Meeting as you do in the most eventful period of our history as a Nation, I trust we shall show by our acts, as legislators, that we are not unworthy children of an honored ancestry. If we can but do our duty as well and faithfully in this hall, as the brave men who represent our State on the field of battle perform theirs, we shall make a record of which we need not be ashamed. If we can make our session a short, working one, filled with deeds rather than vague and general discussion, we shall demonstrate more clearly than in any other way, that the great powers conferred upon us by our constituents, have not been misplaced. On motion of Mr. Russell, the Governor's Message was then taken up and read, as follows:

Gentlemen of the Senate, and House of Representatives :

I am happy to be able to congratulate you upon the prosperity of our State. During the last two years our people have enjoyed their usual good health and have secured reasonably good harvests. Labor has been well rewarded, and the products of labor have brought remunerative prices. The educational interests of the State are as prosperous as ever; and peace and good order within our borders, although one or two occasions somewhat imperiled, have been maintained.

Let us render thanks to God for these blessings vouchsafed us during the existence of a desolating war, that has so scourged a large portion of our land.

FINANCES.

Our State finances have never before been in a more healthy condition. Our entire State debt is only $622,295.75, consisting of loan from School Fund $122,295.75; loan of 1858 $200,000, and war loan of 1861 $300,000. Of the $800,000 of War Bonds authorized to be sold, $500,000 remain on hand—none have been offered since the $300,000 were sold; and it is believed no further sales will be necessary.

The report of the State Auditor shows that the moneys now in the Treasury, the delinquent taxes, the amount estimated to be due from the United State, and the taxes for 1863 and 1864, are sufficient to pay the estimated expenditures for the next two years, the outstanding Warrants on the Treasury, and our entire State debt, leaving a balance in favor of the Treasury of about $200,000.

Provision should be made for the redemption of the bonds issued in 1858 and 1861-2 as they fall due. I recommend that a sufficient sum be set aside, annually, for this purpose, and invested with its accumulations, in United States or other good stocks. In my judgment, the amount due the School Fund should be permitted to remain as a permanent debt of the State. The State is trustee of this fund and liable for all losses thereto; and there can be no safer mode of investing this amount of the fund, than the present.

The report of the Auditor still shows a large amount of delinquent taxes. So much of this as is due upon real estate will be finally paid; but it is thought, a very considerable portion of the delinquency is due upon personal property, by persons not owning any real estate, much of which will be lost.

Under our revenue law real estate is assessed biennially, and personal property annually. The assessments are made between the 1st of January and the 1st of April; the levy is made in September, and the taxes become delinquent on the 1st of February of the next year. It thus happens that persons may bring into the State, for sale, or may buy within the State, large amounts of personal property, which are assessed to them for taxation; may keep and use the same, within the State, more than a year, and finally dispose of it before the tax becomes delinquent; and if such persons do not own real estate in the same County in which the personal property was assessed, there are no means of compelling payment of the taxes due. This defect in the law should be remedied in justice to the State, and to the owners of real estate, who already bear their full share of the public burdens.

I renew the following recommendations, made by me to the Ninth General Assembly:

“In order to make the revenue of the State more certain, I recommend that the County Treasurers be required by law to pay the State Treasurer, at fixed times, certain proportions of the amount of revenue due to the State, until the entire sum for each year is paid, whether the County Treasurers have received the entire amount of State tax or not. At present the State is wholly helpless as to its revenue. It has to depend wholly upon the officers of Counties for its collection and transmission, and if the County officers are inefficient, the State is remediless. Each County is now liable by law to the State for the amount of State tax assessed in it, but this liability, without any means of making it effective, is useless. If the counties were required to pay the revenue due the State, whether collected or not, the County Supervisors would be stimulated to require of the Treasurer a strict performance of his duties; and if, in addition, you should so change the present law as to give County Treasurers in lieu of salary, a per centum on the amount of money collected and disbursed, or provide for township collectors, to be paid in the same way, our taxes would, in my opinion, be more punctually paid.

“I also recommend that it be made the duty of the Board of Supervisors of each county to employ a competent accountant, once in each year, to examine the accounts of each county officer, and state an account between each officer and his county, and between officer and officer; and also that County Treasurers, and all other persons who receive public moneys, be prohibited, under severe penalties, from using them in any way, or placing them with others to be used, for their private benefit.”

There is due this State, from the United States, for expenses incurred by the State in raising and equipping troops, and sending them to the field, and for other purposes growing out of the rebellion, the estimated amount of $300,000. There is much difficulty in procuring an adjustment of this claim at Washington.

When these moneys were expended by the State, there was no law of Congress, or regulation of the Federal Government prescribing the form in which proof of the expenditures should be taken; and the General Assembly of this State provided, by law, for such proofs and vouchers as were deemed sufficient, both for the protection of the State and the United States. Upon presentation of these proofs and vouchers to the proper Department at Washington, they are found not to comply, in form, with regulations since adopted by that Department; and it is doubtful whether they will be allowed without some legislation by Congress. Some portions of these expenditures, thus made, are also objected to as not coming within the letter of existing laws of the United States. Among these are the sums paid by the State for the subsistence and pay of the troops that went from this State to Missouri, at the request of United States officers, under command of Colonels Edwards and Morlege.

There is, also an unsettled claim against the United States, for expenditures by the State, for the protection of our people during the two winters following the massacre on our north-western frontier, by Ink-pa-du-tah and his band. The United States are also, in my judgment, justly liable for the amounts expended by this State in protecting our people on the north-western and southern borders since the commencement of the rebellion. I recommend the appointment of an agent of the State to proceed to Washington to press the adjustment of these claims, and to secure, if necessary, additional legislation by Congress for that purpose.

The expenditures of the State on the north-western and southern borders, are made payable, by law, out of the War and Defense Fund. This fund was found to be insufficient, and, in June last, a large amount of warrants on that fund were outstanding and drawing interest for want of means to pay them. There was, at the same time, a large amount of ordinary revenue in the Treasury not needed for ordinary expenses, and the Auditor and Treasurer, upon consultation with me decided to apply the ordinary revenue to the payment of the War and Defense Fund Warrants, so far as it could be done without interfering with the payment of ordinary revenue warrants as presented. This was done to the amount of about $159,000, and thereby a considerable amount in interest was saved to the State. As some doubt exists as to the strict legality of this course the matter is laid before you that you may take such action as may be necessary. If the amount due from the United States could be recovered, it would, probably, be sufficient to reimburse the revenue, fund and redeem all outstanding warrants and claims on the War and Defense Fund.

In my judgment all real estate should be carried on the tax books in the name of the true owners; and this result can be effected with very little labor and expense, by requiring the Treasurers to furnish the Assessors with complete lists of the names of all real estate owners, as shown by the last tax book; to correct the names erroneously entered, whenever such error is shown upon the payment of taxes, and by requiring all deeds to be presented to the Treasurer for the transfer of the real estate therein described to the new owner, before the same can be recorded.

I recommend the enactment of a law for receiving the new national currency, and a modification of the present law for receiving the notes of branches of the State Bank, that both may be available in payment of taxes. As the law now stands, the notes of said branches cannot, legally, be received after any one of them shall have suspended specie payment. A change of the law so as to authorize the receipt of these notes, so long as they shall be redeemed in legal tender notes of the United States, would in my judgment, be wise and proper.

I cannot leave this subject without special mention of the Board of Auditing Commissioners. I am well satisfied, that, to their faithful and impartial discharge of their duties, the State is largely indebted for its protection against improper claims, and consequently for its healthy financial condition.

THE SCHOOL AND UNIVERSITY FUNDS.

The situation of these funds demands your earnest attention. You are their guardians and custodians. Upon their management depends to a great degree, the educational interests of the State; and upon the proper education of our youth depends the welfare and safety of our Government.

I cannot approve the system by which these funds are now managed. The principal, received by the State in cash, has been distributed among the counties, to be loaned to individuals by certain county officials; at one time by the School Fund Commissioners, at another by the County Judges, and now by the County Clerk, subject to a limited control by the Board of Supervisors. Would any of you, having a large amount of money to lend, lend it through those agencies? If not, is it right to do so with the public money? Is it not right and proper that you should do, in regard to these funds just what you would were they your private property? The present system is, in my judgment, a bad one, for two reasons. In the first place, it must happen in many cases, that the County Clerk is not fitted, by previous business training, to make safe and judicious investments; especially, he may not have the necessary legal knowledge to enable him to determine, accurately, the sufficiency of the title to real estate offered as security for a loan. In the second place, the money may be used to promote personal or political objects. A corrupt Clerk will use, and an honest but weak one will be sorely tempted to use his power to lend these moneys to secure his own political interest, or that of his party friends. The system, in my opinion, is wrong in theory, and that it is unsafe in practice is clearly shown by the large amount of insufficiently secured principal and delinquent interest. I therefore earnestly recommend that the lending of any portion of the principal of said funds as heretofore, be prohibited, and the enactment of a law that will require the investment, by the Treasurer of State, of such principal, as the same may be paid in, in stocks of the United States, or of this State.

In this connection I request your special attention to the Report of the Auditor of State on this subject.

SCHOOL AND UNIVERSITY LANDS.

The School Lands consist of the five hundred thousand acres grant, and the Sixteenth Section. Large quantities of these Lands have, from time to time, been sold by county officers, authorized by law to make such sales. These sales have been generally made upon time, the purchaser paying in hand a portion of the purchase money, and taking a contract entitling him to a patent from the State upon the payment of the balance with annual interest. Many of these sales were made at high prices, before the monetary revulsion of 1857, and many of the purchasers have, since that revulsion, failed to pay either principal or interest. Portions of the lands have thus become forfeited to the State for non-payment of the purchase money, and have been re-sold to other parties. But there is no sufficient provision of law requiring such forfeitures and re-sales to be reported to any State officer, and the result is that it is now impossible to ascertain, from any record at the Capitol, the number of acres or the particular description of the several parcels of the School Lands yet unsold.

This condition of affairs should not be permitted to continue, and I recommend the enactment of such laws as will remove the difficulty.

The Saline Lands and Funds are now "a part of the Permanent Fund" of the State University. I call your attention to that part of the Report of the Register of the State Land Office, which shows the necessity for further legislation in regard to the issuance of Certificates of full payment for the portion of these lands already sold, and recommend that the Treasurer of the University be authorized to issue such certificates, and that the power to sell the unsold portion of the lands be vested in the Trustees.

In many cases School Lands were sold, prior to 1857, at such high prices that, after that date, they were not worth the amount due on them. The purchasers have ceased to pay either principal or interest. I suggest the inquiry, whether it would not be well to provide for the surrender of these lands to the State, the purchaser being relieved from further liability, by forfeiting payments already made, without resort to legal proceedings.

I call your particular attention to the full and able report of the Register of the State Land Office. It contains much valuable information touching the various land grants made to the State, and suggests several points upon which further legislation is needed.

THE 500,000 ACRES GRANT.

As I have elsewhere stated, it is not possible to ascertain, in any office here, the amount or the description of the various parcels of this land yet unsold by the State. The records of the Register show the amount that has been patented to purchasers, but do not show how much of the balance has been sold or is held under contract of sale, and how much is unsold. This is also true of the Sixteenth Section lands. The Ninth General Assembly provided, by law, for the purchase, for the use of the School Fund, of lands mortgaged by borrowers of that fund, as security, but the law does not provide for the making of a return to the Register, of lands thus purchased and of sales made thereof by the officers authorized to sell. Information on all these points can be had, only, in the various counties. Under these circumstances, it is clearly impossible for the State to exercise over these lands and their proceeds, that vigilant superintendence it should exercise. These lands were granted to the State, in trust, for educational purposes, and good faith to the grantor, as well as the best interest of the State, involved in the education of our youth, require the utmost care and vigilance in the execution of the trust.

I therefore recommend the passage of a law making it obligatory upon the proper county officers to make return to the Register of all the lands of the Sixteenth Section and the 500,000 Acres Grant, sold in their respective counties, the dates of sales, the names of the persons to whom sold, the terms of sale, and the extent to which these terms have been complied with, the forfeitures to the State for non-payment, and the re-sales of the lands thus forfeited, with full particulars, and like full information concerning the lands mortgaged by borrowers of the School Fund, and purchased by the State for the use of the said fund. To secure uniformity, it would be well to require the Register to furnish forms to the county officers, and to secure the making of the returns, it would also be well to provide for the punishment of any officer failing to make them.

The University Grant Lands are now under the control of the Trustees of the University, and the Saline Lands now belonging to the University, should, I think, be under the same control. I recommend, however, that the Register be required to call for, and the Trustees to furnish information in regard to these lands, similar to that above named in regard to the School Lands, that the Register may have, in his office, full and particular evidence of their situation.

THE DES MOINES RIVER GRANT.

Portions of these lands above the City of Des Moines, have been sold to individuals whose titles are now contested by certain Railroad Companies. I repeat a portion of my communication to the Ninth General Assembly, on this subject, as follows:

“The State having only conveyed what title it had to these lands may not be, legally, liable to make good any loss resulting to others from a failure of that title; but, certainly, is morally bound at least, to do what may be reasonably and fairly done to protect the rights and interests of those threatened with such loss. When the State granted to the Railroad Companies the lands granted to the State by Congress for Railroad purposes, it was not contemplated by the parties, certainly it was not contemplated by the State, that it was granting to these Companies lands previously conveyed by the State to others; and if, since the making of these grants the Companies who are to receive the benefit of them, have discovered that, by strict legal construction, they are entitled to more than was contemplated, either by themselves or by the State, and are disposed to enforce strictly, these legal rights to the injury of innocent purchasers from the State, the State may, and, I think, should hold these Companies in all things to a strict compliance with the terms of the grants made to them. If these Companies are now in default, and ask the indulgence and clemency of the State, it seems to me the State may, very properly, before extending such indulgence and clemency, enquire and know what indulgence and clemency these Companies will extend to the unfortunate holders of these lands, and make for the one, with the other, such terms and conditions as may be equitable and just to all.”

At that Session, a law was passed forbidding the Governor to certify any further lands to the Dubuque and Sioux City Railroad Company, until said Company should have released to the State for the benefit of her grantees, the title to such of these lands as were claimed by that Company. No such release has been given, nor have any further lands been certified to said Company.

There is another conflict of title between the Des Moines Navigation Company, claiming as grantee of the State, and the Railroad Companies touching which the Report of the Register will afford you much valuable information. It is very desirable that these conflicts should be settled, because so long as they remain unsettled, the uncertainty of the title will prevent purchasers from either of the contesting parties, and the lands will remain vacant.

The joint resolution of Congress of date March 3d, 1861, and the Act of Congress of date July 12th, 1862, concerning these lands have, in my judgment, put it in the power of the State to do something towards an amicable and equitable adjustment of this difficulty, and I recommend that an effort be made to that end. I further recommend that, if such effort shall fail, the Attorney General of the State be directed to bring or cause to be brought in the Courts of the United States, if it may be done, such suit or suits as will procure from the Supreme Court of the United States a final decision of these vexed questions.

THE SWAMP LAND GRANT.

I recommend the modification of the law approved April 8th 1862, providing for the appointment of agents in regard to these lands, so as to allow the appointment of but a single agent on the part of the State, and to prohibit the appointment of special agents by counties. I am well satisfied that a single agent appointed by the State, will be able to effect more towards a speedy settlement of the Swamp Land business of the State, at Washington, than a larger number will do.

The same reasons which render desirable the settlement of the conflicting claims of the Railroad Companies, and the grantees of the State to portions of the Des Moines River Grant, apply with equal force to the conflict of title that has arisen between certain counties and the Railroad Companies as to portions of the Swamp Lands. I invite your careful examination of the question, whether you can do anything to bring about a settlement of these conflicting claims.

The Swamp Lands are granted to the State upon the condition "that the proceeds of said lands, whether from sale or direct appropriation, in kind, shall be applied, exclusively, as far as necessary, to the purpose of re-claiming such lands, by means of the levees and drains aforesaid." The State by accepting this Grant, covenanted to perform this condition, either directly, or by those to whom she granted the lands; and this obligation still remains, and must continue to remain until it shall have been done. I recommend a careful examination of the legislation already had in regard to these lands, for the purpose of ascertaining if this point has been sufficiently secured, and supplying additional legislation, should it be found necessary.

I invite your special attention to that portion of the Report of the Register relating to the decision of the Secretary of the Interior, changing the form and substance of the proof required, of the swampy character of the lands sold by the United States, after the date of the Swamp Land Grant, for which the United States are to indemnify the State, and the decision of that officer, cutting off all claims for indemnity in counties where the Swamp Land selections were made after the 3d of March, 1857; and I recommend that you take the action suggested by the Register on these points. There can be no good reason why the claims of Iowa, under this Grant, shall not be settled upon as liberal terms as the claims of other States; and if, by want of county organizations in a portion of our State, the proper steps were not taken to secure these lands in those counties within the time limited by law, I have no doubt that Congress will upon a proper presentation of the facts, extend the time so that it may yet be done.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE GRANT.

Under the Act of Congress, approved July 2d, 1862, granting lands to the States and Territories which may provide Colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts, this State is entitled to receive 240,000 acres of land, upon the conditions contained in said Act. These lands have been selected, and the selections are now being examined at Washington.

Among the conditions contained in the Act making the grant, are the following: that "no portion of said fund," (meaning the proceeds of the sales of the land granted,) "nor the interest thereon shall be applied, directly or indirectly, under any pretence whatever to the purchase, erection, preservation or repair of any building or buildings," and that "any State which may take and claim the benefit of this Act, shall provide, within five years, at least, not less than one College, as described in the fourth section of this Act, or the grant to such State shall cease, and said State shall be bound to pay the United States the amount received for any lands previously sold, and that the title to purchasers, under the State, shall be valid."

The fourth section of the Act provides, that all the proceeds of the lands granted, (except one-tenth of the amount, which may be expended for the purchase of lands for sites, or experimental farms,) shall be invested in stocks of the United States, or of the States, or some other safe stocks," * * * "and the interest shall be inviolably appropriated, by each State which may take and claim the benefit of this Act, to the endowment, support and maintenance of, at least, one College, where the leading object shall be, without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture, the mechanic arts, &c."

The grant, thus made to the State, is a magnificent one, being about five times as large as that made for the support of the State University, and will, if properly husbanded and cared for, make a rich endowment. But, to secure the grant, sufficient funds must be provided outside the grant, to erect the necessary buildings; and then funds must be provided to meet the current yearly expenses, until a quantity of the lands can be sold, the interest of the proceeds of which, invested as required by the law making the grant, will support the institution.

If these funds cannot be furnished or provision made in some other way to comply with the terms of the Grant, the State will lose the great benefits she may otherwise derive from this magnificent donation. I recommend the subject to your careful consideration.

THE SUPREME COURT.

I very earnestly recommend to you the passage of a law providing for the early appointment and subsequent election of an additional Judge of the Supreme Court; and also, that you make an appropriation of the sum of five thousand dollars to be expended under the direction of the Court, for the purchase of law books for the State Library.

The first of these measures I deem necessary to enable the Court to do its work promptly, and the second, to enable it to do it well. This tribunal is one of the most important branches of our State Government. Upon its action more, perhaps, than upon that of any other branch of the Government, must our people depend for security for life, liberty and property. Questions are continually brought before it, from all parts of the State, affecting the most important interest of the parties to those questions; and the rules and principles established in deciding them, become rules and principles controlling the interest of every resident of the State. It is, therefore, of the first importance that the Court shall have time to examine all questions fully and carefully before deciding, and that it should have the means of making that examination intelligently. The Court now consists of only three members, and the amount of business before it is such, that, either great delay must ensue in disposing of it, or it must be transacted in such haste as to preclude proper examination and deliberation. The addition of another Judge will largely increase its working capacity, and will afford more time for careful and intelligent action.

The absolute necessity for a good Law Library, to a court of last resort, must be apparent to all. It is as unreasonable to expect learned and correct decisions from a court deprived of a good library, as it is to expect good and well finished work from a mechanic without tools. The Reports of other States contain the well considered opinions of their most learned Judges; the elementary works contain the principles upon which our whole legal system is based, and to require our Judges to decide cases involving questions affecting the most vital rights and interests of our people, without the opportunity to consult these fountains of law, is unreasonable in itself, and tends to render doubtful and uncertain the principles controlling and protecting these rights and interests.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

This institution is now in a very flourishing condition. The number of students in attendance at the present time, is over three hundred and fifty, and they come from all parts of the State. The Faculty are devoted to the interests of the institution, and it is rapidly becoming, what it was intended to be, an honor to the State and a powerful aid in promoting her highest interests.

I renew my former recommendation, that provision be made, by law, for a Military Professorship in the University. Such professorship will not only popularize the institution, but will impart to our young men a kind of knowledge, the want of which has cost us many men and much treasure, since the commencement of the rebellion; and the necessity for which, in the future, the history of other nations teaches, may come upon us at any time.

The Board of Education, at their last session, directed the Trustees of the University to establish a Military Professorship as soon as the General Assembly should make the necessary appropriations. I have placed two hundred stand of arms, with accoutrements, in the hands of the Faculty, and I earnestly commend the matter to your favorable consideration.

The present number of students in attendance upon the University is greater than the capacity of the University buildings to accommodate; and, with the prospective increase in numbers, these buildings will soon be entirely inadequate to the wants of the institution, and candidates for admission must be turned away for lack of room to receive them.

The former Hall of the House of Representatives, now used as a Chapel, is insufficient for the present numbers, and many are thus excluded from Chapel services. A larger hall is imperatively needed for Chapel, Commencement and all other exercises requiring the assembling of the whole number of students.

There are no suitable rooms for the Chemical Laboratory. This, to our agricultural State, is, perhaps, the most important department of our University. Chemistry is becoming daily a more liberal contributor to agricultural knowledge and success; and the advancement of chemical science in our State, through the State University, should be especially encouraged.

Our University will not be complete until it shall have an Astronomical Observatory connected with it. This has already become a prominent feature of the University of Michigan, and the demands of our more Western location will soon require it of us. A building may be erected to answer all these purposes at much less cost than to provide for them separately.

Our State now stands with the foremost of her sister States in her intelligent and heroic devotion to the political institutions of our country. She needs but to use her advantages to take an equally high position in science and literature. The people are ready to avail themselves of the facilities furnished, and only ask that the State shall supply them. I respectfully urge upon you such action as shall tend, ultimately, to place the State University of Iowa among the foremost of similar institutions in the land.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

I call your attention to the report of the Curators of the State Historical Society.

Passing events render the work of this Society vastly more important than ever before. We are now making history with wonderful rapidity, but are making it in a fragmentary manner. Future ages demand of us that we collect and preserve these fragments as material from which a full and reliable record of the great events of our day may be preserved. This, with the ordinary work of the Society in collecting the early history of our State, is more than it can well perform with the means at its disposal.

No man can be found to devote to it the necessary time without compensation. I recommend an appropriation of five hundred dollars, as compensation for this purpose, in addition to the five hundred dollars heretofore appropriated for other purposes.

CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

The Reports of the Trustees of the Blind Asylum and of the Asylum for the Insane, are herewith submitted. I recommend the appointment of a special committee to visit each of these institutions for the purpose of examining into their condition and wants, and that all may be done that the condition of our finances will allow, to make these institutions effective for accomplishing the noble objects for which they were founded.

I call your special attention to the final Report of Commissioner for superintending the erection of the Blind Asylum.

The Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb is still at Iowa City, in a building rented for that purpose. The annual rent paid is $375. Whether it is advisable, at this time, to erect a new building, the interest on the cost of which will far exceed the rent now paid, or whether it is best to continue to occupy the rented buildings for a longer time, are questions properly committed to your judgment and discretion. The Report of the Trustees showing the expenditures for the last two years, and the estimates for the ensuing two years, are herewith submitted.

There has been a material increase in the prices of nearly all the articles required for the support of the pupils in these institutions, and consequently there should be a proportionate increase in the sums appropriated.

THE PENITENTIARY.

I was notified by the Warden, in June, 1862, that the old shops in the prison yard had been destroyed by fire. The contract between the State and the contractors for the prison labor, required the State to furnish shop room to work the criminals. The contractors had, in a suit tried and determined before this fire, made the want of sufficient shop room the basis of a claim for heavy damages against the State, which had been allowed them, and I had good reason to believe the want of shop room, caused by the fire, would be made the basis of another similar claim. Under these circumstances, I requested the Attorney General to meet me at the prison, and after consultation with him, the Warden and myself entered into a contract with Messrs Winterbotham & Jones, contractors for the prison labor, for the erection of new shops, at a cost of $8,504.67; which was paid as follows; Material from old shops, $200; cash appropriated at the last preceding Session for a new blacksmith shop, $2,500; proceeds of judgment in favor of State against contractors, $945.59; the balance of $4,859.08 to apply on the amount due, or to become due to the State, from the contractors, for prison labor.

It is a matter of doubt whether I had the authority to make this contract; but as the necessity appeared to be imperative, and as the contract could be made without drawing from the Treasury any money not appropriated by law, I deemed it my duty, having due regard to the interests of the State, to make the contract, and did so.

The new shops were completed in accordance with the terms of the contract, and have been ever since in use. The old shops were illy arranged, inconvenient and unsightly, and situated as they were, near the centre of the prison yard, interfered materially with the preservation of proper order and discipline among the convicts. The new shops are large, substantial, and well arranged, and much more favorably located than the old ones.

A new contract has not as yet been made under the law passed at the extra session of 1862, for re-letting the convict labor. I have very serious doubts whether it is advisable, at this time, to re-let the whole of the labor. A large amount of work must necessarily soon be done in and about the prison. As our population increases, the number of convicts will increase, and of course there will be necessary an increase of cell room. This can now be had, most economically and advantageously, by building a Warden's house on the foundation already laid for that purpose, and using the part of the main building now occupied by the Warden, for cell room; and by raising the roof and walls of the main building so as to receive two additional tiers of cells. The wall on one side of the yard has not yet been built, and I understand some additional grading is needed before it can be. The convicts can do much of the labor required for these improvements as well as hired laborers, and at much less cost to the State. Should this policy be adopted, it may be necessary to employ a few additional guards, but the additional expense will be much less than the difference between the cost of convict and other labor.

I have not been able to give as much time as I desired to supervising the affairs of the prison for the last two years; but I am of opinion everything has been done by the Warden and his subordinates, carefully, economically and well. The Warden's Report contains a full account of the receipts and expenditures, and a statement of what is, in his judgment, necessary to be done within the next two years. I invite your attention to this Report, and recommend the appointment of a special committee to visit the prison to examine the condition of the prison buildings for the purpose of determining the policy to be pursued in re-letting the prison labor.

ORGANIZING AND ARMING VOLUNTEER COMPANIES.

I became satisfied during the early part of last summer that designing men in this, as in other loyal States, were making preparations for an armed resistance to the authority of the General Government. The law of Congress, providing for a draft to fill the ranks of the Union Army, contained a provision that was eagerly seized upon to array the poorer of our people against the Government upon the specious pretence that the object of the law was to discriminate between the rich and the poor, to the injury of the poor.

The action of the Government, in freeing and using the slaves in the rebel States for the suppression of the Rebellion, was represented as a scheme, by the Government, to overrun the free States with the freed slaves, to the prejudice of the interest of the poor white man.

The Government had in some instances, arrested and temporarily imprisoned or sent beyond our lines, persons whose restraint the public safety required; and this was interpreted to mean, an intention on the part of the Government to break down all the defences of civil liberty, and to establish a despotism. The entire policy of our Government, as interpreted by these men, was that the war was waged, not for the preservation of the Union, but for the abolition of Slavery; that the object of the Government, in seeking to abolish Slavery was to bring the freed slaves North, and force their labor into competition with that of the poor white man; that by the so-called Conscription Law, the Government sought to force only the poor men of the country into the ranks of the army, to effect these objects so prejudicial to their interests, and that while these objects were being effected, the Government intended to overthrow our free institutions, and establish in their stead a despotism!

It is passing strange that intelligent men could be found so wicked as to make these statements, and that other men could be found so ignorant and foolish as to believe them. But so it was. These statements were made through the press and from the stump, in the most violent and exciting language, apparently with all the earnestness of conviction, and thousands of honest, but deluded men, believed them, and in consequence entertained feelings of deep hostility to the Government. In this excited state of the public mind, secret societies were organized in many, if not all of the loyal States, the members of which were, to some extent, secretly armed for the avowed purpose of protecting themselves against what were called "Arbitrary Arrests," but as I am satisfied with the intent upon the part of the leaders to bring their members into armed collision with the General Government, in case any attempt should be made to enforce the draft. The natural result of these teachings and this action, was seen in the bloody riot that occurred in the chief city of the Union, and in similar smaller outbreaks in other places.

Under these circumstances, my duty seemed to me to be plain and clear. I was bound to see the enforcement of the laws and the preservation of peace and good order; and when organized action was being taken throughout the State to prevent the one, and violate the other, I did not think my duty permitted me to wait until the evil was upon us before I took steps for its prevention. I accordingly called upon the loyal men of the State, who were willing to aid in the enforcement of the law, to organize a volunteer military company in each county of the State. Such companies were promptly organized, in most of the counties, of loyal and substantial citizens, and as they were organized, I placed arms and ammunition in their hands to make their organizations effective. By these means a sufficient force was provided to preserve the peace of the State and insure the enforcement of the law of Congress, without weakening our army facing the enemy by withdrawing any portion of it for that purpose, and in my judgment, this state of preparation to preserve the peace, tended largely to prevent its violation.

There was but a single occasion in which it was necessary to use the force thus organized. About the first day of August last, as a number of persons, who had been attending a political meeting near the village of South English, in Keokuk county, were returning through that village, a collision took place between them and other persons in the village, in which a Mr. Tally, who had addressed the meeting, was killed. The friends of Tally, instead of appealing to the laws and the officers of the law for redress, chose to assume that the officers of the law would not do their duty. They sent runners to various points and in a short time had gathered, near Sigourney, the county seat of the county, a large body of armed men, who undertook to dictate to the officers of the law for what offence and in what manner, the persons charged with killing Tally should be tried and punished. Much alarm existed throughout the county. The county funds were sent off for safety, and arrangements were made to send away the county records; and orderly and law-abiding people were in great anxiety and terror. As soon as these facts were made known to me, I at once ordered to Sigourney a sufficient number of volunteer companies, of infantry and artillery, to give protection to the people and the officers of the law, and to show those assembled for unlawful purposes, not only the hopelessness, but the danger of their attempt to overawe the authorities; and I am glad to be able to inform you that the display of force was sufficient to effect the desired object. As soon as it became known that a force was being gathered to sustain the law, the unlawful assemblage quietly dispersed, order and tranquility were restored, and the officers of the law were left unmolested in the performance of their duty.

The Companies thus organized and armed are still in existence, and, should any further legislation be deemed necessary for their efficiency, I recommend that such legislation be had.

In closing this subject, I would return my thanks to the officers and men ordered by me to Sigourney and South English, on the occasion referred to, for the promptness with which they responded to the order, and their soldierly conduct and bearing while on duty.

