Tuesday "Office Hours" in October

Grant for Rural/Small Libs & Annual Survey Information

Maryann's Tuesday "Office Hours" continue in October, each Tuesday from 1:30-2:30. These are drop-in sessions, which means no reservation required. Topics vary from week to week because we talk about what YOU want and need to discuss!

This coming Tuesday, October 13, we'll have two guests joining us. Chelsea Price, director of Meservy (IA) library will share information about an ALA grant, "Libraries Transforming Communities," which is a grant specifically for small and rural libraries!

Scott Dermont will also be joining us to share information and field your questions about the COVID-related questions on the Annual Survey. Bring any other Annual Survey questions you have, too!

And, as always, we'll have time for your questions, recommendations, concerns, and comradery. Plan to join this Tuesday, as well as again on October 20 & 27! Simply click on the link in the green box below to join.
