TERRY E. BRANSTAD
GOVERNOR

Dear Friends:

Welcome to the State Historical Building, our new home for the treasures of Iowa's heritage. This facility is a great asset to the people of Iowa. It is a place that Iowans and visitors can enjoy.

By preserving the articles and artifacts of our ancestors, the new historical building can help us preserve Iowa's rich heritage. It is a place to learn about this beautiful land we call Iowa. It is a place to chart our state's progress through history. It is a place to learn about the people who have made Iowa what it is today. New exhibits will be added and exhibits will change over time making this building alive for people to enjoy.

The people of Iowa can be proud of this fine new building. It represents a commitment to and pride in our state's history. It was made possible by the generous contributions of thousands of Iowans. I hope your visit will be both interesting and enjoyable and that you will return often.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink that reads "Terry E. Branstad".

Terry E. Branstad
Governor of Iowa

HISTORY, STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF IOWA

Purpose

The State Historical Society of Iowa's mission is to collect, preserve, interpret, and disseminate Iowa's past, to encourage scholarly research in Iowa history, to serve as a reference source for other governmental agencies, and to advocate the preservation, stewardship, and responsible use of Iowa's historical resources.

History

- 1857: State Historical Society founded in Iowa City as a private organization.
- 1894: State Museum and Archives founded in Des Moines.
- 1974: State Department of History and Archives, State Historical Society, and the State Historic Preservation Office combine to form the State Historical Department under three administrators.
- 1982: State Historical Department united under a single administration.
- 1986: State Historical Department renamed State Historical Society of Iowa; joins the newly established Department of Cultural Affairs, along with three other agencies: the Iowa Arts Council, Iowa Public Broadcasting, and the State Library Division.

The Historical Society Today

The Historical Society is now composed of four bureaus:

- Library and Archives (Des Moines and Iowa City)
- Museum (Des Moines)
- Historic Preservation (Des Moines)
- Membership and Development (Iowa City)

The funding for this building would not have been possible without:

A $5 million bequest from the estate of Glenn Grover Herrick; and

A $10 million grant from the Iowa Lottery proceeds; and

A $10.4 million contribution from the Iowa Historical Museum Foundation; and

The continued support from the Sixty-ninth, Seventieth, Seventy-first, and Seventy-second General Assemblies, State of Iowa.

Donors

FROM THE CHAIRMAN:

The Board of Trustees of the Iowa Historical Museum Foundation wishes to take the opportunity to sincerely thank all the many contributors that made this magnificent structure possible. The support of donors from school children through out the state, individual citizens of Iowa and numerous other states, plus foundations, contractors, small businesses, local and national corporations; city, county and fraternal organizations; all contributed to a successful conclusion of our campaign. We are particularly grateful to Governor Branstad and the members of the Legislature for their assistance in completing this important project. We salute you one and all! Let us take justifiable pride in the best state historical museum and library in the country. Enjoy the moment, tell your friends and come back and visit the new museum often. Thank you!
