REPORT OF ADJUTANT GENERAL

The office of the Adjutant General has been a very busy place during the past two years. The United States has been involved in two wars during this period. At the beginning of the year 1917 the Iowa National Guard, with the exception of the Field Artillery, which was mustered out in December, was in Federal service and was on duty on the Mexican Border guarding the border states from invasion. The organizations were returned to their homes early in the year and by March 23, 1917 were all out of active service.

On March 25, 1917 the President again issued a proclamation calling into active service a part of the National Guard from each state preparatory to entering the World War. In Iowa the First Regiment of Infantry was called into service and placed on duty guarding bridges and munition plants. By July 15, 1917 all other organizations of National Guard had been called into service.

In addition to the original units authority was granted for the organization of three more batteries of field artillery, two more engineer companies, an ammunition train, a signal corps company, an ambulance company, a field hospital company. These were organized according to instructions from the War Department and mustered into Federal service. Colonel Arthur Thayer, U. S. Cavalry, was detailed as Mustering Officer of Iowa on July 14, 1917 and took up his headquarters in the state house close to the Adjutant General's office.

On August 5, 1917 all men who had been mustered into National Guard service were drafted into U. S. service. This took the Guard entirely from under the control of the state. By the latter part of August all Iowa units had left the state.

Circular Letter 17, War Department, dated August 24, 1917 gave the state authority to organize new National Guard organizations under the National Defense Act of June 3, 1916. Authority was granted at this time for the immediate organization of one field hospital, one battalion of field artillery, and one regiment of infantry. Steps were taken at once to organize these units and by the latter part of 1918 this had been accomplished with the exception of the field artillery, of which only one battery was completed.

The hospital unit was organized in Iowa City and was known as Field Hospital No. 3 in command of Major Frank L. Love. This organization was inducted into Federal service on August 31, 1917 through the selective service laws by individual induction. Major Love was later called into Federal service.

The field artillery unit was organized in Burlington and was known as Battery A, 2nd Field Artillery in command of Captain Arthur F. Felker. The selective service laws took so many men out of this organization that the unit was depleted under the minimum required by the War Department and on October 1, 1918 this battery was disbanded.

The infantry organization was known as the Fourth Regiment. This organization to the extent of sixteen units was completely organized by the end of 1918, although only six of these companies had been given Federal recognition.

As a result of the two wars coming so close together no state camps of instruction were held during this period. There was also no rifle practice or matches and no officers' schools, aside from the training schools for officers and enlisted men established by the government.

ARSENAL BUILDING NO. 2

A new arsenal building has been built to house the property of the Federal government and state for the use of the National Guard. This building is located south of Arsenal Building No. 1, across the street.
 It was finished in 1918 and cost approximately $31,000.00. It is three stories high and the dimensions are 40x120 ft. This arsenal is now used by the Federal government for storing property pertaining to the Federal cantonment.

CAMP GROUND

During the last two years the state camp grounds and rifle ranges, known as Camp Dodge, have been increased by the addition of land bought in the immediate vicinity of the original grounds until it now averages 570.66 acres.

In July, 1917, the Federal government authorized the location of a permanent military cantonment on the site of the state camp grounds and called it Camp Dodge. This cantonment is based on the ground owned by the state and the surrounding land.

INSPECTORS—INSTRUCTORS

Lieutenant Colonel Edgar Ridenour, Infantry, was on duty at the State Headquarters as Inspector-Instructor until April, 1917 as was also Captain Clarence E. Fronk, Medical Corps. These men were relieved from duty at the time the National Guard organizations were called into Federal service.

In August, 1918, Lieutenant-Colonel J. T. Davidson, retired, was detailed for such duty. At this time new units of the National Guard were being organized.

SPECIAL DUTY

On duty at the State Fair grounds in 1917 as guards and patrols were the members of the Ammunition Train, which was organized about that time, and they performed such duty with credit to their organization and the Guard.

In 1918 the Fair grounds was in charge of three companies of the 4th
 Infantry; Company A, Council Bluffs; Company B, Des Moines; Company C, Mason City. They received a great many compliments on the way they comported themselves and handled the crowds.

On June 29, 1918 Sioux City was swept by a fire and permission was granted by the Governor to call out Company D, 4th Infantry of that city to patrol that district. Sentinels were posted and working parties organized. This company remained on duty until released by telegraphic orders from the Adjutant General directing dismissal of the company, on July 1, 1918.

THE MILLION DOLLAR FUND

The Thirty-seventh General Assembly of Iowa, 1917, passed a law appropriating $1,000,000 to be expended by the Adjutant General with the approval of the governor for the use of organizing new units and for the care and comfort of the soldiers of Iowa. This was known as the "Million Dollar Fund" and read as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one million dollars, ($1,000,000.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary and authorized, to be used under this act; the same to be used as provided in this act in providing, equipping, and raising, and for the benefit of any military organization of the State of Iowa for service in the armies of the United States, on call of the President.

Sec. 2. That said funds herein appropriated may be used to pay the necessary expenses in securing enlistments. Physical examinations, transportation and sustenance and all other necessary and advisable expenses connected with the organization of such military organizations. The adjutant general of the state of Iowa is hereby authorized to pay to each company, troop, battery, or other similar unit, while in service, for the welfare and comfort of the men, a sum not to exceed the amount now allowed to such units as a total miscellaneous fund under the military laws of the state of Iowa. Such payments may be made, however, monthly instead of semi-annually. The commanding officer of each unit shall account to the adjutant general for all such funds received by him.

Sec. 3. The adjutant general with the approval of the governor of the state may pay out of said fund, to the dependent wife, mother, or children under fourteen years of age of any enlisted man in any such military organization: to any dependent wife or mother a sum not to exceed twenty dollars ($20.00) per month; and to any such minor dependent, not to exceed ten dollars ($10.00) per month; but that said sum to such dependents of any soldier shall not exceed the total sum of thirty dollars ($30.00) per month; provided, however, no such payments shall be made to any such dependents receiving pay as such from the federal government.

Sec. 4. That all sums drawn on said fund shall be drawn by a warrant of the auditor of state on the treasurer of state, upon a requisition made by the adjutant general and indorsed by the governor; and such requisition shall show the exact purpose for which the sum therein named is to be used or has been expended, and all expenditures under this act shall be audited as other state expenditures are audited.

Sec. 5. All expenditures made by the state of Iowa for the purposes named in this act for any other military purposes for which the federal government by its laws now in force or hereafter enacted would be liable, or for which said federal government assumed to be liable, shall be repaid to the state and claim therefor shall be made by the governor for and on behalf of the state of Iowa.

This fund was used to the best advantage according to the judgment of the Governor and the Adjutant General. Recruiting was commenced immediately and organizations completed and taken care of till the Federal government was able to take them over. Various enterprises were undertaken for the betterment of the soldiers in general.

In Section 3 provision was made for properly taking care of dependent families of the soldiers. This, however, was rendered of no account by an act of Congress appropriating a fund for a similar use. As Section 5 stipulated that all expenditures were to be reimbursed by the Federal government a decision was asked of the Judge Advocate General of the Army as to whether reimbursement could be obtained for allotments made under Section 3. The Judge Advocate General ruled that no reimbursements for such purposes could be made inasmuch as the Federal government was undertaking to make such a provision. State allotments could not therefor be made in spite of the good intention of the legislature.

RECOMMENDATIONS

In view of the fact that all members of the National Guard were drafted into Federal service on August 5, 1917 thereby completely depleting the Guard and it is uncertain what will be allowed in the way of re-organization it is impossible to anticipate what changes may be needed.

It is recommended that an increase be made in the allowance for armory rentals to meet present day prices. These armories are to be used for the use of such new organizations as may be authorized by the War Department.

IOWA IN THE WORLD WAR

SUMMARY

Nearly 110,000 officers and men from Iowa served in the Army, Navy and Marine corps in the war against the Central Powers, and of this number the records in the office of the Adjutant General of Iowa show that 9,719 Iowa National Guardsmen were with the colors and that 67,944 entered the National Army through the Selective Service law. However, the Secretary of War states that Iowa is credited with 98,000 men in the Army. The report of the Secretary of the Navy shows 10,000 men in that branch of the service and there were 600 marines enlisted from Iowa. It is safe to say that several hundred enlistments and individual and voluntary inductions are still to be added to the record.

After the declaration of war, April 6, 1917, and before August 5, 1917, nine new units, called for by the War Department, were organized in the Iowa National Guard with a total strength of 1,850 men.

The Third Iowa Infantry, increased to new war strength of 3,605 officers and enlisted men by transfers from the first and Second Infantry regiments, distinguished itself as the 168th Infantry of the 42nd or Rainbow Division on the battle fields of France. The remainder of the Iowa Guard served a year at Camp Cody, Deming, New Mexico and while nearly all of these old guard units finally reached France, they did not enter the fighting line as organizations, although many of their men saw front line service after transfer.

Selected Service men from Iowa were sent to twenty-nine camps or stations, where they went into Depot Brigades, and later were assigned to units. Camp commanders are unable to furnish any information in regard to where any considerable number of Iowa men served, with the exception of Camp Dodge, where it is said that about 8,000 men served in the 88th Division, which saw service over seas.

