IN THE NAME AND BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE STATE OF IOWA

EXECUTIVE ORDER NUMBER NINETEEN

AN ORDER AMENDING EXECUTIVE ORDER NUMBER SEVENTEEN

WHEREAS, on March 1, 1974, the legal maximum speed limit in the State of Iowa becomes 55 miles an hour:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert D. Ray, Governor of Iowa, do hereby amend my Executive Order Number Seventeen relating to the operations of all motor vehicles owned by the State of Iowa in its various departments, so that they may be operated at speeds not to exceed 55 miles an hour at any time, with the exception of those being used for bona fide emergencies.

All other provisions of Executive Order Number Seventeen shall remain in effect.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of the State of Iowa to be affixed. Done at Des Moines, Iowa, this 28th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-four.

Robert D. Ray
