IOWA DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES

Fishing News Conservation and Recreation

June 1, 2018

Have "reel" fun this weekend!

Grab your family and your poles and go fishing at one of the hundreds of lowa lakes, thousands of miles of rivers or a nearby pond.

Here's a few tips for a fun, fishing weekend.

- Invite a friend or neighbor to come along you'll have a buddy forever and someone to always back up your big fish stories.
- Attend a free, hands-on fishing event to help get your family started. Check our events calendar for a list of this weekend's fishing events.
- Zoom in on our interactive fishing atlas to find out everything you need to know about your favorite fishing spot or pick a new place to explore.
- Get hotspots and fishing news from our weekly fishing report e-mailed directly to your inbox – sign up today!
- Learn how to tie at least one basic fishing knot with our step-by step instructions.

Catch a memory when your favorite young angler hooks their first fish!

Print our First Fish Certificate yourself or request a printed copy.

Share your budding angler's success with family and friends.

Get your First Fish certificate!