Plan Your Visit

Just two hours northwest of the Des Moines metro area, Lake View in Sac County is home to Black Hawk Lake, the southernmost glacial lake in the United States. The town is a hub for visitors who enjoy lake recreation and outdoor activities.

Black Hawk State Park borders the lake in several areas, offering boating access, picnic shelters, fishing cleaning stations, trails, disc golf and much more. Lake View is also the trailhead for the Sauk Rail Trail, a 33-mile trek through the Iowa countryside that ends at Swan Lake State Park in Carroll County.

Whether you enjoy fishing, biking or lake recreation, spring is a perfect time to visit this northwest Iowa destination.
