

Northwest Office Hours Summer Schedule

First and Third Tuesdays June-August

From a bulletin sent last week, this reminder: June through August, Northwest Office Hours will happen on the first and third Tuesdays at 10:30AM in my Zoom Room; the login link is provided below.

There's a method to my madness :-). For one thing, the State Library's "Crisis Response Conversations" concluded in May after a 10-week run. These Wednesday afternoon programs served a very valuable purpose since the COVID crisis began. And now as more libraries reopen, even with reduced hours, available staff time is now more limited and logically focused on welcoming people back inside.

So for these reasons, NW Office Hours will move from weekly meetings to twicemonthly. Here are the upcoming dates, 10:30-11:30AM each time.

Summer Schedule At-A-Glance

- June 2 and 16
- July 7 and 21
- August 4 and 18

As explained in last week's bulletin, tomorrow Tuesday June 16, Scott Dermont is planning to join us at the beginning to talk a bit about the Public Library Annual Survey. The FY20 survey will likely include some questions about how libraries have managed services during the COVID crisis. That plus a great video that Scott discovered--be sure to join us!

Kudos to everyone using microphones and web cams, both are adding a needed personal touch. The office hours format is set up as a casual conversation. There is no C.E. credit because this is really a chance to stay connected, share experiences, and assist each other with questions.

So let's keep meeting! Hoping you can join us on the first and third Tuesday mornings this summer.
