State University of Iowa.

The State University of Iowa, founded in accordance with the provision of the constitution, is at the head of the public school system of the state. It comprises six departments, as follows:

THE COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT.

This department takes up the work of education where the high school leaves off. Candidates may be admitted without examination, on graduation from most of the high schools of the state. There are six courses leading to the Bachelor's degree; classical, philosophical, letters, scientific, civil engineering, and electrical engineering. Each of these occupies four years.

THE LAW DEPARTMENT.

Two years are required for this course. The graduates receive the degree LL.B., and are admitted to practice before the courts of the state and the United States.

THE MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

Three years are necessary for graduation, when the degree M. D. is conferred.

THE HOMEOPATHIC MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

This also requires three years' study, and the degree M. D. is conferred on the graduates.

THE DENTAL DEPARTMENT.

This course requires three years' work, and the degree D. D. S. is conferred.

THE PHARMACEUTICAL DEPARTMENT.

This department offers a two years' course and the degree Ph. G.

THE GRADUATES.

The university has already graduated from its several departments 3,540 students.

ATTENDANCE.

There are at present on the rolls of the various departments over 900 students. These receive instruction from 76 professors, assistant professors, lecturers, and instructors.

For other information as to requirements, terms, or any other matters, address

CHARLES A. SCHAEFFER,

PRESIDENT STATE UNIVERSITY,

Iowa City, Iowa.

Iowa State Normal School.

SCHOOL YEAR, 1891-92.

During the year 1891-92, there were 706 different students enrolled, classified as follows: Fourth year class, 28; third year class, 80; second year class, 122; first year classes—third term, 137; second term, 76; first term, 72; special students, 63; first year high school graduates' class, 62; second year high school graduates' class, 36.

RESIDENCE OF STUDENTS.

During the year eighty-nine counties were represented by one or more students. Of the ten counties not represented, five have representatives during the fall of 1892.

GRADUATES.

During the year 160 students were graduated; 26 from the four years' course; 53 from the three years' course; 21 from the high school graduates' course.

COURSES OF STUDY.

This institution now provides four courses of study, each with elective English and Latin subjects. Two state diploma courses leading to the degree Master of Didactics. Two regular state certificate courses, leading to the degree Bachelor of Didactics. A high school graduates' supplementary course, leading to the degree Bachelor of Didactics. A college graduates' professional course, leading to the Master's degree and preparing for state certificate and state diploma.

EXPENSES.

Tuition free to students intending to teach in Iowa. Contingent fee required by statute; fall term, $4.00; winter term, $3.00; spring term, $3.00. Boarding at rates ranging at from $2.00 to $3.50, according to method. Other expenses as reasonable as in any other place in Iowa.

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION.

AGE—At least sixteen years.

SCHOLARSHIP—At least 80 per cent of the questions required for a county teacher's certificate.

STATE CERTIFICATES AND LIFE DIPLOMAS.

By the act of the general assembly that became a law March 29, 1890, state certificates and life diplomas are granted to graduates of the Iowa State Normal School by the state board of educational examiners.

SCHOOL YEAR, 1892-93.

FALL TERM, 1892.—Total enrollment, 555. Faculty composed of seventeen members, specialists in the particular departments to which they are assigned.
