Building and Loan Associations

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS.

The report herewith submitted contains a statement from fifty building and loan associations. These associations are all domestic-locals; that is, their business is confined to the county in which they are located.

The building and loan associations of Iowa make a report to the Auditor of State for the close of business December 31st of each year, which report is accompanied by a fee of $5.00.

During the biennial period ending June 30, 1916, fees amounting to $495.00 have been collected from these associations and turned into the state treasury.

During the same biennial period, the following associations have been organized:

Ames Building and Loan Association, Ames.
Adel Building and Loan Association, Adel.
Jefferson Building and Loan Association, Jefferson.
McGregor Building and Loan Association, McGregor.
Storm Lake Savings and Loan Association, Storm Lake.
Des Moines Loan and Savings Association, Des Moines.
Alton Building and Loan Association, Alton.
Clear Lake Building and Loan Association, Clear Lake.

The following associations have ceased to do business during the biennial period:

Building, Savings and Loan Association, Winterset.
House Building, Savings and Loan Association, Hawarden.
Savings, Loan and Building Association, Council Bluffs.

The following tables show the condition of the building and loan associations for the year ending December 31, 1915. Table No. 1 shows the names of officers, date of incorporation and number of shares sold or withdrawn during the year 1915, and number remaining in force at the end of the year. Table No. 2 shows the receipts, Table No. 3 the disbursements, Table No. 4 the assets, and Table No. 5 the liabilities.
