MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message was received from the Governor, by his Private Secretary.

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives:

The period fixed by the constitution for the biennial meeting of the General Assembly having arrived, I congratulate you upon the favorable auspices under which you meet. Our State has been greatly blessed and prospered since you last assembled. We have had favorable seasons and bountiful crops, and our commonwealth has been strengthened by a continual influx of a thrifty and enterprising class of people. While other parts of our country have suffered from the most disastrous conflagrations in the world's history, and while other lands have been terribly devastated by pestilence and famine, by wind and flood, we have been providentially spared these afflictions.

FINANCES—The report of the Auditor of State, which is before you, and that of the Treasurer of State, which is submitted herewith, for the fiscal term ending November 4th, 1871, shows a continued increase in the resources of the State. Upon comparison with the financial reports presented at the last General Assembly, it will be seen that there is a large increase in the amount yielded by the ordinary sources of revenue. Direct taxation, for instance, produced $184,244.11 more than in the previous term, although the levy in the later term was twenty per cent less than in the earlier. The revenue from railroads shows an increase of $19,364.71, notwithstanding a reduction for the last year, in the proportionate amount of revenue from this source coming into the State Treasury of sixty per cent; and the taxes collected from insurance companies indicate a gain of $28,627.87. The heavy payments by the general government during the two years ending November 1st, 1869, amounting to much the greater part of our remaining claim on account of expenses incurred by the State because of the war, reduced very materially the revenue to be expected from that source; hence the receipts therefrom during the last two years were nearly $300,000 less than during 1868 and 1869. The gross receipts of the revenue during the term were $1,769,522.91, which, with the balance in the treasury, November 1st, 1869, made the amount of available means during the term, $2,055,683.07. The expenditures were $1,973,942.23. Balance of general revenue in the treasury, November, 6th, 1871, $81,840.84. The warrants issued during the period amounted to $1,972,930.78, of which $666,615.74 were issued for the use and support of the various public institutions of the State; $626,031.29 were drawn for the erection, enlargement, and improvement of public buildings; and $58,264.24 went to objects of a special or extraordinary character, for which the legislature has at various times made appropriations—such as the Geological Survey and report, the encouragement of immigration, the reunion of Iowa soldiers, republication of Supreme Court reports, etc. The balance of the warrants issued, amounting to $622,019.51, very nearly represents the regular and ordinary expenses of the State government. These, it will be seen, constitute only a little more than one-third of the entire expenditures of the State.

I invite your attention to the recommendations of the financial officers of the State, whose long experience, whether in the legislative halls or in public office, gives additional value to their suggestions.

Among the valuable tables presented in the report of the Auditor of State is one setting forth the objects and amounts of taxation general and local, throughout the State, for the year 1870. From this we learn that the grand aggregate of the levies is \$9,371,685.76. The total valuation upon which this taxation was based was in the neighborhood of \$300,000,900, making the levy some $3\frac{1}{8}$ per cent. This is a heavy—not to say oppressive—rate of taxation. To be sure, it is based on a great undervaluation of property; upon actual value it would probably be about one and a quarter per cent,—certainly not more than one and a half. But this rate, it will be remembered, is an average one throughout the State, and implies, of course, a higher rate in some localities. In fact, a rate twice as high, does actually prevail in some parts of the State. It is true that much the larger part of this amount of taxation is levied by the people themselves, or by their immediate representatives in city, township, and school boards. Nevertheless, I suggest to the legislature the propriety of adopting a maximum limit of taxation to which any property may be subjected in one year. At present, the following are the maximum rates that may be levied by the proper authorities so far as the same are designated by law :

State	2 mills.
County, for ordinary revenue....	4 mills.
County, for schools.....	2½ mills.
County, for bridges	3 mills.
Township, for roads.....	5 mills.

Total 16½ mills.

In addition, school-boards are authorized to levy a tax for contingent fund, and one for teachers' fund, sufficient, with the annual apportionment, to sustain school twenty-four weeks in each year, and longer, if desired by sub-districts.

The people may vote additional taxes as follows :

County, for public buildings, etc	10 mills.
County, for high schools	5 mills.
Township, for railroads	50 mills.
School district, for erection of school-house.....	10 mills.
Sub-district, additional, for erection of school-house.	5 mills.

Total..... 80 mills.

The foregoing statements do not include taxes in cities and towns, where as high as twelve and a half mills may be raised for revenue, sinking-fund, and library, besides the five per cent. railroad tax which may be voted ; nor yet any special levies to meet interest and principal of bonded debt of county, town, or school-district. It will be seen, however, that as high as ninety-six and a half mills of taxes may be levied upon property within a given sub-district. In cities and towns, the levy may, of course, be much higher, partially because of municipal expenses, but mainly because of the fact that cities and towns may also tax themselves in aid of railroads, so that there may be two five per cent. levies—those of the township and the municipal corporation—upon the same property at the same time. This would make a possible aggregate of fifteen dollars and ninety cents upon a hundred dollars, aside from amount raised for teachers' and contingent funds, for the payment of judgments and on account of bonded indebtedness. I am personally cognizant of an independent district where, on account of two of these three items, a tax of three and a half per cent. has been levied for the year 1871. To my mind, five per cent. is as high a rate of taxation as should be levied upon any property in any one year, exclusive of amounts necessary on account of bonded indebtedness.

As a judicious step towards such limitation, I recommend the repeal of the acts of 1868 and 1870, allowing townships, &c., to tax themselves to aid in building railroads. Under these acts, or more properly that of 1870, the sum of $1,077,703.38 was levied in that year. It is fair to estimate that an equal amount was voted in 1871; in all, over $2,100,000.00. It is believed that most of this outlay has been well invested and will bring ample return in increased commercial facilities, influx of population, and development of resources, to the communities interested. Nevertheless, the policy is at best a questionable one, to be justified only because of the great benefit expected from it, to be retained only for a time, and by no means to become part of the permanent law of the State.

