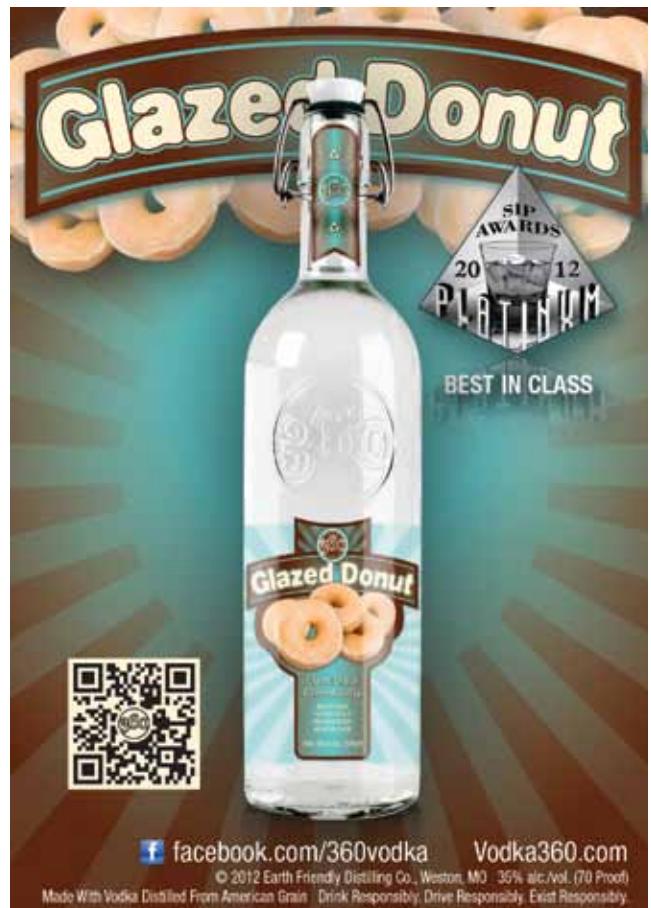

Not all products are created equal. CALCohol removes the guesswork for you. Just enter in the proof and size to know how much you are really drinking.

The Iowa Alcoholic Beverages Division encourages licensees to educate yourselves and your patrons by visiting IowaABD.com for free downloadable CALCohol materials.

Wassail

Wassail originated in early England as a toast to good health. The tradition grew to include a hot drink made with wine, beer, or cider mixed with spices, sugar, and baked apples.

- 4 baking apples
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 2 teaspoons grated nutmeg
- 2 teaspoons powdered ginger
- 3 sticks cinnamon, broken
- 1/2 teaspoon mace

- 6 whole cloves
- 6 allspice berries
- 2 cups water
- 3 fifths Madeira, Marsala, sherry, or port
- 7 eggs, separated
- 1 cup cognac

Core the apples, and bake at 300°F for 35 minutes or until soft but still firm.

Combine the sugar, spices, and water in a saucepan; bring to a boil, and cook, stirring, until the sugar dissolves. Reduce the heat; add the wine, and continue heating, but do not boil.

Beat the egg yolks and whites separately, and then fold them together. Pour the egg mixture into a heat-resistant punch bowl. Slowly add the hot wine mixture, and stir to blend. Stir in the cognac. Add the baked apples, and stir. Serve a bit of baked apple in each cup of punch.

Hot Rum Punch

2 quarts apple or other cider
Brown or white sugar to taste
4 tablespoons butter
2-3 cups rum or flavored rum
Apple and orange slices
Ground cinnamon
Ground nutmeg
Cinnamon sticks

Combine the cider and sugar in a large saucepan, and bring the mixture to a boil over medium-high heat. Reduce the heat, and stir in the butter; add the rum, and stir gently to mix. Remove from the heat, and pour the hot mixture into a heatproof punch bowl. Float the apple and orange slices on top, and sprinkle with cinnamon and nutmeg. Garnish each serving with a cinnamon stick.

Madeira Punch

1 bottle Madeira
4-6 ounces brandy or flavored brandy
Powdered sugar to taste
1 quart chilled club soda
Ice ring
Slices of lemons, oranges, peaches, strawberries, and other fruit of choice

Combine the Madeira and brandy in a punch bowl; add powdered sugar to taste. Add the club soda; do not stir—the bubbles will mix the ingredients. Garnish with the ice ring and sliced fruits of choice.

Holiday Eggnog

64 ounces prepared dairy eggnog or homemade eggnog (see the recipe below)
3 cups alcoholic beverage or combination of beverages of choice (bourbon/flavored bourbon, brandy/flavored rum, cognac/flavored cognac, cream sherry, rum/flavored rum, and/or whiskey/flavored whiskey)
Ground nutmeg
Pour the eggnog into a punch bowl; slowly stir in the alcoholic beverage(s) of choice. Sprinkle nutmeg over the top.

