

IOWA DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES

Iowa DNR News

www.iowadnr.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 7, 2020

DNR, City of Davenport aware of red sheen on Crow Creek

DAVENPORT, Iowa -- The DNR has received numerous reports today of a spill in Crow Creek on the north side of Davenport, causing a red sheen.

The DNR and the City of Davenport determined it to be a non-toxic dye from a nearby property owner. The dye is reportedly non-toxic and should not cause harm; however, the DNR will continue to investigate and determine the possibility of enforcement action.