No reports of deaths and casualties of Iowa soldiers, sailors and marines has been made to this department by the War or Navy Departments, and no authentic lists of casualties is now available, although the best information at hand indicates that Iowa men to the number of 3,300 were killed in battle, died of wounds or disease. The detailed information in regard to casualties will be secured from Washington later and be published in the report of the Iowa War Roster commission, created by the Williams Bill, H. F. 362, passed by the 38th General Assembly of Iowa.

Since the filing of the last report of the Adjutant General of Iowa, which contained a record of service of Iowa National Guardsmen on the Mexican border, Iowa has again sent her guard units into the World's War to fight against autoocracy.

Hardly had Iowa Guardsmen returned from the Mexican border than they were ordered again into service by the President, the total number of Iowa Guardsmen who responded to the call to the colors between March 26 and July 15, 1917 being 9,719. Many more recruits joined these organizations after muster and draft into Federal service, but the record of these enlistments was sent by recruiting officers direct to the War Department, and is not available for this report.

New units were organized upon the receipt of orders from the War Department to fill out the state's quota as planned by the General Staff, and many Iowans applied for permission to organize new units of the Guard and thousands of patriotic young men applied for enlistments after the Guard's ranks were filled and the War Department had settled upon the policy of refusing to increase the guard, announcing that the army would be increased to the desired strength by the application of the Selective Service law.

Iowa Guard units sent into the service were all efficient, but it so happened that only one of them, the Third Iowa Infantry (168th U. S. Infantry) experienced any battle field service. This regiment was a part of the 42nd, or Rainbow, division, and was a composite organization, composed of the Third and parts of the First and Second Infantry regiments. Three-fifths of the enlisted men of the Third, when it left Iowa, had been for some time in the ranks of this regiment. Two-fifths were Guardsmen, transferred from the First and Second Regiments. As a result it was truly a representative Iowa National Guard unit, and its brilliant achievements on the battle fields reflects credit upon the National Guard as a whole.

IOWA NATIONAL GUARD ACTIVITIES

FIRST INFANTRY FIRST ON DUTY

On March 26, 1917, the Governor received an order from the Secretary of War placing on duty the First Infantry, Iowa National Guard, for the purposes of "preventing interference with postal, commercial and military channels and instrumentalities" in Iowa. This telegraphic order was as follows:

Washington, D. C., March 25, 1917.

To The Honorable William L. Harding,

Governor of Iowa, Des Moines, Iowa.

Having in view the necessity of affording a more perfect protection against possible interference with postal, commercial and military channels and instrumentalities of the United States in the state of Iowa, and being unable with the regular troops available at his command to insure the faithful execution of the laws of the union in this regard, the President has thought proper to exercise the authority vested in him by the constitution and laws to call out the National Guard necessary for the purpose. I am, in consequence, instructed by the President to call in to the service of the United States forthwith, through you, the following units of the National Guard of the State of Iowa, which the President desires shall be assembled at the places to be designated to you by the Commanding General, Central Department, Chicago, Illinois, and which said Commanding General has been directed to communicate to you: First Regiment, Iowa Infantry, National Guard.

BAKER, Secretary of War.

The units of the regiment were promptly assembled at their company stations and mustered into Federal service and within two weeks were assigned to duty guarding bridges, government property and designated manufacturing plants at the following points:

Headquarters, Headquarters Company, Supply Company, Machine Gun Company, Companies B and G at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, guarding government property and bridges and other points at Des Moines.

Company A at Dubuque.

Company C at Clinton.

Company D at Sabula; three squads at Aiken, Ill., guarding tunnel.

Company E at Charles City.

Company F; 1 platoon at Yetter, 1 platoon at Fort Dodge.

Company H; 1 platoon at Boone, 1 platoon at Jefferson, 1 platoon at Madrid.

Company I at Burlington; 1 platoon at Media, Ill.

Company K at Fort Madison; 1 platoon at Dumas, Mo.

Company L at Keokuk.

Company M at Ottumwa.

Sanitary Detachment at stations named above.

No other Iowa Guard troops were called to duty until June 20, 1917, when the Secretary of War directed that Company A, Iowa Engineers, be assembled and mustered into Federal Service. The company was ordered to Fort Des Moines and a few days later ordered to Camp Dodge where it was on duty making maps of the cantonment, drawing plans for roadways, water systems, etc. and directing certain construction work.

Company B, Council Bluffs and Company C, Des Moines, were ordered organized by the War Department on June 11 and the organization completed by July 15. The companies were mustered and ordered to Camp Cody, Deming, N. M. where they were joined by Company A, and a battalion organization effected, Major Anson Marston of Ames, in command.

On June 22, 1917 the first battalion of Field Artillery Iowa National Guard, was ordered into Federal service, mustered, and sent to Fort Des Moines, and later ordered to Fort Logan H. Root, Little Rock, Arkansas, still later going to Camp Cody, Deming, N. M. The other three batteries in the regiment were soon organized at Des Moines, Cedar Rapids and Davenport and sent direct to Camp Cody, after being mustered into Federal Service.

On June 11 the Chief of the Militia Bureau, War Department, authorized the organization of an ambulance company, and outpost Signal company. These organizations were soon completed, mustered, and sent to Camp Cody, Deming, N. M.

The last organization in the National Guard to be completed was the Ammunition Train (motor), which was organized between July 13 and July 18, 1917, principally in the larger cities of the state, and mobilized at the State Fair grounds, Des Moines, where the officers and men were given intensive training, and acted as guards during the fair and were later sent to Camp Cody, Deming, New Mexico.

A field hospital had been authorized by the War Department and was federally recognized on May 17, 1917. This was located at Sioux City and was known as Field Hospital No. 2.

On June 25, 1917 an order was issued from the office of the Adjutant General authorizing all organization commanders to place on duty for a period of intensive military training beginning July 1, 1917 all recruits who have not had previous military service in some branch of the Army and Navy. Camps were established in the home stations either in the armories or under tentage.

The organization commander and one commissioned officer were detailed for duty as instructors and enlisting officers. From the enlisted personnel the following men were detailed from those who had had previous service to assist in the care and instruction of the recruits.

One sergeant for each 21 recruits or major fraction thereof.

One corporal for each 7 recruits or major fraction thereof.

One cook for the first forty enlisted men on duty and one additional if company exceeds forty enlisted men on duty.

One bugler for each organization authorized to have buglers.

All officers and enlisted men received the pay of their grade during this time.

On July 3, 1917, the President issued a proclamation calling the National Guard into Federal service on July 15th. This proclamation in part is as follows:

"WHEREAS, The United States of America and the Imperial German Government are now at war, and having in view the consequent danger of aggression by a foreign enemy upon the territory of the United States and the necessity for proper protection against possible interference with the execution of the laws of the Union by agents of the enemy, I, WOODROW WILSON, President of the United States, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of the United States and through the governors of the respective States, call into the service of the United States as of and from the dates hereinafter respectively indicated all members of the National Guard and all enlisted members of the National Guard Reserve of the following States, who are not now in the service of the United States, except members of staff corps and departments not included in the personnel of tactical organizations, and except such officers of the National Guard as have been or may be specially notified by my authority that they will not be affected by this call."

In response to this proclamation, transmitted to organization commanders, the following units responded by assembling at their home stations for muster:

Second Infantry.

Third Infantry.

First Separate Company of Infantry.

First Squadron Iowa Cavalry.

Field Hospital No. 1.

Field Hospital No. 2.

Ambulance Company No. 1.
 Ambulance Company No. 2.
 Outpost Company, Signal Corps.
 Companies B and C Engineers.
 Second Battalion, Field Artillery.
 Ammunition Train.

Colonel A. Thayer, 2nd U. S. Cavalry, reported as mustering officer for Iowa early in July, and on July 20th issued an order designating certain Iowa Guard officers as assistant mustering officers and directing them to proceed to the home stations of Guard units and muster the officers and men into Federal Service. This was soon accomplished.

At this time each Infantry organization had rifle companies of 150 men each. Early in August the War Department specified that each rifle company should consist of 250 men. At this time the Rainbow or 42nd Division was being formed for immediate service in France. To quickly fill the ranks of the Third Infantry assigned to this division, Colonel Thayer on August 15, 1917, issued an order directing the transfer of 1,653 men from the First and Second Infantry regiments to the Third Infantry regiment later renamed the 168th Infantry, which was under orders to mobilize at the State Fair grounds, Des Moines.

As this order made the Third Iowa which later made a brilliant record in the fighting in France, a composite regiment, with men from all parts of the state, the order of Colonel Thayer, is published in part.

STATE MUSTERING OFFICE.

After the call of the President of July 3, 1917 which was the final call for the National Guard units, permission was granted for the organization of several new units. According to this authority a field hospital was immediately organized at Iowa

City under the command of Major Frank L. Love. This was given Federal recognition but was denied the right to be mustered into Federal service as a National Guard unit. They therefor asked to be individually inducted into service according to the selective service regulations and were sent to Fort Riley, Kansas for this purpose. After being individually inducted into service they were then re-organized as a field hospital company. Major Love was not sent with this unit but was later called into service.

