May 15, 2020

We are here to help.

COVID-19 has affected various aspects of life for Iowa residents, communities, and businesses. Information surrounding COVID-19 is rapidly changing and can be overwhelming. To help Iowans navigate information, the Iowa Department of Human Rights has compiled some resources about health and safety, language access, food, employment, grants, and more that we will be sending out in a weekly email. We hope these resources will help Iowans stay safe, healthy, informed, and resilient during these challenging times.

Guidance from the Iowa Department of Public Health on re-opening

On May 13, 2020, Governor Kim Reynolds issued a proclamation allowing more businesses to reopen throughout the state starting May 15, 2020, in a limited fashion with appropriate public health measures in place. Some of the businesses allowed to partially reopen statewide include salons, barbershops, and medical spas. Other businesses such as casinos and some bars will continue to stay closed statewide until May 27, 2020. To view the full proclamation and list of businesses and restrictions, click here. Summaries of the proclamation in multiple languages can be found on the Language Access page on the Iowa Department of Human Rights' website.

The Iowa Department of Public Health has issued guidance and posters about re-opening ("Do your part. Help restart Iowa"). See below for links to the materials in multiple languages.

Protect Yourself and Your Community

- Take steps to protect yourself and your community when out in public.
- Do your Part. Help Restart Iowa.
- Wash your hands often.
- Stay six feet apart from others
- Stay home if you have underlying health conditions, are at high-risk for COVID-19 or if you are feeling ill.
- Consider wearing a mask if you will be in close proximity to others.

Ensure a safe workplace

- Ensure a safe workplace for your employees.
- Provide or allow employees to wear masks when appropriate.
- Offer supplies for hand washing or hand sanitizer.
- Clean and disinfect all high-touch surfaces frequently.
- Stagger work shifts and employee breaks to encourage physical separation.
- Allow employees to work remotely when possible and take leave when ill.

Safe environment

- Welcome back your patrons with a safe environment.
- Post signs at the door saying no one should enter if experiencing symptoms.
- Have employees stay home when ill.
- Offer supplies for handwashing or hand sanitizer.
- Help patrons with social distancing by marking six foot intervals when possible.
- Clean and disinfect all surfaces that are touched frequently.

Crisis Response Helpline

In partnership with 26 Immigrant and Refugee Led Faith and Community Organizations in six cities across Iowa, EMBARC has created a crisis response website to provide accurate and timely information about the coronavirus from credible sources such as the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), the World Health Organization (WHO), Iowa Department of Public Health (IDPH) and County Health Departments.

News are shared via translations, video, and audio recordings in ethnic languages from Burma including Hakha Chin, Mizo Chin, Karenni, Karen and Burmese. Information will also be provided in Kirundi, Kunama, Lingala, French and Swahili, through EMBARC's Community Catalyst Project, an initiative that was launched in 2018 to engage newly arrived refugee-led groups to grow leadership, build collective capacity, and increase impact.
