Des Moines Man Claims Largest Powerball® Jackpot Ever Won in Iowa

Hugh Hawkins of Des Moines speaks to the media after he claimed his $113.2 million Powerball prize.

A Des Moines man started off the New Year with a bang on Jan. 3, claiming a $113.2 million Powerball jackpot, the largest lottery prize ever won in Iowa.

"We view this Powerball winning as a tremendous opportunity and a tremendous responsibility," Hugh Hawkins said as he claimed the jackpot. "We believe it provides us with opportunity to do things that we would not be able to do without this financial security - but more importantly, we believe there is great responsibility that comes with this winning.

"We will work to manage this winning in a way that is respectful - and ultimately, in a way that creates good," he said.

Hawkins, 44, was accompanied to the lottery as he claimed his prize by his wife, Cindy, and their children, Alex, 6, and Katie, 3. Hawkins' oldest son Colby, 12, was unable to attend the news conference.

Des Moines Man Wins Powerball Jackpot

Hawkins bought his ticket at Dahl's, 1819 Beaver Ave. in Des Moines, for the Dec. 14 Powerball drawing. Hawkins' ticket matched all six numbers drawn and became the fifth ticket sold in Iowa to win the game's big prize.

He chose to receive his prize in a lump-sum payment of $54,799,833.72.

Hawkins, who works for Metro Engineers of Omaha, Neb., a commercial real estate development company, said he plans to use his winnings to become debt free, but he also has some philanthropy in mind.

"We will be providing money to the Greater Des Moines Foundation and the Omaha Community Foundation so that non-profit, start-up, and in-need organizations can apply for funding through those channels," he said.

Hawkins said he waited for a few weeks after his big win to claim the prize so that he could enjoy the holidays with his family, make plans for what he wanted to do with the money and identify charities that he could help.

Hawkins chose his winning numbers himself and provided this explanation:

- 8 is one of his favorite numbers.
- 15 was the number on his brother's dirt-racing motorcycle when they were young.
- 16 is the date of his wife's birthday.
- 45 is the age he will be on his next birthday in March.
- 51 is a number he randomly chose between 45 and 55, the highest number in the Powerball game.
- 11 is the date of his oldest son's birthday.

Iowa Lottery players now have won five Powerball jackpots. The four previous winners are:

- Ed Brown of Washington, who split a $10.4 million jackpot with a Missouri woman in December 1992.
- Tim Schultz of Des Moines, who won a $28 million jackpot in February 1999.
- The Larry Hasken family of Sabula, who claimed a $31.8 million jackpot in January 2000.
- Jacquelyn Moore of Omaha, Neb., who won a $14.4 million jackpot in October 2004 (she bought her ticket at a convenience store in Carter Lake in western Iowa).

Powerball tickets are sold in Iowa, 26 other states, Washington, D.C., and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Beaverdale Dahl's Store Receives $10,000 Bonus

Dahl's Store Manager Michael Hixson, left, accepts a bonus check for $10,000 from Iowa Lottery Corporate Accounts Manager Tom Warner. Hixson's store at 1819 Beaver Ave. received the bonus because it sold the $113.2 million-winning Powerball ticket for the Dec. 14 Powerball drawing.