The proclamation of the President dated July 3, 1917, not only called Iowa Guardsmen to Federal service, but also drafted them into the Army of the United States on August 5, 1917. Paragraphs two, three and four of the proclamation say:

II. Under the authority conferred upon me by clause second of section one of the Act of Congress "to authorize the President to increase temporarily the military establishment of the United States," approved May 18, 1917, I do hereby draft into the military service of the United States as of and from the fifth day of August, nineteen hundred and seventeen, all members of the National Guard and all enlisted members of the National Guard Reserve of the following States, except members of staff corps and departments not included in the personnel of tactical organizations, and except such other officers of the National Guard as have been or may be specially notified by my authority that they will not be drafted, to wit:.....Iowa.....

III. All persons hereby drafted shall on and from the fifth day of August, nineteen hundred and seventeen, stand discharged from the militia, and, under the terms of section 2 of the Act of May 18, 1917, be subject to the laws and regulations governing the Regular Army, except as to promotions, so far as such laws and regulations are applicable to persons whose permanent retention in the military service on the active or retired list is not contemplated by law.

IV. The members of each company, battalion, regiment, brigade, division, or other organizations of the National Guard hereby drafted into the military service of the United States shall be embodied in organizations corresponding to those of the Regular Army. The officers not above the rank of colonel of said organizations of the National Guard who are drafted and whose offices are provided for in like organizations of the Regular Army, are hereby appointed officers in the Army of the United States in the arm, staff corps or department, and in the grades in which they now hold commission as officers of the National Guard, such appointments to be effective, subject to acceptance on and from the fifth day of August, nineteen hundred and seventeen, and each of them, subject to such acceptance, is hereby assigned as of said date to the organization in the Army of the United States composed of those who were members of the organization of the National Guard in which at the time of draft he held a commission. The non-commissioned officers of the organizations of the National Guard the members of which are hereby drafted are hereby appointed non-commissioned officers in their present grade in the organizations of the Army composed of said members and shall in each case have the same relative rank as heretofore; and all other enlisted men are hereby confirmed in the Army of the United States in the grades and ratings held by them in the National Guard in all cases where such grades and ratings correspond to grades and ratings provided for in like organizations of the Regular Army, all such appointments of non-commissioned officers and confirmations of other enlisted men in their grades to be without prejudice to the authority of subordinate commanders in respect of promotions, reductions and changes in enlisted personnel.

RECRUITING FOR THE WORLD'S WAR

Although Iowa sent 9,719 National Guardsmen into the World's war and is proud of their record in the bloody fields of France and the strenuous training camps at home, there were but 2,242 Guardsmen, who had taken the Federal oath for the third time on April 1, 1917, just before the declaration of a state of war with Germany by the Congress.

Iowa's National Guard troops had returned in January, February and March, 1917, from service along the Mexican border, having been stationed in and near Brownsville, Texas. Denied active service during this tour of duty and asked to subscribe to a third federal oath, many men refused and Governor W. L. Harding and Adjutant General Guy E. Logan were confronted with a serious situation, knowing as they did that a declaration of war against Germany was a matter of but a few days.

On April 1st orders were issued to each unit commander to recruit to the then war strength of 100 enlisted men to the rifle company, and a publicity campaign was started which flooded the newspapers of the state with reasons and arguments why Iowa young men should enlist in the Guard. Windows and sides of buildings were plastered with recruiting posters and circulars. Soon thereafter an order was issued by the war department to recruit to war strength, 150 men to each rifle company. An intensive campaign of a month brought the old organization of the state to war strength at a cost of about $1 per recruit. During this publicity campaign 44,000 pieces of literature were sent out at a cost of $1,415.88 and these included letters from Governor Harding to the mayors of all Iowa cities, the display of recruiting slides in 473 moving picture houses, the hearty co-operation of posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, Camps of Spanish War Veterans, Chambers of Commerce, Commercial Clubs, Rotary Clubs, Knights of Columbus, Masonic Lodges, Advertising Clubs, Modern Woodmen of America, Postmasters of Iowa, Elks Lodges, and a joint letter to precinct committeemen signed by Charles A. Rawson, Republican state chairman and Dr. J. W. Reynolds, Democratic state chairman. The Executive Board of the Iowa State Federation of Labor sent to its 40,000 union men in the state a plea to join the National Guard and be ready to answer the nation's call to arms.

This circular was as follows:

CALL TO ORGANIZED LABOR

Des Moines, Iowa, April 19, 1917.

To All City Central Organizations and Local Unions in Iowa—Greeting:

Dear Sirs and Brothers: The United States is at war with the Imperial Government of Germany and Iowa as one of the most loyal states in the Union, will do her part, and more, to win a decisive victory.

Governor W. L. Harding has asked every mayor in the state to rally about him his officials and patriotic citizens and aid in every way possible to secure 4,000 more men for the Iowa National Guard, the only organization which will carry the name of our state into the conflict.

The Adjutant General of Iowa has called upon many patriotic and fraternal organizations to aid in the movement and now asks the cooperation of the Iowa State Federation of Labor.

The 40,000 organized union men of Iowa are among its most loyal citizens. They love their country and their state and will respond patriotically to the call.

There is no good reason why union men should not answer their country's call and join the National Guard, and every reason why they should. Let all ill feeling, sentiment or opposition be swept aside in this hour of our country's crisis. Trade unionists do and will stand shoulder to shoulder with other defenders of this republic's liberty, regardless of class or calling.

The Adjutant General of Iowa is sending to every manufacturing firm in Iowa a card which the manager can sign and post so all may see this statement above his signature: "NOTICE: The employees of this institution who join the Iowa National Guard during the war with Germany are assured that their positions will be open to them when they return from active service."

If this card is not posted by your employer, it is suggested that you inform the Adjutant General of Iowa who will send you a card which you can hand to your manager.

With your country and state calling for your services in this hour of need, and with your employer promising you your position when the war is over, union men of military age are depended upon to rally to the nearest recruiting station to do their part in defending the integrity and honor of our state and nation.

Iowa and the United States are just as much our state and our country as they are the state and country of any other class of people. Let us show the world that organized labor in Iowa will do its share.

The Iowa State Manufacturers association sent out over 1,000 cards to employers of labor, which promised to men who enlisted in the Guard their positions back after the close of the war. Employers signed these cards and placed them on the walls of their offices and stimulated recruiting.

Thousands of cards promising positions back to employees who enlisted in the Guard were sent to recruiting officers at organization stations with instructions to have them signed and displayed by employers of men in the Guard. The same cards were also distributed by the thousand by the Iowa Coal Operators' association, Iowa State Bankers association, all Iowa Insurance companies, Clay Workers State association, Wholesale grocers association, Retail Merchants association, Iowa State Druggists association, and other commercial organizations.

NEW ORGANIZATIONS FORMED

The campaign of publicity and the stirring events of the early days when the United States entered the war so awakened the state, that Iowa could have enlisted almost any number of volunteers had the war department allowed this procedure. The War Department, however, had determined upon the Selective Service law, and refused to authorize any more units, except the following which were ordered recruited as Guard units from time to time, generally on a few days' notice:

Iowa Ammunition train, later renamed 109th Ammunition train, 34th Division.

Battery D, First Iowa Artillery, Davenport, later named Battery D, Field Artillery, 34th Division.

Battery E, First Iowa Artillery, Cedar Rapids, later named Battery E, Field Artillery, 34th Division.

Battery F, First Iowa Artillery, Des Moines, later named Battery F, Field Artillery, 34th Division.

Iowa Field Hospital No. 2, Sioux City, later Field Hospital Company No. 133 of the 109th Sanitary Train, 34th Division.

Iowa Ambulance Company No. 2, Waterloo, later Ambulance Company No. 133 of the 109th Sanitary Train, 34th Division.

Iowa Signal Company, Ottumwa, later Outpost Signal Company, 109th Field Signal Battalion, 34th Division.

Company B, Iowa Battalion Engineers, Council Bluffs, later Company B, 109th Engineers, 34th Division.

Company C, Iowa Battalion Engineers, Des Moines, later Company C, 109th Engineers, 34th Division.

TRANSFERS AND FINAL RECRUITING

Shortly after the mustering into Federal service of the Iowa Guard units, during July and August, 1917, when each rifle company had 150 enlisted men and other units enlisted strength in proportion, the War Department decided, upon recommendations from the front in France, that rifle companies should have 250 men each instead of 150 men each as previously ordered. Had this information been received a few months earlier, enough volunteers could have easily been secured to fill the ranks to the new war strength. As the situation developed soon after the draft of the guard into Federal Service August 5, 1917, and the selection of the Third Iowa Infantry as part of the 42nd or Rainbow Division, it was decided by Colonel A. Thayer, 2nd U. S. Cavalry, State Mustering Officer, to order fifty men transferred from each rifle company of the First and Second Infantry to the corresponding company in the Third Infantry, thus filling the organization to the new war strength, 250 men per company. Colonel Thayer issued his order for this transfer August 15, 1917, which made of the Third Infantry a composite regiment, three-fifths men of the Third, one-fifth from the First and one-fifth from the Second. Every part of the state was represented in the regiment and hardly a town of any size in Iowa, but had at least one man in this celebrated organization. The First Iowa transferred 813 men and the Second Iowa 840 men, who were ordered to join the Third Regiment at the State Fair grounds the latter part of August, 1917, in time to be with the organization during the State Fair of that year.