At the last session of the General Assembly a new act upon this subject was passed with greater restrictions, the act of 1868 having been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court. The constitutionality of the new act was also called in question; but it was sustained by the Supreme Court at its December term, 1870, in the case of Stewart vs. Supervisors of Polk county. At the same term, in the case of the McGregor & Sioux City Railroad Co. vs. Birdsall, the Court virtually overruled the former decision as to the act of 1868. Thus both statutes may now be considered operative; the later act not repealing the earlier, nor in conflict with it; although doubtless it was the intention of the Legislature that the new statute should supercede the other.

The revenue received from the railroads during the last two years amounted to $292,377.14, of which $90,171.88 was retained in the State treasury, the balance being paid to the counties, respectively, through which the road run. It is manifest that the counties now receiving the revenue from this source, also, enjoy, mainly, the benefits and advantages consequent upon the building of the roads. They are afforded by these arteries the speediest access to the markets of the world, and consequently the best prices for their products. On the contrary, those parts of the country which do not enjoy any of this revenue are deprived of all the facilities afforded by these great works of improvement, and are compelled to transport their products long distances to the railroad lines, and really pay tribute to the more fortunate localities. I would suggest, as a measure of justice to all parts of the State, that the entire proceeds of this tax be paid into the State treasury, believing such the most equitable disposition thereof that can be made. The increased revenue thus derived would be of service in the construction of the public buildings, and the improvements and the various institutions that will be needed during the coming two years.

INDEBTEDNESS.—The debt of the State, exclusive of bonds issued to the school-fund, remains as stated in my former message, viz.: $300,000, in war and defense bonds. This debt will become due in 1881. I recommend that authority be given, under proper restrictions, for the purchase of the bonds and the early extinguishment of the debt. The disposition I have suggested of the railroad taxes would materially assist in bringing about this consummation.

PUBLIC LANDS.—The report of the Register of the State Land Office is herewith submitted. It contains additional lists of lands granted by the General Government for various purposes. From this report, in connection with that from the same office two years ago, we find that the grants to the State for all purposes amount to 7,282,835.35 acres, of which 4,300,152.11 acres were for works of internal improvement under the acts of Congress of 1846, 1856, and 1864. In addition to this munificent gift, the Register reports that the railroads have received direct, from the general government, under the act of June 2, 1864, the amount of 597,996.24 acres, making a grand aggregate for railroads and the Des Moines River Improvement, in the State of Iowa, of 4,898,148.35 acres, or nearly fourteen per cent of the entire area of the State.

The Dubuque, Bellvue & Mississippi Railway Company having filed its acceptance of the provisions of chapter 73 of the acts of the last General Assembly, I caused to be selected the amount of lands designated by such chapter for the construction of the Tete des Morts branch of the Dubuque & Sioux City Railroad, and approved such list September 22, 1870. This road was completed during the past month, and I have caused patents to be issued for the lands referred.

On the 21st of October, 1870, upon proper evidence, I certified to the Department of the Interior, the completion of the C. R. & M. R. R. Co. of a piece of road from Pearl street, Lyons City, to the Chicago, Iowa and Nebraska Railroad, within the limits of the city of Clinton.

On the 12th day of November, 1870, I certified to the same department, the completion of two sections of the Iowa Falls and Sioux City Railroad; and on the 9th of March, 1871, I further certified to the completion of that road entire from Iowa Falls to Sioux City. The certificate being satisfactory to the Department of the Interior, I caused patents to be issued to said company for its pro rata share of the Dubuque and Pacific Grant, save the land to which settlers had made proof of claims.

The proper officers having filed with me the necessary evidence, I, upon the 5th day of December, 1870, certified to the completion of the McGregor & Missouri River Railway to Algona.

The Des Moines Valley Railroad Company, having completed its road to Fort Dodge, on the east side of the Des Moines river, in the month of December, 1870, of accordance with chapter 57, acts of the Twelfth General Assembly, I caused patents to be issued to that company for the lands reserved by said act for the construction of the road above Des Moines, and the payment to it of the moneys received for lands sold S. H. Taft under Chapter 108 of the Acts of 1864. I also caused patents to be issued to Mr. Taft.

The whole amount of lands patented during the biennial term amounted to 404,000 acres.

COMMON SCHOOLS.—The very able report of the late Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be before you. I earnestly commend to your attention the thoughtful and elaborate articles upon the various subjects coming within the purview of the duties of that officer, as well as the suggestive statistical information, presented in the report. The number of districts is 1594—an increase of 132 in the two years since the last report. There are 7,841 schools against 7,009 two years ago. The number of youth within the school ages is 461,258, of whom 342,440, or 74 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent, were enrolled during the past year; and the average attendance was 211,726, or nearly 46 per cent. Two years ago the number enrolled amounted to less than 71 per cent; and the average attendance equalled only 42.65 per cent of the enumeration. The constant and steady increase of the number of those enjoying school-privileges, as compared with the whole number entitled to them, I regard as one of the strongest evidences that our beneficent system of common schools is continually enlarging the sphere of its usefulness, and gradually bringing within the scope of its inestimable privileges, all the youth of the State. The value of school-houses and apparatus is \$6,916,490.16. The increase in the amount of capital thus invested during the terms has been \$1,541,947.66, or about twenty-nine per cent.

I cordially commend to your consideration the forcible remarks of the Superintendent upon the sub-district system, and unite with him in urging its abolition. I am fully persuaded that the school-districts should be substantially co-extensive with the civil townships, incorporated towns, and cities; in other words, that there should not be any distinct territorial organization other than those well-defined political divisions with which we, in common with the people of most of the States, are so familiar. The system of sub-districts, as it prevails in Iowa, is peculiar to this State, and was adopted as a compromise between the small district plan formerly in vogue, and the more modern one of township organization now so generally adopted throughout the North. In my opinion, it has lasted long enough to establish the superiority of the system whose adoption it impedes, and to furnish another illustration of the general inutility of compromises in establishing anything permanent.

