Temporary Peak Season Product Codes

In an effort to improve our services during peak season we have made some changes to the way we handle the ordering and delivery of holiday items.

In the past, you may have ordered your bulk buys and holiday VAPs by sending in a preorder to the Division and receiving delivery of your holiday items on specific Fridays in October. During this holiday season, you will be able to order holiday items as they become available in the warehouse for shipment and your bulk buys throughout the season for delivery with your regular liquor order. To minimize the need for you to purchase all your bulk buys at one time, you may also order these throughout the season for delivery with your regular order.

To further assist your ability to spread out your bulk buy purchases, holiday promos will run in two month increments: September/October and November/December. These two changes should allow you to better manage your inventory and buying patterns during peak season. Special price allowances (SPA) will still run monthly during the holiday season.

Certain holiday items may be limited to one case per customer to ensure everyone has the opportunity to stock in-demand VAPs and prevent one customer from securing all of our allocation. Certain holiday items will be treated like highly allocated products due to limited availability. You will receive notification of holiday item availability in weekly emails for the general VAPs but will need to be signed up for the highly allocated products notification list to receive information regarding the limited quantity VAPs. To sign up for the highly allocated product notification list please visit IowaABD.com.

The Division is launching an online ordering website this year that will allow you to order products without using the phone, fax or email. This portal will show you product pictures and descriptions, provide information on sizes, pricing and availability and allow you to order with the click of a mouse. You won't need to know product order codes as they will be embedded in the product listing on the website. During the holiday season, this portal will also update you to the availability of holiday items. Please stay tuned for news on this exciting development as we finalize the date it will be available to all licensees to place orders. Ordering of products subject to availability in warehouse.

Please note all below products have varied ship dates between September and November.