This transfer left the First and Second Infantries with but 100 men to the company and they at once commenced anew the work of recruiting which was carried on energetically until they were ordered into service.

While the records of the office of the Adjutant General of Iowa show that the state sent 9,719 National Guardsmen to war it is probable that corrected records will show that the number is nearer 12,000 because the enlistments made after muster into Federal service were not reported to the Adjutant General of Iowa, but to the War Department.

CONFUSION OVER FEDERAL OATH

There had been some difficulty in the Iowa National Guard in regard to the National Defense Oath. When troops were called into service during the Mexican Border trouble in 1916 they were required to take a Federal oath. This oath was taken by all who went to the Border, but on their return the War Department ruled that this oath was not an authorized oath and that another must be sworn to before they would be recognized as a part of the Federal organization. This was accomplished by the officers with a good deal of trouble as it was not thoroughly understood by the men, many of whom refused to subscribe to it.

When the call came for the First Infantry to report at home stations in March, it was found when they assembled that many of these men had not taken the third Federal oath. Some of these took the oath upon reporting, but an equal number refused and were ordered to their homes when their organizations were mustered into Federal service, and retained on the rolls of the Organized Militia, but have since been discharged. Many of these of draft age, registered and were taken into the National Army through the Selective Service system.

FORT SNELLING R. O. T. C.

Throughout the country there were established training camps for men who wished to become Reserve Officers. This course covered three months and constituted an intensive training for men to become officers in all branches of military work and to be commissioned in the Regular Army, the National Army, and the National Guard Army. These men were partly selected from the National Guard and were chosen by the Adjutant General on the recommendation of the company commanders of different units. The following men were selected from the Iowa National Guard and were sent to Fort Snelling, Minnesota. The order for their release from the National Guard was dated May 15, 1917 and they were either discharged to accept commission or returned to their former organizations by August 15, 1917.

MEDICAL TRAINING CAMPS

On May 21, 1917 word came from the Militia Bureau to the effect that a number of officers and enlisted men of the Medical Department were to be called into Federal service to attend training camps. IOWA IN THE WORLD WAR

The Selective Service

Record of Iowa in Responding to the Call Under the Selective Service April 25, 1917 to May 13, 1919

THE SELECTIVE SERVICE

Between April 25, 1917, when the first instructions in regard to the raising of an army by registration, selection and induction, (Act of May 18, 1917) were received by Governor W. L. Harding, and May 13, 1919 when the Iowa State Headquarters for the administration of the Selective Service law were closed, Iowa registered 523,578 men, classified 432,954 men, placed 143,903 in Class 1 for general military service and inducted about 69,000 men into service at a total cost to the Federal Government for administration, but not including transportation of men nor subsistence, of $423,045.52.

During the administration of the Selective Service law nearly 12,000 men and women in every county and city in the state served in various capacities under the direction of the Governor. This force used over 10,000,000 blank forms of various kinds, in carrying out the Provost Marshal General's ever changing rules and regulations. State headquarters issued 1,009 bulletins to the various boards, a total of 130,000 copies and sent 3,024 telegraph messages and nearly as many messages by telephone. In addition thousands of letters were written by various draft officials and hundreds of detailed reports were made.

Iowa was always prompt in meeting every requirement of the Government and generally stood anywhere from first to seventh among the states for promptness and efficiency. All calls for men were met promptly and quotas of men were sent to the designated camps in every instance on the train and day designated. The Selective Service was economically administered in Iowa, the average cost per inducted man being $5.40 as against $7.90 per man as shown by the Provost Marshal's Second Report, consolidating the average for all states.

Iowa draft officials died in line of duty at about the same rate as the soldiers they sent to war. During the administration of the draft eleven Local Board members and one Medical advisory board member died on duty, as follows:

Name	Local Board	Date of death
C. H. WILLIS	Des Moines, No. 2	July 5, 1918
W. T. WRIGHT	Crawford Co.	Dec. 17, 1918
CHAS. A. JOSEPH	Dubuque Co.	Oct. 19, 1917
DR. J. M. LOVELADY	Fremont Co.	Apr. 6, 1919
DR. F. E. WHITLEY	Hamilton Co.	July 25, 1918
DR. N. C. MORSE	Hardin Co.	January, 1919
J. E. CONN	Ida Co.	March 2, 1918
W. S. GOVE	Jasper Co.	August 29, 1918
C. W. ROSE	Lucas Co.	Oct., 1917
C. W. GUTHRIE	Monroe Co.	Nov. 14, 1918
FRANK E. SPEIRS	Polk Co.	Oct. 25, 1918.
DR. L. W. LITTEG, Medical Advisory Board, Iowa City.

This is a death rate of about 3 per cent and it is estimated that 3,300 Iowa soldier dead is about the same ratio of a total number of 110,000 Iowans in the army, navy and marines, and armies of the allies.

During the administration of the Selective Service law hardly a man, woman or child in Iowa was not effected in some manner. The army of Selected Service officials was made up as follows:

No.	Organization
23	State Headquarters, officers and clerks
5,000	Registrars, 1st and third registration
330	Members first registration boards
21	Members District Boards and advisors
531	Local Board members and chief clerks
500	District and Local Board clerks
112	Government Appeal Agents
212	Medical Advisory Board Members
303	Legal Advisory Board Members
3,800	Associate Members Legal Advisory Boards
179	Additional Examining Physicians
112	Dental Surgeons for Local Boards
431	Members Boards of Instruction
112	Soldier clerks

11,666 Total number officials and employees.

Iowa not only sent all selected men called for to camp on time but when the armistice was signed had about 35,000 more class 1 fighting men ready to go and by the end of November, 1918 had 41,094 men in Class 1 ready for service, regardless of the fact that classification of men between the ages of 37 and 45 both inclusive had been stopped, when about two-thirds finished.

In making final recommendations to the Provost Marshal General for changes in the Selective Service Regulations which would improve efficiency if they are ever used again, the Governor on November 21, 1918 said:

"In my opinion the work of administering the Selective Service Law can not be properly brought to a close without some public emphatic recognition of the work of District, Local and Medical Advisory Board members and Government Appeal Agents, and it is therefore recommended that the Congress be asked to adopt suitable legislation to provide for the striking of a medal of appropriate design, to be presented to these officials, with the thanks of the government. It is further recommended that if this authority is granted that Governors of States be directed to summon to the capital of their respective states these draft officials for the purpose of presenting to them the medals with an appropriate ceremony to emphasize the thanks of the nation due these men for their work of raising an army to make the world safe for representative government."

As the work of the Local Boards was being brought to a close on April 3, 1919, Governor Harding sent the following letter to all members of all District, Local, Medical Advisory and Legal Advisory Boards and Government appeal agents:

"After nearly two years of patriotic and industrious work the administration of the Selective Service Regulations is drawing to a close. Boards have shipped their records to Washington and Board members are awaiting their official discharge from a duty which has had much to do with winning the war. Surely this initial work was the basis for the successful army that was developed.

"It has been my welcome duty to supervise this work in Iowa under the direction of the Provost Marshal General at Washington, and I can not allow those draft officials who have so earnestly aided in the discharge of this duty to separate themselves entirely from the draft work, without saying a word of commendation for their services in the past and another word to express for the state of Iowa, my appreciation.

"Unfamiliar with military procedure you were called upon to handle the papers of 523,578 registrants and of this number you sent to camp 69,000 men, and had 35,000 more ready to go when the armistice was signed November 11th. You have met every call made upon you; you have digested a mass of ever changing regulations and orders and placed the record of Iowa for efficiency so high that it has attracted the attention of every state in the Union and won the approval and congratulations of the War Department.

"The general public has no idea of the mass of work performed by draft officials. They do not know of the trials and tribulations caused by the necessity of understanding a mass of regulations with which they had no knowledge at the start, and which must be worked out by study at night, while draft officials were busy by day conferring with registrants and their friends and relatives. The public, however, may have some idea of the work discharged, when they understand that the records of the Boards, sent to Washington, would fill twenty-five box cars.

"The second report of the Provost Marshal General shows that while the national average cost per man inducted in the United States was $7.90, the average cost in Iowa was $5.40 per man, a remarkable showing for economy.

"So impressed have I been with the value of the work discharged by draft officials in Iowa, that I have recommended to the Provost Marshal General, that the Congress be urged to officially thank them in the name of the Nation, in some suitable manner.

The Selective Service administration was under the direct charge of Brig. Gen. Guy E. Logan, Adjutant General from its inception until July 1, 1918, when General Logan resigned to enter the Army as a Major in the Adjutant General's Department, and his duties were assumed by Brig. Gen. Louis G. Lasher, appointed Adjutant General.

REGISTRATION

Preparation for the first registration in Iowa, under the act of the Congress approved May 18, 1917, was commenced upon April 25, 1917, when Governor W. L. Harding received a letter outlining the provisions of the contemplated war legislation from the Provost Marshal General, Major General E. H. Crowder. Complying with the instructions in this communication the Governor at once prepared for the organization of registration boards in each county, who in turn named registrars for the 2,297 voting precincts in the state.