I cannot omit calling the attention of the legislature to the timely suggestions of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, looking to the establishment of a system of graded normal schools at convenient points throughout the State. All will acknowledge the necessity of professional training on the part of the teacher for the duties and responsibilities of the school-room, and the actual advantage, in the way of true economy, to our public schools, of supplying them with teachers formally prepared for their work by proper normal drill. There can no longer be any doubt that these desirable objects can be best effected through the instrumentality of the normal school. For years this branch of our public school system has been sadly overlooked, more, as it seems to me, because there was not at hand a scheme or normal instruction that would commend itself as in the main adapted to the necessities of the case, and that would not at the same time make extravagant demands on the munificence of the State. In both these respects, I think the plan submitted will meet with the approval of the legislature.

The claims of the schools in our rural districts, and the lower departments of our graded system, to a larger share of the fostering supervision of the State, as furnishing the mass of our citizens with all the education they ever acquire, and with sufficient, if well imparted and well received, for the practical necessities of life, are made prominent in this scheme, which proposes to bring the primary normal school within reach of the teachers in these grades. It will appear from the exhaustive paper on that subject in the Superintendent's report, that the plan of primary normal schools, tributary to some central higher institution of the kind, may be so arranged in details, as to involve no great expense to the State; and I think I may with confidence say, that such facilities for the training of our teachers will refund to our school system, and to the general weal of our commonwealth, such results as will be more than an equivalent for the money thus expended.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.—My official relation to the State University as President of the Board of Trustees, and afterwards of the Board of Regents, has afforded me ample opportunity to become acquainted with its condition and claims, and I feel justified in bearing my unqualified testimony to its very great value, as standing at the head of our noble system of public education. My personal observation, for the last four years, fully confirms the opinion of numerous competent judges, that the courses of study; the learning, experience, fidelity, and zeal of the instructors; the proficiency in scholarship and the orderly conduct of the students; the controlling idea and general plan of the University; its adaptation to the educational wants of the people; and its progressive character, entitle it to a high rank among the institutions of its class in the northwestern part of our country. The reports of the Board of Regents, and the President of the University, contain a full and detailed account of its affairs, and will afford information that will enable you to judge for yourselves concerning its whole organization, the facilities it offers for the highest mental culture, and the extent to which those facilities are availed of, by the youth of our own and other States. I earnestly recommend that you give these reports a thorough examination, and am confident that you will be convinced by them of the wisdom of securing the continued prosperity and enlargement of the University, by a liberal appropriation for its support during the next two years. I would also recommend the passage of a bill, providing, from the revenue of the State, a permanent income for this great and important institution of learning, so that the Regents and Faculty may be able to carry out every reasonable plan for its improvement in all its departments and interests, free from the embarrassments arising from the uncertainty of biennial appropriations.

Soon after the last meeting of the General Assembly, Rev. Dr. Black closed his short but successful career as President of the University. The Board of Regents was fortunate in securing for his successor a citizen of our own State, of great worth and eminent ability, who entered upon his duties at the close of the last year of the University.

PERMANENT SCHOOL FUND.—The indebtedness of the general revenue to the school fund has increased during the fiscal term $8,558.14, being the amount of loss audited in said fund in the several counties of the State. The whole amount now held by the general revenue is $243,056.15, earning for the fund eight per cent. per annum. The first named sum, the constitution requires, must remain a permanent charge against the State; and I believe such should be the case with this entire indebtedness to the school fund, deeming it to be the best investment of the same that can be made. The gross amount of the fund in $3,161,483.01, an increase of $228,856.97 since the report of 1869. The income derived from this fund during the past two years, and apportioned among the counties, amounts to $464,467.38, or about 15½ per cent. of the fund.

During the past two years, with the advice and consent of the Census Board, under chapter 32, acts Ninth General Assembly, I disposed of 218.13 acres of land in Decatur and Polk counties for $3,141.30, averaging $14.40 per acre; and three lots in the city of Keokuk, for the sum of $1,100. These lands and lots were a part of the securities for the Eads' loans. The constitution of the State provides that "all losses to the Permanent School or University Fund of this State which shall have been occasioned by the defalcation, mismanagement, or fraud of the agents or officers controlling and managing the same, shall be audited by the proper authorities of the State." Under this provision, as before stated, the sum of $8,558.14 has been funded on account of losses since the adoption of the present constitution. A question has arisen: whether this provision is intended to include defalcations happening under the former constitution of the State. The language may be so construed, yet it is not without doubt. If in the opinion of the General Assembly it may be constitutionally done, I would recommend that all losses to the fund since the admission of the State, be assumed by the State, and interest paid thereon. And here I would suggest that the rate of interest paid by the State upon this class of debt be increased to ten per cent. The law now provides that money loaned to parties from this fund, since July 3, 1870, shall draw that rate, and has always required it upon notes given for purchase of school lands.

THE LIBRARY.—The report of this officer shows an increase in the number of volumes in the library of about 4,000, comprising a very full collection of English, Scotch, and other law reports, as well as valuable treatises and text-books. I recommend that the fees received for notarial commissions and for commissioners, be appropriated for the support, improvement, and enlargement of the library. I would also recommend that the law in reference to the library be revised, and a reasonable compensation be allowed the librarian.

On the 8th day of September last, the Librarian, JOHN CARPENTER MERRILL, departed this life after a short illness. He was a young man of much promise, of great energy, and of high integrity. Combined with these traits, his knowledge of books and love of order made him eminently useful in the office intrusted to him. He re-arranged and thoroughly systematized the library, making it a model of order and neatness, and had established a high reputation as one of the most efficient public librarians in the country. In his early death, the State lost an excellent officer, and the community a worthy young citizen.

MILITARY MATTERS.—The present militia law of this State, so as far as a well-organized militia is concerned, is almost a dead letter. We should have a small militia force, well organized, thoroughly equipped, and with efficient officers and well drilled men, ready for any emergency in State or nation. Fifty companies, perhaps, with fifty men each, in as many localities, the members required to drill a limited number of days in each year, and paid for the time spent therein, would, in my estimation, give us a force at once ample and efficient. The details of any plan would be subject to your deliberation and action. The suggestions of the Adjutant-General, upon this subject, in his report herewith transmitted, as well as in former reports, are worthy of consideration. Exemption from jury duty and poll-tax should be extended to active members of military companies, as well as to those of fire companies.

