LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To His Excellency, ALBERT B. CUMMINS, Governor of Iowa:

DEAR SIR,—In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 87 of the Acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly, as amended by Chapter 105 of the Acts of the Thirty-first General Assembly, I have the honor to herewith transmit a report of the inspections made by the Oil Inspectors of the State, including the receipts and expenditures, during the biennial period ending June 30, 1908.

It is a pleasure to report that the two years covered by this report have been the most profitable to the State of any like period in the history of the inspection service. The total receipts after allowing for rebates on oil shipped out of the State, amount to $107,950.14, exceeding those of the preceding biennial period, the best previous period, by $6,692.70, while the net amount remaining in the State treasury after paying the salaries and expenses of the inspectors and their deputies is $55,257.31, exceeding the net income of the preceding two years by $10,456.45. Thus while the total receipts only increased 6.6 per cent the net income to the State increased more than 23.5 per cent. The total amount paid out by the State for the salaries of the inspectors was $33,626.52, an increase of $226.08 over the amount so paid during the former biennial period, so the great saving was made in the amount paid out for traveling and other expenses of the inspectors and in the amount paid for the services of the deputies and helpers. The amount expended for traveling and other expenses was $8,245.48, as compared with $9,759.37 so expended during the former period, a saving of $1,513.89, or more than 15 per cent, and the amount paid out for the services of the deputies and other helpers was $10,820.80, as compared with $13,372.45 for the former period, a saving of $2,551.65, or more than 19 per cent.

These facts prove conclusively that the inspection service is improving both from the standpoint of efficiency and economy.

To further illustrate this fact and also for the purposes of comparison there has been prepared a table, which appears on page 21 of this report, showing annually for a period of ten years the total number of barrels of oil and gasoline inspected, the total amount of fees received, the amounts paid the inspectors in salaries, the amounts paid out for traveling and other expenses, the amounts paid the deputies and other helpers and the net amounts turned into the State treasury, together with the percentage of the total expenses and the net income of the State relative to the amount of fees collected. This table shows that while the total amount of fees collected, after allowing rebates on oil shipped out of the State, only increased from $39,305.00 in the year ending June 30, 1899, to $54,025.95 in the year ending June 30, 1908, or 37.47 per cent, the net income to the State in the same period increased from $9,712.54 to $28,745.83 or more than 195 per cent. In other words the percentage of increase in the net income to the State in the ten-year period was more than five times greater than the percentage of increase in the total receipts. As the amount paid to the inspectors in salaries increased from $15,281.50 to $16,780.39 or 9.8 per cent, the splendid showing made in the net income is due to the great saving in the amount paid out for traveling and other expenses and in the amount paid in salaries to the deputies and other helpers. The amount paid out for traveling and other expenses was $3,807.92 during the past year as compared with $7,306.65 during the first year of the ten-year period, a saving of 47.88 per cent, while the amount paid to the deputies and other helpers decreased from $7,149.86 in 1899 to $4,691.80 in 1908, or a saving of 34.37 per cent.

The table also shows that the total expenses of the inspection service constituted 75.30 per cent and the net income only 24.70 per cent of the total receipts in the year ending June 30, 1899, while in the year ending June 30, 1908, the net income to the State constituted 53.21 per cent and the total expense only 46.79 per cent of the total fees collected.

The service of inspectors has been such as to merit cordial commendation.

Respectfully submitted,

W. C. HAYWARD,
Secretary of State.