Basic Homemade Eggnog

12 eggs, separated
2 cups sugar, divided
1½ gallons cold milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Beat the egg yolks until thick; gradually beat in 1½ cups of the sugar, and continue beating until thick and lemon colored. Beat in the milk and vanilla. Pour the eggnog into a punch bowl, and slowly stir in the alcoholic beverage(s) of choice.

Using clean beaters beat the egg whites until soft peaks form. Gradually beat in the remaining ½ cup sugar, and continue beating until stiff peaks form. Spoon the beaten egg whites over the eggnog, and sprinkle nutmeg over the top.

SERVING UP HOLIDAY CHEER

As the year draws to a close and the holiday season approaches, annual festive events will be held, many of which will involve the selling or serving of alcoholic beverages. On occasion during the holidays, licensees encounter unfamiliar questions and situations. Compiled below are a few commonly asked questions with brief answers to prevent licensees from violating Iowa's liquor laws during this chaotic time of year.

Q: Can a licensee donate spirits, wine or beer for an event?

A: An Iowa retailer may donate wine or beer in the original, unopened container. A manufacturer, wholesaler, or distributor cannot donate wine or beer. Spirits can never be donated. For charitable events and auctions, an Iowa retailer may donate wine or beer in the original, unopened container. A manufacturer, wholesaler, or distributor cannot donate wine or beer to be auctioned and spirits can never be donated.

Q: Can a licensee be host to a charitable event where wine and/or beer will be auctioned?

A: The holder of a class "B" or class "C" liquor license may allow a holder of a charity beer or wine auction permit to conduct an auction on their licensed premises, but the licensee cannot participate in the auction, supply beer or wine for consumption or auction, or receive any of the proceeds from the auction.

Q: What is the age requirement for individuals to bus tables where glasses of alcoholic beverages are present?

A: A licensee's employee or agent must be at least 18 years of age to serve, sell, or handle alcoholic beverages for on-premises consumption. A person under the age of 18 should not handle a container clearly marked as an alcoholic beverage at establishments where alcohol is consumed on the licensed premises. If a glass contains an alcoholic beverage, always error on the side of caution and only allow someone at least 18 years old to handle the glass. Local ordinances governing minors in licensed establishments may also apply.

Q: How old do individuals have to be to enter a bar? Are there time restrictions for when persons underage can be in establishments that serve alcoholic beverages?

A: There is no state law that requires an individual to be a certain age to gain entry into an establishment that serves alcoholic beverages. Also, there is no state law that restricts entry into an establishment serving alcoholic beverages at a certain time.

However, local authorities may adopt ordinances governing minors in licensed establishments that include age and time restrictions. If the local authority has such an ordinance, the ordinance applies.

Q: Is a licensee selling alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption required to place it in a sack/bag?

A: No, a licensee who sells alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption is not required to place purchased items into a plastic sack or a paper bag.

An on-premises licensee may allow a customer to take home one bottle of wine as long as it has been purchased and partially consumed on the licensed premises. The licensee is required to securely reseal the wine bottle in a bag designed so that it is visibly apparent that the resealed bottle of wine has not been tampered with. A dated receipt must accompany the wine.

Q: Can a retailer provide samples to customers?

A: An on- or off-premises licensee may conduct tastings and samplings on the licensed premises as long as the tasting or sampling involves only those alcoholic beverages that their license allows them to sell.

Tastings and samplings that involve spirits must be conducted on premises covered by a liquor license. Tastings and samplings which involve wine and beer may be conducted on licensed or unlicensed premises.

All laws and rules governing spirits, wine and beer must be observed during tasting and sampling activities (legal drinking age, hours of sale, etc.).

Local ordinances governing tastings and samplings may apply.

Licensees can ring in the New Year without worrying about any post-holiday headaches by being cautious. The Division encourages licensees with further questions to contact the Division at 1-866-469-2223 or 515-281-7400 option 1, to ensure holiday cheer will be served legally.

The Barrel Tree in Lynchburg, Tennessee. All 140 barrels of it.

THIS YEAR IN LYNCHBURG, THE BIGGEST GIFT ISN'T UNDER THE TREE. IT IS THE TREE.

We may have our fair share of traditions here in Lynchburg, Tennessee, but there's always room for one more. This year marks the second annual raising of our Barrel Tree — a 26-foot-tall tree made entirely of Jack Daniel's whiskey barrels. Raised with the help of family and friends, it's our gift to our hometown. Because it's not what's under the tree that matters. It's who's around it.

Come celebrate with us. See the raising of the Barrel Tree JDHoliday.com.