At the commencement of the Session of the Ninth General Assembly, the State had organized and sent to the field fourteen Regiments of Infantry, three Regiments of Cavalry, and three Batteries of Artillery; and had in process of organization, two Regiments of Infantry and one of Cavalry. Of these Regiments, the First Infantry was enlisted for three months, and had then been mustered out of service. All the others were enlisted for three years. Since the commencement of that Session, the two Regiments of Infantry and one of Cavalry, then incomplete, have been organized, and in addition thereto, twenty-four Regiments of Infantry, five Regiments of Cavalry, and one Battery have been enlisted, and all for three years. Besides these complete organizations, a large number of men have been enlisted for Regiments in the field. I have not been able, as yet, to ascertain whether the quota of this State, under the last call of the President for volunteers to fill the ranks of our veteran Regiments, has been filled. If it has not, the deficiency cannot be large, if the proper credit has been given by the Provost Marshal General for our excess over all quotas previously called for, and can be easily and promptly filled by draft.

Besides the troops thus furnished to the army of the Union, there were organized, as required by the Acts of the Extra Session of 1862, five companies of mounted men for the protection of our north-western frontier against Indians, and ten companies of mounted men on our southern border, to protect the persons and property of our people on that line, against the depredations of organized bands of guerillas from Missouri. The Report of the Adjutant General will furnish you full information of the number of men that have been kept in active service on each of these lines, and of the number now in service. The companies on the north-western frontier have all been disbanded, and their place supplied by troops of the United States. While these companies were in service, they were required to erect block-houses and other buildings, at different points, for their own convenience, and to serve as rallying points for the people in case of attack. These buildings are now occupied in whole or in part, by the United States troops on that line. I recommend such legislation as may be necessary for the preservation of these buildings. They may be useful in future, in case of another outbreak of the Indians.

We owe much, very much, to the brave men who have gone out from among us to take their places in the ranks of the army battling for the preservation of the Constitution and the Union. We owe much to those of them who are still living to fight for us, and much more to the families of those who have given their lives for our protection. Their duty to go was no greater than ours, but, in patriotism, they far excelled us. How shall we pay this debt? The praise we so freely accord, the honors we so joyfully confer upon them, and the gratitude we so deeply feel, are but small recompense. Of those who have died in the hospital and on the battle field, many have left behind them young children, who need care, protection and education, which the State is under the most solemn obligation to supply. Some of the soldiers, yet living, have been so far disabled that they cannot properly care for themselves. These we should support and maintain. I very earnestly recommend, that, either wholly by the State, or, by means of aid furnished by the State to those of our people who may be disposed to enter upon this work, ample provision be made for a home in which the children of our deceased soldiers may be cared for and educated, and in which those of our soldiers who may be unable to support themselves, may pleasantly live, the honored guests of a grateful people.

I renew a recommendation made by me in a Special Message to the General Assembly convened in Extra Session in 1862, as follows:

“The burthens of the war now being waged by our people for the preservation of our Government, bear heavily on us, and should be borne as equally as possible. These burthens are of two kinds: First, that of military duty in the field; and second, that of taxation at home. It seems to me to be unequal and unfair that those of us who bear the first of these burthens should be compelled to share with those of us who remain at home the second; that the soldiers who are fighting our battles in the field should be also compelled to pay their share of taxes equally with those who do not share their perils and privations.

“The compensation paid to those of our soldiers who hold commissions is sufficiently liberal to enable them to pay their taxes without inconvenience; but it is not so with their no less worthy but less fortunate comrades. It would, I think, be a just recognition by us, of our appreciation of the patriotism and self-sacrifice of the latter if we were to release them, during their service, from all taxes levied under State laws, and it would doubtless be news of comfort and cheer to them amid the dangers and trials by which they are surrounded for our sakes, that we had been careful that the houses that sheltered their wives and their little ones had been secured from danger of sale for taxes by our voluntary assumption of their share of the one burthen, while they are bravely bearing our share of the other. I therefore recommend to you that you pass a law exempting from all taxation under the laws of the State, the real and personal property of all non-commissioned officers and privates in the Regiments of this State in the Army of the United States, during their continuance in service, and that for the current year there be added to the per centum of taxation upon the valuation of the property of all other tax-payers the sum of one-fourth of one mill on each dollar of such valuation, to cover the deficiency in revenue thereby created."

Much has been done by Sanitary Associations, in this and other States, for the health and comfort of our troops in the field and in the hospital, and for the support of their families at home.

The business of the General Sanitary Associations and of the local Aid Societies, in furnishing supplies to our soldiers in the field, has now become well arranged and systematized, and consequently, much more effective. This work can be done much better by those Societies than by the State, and I recommend that the State leave the matter in their hands. There should, however, be a liberal appropriation for a contingent fund, under the control of the Governor, from which he can, upon emergency, furnish aid to these Societies and to sick and disabled soldiers, under special circumstances, and by means of which, he can send to and keep in the field, such agents of the State as may be necessary for the comfort and well-being of our soldiers.

I very earnestly recommend, that some systematic mode of furnishing aid to the needy families of our soldiers be adopted. Whether this can be best done by moneys furnished by the State, and distributed by persons appointed by the State, or, through the instrumentality of local Aid Societies, is a question of doubt. It is very certain the work should be done in some way, and I have no doubt your wisdom will ascertain and adopt the proper mode.

The office of the Adjutant General has, since the commencement of the war, been, and still is, a very important one. The labor and responsibility of the Adjutant General has been very great. The labor has always been well and promptly performed, and the responsibility cheerfully borne. The books of the office are well systematized and kept in most excellent condition. They embody a mass of information, in a neat and accessible form, that will, in the future, be highly useful to our soldiers and their friends and to the State. It affords me great pleasure to say, that much, of whatever success has attended the raising and organization of troops in this State, is due to the efficient services of the present incumbent of that office. The compensation, now allowed by law, is, in my judgment, wholly inadequate, and I recommend the increase of the salary to the sum of two thousand dollars per annum, with an allowance for traveling and other extraordinary expenses.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

I can not close this communication and with it, my official connection with the people of our State, without adverting to the condition of national affairs in which we are all so deeply and so vitally interested.

The war for the destruction of the Union on the one hand, and for its preservation on the other, still goes on. During the present year the successes of the Union armies have been so numerous and so important that the public mind appears to have settled down into the belief that our ultimate success is certain and not far distant; and is now, to some extent, occupied with the question of reconstruction, so-called—the question as to the manner in which, and the terms and conditions upon which, the people within the territory composing the rebel States can again take part with the people of the loyal States, in administering the affairs of the General Government.

The President has recently issued a Proclamation to the people of the rebel States, in which he proposes to them such terms and conditions as, in his judgment, are right and proper. He proposes, in substance, that as soon as a number of the voting population of any one of those States, equal to one-tenth of the entire voting population of the State, as shown at the last Presidential election, shall take an oath, the form of which is prescribed, and shall establish a new Government, Republican in form, and consistent with the terms of the prescribed oath, such Government shall be recognized as the true Government of the State, and protected as such.

The terms of the prescribed oath are, that the party taking it "will henceforth faithfully support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the union of the States thereunder; and will, in like manner, abide by and faithfully support, all acts of Congress passed during the existing rebellion with reference to slaves, so long and so far as not repealed, modified, or held void by Congress, or by decision of the Supreme Court; and will, in like manner, abide by and faithfully support all proclamations of the President made during the existing rebellion having reference to slaves, so long and so far as not modified or declared void by decision of the Supreme Court."

Certain persons, that is to say "all who are or shall have been civil or diplomatic officers or agents of the so-called Confederate Government; all who have left judicial stations under the United States to aid the rebellion; all who are or shall have been military or naval officers of said so-called Confederate Government, above the rank of Colonel in the army, or of Lieutenant in the navy; all who left seats in the United States Congress to aid the rebellion; all who resigned commissions in the army or navy of the United States, and afterwards aided in the rebellion; and all who have engaged in any way, in treating colored persons, or white persons in charge of such, otherwise than lawfully as prisoners of war, and which persons may have been found in the United States service as soldiers, seamen, or in any other capacity," are excepted from the benefits of the Proclamation; all others, complying with the terms and conditions, have extended to them a full pardon "with restoration of all rights of property except as to slaves and in property-cases where rights of third parties shall have intervened."

The President, in his Proclamation, further declares "that any provision which may be adopted by such State Government in relation to the freed people of such State, which shall recognize and declare their permanent freedom, provide for their education, and which may yet be consistent, as a temporary arrangement, with their present condition as a laboring, landless and homeless class, will not be objected to by the National Executive. And it is suggested as not improper, that in constructing a loyal State Government in any State, the name of the State, the boundary, the sub-division, the Constitution and the general Code of Laws, as before the rebellion, be maintained, subject only to the modifications made necessary by the conditions herein before stated, and such others, if any, not contravening said conditions, and which may be deemed expedient by those framing the new State Government."

It seems to me these terms and conditions are eminently just and proper—fair and liberal to those to whom they are offered, and such as the permanent peace of the country requires.

All the people in the rebel States, perhaps, in law, certainly, a great majority, both in law and in fact, have committed treason—are guilty of that crime before the law, and are liable to the punishment affixed, by law, to the commission of that crime.

It would not be safe and judicious, either to punish all or to permit all to escape punishment. The leaders, the most guilty, should be punished. The mass, the least guilty, should be pardoned. An inspection of the exceptions from pardon, made by the President, will show he has made this distinction.

But, in extending pardon to the mass, it is just and proper that reasonable terms and conditions should be made.

The terms and conditions proposed by the President are, that the party guilty of treason shall swear, 1st, "That he will faithfully support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the union of the States thereunder." 2d, That he will "abide by and faithfully support all acts of Congress passed during the existing rebellion, with reference to slaves, so long and so far as not repealed, modified or held void by Congress or by decision of the Supreme Court." And 3d, That he will abide by and faithfully support all proclamations of the President, made during the existing rebellion, having reference to slaves, so long and so far as not modified or declared void by decision of the Supreme Court."

Are these terms and conditions reasonable? No possible objection can be taken to the first requirement—that these men shall support the Constitution and the Union. The second and third requirements are, that these men shall abide by the laws of Congress and the Proclamations of the President concerning slaves, until those laws shall be changed by Congress, or those laws, or the President's proclamations, be decided void by the Supreme Court. This is just what it is the duty of every loyal citizen to do—to abide by and support the law until changed by the law-making power, or declared void by the Courts.

It may be said that the Proclamations of the President are not laws; that he had not the Constitutional power to issue such Proclamations. But the President believes he had the Constitutional power so to do, and has so done, and he only proposes that these acts shall stand in law "so long and so far as not modified or declared void by decision of the Supreme Court." In imposing these terms and conditions on those in rebellion against our Government, who may desire to lay down their arms, the President is but requiring of them the performance of a duty required of all men who have remained loyal.

Upon accepting these terms and conditions, the men now guilty of treason and liable to punishment as criminals, are at once pardoned—are restored to their rights as citizens and again permitted to take part in administering our Government, and, at the same time, are restored to all their rights of property, except as to slaves, and where the rights of third parties have intervened. These exceptions are inevitable. If the acts of Congress and the Proclamations of the President concerning slaves, are Constitutional, then, so far as these acts and Proclamations reach, the slaves have become free, and cannot be restored to their former masters. Where property has been disposed of to third parties, under the Confiscation Act, it cannot be restored. Whatever has been lost to these men has been lost by reason of their own crimes; whatever yet remains will be restored if they will cease to be criminals.

Aside from the consideration, that, if the laws of Congress and the Proclamations of the President concerning slaves are valid as law, those who have been freed thereby cannot be again enslaved—aside from the consideration, that, even if this could be lawfully done, the doing of it would involve such a breach of honor and good faith, as would justly render us, as a nation, infamous throughout Christendom—aside from all considerations connected with slavery, as a social or moral question—aside from all considerations connected with its political effects upon the particular communities in which it exists, and looking upon it only in its bearing upon the present condition of our country, it seems to me that no man, who does not set the institution of slavery above the Union of the States, can now fail to do all that he lawfully may to aid in removing this curse from our nation.

It is directly or impliedly admitted by all, that slavery is the cause of the civil war now desolating the land, although different parties endeavor to throw the immediate blame upon their adversaries. The anti-slavery men of the country say that slavery is the cause of the war because, being founded on force, it is necessarily aggressive in its character; that it necessarily makes slaveholders, as a class, haughty, overbearing, impatient of control and unwilling to submit their opinions to those of the majority, whom they consider their inferiors. Some of the rebels admit, frankly, that the desire to perpetuate slavery and to make it the "corner stone" of the new confederacy, caused the rebellion, while others, and their apologists generally, insist, that the cause of our troubles is, not slavery itself, but the "fanaticism" of anti-slavery men on the subject of slavery; and there is still another class of our people who declare, that in their judgment, the cause of the war is to be found in the "fanaticism" upon the subject of slavery among extremists, North and South. These are but various statements of the same thing, showing that, however prejudice or partizanship may seek to evade or disguise the fact, our people, generally, recognize slavery as the cause of the war.

It is also true that slavery has been very much weakened since the war began; very large numbers of slaves have been set free, in fact, while other very large numbers, yet under the partial control of their masters, have been so operated upon by events as to make them unfit for slaves. It is, indeed, thought by many men, North and South, that in any event, slavery will perish.

It is also true that the anti-slavery sentiment of the country is stronger than ever before. The convictions of the anti-slavery men of the country, as to the dangerous nature of the institution, have lost nothing of their strength, while many thousands who, before the war were either indifferent or positively favorable to slavery, are now among its most determined opponents. Is it wise, then, for us, at a time when this cause of our troubles has nearly passed away, so to shape our action as to preserve a remnant that may take root and spread, until it has brought upon those who come after us, the terrible evils we are now enduring? Had we not better remove this cause of strife, and that being done, may we not reasonably hope that, when the natural bitterness growing out of our present strife shall have passed away, the kindly and fraternal feelings which, but for this cause, would have always existed, may be again restored?

But we should not permit the discussion of these, or similar questions, to divert us from the paramount purpose of prosecuting the war earnestly and vigorously, until all men in rebellion against the Government shall, either voluntarily or by compulsion, lay down their arms. In this consists our only safety, and I feel well assured that you will, so far as depends on you, see to it that Iowa, in the future as in the past, will do her full share of this good work, promptly and well.

The position occupied by our State, in this war for the preservation of the Union, is a proud and enviable one. From the first outbreak of the rebellion until the present time, Iowa has neither faltered nor wavered in the discharge of her duty. In both branches of the National Council she has presented an unbroken front to treason and rebellion, and has given a steady and undivided support to the General Government. Her State Government, in all its branches, has given evidence of her unflinching and unconditional loyalty and devotion to the good cause. Her people have, at all times and promptly, filled all requisitions made upon them for troops to fill the ranks of the Union armies; and the men she has sent to the field have been, at least, second to none in all soldierly qualities.

To these men yet another word is due from me. When this war began, ours was a new State, without a history. To day, her name stands on one of the brightest pages of our country's record—graven there by the bayonets of our brave soldiers, and that page is all over glowing with the proofs of their heroism and devotion. We have sent to the field no Regiment of which we do not feel justly proud, and the bare mention of the names of many of them stirs the blood and warms the heart of every Iowan.

It may perhaps be permitted me to say that I trust that when the history of the gallantry and devotion of these men shall be written, the position I have held will of necessity connect my name humbly, and not discreditably, with theirs, and that this trust affords compensation for somewhat of toil and care which have attended that position, and should be sufficient to satisfy an ambition greater than mine.

MR SPEAKER:—I have the honor to transmit, herewith, the Report of the Adjutant General of the State, from January 1, 1863, to January 11th, 1864, inclusive; the Report of the Warden of the Penitentiary; the Reports of the Officers of the Insane Asylum; the Reports of the Officers of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum; the Report of the Commissioner appointed to superintend the erection of the Blind Asylum; and the Report of the Curators of the State Historical Society.

These Reports are voluminous, and I cannot procure copies for the use of the Senate. I recommend that measures be taken by your House to furnish the Senate written or printed copies.

SAMUEL J. KIRKWOOD.

On motion of Mr. Bereman, the message and accompanying documents were laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Paulk presented the credentials of Messrs. Cort, Richards, O'Brien and Christoph, members elect from the 41st District.

Mr. Russell, of Jones, presented the credentials of Mr. Fuller, member elect from the 36th District.

MR. SPEAKER :—The Agent appointed to select the land donated to the State, for the endowment of a College or Colleges, devoted to the teaching of branches of learning relating to Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, has made the selections, and has nearly completed the necessary papers connected therewith.

The appropriation made to defray the necessary expenses (one thousand dollars,) has proved insufficient, and it will be necessary to appropriate the further sum of five hundred dollars to reimburse the agent for the moneys spent by him, and to pay him for his services.

SAMUEL J. KIRKWOOD.

On motion of Mr. Moir, the communication was laid upon the table and ordered to be printed.

The following communication was received from the Governor, and on motion of Mr. Russell, of Jones, it was laid upon the table and ordered to be printed.

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives :

I have the honor to communicate a statement of expenditures, of the appropriation for extraordinary expenses of the Executive Office, and for Sanitary purposes, since date of my last report, March 24th, 1862 :

Balance of appropriation of Extra Session of 1861, on hand March 24th, 1861.....	$ 3,797 93
Appropriated Regular Session 1862.....	10,000 00
Appropriated Extra Session 1862 and placed under my control.....	10,000 00
Appropriated same session and placed under control of Census Board.....	20,000 00
Amount returned by Dr. Orr, of $1,000, placed in his hands to aid our soldiers in Gen. Curtis' army.....	305 83
Donated by the Amana Society of Iowa County, Iowa, for Sanitary purposes.....	2,000 00
Total of funds.....	$46,103 76

Cr.

By vouchers from 1 to 232, inclusive, filed with Secretary of State, with list of same	$26,323 63
Amount in treasury undrawn.....	20,000 00	$46,323 63

Expended more than drawn	$219 87
--------------------------------	----------

The vouchers are quite numerous, and their preservation and safe keeping are important, as furnishing the means of settlement with parties who may have claims against, or settlements to make with, the State.

I have therefore deposited them with the Secretary of State, where they will be safe, and at the pleasure of either House.

I have transmitted to the Senate the written report of J. C. Todd, agent for the State at Keokuk. The State has had an agent at Memphis, Joshua Dial, from whom I have not had a written report.

The only permanent agents in the field have been Mrs. Anna Wittenmeyer, appointed by law, and Dr. A. S. Maxwell, appointed by me. Rev. A. J. Kynett has acted as an agent mainly within the State, but at times in the field.

These agents have all done their duty faithfully, and have done much to aid our soldiers.

There are unsettled accounts with all of them, except Mr. Kynett, that can be settled by my successor, and any balances due them, or any of them, paid out of the unexpended balance of the appropriation for extraordinary expenses.

Of the moneys reported as expended by me, over two thousand dollars were expended to meet the emergency caused by the Indian outbreak in 1862. There was not any other available fund from which the money could be had, and the necessity was imperative. I should have endeavored to have had this money restored to the fund, but found it sufficient without so doing.

SAMUEL J. KIRKWOOD.

Mr. Fry presented the following resolution :

Resolved, That in making the appropriations to pay the Clerks and other officers of this House, the following sums shall be allowed each :

Chief Clerk	$5 00
1st Assistant Clerk	4 00

Enrolling "	3 00
Engrossing "	3 00
Sergeant at Arms	3 00
Fireman	2 00
Doorkeeper	2 00
Messengers and paper folders	1 50

On motion of Russell, of Jones, the resolution was laid upon the table.

Mr. McNutt, chairman of the Committee on Credentials, reported as follows :

Your committee find that the credentials of the following persons are correct, and that they are entitled to seats in the House :
41st District.—D. Cort, B. B. Richards, D. O'Brien and John Christoph.

Whereupon the President of the Senate announced that the convention had met to canvass the vote for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, of the State of Iowa, and declare the result.

After calling the Roll,

The Speaker proceeded to announce the votes of the several counties in the State, for the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor ; pending which, Mr. Moir moved a recess until 2 o'clock, which was carried.

TWO O'CLOCK, P. M.

POST OFFICE, DES MOINES, Jan. 12.

Gentlemen of the House Committee :

In reply to your inquiries, I would say as I did to the Senate Committee, that we will endeavor to carry out your wishes as far as possible, with regard to the mailing of Legislative matter.

We will stamp all the letters sent to us bearing the frank of a member, if such be your wish. We will furnish 2 cent stamped wrappers, (paying for 4 ounces of papers or pamphlets) which the members can use themselves, the wrappers being self-sealing.

These will be found very convenient for sending off the Reports and Daily papers. Five of the Dailies may be sent in one wrapper, to one address, or two of the Weeklies. We have also a supply of two cent stamps, to be used on the same wrappers, where more than 4 ounces are sent in the one envelope.

If the House prefers to relieve itself entirely of the stamping matter, we will endeavor to carry out its wishes in the premises, although it will impose on us a serious amount of labor not contemplated by the Post Office Law.

If the House desires it, we can carry out for it the plan adopted by the Senate.

Very Respectfully,

J. TEESDALE.

Your Committee would recommend that his proposition to stamp all letters sent to him bearing the frank of a member of this House be accepted, and that the chief clerk be authorized to make arrangement with said Postmaster in accordance therewith. Your Committee would further recommend that the Secretary of State be requested to furnish each member with stamps or stamped envelopes, at the option of each member, to the amount of $—— per week. All of which is respectfully submitted.

EDWARD N. STILES.

Mr. Paulk presented the following minority report.

The undersigned one of the committee appointed to confer with the Postmaster of Des Moines, begs leave to make the following report. Governor elect, the retiring Governor, the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Bench, the officers of State, and officers of the army and navy, who were seated.

After prayer by the Rev. J. M. Chamberlain, Chief Justice Wright proceeded to administer the oath of office to William M. Stone, as Governor, and Enoch W. Eastman, as Lieutenant Governor of the State of Iowa; when his Excellency addressed the joint convention as follows:

Gentlemen of the Senate and

House of Representatives:

Assuming the Executive office, at a momentous period in public affairs, I have taken the oath prescribed by the Constitution, under a full sense of the grave obligations imposed. Profoundly grateful for the confidence of a generous and patriotic people, and with humble reliance on Him who has guided us through many trials, I shall endeavor to meet their just expectations, by an earnest and faithful discharge of the duties assigned me.

The duty of communicating to the General Assembly the condition of the State, as required by the Constitution, and recommending such measures as may be deemed expedient, for legislative action, more properly belongs to the out-going Executive, whose official connection with the affairs of government, for a term of years, has afforded him the benefit of that observation and experience, necessary to a proper understanding of the various measures demanded by the general welfare.

The recent message of my predecessor furnishes you the necessary information, concerning the condition and affairs of the State, during his official term; and is so specific in its recommendations that I need do but little more, on this occasion, than express my concurrence in the suggestions therein contained, and ask for them your favorable consideration.

Representing, as you do, the different portions of the State, and being conversant with their wants and interests, your aggregated information, and joint counsels, will enable you to perceive, and readily comprehend, every material subject which may demand your action. In our zeal to advance the public interests, however, we should bear in mind, that multiplicity of legislation, is neither wise nor expedient. Innovation is not always reform. And experience has abundantly demonstrated, that the utility of laws, to a great extent, depends upon their certainty; and that frequent changes in established rules, are a source of great inconvenience, and productive of less good than mischief.

The subjects of finance and revenue, common schools, militia, currency, the practice of the courts, and county government, are of primary importance to the State, and should receive a liberal share of your attention. But the various laws now in force upon these subjects, have been so long in operation, and so thoroughly tested, that their defects, if any exist, will be readily perceived. I would recommend extreme caution in their consideration, and advise no change in any of them, unless demanded by obvious utility and sound experience.

From various sources, my attention has been earnestly invited to what, in the opinion of many, are cogent reasons for changing our present form of County government. The Supervisor system, created by Act of the Eighth General Assembly, has failed to command that general satisfaction which its advocates predicted and desired. The objections urged against it are quite numerous, and, apparently, substantial in their character. Those who desire a change, express their preference for the Commissioner system, which has prevailed so long, and operated successfully, in many of the older States, and if, after due investigation, any change may be deemed advisable, I would recommend this system to your consideration, as being the most simple, and practical, of any that could be adopted. I cannot assume the responsibility of recommending a change; for the reason, that my observation of the present system, has been much too limited to justify me in entertaining a satisfactory opinion as to the soundness of the objections urged against it, and I therefore commend the entire subject to your earnest and considerate attention.

Your attention is invited to the expediency of abolishing the Board of Education, created by Article 9, of the new Constitution. This Board, in the sessions already held, has accomplished much valuable labor, and to it are we mainly indebted for the framework of our present admirable system of Common Schools, which needs but little additional legislation, to render it sufficiently comprehensive to meet the demands of our educational interests for many years to come. It is now thought the period has arrived, when this Board is no longer required; and, that it can be abolished without detriment to the public service. The framers of the Constitution evidently contemplated, that after its labor, in maturing a permanent and satisfactory system of schools, should be completed, its utility, as a separate department, would terminate. In view of this contingency, the 15th Section of said Article, confers upon the General Assembly the power, after the year 1863, to abolish or reorganize the Board, and to provide for the educational interests of the State, in any other manner that to them shall seem best and proper: Should you concur in the expediency of this measure, it will become necessary to create the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, in order that the important duties now devolving upon the Secretary of the Board, may be transferred to and performed by an appropriate officer.

I desire to invoke the earnest attention of the General Assembly, to the necessity of providing additional means for supporting the families of the deserving men who are absent, in the public service. Many of these men, in limited circumstances when they volunteered, have no means of supporting their families, except the scanty wages received from the Government; obviously inadequate, under the present high rates of living, to properly maintain a soldier, and meet the legitimate wants of his family.

I am aware that, at the Special Session of the General Assembly, in 1861, an Act was passed empowering the Boards of Supervisors to appropriate money out of the County Treasuries, for the support of soldiers' families within their respective counties. But, I regret the necessity which compels me to say, that this highly commendable and patriotic enactment, has signally failed to accomplish the object intended. In counties where a majority of the Supervisors are friendly to the Union, and the prosecution of the war, this relief has been furnished to a liberal extent; but in many others, where that majority is with the opposite party, they have persistently refused to appropriate a single dollar to this humane and Christian purpose.

In considering the question, we should not confine ourselves to the theory adopted by some, that this is a mere county matter, and, therefore, not the appropriate subject of State action. From whatever county the man enters the service, he becomes a soldier of the State, fighting for one county as well as another, and has an equal claim upon the generosity and gratitude of all our people. In the absence of an adequate law, providing relief for these meritorious families, out of the public revenue, these burthens, necessarily, fall upon a few liberal and patriotic individuals in each community. This is clearly wrong, and should not be permitted. None should be allowed to escape this imperative public and patriotic duty. Every individual in the State should be required to contribute, for this purpose, his full share, in proportion to the amount of his taxable property. I, therefore, earnestly recommend that a liberal appropriation be made for this purpose, out of the State revenue; to be disbursed through the agencies of the State Sanitary Commission, in such manner as you may deem it wise to direct. This Commission, recently organized, and incorporated, has acquired a responsible character, and enjoys, as it should, a full degree of public confidence.

By such an Act, we shall seal, in perpetual memory, the gratitude so eminently due to exalted patriotism, and unrivaled valor.

The soldiers of Iowa need no eulogy now, to secure for their deeds the admiration of history. Their unselfish devotion to the cause of the country; their patient endurance of the untold hardships incident to service in a distant and strange climate; and the sturdy heroism they have illustrated on so many fields, have given to our young State a record of valor as imperishable as the bloody annals of the war; and aided, in securing for our common country, a fame co-extensive with the civilized world. On every battle ground from Wilson's Creek, where, amid the deadly hail of an unequal contest, they rallied 'round the heroic LYON, and freely mingled their blood with his, to the gory mountain heights and passes in front of Chattanooga, and the now glorious field of Chickamauga, the Flag of Iowa has been borne by brave hands to triumphant victory. Where all have done so well, to particularize would be invidious; and I could not name all who are entitled to honorable mention for noble and valorous deeds, without calling the entire muster rolls of Regiments, Battalions and Batteries. Impartial history will attest the significant fact, that no great battle has yet been lost, in which Iowa troops were engaged; and none gained, on western fields, in which they have not borne a conspicuous part. Among the first in the field, and ever to the front, their numberless graves are scattered from the plains of Texas to the banks of the Cumberland, and from the shores of Lake Michigan to the waters of the Gulf—sad, yet truthful witnesses of how bravely they fought and nobly died.

Fathers and sons, husbands, brothers and friends, sleep in those narrow tenements, far from their beloved Iowa; but enshrined in the hearts of a grateful people, their memories, like the unfading laurel, will survive the dreary winters of coming time.

Contemplating the condition and affairs of our own State, let us not be unmindful that our common country is still involved in cruel and relentless war. The god of ambition is yet unappeased, and the demon of civil strife is making sad havoc in the land. The great struggle for the integrity of the Union and the preservation of the National Government, is yet to be decided. After a trial of nearly eighty years, embracing the most comprehensive experience, and affording ample proofs of its power, utility and beneficence, the existence of this unrivaled Government is committed to a bloody conflict between its own citizens.

The constitutional right of a State, or any number of States, to withdraw from the Union, is no longer a practical question for discussion. If that right be conceded, the action of the Federal Government, in compelling obedience to its laws, is indefensible, and the war, on our part, clearly wrong. The determination of that question was preliminary to war, and to any effort by the Government to reduce the seceding States to submission.

In the absence of a constitution right to dismember the Union by secession, the attempt was treason and insurrection, which the President of the United States, under the solemn obligations of his oath, was as much bound to suppress, as he would have been to repel an invasion of our soil by a foreign enemy. Existing laws, adopted in the early years of the Republic, clothed him with ample authority over the subject, and made his duty imperative. In promptly meeting the aggressions of treason, and placing the Government in a State of defence against this long projected, and wicked rebellion, he fulfilled the just demands of the Nation, and entitled himself to the lasting gratitude of mankind.

For nearly three years, this deplorable war, inaugurated by the mad ambition, and treason, of Southern men, has progressed with its varied results. Though disasters have sometimes overtaken our advancing columns, the triumphs which have crowned their heroic efforts, in the glorious cause of the country, have far outweighed all the reverses they have sustained. We have penetrated the insurgent country from almost every point, by land and sea, and rescued from their grasp the most productive and populous States of the South. To-day the ancient Flag of the Union floats triumphantly over the soil of every rebel State, and waves from the battered walls of Sumter, back as far as the serpent of rebellion can be traced.

The rebel armies, defeated and demoralized, are being rapidly driven to a common centre; their currency worthless, and their credit gone; their pretended jurisdiction reduced to nearly one-third of its original limits, and a surplus population crowded within them to subsist upon their meagre harvests; impending death, or exile, to the leaders, ruined fortunes and desolated homes to the unwilling masses—this is the end of treason, and the doom of traitors!

Supported, and elected by the loyal and patriotic people of Iowa, in a contest presenting the grave questions which here, as elsewhere through the loyal States, alone pervaded the public mind and determined the result of the recent elections, I but discharge a plain duty to them, when I express the convictions of my own mind, upon the portentous issues yet to be decided by the valor of our arms. While entertaining a profound respect for the opinions of all loyal men, in whatever locality they may be found, I am aware of no rule requiring deference to the opinions of their enemies, or of any obligation I am under to consult their views, or wishes, in the discharge of my official duties.

