

IOWA DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES

State Park News

Conservation and Recreation

August 1, 2018

August is a great time to visit Iowa state parks!

Book a cabin for a family stay

Iowa state parks have dozens of cabins for your family stay! There's still time to book for a week in August in several parks, like Honey Creek State Park (left), Lake Wapello State Park, Lake of Three Fires and more. Check out the reservation system and explore park cabins!

Enjoy a naturalist program for all ages

Many state parks offer fun nature programs and activities for visitors, including night hikes, kayaking demonstrations, kids crafts, and more.

Check out the state park events calendar or talk to park staff about upcoming programs when you visit!

Discover a new hiking trail or revisit a favorite

Travel Iowa has highlighted 9 Hiking Trails for scenic views and great exercise. You can also check out several hiking and trail resource guides on the DNR website.

Enjoy getting back to nature in Iowa state parks!