Players may enter with a nonwinning Powerball with the Power Play ticket worth at least $2 by completing the electronic entry form at www.ialottery.com. They will be asked to enter the serial number from the nonwinning lotto ticket and must keep all tickets entered.

They can win tickets to the Iowa State men's basketball home games plus they could win the grand prize, a trip for two to the national championship basketball games in New Orleans. The promotion runs through 12 a.m. on Feb. 4. Drawing dates and deadlines are available on the web site at ialottery.com.

Three pairs of tickets per game for each of the Cyclones' nine home basketball games between Dec. 31 and March 5 will be awarded. Players May Appoint Proxy To Attend Event

If a player wins a chance to attend a giveaway event and cannot make it, they can appoint someone to go in their place. This applies to "Powerball Instant Millionaire" as well. A proxy can be appointed for any player who is eligible to attend a prize event, but can't be there in person. The player may choose a proxy, or, if the player doesn't designate someone, the lottery will pick a proxy for the player. If the player chooses to designate a proxy, they are sent a proxy form to fill out, which names the proxy and authorizes them to accept the prize. A proxy receives no monetary compensation from the lottery for their duties. 🍀

Big Powerball Jackpots Produce Several Lucky $100,000 Winners

The recent large Powerball jackpots have brought players to the counter to buy tickets and they've also produced some big winners!

Bridget Van Every of Des Moines claimed a $100,000 prize that she won on the ticket she purchased at Dahl's at 1819 Beaver Ave. in Des Moines. Van Every, 43, said she thought her son was joking when he checked her ticket and told her she'd won $100,000.

Bridget Van Every of Des Moines

"He said, 'You won,' and I just kept cleaning house and I said, 'No, I didn't. This isn't funny, no I didn't!'" she said.

Van Every said she planned to use part of her winnings to buy new couches for her house and to pay for her mother's hearing aids.

Pat Chase of Glenwood said she was numb after winning $100,000 playing Powerball.

After the store clerk announced that she had won the prize, Chase said she just froze.

"He goes, 'No, no, no, you won the 100 grand. You won all by yourself!' I said 'No way, no way!'" Chase said.

Chase, 52, purchased her ticket at the Kwik Shop, 309 N. Locust in Glenwood. She's a regular Powerball player who says, "Other people are out there winning, it could be us. And if we win real, real big, we can help a lot of people. I have a lot of sisters and brothers," she explained.

Nye Khamhuang, 41, of Des Moines said his $100,000 win will benefit his family the most.

Khamhuang claimed his prize at the Des Moines office and he bought his ticket at Quik Trip, 1501 E. Grand, Des Moines.

"It made me so happy and excited. I'll keep the prize winnings for my family," he said. 🍀

Players Favor Kindness to Others If They Win Big

Just for fun, the Iowa Lottery surveyed players buying Powerball tickets over a lunch hour in downtown Des Moines during the recent jackpot run. Players were asked, "What is the first thing you would do if you won the Powerball jackpot?"

The top answer, given by 24 percent of those surveyed, was to help family, charities or others. Other responses were:

- 22 percent of those surveyed said the first thing they would do is pay off bills.
- 21 percent of those surveyed said they would quit their jobs.
- 8 percent said they would go on a trip.
- 5 percent said they would hire a lawyer.

Some of the more unusual answers were:

- Attend every Bruce Springsteen concert.
- Buy a house next door to Bill Gates.
- Buy a golf course.
- Adopt foster children. 🍀

Cedar Rapids Man Claims $50,000 Top Prize

Don Houghton of Cedar Rapids

Don Houghton of Cedar Rapids claimed the top prize of $50,000 in the Red Hot 7s scratch game.

He turned in his winning ticket at the Iowa Lottery's regional office in Cedar Rapids.

"It's the greatest game I ever played!" Houghton said.

Houghton was at the counter in the store when he scratched the ticket. "I told the clerk 'You're not going to believe this—I just won $50,000!' and they said, 'Oh, I can't believe it. Let me see!'" he said.

I guess I was kind of stunned. You look at it and say, 'Is that for real?' And sure enough, it is!" Houghton said.

He bought his winning ticket at the Vernon Village Handimart at 3349 Mount Vernon Road S.E. in Cedar Rapids.

Houghton said he'll purchase a different car with his winnings and fix his truck. 🍀