There is no longer any middle ground where loyal men can stand, and find refuge from the stern, and positive obligations of the hour. The times are fraught with mighty events, involving the welfare of the present and future generations, and impose the most solemn duties upon every patriot in the land. It is not the mere domination of a political party, nor territory, nor empire; but liberty, and the eternal principles of natural justice, born of God and, under Him, established on this Continent by our fathers, which are staked upon the issue of the struggle.

It needs no words of mine to show that the vigorous and successful prosecution of this war is life to the Republic, while to hesitate for a single hour, upon any pretext whatever, or stop short of the unconditional recognition of Federal authority by all the revolted States, would be but a hollow truce, and death to our unity and Nationality.

Great and holy interests are involved in the contest. There is no longer any hope of their preservation by the ordinary modes of adjustment. They are therefore, to be saved or lost, by the arbitrament of battle. In the terrible ordeal through which we are passing, many old conditions are likely to be rejected, and some things which have been, may not be again; but the patriotic heart may find reasons for its faith, that all such as are good and substantial will be retained and consecrated in the new life of the Nation. Let us hope that enemies in the disguise of friends, will never again occupy the high places of power; that the people's Treasury will not again be robbed by official hands, their arms, their arsenals and fortifications turned against their own Government; that the blighting curse of Human Slavery will no longer receive protection by the statutes of the land, nor exist in any form under the National Flag; and that traitors may never again sit in the Council Chambers of the Nation, nor plot their treason beneath the dome of its Capitol. Let us pray to a righteous God that such scenes may never stain the coming annals of the Republic, and if need be that the havoc of bloody, desolation war, may abate not until the day of regeneration shall come.

The events of the hour, grand and irresistible in their course, are rapidly hastening to their legitimate results. He who disposes while man struggles, and proposes, has pronounced his imperial decree.

Those who hesitate now to yield an unreserved support to the Federal Government, or fail to sustain its constituted authorities, unmistakably array themselves on the side of its enemies, and will be so recorded in the history of the times. If treason is crime, to sympathize with traitors is also clearly criminal. While there is treason in the heart, the man cannot be truly loyal, and we know not how soon his hesitating courage may nerve him to commit the overt act. The line of demarkation between loyalty and treason, is plainly defined, and exceedingly narrow.

Obvious as these considerations are to all discerning minds, it is a painful reflection, that there exists a faction, in the Northern States, which has persistently opposed the action of our Government in its efforts to subdue the Rebellion, and clamored for peace upon any terms. While professing to be loyal, the members of this faction have given strength and courage to traitors, and by their conduct proved themselves the most insidious, and dangerous foes of the Union. Recent events, however, have demonstrated the continued attachment of the patriotic masses of all parties, to the perpetuity of our free institutions; and shown that they cannot be deceived by mere pretences of loyalty, or misled by the cry of peace, when there is no honorable or permanent peace, short of vigorous and successful war.

Systematically opposing every measure yet devised, for a successful prosecution of the war, and having no mode of their own for an honorable solution of existing troubles, these malcontents seek to justify their course by creating a distinction between the Government and its Administration; confronting us with the novel doctrine that the Government is the Constitution and the institutions founded thereon, while the Administration is merely the agents chosen by the people, and responsible to them. Assuming to act upon this theory, they claim the right to oppose the latter, while pretending to support and maintain the former.

This dangerous paradox is a fit companion of the doctrine of "States Rights," which held the American Union to be only a league between sovereign States, dissolvable at their will; and that the citizen owed a paramount allegiance to his State, and only a subordinate one to the Federal Government. A doctrine which, although denounced by the stern old leaders of democracy, as destructive of the Union, yet succeeded in diffusing its subtle poison through the Southern mind, and, finally, culminated in the crime of treason.

It needs but a word of refutation. I do but adopt the idea of a great writer, when I say, that our free, written Constitution is not government, but the warrant and representative of Government. It is not power, but the symbol of power, and will, in any emergency, prove altogether useless, unless the power for which it stands be forthcoming. Where does this power reside? Not in the Constitution, nor in any of the co-ordinate departments created by it; nor in the people, but in all combined. These constituent elements compose the Government, the powers of which are exercised through its constitutionally appointed agents, the legislative, executive and judicial departments. Without these, the powers defined in the Constitution could not be appropriately exercised; and without them, it is obvious, we should have no Government.

Therefore, to strike at any of these, is to injure the Government itself to the full extent of the blow.

The President of the United States, for the time being, is the Supreme Executive of the Nation, the chosen agent of the people, the pilot who guides the ship of State. The liberty of speech, and of the press, guaranteed by the Constitution, is formidable only to the enemies of Liberty, in its broader and more extended sense. The right to freely discuss the affairs of Government, and criticize the acts of its agents, is fundamental to liberty, and cannot safely be denied.

To all this I fully subscribe. But the right claimed by some, to oppose the execution of the laws, and, by factious opposition, to thwart the President in the discharge of his high duties, at so important a juncture, is subversive of all liberty, and a right which belongs to treason only.

Again, the War policy of the Government has been continuously denounced, as subversive of the rights of the South, and in violation of the Federal Constitution. It is reasonable to presume that these men have either forgotten, or never known, that Abraham Lincoln is not only President of the United States, charged with the execution of civil power, but also Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy of the Union, and thereby clothed with the war power of the Government. In the exercise of his civil functions, he is guided by the plain language of the Constitution, which defines the limits of his power, and beyond this he cannot go; but in the discharge of his duties as Commander-in-Chief, in time of war, he is governed only by the laws of war, as recognized among civilized nations, and such other restrictions as Congress and the people may impose. Deriving his authority by appointment of the Constitution, he is thereby vested with all the power which rightfully belongs to the Commander-in-Chief of any other army upon the face of the Globe. This extraordinary power, it must be understood, is called into exercise only from a state of war, and cannot be exerted in time of peace.

By his oath of office, the President is sworn "to the best of his ability, to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution," and in the discharge of this solemn obligation, he may rightfully exercise all the power inherent in the people, whose agent he is; and that he may do this, they have made him Commander-in-Chief of their army and navy, and the Constitution is the warrant of his appointment. To hold, that when called upon to "preserve, protect and defend the Constitution, to the best of his ability," he is restricted to the mere letter of his civil authority, is to deprive him of the very means of discharging that high duty, and make the Constitution, thereby, the weapon of its own destruction.

The Constitution is neither a war-making nor a war prosecuting document. It empowers Congress to declare, and the President to prosecute war, as the honor of the nation and the exigencies of the case may demand. It undertakes neither to inform Congress when, or in what case war may be declared, nor the President the manner of carrying it on. Having made them judges of the situation, it leaves the details of war to their intelligent patriotism and sound discretion.

Wherein has the Constitution been violated, and whose rights have been subverted by the Federal Government? The loyal States have no reason to complain, and do not, for the people thereof having said, at the beginning, that the rebellion should be put down, become a party to the war; and after a long hearing, and full understanding of the case, they have returned a verdict, magnificent and overwhelming in its proportions, that the Administration was not guilty of the charges preferred against it. The people of the insurgent States have no right to complain; for, having renounced their allegiance to the Constitution, levied war against it, adopted a Constitution and government of their own, and claiming recognition as a separate and independent sovereignty, they have assumed the attitude of belligerents to the Federal Government, and thereby acknowledged themselves entitled only to belligerent rights. Every right which, as citizens of the United States, they possessed under the Constitution, has been voluntarily abandoned, and forfeited, by the rebellion. These rights can not, and should not be restored to them, until they shall lay down their arms, submit to the jurisdiction of the Federal Government, and obtain pardon for their treason. In every sense of the term, they are enemies to the Constitution, to our Republican Government, to liberty and humanity, having but a single constitutional right left, that of being dealt with according to the laws of the land, for the atrocious crime they have committed. No other people or nation, upon the face of the earth, could have committed so high a crime against this Government, and its flag. And now, while standing as the flagrant, deadly enemies of the Constitution, with their hands uplifted at the nation's throat, we are told that their Constitutional rights are unimpaired, and as substantial as when they were law-abiding and peaceful subjects of the Government. Thus we are asked to give immunity to crime, by exculpating the criminal.

As enemies and belligerents, to what rights are the insurgent States entitled? The Constitution being entirely silent upon this subject, we must resort for information, to the laws of war, as established and recognized among the nations of the world. The eminent writers upon this subject agree in saying, that in war we may do any act not forbidden by humanity or the laws of nature, which may harrass or weaken our enemy. We may confiscate his property of every kind, and appropriate it to our own use, for the double purpose of diminishing his strength and augmenting our own. We may capture and detain his soldiers, and take their lives if we can, in legitimate combat. All this we are allowed to do, because it is a right which belongs to every nation at war, is derived from and attaches to a state of war. These well established and fundamental principles, have been recognized by our Government in its intercourse with other nations, sustained by repeated decisions of the Federal Courts, and never denied or doubted, except during the present war, by certain northern politicians, who have throughout, manifested more interest in the rebellion than love for the Union of these States. And it is proper here to remark that the character of belligerents, has been given to the insurgent States by the legislative and executive departments of the Government; that we have so treated them during the entire war, and that this action has been sustained by a late well considered opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States, in a case fully and fairly presented. This question may, therefore, be regarded as settled, so far as the action of this Government and people, can settle any question.

During the first months of this war, in common with what I believe to have been a decided majority of the people, both in and out of the army, I indulged the hope, and expressed the belief that it could be successfully terminated without a direct attack upon the local institutions of the South. The Government itself seems to have entertained the same view, for a remarkable tenderness characterized its dealings with traitors, and the war was prosecuted during the first year, with eminent success, upon the theory of doing the rebellion as little damage as possible. Bitter experience and observation, however, finally convinced me as it did others, that slavery was not only "the corner stone of the Confederacy," but was the power which sustained, and the motive which impelled the rebellion. Every negro that worked with a hoe, or drove a mule on a Southern plantation, was as much enlisted against the Union, as the soldier who served with his gun in the ranks of the rebel army; and more effectively so because the grain upon which our enemy subsists, renders him more formidable than his shells or his bullets.

Slavery stood like a mountain before the advance of our armies, and could neither be avoided nor defied. It enabled the insurgents to place their entire militia force in the field against us, and added more than one-half to their available strength. While slavery existed, treason had power and object, and so long would the rebellion continued, and the war be protracted.

At the commencement of this rebellion, the four millions of slaves inhabiting the Southern States, were peaceful and loyal subjects of this Government; owing allegiance to it, and amenable to its laws. And although they became the unwilling instruments of treason, yet their allegiance has not been and could not be dissolved. Upon this people, therefore, as its legitimate subjects, the Government had as high claims as it had upon the white population of the south. By State laws only, they were held as slaves, but this was in subordination to their status as subjects; for at any time the Government could have taken them from their masters, and punished them, like other men, for violation of its laws, and the fact that they were slaves would have been no defence. By no act, or deed has the Federal Government ever relinquished its sovereign claim upon this class of its people; and it could not have done so, with due regard to the peace and safety of the Union. No wise Government would permit a large and permanent population to reside within its limits, who are beyond its ultimate control. Whatever may be the character given them by mere local regulations, can not effect the authority of the sovereign power over them. These people are not only denominated as persons by the Constitution, but they have so been treated by the Government, for all purposes, during its entire history. In all these respects, at least, the slaves were the equals of their masters; they could perpetrate the same crimes, be tried therefor by the same tribunals, incarcerated in the same prisons, and hung upon the same scaffolds. And while their masters commit atrocious treason against the Government which shelters all, have not these oppressed subjects a right to fight for it, and shed their blood in defense of its flag?

If by the offer of freedom we could induce these bond subjects to leave their treasonable masters, and return to their legitimate sovereign, whom they have never willingly offended, what principle of law or right would be thereby contravened? Has not any established Government an absolute right to exercise this sovereign authority over its own subjects? If it be alleged that this would be a violation of our faith with the Southern States, the conclusive answer is, that they had already violated theirs with us by attempting to dissolve the Union. We could as rightfully do this, as we could induce the soldiers in the rebel armies to leave their ranks and return to their allegiance, by the offer of a general pardon. And to deny that we can rightfully do either, is to hold that the individual claims of traitors, the rights and local regulations of insurgent States, are paramount to the sovereignty of the General Government.

The period at length arrived when, to insure success to our arms, and make the overthrow of the Rebellion a speedy and certain event, an effectual blow at this formidable element of rebel power was imperatively demanded. Our authority over the subject was broad and ample, and the necessity for the step no longer doubtful. Why hesitate to terminate the war, and save the Union, by losing slavery? It became obvious, that amid the throes of this mighty revolution, one or the other must go down. The Union and slavery cannot both be saved from the wreck, for the same power which rescues the one must inevitably crush the other. Which is the more valuable for preservation? After all its manifold crimes against liberty and humanity, against God and His holy laws, what claim has Slavery upon this Government for protection and perpetuity? To this reckoning had the Nation come on the first day of January, 1863.

I thank Almighty God, that at this momentous juncture, we had a man at the helm of this Government, who fully realized the situation, and possessed the sublime courage to perform his duty, and place the seal of condemnation irrevocably, and forever, upon this convicted criminal of mankind. The deed is done; the righteous judgment has been pronounced, and from his honest heart the author tells us, "it cannot be retracted." No earthly power can send back to slavery, these millions of freedmen; for between them and such power stand more than twenty millions of other men, to defend the broad seal which that proclamation bears.

In its diminished and attenuated form, slavery still lingers; but it is robed in the habiliments of the grave, waiting only for the rites of sepulchre. How these shall be performed the world may not care; for over its accursed remains the star of freedom shall forever shine, and the loud hosannas of an emancipated race be sung through all succeeding ages.

The victim of a morbid and treasonable ambition, slavery, has been murdered in the house of its friends. Upon them, not us, the responsibility of its death must forever rest. The Union as it was, the people of the North were willing to maintain and abide by; but, as the South have determined otherwise, it is our duty now, to insist upon the Union as it should be, and as our fathers intended it.

My ardent wish is, that this desolating war may speedily close, and the insurgent States resume their political rights in the Union.

That we may properly understand the theory of reconstruction, it is important to avoid a misapplication of the term. The rebellion having failed of success, the Union is not dissolved; and, therefore, the disorganized States, only, require to be reconstructed. Had they succeeded in achieving their separation, the Union, to that extent, would have been dissolved, and the question of re-construction have presented a different aspect.

Having, by treason to the General Government, and the inevitable consequences of civil war, accomplished the destruction of their local organizations, and not their disseverance from the Union, they stand in the attitude of States, with their government subverted and overthrown. Re-organization, therefore, becomes an indispensable pre-requisite to the resumption of their powers, and privileges, as sovereign States in the Union. Without this, they have no appropriate medium through which their constitutional rights can be secured or exercised. They cannot choose Senators, or Representatives to Congress, participate in the election of a President, or enjoy any other regulation designed for the common benefit of the States.

And it is only by means of State Governments, that they can perform the functions of States, and discharge the various obligations and duties they owe to the General Government. Until then, the people of these disorganized States must, from necessity, depend for protection upon the Federal Government, under the arm of its military power. But this theory by no means implies that these States must be reduced to a territorial condition, maintained, during their territorial minorage, under a Government provided for them, at the expense of the National Treasury, and be re-admitted into the Union as States. It simply means, what is obviously true, that they have State limits, territory and people, without the essential machinery of State Governments, which are the tests and means of their political existence Government represents, not merely land and certain defined territorial limits, but the people who established it, and who speak and act through it, as their political organ. These people, in consequence of their treason, having disqualified themselves for the exercise of political rights, and privileges, their State Governments have thereby become suspended, and must remain in abeyance, until this disqualification is removed by act of Federal authority.

Reduced to this condition, the provisional control over these States, until fully reorganized, and restored, is vested in the Federal Government; but when restored, it must be under governments which have emanated from their own people, under Constitutional restrictions. I recognize the right of every State to regulate and shape its own institutions, but this right can and should be exercised, only, in clear conformity with the letter and spirit of the Federal Constitution.

The Constitution prescribes, that "The United States shall guaranty to every State in this Union, a republican form of government." This provision clearly implies an obligation, on the part of the United States, not only to guaranty this form of government "to every State," but the guaranty is to all the States, that the government of each State shall be republican in form, whether the people thereof will it or not. This is the plain spirit, and intent of the compact; otherwise, the right already adverted to, that each State may regulate its own institutions, would become a source of imminent peril to the Union. Without this salutary check upon the action of States, we might soon have a cluster of anti-republican governments, springing up within the limits of the Union, to accomplish its retrogression and ultimate overthrow.

The events of the last few years, having fully demonstrated the irrepressible antagonism of slavery, to our Republican institutions, and left the question no longer to abstract discussion, or interpretation; our manifest duty, under the constitution, is, while the authority is rightfully in our hands, to see that no new or remodeled Government is received, which presents this obviously anti-republican feature.

Under proper auspices, and a just regard for mutual rights, the process of reconstruction may keep pace with the advance of our arms. With suitable assistance the people of the insurgent States may be restored to their legitimate rights in the Union, as rapidly as the hostile power is expelled from their borders. To effect this consummation, some rule should be prescribed, plain and just in itself, compatible with the dignity of the Government, and the perpetuity of the Union. Emerging from the calamities of this conflict, let us secure an honorable and permanent peace, and seal forever the terrific fountains of civil war. By doing less than this, we would prove faithless to the sacred trusts committed to our care, embitter the heritage of posterity, and commit a monstrous crime.

No true patriot, no sincere wisher of a restored and honored Union, could desire the wicked and infamous leaders of this rebellion reinstated in their places under this Government, where, by a repetition of their gigantic frauds, and intrigues, they might again attempt, what they have so signally failed to accomplish by the gage of battle. Every motive of self-preservation and the sternest dictates of patriotic duty, demand of us to guard well this vital point. Let us expunge forever these infamous names from the roll of the Union. Let us appeal directly to the less criminal offenders and the more tractable masses. To none others would it be safe or expedient to extend the boon of amnesty or enfranchisement, and not to these even, except upon the just and easy terms of being purged of their treason and plighting anew their faith to the Union.

Any effort at restoration, to be substantial and productive of satisfactory results, should be inaugurated upon a theory which will inspire mutual confidence between the parties, and constitute a basis sufficiently comprehensive to embrace all who, by a recantation of their disloyalty, may qualify themselves for and become entitled to its benefits. The initial point is obviously the most vital, and difficult; for if we start with a wrong reckoning, our future course will be one of constant embarrassments, and fail of ultimate success.

Profoundly impressed with these convictions, and firmly believing that no more feasible mode has yet been devised for securing a speedy and honorable adjustment of our disordered Union, I am prepared to fully endorse the late eminently plain and sensible proclamation of President Lincoln, and until withdrawn, or superseded by some more authoritative act, shall yield to it my earnest and unequivocal support.

I can see, in this Proclamation, much to admire and nothing to condemn. If it be objected that one-tenth, being the number of persons therein designated as the basis of reorganization, be too small, the appropriate answer is, that it bears a fair proportion to those who, for the last half century, have controlled the politics and usurped the destinies of the South; and will exceed, in each State, the number of those who kindled the fires of this rebellion, and whose treason created the condition of things of which this restored tenth have become the sad and unwilling victims. It is but the beginning of a great consummation, and forms a nucleus, around which the returning loyalty of the South may, daily, and rapidly gather, as they comply with the just and easy terms of the Proclamation.

The Proclamation prescribes only the minimum number necessary to constitute the basis of reorganization, excluding only the more criminal actors, and those who persist in adhering to their treason.

Amnesty is a boon, not a right, and, as criminals before the law, they are in no situation to dictate its terms, but must submit to those which the Government, in the exercise of its clemency, may deem it wise to grant.

If this mode of adjustment engenders revolution in the political relations of the South, it will be a revolution of right against wrong, and of which the oppressed and injured masses will derive the benefits.

By steadily adhering to these principles, as I trust we shall, we may succeed, after much wandering, and great tribulation, in bringing this Government back to its ancient and safer land-marks of universal freedom, and perpetual unity.

I cannot close this communication, and forego the opportunity presented, to congratulate the General Assembly, and the people, upon the auspicious condition of the State. A kind Providence has blessed us with adequate harvests, and a full measure of prosperity in all our undertakings. By His mercy we have been enabled to pass through the trying scenes, now drawing to a close, with honor and success. All efforts, by bad and reckless men, to obstruct the execution of the laws and disturb our domestic peace, have been promptly thwarted. Our obligations to the National Government have been faithfully performed; and our people, whether at home or in the field, have nobly vindicated their devotion to the Union. The financial affairs of the State were never in a sounder condition. Notwithstanding the extraordinary expenditures, rendered unavoidable by military operations, the revenue on hand, and due from the several sources, exceeds, by many thousand dollars, the total indebtedness of the State. Without hazard to our credit, we may challenge comparison with any other State in the Union. For this, much credit is due, and should be awarded, to the out-going Executive, who has administered the affairs of the State with marked economy, and discharged his onerous and complicated duties, with an ability and patriotism deserving of the highest commendation.

Entertaining implicit confidence in your intelligent and patriotic regard for the public interests, and conscious of no motive, on my own part, inconsistent with their advancement, I shall indulge in the hope that our mutual counsels and joint labors, may be productive of good to the commonwealth.

With humble faith that God will continue to bless our young State, and in His own good time deliver our common country from the calamities of cruel war, let us enter upon the discharge of our respective duties.

W. M. STONE.

Carpenter.

2d. Resolved, That this House hereby tenders to the bereaved widow and family of the deceased, its heartfelt sympathy for the irreparable loss they have been called upon to sustain.

On the question, "Shall the resolutions be adopted?" Mr. Russell of Jones remarked as follows:

MR. SPEAKER :—I feel it to be my duty on the present occasion to endeavor to pay an humble tribute of respect to the memory of the brave and gallant soldier—the amiable, beloved and respected citizen—the able and intelligent, though untried Senator elect—whose lamented decease has just been announced to us by the Senate, on the present occasion.

It needs no eulogy of words, or attempts at eloquent declamation, to secure respect and admiration for the character, the ability and the deeds of the departed. All that is necessary to secure this is a simple recitation of a few events in his useful, active and well-spent life. The deceased, judging from his personal appearance, must have been about thirty-four years of age. I believe he was born in the State of Ohio, and was educated in the common schools of that noble Commonwealth. In his early life he was a pupil of Governor Kirkwood's, and received the rudiments of his education in a common school taught by the late able and respected chief magistrate of our State. He retained up to the day of his death the confidence, respect and esteem of his early preceptor.

When a youth, and not yet arrived at the age prescribed for admission into the armies of the nation, the war with Mexico was commenced. Don A. Carpenter partook deeply of the patriotic enthusiasm which animated the minds of his older fellow-citizens. He made application for admission into a company of volunteers who were being recruited in the neighborhood in which he resided. He was too young, and was refused admission into the ranks. The company was filled and left for its rendezvous. Young Carpenter was determined that he would succeed in the resolution he had formed. He followed to the rendezvous, and, by his determined and persistent importunities, finally succeeded in securing admission into the ranks of the company. He went through the campaigns in that contest, and returned to his home clothed with a well-earned reputation for bravery, determination, and patriotic devotion to the interests of his country's cause. He emigrated to this State, probably, in 1854, and settled in the county of Jones. Through the native energy and activity of his character, he soon became known as a young man of more than ordinary ability, and speedily secured the confidence, respect, and esteem of his fellow-citizens.

He devoted the greater portion of his time to the business of education, and taught in the common schools of his own and perhaps other districts a number of terms previous to the breaking out of the present rebellion. When the now immortal Ninth Iowa was first summoned to uphold our country's standard, Don A. Carpenter promptly volunteered as a private. His character and abilities being well known and highly appreciated by his comrades in arms, he was at once and unanimously selected as their Captain, and received his commission as such from Governor Kirkwood, his early preceptor. From the time of his muster into the service as Captain of Company

B, down to the final capitulation of Vicksburg, his name is prominently and imperishably associated with the deadly conflicts, the gallant deeds and noble achievements that have contributed to make the Ninth Iowa the pride and glory of our noble State. Mr. Carpenter was promoted to the position of Major immediately after the promotion of Col. Vandever to the rank of General, and in that capacity, for a great portion of the time, had the full command of the Regiment. At the ever memorable battle of Pea Ridge, after the fall of Herron, the command of the Regiment devolved upon Carpenter. He, on that bloody field, contributed to win for himself and his comrades a renown that will be as imperishable as the records of this bloody and most sanguinary rebellion. Through the memorable march of Curtis' Army to Helena, Major Carpenter was in command of the Regiment, and acquitted himself with great ability and success.

Early in the past year his health began to decline until he had reluctantly to leave the field for the hospital. His disease, I understand was Consumption—contracted, no doubt, by the arduous services rendered by him in the discharge of the duties of his position. When scarcely able to move around in the hospital, he heard that his regiment was without a commander, in consequence of the fall of the Lieutenant Colonel, who was wounded in the ever memorable charge on the enemies works around Vicksburg on the 22d of June, 1863. He assumed the command and remained with the Regiment until after the final capitulation of the rebels on the 4th of July last. Major Carpenter's health continued to decline. He obtained a furlough to visit his family, expecting to speedily recover his health. While at his home a convention of his fellow citizens unanimously and enthusiastically nominated him as a candidate for the position of Senator to represent the County of Jones in the present General Assembly. The selection was endorsed by the people and Don A. Carpenter was the Senator elect. But his career on earth was run. A higher life was opened up for him on Friday, the 8th of the present month, and on Sunday following, the once fertile brain, manly heart and all that was mortal of Major Carpenter was deposited in the silent grave.

He is gone, but the memory of his patriotic deeds will be imperishably associated with his name in the annals of our country's history. He has left a widow and small family—may the God of the widow and the fatherless be with and enable them to bear with becoming resignation their sad bereavement.

The resolution was then unanimously adopted.

Mr. Moir offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, together with the remarks of Hon. John Russell, made to this House on the character and death of the deceased, be forwarded by the Speaker to the widow and family of the deceased, and that they be entered upon the Journal.

MESSAGES.

The following message was received from the Governor, and read :

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, }
DES MOINES, Jan. 22d, 1864. }

*Gentlemen of the Senate and
House of Representatives :*

I herewith transmit to your honorable body a copy of the report of Edward Johnston, Joel C. Walker, and Edward A. Layton, commissioners appointed by Chap. 16, acts of the special session of Ninth General Assembly, to lease, on behalf of the State, the labor of the convicts in the penitentiary.

This report shows that, in discharge of the duties assigned them by said act, the commissioners advertised for sealed proposals, by publishing notices in newspapers and distributing printed handbills through the county ; and that, under the notice so given, two bids only were received, neither of which, in their opinion, was of such a character as would have been for the interest of the State to accept.

The existing lease of convict labor to Winterbotham & Jones will expire in June next, and it, therefore, becomes important that some definite arrangements should be adopted during your session for employing the convicts after that time.

It has been suggested to me by persons well acquainted with the condition and affairs of this institution, and who are desirous that the interests of the State should be properly guarded in the matter, that it would be more expedient to retain a considerable number of the convicts, and employ them in carrying out certain repairs and improvements rendered necessary by the present and prospective wants of the institution, than to hire them out before this work is done. A brief examination of this subject has impressed me favorably with this suggestion, and I respectfully submit it to your consideration.

Up to this time, for reasons unnecessary now to be enumerated, the State has derived no advantage whatever from the existing lease of convict labor, and, unless a contract can be secured upon more favorable terms and conditions, it would, in my opinion, be advisable to retain the convicts, or a large number of them, in the employ of the State, until these projected improvements are completed.

You will perceive from the report of the Warden, that there are at this time eighty convicts only in the prison, an unusually small number in proportion to the population of our State, and rendered so by causes which will be apparent to all. The number of cells in the entire building is 160, which, at former periods, have been filled, and with a surplus of convicts on hand without sufficient or safe quarters. We may reasonably anticipate that the present state of things will not long continue, and that we shall, in a few years, have an increase of convicts entirely beyond the present capacity of the prison to accommodate.

By adding another story to the main building, so as to furnish space for two more tiers of cells, and erecting suitable buildings for a hospital and for the Warden, the institution will be sufficiently enlarged to accommodate nearly 400 convicts. In the prosecution of this work, convict labor can be advantageously employed, and thus materially reduce the expense.

To my mind, these considerations render it necessary that immediate steps be taken for improving the building; and the public interests may be seriously prejudiced by delaying the matter until another General Assembly may convene.

Believing this subject to be of immediate importance, and in view of the necessity of obtaining the most direct and reliable data, as a basis for any action you may deem it wise to take in relation to it, I would suggest the appointment of a joint committee of three or more practical gentlemen, members of your honorable body, with instructions to proceed forthwith to Fort Madison, and carefully examine into the matters herein adverted to, and report the information thus obtained for your consideration.

W. M. STONE.

To HON. W. M. STONE, Governor of Iowa :

The undersigned were appointed Commissioners to lease the convict labor of the Iowa Penitentiary, for a term not exceeding ten years, by an Act of the General Assembly of Iowa, entitled "An Act to provide for leasing the convict labor in the Iowa Penitentiary, after the expiration of the lease now in force." Approved Sept. 10, 1862.

In discharge of their duties they advertised for "Sealed Proposals" for the convict labor, in whole, or in part, and gave great publicity to such notice, by advertising in a number of newspapers of large circulation, in this and other States, and by distributing printed handbills of the same purport, to all points where it was probable bids for convict labor could be obtained.

Under this advertisement, two bids were received, one for the whole, and the other for a portion of the labor, but neither of said bids were of such a character as, in the opinion of the undersigned, would be for the interest of the State to accept, or meet the suggestions in the premises of the Attorney General, and consequently they were rejected.

The Commissioners again advertised the convict labor for lease, and in their second advertisement, designated the number and size of the workshops in the Penitentiary, and the number of convicts whose labor would be leased with each shop. They circulated this advertisement widely, but received only two bids under it, each for a portion of the convict labor, but as under their former advertisement, and for like reasons, neither of said bids were accepted by the undersigned.

The Commissioners have not advertised the convict labor again, because they have no reason to believe that, under the law and the suggestions of the Attorney General, any other or more favorable or acceptable bids for the same would be made at present, than those heretofore received.

They therefore refer the whole matter, through your Excellency, to the General Assembly, now in session, presuming and hoping that some mode may be devised for the employment of the convict labor by which the interests of the State may be fully secured and protected.

They do this the more readily, as it is expected that a large number of the convicts may be profitably employed in making such additions to the Iowa Penitentiary, as its present wants and condition demand.

The law under which they hold their appointment, fixes no fees for the service of the Commissioners. They have devoted six days, each, to their duties, and ask that proper provision may be made for their compensation.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

[Signed]

WM. F. DAVIS,

Secretary of the Senate.

A communication was received from the Clerk of the Supreme Court, and read, and referred to committee on Judiciary:

To the Hon. Jacob Butler,
Speaker of the House of Representatives:

In response to the following Resolution passed by the House of Representatives on the 21st day of January, 1864, to wit:

Resolved, That the Clerk of the Supreme Court be instructed to furnish to this House, at as early a day as practicable, with the number of causes heard and determined by said Court since December 1st, 1861, and the number of cases yet remaining on the docket of said Court undetermined."

I have the honor to submit the following statement:

The whole number of causes submitted during the years 1861, '62 and '68, were one thousand and eight (1008).