By the time the Selective Service law was approved May 18, 1917, the office of the Adjutant General of Iowa had distributed the registration regulations and 1,000,000 blank forms to carry on the work of registering all males between the ages of 21 and 30 both inclusive. Sheriffs of counties and mayors of cities with over 30,000 population had charge of the details of this work. In each precinct there was a chief registrar, responsible for the work, and as many assistant registrars as were found necessary to complete the task.

The Provost Marshal General fixed June 5 as registration day and all males in Iowa of the designated ages, with few exceptions, registered as directed by the law, and the returns of the registration were compiled in the office of the Adjutant General and sent to Washington.

As the war progressed and the calls for men increased, the Provost Marshal General directed a second registration on June 5, 1918, of all males who had reached their 21st birthday since the first registration. Later a supplementary registration was ordered on August 24, 1918 for all males who had reached their 21st birthday since June 5, 1918.

The final registration was ordered for September 12, 1918 and included all males aged 18 and 19 and 31 to 45 both inclusive and was under the direct control of the Local Boards, who named the registrars and their assistants and made the returns to state headquarters.

The results of the three registrations by Local Boards is as follows:

SELECTION

Following the first registration the Provost Marshal General directed the selection of a Local Board for each county and in addition thereto the division of the larger cities and counties which had over 30,000 population, into sections, each having a Local Board. Under this rule Clinton county was divided, the city of Clinton being Board No. 1 and the rural district Board No. 2. Des Moines was given four Local Boards, Davenport two, Sioux City two, and one each for the cities of Council Bluffs, Waterloo, Cedar Rapids and Dubuque. The personnel of these Local Boards was to some extent the same as the first Registration boards.

Each Local Board promptly gave each registration card a serial number, commencing with one and running through the list. Then followed the drawing of 10,000 order numbers at General Headquarters in Washington. The order in which each serial number came from the lottery, determined the order the registrant was to be called. Master lists of order numbers were sent to each Local Board and each registrant was assigned an order number in accordance with the regulations.

Under the first regulations, known as Rules and Regulations prescribed by the President, form 13, registrants were first called for physical examination, to fill the first quota, and if they sought exemption a multitude of forms were provided which they and their relatives and friends could prepare and file with the Local Board for its ruling thereon, or, for forwarding to the district board having jurisdiction, for proper action. Under the law the District Boards had appellate rights on cases decided by the Local Board and original jurisdiction on agricultural and industrial claims, with the understanding that recommendations of Local Boards were to be given serious consideration. Later on when the Selection Service Regulations, forms 999 and 999A, were issued, the questionnaire took the place of the multitude of forms used before that time and the physical examination did not take place unless the registrant was placed in Class one, for general military service.

The result of physical examination and exemption by the different Local Boards in Iowa is shown by the following table, taken in part from the Provost Marshal General's first report:

QUOTA BASIS AND BOARD QUOTAS.

The first Federal apportionment of state quotas upon which was based the quotas to the Local Boards in Iowa, was made on July 12, 1917, as soon after the boards had organized as possible. This quota basis was based on the population of Iowa as shown by the state census of 1915, the estimates of the Federal Census Bureau having been discarded after a close study which showed many errors. The total number of men apportioned was 1,152,985 from which were deducted the credits for voluntary enlistments in the territory of each local board, these figures being furnished by the Adjutant General of the army. The difference was the net quota. This gave Iowa a gross quota of 25,421 and a net quota of 12,749.

Five local boards in Iowa had no net quota, the entire gross quota having been filled by voluntary enlistments. These local boards were: Cedar Rapids, Council Bluffs, Hamilton county, Page county and Story county. The following tabulated data furnished by the Provost Marshal General, to whom local boards made a report direct, concerning the first draft, gives the gross quota and net quota by boards, and other data regarding exemptions and physical examination:

On May 16, 1918 the Government, by act of Congress, changed the basis of quotas by states and Local Boards, from a basis of population to a basis of class 1 fighting men. This followed the change of the first exemption regulations to the classification method, whereby all registrants were quickly classified in one of five classes. As a result of this action more basic changes were made in the quota basis, for the legislation was retroactive.

Four other quota sheets were issued by the Provost Marshal General, No. 2 on May 1, 1918, No. 3 on June 1, 1918, No. 4 on August 15, 1918, and No. 5 on October 1, 1918. A provisional computation for a quota sheet based upon 12 per cent of the class I men in the September registration was prepared, but later canceled with the signing of the armistice.

MOBILIZATION

Iowa sent its first selected men to camp under the Rules and Regulations as prescribed by the President, Form 13, on September 5, 1917, and the contingent consisted of men sent to Camp Dodge. From then on until November 11, 1918, approximately 70,000 selected men were sent to camp. The exact number of men inducted is not obtainable at this time because of the failure of some Local Boards to report individual inductions and because the Provost Marshal General has not published his final report, which is expected to contain this data.

With the exception of individual inductions and some transferred inductions, Iowa men were sent to various camps or posts as follows:

SLACKERS, DELINQUENTS, DESERTERS.

There were very few intentional draft evaders in Iowa, and these were divided into three classes, "slackers" men who failed to register, "delinquents" men who failed to fill out and return questionnaires or to appear for physical examination when ordered and "deserters," men who failed to obey the order of the Adjutant General and report to him after failure to return questionnaires or appear for physical examination or men who having been ordered to report for entertainment failed to do so.

Practically all the cases of these three classes in Iowa were under the first registration of June 5, 1917 when some men did not understand the working of the law and regulations, and where the call for physical examination or the demand for a completed questionnaire came several months subsequent to registration and after the registrant had changed his address. Few delinquents and deserters were found in the class of June-August, 1918, or the class of September 12, 1918, particularly as with the signing of the armistice November 11, 1918, the Provost Marshal General ordered that questionnaires in the second series of men aged from 37 to 45 both inclusive should be recalled making delinquency in these ages impossible.

There were perhaps fifty cases of men who failed to register in Iowa under such circumstances that the Local Boards sent the cases to the federal judge having jurisdiction who, after a hearing ordered that they should be given order numbers that would send them to mobilization camps with the next contingent.

The 112 Local Boards in Iowa reported 4,835 cases of men on form 1013 or 146A for failure to return questionnaires or to report for physical examination and of this number the cases of 1,041 registrants were cleared up and were not reported to the Adjutant General of the Army as deserters. The number of men reported by the Adjutant General of Iowa to the Adjutant General of the Army as deserters on form 1018 was 3,587. Just before the closing of the Local Boards and State Headquarters the Provost Marshal General directed a rechecking of desertion records and this showed a total of 3,206 men in Iowa reported as deserters for failure to appear for physical examination or to return questionnaires. Many of these were foreigners who had moved from their old addresses and could not be reached and many others were men who had enlisted in the army, navy or marines and their questionnaires never reached them. These revised lists were forwarded to Washington and will be checked against the army records and later on the Adjutant General of the Army will issue a corrected list of deserters probably also offering a reward of $50 for the apprehension of each man.

There were but 129 men reported by Local Boards for failure to appear for entrainment, making a grand total of deserters in Iowa of 3,335, subject to correction by the Adjutant General of the Army for cases of men who have enlisted in the army, navy or marine corps, or in the armies of the allies.

The total number of class 1 fighting men classified by boards but not all physically examined was 143,903 which gives a trifle more than 2 per cent deserters, and this will probably be reduced to 1 per cent by corrections by the Adjutant General of the Army.

The deserters reported by Local Boards are as follows:

"WORK OR FIGHT" ORDER IN IOWA.

The Provost Marshal General's "Work or Fight" order issued May 17, 1918, had considerable effect in Iowa, but not in proportion to the effect in the eastern states with their large cities and more numerous idle class. Reports from Local Boards in Iowa of August 31, 1918, show that during the preceding three months 66 Local Boards applied the order and 46 did not.

The consolidated summary shows:

First: Number of registrants who were notified to appear on account of idleness or non-productive occupations 883.

Second: Number of registrants who have notified boards of a change to productive occupations 649.

Third: Number certified to District Boards under Section 121 G, 238.

Fourth: Number notified after action by District Boards that their order numbers or deferred classification has been withdrawn on account of idleness or non-productive occupation 236.

Fifth: Number found by District Boards to be engaged in productive occupations 203.

The following table indicates the Local Boards who applied the "Work or Fight" order and the result, the five columns corresponding with the five paragraphs above:

MEDICAL EXAMINERS.

The excellent physical showing made by Iowa selected men at their examination at mobilization camps reflects credit upon the 503 physicians who served at one time or another on Medical Advisory Boards or as the medical member of Local Boards or as additional examining physicians. Of the 112 physicians originally appointed as the medical members of Local Boards, 96 served throughout the war, three died in service and thirteen resigned to accept commissions in the Medical Reserve Corps.

There were thirty-three Medical Advisory Boards in Iowa with a total membership, at one time of 212. These boards were selected by Major W. W. Pearson, Medical Aide to the Governor, assisted by Dr. D. S. Fairchild, Sr., Dr. Thos. B. Throckmorton and Dr. Walter L. Bierring. Of this membership in the course of a year thirty-two entered the federal service, one died and ten were removed by an order from the Provost Marshal General directing that the membership be reduced so that more physicians would be available for the army.

