Winter 2011

A Message from IDVA's Director

IDVA Executive Director
Jodi Tymeson

It's an honor to be serving as the Executive Director, Iowa Department of Veterans Affairs. I'm learning quickly how many people and organizations in Iowa are serving veterans and their families. We're working hard to improve communication and coordinate our efforts. IDVA's focus will be on working closely with the Iowa Commission of Veterans Affairs, all the County Commissions and County Executive Directors, as well as all our public, private, and nonprofit partners. I can't overstate the importance of good communication — clear communication with veterans requesting our help, and good communication with all of us in the network of service providers. Education is also a key to our success. We'll need to work hard to keep current on all policy and rule changes, at both the federal and state level.

We've been updating the IDVA website. Be sure to make this one of your favorites and visit often. We are working to reach out to every generation of veteran, and we must embrace the electronic media while keeping our doors open for those who want to visit us in person.

We are currently in the planning stage for the upcoming Spring School of Instruction (16 CEUs) for County Executive Directors. The April school will be held in Des Moines, but I have expressed the willingness to look at moving the school around the state. I welcome your suggestions on how to improve the quality of instruction and ways to hold down costs. We will conduct a training session for new county commissioners in the fall.

It's been a busy first month for me, and I look forward to all the upcoming opportunities to serve veterans and families. ★ Jodi Tymeson, Executive Director, IDVA

Governor Branstad's Goals for Iowa Military

On Inauguration Day, Governor Branstad put on his uniform and conducted a Salute to the National Guard at the State Capitol. He and Lieutenant Governor Reynolds expressed their commitment to military members, veterans, and veterans' families. The following is an excerpt from Governor Branstad's budget summary:

Since September 11, 2001, Iowa's military members have been called upon for an inordinate amount of duty at a great cost to them and their families. Many military members have been deployed multiple times since the war began.

In 2010, over 3,100 Army National Guard soldiers deployed for overseas missions, along with the deployment of 740 airmen from Iowa's three Air National Guard bases, to serve as overseas military support for our country. The Army, Navy, and Marine Corp Reserves provided significant assets to overseas deployments in 2010, as well as hundreds of active duty Iowans serving in our armed forces as members of the Army, Air, Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard.

IDVA Welcomes a New Director

The Iowa Department of Veterans Affairs welcomes Jodi Tymeson as its new executive director! Jodi brings a wealth of experience with her to IDVA. She is the first female promoted to brigadier general in the Iowa Army National Guard; she retired from the Guard in 2007 with 33 years of service. From 2001-2010 she served as state representative for Madison, Warren, and Dallas counties.

IDVA looks forward to Jodi's leadership and her commitment to serving and working with all the veteran organizations and advocates throughout Iowa.

To serve current veterans, as well as the influx of new veterans, Iowa must be prepared to recognize the sacrifices these veterans have made, provide the services they need, and develop the means by which veterans can be made aware of and access these services.

To that end, Governor Branstad proposes the following goals toward supporting Iowa's active military, guard and reserve members:

Create a State Income Tax Exemption for All Active Duty Personnel

The men and women who are actively serving in the military, come from every community in Iowa and from every walk of life. States such as Texas and Florida do not have state income tax. Other states, such as Kentucky and Oklahoma, have recently passed state income tax exemptions for their active duty military. We must do all we can to ensure that Iowa is competitive in encouraging Iowa soldiers and airmen to return to their home state following their service. Their decision to remain in Iowa allows them to continue to work, shop, and pay taxes in Iowa, as well as continuing to be active in their local communities. This tax exemption rewards returning members of the military for their service, dedication, and willingness to protect the rights and freedom we all enjoy.

Commitment to the Iowa Veterans Trust Fund

The Iowa Veterans Trust Fund, funded primarily by a specially-designated Iowa Lottery ticket, has been a tremendous asset to Iowa veterans. Currently the fund contains approximately $10.8 million and grows by about $2 million each year through receipts from the Iowa Lottery and donations. Governor Branstad will commit to protecting the Iowa Veterans Trust Fund proceeds to ensure they are not diverted by the Iowa Legislature for General Fund purposes. He will also work to protect the integrity of the funds by ensuring they are used to meet the needs of Iowa veterans.

Providing Leadership for Collaboration

Governor Branstad will provide leadership to facilitate collaboration among the Iowa Department of Veterans Affairs, the Iowa Veterans Affairs Commissioners, the Iowa Association of County Veterans Service Officers, and other veterans' service organizations. The goal of the collaborative efforts is to develop a more accessible and easier process to ensure all Iowa veterans are made aware of, and are able to access the services for which they are eligible.

