Big Ideas Book Discussion: The Enchanted Hour

Thursday, Feb. 20, 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

The first book in the 2020 Big Ideas Book Discussion series is The Enchanted Hour: The Miraculous Power of Reading Aloud in the Age of Distraction by Meghan Cox Gurdon. A writer for the Wall Street Journal, Gurdon looks at how "reading aloud makes adults and children smarter, happier, healthier, more successful, and more closely attached, even as technology pulls in the other direction."

In Big Ideas Book Discussions, State Library staff facilitate discussions using books outside of library management, but with plenty of application to library management. Choosing books on civic engagement, social media, customer service, presentation skills, etc. we'll connect those ideas with public library service.

Changes to Certification in 2020

As announced in the Jan. 6 Monday Morning Eye-Opener, the State Library will be making exciting changes to the Certification program in 2020. With an eye toward streamlining the program for everyone involved, Certification will transition to an "Endorsement" program.

Important notes:

- The State Library will not schedule PLM or PLS this year in the old format to allow time to develop the new program.
- Library personnel with an MLS, or formerly certified via PLM/PLS will be grandfathered in to this new endorsement system.

- Library directors who need to complete their certification to achieve standards and/or to achieve accreditation will be given an extension; we'll work with all individuals affected by this change.

More information will be forthcoming as details of the program are finalized; additional details have been posted at the link below.
