Las Vegas "Instant Millionaire" Show Debuts Oct. 5

Iowa Lottery players can soon be contestants on a Las Vegas television game show offering a top prize of $1 million.

The Iowa Lottery will be part of "Powerball Instant Millionaire," which debuts Oct. 5. The weekly show will be based on a series of $3 instant-scratch tickets.

The game show will be filmed at a studio in The Venetian, a premier resort, hotel and casino on Las Vegas Boulevard, the street known as the "Las Vegas Strip." Contestants will stay

Watch Lotto Ticket Expiration Dates

There's a difference between the expiration dates of lotto tickets sold for Iowa-only games and those for multi-state games. Iowa games' tickets expire 90 days after the drawing for which they are eligible ($100,000 Cash Game, Pick 3 and Freeplay Replay). Multi-state games' tickets are good for 365 days after the drawing for which they are eligible (Powerball, Hot Lotto and Rolldown).

For the past two years, the Iowa Lottery has been part of "Powerball – The Game Show," a weekly TV show that has been taped in Hollywood. Iowa Lottery Commissioner Ed Stanek said contestants have had a ball during their trips to Hollywood for the game show, but most indicated that if they had their choice, they'd rather go to Las Vegas. He said player preference is what led to the development of the show debuting this fall.

“The trip to the show itself is an experience our players will always remember,” Stanek said. “Players have told us repeatedly that Las Vegas is their destination of choice and we’re delivering what they want.”

“Powerball Instant Millionaire” will be produced by Sande Stewart Television, which created the TV game shows “$25,000 Pyramid” and “Chain Reaction.” The new show will be hosted by Todd Newton, the voice of the “E!” entertainment television network and host of “Coming Attractions,” a weekly show on “E!” about the latest films.

The “Lucky Lines” scratch game, which goes on sale July 8, is the current scratch game that can get players on the show. Players who win a “TV Drawing” symbol in the play area can send in their ticket for a biweekly drawing to determine contestants who will appear on the television show.

The new show will feature card, dice and word games. Only one player will advance to the final round and have a chance to play for the top prize of $1 million. The other on-air contestants win at least $1,000 and at-home players also win prizes.

Filming and player accommodations are at The Venetian hotel, resort and casino on the Las Vegas Strip.

Burlington Woman Collects $100,000 Playing Powerball

A Burlington woman said she learned the next morning after the drawing that she'd won a $100,000 Powerball prize.

"I checked the newspaper this morning, which I don't always do, and I thought, 'Gosh, those numbers look familiar,'" Rhonda Brockett said as she claimed her $100,000 prize. "And sure enough, they were mine, all but the Powerball."

ticket at the Home Oil Station at 421 N. Main in Burlington.

Brockett, 42, who works at a Burlington law office, said she and her husband decided to take a couple days off from work to celebrate her win.

"We're going to become debt free and the rest, we don't know," she said. "We'll save some."

But Brockett didn't stop there. Next, she took her ticket to her regular coffee stop and had it checked at the lottery sales terminal.

"It said that it was $100,000," she said. "I couldn't believe it. I asked them probably a dozen times, 'Are you sure?'"

Brockett bought her winning

Des Moines Woman Wins $10,000 Prize

Peggy Curtis Warms Up To Winning Big Hot Lotto Prize!

Peggy Curtis of Des Moines

A Des Moines woman said she started shaking when she realized she'd won a $10,000 prize in the Hot Lotto game.

"It was great. I jumped up and down and started shaking because I was by myself, I didn't have anybody to share it with," Peggy Curtis said. "So, I got on the phone real quick with my husband and told him. He didn't believe me, but I said, 'Yeah, we did.' We're really excited about it."

Curtis, 42, works in the Polk County Clerk of Court office.

She said she learned she was a big winner when she called the lottery's winning numbers hot line early that morning.

"When I got the numbers, they said something about where it was bought and that there was one $10,000 winner, and I just kind of knew," Curtis said. "And then I looked at my numbers and I'd matched!"

Curtis bought her winning ticket at the Short Stop at 1010 S.E. National Dr. in Ankeny. She came close to winning it all, matching the first five numbers and missing only the Hot Ball.

Curtis says she and her family are planning a vacation at the end of the summer, so part of her winnings will go towards that trip.

Hot Lotto offers Powerball-style play, but with easier odds. The Hot Lotto jackpot starts at $1 million and grows until someone wins it. Tickets in the game cost $1. Hot Lotto drawings are held at about 10 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays, just after Powerball.