Create an Iowa Veterans Job Bank

To further facilitate the ability of employers to connect with returning skilled military personnel, Governor Branstad will direct the Iowa Department of Workforce Development and the Iowa Department of Veterans Affairs to partner and develop a web portal. This portal will provide an easy, direct route to connect employers with trained and dedicated veterans seeking employment.

“Honoring Iowa’s Eternal Patriots” Exhibit

In early 2006, Jerry Brown, Exhibit Designer for the State Historical Society of Iowa, was asked by Governor Vilsack’s office to design an exhibit featuring a photographic tribute to Iowa’s recently fallen soldiers in Iraq and Afghanistan. The title selected for the exhibit, by a consensus of opinion, was “Honoring Iowa’s Eternal Patriots.” The concept was simple — a photographic tribute to the recently fallen soldiers in Iraq and Afghanistan. Originally, the exhibit was located just outside the governor’s office, but in 2007, due to spatial concerns, it was moved to a larger display case near the first floor rotunda. Brown’s primary involvement with this exhibit has been to develop an overall design, to fabricate the graphic panels, and to install and maintain various exhibit components.

Brown stated: “Over the years, numerous individuals have made generous contributions to the success of this exhibit. Mandi Wimmer, the special events coordinator for Governor Vilsack’s office, was instrumental in her capacity as project manager. Michael Vogt, curator of the Iowa Goldstar Military Museum at Camp Dodge, provided knowledgeable input while the exhibit was still in the planning stages and has since loaned the use of relevant military items that have enhanced the scope of the exhibit. Of special note would be Col. Gregory Hapgood, the public affairs officer with the Iowa National Guard, who provided copies of many of the photographs used in the exhibit, as well as invaluable information. Mention should also be made of Tom Hardie and Vern Tyler, retired museum technicians with the State Historical Society, and the Newton Work Release program, all of whom were very helpful during the construction phase of this project. Credit should also be given to the Iowa Department of Veterans Affairs for their ongoing support.”

We thank Mr. Brown for his stunning and moving vision that honors Iowa’s Fallen Soldiers.

Best Wishes to Patrick Palmersheim

We at IDVA warmly say goodbye to long-time Executive Director Patrick Palmersheim, who directed the Iowa Department of Veterans Affairs from January 2002 to January 2011.

Patrick was extremely successful in creating a new vision for the veterans of Iowa — particularly the Iowa Veterans Cemetery, the Veterans Trust Fund, Veterans outreach, and many many more accomplishments. He was instrumental in moving IDVA into the 21st century, yet still maintained a personal touch for his relationships with Iowa veterans.

We sincerely wish Patrick great success in his future endeavors, and extend our sincere thanks for all that he has done for veterans.

Wreaths Across America

On December 11th at 11:00 a.m., the Iowa Veterans Cemetery continued the tradition of Wreaths Across America™ by laying wreaths on every headstone and columbaria plaza, and each memorial as an annual remembrance of the sacrifice that our veterans have made. This is the 3rd year that IDVA has participated in the ceremony.

Iowa Veterans Cemetery – December 11, 2010

Thanks to generous donations from Caseys, Prairie Meadows, and individual families, Wreaths Across America™ delivered over 635 wreaths to be placed on the graves at Iowa Veterans Cemetery. Another commitment to this project included a multitude of volunteers who participated in the laying of the wreaths, including the Knights of Columbus and the Civil Air Patrol IA-007 Northwest Iowa Composites Squadron. The Civil Air Patrol also provided an Honor Guard for the ceremony.

Iowa Flag Flies in Afghanistan and Returns to Iowa

IVC Cemetery Update

Keith Blum, IVC Superintendent reports: "Spring is almost here. The snow is gone — we hope. We are observing a lot of wet ground. The frost appears to be out of the ground and we are trying to stay off the wet grounds so we don't have a lot to repair. We are also looking at fertilizer and grass seed although we won't need much seed because we are using sod around all grave sites."

The Iowa Veterans Cemetery reports that through the end of January there are:

Applications on file: 4,950 ♦ Dependents interred: 114 ♦ Interments: 763 ♦ In Memory of markers: 24

Vietnam War's 50th Anniversary

Vietnam Veterans of America welcomed the announcement by the Department of Defense to move forward with plans to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Vietnam War. After more than three decades after the war's end, they have begun a project to pay tribute to the nation's Vietnam War veterans.

This long-awaited news signifies that, at last, the Defense Department will move forward with plans to fulfill the intent of the 2008 National Defense Authorization Act and support a full range of events to achieve the objectives outlined in the legislation. These include:

- ◆ Thank and honor veterans of the Vietnam War, including personnel who were held as prisoners of war or listed as missing in action, for their service and sacrifice on behalf of the United States and to thank and honor the families of these veterans;
- ◆ Highlight the service of the armed forces during the Vietnam War and the contributions of federal agencies and governmental and non-governmental organizations that served with, or in support of, the armed forces;
- ◆ Pay tribute to the contributions made on the home front by the people of the United States during the Vietnam War;
- ◆ Highlight the advances in technology, science, and medicine related to the military research conducted during the Vietnam War. (Source: VVA)

At the center of the project is a website, "50th Anniversary of the Vietnam War Commemoration," which will serve as a clearinghouse for information on the war once it is fully functional... a milestone expected this Spring. Find it here: <http://www.vietnamwar50th.com>.