The suggestions of the Adjutant-General in relation to the publication of a general index of all Iowa soldiers, and the cemetery records, are submitted to your consideration and determination.

Application has been made by the War Department for the consent of the State of Iowa to the purchase by the United States, of the National Soldiers' Cemetery, at Keokuk, described "as fractional block No. 107, and lots 1, 2, 3, and 4, of block No. 108, in "Mason's Lower Addition" to that city. I recommend that the General Assembly grant the consent asked.

In the laying out of these grounds, space has been left in the center for the erection of a monument to the gallant dead who repose there. As over eight hundred Iowa soldiers, belonging to all parts of the State, lie buried in the cemetery, it has been thought well that the State should erect the proposed monument. I submit the matter for such action as you may deem advisable.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE GENERAL GOVERNMENT.—On the 5th day of February, 1870, I received at the hands of Colonel John N. Dewey, commissioner to adjust war and school-fund claims against the government, and paid over to the Treasurer of State, the sum of $85,079.64, on account of claims for expenses incurred in raising troops to aid the federal government in suppressing rebellion, filed January 7, 1869. The aggregate amount received from the federal government because of these claims, (including those on account of the "Ink-pa-du-tah raid," at Spirit Lake, in 1857,) is $952,741.27.

On the 11th day of March, 1870, I received, through the same channel, the sum of $20,886.51, and on the 3d day of August, 1871, the further sum of $15,250.16, on account of the five per cent. due the State of the receipts from sales of public lands. For these sums, I hold the Treasurer's receipts.

The report of the Commissioner, submitted herewith, shows that the remaining claim on account of the "Ink-pa-du-tah raid," amounting to $871.84, has been recovered; and that of the claim on account of payments to officers and men of the First Iowa Cavalry, $20,266.78, has been allowed, and with the former sum placed to the credit of the State. Two years ago the Commissioner thought it not impossible to collect within ten per cent. of the gross amount claimed. This point has now almost been reached, there remaining not yet allowed only $116,874.89, or rather less than eleven per cent. of the aggregate claim; and the Commissioner hopes to obtain between $40,000 and $50,000 more. Whether this amount be obtained or not, the State has abundant reason to be satisfied with the success of this commission.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS.—The reports of the Trustees and officers of the various public institutions and Boards of the State will be laid before you as soon as printed. These will inform you as to the workings and needs of the respective public charities and enterprises. In connection herewith, I would state that I have asked the presiding officers of several of the institutions to prepare addresses to be delivered before the members of the General Assembly during the session, upon subjects connected with their respective charges, if it shall please the two houses of the legislature to second my request by extending the necessary invitation. In my opinion, no better opportunity can be afforded the members of the legislature (except by personal inspection) for obtaining a knowledge of the workings of our various institutions.

BLIND.—The number of pupils at the Institution for the Education of the Blind, during the term, was 125—an increase of 43 over number attending the previous term. Of this number, 65 were admitted during the two years—about twice as many as during any previous term. Since the institution was founded, 248 persons have enjoyed its advantages, and been more or less fitted to care for themselves in life.

The crowded condition of the institution is forcibly depicted in the report of the Trustees. The necessity for the enlargement of the building by the erection of the north wing, would seem to be urgent. The sum of $100,000 is asked by the Board for the purpose of constructing, heating, and furnishing this addition to the building. The superintendent also suggests an allowance for raised maps, for apparatus for use in the study of physiology, and for a printing press. I particularly commend to your attention the remarks of that officer upon the last named topic.

The expenses of the institution during the term were $49,007.47. The expenditures for improvements ordered by the General Assembly were $29,633.65 ; and for the Industrial Home $649.36. The support of this institution is provided for by the payment from the State treasury of the sum of forty dollars per quarter for each pupil, and for current expenses of the further sum of $8,000 per annum. An Industrial Home was provided for by the last General Assembly; but owing to the large number pressing for admission into the school, only six could be received into the Home during the term, and still less, it is thought, can be accommodated during the next two years.

I would suggest that the General Assembly fix definitely the name of this institution. It is called in the act organizing it the "Asylum of the Blind," but in most subsequent acts it is incidentally denominated the "Institution for the Education of the Blind." The latter, or a shorter title with the same significance, would be preferable. "Asylum" is evidently not a proper designation.

INSTITUTION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB.—In the month of December, 1870, the school of the Institution of the Deaf and Dumb opened in the new building at Council Bluffs, with ninety-one pupils in attendance. The whole number in the school during the two years was 119—an increase of seven over the previous term.

The State contributes to the general support and current expenses of this Institution the same amount pro rata and annually as to that of the blind. This appropriation drew from the State treasury during the past two years $39,620. The expenses for the same time were $42,914.13. The report of the Trustees and Superintendent represent a condition of the building not favorable to a high degree of comfort or economy. I recommend to your attention the remarks of the Trustees thereon. This badly finished structure affords an unfavorable commentary upon the contract system in erecting public buildings: a commentary which is borne out by the history of many similar undertakings in our own and other States. Appropriations are asked by the Board of $10,000 for out-houses, gas-house, furniture, &c., and of $5,000 to be refunded, being amount expended for furniture, out of funds of the school; likewise the sum of $100,000 for finishing the other wing of the building, and for grading the grounds. The Board also deem the appropriation for current expenses too small, and ask that the same be enlarged to twelve thousand dollars per annum.

The expense attending the construction of this building amounted to $144,856.07. To this sum must be added the amount due the contractor, viz.: $14,940.04, less deductions for unfinished and imperfect work. To meet whatever may be found thus due the contractor there is an unexpended appropriation of $15,143.93.