The number of causes determined during those years were twelve hundred and forty (1240). Of these, two hundred and three (203) were affirmed on motion simply, and in many others (the precise number I cannot state), the judgments were affirmed without filing any opinion. The language of the Court being affirmed, no opinion necessary.

There are now pending, undisposed of, one hundred and sixty-four cases, of which very many are large transcripts, and submitted on elaborate oral and printed arguments.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

LEW. KINSEY, Clerk.

A communication was received from the Auditor of State in reference to judgment against Jas. D. Eads, read, and, on motion, laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The following communication was received from the State Treasurer, which was read, and on motion of Mr. Russell, of Washington, was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Hon. Jacob Butler, Speaker of the House of Representatives :

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a resolution passed by the House of Representatives on the 22d inst., asking for the amount and kind of funds in the Treasury, and also, for a statement of the amount of Gold and Demand Notes payed into the Treasury since the passage of Chapter 17, Laws of the Ninth General Assembly, and what disposition has been made of the same.

The information called for in the latter part of the resolution, it is impossible for me to give, as there is nothing in this office to show in what funds payments to the Treasury have been made, nor how such funds have been disposed of. I can only state the amount of Gold received during my term of office, the amount paid out and the ballance on hand. I am not able to state the exact amount received of my predecessor, as I took no account of it at the time, but it was about twenty thousand dollars. I have received from County Treasurers, three thousand twenty-nine and 73-100 dollars. I have paid out in Gold as follows: To F. M. Mills, on a contract for paper on which to print the Adjutant General's Report, (which contract was made prior to my coming into office,) one thousand three hundred and twenty-two dollars. To C. P. Holmes, to make up a deficit in salary as Deputy Treasurer, twenty dollars. To Gov. Kirkwood, (there being no small bills on hand,) one dollar.

Total, one thousand three hundred and forty-three dollars.

A small amount of silver was paid out in the first month of 1863, in making change, none otherwise.

Amount of Gold on hand,.....	$22,257 73
“ Silver on hand,.....	167 37
“ Treasury Notes,.....	9,222 00
“ Postal Currency,.....	36 25

No Demand Notes have been received by me from my predecessor or other sources.

Of the notes of the State Bank of Iowa, there are none on hand, except one counterfeit five dollar note on the Oskaloosa Branch.

We have received but a small amount of such funds during the past year.

In this connection, it might be proper to state why the Gold has been kept on hand. I did not feel authorized to pay it out on Auditor's Warrants; neither did I feel authorized to sell it for the benefit of the State, and not knowing what the future wants of the State might be, I determined to hold it until the Legislature should take some action upon the subject, or some future exigency should require its use.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. H. HOLMES, State Treasurer.

MESSAGES AND COMMUNICATIONS.

The following communication from the Attorney General was received and read:

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, }
DES MOINES, IOWA, JANUARY 27th, 1864. }

To the House of Representatives of the State of Iowa:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your resolution requesting my opinion as to the constitutional right of the General Assembly to make an allowance to the Judges of the District Court for mileage or to defray their traveling expenses.

Sec. 9, Art. 5, of the Constitution, provides that the compensation of the Judges shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which they shall have been elected. The word compensation here used undoubtedly means pay to the judges for their personal services. Webster defines the meaning of the word, "as that which is given or received as an equivalent for services." The well understood purpose of this constitutional restriction is to make the judicial department of the Government entirely independent of the legislative.

The Constitution has vested in the Judges the power and duty of declaring void all enactments of the General Assembly which shall violate the provisions of the organic law. In order to secure the fearless and impartial performance of this duty, the Constitution has placed it beyond the power of the General Assembly either to reward the Judges by increasing their compensation, or to punish or persecute them by diminishing it. It occurs to me that the members of the House can have but little difficulty in applying this rule to the matter referred to in the resolution. If increased traveling expenses have been made necessary by reason of new duties imposed upon the Judges, the General Assembly may certainly provide for such traveling expenses without at all affecting the compensation of the Judges. And it may be that, if from other causes, the traveling expenses of the Judges have been increased, that a provision might be made for their payment without increasing the compensation. If, however, the General Assembly propose now to pay such ordinary expenses of any character as the Judges have heretofore been required to pay out of their salaries, it does appear to me that their compensation is increased. Certainly, if the present law provided for the payment of the traveling expenses of the Judges, and the same was repealed, so that the Judges should thereafter be compelled to pay the same from the amount of their salaries, I think it would be very clear that their compensation would be thereby diminished. And if this General Assembly may pass such a law, the next General Assembly may repeal it, and thus the Judges must travel or not at their own expense, as the General Assembly may be pleased or displeased with them. I cannot think that such would be the independent judiciary intended to be provided for by the Constitution. I have felt some reluctance in arriving at the above conclusions, because I believe that the present compensation of our District Judges is wholly inadequate. If, however, the legislation you propose does not in fact increase the compensation of the Judges, I am glad to know that the condemnation of it cannot oblige them.

The House has required my opinion, and, under the sanctions of my official oath, I cannot come to any other than the conclusions above stated.

Respectfully submitted.

CHARLES C. NOURSE.

The Speaker announced as joint committee on the part of the House to visit the State University and Deaf and Dumb Asylum, Messrs. Hildreth and Sears.

MESSAGES AND COMMUNICATIONS.

The following communication from Adjutant General Baker was received, read, and referred to committee on Military Affairs:

DES MOINES, Feb. 1st, 1864.

Hon. Jacob Butler, Speaker of the House of Representatives:

SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the following preamble and resolution adopted by your honorable body, viz:

“WHEREAS, It is claimed by the members of the 1st Iowa Cavalry that there is due them by the State one and one-half month’s pay, and which debt the State refuses to pay; therefore be it

“Resolved, That the Adjutant General of the State be requested to report to this House all the facts in the case—the reasons why the amount claimed to be due has not been paid, and what action is necessary to be taken by this House to enable said payment to be made.”

As the correspondence and records relating to the 1st Iowa Cavalry were at Davenport, I was compelled to address a note to Col. J. C. Culbertson, A. A. G., for copies of correspondence, dates, &c. This will account for the delay in my answer.

Accompanying, you will find a letter of A. A. G. Culbertson, fully explaining the matter; also, copies of letters relating thereto, with dates, &c., referred to in said communications.

As the House requests me to report “what action, if any, is necessary to be taken to enable said payment to be made,” as claimed by said members of the 1st Iowa Cavalry, I can only suggest, if the General Assembly deem the claims just and proper, a law can be passed directing the auditing of the same and payment out of the War and Defense Fund.

With great respect, truly yours,

N. B. BAKER,

Adj. Genl. of Iowa.

STATE OF IOWA,
 ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
 DAVENPORT, IOWA, JAN. 28th, 1864. }

Gen. N. B. Baker, Des Moines, Iowa :

DEAR SIR:—The copy of resolutions of the House about the pay of the 1st Iowa Cavalry, has been received. The 1st Iowa Cavalry was originally an Independent Regiment, authorized directly (10 Cos.) by the Secretary of War, June 13th, 1861, as is shown by the muster roll of Field, Staff and Band, returned to this office by Lt. J. C. Stone, Adjt., and certified to by Col. Fitz Henry Warren, Oct. 31st, 1861, and on which appears the following entry: "The Col., Lt. Col. and Maj. Chamberlin were accepted by the Secretary of War with the regiment;" and opposite each of said officer's names is entered "June 13th, 1861," as their date and rank. Subsequently, to-wit: on Aug. 21, 1861, said regiment was increased to 12 Cos., as shown by Exhibit A., enclosed, and in accordance with Col. Warren's request of Aug. 12th and 14th, 1861. I find in an old memorandum book of office here an entry referring to letters to the Governor from the War Department here, under date of June 19th and July 9th, 1861, about this regiment, which letters are on file in the Executive Office, and not here. The ten companies of this regiment, A. to K., inclusive, THEN being an Independent Regiment, accepted and authorized originally by the War Department, were not entitled to pay from this State, not being raised under a "requisition" made "by the U. S. Government on the Governor of this State," as required by Act of the 8th General Assembly, extra session, Chap. 11, Sec. 1. Neither Col. Warren nor the regiment expected any pay from the State for these ten companies. Col. Warren writes, Dec. 16th, 1861, to this Department, asking for the original company rolls, stating that "everybody at Washington is trying to make a fuss about our pay. We claim from June 13th, and can claim from various different dates in May. I intend to have pay from June 13th for all of the MEN who are entitled to it," &c. Under these circumstances, this State fairly inferred that the U. S. would pay the men from enlistment, and the officers from actual command. In fact, it was advised that the regiment had been so paid, by 2d Lt. T. A. Bereman, in a letter of date of Dec. 16th, 1862. (Exhibit B.)

Col. Warren, in letter of date August 26th, 1862, stated that all of his officers had been paid from July 31st, 1861, but that a stoppage had been entered up against him on the ground that he had drawn pay from June 13th, 1861, to September 24th, 1861, to which the Department then ruled he had no right. At the earliest practicable day after Col. Warren's request, this Department forwarded him copies of muster rolls (State) of ten companies, to assist them in getting their pay from the United States, to wit: Company A, January 9th, 1862; Companies B, C, D, E, and F, January 10th, 1862; Companies G and H, January 11th, 1862; Companies I and K, January 13th, 1862, in full of his requisitions. His object is stated by him in a letter of January 1, 1862, thus; "They are wanted to establish our claims to payments of the just dues of the Regiment." The receipt of rolls was acknowledged by Col. Warren, January 17th, 1862, who states that they lack what would have made them of any value, "the date of enlistment; that is the only point of controversy." To which this Department answered, January 28th, 1862, that "the only certificate we could furnish, as regards the date of enlistment of soldiers, is based upon the muster rolls filed here. If the Captains neglect to certify to these dates on their muster rolls, the men suffer." The same in substance was replied to Col. Warren's letter of June 19th, 1862, in letter of Gen. Baker, of June 25th, 1862, to Col. Warren. (See Exhibit C.) I have caused an accurate examination to be made of the original State muster rolls of these ten Companies, and find that the Captains have, in every instance, neglected to certify to the date of enlistment, and though persistent efforts have been made by this Department to obtain the same, they have most signally failed. What makes it perfectly clear that this regiment never expected pay from the State, is the fact that these ten Companies never filed one pay roll in the proper department of the State or this office claiming the payment of the same from this State. Individual cases have been inquired about, but the invariable response of this office has been that no pay roll had been filed, and that it had always been the impression of this office that the United States paid from enrolment of the men. Company M filed a pay-roll, but this was a Company subsequent to the acceptance of the ten Companies by the Secretary of War, and assigned by the Governor, (under orders of this Department directly to HIM,) to the 1st Iowa Cavalry, and about three-fourths of the Company were therefore paid by the State on that pay-roll.

Col. Warren, after the stoppage was made against him, was paid by the State, but informs this Department of date of April 30th, 1863, that the Judge Advocate General of the United States had examined into his case, reversed the former decision, thus establishing his right to pay from June 13th, 1861, and that the United States had refunded him the amount, and he stood ready to repay the State, which he has been instructed to do by me. (See Exhibit D.) If, THEN, Col. Warren has been re-instated and his pay allowed him, the same ruling of the Judge Advocate General will entitle his Regiment to pay, and application should be made to the Secretary of War to pay the men and officers, now in service, if pay has been withheld from them unjustly, or unjust stoppages made against them, paid at next muster of the Regiment for pay, proper entries being made on the rolls as to the time of enlistment, &c., &c. The decision in favor of Col. Warren carries the Regiment, by parity of reasoning, with it. If officers and men are out of service, application should be made by them or their heirs to the 2d Auditor of the Treasury. If deemed advisable, the Legislature might memorialize the Secretary of War on the subject.

If, however, the point of this being an independent organization was not in the case, I, as Paymaster General, could not pay it, under present laws. By Act of the 8th General Assembly, extra session, Chap. 11, Sec. 4, "No person shall be entitled to any compensation, under the provisions of this act, who shall have received or be entitled to any compensation for the same services rendered, under any law of the United States." Now I am advised by the Paymaster General of the United States Army, under date of October 20th, 1863, that "The United States allows pay to all privates from the date of enlistment. Non-commissioned officers can also draw pay as privates from the date of enlistment till the date of company organization with minimum number, and as non-commissioned officers from that date. Wherever payment has not been made according to this rule, the arrears still due can be paid on the next muster for pay of the Regiment, proper entries being made on the muster-rolls to show the amount due, and the dates between which such amount accrued. The United States has paid all officers from the time of proper command being assigned, which command is as follows: 1st Lieutenant, half a company; Captain and 2d Lieutenant, a full company; Lieutenant Colonel, four companies; Major, six companies; Colonel, and remainder of Field and Staff, full regiment. Claims for compensation prior to actual command, should be made to the Adjutant General of the Army, and are to be paid out of the recruiting fund, and not by the pay department." The United States, then, October 20th, 1863, had provided for the whole period of service and for the payment of arrears, and therefore the State law FORBIDS me to pay. I enclose you a rough sketch of order into quarters, as is alleged to mustering. The Captains, in most instances, certify, but where you see "no certificate" lined out, Sutton says it was obtained by the clerks from other sources, and he does not know how reliable it is. We can not go back of it well, and if this matter is thrown on the State, it will be attended with much perplexity, first, in proving dates and then getting it back from the United States. The men, too, from the United States can draw pay from enlistment, whereas, if the State pays them, or directs them to be paid, under Chap. 11, 8th General Assembly, they will only get it by actually going into quarters. I give you all the facts for you to draw answers to the House as your memory may supply certain facts that should be known. I have aimed to do the officers no more than justice, and I think I have given you all the data. You may rely on the dates, &c. I have drawn this in great haste for the first mail, as you asked it.

Yours, truly,

JOHN C. CULBERTSON,
Acting Paymaster General.

BURLINGTON, IOWA, Aug. 14th, 1861. }

Adjutant General:

I have the honor to acknowledge your two favors of the 9th and 13th.

My men, greatly demoralized by the premature movement, are now in good condition, and if left in present position for two weeks, will be in a proper state of organization for active service. I am destitute of blankets, clothing, arms and accoutrements, for which I wait.

The two companies deficient in my regiment I shall be glad to have supplied. Adj. Heath proposes to raise a company at once. It would be advisable to have him with my command.

I have the honor to be very respectfully your obt. servt.,

EXHIBIT B.

MOUNT PLEASANT, IOWA, Dec. 16, 1862.

Hon. N. B. Baker, Adjutant General, Clinton, Iowa,

DEAR Sir:—I have a claim against the State of some hundred and seventy odd dollars, for services as Lieutenant in the 1st Cavalry, and as I can procure no blanks here, it will probably be less trouble to you if you will send me a blank (with the necessary instructions) in which to make out my account.

The 1st Regiment of Cavalry, you doubtless remember was accepted by the Secretary of War on the 13th of June 1861, and was paid from that time, by the paymaster at St. Louis, but a personal feeling having arisen between Col. Warren and Col. Andrews, the paymaster, the latter said he would deduct that amount of pay from us, (that is, the amount paid for the time intervening between the 13th of June and the day of rendezvous at Burlington,) which he afterwards did, against the protest of all in the regiment.

I learned just before leaving the regiment that the State would pay us for that time on the receipt of the proper Muster Rolls. Having no longer any connection with the regiment, I make this application for my individual account.

Hoping that I have not intruded to long upon your time and attention,

I am Very Respectfully,

Your ob't Servant,

T. A. BEREMAN;

Late 2d Lieut., Co. E, 1st Iowa Cavalry.

[ANSWER TO BEREMAN'S LETTER BY COL. HALL.]

DAVENPORT, IOWA, Dec. 22, 1862.

Lt. T. A. Bereman, Mount Pleasant, Iowa.

SIR:—Yours of Dec. 16th. is at hand. It has always been understood that the 1st Regiment of Cavalry was paid by Government from date of enrollment. There has never been any pay rolls returned by any except the last two companies who were added after the regiment was organized.

I am aware of the action of Government in paying them, and afterwards stopping a certain portion of it, but it is thought this will yet be arranged, and while the claim is pending, you could not be paid by the State.

None of the officers of the first ten companies have been so paid.

Truly Yours,

P. E. HALL,

Acting Paymaster General, Iowa.

EXHIBIT C.

BATESVILLE, Bates Co., Mo., June 19th, 1864.

Adjutant General :

I addressed you from Burlington, about May 26th, recommending Capt. P. Gad Bryan, Major, vice Torrence, resigned; Lt. J. D. Jenks, Co. D, Captain, vice Bryan, promoted; Lt. J. C. Stone, 1st Lt., vice Jenks, promoted, Co. D; Orderly Serg't Joseph S. Edsall 1st Lt. and Battalion Adjutant, 3d Battalion, rank and pay date from May 3d, 1862.

I have conformed to Gov. Kirkwood's instructions, and report Major Bryan as the choice of a plurality of the regiment for Major. I also stated in my letter above, that I shall be in Burlington until June 11th, and requested a reply there. As I have had none, nor has any been received here, I am constrained to believe that you did not receive my letter. I am sure you would not be so discourteous as not to acknowledge the receipt of it. I am also informed at St. Louis, that you have certified that the First Iowa Cavalry were not entitled to pay until July 31st. I have repelled this as a slander. I hold a commission as Colonel of the First Regiment Iowa Cavalry, dated June 8th. I would not suggest to your acute mind that Gov. Kirkwood would not have commissioned an officer of a regiment which did not exist, nor would he have certified to the Secretary of War, at the same date, that the regiment had been fully organized and was ready for service.

Waiting the receipt of the Commission,

I remain, very truly, your obedient servant,

FITZ HENRY WARREN,

Col. 1st Iowa Cav.

Colonel :—I cannot issue the commissions you refer to under date June 19, without the Governor's orders. Your letters have been promptly attended to.

Whatever certificates have been given in relation to date of muster of your companies, have been in accordance with the certificates of your Captains. If there is any error it will be most cheerfully rectified, but you must remember that I am compelled to follow the record which your own officers furnish.

I have the honor to be truly yours,

SIR:—The Judge Advocate General has examined and reported in my case, and decides that I am entitled to my pay and emoluments from June 13, 1861 to Sept. 24, 1861.

For a portion of this time I have been paid by the State, but in order to have an intelligible adjustment, I shall draw for the whole period, but am ready to pay over to the State Treasury any sums with which it shall appear I am justly charged.

I am Sir, very respectfully,

To his Excellency SAMUEL J. KIRKWOOD, Governor of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa.

STATE OF IOWA, }
 ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
 DAVENPORT, March 13th, 1863. }

To whom it may concern :

I was appointed Adjutant General of Iowa, July 25th, 1861.

As I understand it, the First Iowa Cavalry was then considered as a full regiment of ten companies. Subsequently it was filled to twelve companies. Company L was mostly raised by Capt. (now Major 7th Cavalry) H. H. Heath, and a certificate on the roll of said company states that it was ordered into quarters July 18th, 1861, but this date, I have no doubt, is a mistake. It was mustered in by (then) Capt. Gower of said regiment, but the date of muster is not given.

Co. M. was mustered in September 12th, 1861, by Capt. Chambers, U. S. A., at Davenport, and then forwarded to the headquarters of the regiment at Burlington, Iowa.

 Adjutant General of Iowa.

The following communication was received from the Attorney General, which, on motion, was laid on the table and ordered to be printed :

OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL, }
 DES MOINES, January 28th, 1864. }

To the Senate, and House of Representatives of the State of Iowa :

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of resolutions from the Senate and House of Representatives respectively, requesting me to communicate my opinion as to what legislation is at this time necessary in order to do justice to the State, and all parties for whom she is interested as trustee in the lands granted to the State by Congress, in trust for the improvement of the Des Moines River,—to aid in the construction of Rail Roads within the State,—and also lands granted to the State for certain purposes of indemnity. To say what the law ought to be in regard to interests so important and conflicting as those involved in the subject of your resolutions, is to place upon me a very serious responsibility, and one perhaps hardly falling within the ordinary scope of my official duties. Nevertheless, in obedience to your request, I submit the following suggestions which occur to me as proper and just in the premises.

In order to understand what ought to be done to remedy the difficulties in which the State and its citizens have become involved, it becomes necessary, first, to fully understand the origin and nature of these difficulties.

By an act of the Congress of the United States, approved August 8th, 1846, there was granted to the then Territory of Iowa, in trust for the improvement of the Des Moines river, one equal moiety in alternate sections of the public lands not otherwise disposed of in a strip five miles in width on each side of the river.

The question in relation to this grant which has occasioned so much difficulty, is upon the length of the grant; that is to say, whether or not it embraced the alternate sections within five miles of the river the entire length of the river, or the entire length of the river within the State, or whether it was limited the designated width below the Raccoon Fork of the river, where the work of improvement was directed to be made.

This difficulty has become the more serious, because of the claims of certain Rail Road Companies who are asserting that they have acquired vested rights under a subsequent grant of Congress to the State for Railroad purposes. The claim asserted by them is this: By Act of Congress, approved May 15th, 1856, there was granted to the State of Iowa, in trust for the construction of four designated lines of railway running East and West across the State, the alternate sections of land on the lines aforesaid for six sections in width except such as the United States had already sold or otherwise appropriated, and especially reserving from the operation of the act, all lands reserved by the United States or any other competent authority, for purposes of internal improvement.

One of these lines of Railroads crossed the Des Moines river at the Raccoon Fork, and two others crossed the river above that point. At the time the State of Iowa accepted of the trust and disposed of the grant of 1856, made for Railroad purposes, the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the United States had ceased to question the right of the State under the grant of 1846, to the alternate sections of land within five miles of the river up to the Northern boundry of the State.

The Commissioner had expressly reserved these lands from public sale or private entry for this work of internal improvement, and being, as was supposed, the competent authority within the meaning of the proviso to the Rail Road Grant of 1856, no one interested in the subject seemed at that time to contemplate any difficulty.

Hence in disposing of the grant of 1856 for Railroad purposes, the General Assembly of the State seems not to have anticipated the possibility of any conflict between the two grants. I can discover no mention of such question in the proceedings of either branch of the General Assembly during the extra session of 1856. If any such thing was thought of or contemplated by any one at that time, it appears to have been carefully concealed.

The act of the General Assembly of 1856 in granting the lands donated to the State in trust for Railroad purposes, uses very general and comprehensive words, granting to the Railroad Companies upon certain conditions all the rights conferred upon the State by the act of Congress, approved July 15, 1856.

The Dubuque and Pacific Railroad Company, the Cedar Rapids and Missouri River Railroad Company, have asserted a claim to the lands heretofore treated and regarded by the authorities of this State and of the United States as belonging to the Des Moines river grant, or rather to all of said lands lying within fifteen miles of the contemplated route of their Roads. If their claims shall be recognized, it is fair to presume that the Mississippi and Missouri River Railroad Company will make the same claim. The Burlington and Missouri River Railroad Company have no interests in this question, as their road crosses the Des Moines river below the Raccoon Fork.

As the State has already sold and executed patents for 271,571 acres of land above the Raccoon Fork of the river, nearly all of which will come within this claim of the Railroad Companies, the success of their pretensions will involve the State either in the necessity of making good the title to that amount of land, a considerable portion of which is now well improved and under cultivation, or she must repudiate the titles executed by her and leave those who have purchased without any remedy.

In nearly if not all the legislation by the State in regard to the Des Moines river grant and in the Act authorizing the contract under which the agreement was made between the State and the Des Moines Navigation Company, there is contained a provision in substance that the State in her sovereign capacity shall not be charged with any liabilities assumed, but all such liabilities shall be chargeable upon and payable out of the remaining lands belonging to the Des Moines river grant.

This provision clearly pledges the faith of the State to appropriate the lands then supposed to belong to the grant, to the discharge of all the obligations thus incurred, provided she then had or has since secured the title thereto, or can in any proper manner control the same.

The State has not, however, pledged her faith to appropriate money out of her ordinary revenues to made good of any of these obligations. Should the State, however, fail to redeem her pledge in regard to the appropriation, the claimants might perhaps justly ask of her such indemnity. Because of these provisions against State liability, it has been supposed that no obligation, either of a legal or equitable character, rests upon the State.

As to the matter of the liability of the State, this provision of the law makes no difference of legal right, as the State could in no event be made liable in a suit by the parties, for the reason that the sovereign power cannot be sued. In denying to those who have received her patents a right of action against the State, the State has only denied to them what she denies to all of her citizens in any and every business transaction with them. The State as a sovereign power refuses to be sued upon the hypothesis that she is the fountain of justice, created by the will of the people for the very purpose of securing to individuals their rights of private property, of personal liberty and security, and is presumed to be incapable, in her sovereign capacity, of withholding or infringing these sacred rights.

It may be questionable whether popular legislation, subject as it is to be influenced by public clamor or private interests, will always justify this theory, yet those who have in their keeping the character and honor of the State, cannot too sacredly regard it. Let it be remembered that it is the will of the law making power, that in such cases creates the legal right, and the considerations which influence that will, are necessarily of a purely moral or equitable character.

In order that these considerations may be fully ascertained in the various interests involved, it becomes necessary to review at some length the acts of the State of Iowa, as the Trustee of the lands for the improvement of the Des Moines river.

By act of the General Assembly, passed in 1848, the State organized a board of public works, and authorized them to let contracts for the construction of locks and dams upon the Des Moines river, and the general improvement of the navigation of the same by means of slack water.

From this date to June, 1854, the improvement of the river was attempted by means of numerous contracts let to private persons for the construction of locks and dams, excavations and materials. The State also established an office for the sale of the lands of the improvement, in order to raise the means to carry on the work, and also authorized the issue of bonds upon the faith of the grant. The State and its officers are alone responsible for whatever of failure or misfortune attended this enterprise during this time.

During the six years the State controlled the work, 327,000 acres of land were sold, 58,830 acres of which were of those above the Raccoon Fork of the river. An indebtedness estimated at $60,000, but in fact about $70,000, was incurred. But little progress was made in the enterprise, and many incidental and contingent liabilities and obligations were incurred. By reference to page thirty-five of the report of the Register of the State Land Office, made to the General Assembly now in session, you will find a tabular statement of claims against the Des Moines River Improvement, audited by a board of commissioners appointed by act of the General Assembly, approved March 3d, 1860. An explanation is necessary to understand the nature and origin of some of these claims. At the time of the organization of the board of public works, in 1848, a number of citizens had, under authority of the territorial legislature, erected locks and dams of a temporary character upon the Des Moines River, at their own private expense, for the purpose of creating a water power, and had put up mills and machinery adjacent thereto. In the act of 1848, the State authorized the board of public works to condemn and remove these locks and dams, and to locate works of a more permanent character, but also provided that compensation should be made for the injury thus done to the mill owners; and as a cheap method of compensating them, in part, recommended the granting of new leases for a term of years for water power at the new dams.

The board was also authorized to condemn the lands of private citizens adjacent to the location of the public dams, and to take the title to the State to sufficient lands for the proper use of the power to be created by their erection, and also to grant leases for water power on consideration, in part, for the lands, so taken and condemned.

In pursuance of these powers, the officers of the State entered into contracts for the lease of specific water power at various points upon the river, upon the faith of which the lessees constructed numerous and valuable mills and machinery.

These leases were unfortunately contracted before the water power was actually created by the completion of the dams, and an undue confidence was placed in the future progress of the work. It is unnecessary for me to write the chapter of accidents to which may be attributed the misfortunes of the State, and of those who relied upon the covenants of these leases. Suffice it to say, that the works at Croton, Bonaporte and Bentonsport were almost continually out of repair, whilst those at Keosanqua and Plymouth have never yet been completed.

The above is the origin and character of most of these claims, others are for work done by mill owners since the settlement between the Des Moines Navigation Company and the State, and others are for services of various kinds under contracts with the officers of the State, and a few of the small claims are; I think, for detention and injury to boats by reason of the condition of the locks and lock gates, during the time of navigation. As to the provisions made for the payment of these claims I shall have more to say hereafter.

In the year 1853, the work on the Des Moines River under the supervision of the officers of State, was nearly if not entirely suspended. As will be seen by the report of the Commissioner and Register made to the Governor in 1852, negotiations had been opened with various parties in St. Louis and New York, in order to obtain the means to pay off the existing debt, and to further prosecute the work. In that report the Commissioner says:

"It is now a clearly ascertained fact, about which a doubt can no longer exist that the large debt, hanging over the work which should and must be paid, and the slow sales of the lands, it is folly to expect to carry the Des Moines Improvement to completion in many a long year, if ever. It is hardly too much to say that the work can never be completed unless some steps be taken by legislative enactment to infuse new life into it."

This report also contains a lengthy correspondence with Messrs. Page & Bacon of St. Louis, and a proposition on their part to undertake the work upon the terms afterwards substantially made in the contract with the Des Moines Navigation Company.

In consequence of the condition of affairs as set out in this report the General Assembly of the State by Act approved January 24, 1853, authorized the Commissioner, with two assistants, George G. Wright, of Van Buren County, and Uriah Biggs of Wapello county, to make a contract for the means to carry on the work and to pay off the indebtedness. After more than a year's effort and correspondence with various capitalists (Messrs. Page & Bacon of St. Louis having in the meantime declined the work altogether,) these Commissioners of the State made a contract with the Des Moines Navigation and R. R. Company, an association composed of capitalists, then residing principally in the State of New York, and incorporated under the laws of this State for the purposes of undertaking this contract. This contract was dated June 9th, 1854, and from this date is the first connection of the Des Moines Navigation Company, with the affairs of the improvement.

In many respects this contract with the Des Moines Navigation Company did not differ from the contracts let for construction of dams before that time, to private parties. The State still controlled the character of the work by her Commissioner and Register, and the supervision of a State Engineer. The company received pay only for work done at specific prices set out in the contract. So much per perch for stone or masonry work, so much per foot for timber, and so much per pound for iron. The essential difference between this contract and the old ones was, that the State paid for the work in land at $1.25 per acre, instead of the money or the bonds of the Improvement. Another important stipulation of this contract was, that as a condition precedent to the contract, the Des Moines Navigation Company advanced $55,000 to pay the indebtedness then due upon the bonds of the improvement, and provided for the remaining indebtedness which they afterwards paid, to the amount, including the above of $68,953,57 which is exclusive of the additional $20,000 paid on the final settlement. At the date of this contract the Commissioner of the General Land office had certified to the State, as belonging to the State, for the purposes of the river improvement 271,572 acres of land located above the Raccoon fork of the river. Of this amount the State had sold to private parties 58,830 acres above the forks. Of the 321,537 acres approved and certified under the grant below the Raccoon forks but 53,367 acres remained. These lands below the Raccoon fork at the contract price would scarcely more than cover the $68,953 of indebtedness paid for the State by the company under the contract.

In addition to this the State received, under this contract, the salaries of its officers in charge of the improvement to-wit: The Commissioner and the Register and the Engineer, amounting to the further sum of $42,330. To which add the $20,000 paid to the State on the final settlement, and you have cash received from the Company, without any pay to them for the work, the sum of $131,283.

On the 24th day of December, 1856, Mr. Manning, the Commissioner for the State, made a settlement with the Des Moines Navigation Company, and the parties drew up and agreed upon a statement of account between the State and the Company which was as follows:

By an act of the General Assembly, approved January, 1857, the State attempted to repudiate the contract of June 9th, 1854. This act was passed by the votes of members of the General Assembly whose immediate constituents were the least interested in the work upon the Des Moines River and in opposition to the votes and earnest protest of the representatives of the people residing in the Des Moines Valley.