Camp rejections of inducted men from the several states because of physical defects from February to September, 1918, placed Iowa in seventh place. A later compilation placed Iowa in fourteenth place. This drop was not the fault in any way of the Iowa physicians who had examined these men, but was the fault of either the War Department or the army officials at Fort Riley, Kansas. On August 20, Iowa Local Boards were ordered to send 600 class C men, for limited service, to Fort Riley. When they arrived they were examined by army surgeons as class A fighting men, and nearly all rejected. Every effort was made to ascertain who was at fault for the blunder without avail, the Fort Riley officials asserting that they were not informed that the 600 men were sent as class C men. As a result the government was out several thousand dollars for transportation to and from camp and Iowa dropped from a high mark to fourteenth place.

The work of the medical examiners reached the high water mark during the examination of the first series of registrants of the class of September, 1918, when Iowa was the fourth state in the Union to finish its work, and the second state in its class, according to population.

While medical members of Local Boards and additional examining physicians received pay for their services, upon presentation of proper vouchers, members of Medical Advisory Boards received no compensation. So many physicians entered the army during the closing months of the war that it was feared that the work of examining class 1 men would be crippled and some communities were without adequate medical service. As a result the Provost Marshal General in September, 1918, issued an order that no more physicians connected with the selective service administration would be released for army service. During the epidemic of influenza in the fall of 1918 it was found necessary to send special examiners from the larger cities to aid Local Board physicians in discharging their duties.

NEGRO REGISTRANTS.

The consolidated report on Form 1045 as of March 12, 1918, tells a condensed story of negro registrants. It shows registrations as follows:

June 5, 1917.....	1,074
June-August, 1918	132
September 1918, ages 19 to 36.....	435
September 1918, ages 37 to 45.....	*114
September 1918, age 18.....	144
Total.....	2,911

* (Classification not finished)

Of this number 891 were placed in Class 1 and sent to camp; and this included all of the Class 1 men of the class of June, 1917, a total of 788.

Of the class of June-August, 1918, a total of 84 were sent to camp and six were sent from the first series, ages 17 to 36 of the registration of September 12, 1918.

EMERGENCY FLEET.

The regulations of the Provost Marshal General providing for deferred classification for registrants in the employ of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, did not have much effect in Iowa, the records showing that only 369 Class 1 men among Iowa registrants, were so deferred.

Neither was there many religious and conscientious objectors in Iowa the record showing:

Class of 1917.....	868
Class of June-August, 1918.....	69
Class of September 12, 1918.....	417
Total.....	1,354

TWO IOWA DISTRICT BOARDS.

The Selective Service law gave original jurisdiction in agricultural and industrial claims to the District Boards. Iowa had but two District Boards, one for northern Iowa and one for southern Iowa, the line of demarkation being the line separating the northern from the southern federal judicial districts. Iowa is an agricultural state with many farmer registrants, and these two boards were busy continuously from June, 1917, until November 16, 1918, when District Boards ceased to function.

The members of these two District Boards were appointed by the president upon recommendation of Governor Harding and the boards were composed as follows: One member who was in close touch with the agricultural situation of the district, one member who was familiar with the industrial situation, one member who was in close touch with labor, one physician and one lawyer.

During the classification of the registrants of June 5, 1917 and June-August, 1918, the District Boards were without advice or assistance save that gathered from the recommendations of Local Boards, from the registrants themselves and from information asked for from reliable persons living near the home of the registrants seeking deferment.

When the larger registration of September 12, 1918, for men aged 18 and 19 and from 31 to 45 was reached, the Provost Marshal General provided for Advisory Boards for District Boards, consisting of three men, one an agriculturalist, one a laborer and one informed concerning industry.

GOVERNMENT APPEAL AGENTS ACTIVE.

During the administration of the draft in Iowa, 112 government appeal agents were on duty, one for each Local Board in the state. Serving without pay or even expenses for a clerk, they transacted a great amount of public business and had much to do with making the high record for efficiency which the Hawkeye state achieved.

Government appeal agents were nominated for presidential appointment under the Rules and Regulations Authorized by the President in May, 1917. Their duties were not only to represent the government, but to represent any ignorant registrant, whose rights may have been overlooked by the Local Board, in the hurry of passing upon many judicial and executive questions.

In many cases county attorneys were named government appeal agents, and in all cases they were the leaders at the bar in their community. The regulations provided for automatic appeals in some cases, but as a general thing the government appeal agents were required to keep in constant touch with their Local Boards and investigate every questionable decision and if necessary file an appeal with the District Board.

Many Government Appeal Agents had little or no time left after discharging this uncompensated duty for the nation and for a year and a half scores of them in Iowa made little pretense of practicing their profession. This sacrifice for the country was made without a word of complaint and without even a thought that their services should be compensated as were those of the Local and District Boards.

Government Appeal Agents had to be familiar with the ever changing regulations issued by the Provost Marshal General, and while the Local Boards had exclusive judicial power to decide cases, many boards secured valuable advice from their appeal agent.

During the draft many ignorant foreigners who had waived their rights for deferred classification, called upon Government Appeal Agents and explaining their cases, had their cases reopened and thus securing deferred classification which saved the government the needless expense of sending them to camp, only to discharge them at the request of the registrant's diplomatic representative in Washington.

WORK OF LEGAL ADVISORY BOARDS.

The one hundred Legal Advisory Boards and their associate members in Iowa, had much to do with making the administration of the Selective Service Law a success.

When the first Rules and Regulations were put into force on May 18, 1917, no provision was made for free expert advice for registrants, confronted with a multitude of rules and regulations to understand and blank forms to prepare.

Early in November, 1917, it was seen that if the Selective Service Law was to be made an immediate success, some provision must be made to secure expert advice for registrants without cost. Provost Marshal General Crowder turned to the legal profession and through the executive officers of the American Bar Association soon had the lawyers organized in the different states. In Iowa the Governor nominated three attorneys in each county as members of the Legal Advisory Board for said county and the board in turn nominated associate members, all of whom were directed by the regulations to file oaths of office with the Adjutant General of the State.

Each county in Iowa had a Legal Advisory Board of three members except Lee, which had two boards, one at Keokuk and one at Fort Madison. This made 300 Legal Advisory Board members and these boards appointed associate members to the number of 3,800, a total of 4,100, including all the attorneys at law in the state and thousands of laymen who also served.

STATE INSPECTORS' ACTIVITIES.

While Section 31, Selective Service Regulations provides for the appointment of temporary state inspectors, no where does the Provost Marshal General provide for a permanent inspector's department with trained men to inspect from time to time the various boards and officials under control of State Headquarters.

Early in the administration of the draft Governor Harding requested authority to appoint at least three state inspectors, under federal pay, to visit from time to time the District, Local and Medical Advisory boards and inspect their records and examine into their activities. This was refused by the Provost Marshal General, who cited Section 31 as giving the Governor authority to name temporary inspectors, which the war department considered adequate.

Temporary inspectors did not answer every requirement in that there was no one in Iowa except Local Board members or headquarters officials who were sufficiently familiar with the regulations to discharge these duties. As a general proposition the need for inspections and investigations generally came at the rush periods when Local Board members were very busy. To name one of these Local Board members as an inspector would accomplish the desired result as far as the inspection was concerned, but would weaken the Local Board at a critical time.

To overcome this situation and to install a system of inspections which would be uniform throughout the state and make it possible to secure a rating for Local Boards, the Governor placed on duty as Chief Inspector of Iowa, Captain Fred L. Bissell, Inspector's Department, Iowa National Guard, late county auditor of Wapello county, and a member of a local board which had distinguished itself for efficiency.

Captain Bissell reported for duty on September 24, 1918 and until his relief from duty on April 15, 1919 he inspected half of the 112 Local Boards in Iowa starting with those who were apparently the least efficient. Had the war continued he would have visited all of the Local Boards in the state. In visiting the Local Boards he carried out a system of inspecting the records, examining the files, and co-operating with the Board members and their clerks, which had a marked effect in improving the service and encouraging an esprit de corps which had much to do with the resulting high efficiency of the draft administration in Iowa as a whole.

After the classification of registrants of June 5, 1917, to whom questionnaires were sent during the period commencing December 15, 1917, it was ascertained that a number of Local Boards in Iowa had fallen below the state average of fighting men in Class 1. The state average was 27 per cent and the Provost Marshal General directed that boards with noticeably low averages should be inspected with a view of increasing the number of fighting men.

As Iowa had at that time no permanent inspectors, temporary inspectors were appointed from among the efficient Local Board members, in compliance with the Provost Marshal General's telegram B 366. These inspectors were as follows:

John E. Luckey, Benton county, Vinton.
T. B. Carpenter, Black Hawk county, Cedar Falls.
R. R. Babcock, Calhoun county, Rockwell City.
G. B. Peterson, Pocahontas county, Pocahontas,
C. W. McNaughton, Shelby county, Harlan,
Henry V. Janssen, Carroll county, Carroll.
H. J. Cummings, Crawford county, Denison,
James S. Ross, Hancock county, Garner,
James Shepherd, Henry county, Mt. Pleasant,
E. J. Hines, Jones county, Anamosa,
F. B. Brock, Madison county, Winterset,
Fred L. Bissell, Wapello county, Ottumwa,
John M. Walker, Division No. 2, Des Moines.