HOSPITALS FOR THE INSANE. The grounds of the Hospital for the Insaue at Mt. Pleasant have been enlarged by the purchase of some forty-eight acres of land adjoining. The improvements provided for by the last General Assembly, have been satisfactorily made. The land and improvements cost $40,275.62. The current expenses for the term amounted to $217,679.32. The number admitted to the Hospital during the term was 520, and the average present, 441.45. At the close of the term there were 510 under treatment; and this number has since been increased to 518. When it is remembered that the building is intended to accommodate less than 300 patients, the overcrowded condition of the house becomes at once apparent. This state of affairs will continue until the building at Independence is ready for occupancy. I commend to attention the able report of the Superintendent, and would respectfully ask for it a careful examination. His suggestion of a separate institution for the epileptic and the hopelessly insane, I deem especially worthy of your consideration. The Board of Trustees ask the sum of $27,900 for various improvements and for contingencies.

The building at Independence progressed rapidly until the appropriation was exhausted. Three sections of the north wing, the engine-house, and the rear center building are now covered and inclosed, and the foundation and basement walls of the remaining section are up. The foundation of the chimney is laid, and the air air-ducts are nearly finished. The outlay since the previous report has amounted to $231,551.44. From personal inspection, I am satisfied that the work on this building has been well done.

To prepare this Hospital for the reception of patients, it will be necessary not only to complete the parts already commenced but to construct the main center building. To do this, it is estimated, will require $200,000. In view of the urgent demand for the early completion of this building sufficiently for the reception of patients, I would recommend the immediate passage of a joint resolution, authorizing the Commissioners to employ such labor as may be profitably used during the present winter months. This action would continue the work until an appropriation could be made and become available.

I have recently received the resignation of Hon. Geo. W. Bemis, one of the Commissioners appointed by act of the last General Assembly. It being so near the time of your session, I have made no appointment of a successor.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.—The State Agricultural College, during the past two years, has made good progress toward perfecting its facilities for educational work. In that time the farm has been greatly improved by fencing and bringing into cultivation several hundred acres more of land; by additional buildings, wells, and implements; and by increasing the herd of blooded stock; thus greatly enhancing its value as an experimental and model farm. An orchard and an experimental garden have been established; a workshop erected, and furnished with tools and machinery; a chemical laboratory constructed, and fitted up with apparatus; and a beginning made in collecting physical apparatus. The library and museum have received considerable accessions, though yet quite inadequate to meet all demands. The grounds around the College building are greatly improved by the construction of drives and the planting of trees and shrubs. In all these improvements the progress has been quite as rapid as the means at hand would allow.

The income of the College, derived entirely from the Congressional endowment fund, amounts to between $30,000 and $35,000 per year. This fund cannot legally be applied for any other purpose than the "support and maintenance" of the College, and its use for the construction or repair of buildings is strictly prohibited.

The first senior class, numbering thirty, organized last fall, will graduate the present year. During the two years past, the attendance has been above two hundred students a year, and many had to be refused admittance on account of want of room. By the extension of the present building there will be accommodations, next spring, for about fifty more students, which, with the facilities for boarding outside the building, will enable the institution to receive an aggregate of two hundred and fifty. No doubt the institution would be filled if it had conveniences for double that number. In order that the College may go on with the work begun, some further State aid seems desirable. Additional buildings for students' rooms are required, to accommodate the many who are asking for admission. There is also a necessity for a physical laboratory, and for extending and enlarging the present chemical laboratory; for additional professors' houses; for further facilities for orchard, garden, and farm improvements; for larger gas-works; and for some provision for procuring an inexhaustible supply of pure water for the buildings. These enlargements and additions, the Board estimates, will call for at least $100,000.

SOLDIERS' ORPHANS' HOMES.—Eleven hundred and twenty-eight children have enjoyed the benefit of these institutions, within the last two years; and 1930 since their foundation. The number present, November 1st, was 718, from 63 counties. The health of the Homes has been very good, there having been only two deaths in an average attendance of 763. The grounds of the several Homes are becoming better improved every year. New buildings have been erected, among them one for chapel and school-rooms at Cedar Falls. The State contributes ten dollars per month for each orphan actually supported, which amounted, during the term, to $183,490. The support of the orphans, and expenses of repairs, improvements, etc., for which special appropriations were made, for the same period, amounted to $211,324.67. The Board asks appropriations for additional buildings at Glenwood, and for improvements, repairs, and furniture at all the Homes.

PENITENTIARY OF THE STATE.—The general support of the Penitentiary during the past two years, cost $64,139.77. Of this amount $2,127.59 was drawn directly or indirectly from the State treasury. In the previous term about one fifth of the entire amount needed for general support, was drawn from the treasury, and in that ending October 31, 1867, about two-fifths. As at present managed, therefore, it will be seen that the prison gradually approaches a self-sustaining basis. The sum of $8.33 per month is allowed for each prisoner out of the State treasury, if needed. (Less than fifty cents per month was actually drawn during the last term.) The officers' and guards' salaries are fixed by law, and paid from the State treasury. The entire amount contributed by the State for these several items, and on account of special appropriations, during the last two years, was $46,679.62.

The number of convicts incarcerated in the Penitentiary, Nov. 1, 1871, was 273; an increase of 61 since Nov. 1, 1869. A similar increase within the next two years will exhaust the present enlarged capacity of the prison. The question, then, urges itself upon your consideration, whether the present building shall be enlarged, or a site obtained for another prison, and an edifice commenced thereon forthwith. The State owns, at Fort Madison, a piece of ground to the westward of the prison-wall, to the extent of 235 feet. The Warden suggests that this piece, with 150 feet more, to be obtained by purchase, be included within the prison-walls. This extension, that officer estimates, will cost $23,000. To enlarge the cell-room of the present building, which is necessary if anything at all be undertaken at Fort Madison, it is estimated, will cost $21,000. No doubt these extensions, when completed, will answer the demands of the State for years; but it is believed that true economy lies in the direction of a second penitentiary building. At best, the improvement suggested at Fort Madison is only an expedient to bridge over the difficulty for a time. Sooner or later there will be renewed demand for additional prison room. Meantime, the expenses incurred in conveying convicts to the present distant Penitentiary will continue to bear very unequally upon the several counties, and will be larger in the aggregate than it would be were there another prison, more centrally located. I would, therefore, renew the recommendation of my former message, that a site for a new penitentiary be selected, and would further suggest that provision be made for the erection of suitable buildings thereon. It is believed that a very small appropriation—not to exceed $10,000—would be sufficient for the work which could be done in two years, convict labor being largely, almost entirely, employed upon it.