Under the law it became the duty of the officers of the State to test the validity of the contract of June 9th, 1854, in the courts. A proceeding by mandamus was commenced by the Des Moines Navigation Company, against the Commissioner of the Des Moines River Improvement, and although the prayer of the petition was refused and the application defeated yet the Supreme Court of the State affirmed the validity of the contract, and declared the act of the General Assembly approved January 24, 1857, to be of no practical force and effect.

By joint committee of the two houses of the 8th General Assembly, a settlement was agreed upon between the State and the Des Moines River Company, and formal propositions for a settlement were made by the State to the Company by act of the General Assembly approved March 22d, 1858, and afterwards accepted by them. At the date of this settlement as above set out, the State had already certified to the Company 205,489,73 acres of land, and of the lands certified and approved under the grant of 1846, only 60,619 acres remained. At the contract price these would amount to $75,774, which was nearly $83,500 less than the acknowledged indebtedness to the Company. The State, however, claimed that the Company had not complied with the contract, in point of time, and that the great object of the contract, to-wit: the navigation of the river, remained unaccomplished. Under these circumstances, the State claimed as a condition precedent to certifying these remaining 60,619 acres of land, or of issuing patents for the lands before certified, that the Company should pay to the State for the use of the improvement the further sum of $20,000, thus claiming as damages from the Company for its alleged failure to complete the work, the sum of about one hundred and three thousand five hundred dollars. The preamble to the act of 1858 waives any acknowledgment upon the part of any one as to where the fault of the various failures and misfortunes attending the work was justly chargeable. After a full investigation of the matters in controversy between them, the parties concluded the settlement, the State making the proposition in the form of a solemn act of the General Assembly, and the Company accepted the same by resolution of its Directors, and by paying over the money. In pursuance of this settlement deeds were issued by the State to the Company for all the remaining lands then certified to the State for the purposes of the improvement, including those certified by the State to the Company before the settlement, and amounting in all to 266,109 acres, 53,367 acres only of which, as before stated, are below the Raccoon Forks of the River.

In this connection it may, perhaps, be of interest to the members of the General Assembly to know who are now the owners of the title thus made by the State, and what is the present condition of the lands.

It is perhaps well understood that the Raccoon Fork of the river is at the City of Des Moines, or rather that Des Moines is located at the Raccoon Fork.

As to the lands sold by the State, either to individuals or to the Des Moines Navigation Company, below this point, there is no trouble.

There are also 25,847 87-100 acres of land immediately next above this point, about which there is no trouble. These lands were sold and patented by the United States to individuals, prior to the Railroad grant of 1856, and though claimed by the State under the Des Moines River Grant of 1846; yet the State never claimed to interfere with the title of the purchasers, but merely to have lands in lieu thereof;—a moderation and propriety worthy of imitation by those who are now giving the State so much trouble.

Next above these lie the 58,830 acres sold by the Commissioner and Register, prior to the contract with the River Company. All these, of course, are in the hands of individuals, and upon them are some of the best improvements and finest farms in the Des Moines Valley.

The 212,742 acres above this point conveyed to the Des Moines Navigation Company, have passed into the hands of third persons, in the manner I shall presently explain. These lands, with others before mentioned, embrace nearly if not all the lands, within this five mile limits of the alternate Sections, lying between this point and Fort Dodge, and some immediately above that point. An explanation is necessary in regard to the sale of these lands by the Des Moines River Company. In order to raise the means adequate to their undertaking, the Des Moines Navigation Company issued and sold in the market the corporate bonds of the Company, secured by a trust deed binding all the lands of the Company, as fast as the same should be certified to them under their contract with the State.

At the same time they opened their land office in the State for the sale of these lands to private parties and actual settlers. And in order to make their titles good to purchasers, it was provided in the deed of trust that upon the payment by the Company to the Trustee of three dollars per acre upon any of the lands either in money or in the bonds for which the trust-deed was security, that the Trustee should release the land from the operation of the trust-deed. During the years 1856 and 1857, the transactions in real estate became very active in our State and the Company disposed of large quantities of these lands by private sale in the manner before stated and very many of the purchasers have settled upon and improved their lands.

Some of the sales were made upon a partial credit, the Company retaining the legal title for the security of the unpaid portion of the purchase money and executing a contract of sale to the purchaser. Some of these contracts are still outstanding and are in various stages of completion.

After the settlement with the State in 1858, the Des Moines Company sold to its bond-holders all the remaining lands which had been deeded to them by the State, and also sold their interest in the lands before contracted, reciting the contract in their deeds, and thus making the individual bond-holder take the place of the Company in these contracts. Thus the bond-holders of the Company who advanced the money which paid the State indebtedness, and also the money which was expended on the improvement, now hold the legal title to these lands sold, but not entirely paid for, as the security for the payment of the balance due on these contracts of purchase.

I have made investigation of this question and present it here because a suggestion has been made that the State should make a distinction in regard to those who have dealt in these lands upon the faith of the title made by the State and should secure only the rights of actual occupants or settlers.

Aside from the doubtful morality of such an undertaking, I deem it, under the circumstances surrounding this case, as entirely impracticable. The inquiry into the merits of every purchase or transfer of this land, embracing as it does so many thousand acres, and numerous subsequent sales, and the attempt to adjust the nicely balanced equities of each individual, upon purely sympathetic considerations, is an undertaking which I would not recommend to the General Assembly.

After the settlement with the Des Moines Navigation Company, in 1858, the General Assembly attempted to provide for the completion of the locks and dams then, in the course of construction at Croton, Plymouth, Bentonsport and Keosauqua, and to provide for the payment of the liabilities existing and to be incurred, and then to give the balance of the grant, when obtained, to the Keokuk, Ft. Des Moines and Minnesota R. R. Company.

In the act of settlement with the Des Moines Navigation Company, the State took an assignment of four construction contracts then outstanding between private contractors and the Des Moines Navigation Company for the construction of the work at the four points above named. Upon these contracts there was unpaid what was called back per centage, that is 15 per cent. of the estimates of work done under the contract, which was reserved as security for the completion of the contract. This back per centage the State assumed and agreed to pay in the settlement with the Navigation Company. The State also took an assignment of said contracts with all advantages and liabilities arising thereon, and per centage, except the company were obliged to pay the estimates then due. By this covenant I understand that the State assumed to see that the Company should not be made liable for a failure to carry on the work in the future under the contracts thus assigned. Nothing has been done on these contracts since their assignment to the State, except by Messrs. Brown and Allender, who became assignees of the contract at Bentonsport, and completed their dam, and what has been done by the mill owners at Keosauqua and Croton, in order to preserve their water power.

The contractors at Plymouth notified the Governor that they were ready to proceed, but nothing was done for want of any lands or funds. These contractors have since recovered judgments against the Des Moines Navigation Company for the back per centage, and perhaps for damages by reason of this neglect.

In the act of 1858, diverting the lands which should thereafter be certified to the State under the Des Moines River grant, the State reserved 50,000 acres of land to be applied in the completion of the contracts for the four locks and dams at the points before named, and for the purpose of paying off the debts. The second Section of the act also provided that the Keokuk, Ft. Des Moines and Minnesota R. R. Company should pay off the remaining liabilities of the improvement, and complete the locks and dams at points above named, under the contracts assumed by the State, and should receive in installments, the 50,000 acres of land at $3 per acre as money was so paid or expended by them.

Since the date of said act, the Commissioner of the General Land Office has refused to certify to the State any further lands of the grant of 1846, for the improvement of the Des Moines River. Consequently, the Keokuk R. R. Company, not being able to derive the anticipated advantage from the act of the General Assembly of 1858, has refused to pay any money or do any work under the contracts for the construction of locks and dams assumed by the State.

In 1860, the General Assembly amended the law of 1858, designating the 50,000 acres of land reserved for the purposes aforesaid, as those next above the lands deeded to the River Company, and when obtained, authorized the Register of the State Land Office to dispose of them for the purposes for which they had been set apart in the act of 1858.

At the December term thereof, 1859, the Supreme Court of the United States delivered an opinion in an agreed case of Litchfield against the Dubuque & Pacific Railroad Company, in the which it is decided that the grant of lands to Iowa in 1846, for the improvement of the Des Moines River, did not embrace any of the lands above the Raccoon Fork of the river, and that the acts of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, under the advice of the Attorney General of the United States, as well as the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury and of the President, did not confer upon the State of Iowa any title, under the grant of 1846, to those lands.

Because of this decision, I have not presumed to discuss the question as to the proper construction of the act of 1846, regarding it as thus settled by the weight of authority until reversed. With all due respect, however, to that authority, I desire to say, out of regard for the reputation of my official position, that I do not wish to be understood as concurring in that opinion, in any particular whatever, and more particularly in its geographical and topographical statements upon the length and character of the Des Moines River. It may be that the opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States, that there is no Des Moines River above the Raccoon Fork, may make it so in contemplation of law—but those who are compelled by their daily observation to know the facts in relation to it, might find some difficulty in maintaining the respect due to the Court, if such experiments upon their credulity were too often repeated.

I have carefully examined this case, and although it does decide directly the extent of the original grant to the State for the improvement of the river, it does not by any means decide that the Dubuque & Pacific Railroad Company has any title. This question the Attorneys for the Railroad Company seem carefully to have avoided submitting to the Court. In the agreed statement of facts, the Dubuque & Pacific Railroad Company was stated to be in possession, and the fictitious action was so framed that the plaintiff's title was alone put in issue.

The question I have heretofore suggested, whether or not these Des Moines river lands were not taken out of the operation of the grant of 1856 by the clause excepting all lands set apart by any competent authority for works of internal improvement, and the fact that they had been so set apart and withheld from sale by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, does not appear to have been presented to the Court, and certainly is not passed upon by it.

This is a very important consideration with those who are in possession of land under the deeds of the State, to which these Railroad Companies claim title. The State has not yet issued to these Companies any deeds or certificates which are evidences of title to any of the lands in dispute under these conflicting grants, and my first recommendation on this point is, that the General Assembly shall prohibit either the Governor or Register of the State Land Office from so doing, and shall also so amend the law defining what shall be evidence of title in the Courts of this State in actions of right or of trespass, as to exclude anything else than a deed duly executed by the State in such cases.

Since the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Litchfield against the Dubuque and Pacific Railroad Company, the Congress of the United States has passed several enactments for the purpose of correcting the evils which this decision was likely to entail upon the State. The first act, approved March 3d, 1861, relinquishes to the State the right of the United States to the lauds which had been certified to the State above the Raccoon forks of the Des Moines river. This would make good the titles made by the State to all these lands, except so far as at that time the Railroad Companies whose lines crossed the lands had acquired a vested right thereto. The title made by the State to all the lands lying outside of or rather between the fifteen mile limits of the Railroad grant became absolute by this act. The title also to all the lands deeded by the State lying outside of the six mile limits which had not been selected and approved and certified by the department in lieu of the disposed of lands within the six mile limits became perfect.

By act of Congress, approved July 12th, 1862, the grant of August 18th, 1846, was extended to the northern boundary of the State, and the State was authorized to select lands in lieu of those before disposed of by the United States for other purposes within the limits of the grants. In other words, in lieu of all alternate sections of lands sold by the United States or selected under Railroad or swamp land grants within the five mile limits up to the northern boundary of the State, the State should select of the public lands a like quantity anywhere within the State.

The Act also provides that if the State shall have sold and conveyed any portion of the lands lying within the limits of the grant, the titles to which have proved invalid, any lands which shall be certified to the State in lieu thereof by virtue of the provisions of the Act, shall enure to and be held as a trust fund for the benefit of the person or persons respectively whose titles shall have failed as aforesaid.

This Act also consents to the diversion made to the Keokuk, Ft. Des Moines and Minnesota Railroad Company as provided for in the act of the General Assembly of 1858.

This grant has been accepted by the State and 300,000 acres of indemnity lands selected under it, but these selections have not yet been approved and certified to the State. Neither has the Commissioner of the General Land Office yet certified to the State any land under this Act.

The Register of the State Land Office has in his Report recommended that the lands granted and selected by the State under this grant as indemnity lands be patented to the Rail Road Companies when received, acre for acre, as a consideration for the release by those Companies of any claim upon the lands selected by them within the five mile limits of the Des Moines River upon the alternate Sections. The justice and propriety of this proposition must strike every impartial mind, and if the Rail Road Companies have not already attempted to sell or disposed of these lands in such a manner as to leave a cloud upon the title, the State should insist in all good faith upon their acceptance of this proposition. I have, however, but little faith in any amicable arrangement with these Companies. The very fact that they have persisted in a claim which, if successful, must involve a large class of our citizens in ruin and may occasion civil war in our midst, and that too, upon a technical claim of right, in violation of the intention of the State that has dealt so liberally with them, is to my mind conclusive evidence that no other considerations than those of interest can reach them. Fortunately perhaps, for the State, this consideration can be brought to bear upon them.

The 8th section of the act of the General Assembly, approved July 15, 1856, makes the grant to these Companies upon the express condition "that in case either of said Railroad Companies shall fail to have completed and equipped seventy-five miles of its road within three years from the first of December next, thirty miles in addition each year thereafter for five years, and the remainder of their whole line in one year thereafter, or on the first of December, 1855, then and in that case it shall be competent for the State of Iowa to resume all rights conferred by the act upon the Company so failing, and to resume all rights to the lands hereby granted and remaining undisposed of by the Company so failing to have the length of road completed in manner and time as aforesaid."

Nearly if not quite all of these Companies failed in the first condition above named, unless the road constructed by them before the grant was made, is counted as a part of the seventy-five miles. The Dubuque & Pacific Road has obtained a release of this forfeiture by acts of the General Assembly, approved March 7, and March 26, 1860.

The second condition of the Grant which requires thirty additional miles of the road to be completed each subsequent year, I am advised, has not been complied with by any of these Railroad Companies. If these Companies, therefore, shall insist upon the law, let them have the full measure thereof until they shall be willing to do and accept of justice. The resumption of these grants will reinvest the State with all the title and right still remaining in the Railroad Company, and if any innocent purchasers or third persons have acquired any rights in these lands, the Act of resumption cannot affect their title.

The Railroad interests of the State are of great importance and I would not recommend any wanton act of disfavor to them. After the State shall have resumed the lands it will be necessary to dispose of them during the present Session of the General Assembly or they will revert to the United States before the meeting of the General Assembly in 1866. This should be done on such terms as will be just to all the parties interested, and as shall effectually secure the State against all trouble or liability either legal or equitable, growing out of any conflicting titles to any of the lands heretofore granted to her in trust.

If the State shall by this means succeed in accomplishing the recommendation of the State Register and have at her disposition the alternate sections of land upon the Des Moines River to the Northern boundary of the State, the titles to all the lands heretofore sold or deeded by the State to all parties, will be at once perfected. The title to the 50,000 acres set aside to meet the liabilities or debt, as hereinbefore set out, will also be made good, and the remaining lands as contemplated in the act of 1858, will go to the Keokuk Railroad Company.

Should the State however fail to complete the above arrangement, and shall fail to resume them, my first recommendation in regard to evidence of titles is the only remedy for the present, and the 300,000 acres of land selected as indemnity must be held by the State to meet any future contingencies arising.

I would also recommend a Commission to ascertain what further debts or liabilities have accrued against the improvement by reason of the undertaking of the State in assuming the contracts mentioned in the settlements with the Des Moines Navigation Company, carefully guarding against all claims which had otherwise matured at the date of the appointment of the last Commission and which were not presented to it.

With the exception of the claims of Brown & Allender, provided for by the last General Assembly, there is now no adequate provision of law for the liquidation of the claims audited by the Commission, under the act of 1860.

Of the amount audited to Jonas Houghton, I am unfortunately the owner of $500 by assignment to me for services as his attorney in procuring the judgment originally against the Commissioner of the improvement. Under these circumstances I cannot consistently assume to advise you in relation to these claims.

The only remaining interest to be considered in connection with this complex business is that of the Keokuk and Fort Des Moines R. R. Company.

The diversion act of 1858 pledges the faith of the State to give them what is left of the Des Moines River Grant, after discharging the other obligations growing out of the connection of the State therewith. In other words this company is the residuary legatee of the Des Moines River Improvement deceased.

The legislation in relation to that Company will of course be somewhat dependent upon the other remedies adopted. The last Act of Congress, however, gives to the State beyond question the alternate sections of land within five miles of the river, and above the limits of the railroad grants. The indemnity lands as already explained can not be given to any other purpose until the titles to the land already deeded by the State above the Raccon fork of the the river is secured, to the grantees of the State. Aside from this, you only have the claims to provide for and the work assumed is under your control, as the Keokuk Railroad now declines the contract.

In conclusion, I ask the pardon of the Senate and House if I have made this communication tedious. Its length has been necessary because of the much legislation and numerous difficulties surrounding the subject. I may also repeat here that much that I have written may seem to be without the province of my official duties, but I have only written it because required by the language of your resolutions.

Very respectfully submitted.

CHARLES C. NOURSE.

TWO O'CLOCK, P. M.

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

The following communication was received from the Governor at the hands of his private Secretary, Mr. Orwig:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
DES MOINES, Feb. 2d, 1864. }

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives:

The resolution of your honorable body, calling upon me to answer certain interrogatories regarding the conduct and action of the several Railroad Companies, which are beneficiaries of the land grant made to this State by Act of Congress of May 15th, 1856, was duly presented. In reply thereto, I regret to say, that I am unable, from the meagre data within my reach, to answer your inquiries as fully as the grave importance of the information sought for demands.

I have carefully examined all the records, papers and correspondence, relating to the subjects embraced in your resolution, to be found in the public offices; and shall give you, as briefly as possible, the result of my investigations.

In the endeavor to furnish you the information desired, the important fact has been developed, that these immense transactions, so vital to the best interests of our State, have, for a series of years, been conducted in a manner contrary to my understanding of the law on the subject, and resulting, to a great extent, in a wrongful absorption of this munificent grant. Good faith to you, and to the people, seems to demand a plain exposition of these matters; and I know of no consideration which should deter me from a faithful and thorough performance of the duty imposed.

I have failed to find sufficient evidence to justify the conclusion, that any of the Companies designated have fully complied with the plain conditions of the several Acts by which they became the beneficiaries of this generous donation. If the evidence of their compliance is extant, it is due, alike to them and to the people, that it be deposited here, in its appropriate place, where it will be accessible to all, and remove all grounds for doubting the legality of their transactions.

A brief reference to the Act of Congress making this grant to the State, and the Act of the General Assembly accepting it, is necessary, in order that we may fully understand its present condition, and have sufficient light to guide us in the investigation.

Actuated by a most commendable desire to advance the interests of our State, and facilitate the rapid growth and development of the country, Congress passed an Act, approved March 15th, 1856, "making a grant of lands to the State of Iowa, in alternate Sections, to aid in the construction of certain Railroads in said State." The following is a copy of the first section of said Act:

“SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That there be and is hereby granted to the State of Iowa, for the purpose of aiding in the construction of Railroads from Burlington, on the Mississippi river, to a point on the Missouri river, near the mouth of Platte river; from the city of Davenport, via Iowa City and Fort Des Moines to Council Bluffs; from Lyons city, north-westerly to a point of intersection with the main line of the Iowa Central Air Line Railroad, near Makquoketa, thence on said main line running as near as practicable to the forty-second parallel, across the said State of Iowa to the Missouri river; from the city of Dubuque to a point on the Missouri river, near Sioux City, with a branch from the mouth of the Tete Des Morts, to the nearest point on said Road, to be completed as soon as the main Road is completed to that point, every alternate section of land, designated by odd numbers, for six sections in width on each side of said roads. But in case it shall appear that the United States have, when the lines or routes of said roads are definitely fixed, sold any sections or any parts thereof, granted as aforesaid, or the right of pre-emption has attached to the same, then it shall be lawful for any agent or agents to be appointed by the Governor of said State to select, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, from the lands of the United States nearest to the tiers of sections above specified, so much land in alternate sections or parts of sections, as shall be equal to such lands as the United States have sold, or otherwise appropriated, or to which the rights of pre-emption have attached as aforesaid; which lands (thus selected in lieu of those sold and to which pre-emption rights have attached as aforesaid, together with the sections and parts of sections by odd numbers as aforesaid, and appropriated as aforesaid,) shall be held by the State of Iowa, for the use and purpose aforesaid: Provided, That the land to be so located shall in no case be further than fifteen miles from the lines of said roads, and selected for and on account of each of said roads: Provided further, That the lands hereby granted for and on account of said roads severally, shall be exclusively applied in the construction of that road for and on account of which such lands are hereby granted, and shall be disposed of only as the work progresses, and the same shall be applied to no other purpose whatsoever: And provided further, That any and all lands heretofore reserved to the United States by any Act of Congress, or in any other manner by competent authority, for the purpose of aiding in any objects of internal improvement, or for any other purpose whatsoever, be and the same are hereby reserved from the operations of this Act, except so far as it may be found necessary to locate the routes of said Railroads through such reserved lands; in which case the right of way only shall be granted, subject to the approval of the President of the United States.”

It will be observed that this Grant was made to the State, for the purpose of aiding in the construction of Railroads, between the points designated on the Mississippi and Missouri rivers. And by the third section of this Act, it is enacted that the said lands hereby granted to the said State, shall be subject to the disposal of the Legislature thereof, for the purpose aforesaid and no other; thus leaving it for the Legislature to select the particular Companies which were to become the beneficiaries of the Grant, and to prescribe the conditions upon which they should have their right and title to the lands.

The lands so granted, were embraced in the alternate sections designated by odd numbers, for six sections in width on each side of said roads; with the further provision that, if it should appear that any of said odd sections had been previously disposed of by the United States, or pre-emption claims had attached thereto, lands in lieu thereof might be selected, and located within a distance of fifteen miles from the established lines of each of said roads; and the Governor of the State is authorized to appoint agents to select, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, the requisite number of sections, within these extended limits.

The alternate sections, designated by even numbers, were reserved to the United States; and in order that no loss should result to them; in consequence of making this Grant to us, the price of these reserved sections was increased to double the minimum price of the public lands when sold; and none of said lands become subject to private entry, until they have been first offered at public sale, at the increased price. In contemplation of the great advantages to be secured in the construction of these roads through the State, in facilitating the settlement and improvement of the country adjacent to them, Congress conceived that the value of these lands would be thereby enhanced, and command a ready sale at the additional price fixed upon them. And thus while extending to Iowa this magnificent favor, no injustice would be done to the country at large.

This being the primary object of the grant, it is clear that Congress intended the lands should be selected adjacent to and in advance of the several roads, as they progressed towards completion, in order to give the reserved sections the enhanced value contemplated, and bring them into market.

The fourth section of the act provides, in substance, that the lands thereby granted to the State shall be disposed of by the State only, in the following manner, to-wit: A quantity of land, not exceeding one hundred and twenty sections for each of said roads, and included within a continuous length of twenty miles thereof, may be sold; and when the Governor of said State shall certify to the Secretary of the Interior that any twenty continuous miles of any of said roads are completed, then another portion of the lands hereby granted, not exceeding one hundred and twenty sections, for such road having twenty continuous miles completed as aforesaid, and included in a continuous length of twenty miles thereof, may be sold; and so on, from time to time, until said roads are completed. And if any of said roads are not completed within ten years from the date of the grant, no further sales shall be made, and the lands unsold shall revert to the United States.

Each road is entitled to one hundred and twenty sections before its construction is commenced, and a like number of sections for every continuous twenty miles of road completed. No time is specified within which these twenty miles shall be constructed; but if the entire line of each is not completed to the points designated on the Missouri River, within ten years, no further sales shall be made to the State, and our right to the lands remaining unsold becomes forfeited.

For the purpose of accepting this grant, and executing the trust conferred upon the State by this act of Congress, a special session of the General Assembly was convened at Iowa City, on the 2d day of July, 1856, at which an act was passed entitled as follows:

“An act to accept the grant and carry into execution the trust conferred upon the State of Iowa by an act of Congress entitled ‘An act making a grant of land to the State of Iowa, in alternate sections, to aid in the construction of railroads in said State,’ approved May 15th, 1856.”

The lands granted to the State by said act of Congress, were by this act granted to the following companies, respectively, to-wit:

Burlington & Missouri Railroad Company; Mississippi & Missouri Railroad Company; Iowa Central Air-Line Railroad Company; Dubuque & Pacific Railroad Company.

The only part of this act of the General Assembly to which I now deem it important to direct your attention, is the eighth section thereof, which reads as follows:

“SECTION 8. The grants aforesaid are made to each of said companies, respectively, upon the express condition, that in case either of such railroad companies shall fail to have completed and equipped seventy-five miles of its road within three years from the first day of December next, thirty miles in addition in each year thereafter, for five years, and the remainder of their whole line of road in one year thereafter, or on the first day of December, A. D. 1865, then and in that case it shall be competent for the State of Iowa to resume all rights conferred by this act upon the company so failing, and to resume all rights to the lands hereby granted and remaining undisposed of by the company so failing to have the length of road completed in manner and time as aforesaid.”

The conditions upon which the grants were made to the above named companies, are all contained in the foregoing section, and are plainly expressed. First, each of said companies shall complete seventy-five miles of its road by the first day of December, 1859.

Second, and in addition thereto, thirty miles in each year thereafter, for five years—making in all 225 continuous miles of road. Third, the remainder of the whole line of each road in one year thereafter, or on the first day of December, 1865.

If any of said companies fail to perform either of these express conditions, then and in that case it shall be competent for the State to resume all rights conferred by said act upon the company so failing, and to resume all rights to the lands thereby granted, and remaining undisposed of by the company so failing to have the length of road completed, in manner and time as therein required.

Such being the origin, objects and conditions of the grant, let us now inquire how far these companies have, respectively, complied with the law.

MISSISSIPPI AND MISSOURI RAILROAD COMPANY.

About the first day of January, 1856, this company had their road completed from Davenport to Iowa City, a distance of 54 miles. This was four and a half months before the act of Congress granting these lands to the State, was passed. On the 25th day of August, 1859, and before any part of this road had been constructed west of Iowa City, a certificate was filed, stating that this company had completed 40 miles of their road, and that they were entitled to 360 sections of land—being the 120 sections allowed by the law, prior to the commencement of the road, and 240 sections for the 40 miles which they assumed to have constructed under the law, up to that date.

A little more than one year after this transaction took place, the affidavit of Peter A. Dey, an employee of this company, was filed, stating that 80½ miles of their road had been completed; whereupon another certificate was made, that the company are entitled to 240 additional sections of land; making in the aggregate six hundred sections claimed by the company, when only 30½ miles of road—being the distance from Iowa City to Marengo—had been constructed since the act of Congress of May 15th, 1856.

Up to the present time, this company have not completed seventy-five miles of their road, as contemplated by law; and they have, therefore, entirely failed to comply with any of the conditions prescribed in the eighth section of the act of the General Assembly, upon which they accepted the grant. The only ground upon which they can base their claim to these lands is, by receiving credit for the 54 miles of road completed before the act of Congress was passed. And even this would not bring them within the terms prescribed by the General Assembly, because they did not have seventy-five miles of road constructed, including the 54 miles previously completed, until the autumn of 1860.

Was the mode of computation adopted in favor of this Company as the basis for procuring certificates for the lands, in conformity with the act of Congress making the grant? To my mind, the intent and object of the grant are too plainly expressed to furnish any reasonable ground justifying such a construction. In defining its object, the act declares that these lands are "granted to the State of Iowa, for the purpose of aiding in the construction of certain Railroads," and not for the different purposes of aiding in the liquidation of debts incurred in the construction of roads previously completed. And to render this intention still more manifest, the second proviso of the first section, as above given, declares that the land so granted shall be exclusively applied to the construction of that road, for and on account of which such lands are hereby granted; and shall be disposed of only as the work progresses, and the same shall be applied to no other purpose whatever.

If these views are correct, the conclusion is unavoidable, that the certificates made in favor of this Company were obtained in direct violation of law. By whom, or upon what authority, a different construction was given to the unequivocal language of this act, I am not advised.

BURLINGTON AND MISSOURI RIVER RAILROAD COMPANY.

To some extent, the action of this Company in obtaining certificates for lands, has been similar to that pursued by the company above referred to.

A portion of their road was completed and in running order to a point between Burlington and Mount Pleasant, prior to the act of Congress, but the exact number of miles I have not been able to ascertain. On the 26th day of February, 1858, Edward L. Baker, President of this Company, made affidavit in Boston, that 28 miles of their road had been completed, which, of course, embraced that portion of it previously constructed. By virtue of this affidavit, 294 sections of land were certified to the Company November 9th, 1859, and on the 27th day of December following, 68 additional sections were certified to them.

In September, 1859, this road was completed to Ottumwa, a distance of 75 miles from Burlington; and no further extension of the road has been made since then. By stopping at Ottumwa, the Company failed in two material points to comply with the conditions of the grant. First, by not constructing 75 miles of their road after the grant was made to the State; and, Second, in failing to construct 30 additional miles, in each year, since December, 1859.

The fact should not be concealed, that in the face of many and great embarrassments, this Company persevered in the prosecution of their work, and reached the Des Moines River within a reasonable time. Having reached that point and obtained under an improper construction of the grant, a certificate for their lands, they now appear to be satisfied. Whether they intend to push forward their work, or have any expectation of completing their road to the Missouri River by December, 1865, as they are required to do by law, I am not informed.

Another, and more material departure from the plain meaning of the grant has been committed in the location of their lands. Instead of selecting them in advance of their road, in consecutive order, as contemplated by law, they commenced their selections on the extreme western border of the State, about 180 miles distant from the terminus of their road. So far as the Western counties are concerned, this road might as well have remained an idle scheme in the minds of those who conceived it. Neither the counties in which these lands are situated nor the United States have derived any of the benefits intended to be secured to them, by the diversion of these lands from the ordinary mode of entry and sale. By thus withdrawing them from market and affording no equivalent, in the form of railroad advantages, the entire transaction has been a positive detriment to the best interests of that portion of our State.

An additional quantity of 56,221 acres, has since been certified to the State for the benefit of this road, but most of it is claimed by the counties as swamp lands, and suits are now pending in which the question will be determined in due time. These lands are also claimed by the Company.

IOWA CENTRAL AIR-LINE RAILROAD COMPANY.

This company, having failed to comply with the provisions of the law making it one of the recipients of the grant, the General Assembly, by Act approved March 7th, 1860, resumed the lands designed for its use; and by an Act approved March 26th, 1860, transferred the same to the

CEDAR RAPIDS AND MISSOURI RIVER RAILROAD COMPANY.

The terms and conditions upon which this transfer was made have been duly accepted by the last named company, by a proper instrument, filed in the office of the Secretary of State, under date of June 19th, 1860.

On the 1st day of December, 1861, the affidavit of W. W. Walker, chief engineer of said road, was filed, stating that forty miles of the road were completed according to law; and on the 21st day of the same month another affidavit was filed, showing the completion of 29 additional miles of said road.

I am informed that this company are pushing forward their road with much vigor, and that it is now completed to State Centre, in Marshall county. But no lands have been certified to them, because of their failure to build the branches between Lyons and Clinton, and between Marion and Cedar Rapids, as required by the 6th and 7th section of said Act. Until these conditions are performed they will not be entitled to their lands.