Information gleaned from the website is expected to be used for myriad purposes, such as to chronicle facts, provide educational materials, and offer resources for a commemorative partners program.

The partners program will comprise guidance and materials for agencies, veterans groups, local government, and non-government organizations to conduct their own Vietnam War commemoration activities.

The website is expected to play a major role in the campaign, said Jeff Wilson, who handles marketing for the project, noting it will be highly interactive and will include content on historical events, a timeline, photos, documents, video and audio. A calendar will list major Defense-sponsored events. (Source: Terri Moon Cronk, American Forces Press Service)

Local Iowa Commemoration of Vietnam War

A traveling, ¾-scale replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C., is coming to West Des Moines September 16-18, 2011, and Resthaven Cemetery needs help preparing for its arrival. Dedicated to Vietnam Veterans and honoring all U.S. Veterans, the Dignity Memorial® Vietnam Wall is 240 feet long, eight feet high, and contains the names of more than 58,000 Americans who died or are missing in Vietnam. You can honor their sacrifice by joining a committee and helping plan for the three-day exhibition.

Additionally, consider joining the "Dignity Memorial Vietnam Wall Motorcycle Escort," on September 14th. VVA is asking for as many bikers as possible. The escort will begin at Prairie Meadows, escorting the Semi Tractor Trailer through Altoona, Des Moines, and West Des Moines – ending at Resthaven Cemetery. Lunch will be served after the ceremony.

Veterans' Outreach Postcard

The Iowa Department of Veterans Affairs is very pleased to announce that the Iowa Department of Transportation (DOT) is partnering with IDVA by distributing postcards (pictured above) in all 100 DOT license centers (and other venues) around the state of Iowa. State Public Policy Group (SPPG) provided inspired creativity by designing and coordinating the printing and distribution of the cards. DOT clerks will ask customers about military service — and, based on the response — encourage individuals to contact the county or state VA for assistance.

New and Enhanced VA Benefits Provided to Caregivers of Veterans

Unprecedented Law Augments Commitment to Nation's Most Vulnerable Veterans

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) is launching the first of a series of new and enhanced services supporting family caregivers of seriously ill and injured Veterans. In May 2010, President Obama signed the Caregivers and Veterans Omnibus Health Services Act of 2010 legislation authorizing VA to establish a wide range of new services to support certain caregivers of eligible Post-9/11 Veterans.

"Caregivers make tremendous sacrifices every day to help Veterans of all eras who served this nation," said Secretary of Veterans Affairs Eric K. Shinseki. "They are critical partners with VA in the recovery and comfort of ill and injured Veterans, and they deserve our continued training, support and gratitude."

"DAV is happy to hear that caregivers of Veterans are getting additional support and services to care for our nation's heroes and unprecedented new services for our most recent severely ill and injured," said David W. Gorman, executive director of the Washington Headquarters of the Disabled American Veterans. "We understand there are challenges to implementing the new law, including ensuring that critically ill and injured Veterans of all eras are similarly supported."

In addition to the new benefits and services for eligible Veterans who were disabled in the line of duty since September 11, 2001 (Post-9/11 Veterans), the VA will also begin providing enhanced benefits and services to caregivers of Veterans of all eras who are already enrolled in VA care. Iowa Lottery Introduces New Games for Veterans Trust Fund

Two new $1 lottery games have been introduced that will raise money to support Iowa veterans and their families. One is an instant-scratch game called Give Me $20, and the other is a pull-tab game called American Pride.

The sale of lottery games to benefit the Iowa Veterans Trust Fund began in July 2008. "When the project was initially discussed, the Iowa Lottery had estimated at the time that we'd be able to raise between $2 million and $3 million annually for the Iowa Veterans Trust Fund. We remain right on target for a third year to do exactly that," Iowa Lottery spokesperson Mary Neubauer said.

Midway through the third year of the program, Neubauer says the lottery games have raised nearly $7 million for the Iowa Veterans Trust Fund.

"That money is going to help folks with everything from family to individual counseling, job training, tuition reimbursement, emergency housing assistance...there are all sorts of things that veterans can receive assistance with from the Veterans Trust Fund," Neubauer said. (Source: Radio Iowa)

VA Published Final Regulation to Aid Korean War Veterans Exposed to Agent Orange

WASHINGTON - Veterans exposed to herbicides while serving along the demilitarized zone (DMZ) in Korea will have an easier path to access quality health care and benefits under a Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) final regulation that will expand the dates when illnesses caused by herbicide exposure can be presumed to be related to Agent Orange.