These inspectors visited thirty Local Boards whose average of Class 1 fighting men was below 25 per cent and within ten days had completed the inspection and so raised the average in these boards that there was practical equality between boards and no board would be forced in filling calls, to send a greater number of men to war than it should send in justice to all.

BOARDS OF INSTRUCTION.

Iowa ranked first of all the states in the union, in organizing Boards of Instruction which carried out the work of giving selected men in Class 1 needed information before they were entrained. This organization was formed in compliance with Circular 76, P. M. G. O. dated July 4, 1918. Dr. W. H. Kinnicutt from the Provost Marshal General's office visited Iowa in September and held District meetings for the purpose of organization as follows:

September 11—Davenport, N. F. Donnigan, District Chairman.
September 12—Des Moines, Tom Fairweather, District Chairman.

September 13—Waterloo, Roger Leavitt, District Chairman.
September 14—Mason City, Fred D. Cram, District Chairman.
September 16—Sioux City, J. B. Connor, District Chairman.
September 17—Omaha (Western Iowa), J. C. Milligan, District Chairman.

Class 1 fighting men were instructed in lectures and talks on the following subjects. Why America entered the war, and why America should win the war; personal hygiene and why soldiers must keep fit; Army organization and information for men going to camp; the necessary character of the American soldier, covering such points as loyalty, obedience, physical fitness, intelligence, cleanliness, cheerfulness, spirit, tenacity, self-reliance, allotments and allowances, war risk insurance, Red Cross home service and all suggested subjects.

A series of books for home reading was suggested to the men, said books being furnished by the nearest library. Instruction was also provided for those desiring it in map reading and sketching, radio and buzzer, automobile work and elementary French. In some counties drill companies were organized by competent drill masters.

The State Board of Vocational Education organized the technical branches of instruction. Schools boards generally helped in the work and assistance was also given by the educational institutions of the state. It is estimated that a total of 18,000 selected men in Class 1 were reached by instructions concerning their duties before being called to the colors.

COST OF ADMINISTRATION

It cost the government $423,045.52 to administer the Selective Service law in Iowa, and this does not include printing, subsistence of men enroute to camp or transportation; but it does include expenses of State Headquarters, District Boards, Local Boards and Medical Advisory Boards, rent and small incidental expenses.

This amount was expended by General Guy E. Logan, Adjutant General of Iowa and Disbursing Officer and Agent, June 5, 1917 to November 19, 1917 and by Major Roy W. Snell, U. S. Army, who relieved General Logan as Disbursing Officer and Agent from November 20, 1917 to April 30, 1919. In this financial report the expenditures of these two officials have been consolidated.

These expenses are subdivided as follows:

Total Cost State Headquarters.....	$ 21,939.42
Total Cost of Local Boards.....	372,025.36
Total Cost District Boards.....	29,090.74

Local Board members drew as pay for services $208,720.48 and District Board members drew as pay the total of $9,858.83. Clerk hire for Local Boards totaled $181,185.46 and District Board clerks drew $19,231.91.

The report shows that Hancock county did not charge a cent for services or expenses and that the Local Board members for the following boards drew no money for their services, although their clerks did receive government pay: Hancock, Monroe, Sac, Scott, Worth, Council Bluffs, Davenport No. 1, and Davenport No. 2.

The report shows that the average cost per registrant for the state was $0.80 and the average cost per inducted man was $6.17. The second and incomplete report of the Provost Marshal General shows the average cost in the entire United States to have been $1.86 per registrant and the average cost per inducted man $7.90.

The itemized table of expense is as follows:

CLOSING THE WORK

Soon after the signing of the armistice the Provost Marshal General directed that the work of classification of registrants aged 37 to 45 both inclusive should be stopped and questionnaires recalled if they had been issued. The work of classifying the registrants aged 18 was completed and then after an interval of a few weeks Local Boards were given detailed instructions in regard to closing up their records. This was completed and during April, 1919, State Headquarters, District Boards, Local Boards and Medical Advisory Boards shipped their records to Washington, in care of the Selective Service Division of the Adjutant General's Office. It was estimated by railroad officials having the shipment in charge that the records would make a freight train of 25 cars.

This was followed by an official discharge for board members signed by the Provost Marshal General, and countersigned by the Governor, and an autograph letter from the Provost Marshal General to Associate members of Legal Advisory Boards, expressing his appreciation of their services.

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 1.

STATE OF IOWA,
 ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Des Moines, April 9, 1917.

II. The following letter from the War Department is published for the information of the Command:

"WAR DEPARTMENT.

MILITIA BUREAU
Washington.

M. B. 013.14
 April 5, 1917.

From: The Chief, Militia Bureau.

To: The Adjutants General of all States (except Nevada), the Territory of Hawaii, and the District of Columbia, all Inspector-Instructors, and all Officers in Charge of Militia Affairs at Department Headquarters.

Subject: Change of status, Organized Militia to National Guard.

1. The Secretary of War has instructed as follows with reference to organizations called to Federal service:

Officers and men of the Organized Militia who have not taken or do not now take the National Guard oath should be dropped from the rolls of the organization, and are not to be accepted into Federal service under the calls of March twenty-fifth and subsequent dates.

2. He has also instructed that similar steps be taken with respect to Organized Militia personnel remaining in organizations not called into Federal service, as conditions now require that the period allowed for transition from Organized Militia to National Guard should be at once brought to a close for all organizations of the National Guard.

3. You are therefore requested to take immediate steps to give all officers and enlisted men now remaining as Organized Militia in your State an opportunity to subscribe to the oath for officers, and contract and oath for enlisted men, required respectively by Sections 73 and 70, Act of June 3, 1916. Those who do not subscribe to the required oath should be dropped from the rolls of the National Guard organizations to which they belong.

The organizations heretofore maintained and recognized as Organized Militia or as part National Guard and part Organized Militia are now taken and considered as National Guard organizations, only, and in which only National Guard personnel is to be allowed hereafter. The individuals who are dropped from the rolls of the organizations remain under the control of the State authorities as individuals of the Organized Militia.

4. Future action as to the disposition of individuals of the Organized Militia must await the decision of the Supreme Court in a case not pending.

No Federal property should be left in their hands.

5. The result of this segregation as National Guard and Organized Militia will be reported without delay on the following form by all organizations which have not already submitted such a report:

.....
Designation of organization.

To the Chief, Militia Bureau,

(Through the Adjutant General of.....)

I certify that the following named officers and enlisted men of have sworn and subscribed to the oath for officers and contract and oath for enlisted men required by Sections 73 and 70, respectively, of the Act of Congress approved June 3, 1916, on the dates set opposite their respective names:

Surname.	Christian name.	Rank.	Date of oath.
.....
.....
.....

.....
Signed by organization commander.

6. Should the declination to take the required oath so reduce an organization as to practically terminate its existence, the property should be cared for by the State authorities, and prompt report of the circumstances be made to the Militia Bureau.

By direction of the Secretary of War:

WM. A. MANN,
Brigadier General, General Staff."

2. Commanding officers of organizations will immediately present the oath as prescribed in the National Defense Act, approved June 3, 1916, to each and every member of his command in order that he may have the privilege of signing same. All men who decline or refuse to sign same will be immediately dropped from the rolls of the company but the Commanding Officer will furnish to the Adjutant General a list of such men with their addresses in order that the Federal Government or the State can order them on duty to help guard important points when the National Guard is ordered to the front.

3. Organization Commanders will take up from all men declining or refusing to take the prescribed oath all Federal or State property in their possession including all clothing.

By order of the Governor.

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 5.

STATE OF IOWA
THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE
Des Moines, Iowa, July 24, 1917.

1. The following opinion from the Department of Justice of the State of Iowa is published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

"Mr. Guy E. Logan, Adjutant General,
State House.

Dear Sir:

Your request for the opinion of the Department of Justice on the following questions has been referred to me for attention: You ask:

"1. Chapter 380, Acts of the Thirty-Seventh General Assembly, being 'AN ACT to exempt soldiers and sailors and other persons in the military and naval service of the United States from payments of bills of exchange and payments in pursuance of other obligations and granting to such soldiers and sailors exemptions from certain taxes, states in Section 3:

"The homestead of all soldiers, sailors or other persons in the military or naval service of the United States shall be exempt from taxes during their term of service in the present war; or other property to the actual value of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars in the event of no such homestead.

"2. Inasmuch as the state of Iowa will have several thousand soldiers and sailors in the service of the United States within the next thirty days most of whom will immediately leave the state and not return until the close of the war, I desire to secure an opinion from your office relative to the following:

(A) What steps must be taken by such soldiers and sailors to avail themselves of the provisions of the exemptions contained in this section.

(B) Where such soldier or sailor has paid one-half of his taxes on or before March 31, 1917, will he be entitled to an exemption for the second half which is due to be paid on or before September 30, 1917?

(C) Is such soldier or sailor entitled to an exemption on his homestead irrespective of its value or is such exemption limited to $10,000?

(D) Would a soldier or sailor be entitled to such exemption where the title to the homestead is in the name of the wife?"