Under the contract for the labor of the convicts made pursuant to the act of 1864, the contractors were required to supply labor for only one hundred and fifty convicts. A modification of this contract enlarged the number to one hundred and seventy-five. This number was exceeded more than two years ago; but, as many were employed in various ways about the kitchen, dining-hall, and other appointments of the prison, there was then little or no surplus or unemployed labor. The appropriation by the last General Assembly for the increase of the number of cells furnished employment for such as there was for several months. Afterward, until February last, from fifty to seventy-five of the convicts were entirely unemployed. At that time, I made a contract for their labor, running to the first day of the present month, with Messrs. Soule, Kretsinger & Co., the present contractors for prison labor; a copy of this contract will be found in the Warden's report. A provision for this surplus, which is now again unemployed, will require your earliest attention.

The success of the humanizing and elevating influences at the prison has been most gratifying. The act of 1857, providing, as a reward for good behavior, a specified diminution of the term of punishment, has an excellent effect upon the conduct of the prisoners. Every conduct is of course anxious for as early a termination of his imprisonment as possible, and will naturally do everything, and leave undone nothing, that will tend to hasten his release. This natural inclination increases to anxiety as the period of deliverance approaches, lest he should lose the reward already earned. I attribute the admirable order which prevails at the penitentiary largely to the beneficent workings of this statutory provision. The revival of the Sunday-school a few years ago has been another efficient agency for good; and the library, the deprivation of the privileges of which is one of the modes of punishment, does its share toward the betterment of the prisoners. A judicious enlargement of such beneficent influences is well worthy the consideration of the enlightened legislator. In this direction I would suggest the establishment of an evening school, under the charge of a competent instructor. A reading-room might also be introduced as an additional reward for good behavior. It cannot be doubted that a part of the time between work hours and bed-time might be very profitably spent in reading and study, resulting in great benefit, and leading in many cases to thorough reformation. Thus the State, while holding every man to a strict account for his crime, would yet place it in his power to return to society a better man. The subject of introducing these accessories as a reward for good behavior, I heartily commend to your early and favorable action.

The subject of prisons and prison discipline has attracted much attention of late, so much so, that it has been deemed advisable to hold a national convention to consider the subject. Accordingly, a convention met at Cincinnati, Ohio, in the month of October, 1870. To this body I deputed the Warden of the penitentiary to represent the State of Iowa. The deliberations of the convention, which was very largely attended, and whose sittings were protracted through several days, were of the most interesting character, and brought out much valuable information upon the various subjects connected with the management of prisons.

On the 31st day of December, 1874, the present contract for the main body of the prison labor will expire. Prior to that time, I would suggest that inquiries be instituted for the purpose of ascertaining the best mode of utilizing the labor of the convicts, with regard to both the financial and reformatory aspects of the question; and would recommend that a commission be created empowered to investigate the whole subject of prison management, discipline, and employment, as well as the means for effecting the largest amount of permanent benefit to the convicts; such commission to report to the next session of the General Assembly.

It is stipulated in the contract for the prison labor that the State shall furnish the necessary shop-room. Some time since the contractors built a foundry and an additional shop. These additions to the prison conveniences were needed, and consent was given by the State authorities for their erection, the contractors to await an appropriation by the General Assembly for their reimbursement. I recommend that such appropriation, to the extent of the amount found due the contractors, be made at your present session.

REFORM SCHOOL.—The number of inmates of the school at the close of the term was eighty-five, an increase of forty-five since the previous report. The school is full, and at one time the Trustees were compelled for a while to stop receiving any into the institution. A separate house for girls is imperatively needed. This state of affairs will remind you of the advisability of taking steps towards a permanent location and edifice. The expense of such edifice the Trustees place at $75,000.

The expenses of the school for the term, including payment of note, with interest, given in former term, amounted to $28,112.20. The State contributed $22,000 to the income of the school, to which the farm, and other sources of revenue, added $5,324.92. The expenses thus exceed the income $787.28, and this notwithstanding what I deem the most rigid economy on the part of the Board and officials of the School. I am well satisfied that a small increase in the appropriation would be a judicious expenditure.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—The State Historical Society continues its laudable work of collecting, preserving, and publishing the records of the settlement of the State and territory, and the deeds of our pioneers. As these early adventurers pass away, this work becomes more and more important. The Society receives an annual appropriation $500; notwithstanding which, it finds its treasury, at the date of its report, overdrawn to the amount of $33.97. The "Annals of Iowa," the Society's very excellent quarterly, the Board say may hereafter be considered a self-sustaining periodical. In order to extend the area of the Society's usefulness, the Board asks an appropriation of $3,000 per annum, and the erection of a fire-proof building for the preservation of its valuable collections.

IMMIGRATION.—The General Assembly, at its last session, made provision for a Board of Immigration, appropriating therefor the sum of $5,000. Immediately upon appointment, the Board entered upon its labors. The small amount of the appropriation prevented any extensive system of canvassing our own and foreign countries by means of agents; and not to exceed $500 was used in this manner. The effective work of the Board was mainly done through the instrumentality of a pamphlet compiled, under its direction, by its Secretary, Mr. A. R. Fulton, entitled, "Iowa the Home for Immigrants. Of this work, an able and invaluable compend of the resources of the State, sixty-five thousand copies, each containing a miniature map of Iowa, were printed, in the English, German, Dutch, Swedish, and Danish languages, and circulated widely throughout our own and other countries. A copy of this pamphlet was sent to every newspaper in the United States; this was followed by notices more or less extended in many of the leading journals of the country. The Board also distributed a great quantity of circulars containing information concerning the State. In addition, the Secretary has written several hundred letters, many of which have been published in Eastern newspapers. Several persons have acted without pay as agents for the Board, and some of them, I have reason to believe, with great efficiency. The several railroad companies, having land-grants, particularly the Burlington & Missouri River R. R. Co., have co-operated with the Board in its efforts. The railroads running through the capital, the B. & M. and Pennsylvania Central railroads, and the Hamburg Steamship line freighted the pamphlets free of charge.