"VA's primary mission is to be an advocate for Veterans," said Secretary of Veterans Affairs Eric K. Shinseki "With this new regulation VA has cleared a path for more Veterans who served in the demilitarized zone in Korea to receive access to our quality health care and disability benefits for exposure to Agent Orange."

Under the final regulation published today in the Federal Register, VA will presume herbicide exposure for any Veteran who served between April 1, 1968, and Aug. 31, 1971, in a unit determined by VA and the Department of Defense (DoD) to have operated in an area in or near the Korean DMZ in which herbicides were applied. Previously, VA recognized that Agent Orange exposure could only be conceded to Veterans who served in certain units along the Korean DMZ between April 1968 and July 1969.

In practical terms, eligible Veterans who have specific illnesses VA presumes to be associated with herbicide exposure do not have to prove an association between their illness and their military service. This "presumption" simplifies and speeds up the application process for benefits and ensures that Veterans receive the benefits they deserve.

VA encourages Veterans with covered service in Korea who have medical conditions that may be related to Agent Orange to submit their applications for access to VA health care and compensation as soon as possible so the agency can begin processing their claims.

Individuals can go to website <http://www.vba.va.gov/bln/21/AO/claimherbicide.htm> to get a more complete understanding of how to file a claim for presumptive conditions related to herbicide exposure, as well as what evidence is needed by VA to make a decision about disability compensation or survivors benefits.

Additional information about Agent Orange and VA's services for Veterans exposed to the chemical is available at www.publichealth.va.gov/exposures/agentorange.

Post 9/11 Veterans Educational Assistance Improvements Act

—from Tom Beasley, Iowa Department of Education, Veteran Military Education, a summary of changes resulting from The Post 9/11 Veterans Educational Assistance Improvements Act, otherwise known as Law 111-377:

More programs and training sites eligible to participate in the Post-9/11 GI Bill: Before passage of this act, only institutions of higher learning were eligible to participate in the Post-9/11 GI Bill. The enhancement act expands eligibility to cover other forms of education and training, including certificate programs, apprenticeships, on-the-job training, flight training, and correspondence training.

Payments for Education Assistance: The law modifies amounts payable for tuition, fees, housing stipends, and book allowances under the Post-9/11 GI Bill.

Interval Payments: The enhancement act now only allows payments during periods when schools are temporarily closed under an Executive Order of the President or because of an emergency situation. Veterans will no longer receive education assistance when they are not in school or out of school between breaks in terms or semesters.

Cap on Tuition and Fees: Amounts payable to public institutions for veterans education would equal the actual cost of in-state tuition and fees, reduced by the amount of any institutional, state, federal, or employer-based financial assistance specifically designated to defray tuition and fee expenses. Amounts payable to private and foreign institutions is limited to the actual cost of tuition and fees or $17,500, adjusted annually for inflation, whichever is less.

When an institution enters into a Yellow Ribbon Program (YRP) agreement with VA, it agrees to cover a portion of the student's tuition shortfall. VA then matches the institution's contribution to further reduce or eliminate the student's out-of-pocket expenses. The law will now direct VA to pay tuition and fees or "Net Financial Assistance."

Modifications to Monthly Housing Stipend: The Enhancement Act delays the annual increase in housing stipends from January 1 to August 1, the beginning of an academic year. Stipend payment rates established on August 1 would remain effective throughout the entire academic year.

National Guard: Under the law service performed by National Guardsmen called to duty by the President or the Secretary of Defense under section 502(f) of title 32, U.S. States Code, is now recognized for Post-9/11 eligibility.

Honorable Service Requirement: The Enhancement Act limits eligibility for the Post-9/11 GI Bill for such veterans to those whose service was characterized as honorable.

The Iowa Department of Veterans Affairs wants the children of military personnel who died in the line of duty since September 11, 2001, to know of education scholarships similar to the new Post-9/11 GI Bill. The scholarship, which is administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs, is named after Marine Gunnery Sergeant John David Fry, a Texas native who died in Iraq in 2006 while disarming an explosive. For more information or assistance applying, call toll-free 1-888-442-4551, or visit the VA GI Bill Website at www.gibill.va.gov.

Eligible children may be married. Recipients are entitled to 36 months of benefits at the 100 percent level. When dependents also serve in the military, the reserves, or are veterans in their own right, eligible for education benefits under the Montgomery GI Bill for Active Duty, the Montgomery GI Bill for Selected Reserves, or the Reserve Educational Assistance Program (REAP), then they would relinquish their eligibility under those programs to receive benefits under a Fry Scholarship.