The statute makes certain exemption for soldiers, sailors and other persons in the military or naval service of the United States, but fails to designate by whom and to whom such exemptions shall be claimed and made. The Adjutant General is required to keep a record of all matters pertaining to the organization of the military forces of the state and should on or before the first day of September in each year, during the continuance of the war, certify to the several county auditors of the state a list of all soldiers, sailors and other persons in the military service of the United States from their respective counties, and from such list, so certified, the county auditor can enter upon the proper tax records of his county the exemption authorized by the statute.

The exemption provided for by the act does not apply to the taxes of 1916, which were ascertained and determined, and, if the first installment thereof has not been paid, were delinquent before the law was enacted.

The exemption extends to the entire homestead, notwithstanding the value thereof may exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars. If applied to other property, it is, of course, limited to that amount.

As to the remaining question, I am constrained to believe, though it is not entirely free from doubt, that the exemption does not extend to a case where the legal title to the homestead is in the wife of such soldier, sailor or other person claiming the exemption. Provision is made for extending the exemption to other property to the value and extent of ten thousand dollars, if such soldier, sailor or other person in the military or naval service of the United States does not own a homestead, and while it is true that the law attaches a peculiar character to the homestead, giving husband and wife certain rights therein, which do not obtain as to other property, regardless of whom the legal title thereto may be in, yet it must be held that the exemption herein granted is personal and limited to such sailor, soldier or other person and cannot be extended to property owned by his wife.

Respectfully,

(Signed) J. W. SANDUSKY,

Assistant Attorney General.

By order of the Governor.

GUY E. LOGAN,

The Adjutant General.

SECTION 1. That Title eleven of the Code of Iowa and the law as it appears in Title eleven of the Supplement to the Code, 1907, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof to be officially designated and known as, "The Military Code of Iowa."

SEC. 2. The military force of the State of Iowa shall consist of every able-bodied male citizen, and every able-bodied male of foreign birth, who has declared his intention to become a citizen, who is between the ages of 18 and 45 years, not exempt from such service under the laws of the United States, except honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines of the United States, who shall be exempt from military service in this state at their option. The assessors shall return to the Auditor with the annual assessment a complete enumeration of such persons, which may be revised and corrected by the board of supervisors at its June session in each even-numbered year, or at such other time as the Governor may direct, and the Auditor shall certify to the Adjutant General a true copy of such corrected list, and in each odd-numbered year he shall certify the number of names on the list. But no person having conscientious scruples against bearing arms shall be compelled to do military duty in time of peace.

SEC. 3. The organized militia shall be designated as the "National Guard of the United States and of the State of Iowa," hereinafter referred to as "The Guard," and it shall be recruited by volunteer enlistments, from persons of the state eligible to military duty. In this act the word "soldier" shall include musicians and all persons in the guard or in the militia when called into service, except commissioned officers, and the word "company" shall include battery, troop, band, signal corps and hospital corps except as herein otherwise provided.

SEC. 4. The organization, armament, equipment and discipline of the guard, except as hereinafter specifically provided, shall be the same as that which is now or may be hereafter prescribed under the provisions of the act of congress approved January 21, 1903, as amended May 27, 1908, relating to the militia or any subsequent amendments thereto or substitutes therefor; and as to those requirements which are mandatory therein as may be prescribed by the regulations of the war department published in pursuance therewith, and so far as the Governor may prescribe as to these things which are optional therein; and any change hereafter made shall become effective as to the guard when an order or regulation to that effect shall have been promulgated by the Governor.

SEC. 5. The Guard shall consist of such organizations as may be specified by the War Department in accordance with the Act of Congress approved June 3, 1916, or any amendments thereto or substitutes therefor.

SEC. 6. It shall be unlawful for any body of men, other than the guard of this state and the troops of the United States, to associate themselves together as a military company or organization within the limits of this state without the written permission of the Governor, which he may at any time revoke; but this provision shall not prevent civic, social or benevolent organizations from wearing uniforms and swords not in conflict with the other provision of this act.

SEC. 7. The Governor is authorized to make and publish regulations and orders for the government, discipline and uniforming of the guard not in conflict with existing laws.

SEC. 8. The guard shall be subject to the military Code of Iowa and all regulations and orders made and published in pursuance therewith, and in all matters not specifically covered thereby it shall be subject to the regulations of the war department governing the National Guard of the United States, the articles of war, the army regulations, and such regulations and orders as may be made and published in pursuance therewith.

SEC. 9. Companies may incorporate under Chapter two, Title nine of the Code of Iowa. The articles of incorporation may provide for the methods of administration of civil business, and may provide for such officers as may be deemed necessary. The articles of incorporation shall be approved by the regimental commander and the adjutant general, and such approval endorsed thereon, before the same are recorded. They must provide among other things, that the name of the corporation shall be identical with the military designation of the organization, and that the officers of the company shall be officers of the corporation.

SEC. 10. Each company may make rules and by-laws for its own government, not in conflict with existing laws and regulations and orders, subject to the approval of the regimental commander. Any person who is by such rules and by-laws made the custodian of any funds, whether originally derived from federal, state or other sources, shall have legal capacity to sue for the collection thereof or an accounting therefor.

SEC. 11. Commissioned officers of the Guard shall hereafter be selected under such regulations as may be issued by the Governor in conformity with the requirements of the Act of Congress approved June 3, 1916, or any amendments thereto or substitutes therefor, and when once commissioned shall hold their office until they are sixty-four years of age unless they shall sooner resign, be dismissed or discharged as provided by the Act of Congress approved June 3, 1916, or any amendments thereto or substitutes therefor. Nothing in this act shall be construed to vacate the commission of any officer now in the Guard before he has reached the age of sixty-four years unless he sooner resigns, is discharged, or dismissed. And the term of officers who have heretofore been commissioned for definite periods and who are now serving under said commissions are hereby extended to conform to the requirements of this act. Any officer permanently removing from this state and any Company Officer permanently removing his place of residence from his company station shall resign his commission upon request of the Governor or make application to be placed upon the officer's reserve list, and upon failure to do so, his commission shall be revoked by the Governor.

SEC. 12. At any time the moral character, capacity, and general fitness for the service of any Guard officer may be determined by an efficiency board of three commissioned officers, senior in rank to the officer whose fitness for service shall be under investigation, and if the findings of such board be unfavorable to such officer and be approved by the official authorized to appoint such officer, he shall be discharged. Commissions of officers of the Guard may be vacated upon resignation absence without leave for three months upon the recommendation of an efficiency board, or pursuant to sentence of a court-martial. Officers of the guard rendered surplus by the disbandment of their organizations shall be placed in the National Guard Reserve. Officers may, upon their own application, be placed in the said reserve.

SEC. 13. All officers to whom shall be issued, or who shall be accountable for arms, equipment, uniforms and any other state or United States property for military uses, or who shall have the control, custody or disbursement of funds as provided for in this act, shall, before the delivery to them of such arms, equipment, uniforms and other state or United States property, and the receipt of such funds, be required to execute and deliver to the Adjutant General a bond therefor, with sureties to be approved by the Governor and payable to the state, in such amount as may be fixed by the Governor, conditioned according to law, for the proper care, use and return in good order, wear, use and unavoidable loss and damage excepted, of all such state and United States property, and the proper and faithful disbursement and accounting of all funds coming into the hands of such officer; upon the violation of any of the conditions of such bond, action thereon shall be brought by the Adjutant General upon behalf of the State of Iowa, and any recovery thereon shall be accredited to the guard funds of the state. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General of the state to prosecute all actions upon such bonds.

SEC. 14. All enlistments in the Guard shall be for such time and in such form as may be specified by regulations or orders issued by the governor in conformity with the act of congress approved June 3, 1916, or amendments thereto, or substitutes therefor.

SEC. 15. The staff of the Governor shall consist of an Adjutant General, who shall be chief of staff, an Assistant Adjutant General, both of whom shall have served honorably in the regular or volunteer service of the United States, or for not less than one year in the guard, and twelve aids. The Adjutant General and Assistant Adjutant General shall be appointed and commissioned by the Governor, and shall hold office for a period of four years, which said first four year period shall begin July 4, 1915, and until their successors are appointed and commissioned. The Assistant Adjutant General shall be appointed upon the recommendation of the Adjutant General. The aids may, at the discretion of the Governor, be appointed and commissioned by him or detailed for such service from the active membership of the guard, or their duties may be performed by United States army officers regularly or specially detailed by the war department for service with the guard. The Adjutant General shall have the rank of brigadier general and the Assistant Adjutant General that of colonel. The aids shall have the rank of lieutenant colonel except that any person so appointed, who has held a higher rank for a period of one year or more in the guard, may be appointed with the rank of the highest grade so held by him, and those detailed from the active membership of the guard shall retain their rank in the guard and shall not be relieved from their regular duties by reason of such detail. United States army officers, regularly or specially detailed for service with guard or stationed in the state, may be assigned positions on the staff with their rank in the United States service or such higher rank, not above that of lieutenant colonel, as the Governor may designate.

SEC. 16. The Adjutant General shall issue and transmit all orders of the Governor, and shall keep a record of appointments, of all officers commissioned by the Governor, of all the general and special orders and regulations, and of