The benefit derived from these efforts, it is believed, has amply repaid the outlay. Aside from the more manifest indications of accomplished results, in the shape of colonies which have been planted, in different parts of the State, that almost unprecedented growth of the newer counties of the west gives evidence that great work has been done.

The matter of affording increased facilities for emigrants coming to the West, as well as to protect them from the impositions so constantly practiced upon them at the seaports, furnished the occasion for a national convention, which, in accordance with a call signed by the Governors of Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas, Michigan, and Wisconsin, met at Indianapolis, Indiana, November 23d, 1870. At this convention, the Governor of six States and Territories were present, and twenty-two States, two territories, and the District of Columbia, were represented. Iowa was represented by several members of the Board of Immigration, its Secretary, and Mr. Louis A. Ochs, of Davenport. The Convention, after a thorough discussion of the subject, adopted, by a nearly unanimous vote, resolutions favoring legislation by Congress to prevent actual abuses and frauds, and protect the true interests of the emigrant; requesting the opening of negotiations with foreign countries, so as to secure joint jurisdiction upon emigrant ships; condemning all schemes combinations, and monopolies oppressive to emigrants; favoring a federal "Bureau of Immigration;" and declaring for the abolition of all capitation taxes collected from emigrants. Bills have been framed and presented to Congress in accordance with these resolutions, and the indorsement of the legislatures of the States interested, has been asked.

THE NEW CAPITOL.---The act of the last General Assembly providing for the erection of a new State capitol appropriated the sum of $150,000, for commencing the work. The Commissioners having charge of the matter, in accordance with a call issued by me in pursuance of the act, held their first meeting, May 25, 1870. One of their first and most important duties was to avail themselves of the information requisite for the adoption of a suitable plan for the building. After visiting and examining several of the buildings of other States, erected for similar purposes, and a careful inspection and comparison of the plans submitted, they were enabled to adopt one which, it is believed, combines, in an eminent degree, the elements of convenience, taste, and beauty, requisite in an edifice of that character, and yet the cost of which shall not exceed the maximum amount fixed by the law, to-wit: a million and a half of dollars. In the adoption of this plan, the Commissioners availed themselves of the advice of Edward Clark, Esq., architect of the national capitol, a person of eminent ability. Messrs. Cochrane & Piquenard, of Illinois, were selected as the architects to prepare the drawings in detail of the plan as adopted, and to supervise the construction of the building.

The next important duty, and one involving the greatest responsibility, was the choice of suitable material for the foundation. Steps were taken to obtain reliable information of the capacity, as well as the quality of the product, of all the principal stone quarries in the State. To this end, most of the quarries were visited by committees, and samples from over thirty of them were caused to be submitted to practical and scientific tests. Although these investigations established the fact that our State is supplied with an abundance of building material of good quality, yet it was soon ascertained that only a few quarries were sufficiently developed to supply at once, and as fast as needed, the quantity of stone required for such a work. From the large number of competing quarries in the State, the duty of making a judicious choice, was soon found to be a task of great difficulty. I can truly say that I believe it has been the earnest desire of the Commissioners to economize the funds placed at their disposal, and at the same time, to avail themselves of the best material for the work, to be found in the State. The facts developed, and the information elicited, will doubtless prove of great practical advantage in the choice of material for the future prosecution of the work.

During the latter part of the year 1870, contracts for excavating the foundation, and for the delivery of sand, were made. The excavation was mostly done during the fall and winter. A supply of sand was delivered sufficient for the greater portion of the entire work. The early months of the past season were spent in the details of preparation for the stone work, and in putting in the concrete foundation. In order to provide for the convenient and economical delivery of the material, a branch railway of nearly a mile in length was constructed, connecting the capitol grounds with the railroads running into the city.

On the 12th day of May, 1871, a contract was entered into with Messrs. Tuttle & Robertson, of Des Moines, for furnishing the stone for the foundation, at the price of $10.25 per cubic yard for dimension stone, and $5.75 per cubic yard for block rubble. Under this contract the first car load of stone was delivered on the ground, June 15, 1871, but owing to the delay incident to the opening of a new quarry, and its subsequent failure to yield stone of size and quality as required, the contractors were prevented from delivering stone as fast as needed. The first stone was not laid in the foundation until the 17th of August. On the 23d of November, the formal proceedings of laying the corner stone took place, at which time, in consequence of the severity of the weather, the work was suspended for the season. At this time the contractors were furnishing stone from a new quarry as fast as needed, and the work was being prosecuted vigorously. Had the season for laying stone been protracted, as we usually have reason to expect, nearly the entire foundation walls would doubtless have been laid. As it is, about three fourths of the outside foundation walls are laid, on solid concrete masonry, two feet in thickness.

For full details of the work already done, reference may be had to the report of the Commissioners soon to be submitted. The report will show that at the date of January 1, 1872, there had been expended of the appropriation, the sum of $119,997.62, leaving a balance on hand of $30,002.38. With the necessary buildings, machinery, and a railway to the capitol grounds, already provided, future operations on the building may be resumed without the delay attending the work heretofore.

In view of the importance of the work, and the absolute necessity that the building be pressed steadily forward to completion, or at least to a condition suitable for occupancy, I would earnestly recommend that the present General Assembly make a certain fixed annual appropriation, say of not less than $150,000---the amount to be increased as the resources of the State may admit, and as the stage of the work may require, and not to exceed in the aggregate the estimated cost of the building. This would save the Commissioners much embarrassment in making their arrangements and contracts.

I would suggest that the law creating this Board be so modified as to reduce the number of its members to three or not to exceed five; that they be selected for their peculiar fitness for the work without regard to locality; and that their salary be sufficiently liberal to enable them to devote all their time to the duties of their office. I would also recommend that both political parties be represented upon the Board.

