Total			19,800 79

The foregoing shows the date and amount of each warrant drawn and in whose favor. The amounts paid C. B. Richards, were for payment of the soldiers and necessary contingent expenses.

The vouchers for the expenses of the first expedition, including all to November 12, 1858, inclusive, and also the item to T. F. Withrow, of December 30, 1858, have been forwarded to the city of Washington to be used in presenting and urging the claim of the State against the General Government, and securing the reimbursement of the State Treasury for the amount expended. The account does not show for what service or specific expense the several sums were drawn for the said first expedition, except so far as the books, and in some instances the duplicate vouchers, show the same in which cases it is noted.

Thinking that a statement of the receipts and disbursements of C. B. Richards, as Commissary General, would give satisfactory information, (though not specifically called for by the Resolution,) a statement of his account is appended with copies of vouchers for monies disbursed by him as such, on account of the last expedition.

CHAS. B. RICHARDS,
Com. General, I. S. M.

TO THE AUDITOR OF STATE.

Chapter ten of the acts of last Session, does not expressly provide for the employment of such an agent as Col. Richards, yet it was absolutely necessary that some one should perform the duties which he did perform, and under sections 8 and 13 of said act, I felt myself authorized to employ and pay him for said services. In the within account there is a charge of $300 for last year's services, which I do not now allow to be paid out of the State Treasury, but did allow it as a correct charge to be paid by the General Government. Mr. Richards, as I understood at the time, agreed to look to the General Government, where the claim is now pending with the claim of the State, for expense incurred in the protection of the frontier, that year.

In calling out and maintaining the Frontier Guards, on the border, for protection, the law required me to act upon reliable information, which made it necessary for me to have a disinterested agent near the scene of trouble. Mr. Richards for transporting money from Des Moines, and disbursing the same at Spirit Lake, I think reasonable enough, perhaps; also the first charge, but the charge of $100 for the last payment, which I understand was made at Fort Dodge, I think is $50 too high. I therefore allow Mr. Richards $430, for which amount, you will please grant him his warrant upon the Treasury.

		$10,815 31

From which deduct amount transferred to Janitor's wages,..... $697 40

Leaves am't charged to Miscellaneous Disbursements, $10,117 91

Under date of August 17th, 1858, the above sum of $697 40 was credited to Miscellaneous Disbursements, and charged to Janitor's wages, and is included in the sum reported as expended in payment of Janitor's wages. For items marked "[bill,]" the bills are found on file, for those not marked, the bills have not been found. We have designated the purpose for which payments were made in such cases, as best we could, from the books and the law under which the accounts were audited, and think that our notes are correct, so far as they go.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. CATTELL,

Auditor of State.