DUBUQUE AND SIOUX CITY RAILROAD COMPANY.

There is no data at my command from which I can determine how far the construction of this road had progressed, prior to May 15th, 1856. But I find a certificate on file, dated April, 1858, showing that the company had completed 40 miles of their road, and that they were then entitled to the accruing benefits and emoluments; another certificate, dated November, 1859, certifying to the completion of 20 miles additional; a third one, dated March 2d, 1860, showing the completion of the fourth 20 continuous miles; and a further certificate, dated April 25th, 1860, certifying to the completion of the fifth 20 continuous miles of said road.

It will be perceived that, after giving this company credit for all the road they claim to have constructed, they still fail to have 75 miles completed within the time fixed by law; but this defect was remedied by act of the General Assembly, approved March 7th, 1860. But the company are still in default, having failed to complete the additional 30 miles, in each year, after December, 1859.

AGENTS.

I have been unable, after diligent search, to find any record, or evidence of any kind, showing the appointment of agents by the Governor to select lands within the limits of this grant, as authorized by the first section of the Act of Congress and of the sixth section of the Act of the General Assembly, relating thereto; and, therefore, am not able to inform you by whom, or in what manner, the lands claimed by the companies have been selected, or whether they were selected in the manner prescribed by law. I presume, however, that agents were duly appointed.

SALES AND CERTIFICATES.

There are some other questions connected with the sale and certification of these lands, which are, in my opinion, of vital importance, not only to the railroad companies, but to all who may purchase and claim title under them.

The act of Congress gives the disposal of these lands to the Legislature, and confers upon the State power to sell them. In making this grant to the State, Congress took no cognizance of the particular companies, nor was the title to these lands vested in the State. All that Congress evidently intended was to constitute the State a trustee, with the power of sale upon the performance of certain conditions precedent, for the purpose of aiding in the construction of these several roads; and a sale of the lands is necessary to a proper execution of the trust.

Was the act of the General Assembly of July 14th, 1856, transferring the rights of the State in these lands to the railroad companies, upon the conditions therein expressed, a sale according to the terms and meaning of the grant? Such seems to have been the interpretation given to this act by the parties, but with what propriety, it is not my province to determine. Was it competent for the State to delegate this fiduciary power to these companies?

If this interpretation be correct, it is still important to inquire, whether the proper mode has been adopted in selecting and certifying these lands to the companies; for this is the foundation of their title to the lands, and of all who may purchase from, or claim under them. The steps required to be taken in selecting and certifying these lands to the State, have already been explained, but the act of the General Assembly prescribes no mode for certifying them to the companies. This, in my opinion, is a grave defect in the law, and should be amended.

In the various certificates above referred to, I find that no regular form has been followed. The one used by Gov. Lowe in certifying lands to the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad Company is copied into the last biennial report of the State Register. (See page 67.) This certificate is attached to the list of lands claimed to have been selected for this company, and is doubtless the correct form. I find copies of other certificates, issued by both Governors Lowe and Kirkwood, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, certifying to the extent of road completed from time to time by the different companies, which are correct so far as the interests of the State are concerned. But is not something more needed to complete the right and title of these companies to the lands selected?

The only certificates attached to these lists, except the one above referred to, are those of the Commissioner of the general land office, approved by the Secretary of the Interior, stating, in substance, that the lands therein described were selected by agents appointed by the State of Iowa, and that said lands are "outside of the six and within the fifteen miles limit," as prescribed by the Act of Congress, and within the line of the particular railroad. But there is no certificate or statement from any one attached to these lists, showing the completion of the road in manner and time as required by law, and no evidence whatever that any particular company is entitled to the lands selected and described.

What evidence have we, then, that these companies are entitled to the lands they claim, and will they, and their grantees, be able to maintain their titles when tested in the courts? I suggest, therefore, that it would be for the interest of all parties, to have some definite mode prescribed by law, for vesting the titles to these lands in the companies, and thereby avoid trouble and litigation.

From the foregoing statements, which I believe to be accurate, your honorable body will perceive, that all of the four companies, upon whom this grant was conferred by the General Assembly, have failed to comply with the provisions of the Act of July 14th, 1856, and that there is no reasonable probability that their roads will be completed, to the Missouri river, by the first of December, 1865, as required in said Act, nor is it at all likely, from present appearances, that they will be able to do so even by May, 1866, as required by the Act of Congress granting these lands to the State. And should they fail, in this latter respect, all the lands embraced in the grant, and remaining unsold, will revert to the United States. Without further legislation by Congress, it is obvious that we are not only in danger of losing these lands to the railroad companies, but also to the State.

The importance of this subject, in its present aspects, cannot be over-estimated; and immediate action should be taken to avoid a calamity now so imminent.

RESUMPTION.

In consequence of the failures already made by these several companies, to perform the conditions of the act of the General Assembly, it is undoubtedly competent for the State to resume all rights in these lands granted to them, and which remain unsold. This being the point at which we have arrived, the immense and varied interests involved in the question, demand that we shall take our soundings calmly, and act upon them with due deliberation.

In view of all the circumstances, would absolute resumption be wise and just? Upon this subject, I am free to confess, that I am unable at this time, to make any definite recommendation, of measures which would be entirely satisfactory to my own mind, but I do advise you to take such action only, as you may consider necessary to fully protect the rights and interest of our citizens, and at the same time be just and liberal towards these delinquent Companies.

It is eminently proper that you should be reminded of the many serious embarrassments, amounting to almost insurmountable difficulties, which have beset these and all other western Companies, in the prosecution of Railroad enterprises. The monetary crisis of 1857, entirely unforeseen when these Grants were made, fell with peculiar force upon the whole country, and rendered the procuring of means, for the construction of public improvements, a matter of exceeding difficulty. Private and public enterprises alike bowed to the storm. Corporations and individuals, all over the land, became the victims of an expanded and over-burdened credit system, and were buried in its ruins. And before we had fairly recovered from these disasters the present war burst upon the country, again deranging its financial concerns and diverting trade and commerce from their legitimate channels. The laboring population were called into the public service, and all the materials needed in the construction of railways went up to almost fabulous prices.

Time need not be consumed in endeavoring to impress upon your minds the importance and utility of railroads, in promoting the welfare of our State. Sound policy requires that we should keep this steadily in view, and resist all demands for such measures as are calculated, in their results, to seriously impede the progress of our railroad enterprises. Yet, imperative as these considerations are, we should not overlook the importance of imposing suitable restrictions upon these monopolies, and require of them strict accountability, and a faithful performance of their legal obligations.

The insatiate thirst for railroad supremacy, which has so effectually impressed its iron will upon some of the older States, has not yet been developed in Iowa, but, warned by their example, let us throw around these corporations, while in comparative infancy, such restraints as will enable us to control their actions after they shall have reached the fullness of their strength.

Entertaining these views, I shall co-operate with you in adopting such measures as may be deemed expedient and necessary to relieve these companies from the consequences of their failures, and upon such conditions as will secure to all our citizens, having just claims upon these lands, full and complete justice.

By leave, Mr. Stiles, from the committee to visit the Iowa Hospital for the Insane, submitted the following report, which, on motion of Mr. Galland, was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The committee appointed by joint resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives to visit the Iowa Hospital for the Insane; at Mt. Pleasant, have visited that Institution, and beg leave to submit the following report:

The committee, desiring to recommend that an appropriation be made, sufficient to make such improvements only as are actually needed, gave each of the objects for which appropriations are asked by the Trustees and Superintendent in their report, a careful examination; and while the Committee fully concur with the officers of the Asylum, that everything for which they ask an appropriation is needed, we think, as large amounts are at present required to prosecute the war, and to build up other State institutions, an appropriation for some of the purposes mentioned by them may, and perhaps should, be deferred till the meeting of the next General Assembly, or until peace shall be restored and a more favorable change of the times shall have taken place.

They, the Trustees and Superintendent,—ask the following amounts, for the following purposes :

1st—To finish the unfinished wards,.....	$4,000
2d—Furniture for same,	2,500
3d—Gas Works,.....	4,000
4th—Constructing additional Cistern,.....	1,500
5th—Reconstructing Sewers,.....	1,000
6th—Contingent Repairs,.....	1,500
7th—Grading and repairing Grounds,.....	1,000

Making an aggregate of.....15,500

Your committee would urge an appropriation of the amounts stated below, for the following purposes, and give them in the order of their importance :

1st—To repair and extend the Sewers,.....	$1,000
2d—Pavement around the Hospital,.....	1,000
3d—To finish Wards,.....	4,000
4th—To furnish them,	2,500
5th—To construct Cistern,	1,500
6th—For Contingent Expenses,.....	500

Making a total of.....10,500

We believe that these improvements are almost indispensable to the well being and prosperity of the institution, and highly conducive to the best interests of the State. We will speak of these items in their order as above stated:

First: It is of the greatest importance that the sewers which are underneath the main passages of the building, carrying off the drain from the water closets, and constructed of brick, should be taken up, and cast iron pipes about 8 inches in diameter be substituted, for the reason that in spite of all attention and effort, leakages have escaped through these brick sewers, causing noxious gases to arise, which are necessarily carried up with the heated air, through the flues, to every part of the building, and especially into the wards of the patients which are directly over them, thus unavoidably endangering the health and lives of the patients.

Second: A pavement around the whole building, about ten feet wide, is, in our estimation, necessary, in order to carry water off from the building and to prevent it soaking down around the foundation. We noticed that the cellar floor was wet in many places around on the inside of the foundation walls, and that it was standing two or three inches deep in one place. This water evidently soaked through under the foundation, and thus renders liable and likely in time its sinking and cracking.

Third: The unfinished wards are nearly completed. They need little more than painting after the windows are supplied with grates and finished; and as all of the finished wards are now full, and as the unfinished wards will certainly be needed before the next session of the General Assembly, good policy as well as humanity dictates and requires that they should be at once put in order for the reception of patients.

Fourth: If the wards should be completed, they must be furnished, and as additional furniture must, by some means, be obtained for this, we think the sum of $2,500 not too much for this purpose.

Fifth: Owing to the fact that the supply of water furnished by the Artesian well is so strongly impregnated with lime and other foreign substances as to make it very injurious and ruinous upon the steam and water-pipes which are used in heating and supplying the building with water, we think an additional cistern should be constructed, as the injury to these pipes and machinery would soon be much greater than the cost of the cistern.

Sixth: In recommending that $500 be appropriated for contingent expenses, we believe it is as small an amount as the institution should be limited to for the many incidental expenses which must unavoidably arise.

It is, in our estimation, highly important that the grounds around the building should be planted with evergreens and forest trees, and we think that an appropriation of $1,000 for this purpose could be profitable expended. Should trees be now planted, they would in a few years add greatly to the beauty of the grounds, and have an excellent effects upon the patients.

The whole building is supplied with gas pipes, yet we think it unnecessary at this time to make any appropriation for the purpose of putting in gas works.

It is probably cheaper to light the building with coal oil, but this material is not as safe as gas would be. The safety of the building seems to be the principal reason for desiring gas, and as the building is otherwise well secured, we do not think that gas is at this time absolutely indispensable.

The Superintendent says in his report that "a plain but commodious carriage or light omnibus should be procured, in order that the more feeble patients may ride. This much-needed aid to other treatment has never yet been afforded this institution." We fully concur with the opinion of the Superintendent in this matter.

While an appropriation for the improvement of the grounds and for the purchasing of a carriage, might be deferred for two years longer, and are, perhaps, not so absolutely necessary as other matters mentioned above, we think it would be better to provide for each at his time, and we would recommend that for all of the objects herein specified, an appropriation of $12,000 be made.

Your Committee feel that they cannot close this report without expressing their entire satisfaction with the general management of this institution. The building is not only well arranged for the accommodation of its unfortunate inmates, but it seems to be the especial study of the Superintendent, his assistant, and the Steward and Matron, to make every inmate as comfortable and choerful as possible, and to surround them with just such influences as are calculated to bring health and vigor to both body and mind.

Iowa may well be proud of the magnificent building which in her generosity she has erected for the reception and treatment of her unfortunate children. And she may also be proud of the wisdom and ability with which her charitable designs are being carried into practical operation in the most excellent management of this institution.

WM. F. DAVIS, Secretary of Senate.

The following message was received from the Governor at the hands of his private Secretary, Mr. Orwig :

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
DES MOINES, Feb. 13th, 1864. }

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives :

I have the honor to be in receipt of the resolution adopted by your honorable body, calling upon me for specific information in regard to the following subjects :

First. What person or persons, other than Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, were by my predecessor appointed Sanitary Agents, under the provisions of Chap. 36, acts of the special Session of the Ninth General Assembly ?

Second. What sum or sums of money were by my predecessor furnished to Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, and what sum, if any, to each other agent, under the provisions of the 3d section of said chapter, and how much of said money was expended by said agents ?

Third. Whether the "needed articles" therewith purchased were furnished gratuitously to the "sick and wounded soldiers in the field," or whether such articles were sold to said soldiers, and, if so, what disposition was made of the proceeds of said sales ?

Fourth. What sum or sums of money have been paid by me, or my predecessor, to Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, and to each of the other agents, under the provisions of the 6th section of said chapter, keeping separate and distinct the amount paid as "just and reasonable compensation," and the amount paid as "traveling expenses?"

Fifth. Whether "traveling expenses" as contemplated in said 6th section, included expenses incurred in attending Conventions, Fairs, &c., in different places in the U. States, or only those incurred in going to, remaining in, and returning from the fields or hospitals.

The importance of the information contemplated by your resolution, and of the subjects embraced within the range of its inquiries, are duly appreciated. But when I remind you of the fact, that there is no law requiring the Governor of this State to keep and transmit to his successor, a record of his official acts, or to keep an Executive office in which information may be preserved, your honorable body will readily perceive the impossibility of complying with resolutions of this character by furnishing the information called for. Anxious as I am to afford the General Assembly the benefit of any facts which properly ought to be matter of record in the Executive office, and to co-operate with them in all matters pertaining to the interests of the State, I cannot be expected to give a history of the administrations of my predecessors, when they have left no records, or even "sketches by the way," from which an authentic narrative of their transactions could be written. I intend no reflection upon these distinguished gentlemen. That they ably performed their various duties, and faithfully discharged every obligation imposed upon them by the laws of the State, is evidenced by the repeated and gratifying expressions of popular approbation they have received. And if they transmitted to me no records of their official doings it is because no provision is made for such records.

I am informed by Gov. Kirkwood, that some time after the passage of the act referred to, and in pursuance of its provisions, he appointed Dr. Ennis of Cedar Rapids, a State Sanitary Agent, who, after a brief period of service, resigned his position. The Governor then appointed Dr. A. S. Maxwell, of Davenport, who served for the period of nine months, at a compensation of $140 per month, and until the commencement of my administration. From the report of this agent, which is herewith transmitted, you will have before you a history of his transactions, with an account of his expenses, &c. I have not been able to learn that any other agents were appointed by Gov. Kirkwood, under the provisions of the chapter above cited.

I also transmit to you a copy of an account stated by Gov. Kirkwood between him and Mrs. Wittenmeyer, (see exhibit "A,") which gives the aggregate of her expenditures, and the amount of compensation allowed her. From this exhibit it will be observed that she received for expenses connected with her agency, the sum of $1,850, while her total expenditures amount to $1,960.77, leaving the sum of $110.77 expended beyond the amount of money furnished her. The compensation allowed her was $100 per month, as certified to me by Gov. Kirkwood, and she was in the service of the State, under his direction, for the period of fifteen and a half months, making $1,550 as compensation, and $110.77 balance due her as stated for expenses, a total of $1,660.77, which sum has been paid to her by me, as shown by her receipt attached to said exhibit. For a more detailed statement see the report of Mrs. Wittenmeyer, now in possession of the General Assembly. I have also paid J. Dial, local agent at Memphis, $112.70, and to J. C. Todd, agent at Keokuk, $449.11, balances due them for services rendered prior to the first day of January last, and the further sum of $219.87 to Gov. Kirkwood, being the amount expended by him beyond the fund in his hands.

The Report of Gov. Kirkwood, now in possession of the General Assembly, will doubtless advise you of the items for which the contingent fund placed under his control was expended.

For the reasons already stated, I am unable to answer your resolution further.

I may be allowed to avail myself of this opportunity, to present, for the consideration of your honorable body, some observations, which, to my mind, are material as to the general management of Sanitary matters. The obligations we owe to the thousands of our brave and patriotic citizens in the field, and the desire which we all entertain to successfully discharge that obligation, will be sufficient apology for extending this communication beyond the strict limits of a reply to your resolution.

This wide field of Christian labor should engage the earnest attention of all who are capable of sympathizing with our sick and wounded soldiers, and of understanding their necessities. Whilst we admire the history of their gallant deeds, and boast of the honor they have so nobly won for the State, we should not forget the fact, that not an hour passes which does not witness the most intense anguish among these heroic men, lying in the comfortless tent, and untimely hospital. Prostrated by diseases which spare not, and by wounds received in the front of battle, too many of them are allowed to suffer, and die, for the want of those cheering comforts which should flow to them in unceasing streams from this highly favored and plentiful State. Our admiration, and our sympathies, should assume a tangible form. Eloquent commendations and elaborate eulogies, while they may express the grateful sentiments of patriotic hearts, do not afford substantial relief to the suffering soldier.

My own observation has fully impressed me with the conviction that our efforts in this direction, should be so classified and arranged as to insure system in our operations, and harmony and co-operation among the several agents. Without this our most earnest labors will be fruitless of good to our soldiers, and the money appropriated be uselessly expended. We may be generous and yet economical.

At least one agent should be located in each department of the army where Iowa regiments are serving, under specific instructions to remain there, and attend to the distribution of sanitary stores in the department assigned him. The stores contributed by our people, are forwarded to the field through the United States and Western Sanitary Commissions, which saves us the cost of transportation. This arrangement relieves the State of a heavy expenditure. When the goods are received at the field depots of these commissions our own agents can receive them, or goods in lieu of them, and see that they are properly distributed to Iowa soldiers. Our State agents, therefore, need do no more than operate between the troops in the field and hospitals and these sanitary depots, which will afford them sufficient employment, and secure the proper distribution of sanitary stores to our men. The expense of traveling from point to point in the army will thereby be avoided by our agents, and their time may be exclusively employed, as it should be, in attending to the wants of the soldiers.

The State Sanitary Commission coincide with me in the adoption of this system, and it will be carried out unless the General Assembly otherwise direct.

I shall also make personal application to the War Department, for an order requiring Quartermasters of the army to furnish transportation to our State agents, which, if granted, will save another heavy item of expenditure.

It will also be necessary, as heretofore, to keep local agents at the prominent military points within the lines of the army, such as Memphis, Nashville, Vicksburg, and others, whose duty it shall be to look after the welfare of Iowa soldiers who may, from time to time, be transferred to the hospitals at those points; and keep their friends at home, and the State authorities, advised of their condition. For this purpose I shall endeavor to have reliable and intelligent soldiers detailed from our regiments, who will discharge these duties equally well, and at less expense than civilians appointed and paid by the State for that purpose.

Salaries paid to agents should be sufficient to afford them a reasonable remuneration for their services, but not so high as to make it a matter of individual profit. Agents who are willing to undertake this great work, as a matter of Christian and patriotic duty, will, as a general rule, accomplish more good than those who are induced to engage in it by a money consideration. It may be necessary, however, to procure the services of one or two medical gentlemen, who cannot be expected to leave their practice for the same salary paid to other agents. These should be fairly compensated for their skill.

I have been induced by the grave importance of the subject and the deep interest which I know the members of your honorable body take in the welfare of our brave soldiers, to present the foregoing considerations. They are the views I entertain on this subject, and have been suggested to me by experience and observation.

W. M. STONE.

W. I. GILCHRIST, Chairman.

The committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred House File No. 50, "A bill for an Act to amend Sec. 1 of Chap. 151 of the Acts of the 9th General Assembly," have had the same under consideration, and as they differ in opinion as to the propriety of the act proposed, they have instructed me to report the same back without any recommendation.

BEREMAN, Chairman.

The Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred House File No. 83, "A bill for an Act to repeal Chap. 26, and Sec. 2871 of Chap. 75, of the acts passed at the 9th General Assembly, requiring clerks of District Courts to keep an Appearance Docket," have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report it back to this House, with a recommendation that it do not pass.

BEREMAN, Chairman.

The committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred Senate File No. 19, "A bill for an Act to repeal Sec. 2856 of the Revision of 1860, and to provide a substitute therefor," have considered the same, and have instructed me to report the same back to this house, and to recommend that it do not pass.

BEREMAN, Chairman.

The committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred House File No. 86, "A bill for an Act for recording revenue stamps attached to instruments of writing," have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report the bill back to this House, with a recommendation that it do pass.

BEREMAN, Chairman.

The committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred House File No. 89, "A bill for an Act to amend Section 3305, of the Revision of 1860," have had it under their consideration, and believing the law is now substantially that proposed in the bill, they have instructed me to report the same back to this House, and recommend that it do not pass.

BEREMAN, Chairman.

The committee on Claims, to whom was recommitted the substitute for Senate File No 70, entitled a Bill for an Act to grant relief to certain citizens in Keokuk County, with instructions to prepare and present a bill to further empower the Board of Commissioners to audit and allow claims," beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration, and in compliance with the instructions of this House, have instructed me to present the accompanying Bill. But your committee entertain the opinion that this General Assembly having power to create said Board and define their duties, are as capable of deciding upon different claims as the Board they thus create, and that the duties and powers of said Board are sufficiently defined and enlarged by the laws now in force, and that the passage of the accompanying Bill would be highly detrimental to the financial interests of this state, believing it would open wide a door for hundreds of unjust claims to enter, that never will be presented unless for the passage of this Bill.

Your committee entertain the opinion that said Board of Com missioners have performed their duty faithfully and well, and with a very few exceptions have meted out even-handed justice, but are of opinion that said Board have either in their zeal for the welfare of the State or by a misconstruction of the law, registered a very few claims that they should have allowed. They therefore entertain the opinion that this General Assembly should act upon said claims respectively, and either empower the Auditor of State or the Board to audit and allow all claims passed upon and allowed by this General Assembly.

Your committee entertaining the views above expressed have instructed me to recommend that the accompanying Bill do not pass.
MOIR, Chairman.

MR. SPEAKER:—I am instructed to report to this Honorable Body that the Standing committee on Claims have had under consideration the claim of Goodwin & Purdy, and have instructed me to report the same back to the House, with the recommendation that the claim be allowed, and referred to the standing committee on Ways and Means, with instructions that they provide for the payment of the same in the general appropriation Bill.

The Joint committee appointed to visit the State University and Deaf and Dumb Asylum, at Iowa City, having performed that duty, respectfully submit the following report:

The State University is in a very prosperous condition, numbering four hundred and four students during the current collegiate year, and bearing every evidence of ability and fidelity upon the part of those having its management and control. Forty-three counties are represented in this Institution by the attendance of students from said counties, respectively, as follows:

Benton county,	8	students.

Total number residents of Iowa,..... 384

Number of students from other States,.... 20

Making an aggregate of..... 404

The foregoing list embraces all the students in the several departments of the University, exclusive of the model School. The average age of the students is eighteen years.

The following statistics may be interesting as showing the progress made by this Institution during the three years last past, and the relative proportion of students from Johnson county:

Year.	No. of Students.	No. from Johnson County.	No. from other Counties and States.	No. of Counties represented.
1860-61	172	100	72	32
1861-62	254	141	113	25
1862-63	288	157	131	34
1863-64	404	164	240	43

It appears from the above statistical statement that the number of students in the State University, has been steadily and rapidly increasing, while the relative proportion of students residing in Johnson county has been constantly diminishing, and that this Institution has already become a favorite with the people of the State. Many families have taken up a temporary residence in Iowa City for the purpose of educating their children in the University.

Of the students now in attendance, one hundred and one have received tuition free, and in regard to their place of residence, represent forty-two counties.

The recitations and exercises of the several classes in the different departments, at which your Committee had the pleasure to be present, were highly creditable to the students as well as to their instructors, and evinced on the part of the Faculty and other teachers connected with the Institution, a degree of ability, tact, energy and industry, worthy of special commendation.

The remarkable prosperity of the institution deserves the highest consideration, and, in the opinion of your Committee, the present General Assembly should take such action in relation to the University that its efficiency may not be impaired nor its prosperity retarded.

The room used as a chapel is inadequate to accommodate the students already in attendance, not to speak of the probable increase of the number of students and of the necessity for a chapel sufficiently large and commodious for lecture purposes and commencement exercises.

The University buildings are also deficient in not containing rooms suitable for a chemical laboratory.

In the Report of the Board of Trustees of the State University, the wants above referred to are fully set forth, and a plan proposed by them is herewith presented for an additional building to contain a spacious chapel and a laboratory with a tower and observatory, the estimated cost of which is twenty-five thousand dollars.

In the opinion of your Committee, the University, with an additional building, similar to the one proposed by the Board of Trustees, would afford better facilities for the education of one thousand students, than are now afforded for the education of four hundred.

Hoping that the embarrassments which now surround our National and State Governments, will not deter members of the General Assembly from taking high ground in regard to the educational interests of the State, nor cause them to overlook the fact that the claims of education are of paramount importance to almost all other claims, nor make them unmindful of the great political truth, that enlightened virtue is the only sure foundation for a free government, your Committee commend the State University to your favorable consideration, in the full belief that you will pursue a liberal policy in respect thereto, and that you will take such action as will be promotive of the best interests of the University, as well as of the State at large.

THE DEAF AND DUMB ASYLUM.

The Iowa Institution for the education of the Deaf and Dumb is in as good a condition as could reasonably be expected under the circumstances. It has not been provided with any suitable buildings, pleasure grounds, furniture, and many other conveniences, which are so essential to the proper management of such an institution, and to the personal comfort of its inmates. For a full and detailed statement of its financial condition, statistics, &c., your committee beg leave to refer to the Fifth Biennial Report of the Board of Trustees.

The pupils now in attendance number fifty eight, and are from almost as many different counties. They are quite intelligent, and seem to be making rapid progress in the acquisition of knowledge. Much effort has been made by those having the control and management of this institution to render it efficient—to administer to the physical comfort and promote the mental culture of the unfortunates committed to their care.

An earnest desire was manifested on the part of the deaf mutes and their preceptors, that buildings suitable for their use should be erected, in some place, with pleasure grounds attached for their recreation. The building now occupied by them is not adapted to the purpose for which it is used, and is very much out of repair. The furniture and bedding are, for the most part, such as we might expect to find in an ordinary alms house. Humanity, as well as the fair fame of the State, demands an immediate appropriation sufficient at least to purchase good furniture and bedding for the use of this institution.

Your Committee would further recommend an increased appropriation to defray the current expenses, in view of the present high price of every article of food. The amount heretofore appropriated to meet the ordinary expenditures will be quite inadequate for that purpose during the ensuing two years.

If compatible with the public interest in other respects, an appropriation should be made by the present General Assembly for the purpose of erecting and constructing a suitable Asylum for the deaf and dumb children and youth of the State. As now situated the students have no opportunity to learn trades and thereby render themselves useful. There are no work shops for them, and no funds to purchase stock or material for manufacture, and defray expenses of such shops. We deem it essential that every pupil should not only be educated, but should have an opportunity to learn some useful branch of handicraft whereby he may gain a livelihood.

Humanity calls loudly for the relief of this unfortunate class of our population; the dignity and honor of the State demand it; and the great heart of the people will respond amen! to every proper effort put forth to ameliorate their unhappy condition.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

I am instructed by committee of Ways and Means to report that they have considered House File No. 120, "A bill for an Act to empower the State Auditing Board to credit and allow the claim of certain officers," and recommend that do not pass.

W. J. GILCHRIST, Chairman.

I am instructed by committee of Ways and Means to report back to this House, House File No. 106, "A bill for an Act to provide for the sale of the revised code of 1860 at a reduced price," and recommend that it do not pass. The committee were of the opinion that it might be years before there would be another codification of the laws, and as the number on sale was limited, they might be needed by future General Assemblies, and parties that wanted them would buy them at their cost. Besides, some speculator might buy them at the price indicated in the bill, $1,50, and hold them at such figure as to compel the State to get out another edition, or buy them at an exorbitant price, for the use of future General Assemblies.

W. J. GILCHRIST, Chairman.

The joint committee on Enrolled Bills, beg leave to report that they have examined Senate File No. 18 and following resolutions, viz: printing 1,000 additional copies of Insane Hospital Report, that discharged and disabled soldiers have preference in the employ of the Federal Government, and that Colonels of Iowa Regiments furnish the Adj't. General with a brief history of their respective regiments, find the same correctly enrolled, and present them for your signature.

ALEX. RUNYON, Ch'n. House Com. on Enr. Bills.

The Standing Committee on Engrossed Bills to whom was referred House File No. 96, "A bill for an Act apportioning the State of Iowa into Representation Districts; Also, House File No 94, "A bill for an Act to amend an Act entitled An Act for the government and regulation of the State University of Iowa," have examined the same and find them correctly engrossed.

HOLDRIDGE, Chairman.

MR. SPEAKER:—Your committee on Engrossed Bills to whom was referred House File No. 118, respectfully report that said bill after engrossment has been examined, and your committee believe it to be correctly engrossed.

VINTON.

The committee on Roads and Highways to whom was referred Senate File No. 16, "A bill for an Act to amend Chap. 46 of the Revision of 1860," have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report back the bill and recommend that it do not pass, many of the provisions of the bill being considered by them of slight value, and that it is inexpedient to make any changes in the law as it now stands.

DORR, Chairman.

The committee on Roads and Highways, to whom was referred a substitute for Senate File No. 37, "A bill for an Act fixing the per diem of Road Supervisors," have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the bill back with an additional section and recommend its passage.

That they have had House File No. 85, "A bill for an Act amendatory of Sections 885 and 881, of the revision of 1860," under consideration, and have instructed me to report an addition Section in House File No. 37, as a substitute bill.

The committee have also had under consideration various communications referred to them, and I am instructed to report that in the opinion of the committee, further legislation on this subject is inexpedient at this time.

DORR, Chairman.

The committee on County and Township Organization, to whom was referred House File No. 43, "A bill for an Act entitled an Act to separate the office of Recorder from that of Treasurer, and to make the County Judge the recorder of deeds," and House File No. 75, "A bill for an Act entitled an Act to separate the office of Recorder from that of Treasurer and to make the County Judge the recorder of deeds," together with sundry petitions and resolutions relative to the same subject, having considered the same, have directed me to report them back to this House without any recommendation.

O. NELSON, Chairman.

MR. SPEAKER:—The committee on County and Township Organization, to whom were referred House Files Nos. 9 and 98, together with sundry petitions and remonstrances relative to the subject of county government, have had the same under consideration, and a majority of the committee beg leave to report that in their opinion the Supervisor system, as at present constituted, giving each township a representation in the administration of the county government, is the true one, and is better adapted to the wants and necessities of the people than any other system that can be devised.

The County Judge and Commissioner systems have both been tried in this State and discarded, and while your committee do not deem themselves called upon here to enter into any arguments in favor of the existing system, yet they believe that a return at this time to a system of more centralized power than the present, would be highly unwise and impolitic. And here it may be proper also to suggest that too frequent changes in the laws have a tendency to create uncertainty and confusion highly detrimental to the best interests of the people. For these and other reasons that might be suggested, your committee recommend that the bills do not pass.

