STATE LIBRARY OF IOWA

NE District - March 27, 2020

Hi everyone!

I hope you are all doing well in these interesting times! I'm happy to have spoken to many of you over the last few days, it has been great to connect.

In light of that, let's try something new to keep us all connected. I know many of you like coming together for county meetings or director roundtables, so I would like to invite you to attend an "open forum." I'm planning virtual office hours where anyone is welcome to drop in and chat. I'll be there to talk and listen, but I think the important part will be letting you all connect with each other and talk about whatever is on your mind.

I am planning the first one next Friday, April 3rd from 10:30-11:30 in my Zoom room (<https://zoom.us/j/3194336021>). Headsets or some type of microphone/speaker combo will be important. This can be "come as you are" so if you are home, great! If you are at work, that's fine too! Interruptions by children and pets will be welcome. This is not CE. I would like this to be pretty free and open. I'd like to offer it every week, until we don't need it any more. Remember, this is for you to talk with other area library people about whatever you are dealing with.

Stay Well and join me next Friday!

Eunice