O. NELSON,
A. J. BELL,
J. H. FULLER,
J. W. STANTON,
O. PAULK.

H. M. THOMPSON, Chairman.

MR. SPEAKER:—The Standing Committee on Agriculture to whom was referred House File No. 77, "A bill for an Act to prohibit certain stock from running at large," have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report back to the House with a substitute, and to recommend that the substitute be adopted by the House and put upon its passage.

The committee on Agriculture to whom was referred House File No. 113, "A bill for an Act to amend Chap. 102 of the acts of the regular session of the 9th General Assembly, in reference to estrays," have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report it back to the House with amendment, to-wit: Add the following as Section 2, "any person who is a house-holder suffering any work animal to remain on his or their premises for the space of ten days without taking up and advertising the same as provided in Section 3 of the act to which this is amendatory, shall be liable to a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars for every such offence, and every person taking up any work animal and not advertising the same within three days thereafter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall be liable for all damages that the owner of such animal may receive from such neglect," and to recommend that it be put upon its passage.

H. M. THOMPSON, Chairman.

The committee on Agriculture to whom was referred Senate File No. 77, "A bill for an Act to prohibit certain male stock from running at large," have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report it back to this House with the following amendment, to-wit: Add to the first section, "and shall be further liable to a fine not exceeding —— dollars for every such offence," and to recommend that it be put upon its passage.

H. M. THOMPSON, Chairman.

The committee on Elections, to whom was referred Senate File No. 126, "A bill for an Act to amend Chap. 37 of the Revision of 1860," in relation to contested elections, have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report the bill back to this House, with the recommendation that the same do pass.

LITTLER, Chairman.

Mr. Russell, of Washington, reported back petitions and resolutions relative to mail routes, recommending they be laid on the table, and that the accompanying joint resolution be adopted.

Mr. Sears, for committee on Federal Relations, reported as follows:

MR. SPEAKER:—The committee on Federal Relations, to whom were referred several resolutions upon the subject of confiscation, have instructed me to report that they have had the same under consideration, and would report them back to the House, with the recommendation that they lie upon the table.

R. SEARS.

The report was adopted.

Mr. Bromley, from committee on Federal Relations, reported the following resolutions:

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, That we heartily endorse the policy of paying soldiers and seamen of African descent, in the service of the United States, the same pay as is paid to other soldiers and seamen of the same grade.

Resolved, That we recognize the right of soldiers and seamen of African descent, in the service of the United States, to the same protection that other soldiers and seamen are entitled to by the laws of war.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be instructed to forward to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress a copy of the above resolutions.

The report was adopted.

Mr. Russell, from committee on Federal Relations, to whom was referred the joint resolution of Mr. Johnson, endorsing Abraham Lincoln, and the resolution of Mr. Baylies, referring to same matter, reported the same back to the House, with the following amendment:

Strike out the following words, "without adding," and insert the words, "at their earliest convenience," and add at the close of said resolution the following: "Or such other resolutions as they may propose for the consideration of this House."

Mr. Russell, of Washington, reported back House File No. 117, "A bill for an Act to create the office of Medical Director at Large for the State of Iowa, and to prescribe the duties thereof, and for other purposes," and recommended it do not pass.

On motion, the report was adopted.

Mr. Moir made the following minority report of special committee on Railroads:

The undersigned, a minority of the select committee to whom was referred House File No. 112, "A bill for an Act to resume certain land Interest Rights, &c.," beg leave to report that in our judgment it would be unwise in the General Assembly to resume the lands of the Land Grant Railroad Companies of this State, (and more especially of the Dubuque and Sioux City Railroad and the Cedar Rapids and Missouri River Railroad Companies,) for the following reasons.

1st. Such a proceeding would at once place the State administration in an attitude which would be construed into one of hostility by the monied men elsewhere, who are supplying these companies with means to extend their lines, and without whose aid it is well known, they cannot go on.

2d. The land Grant reverts to the General Government in two years from this time by the limitation of an act of Congress, and we cannot see what desirable result is to be obtained by anticipating that time through any action of our own.

On the contrary at a time when the States of Missouri and Kansas are striving with energy to make their routes the main thoroughfares to the Pacific, and with no small prospect of success, and when the Legislatures of those States are encouraging their Railroad Companies by the most friendly legislation to build and equip their lines at the earliest moment, we cannot see any good reason why we in Iowa should play into their hands by crippling ours, and thus retard the prosperity of our State and the welfare of our people for all time to come.

3d. It is no good answer to this to say that these Companies have not proceeded so fast as the State Land Grant act requires, for they still feel the full force of the financial crisis of 1857 and '58 which all but prostrated them, and they had hardly recovered from this when our domestic troubles broke out, and now they are contending with difficulties from the latter cause, among which are the scarcity and high price of labor, and an enormous advance in the price of Railroad Iron and rolling stock which tax their financial skill to the uttermost, and a resumption would be unjust to the several Railroad Companies that have made the most extraordinary, almost miraculous exertions, and invested millions of money under a continued succession of financial difficulties unparalleled in the history of this country, and it cannot be expected if the State resume that the same companies will jeopardize their capital again; or can it be imagined that any other company will take the land and build or extend the several roads from their present western terminus to the Missouri river.

4th. In the face of all these difficulties the Dubuque and Sioux City Railroad has built and is operating 100 miles, and has 43 miles more in a state of forwardness for the reception of the Iron, besides which it has a tributary road from Farley to Cedar Rapids which though not on the main track is none the less useful to the counties of Jones, Delaware and Linn.

The Cedar Rapids and Miesonri River Railroad now extends 174 miles from Clinton on the Mississippi River and 92 miles west of Cedar Rapids, and the cars are now running to Colo, in Story county, which only lacks about 7 miles of reaching the point required by the General Assembly on the first day of last December, and to offset that the Company have graded an amount equal to 10 miles west of Nevada; and all this has been accomplished without one acre of land, thus manifesting remarkable energy, resolution and indomitable perseverance that is worthy of a better response than that proposed by the bill under consideration. An outlay of $1,400 more by the Company would have literally complied with the terms of the grant.

5th. It is stated that it is necessary to resume these Land Grants in order to protect the settlers on the river lands north of the Raccoon Fork.

It strikes us as strange that this cry should come from members from those counties most remote from the locality of these roads, and that the proposition to resume on the two northern roads is not only not asked for by the people on the lines of these roads who are most interested in having the grants applied to their legitimate object, but they unanimously protest against resumption, through their Representatives upon this floor.

We believe that the claims of the settlers ought to be arranged satisfactorily to them, and that they can and will be arranged, those who have not, and so far as relates to the conflicting claims between the Railroad Companies and the Des Moines River Company, they can be determined by the courts, such questions requiring Judicial and not Legislative action.

6th. In order more fully to understand the relative rights of all parties, it will be necessary to look at the chronological history of the laws and actions relating to the Des Moines River Lands and the Railroad Lands.

1st. The grant to the then Territory of Iowa for the Improvement of the Des Moines River, was made by an act of Congress approved Aug. 8th, 1846, while this act was pending, and before its passage, to-wit: May 8th, 1846, the Commissioner of the General Land office wrote a letter at the instance of Gen. Dodge, to the committee stating that the proposed act granted 261,000 acres, that being the amount below the Raccoon Fork.

Gov. Clark of Iowa, in his message to the General Assembly at the first session after the grant, stated that it extended only to the Raccoon Fork.

[See Senate Journal, 1st Session, p. 83. See also, letter of J. H. Piper, Com. Land Office, p. 309.]

2d. It has been held that said grant extended to the northern boundary of the State. The grant to Iowa for Railroad purposes was approved May 15, 1856.

[See Revision, pp. 916 and 917.]

While this bill was pending in Congress and on the 21st day of March 1856, the Commissioner of the General Land office at Washington decided that the Des Moines River Grant was limited to the Raccoon Fork.

[See Rep. Reg. St. Land Office, p. 22]

It will be seen therefore, that, at the time the Railroad Grant was made, Congress must have understood that the Des Moines lands were thereby granted to the Railroads, for the River Grant only extended to the Raccoon Fork.

3d. The Railroad Grant was accepted by Iowa by an act approved July 14, 1856, and conferred on the four Railroads.

[See Revision of 1860, pp. 215, &c.]

4th. By an act of the General Assembly approved March 26, 1860, the Air Line Grant was granted to the Cedar Rapids and Missouri River Railroad, and was accepted by said company.

5th. At the December Term 1859 of the Supreme Court of the United States, (the precise day your committee cannot ascertain,) but certainly before March 1860, when the land was granted to the Railroad Company, the court decided the case of Litchfield vs. Du-buque and Pacific Railroad Company, and expressly and necessarily held that the Des Moines River Grant extended only to the Raccoon Fork, and that the Railroad title under the Grant of May 15, 1856, was paramount and perfect.

[See 23d Howard, p 66, &c.]

This decision was made and was well understood long before the Cedar Rapids and Missouri River Railroad Company accepted the Grant, and the prospect of obtaining the river lands had a controlling influence in determining that acceptance.

6th. The Legislature of Iowa granted all the remaining Des Moines River lands granted them by act of Aug. 8th, 1846, to the Keokuk, Ft. Des Moines and Minnesota Railroad Company, by an Act approved March 22d, 1858. [See revision of 1860, p. 908.] By the terms of this Act the Keokuk, Ft. Des Moines and Minnesota Railroad Company were to pay off certain liabilities amounting to $85,890.86, [See Rep. Reg. p. 35.] $35,346.46 having been paid by the State, to Brown & Allender and others, and were also to complete certain locks and dams, none of which has it done. It was also further provided that the Keokuk, Ft. Des Moines and Minnesota Railroad Company should build 75 miles of road by Dec. 1st, 1861, and 30 miles annually thereafter. They have only built 53 miles in all, but there is no resumption proposed as to that Company.

By this Act, 50,000 acres of land were to be set apart by the State and held as a security for the payment of the liabilities above stated, and for the completion of the locks and dams, &c.

7th. By an Act approved March 3d, 1860, the 50,000 acres were to be set apart next above the lands transferred to the Des Moines Navigation Company.

[See Revision of 1860, p. 910.]

8th. On March 3d, 1861, Congress passed a joint resolution relinquishing to the State all the title the United States then had in the lands improperly certified to the State under the grant of Aug. 8th, 1846, which were then held by bona fide purchasers under the State.

[See Rep. of Reg., p. 36.]

9th. On April 7th, 1862, the General Assembly passed a joint resolution asking Congress to extend the Des Moines Grant and for leave to divert to the Keokuk, Ft. Des Moines and Minnesota Railroad Company, a portion of said lands.

[See Acts of 1862, p. 250.]

10th. By an act of Congress, approved July 12th, 1862, the Des Moines River grant was extended to the northern boundary of the State, and consent given to divert it to the Keokuk, Ft. Des Moines and Minnesota Railroad Company, and indemnity lands granted for those whose titles had proved invalid. [See Rep. Reg., p. 36.]

In a full and thorough examination of the above-mentioned acts and resolutions, the undersigned have come to the conclusion that the State of Iowa is only trustee of the Railroad grant for a specified purpose, and cannot, even upon resumption, do any other act in relation to said lands, except to re-grant them for the purpose specified. Resumption will only "change the place, but keep the pain."

The grants by joint resolution of Congress, of March 3d, 1861, and by act of July 12th, 1862, do not repeal the railroad grant, and hence must be subject to it. The same rule obtains as to grants which obtain as to deeds; the first made possess the best title. Resumption will only raise up new conflicting claims, and the railroad companies will of course test their rights by litigation, and in the meantime settlers would get tired of litigation and doubtful titles, and leave for the peace and security only to be found elsewhere. But it respect is paid to the wishes of the parties interested as settlers, and the matters all adjusted as proposed by the railroad companies, the titles will be quieted and the country improved.

For the foregoing reasons we respectfully dissent from the action of the majority of the committee, and recommend that all relating to the Dubuque & Sioux City Rail Road and the Cedar Rapids & Missouri River Rail Road be stricken from said bill.

W. J. MOIR.

BEREMAN, Chairman.

The Special Committee to whom was referred Senate File No. 36, "A bill for an Act to amend Chap. 173 of the laws of the 9th General Assembly, in relation to the office of city and town Assessors, with Senate substitute therefor, have had the same under con-

MERRIAM, for Committee.

Mr. Finkbine presented the following report from the committee appointed to visit the Penitentiary:

The undersigned Committee appointed in pursuance of the following joint resolution:

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Hon. Senate concurring, That a Joint Committee, composed of two on the part of the House, and one on the part of the Senate, be appointed at once to visit the Penitentiary at as early a day as practicable, and that they be instructed to report the result of their investigations in relation to the suggestions and recommendations contained in the Governor's Message of Jan. 22d, and also other matters pertaining to the public interest in the Penitentiary, to this General Assembly," beg leave to submit to the General Assembly the following report:

Your committee have carefully examined the Prison grounds, walls, and all buildings, as well as the proposed plans for enlarging and completing the Prison.

The Penitentiary is situated on the north bank of the Mississippi River at Fort Madison, and but a short distance from said river. It occupies a narrow point of land bounded by two small creeks, the one on the east, the other on the west. There has been a deep ravine in front of a part of the main building, which has been nearly filled up. North and in the rear of the prison is a hill, which overlooks the entire prison yard and buildings. The yard of the Prison is three hundred and fifty feet square; the main building forms two hundred feet of the south wall, at the south-west corner of which is the entrance gate facing towards the south. The west wall is completed, and is a passable good structure of stone. There is also about one half of the east wall completed, with the exception of the coping, and is built the same as the one on the west. The entire north wall, about one-half of the east wall, and one hundred and eighteen (118) feet of the south wall is constructed of nothing but high posts and boards. The watch-towers are all completed except the one at the north-east corner of the yard, which has not been commenced. The towers at the south-west and south-east corners of the yard, have good substantial brick guard houses built upon them, while the one at the north-west corner has on it a very inferior guard house, built of rough boards. The Prison yard has been graded up to near a level, to do which has caused a fill to be made on the inside and outside of the east and west walls, in some places to the depth of 25 to 30 feet, while on the south and east they have filled some thirty feet, "and the whole grounds surrounded with deep ravines, high hills and abrupt precipices, east, north and west, once studded over with a dense forest, but now nearly bare. Such is the unpropitious location of the Iowa Penitentiary."

Inside of the Prison yard is a one-story frame building, used as a kitchen and dining room, for the use of convicts; it is but of little value, built of combustible material, and constantly endangering the shops and Prison building.

There is also inside the yard a number of old buildings and sheds, which are liable at any time to be consumed by fire, and which, in the opinion of your committee, should be removed as soon as possible. They have been and are at present used as lumber houses by the lessees of the convict labor.

The wash-house is a very inferior building, and also liable to take fire at any time, but if it should burn down, its situation is such that it in all probability would not endanger the shops or main building.

There are three shops inside the walls, built of brick with stone foundations, and covered with tin and slate, in which can be conveniently and profitably worked two hundred and fifty (250) convicts. There is room within the present enclosure to build one more shop, which will accommodate 100 more, making in the aggregate, room for the working of three hundred and fifty convicts.

The Prison building is two hundred (200) feet long by forty-four (44) feet wide, showing a two-story front, built of stone and covered with a pine shingle roof. Within this building and surrounding the cells is a corridor ten feet in width. The cells are three stories high, built of stone, with brick partitions and iron doors. The first and part of the second tiers of cells have either no ventilation at all, or if they have any, the tubes intended for that purpose connect the cells, so that convicts can easily converse from cell to cell, whilst they but poorly answer the purpose of ventilation. The forty cells now completed on the third range have a good system of ventilation, and are better constructed than either of the others. The stairs and platform surrounding the cells are badly constructed, and are in an unsafe condition, while there is not a first class Prison Lock in the whole Penitentiary building. The building is poorly and badly lighted, and not warmed at all. The apparatus used for heating being common stoves, which are set at such a distance from the chimneys as to require about one hundred feet of pipe; that is fixed with an occasional drum so as to keep up a great deal more smoke than heat. The floor of the corridor is made of "grub plank," and in connection with the old buildings in the yard above referred to, affords a superb abode for a numerous tribe of rats, which appear to enjoy in the highest degree the pleasures of their retreat.

Thirty four (34) feet of the west end of the Prison building is used for the Warden's house. It is dark, damp, and badly arranged, inconvenient, and wholly unfit for a respectable residence. There is a hall ten (10) feet wide between the cell-room and Warden's house, which is the entrance to the Prison yard, and is the only "clerk's office" that the institution can boast of. Its only light is derived through a grated sash door on the one side, and a side light door on the other.

As we have before stated, there are three tiers of cells; each of these tiers has fifty-four (54) cells, excepting the upper or third tier, which has but forty completed, there being room for the erection of fourteen more, which, if completed, would make the whole number of cells one hundred and sixty-two, there being completed at the present time one hundred and forty-eight.

The plan proposed for the extension of the Prison is to build an octagon of sixty-four feet in diameter at the east end of the present main building; to build a Warden's house in front of and on the south side of the octagon; to continue a wing of the width and similar to the present building, north of the octagon, and to extend a wing east of the octagon, to be used as a female prison; and also to raise the present building fifteen feet in height, and construct two more tiers of cells on top of the ones now built; to convert the present "clerk's office" and Warden's house into cell room; to take out the present small windows and put larger ones in.

Towards carrying out the above plans the foundation for the octagon has already been built, as well as one side wall of the foundation of the Warden's house, the whole costing between five and six thousand dollars.

The estimates made by the architect, Mr. Edwards, for the completion of the contemplated work, are as follows:

To complete the octagon.....	$63,477
To build female wing.....	22,827
To build Warden's house.....	12,511
To build Prison wall.....	6,924
To raise present building and add two tiers of cells..	45,200
To convert Warden's house into Prison.....	23,000
	<hr/>
Making a total of.....	$173,939

besides the convict labor that can be used on said work. This amount is exclusive of the cost of the wing proposed to be built at the north side of the octagon and extending into the prison yard. If this plan should be carried out there would be a total of four hundred and thirty (430) cells.

Should the General Assembly desire to incur the expense, it would be well to adopt the plans above referred to, and let whatever is done go to the ultimate completion of said plan.

Were the grounds suitable, and the yard sufficiently large, or could suitable adjacent ground be had, your committee would not hesitate to recommend the adoption of the plans, costly as they may appear to be, as they combine most of the essential elements that go to make up a first-class Prison. But looking at this ineligible situation of the Prison on account of the ground surrounding it, the limited number of convicts that could be profitably employed, your committee are constrained to recommend a change of plan that shall conform to the capacity of the grounds.

This, in our opinion, can be done by building a Warden's house and Clerk's office in front of the present main building; by converting the present Warden's house into cell room; by building a kitchen and dining room with hospital above (building the same fire proof,) inside of the yard and near the west wall, on the site of the present kitchen and dining room, and by raising the walls of the main building and adding two more tiers of cells to those already built. If this plan is carried out it will give the following room:

Cells now completed.....	148
Cells to be completed on third tier.....	14
Three tiers of cells in the present Warden's house.....	42
Two tiers additional in both ranges.....	136

Making the total number on this plan..... 340

The last above-mentioned plan can be completed by the use of convict labor at the following cost :

Fourteen cells in third tier at $143.....	$2,002
Converting Warden's house into cells.....	10,500
Raising walls, slating roof, and building two tiers cells	36,000
Building Warden's house.....	5,000
Prison yard walls.....	6,796
Building kitchen and hospital.....	14,000

Aggregate cost.....$74,298

Making a difference in cost of the two plans of $99,641, and only a difference in the accommodation of the number of convicts to the amount of ninety.

The work that is at present needed is to take up the present floor of the corridors and put in concrete ones; to build the fourteen (14) cells on the third tier; to build the Warden's house and the Clerk's office, and complete the yard walls and towers. This will cost as follows (if the convict labor be employed,) including the necessary architect, foremen, additional guards, and tools:

For the corridor floor.....	$284
For the fourteen cells, at $143 each.....	2,002
For completing the yard walls, including the wall from the corner of the main building to the south-east corner of the yard.....	6,796
For building Warden's house.....	5,000

Total.....$14,082

Your committee are clearly of the opinion that the Legislature should determine the plan to be carried out in the further improvements to be made in said prison, and to specify it so clearly that it cannot be mistaken; and whatever is done should be to carry out that design.

Your Committee are of the opinion, considering the short time that will elapse before the expiration of the lease of convict labor, that convicts should be employed in the prosecution of the work, or at least a portion of them.

We cannot take leave of this subject without adding our testimony to the neatness and cleanliness that we found throughout the entire prison and grounds, and the good order and strict discipline that is maintained. Your committee are of the opinion that in this particular our State prison will compare favorable with those in the older States.

Your committee most earnestly recommend that the Legislature take some steps towards the improvement and safety of the prison—either adopting the plans as recommended in the former part of this report, or such others as may be determined in the judgment of the Assembly. In its present condition it is not a safe place of confinement for convicts. Nothing but the vigilance of the Warden, the close attention of the officers, and the watchfulness of the guards secure their confinement.

The law requires that the Warden should reside in the penitentiary. We think, taking into consideration the amount of the bond that is required of him, the amount of labor that he performs, the responsibility that rests upon him, and the danger attending the position that he occupies, justice would require that he be placed on the same footing that the principals of the asylums are; that he not only live in the institution, but that himself and family be subsisted by the State in addition to his present compensation.

We recommend an increase in the pay of the guards to forty-five dollars per month. Men fit for the place cannot be had or long retained for less money. It requires men not only of nerve but of character for this position.

All of which is respectfully submitted for your consideration.

Mr. Russell of Jones, from joint committee to visit College Farm, presented the following report, which, on motion, was read and referred to committee on Agriculture:

The undersigned members of the Joint Committee appointed to visit the College Farm and examine into the condition of affairs connected with the Institution, and estimate the cost of a suitable building, have performed that duty and respectfully submit the following report:

We visited the Farm on the 27th of January, and found the

LOCATION

As follows: On a direct line twenty-nine miles due north of the City of Des Moines, in Story County, nine miles west of Nevada, the county seat, and on the direct public road leading from Nevada to Boonsboro. The Farm lies two and one-fourth miles west of Skunk river, the centre of the Farm, near where the buildings are erected, being a little more than three miles from the nearest point on Skunk river. The west line of the Farm is two and one-half miles east of the Boone County line. The Cedar Rapids & Missouri Railroad is now being built directly through the Farm, coming into it on the east side, about ninety rods north of the south line, and running diagonally through it, bearing north-west and leaving it on the north line within about thirty rods of the north-west corner—dividing the Farm so as to leave about 160 acres on the north and about 488 acres on the south side of the Railroad. The Farm is well supplied with

WATER AND TIMBER.

Squaw Creek, a fine stream, comes into the Farm on the north; meanders through near the east line, the whole length affording an inexhaustible supply of pure water for stock. The banks of the stream are low, and densely covered with heavy timber on both sides. The timber is principally black walnut, oak, elm, white maple, linn, cottonwood, ash, hickory and numerous other valuable varieties. We were informed by the Trustees that upon a careful examination they have found upwards of fifty different varieties of timber, bushes and shrubbery growing on the Farm, and from the examination we were able to make, we are satisfied that their estimate is not too high. There is another fine stream of pure water called "Clear Creek," running through the north-west corner of the Farm, the banks of which are high and broken bluffs, covered with a large and magnificent growth of white oak, black walnut, red oak, white walnut and sugar maple timber. From the best information we could obtain from our own estimates and other reliable sources, we are satisfied that there is on the College Farm not less than one hundred and fifty acres of valuable heavy timber, embracing nearly every variety growing natural in the State. Near the centre of the farm and about twenty rods east of the barn yard, are several fine springs, affording a good supply of stock water, which we were informed by old settlers in the vicinity, never froze over. Near the south-west corner of the Farm is a fine pond of water, which affords a good supply ten months out of the twelve in the driest seasons.

After a careful examination, we are enabled to present to the General Assembly the following

DESCRIPTION OF THE FARM.

The farm contains six hundred and forty-eight acres lying in a body, being about 400 rods long from east to west, and about 259 rods wide from north to south. After deducting the one hundred and fifty acres of timber above described, there remain 498 acres of prairie land suitable for grass and grain. There is probably not far from 180 acres of low bottom land, about one hundred of which is covered with timber, the remainder is about equally divided between wet and dry bottom.

The low land in the timber is a rich, deep black sandy loam, with clay subsoil, but not inclined to hold water on the surface. Next west adjoining the timber is a fine, smooth, level tract of low land, remarkably well adapted for grass, but could by a judicious system of drainage be converted into the most productive corn land, not excelled in the west. Beyond this to the north-west is a large tract known in this State as second bottom land, being level, dry and very rich and remarkably productive for almost every crop grown in this latitude. The soil is a mixture of black sand, fine gravel and rich black alluvian and prairie soil proper; comprising perhaps the most desirable soil known to the agriculturalist. A part of this land was sowed with wheat last season, and produced, as we are informed, about 20 bushels to the acre of first quality, as we ascertained by examination. West of this is a large tract of level prairie, the soil being dry, slightly intermixed with fine gravel in places, with clay subsoil, being a fair representative of the prevailing prairie soil in the State. On the north-west corner of the farm is a tract of perhaps 40 acres of clay soil, most of which is covered with a heavy growth of oak, walnut and hickory timber. Though called clay soil, this land is a fair specimen of what is known in this State as "barrens" and "timber land." The soil is a mixture of prairie and clay, with heavy clay subsoil, and is considered the best wheat and fruit land in the western States. On the south side of the farm is about 90 acres of high rolling prairie, intermixed with gravel, and well adapted for almost any grain crop raised in the West, being warm and dry, the ravines which intersect it carrying off all surplus water in the wettest seasons. The gravel contained in the soil is mostly on the surface, and is turned under by the first plowing—nearly disappearing after cultivation. We found fine sand and gravel banks on the farm, furnishing an inexhaustible supply for building purposes and for grading roads, walks and yards.

There is also on the farm good clay for brick making, convenient to where the College will probably be erected.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

Consist of a good, substantial brick farm house, with a basement of stone, making a cellar under the whole building. The house is nearly completed, the mortar being mixed ready for plastering the inside walls and partitions in the Spring; and when finished will cost about three thousand dollars. The bricks were manufactured on the farm. There is also a good barn on the place, well finished and painted, of good height, and is 42 feet by 60 in size, capable of providing storage room for the grain, and shelter for the necessary teams and stock connected with the farm. There is a good stone basement under the barn, and a large yard inclosed by a substantial fence.

A great portion of the material and work used in the erection of these buildings, was furnished in payment of voluntary subscriptions, by citizens in the vicinity.

There is about 220 acres of the farm inclosed by a substantial fence, a part of which is built of boards and posts, five boards high, and the remainder of rails, staked and ridered, eight rails high. The fences are built of good material, and are put up in a very substantial manner. Of the land inclosed, about 148 acres are under cultivation, and had crops on, the past season.

There is a fine young orchard of about 400 thrifty trees, near the house, inclosed by a good fence, which has protected it from damage by cattle; and this little experiment has satisfied the people in the vicinity that the prevalent opinion that fruit cannot be raised upon our open prairies is entirely erroneous. They witnessed fine apples growing upon many of these trees, which had been planted out but three years before, on the level, open prairie. They see that to be successful only requires ordinary care; such as they would bestow upon a corn crop, and they are profiting by this demonstration placed before their eyes, as we observed that nearly every farmer in the vicinity has begun to plant an orchard. These trees on the farm were donated to the Trustees by Mr. Smith, the well known nurseryman of Des Moines.

A well has been dug near the house, affording a good supply of pure water, at a depth of about 30 feet.

About 75 grape vines have been planted near the orchard, of several different varieties, among which are the Concord, Clinton, Isabella and Catawba. They appeared to flourish well, making a fine growth and producing some fruit.

BUILDING MATERIAL

for the erection of a College can be found in abundance on the farm and in the immediate vicinity. All of the necessary timber for frame-work can be taken from the farm without injury to the place. The necessary wood to burn the brick can be procured from down timber which is fast going to waste, and the best kind of clay and sand for the manufacture of the brick, are found in abundance on the farm. Stone for the basement can be had within three and one-half miles, and lime within six miles of the place. Pine lumber and shingles can be obtained by means of the railroad, which is now being built directly through the farm.

There are several saw-mills in the immediate vicinity of the timber lands, both steam and water mills, capable of supplying any reasonable demand for lumber.

THE LANDS DONATED IN STORY COUNTY

lie on an average within two miles of the College Farm, and within one and one-half miles of the railroad. They consist of two 80-acre tracts, five of 40 acres, and four of 20 acres each, of good prairie land; three 10-acre lots of timber, and one lot of 32 acres of timber; making 440 acres of prairie and 62 acres of timber. There are also 200 acres of land in Boone county, consisting of five lots, varying in size from 20 to 80 acres each, and lying on an average, within two and one-half miles of the line of railroad, and within about seven miles of the farm. The lands thus donated to the college amount to 640 acres of prairie, estimated to be worth $4,00 per acre, making $2,560. The timber lands, 620 acres, are estimated to be worth $14,00 per acre, making $868,00—total, $3,428,00. There is also one acre of land, donated to the farm, and within one mile of it, containing a good stone quarry, besides about 20 lots in New Philadelphia, a new town on the line of the railroad, and about two miles from the farm, which will probably be the nearest railroad station.

Sections 9 and 10 of the organic act providing for the purchase of the College Farm, require that the trustees shall purchase suitable lands, not less than 640 acres, for the use of the College and Experimental Farm; and that they shall take into consideration the price, location, quality and variety of soil, advantages of water, timber, stone, &c.

Your committee, after a thorough examination, are of the opinion that it would have been difficult for the trustees to have made a selection more fully complying with the requirements of the law, than the one purchased. It has upon it at least six different varieties of soil, representing the prevailing kinds in the State; it has more than 50 varieties of timber, bushes and shrubs, and running water, spring and well water in abundance; plenty of gravel, sand, stone, and material for brick; high dry land, level dry land, rolling clay, second bottom, sloughs, flat wet bottom, and timber bottom, besides the genuine prairie land.

We know of no other farm of the size in the State combining so many leading characteristics of Iowa land, and though we went to the farm with some feelings of prejudice against the location, we came away fully impressed with the belief that it answers the requirements of the law as completely as any selection that could have been made. We are satisfied that the main object had in view by the framers of the organic law was, that the experimental farm should combine as many leading characteristics of the lands of our State as possible to be found in one farm, that all of the different varieties might be thoroughly tested, with the various grains and grasses, vegetables and fruits, and the final results might add to the experimental knowledge of the cultivators of the soil. We deem it our duty to make a brief review of the and of what has been done by the Legislature and Trustees to carry into effect the requirements of the organic law.

At the session of the Legislature of 1858 an act was passed, providing for the establishment of a State Agricultural College and Farm, with a Board of Trustees, which shall be connected with the entire agricultural interests of the State."

Section 2 of the act provides that the College and Farm shall be under the management of a Board of eleven Trustees, and the Governor and President of the State Agricultural Society shall be ex-officio members. It also provides that one trustee shall be chosen from each judicial district in the State from persons nominated by the county agricultural societies, thus securing men for this high position who are identified with the great interest they are to represent, and wisely guarding against the danger of allowing this important institution, intended for the benefit of the industrial interests of the State, from being diverted from its noble purpose to build up some favored city or village, and convert what was designed for the benefit of the great agricultural and mechanical interests of the entire State, into a mere local school for the benefit of only those who are fortunate enough to live in the immediate vicinity.

The trustees, wisely foreseeing that an institution of this kind to be successful in carrying out fully the intention of the Legislature, must be located in the country, away from the attractions, vices and contaminations of a city, purchased what is known as the "College Farm," in Story county, a central position, which will soon be accessible from all parts of the State. The farm, which we have fully described in another part of this report, was purchased at a cost of $5,379.12. In consideration of having the college located at that place, the citizens of Story and Boone counties made liberal donations of lands and money, labor and material, to the amount of about $7,000, to assist in improving the farm and erecting the necessary farm buildings.

The county of Story issued bonds to the amount of $10,000, for the benefit of the College, bearing interest at 7 per cent. There is also appropriated the proceeds of the sales of five sections of land (heretofore granted to the State for the erection of capital buildings in Jasper county) for the use and benefit of the college. Congress has, by an act since passed, diverted this grant of lands to the college, and a portion of them have been sold by the trustees. The estimated value of these lands is about $14,000.

Soon after the passage of the organic law providing for an Agricultural College the great financial crash came, suspending almost all improvements, ruining thousands of the business men in the country, and reducing the State revenue so much as to render it necessary to make a large loan for the purpose of meeting the ordinary expenses of the State government. In view of this state of affairs, while other public institutions of the State were demanding and receiving large appropriations, the friends of the college waited patiently for better times, before calling upon the State for the necessary means for the erection of a college building. Before the country had fully recovered from the effects of the financial difficulties the great rebellion broke out, engrossing the entire attention of the loyal States, and requiring heavy and extraordinary appropriations from our State to place our quota of volunteers in the field.

During all this time the friends of the Agricultural College had not been idle. Knowing that in order to carry out faithfully the purpose in view, of providing an institution in which the sons of the working men could acquire a thorough practical education suited to the profession they were to follow through life, at so small an expense that the poorest would not be excluded for want of means, the friends of the college acting with others in different States, made earnest, and finally successful efforts, to influence Congress to make a grant of lands for the future endowment of these institutions. The lands thus granted to our State amounted to 240,000 acres; nearly all of which have been selected in the north-western part of the State. This grant was made upon the express condition that the States accepting it should within five years from the approval of the act, "provide at least one college, where the leading object shall be, (without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics,) to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts."

Section 2d of the act of Congress expressly provides that no portion of the fund arising from the sale of these lands, or the interest thereon, shall be applied directly or indirectly to the purchase, erection or repair of any building or buildings. Thus it will be observed that the entire fund shall be invested and used for no other purpose than for the future endowment of the college, excepting that ten per cent. of the proceeds may be expended in procuring a suitable farm to carry on the manual labor department.

This land is mostly prairie, destitute of timber, far from market, and could only be sold at the present time at a very low price and at a great sacrifice. Good policy and the future interests of the college require that no more of the land should be now offered for sale than is absolutely required to meet the necessary expenses of the institution, which can not be otherwise provided for.

It now remains for the State to decide by the action of the present Legislature whether we shall carry out, in good faith to the citizens of our own State, and the general government that made this most munificent grant, the noble and worthy purpose contemplated by the law.

If with a full sense of the great obligation resting upon them, and a realization of the important trust committed to their care, this Legislature shall, honestly and faithfully perform their duty, they will be entitled to the lasting gratitude of the sons of the working-men of the State for all time to come.

Your committee have found it very difficult to arrive at any definite conclusion in regard to the cost of a suitable building for a college. We find that an estimate has been made by an experienced Architect employed by the Trustees. The plan proposed is to erect a building that will accommodate one hundred students, the President and professors, with lecture and recitation rooms, laboratory, kitchen, dining and all other rooms necessary for a college and house for all connected with the institution. The building to be three stories high, and 42 feet by 150 feet; the basement to be built of stone, and the superstructure of brick. The estimated cost of such a building, fully completed ready for occupation, is $50,000.

The Trustees estimate that they have in money, lands donated, and bonds, an amount sufficient to furnish the college, provide the necessary apparatus, stock the farm with improved breeds of animals, the out-buildings, farming utensils, machinery, &c., suitable to make a satisfactory commencement.

It is thought that $30,000 would erect the out-walls of the building and inclose it, and if the Legislature should not think best to provide a sufficient appropriation at this session for its completion, the above mentioned amount could be used to advantage, in carrying on the work; and the friends of the institution believe the next Legislature would furnish the sum necessary to complete and put the college in operation within the time required by the act of Congress making the grant.

The proposition has been made by the friends of the State University, to take charge of the Agricultural College, and attach a department to the University, in which shall be taught such branches as relate to agriculture and the mechanic arts, provided a large portion of the land grant be diverted to the use and benefit of the University. We regard this proposition as so manifestly unjust and dangerous, that we feel it our duty to refer to some of the difficulties in the way of such an attempted union of the two institutions. The University is intended to be a higher grade school than any other in the State, in which students from the various seminaries, academies and colleges may enter, and complete an education in the highest branches taught, affording facilities and advantages that no other educational institution in the State possesses. The object is a noble one, worthy of our great State, and we trust that the purpose will be fully carried out, without endangering its success by "any entangling alliances." The State and General Government have dealt most liberally with it, affording it support and aid, in lands, buildings and money, to the amount of more than $330,000.

The Agricultural College was projected for a very different purpose, and is intended to be conducted on an entirely different plan. The want of a high school or college for the sons of working men, where they could, at a trifling expense, acquire a thorough practical education, adapted to the industrial pursuits they desire to follow through life, has been long felt and earnestly desired. It is evident to every one who has examined the subject that this institution, to be successful, must be entirely independent of ordinary colleges and universities where theories are taught, without practical illustrations. The organic act provides that all students admitted into the college "shall labor not less than two hours per day in winter and three hours in the summer season." The object of this provision is, no doubt, to place all students on a perfect equality as far as manual labor is concerned, that there may be no distinction between the sons of rich or poor—that the student who may be compelled to labor to pay his way may not feel that he is submitting to a work of drudgery, but is only complying with the rules of the college, wisely provided for the benefit of all, in giving them the advantage of every day practice to test the truth or error of the new theories they are learning. Does any reflecting person believe that these most important provisions of the system of agricultural education can be connected with the State University, located in the heart of a populous city, where no experimental farm can be connected with it, with no suitable boarding house where young boys can be under the care and control of a suitable person who would look to their welfare? They would be turned loose after school hours, to all the enticements, vices, and corrupting influences of a city. They must find boarding places among the inhabitants of the town, where their labor cannot be employed to defray expenses; a department thus conducted can derive none of the benefits contemplated by the friends of the Agricultural College, in providing an industrial school in accordance with the act of our own Legislature, and the law of Congress making the munificent land grant, to enable the plans of the college to be faithfully and honestly carried out.

We are satisfied that any such attempt at consolidation would result in endless strife, quarrels, jealousy, and confusion, and would go far towards destroying the usefulness of both. We believe it to be the duty of the Legislature to encourage and sustain both of these valuable institutions by judicious and liberal assistance, while both are left free to stand or fall on their own merits.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

STATE OF IOWA, TREASURER'S OFFICE, }
February, 25, 1864. }

Hon. Jacob Butler,

Speaker of the House of Representatives:

SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a resolution passed by the House of Representatives on the 28d inst., asking information in regard to the amount of money received of the General Government as indemnity for Swamp Lands sold after the passage of the act granting such lands to this State, and the disposition made of the same.

In reply, I have to report that Nov. 4, 1863, I received of Gov. Kirkwood the sum of $8,168.14, for the County of Jones, and $7,386.18, for Iowa County.

Immediately upon the receipt of these funds, I notified the clerks of the Board of Supervisors of said counties, as required by Sec. 9, Chap. 160, Laws of the 9th General Assembly, and at the same time informed them that I should retain a per cent. of the amount of money in my hands to reimburse the State for money expended in payment of per diem of agents appointed by the Governor, for the settlement of Swamp Land Claims, as I could see no way that the State could be reimbursed and the provisions of Sec. 12, chapter and laws aforesaid, be carried out, except by retaining an amount in the Treasury belonging to each county, sufficient for the purpose.

I accordingly retained the sum of two per cent. out of the amounts in my hands, belonging to the counties aforesaid, the remainder has been paid over to the authorized agents of the counties.

In December last the Secretary of Gov. Kirkwood placed in my hands receipts to the Governor from the following named persons, as agents of counties, to-wit:

J. H. Sanders, agent of Keokuk County, for	$6,006 93
Thos. B. Abell " Marshall " "	8,381 57
B. F. Coe, " Louisa " "	8,446 67

I am informed by Gov. Kirkwood that the money was paid out by him under a wrong impression as to his duty, and that as soon as the error was discovered the money in his hands was forwarded to this office to be disbursed as required by law, and that all of the above mentioned sums were received by him from F. E. Spinner, Treasurer of the United States.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. HOLMES, Treas. of State.

SPEAKER:—I am directed to inform the honorable House of Representatives, that the Senate has adopted the following report of the joint committee of the two Houses, to make arrangements for tendering a public reception to the veterans of the 4th Regiment of Iowa Infantry, in which the concurrence of the House is respectfully asked.

WM. F. DAVIS, Secretary Senate.

The joint committee to whom was referred the joint resolution relative to the reception of the veterans of the Fourth Iowa Infantry on their return to this city, have had the same under consideration, and directed me to report.

That in the opinion of your committee, it is right and proper that the members of this General Assembly, representing the loyal and patriotic people of the State, who have given up their fathers, brothers and sons to swell the ranks of an army, that for three years has battled for God and the right; to heartily co-operate with the citizens of Des Moines, in their reception of the war-scarred veterans, as representatives of Iowa soldiers. And your committee, believing that the members of this General Assembly, honoring as they do, the brave men of our State, who have so nobly and gallantly linked the name of Iowa with all that is dear to us as a nation, should thus publicly express their appreciation of the services of that noble regiment; they have instructed me to report the following joint resolution, and recommend its adoption:

WHEREAS, we have learned that the veterans of the Fourth Iowa Infantry have re-enlisted for three years, or during the war, and that they are now on their way to this city on furlough, to enjoy for a short time the blessings of the domestic circle, and that the citizens of Des Moines are preparing to give them a proper reception; and deeming it our duty as their representatives, to express our appreciation of their gallantry and their services in the suppression of the rebellion; therefore be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That we have watched with pride and admiration, the 4th Iowa Infantry, as step by step they have borne the ensign of the free on the memorable fields of Pea Ridge, Chickasaw Bayou, Arkansas Post, Jackson, Vicksburg siege and assault, Cherokee, Caney Creek, Tuscumbia, Lookout Mountain, Missionary Ridge and Ringgold, and in their long and weary marches, enduring all the privations and hardships of a soldier's life, they have toiled on and fought for home, kindred and country, until the mute graves of their comrades in arms, point in sadness to the remnant of brave men, who have honored their State, and added to the glory of the nation.

Resolved, That in the re-enlistment of the veterans of said regiment, we have the strongest evidence of their attachment to the principles of civil liberty; and that their love of country is paramount to all other considerations, and entitles them to the lasting honor and gratitude of those whose firesides have been protected by their arms.

Resolved, That as a token of our confidence and regard for the distinguished services of that regiment, we will adjourn and attend as a body, the reception of the veterans on their return to this city.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to present them with a copy of these resolutions, and on behalf of the members of this General Assembly bid them welcome to the Capitol of the State, whose honor they have kept so successfully untarnished.

The Joint Committee of the two Houses appointed to inquire whether A. P. Burrhus, Post Master of the General Assembly voted illegally at the recent municipal election in the city of Des Moines, and also whether he voted for any person not a Union candidate for office, have had the same under consideration, and have taken the testimony of witnesses, and beg leave to submit the following report :

Your committee are unanimously of the opinion that the said A. P. Burrhus did vote illegally at the said election, but a majority of your committee believe that he did not intentionally violate the law, and that he believed himself entitled to vote.

The said Burrhus claims his residence in Des Moines, and there was no evidence before your committee of a contrary intent, but his residence is of only 58 or 59 days duration. It is but just to say that he claims to have counted the day of the election as one of the 60 days residence required by law, supposing it legal to do so.

Your committee also find unanimously, that the said Burrhus voted for one Morris for Mayor, of Des Moines, he the said Morris not being a Union candidate, and that he the said Burrhus also erased from his ticket the name of W. H. Leas who was the Union or Republican candidate. A majority of your committee believe that the voting for Morris was intentional, and not through mistake.

And your committee believing that it is not the desire of a majority of this General Assembly to continue to keep in office, and to bestow patronage upon any person after being advised that he has cast his vote against a loyal candidate, and for the candidate of a party organized in hostility to the administration in this time of national peril, beg leave to submit the accompanying resolution, and recommend its passage.

W. J. MOIR, of the House,
GEO. M. McCRARY, of the Senate.

Joint resolution for the removal of A. P. Burrhus from the office of Post Master of the General Assembly.

Be it Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That A. P. Burrhus be and he is hereby removed from the office of Post Master of the General Assembly.

BURRHUS' STATEMENT.

Burrhus staid at Peoria in this county, on Friday night, 8th Jan. 1864.

Question.—Were you not challenged at the 6th Ward, and what did you tell the Board?

Answer.—I told them I came about the first of January. Before I voted, from my count I made out that I had been here 60 days, and am now of the same opinion. I don't remember the name of the House in Peoria at which I staid. It was the right hand of the street in which I came. I voted the Union ticket.

Question.—Did you vote it without scratching?

Answer.—I scratched off the first name. I did not insert any name for Mayor. I did not intend to vote for Mayor.

Question.—Where did you obtain the ticket you voted?

Answer.—I do not know where I got it. I did not have any personal feeling against either candidate for Mayor. I did not expect to vote until noon, when Mr. Hildreth asked me whether I was not going to vote. He told me I was entitled to vote, and had better do so. Several Republican tickets had been handed me with the Mayor's name in it crossed off. I have always been recognized as being a Republican, and have uniformly acted with the party.

Question.—Are you sure the name of Morris was not on the ticket voted?

Answer.—Am not sure, but was under the impression it was not; at least it was not my intention to vote for Morris.

Question.—When challenged, did not one of the members of the Board say to you that if you voted you would have to be sworn?

Answer.—I expressed my willingness to take the oath and did so.

Question.—Was the oath read to you previous to being administered?

Answer.—Yes. I asked to know what it was, and was informed of the law on the subject.

Question.—Did you know that any of the tickets you had in your possession had the name of Leas erased and Morris inserted?

Answer.—I did not. Several tickets had been given me with Leas' name erased.

Burrhus stated that others had voted and he thought he had as good right to do so as they. It was his intention to scratch off Leas' name but not to vote for Morris. Republicans had told him that they were voting against Leas over the river. He did not know any of the names of Republicans who asked him to scratch Leas' name.

Mr. Helm Called.

Question.—How long have you known Burrhus?

Answer.—One year since January. He lived in Indiantown, Tama County. His character I never heard anything against. He was considered a clever man, and always counted a Republican.

Dr. A. B. Hall Sworn.

Was one of the judges of the election in the 6th Ward.

Question.—Did Mr. Burrhus vote there?

Answer.—He did; he voted on the 7th of this month, a little before 6 P. M.

Question.—Do you know for whom he voted?

Answer.—It is a hard question to answer, but I will detail circumstances of it. Mr. Garten, a voter, came up just before Burrhus. A ticket was handed him; he looked over it, folded it up and put it in. I think he swore in his vote. Through the day I was apprised that several of the attaches of the General Assembly were going to vote. When Burrhus came up Mr. Rich challenged his vote. I asked him if he had been in the county sixty days. He said he had. I asked him if he had been in the ward ten days. He answered yes. I read him the oath and had him sworn, and then his vote was taken. Previous to taking Garten's vote all the ballots had been taken out and Garten's and Burrhus' tickets were all that were afterwards given at our precinct. One vote was a straight out Republican ticket, the other was one of the same character with the exception that on it the name of W. H. Leas was stricken out or erased and the name of Absalom Morris inserted, and I was of the opinion that Burrhus voted that ticket.

Dr. Brooks Sworn.

He had but little to add to what Dr. Hall had stated. I was one of the judges of the election and read the votes; finished counting out the votes 15 minutes before 5 P. M., and was waiting for the time to come to close the polls. Garten came up and was to us a stranger. Voris, one of our board, handed Garten a Republican ticket. Dr. Hall wanted him to have one of the Democratic tickets. He objected to taking the Doctor's ticket; looked over the ticket given him by Voris, and folded it up and voted after being sworn. In a short time after Mr. Burrhus came up in his wagon. Mr. Poorman gave him a ticket. Burrhus took a ticket out of his pocket and voted it, I think. One ticket, the one Garten voted, was clean and smooth, and one was rumbled up and erased. I agree with Dr. Hall about the way in which he gave the statement about Burrhus' vote. I believe that Burrhus voted the ticket that had the name of Leas erased and Morris inserted. I saw the ticket that Garten voted from the time it was given him until he voted, and that ticket was not scratched, but was a straight-out Republican ticket.

D. Poorman Sworn.

I staid around the polls all day; my business was to check off names of voters and make myself useful in getting voters to the polls, &c. I saw Burrhus come up; I pulled out a ticket and handed him one; he asked for a pencil. He then took the ticket and put it up against the wall, and seemed to be writing on the ticket. While writing, I saw him have what I concluded was a Democratic ticket, and then scratching the ticket, I thought, which I gave him. He was challenged, and then swore in his vote, and when the tickets were counted out, the remark was general that the ticket which was scratched was the one that Burrhus voted. Harry Rich challenged Burrhus' vote, and the man with Burrhus punched Harry Rich, as much as to say to him, "Let Burrhus alone, he is all right." But Harry Rich did not take the hint, but held on to the challenge.

Griffith Sworn.

Was clerk, and the election being close, anxiety was manifested, and each party had friends with lists of their respective voters outside who furnished tickets and checked off votes, &c. After all parties supposed the votes had been cast, the votes were all counted out. Subsequently, and contrary to our expectation, others came to vote. Mr. Garten came up to vote, a stranger to us all. After close inquiry, he was allowed to vote, after being sworn. He knew the ticket that Garten voted, for he saw him take the ticket from Mr. Voris; saw him while he had it looking it over; and saw him fold and hand it in; and that ticket was an unscratched Republican ticket. Burrhus came up afterwards, was challenged, and, after being sworn, was permitted to vote. These two were all the tickets in the box. One was a straight-out Republican ticket, and so was the other, with the exception of the erasure and insertion before named. Spoke of having a conversation subsequently with Mr. Garten about whether he had scratched the ticket; he firmly denied having scratched the ticket. When Mr. Garten came up, he asked for a ticket, and Mr. Voris handed him one.

Hildreth's Statement.

He stated that in the morning of the election day, inside or near the post office in the capitol, he stated to Burrhus that if there were any persons about the State House that were voters, they ought to go and vote. Mr. Burrhus stated that he had been here sixty days, and this was to be his home, &c., and then Hildreth stated that if this was so, he ought to go and vote.

Mr. Campbell moved that the report and resolution be adopted.

Mr. Maxwell moved that the whole matter be laid on the table.
Lost.

The following communication from the Register of the State Land Office was taken up and read:

STATE LAND OFFICE, DES MOINES, IOWA.

Hon. Jacob Butler,

Speaker of the House of Representatives :

Dear Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a resolution passed by your Honorable Body, calling for information as to the following facts, to-wit :

1st. What amount of the 212,741 acres of land conveyed by the State to the Des Moines Navigation & Railroad Company, is claimed by each of the following Railroad Companies, to-wit : The "Dubuxue & Sioux City," the "Cedar Rapids & Missouri River," and the "Mississippi & Missouri River?"

2d. How much of the 58,830 acres of Des Moines River Lands above the Raccoon forks, sold by the State to individual purchasers, is now claimed by each of said Railroad Companies?

3d. What amount of the 50,000 acres reserved by the State to pay the claims against the State on account of the Des Moines River Improvement, is claimed by the Dubuque & Sioux City Railroad Company?

And in reply thereto submit the following statement :

This office has never been furnished with plats of the lines of said Roads, nor of any one of them, nor with maps or lists showing particularly all the land claimed by them. The only lists showing the land claimed, are those furnished by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, certifying to the State for the benefit of the different Roads, such lands as the Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior have decided are subject to the Railroad grant.

There may be, (and I am told there are,) other lands claimed which are not yet passed upon, by the Commissioner. Owing to this fact, and also to the imperfection of the records of this office, I find it impossible to give positive and accurate answers to the questions proposed. However, from a careful examination and comparison of the records and lists in this office, I have compiled the following, which (although not perfect) I trust will be found sufficiently accurate to answer the purpose designed :

D. & S. C. R. R.—Of the lands thus certified, for the benefit of the Dubuque & Sioux City Road, there are, of the 212,741 acres conveyed by the State to the Des Moines Navigation & Railroad Company 49,440 acres.

Of the 50,000 acres reserved to pay Des Moines River claims, 29, 820 acres.

Whole amount certified within the Des Moines River grant, 78,760 acres.

C. R. & M. R. R.—Of the lands certified for the benefit of the Cedar Rapids & Missouri River Railroad, there are, of the 212,741 acres conveyed to D. N. & R. R. Co., 80,213 acres.

Of the lands sold by the State to individual purchasers, 28,320 acres.

Of lands reserved, none.

Total certified within the Des Moines River grant, 108,533 acres.

M. & M. R. R.—Of the lands thus certified for the Mississippi & Missouri River Railroad, there are of the 212,741 acres conveyed to the D. M. N. & R. R. Co., 14,560 acres.

Of those conveyed by individuals to the State, 15,085 acres.

Total certified for the benefit of this Road within the limits of the Des Moines River Grant, 29,645 acres.

Very respectfully submitted.

The American Bible Society was organized under the laws of New York in 1816. By the terms of its organization, it is prevented from holding real estate, except its Bible House, and the offices in the city of N. York, necessary for carrying on its business. Its object, as well as the other societies mentioned in the bill, is to print and supply by itself and its auxiliaries, the Scriptures without note or comment at cost, where the recipients can pay, gratuitously to those who can not pay. Since the rebellion commenced, it has distributed more than $300,000 worth among the soldiers in our army. By the terms of its charter and by the usage and policy of its practice, it holds real estate given or bequeathed no longer than it can effect a sale, and the avails of such sales are applied to the printing and distribution of the Scriptures. Resolved, by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, That we recommend the noble objects and purposes of this Commission to the people of Iowa, as the proper means for concentrating the efforts of our people in the work of benefitting our sick and wounded soldiers.

Resolved, That by its co-operation with the United States Sanitary Commission and the Western Sanitary Commission, we believe the sanitary stores of the State of Iowa, which are so generously contributed by the people, will reach the army with less expense and more efficiency than by any other plan.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the federal principle, that the army of freedom now in the field is the United States army, and should be aided and comforted through the joint efforts of each and every loyal State of the Union.

Resolved, That as Iowa is proud of her noble sons who have gone forth to battle for the freedom of the whole nation and of humanity, so is she proud of her Sanitary Commission, which has made itself auxiliary to the great national work of carrying the contributions of our people to all soldiers wherever found, who may need sustenance and support.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EXPENDITURES.

Your committee on Expenditures to whom was referred a communication of the State Treasurer, Wm. H. Holmes, in answer to a resolution of enquiry addressed to him by the House, requesting him to report the amount of gold and demand notes received into the Treasury since the passage of the act of April A. D. 1862, authorizing the reception of the notes of the State Bank of Iowa and U. S. Treasury and demand notes in the payment of taxes, beg leave to report, that in accordance with the instructions of the House they have made such further inquiry into the subject as their time and opportunities would permit, and have been able to ascertain several facts in relation to the matter which they deem it their duty to lay before the House.

A short time after your committee commenced their inquiries, they deemed it necessary to ask leave of the House to send for persons and papers and to administer oaths, which powers were granted. Under this authority several witnesses were summoned, sworn, and testified.

From the testimony elicited, your committee are forced to the conclusion that the late Treasurer of State, John W. Jones, received into his hands as State Treasurer, a large amount of gold and demand notes between the first day of May A. D. 1862, and the first of January A. D. 1863. It seems from the testimony, that the highest amount of gold and demand notes in the safe at any one time between the above mentioned dates, was about $60,000. Your committee have been unable to ascertain what disposition was made by Mr. Jones of the greater portion of these funds, except the $20,000 by him paid over to his successor, the present State Treasurer, but are fully satisfied that large amounts were taken from the safe and their places supplied by Treasury Notes and notes of the State Bank of Iowa.

It appears at one time about the last of May or first of June, that Mr. Jones took from the safe $15,000 in gold and told his deputy to put two empty oyster cans in the place of it. It seems these oyster cans were placed in the safe and piles of gold placed around, and on the tops of them, in order to keep up the appearance of quantity. These remained in the safe till the first of September following.

Your committee are satisfied that the interest on the State indebtedness was not paid in gold, and that no large amount was paid in gold by Mr. Jones, to the creditors of the State between the first day of May 1862 and the time of his leaving the office and passing it over to the present incumbent. The gold seems to have disappeared from the safe, and the State has not derived any advantage from the premium which it commanded in the market, and its place seems to have been supplied by United States Treasury and State Bank of Iowa notes.

There is another subject not properly embraced in or covered by the report of the Treasurer or resolution of the House, which came to the knowledge of your committee, during the progress of their investigation, and to which they deem it their duty to direct the attention of the House.

It seems, from the testimony elicited in the examination, that the late State Treasurer, John W. Jones, was in the habit of redeeming large amounts of warrants, when presented by certain parties, out of the order of their issuance; and the books show that large amounts of warrants on the war and defense fund were frequently issued, presented by the parties to whom issued, and endorsed without payment; that they passed into the hands of these third parties, and were redeemed sometimes the same day, or a day or two afterwards.

Your committee have not been able to learn that Mr. Jones received or accepted any money from these favored parties in consideration for the preferences they seemed to enjoy.

It appears from the testimony of one witness, that he (witness) received at one time from Mr. Jones the sum of five thousand dollars for the purchase of warrants at a discount. The money paid to witness was taken by Jones out of the Treasurer's safe; the warrants to that amount bought by witness at four per cent. discount, and the profits divided equally, Jones receiving two per cent., with the affirmation that he looked upon it as a gift from witness.

It also appears on the books that the said witness had dealt in warrants to the amount of about fourteen thousand dollars. In his testimony he estimated the amount which Mr. Jones redeemed for him at a discount, exclusive of the five thousand before mentioned, at seven thousand dollars—in all, twelve thousand dollars.

The books of course show that all warrants were redeemed at their face. Your committee are very reluctantly forced to the conclusion that the late State Treasurer was engaged to a considerable extent in very unwarrantable speculations in the war and defense fund warrants of the State.

Your committee deem it but justice to the present incumbent of the Treasurer's office to say that they are fully satisfied that he has faithfully guarded the interests of the State, and has satisfactorily accounted for all the gold that has come in his hands, and that he has otherwise honestly and faithfully discharged his duties.

Your committee herewith submit the testimony of witnesses examined, and leave the whole subject to the disposition of the House, and recommend the passage of the following resolution with reference to it:

Resolved, That the above report of the committee on expenditures, and the accompanying testimony, or copies thereof, be submitted to the Governor and Attorney General, for them to take and direct such action in the premises as they may deem for the best interests of the State, and the facts will justify.

Mr. Moir moved that the Clerk of this House be directed to send a copy of the report of Mr. Parker with the accompanying resolution to John W. Jones at Oskaloosa. Carried.

The Standing Committee on Railroads to whom was referred sundry and divers petitions, memorials and remonstrances relating to Railroad matters, have instructed me to report the same back without recommendation.

S. G. MAGILL, Chairman.

Laid on the table.

The committee on the suppression of intemperance to whom had been referred numerous petitions and remonstrances for and against the repeal of the Prohibitory Liquor Law and the enactment of a law licencing the sale of intoxicating liquors, and also House File No. 55, "A bill for an Act to amend the law in reference to the sale of intoxicating liquors, providing for a more stringent law against the sale thereof; and also House File No. 140, "A bill for an Act to regulate and license the sale of intoxicating liquors," have had the same under consideration, and herewith report them back to the House with the recommendation that both of said bills be indefinitely postponed, and that no change be made in the existing law for the suppression of intemperance. Your committee have based their conclusions upon the reasons following:

First: That while we are fully aware that the present Prohibitory Liquor Law is not enforced in all parts of the State, we at the same time know that in some parts of the State it is enforced, and we believe that there is less intemperance to-day than before the passage of the law,—that drunkenness and the drinking of intoxicating liquors is less respectable and more disreputable now than then.

Upon the whole, we believe that considerable advancement has been made in the suppression of intemperance, and much good accomplished by the Prohibitory Liquor Law.

In view of these and other facts your committee are of the unanimous opinion that it would be unwise as well as impolitic to repeal this law and enact a license law instead. We believe that by so doing we should by one single act neutralize the progressive efforts of years; destroy all the good that has been accomplished; effectually discourage and demoralize the friends of temperance and humanity, and indirectly acknowledge that we are the hopeless victims of unbridled intemperance; that we can not control, but seek to make respectable by the sanctioning license of the State.

Secondly: There have been presented to this House, and referred to the committee, numerous signed remonstrances against the repeal of the liquor law and the enactment of a license law instead, from nearly every part of the State, outnumbering at least ten to one of the petitions which have been presented for the repeal of the law, the committee, therefore, independent of their own private views, as above expressed, feel constrained to recommend as they do, in obedience to the weight of the popular will as thus expressed.

With regard to making the law more stringent, your committee, for several reasons, are of the opinion that it would be impolitic, and not fraught with beneficial results to do this at present, and conclude this report with the recommendation that the law, for the present, be permitted to remain as it is, accomplishing whatever good it is able, until the progressive moral intelligence of the people shall have reached that standard when the law will be generally and thoroughly respected and enforced.

EDWARD. H. STILES, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives :

I should do injustice to my deep sense of obligation to you, if at the close of our labors I did not tender to you my most heartfelt thanks for the uniform and generous support you have given to me in the discharge of the arduous duties of the chair. It does not become me to speak, nor any one of us to judge of the amount of good our labors will confer upon the people of the State. Trusting that comparison with those who have preceded us, may not be unfavorable to ourselves as Legislators, I can say for myself, that I shall always esteem it as among the blessings of my life to have been so intimately associated with those whose labors have been so closely identified with the laws and progress of our State.

I rejoice, gentlemen, particularly, that while there has been wide difference of judgment as to the effect and wisdom of many of the measures that have been before us for consideration, no representatives could have risen more completely above mere partisan considerations and partisan ties than you have.

We part, gentlemen, while the dark cloud of war still lowers over our beloved country, but blessed be Him who was the trust of our fathers, and has been the trust of our race since the flood, the bow of promise for our country shines as clear in the heavens as does the form of that on which the promise of "seed time and harvest" is founded.

Wishing you, one and all, gentlemen, a safe return to your homes, I bid you farewell, and now announce the adjournment of the House without day.

Attest:

JACOB RICH, Chief Clerk.