Below I present a summary of the amounts deemed necessary by the Boards and officers having charge of State institutions and public works, for new buildings, for repairs, and for improvements requiring special appropriations. Some of the objects for which the several amounts are asked, however desirable, may be delayed until the next General Assembly shall meet; but most of them, I think, should receive immediate attention. It is for the General Assembly, whose members are just from the people, and familiar with their views and feelings, to say how much shall be expended for these various objects.

The Auditor of State, in a very acceptable table, estimates the income for the two years ending November 2, 1873, at $1,972,400, and the expenditures at $1,341,500, leaving towards meeting the above mentioned special demands, and any other for which the legislature may deem it advisable to provide, the sum of only $630,900.

THE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.—The Report of the late State Geologist was published last winter in two very elegant volumes, and circulated extensively in our own and other countries as required by the act authorizing its publication. It has called forth high encomiums for its scientific and general excellence from eminent authorities both in Europe and America. It is to be regretted, however, that the survey could not have been completed before the publication of the work; and I hope it will be resumed at no distant day, and carried through to completion.

RAILROADS.—I have before mentioned the completion of the entire line of railroad from Dubuque to Sioux City, and of its Tete des Morts Branch, as well as the construction of the McGregor and Missouri River Railway to Algona, and of the Des Moines Valley road to Fort Dodge. In addition to these land grant roads the Burlington, Cedar Rapids, and Minnesota Railroad is now in operation, from Burlington to Nora Springs, in Floyd county. The Central Railroad of Iowa has been extended on the south to Albia, and on the north to Northwood, Worth county. The St. Louis and Cedar Rapids Railroad is completed to Ottumwa, and is operated by the North Missouri Railroad Company, making a direct route from that city to St. Louis. The Burlington and Southwestern Company has built a line from Fort Madison to Bloomfield, connecting at the former place with Burlington and at the latter with Moulton. The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Company has extended its road from Washington through the counties of Jefferson, Wapello, Appanoose and Wayne, into the State of Missouri, and through that State to Leavenworth, Kansas. The Burlington and Missouri River Railroad Company has built a branch from Red Oak Junction, in Montgomery county, to Hamburg, in Fremont county, a distance of thirty-nine miles. The Davenport and St. Paul Railroad has been built from the first named city to Maquoketa, in Jackson county, a distance of forty-three miles, and to Wyoming, in Jones county, a distance of fifty-three miles. The Iowa Midland Railroad is in operation from Clinton via. Maquoketa to Anamosa; and the Sabula, Ackley and Dakota Railroad is built from the former place through Jackson and Clinton counties, to Oxford Mills, in Jones county, a distance of some fifty miles.

On the 31st of December, 1868, there were 1448 miles of railroad in the State, and on the 31st of December, 1870, there were 2783 miles, an increase of 1335 miles in two years. There are now 3000 miles of railroad in operation in the State. According to the estimate of the Treasurer of State, the value of the property now in railroads may be put at rather more than $80,000,000, or about one-eleventh of the entire value of all the property in the State. The magnitude of this interest is now so formidable as in my opinion to demand some measure of official supervision. At present, railroad companies, upon the completion of their lines, are required to report to the legislature, stating "the amount paid in," the entire expenses of construction, "the length of the road, the number of planes on it, with their inclination to the mile, the greatest curvature of the road, the average width of the grade, and the number of ties per mile." I am not aware that any railroad company in the State has complied with this requirement; certainly very few, if any, have done so.

Each railroad is also required to report, under oath, to the Secretary of State, annually, "showing the amount" of its capital stock, and "amount paid thereon; the amount of bonds issued and how secured, and all other indebtedness; the length of such railroad when completed, and how much is built and in use; the number of acres of land donated or granted to them, by whom, and what disposition has been made of said grants or donations; the gross amount of receipts, and how disbursed; the net amount of profits and the dividends made, with such other facts as may be necessary to a full statement of the affairs and condition of such railroads." This requirement is complied with by only a small number of companies; and it is not made the duty of any officer to enforce the provisions of either statute. The latter report may be compelled by a writ of mandamus asked for by any stockholder; but there is no penalty in either case for failure to make report. If it were made the duty of some public officer to enforce the making of these reports, there can be little doubt that they would be obtained. Other States, with a larger experience than ours, yet with interests no greater, require systematic reports for the information of the people, and to aid in intelligent legislation. There are also questions of safety for life and property, in the management and repairs of old roads and in the construction of new ones, that suggest the need of official supervision. I would recommend the appointment of a board of commissioners, clothed with authority to inspect the several railroads in the State, their mode of construction, management, mode of operating, charges, connections, &c., and with power to compel an observance of the laws of the State concerning railroads.

I have before made suggestions as to the disposition to be made of railroad taxes. The question as to the mode of raising these taxes has been much discussed, and that now prevalent in this State has been more or less severely criticised. I am, however, of the opinion, that it is the most practical method yet devised for the purpose.

But, in order that this sort of property should bear its just proportion of the public burdens, it is only proper that the tax now levied upon gross earnings, should be increased. The entire sum collected from railroads for the year ending 1870, amounted to \$186,722.04. The property paying this tax is estimated by the Treasurer of State as worth \$75,000,000. To correspond with the assessment of other property, it would probably be valued for revenue purposes at some \$30,000,000. The tax obtained from railroads, therefore, is equal to about six and a quarter mills on what, under the estimate adopted, would be the assessed value of this kind of property. I have elsewhere given the average tax throughout the State for the same year at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent., or about five times that contributed by railroad property. It may be said that this calculation is based upon an over-valuation of the property of railroads. Perhaps it is; yet it certainly cannot be so far out of the way as to obliterate the fact that a very great disparity exists between the revenue from this class of property and that from other sources. This state of affairs, I submit, can readily be remedied without imposing any undue burdens upon existing lines, or crippling new enterprises.

CENSUS AND APPORTIONMENT.—The census of 1870, taken by the federal government, reports a population of 1,191,802 in the State. This is an increase of 150,983 over the figures given by the State census of the previous year—the largest gain yet made by the State during the same period, viz.: about sixteen months. The advance made since the census of 1860 is 516,889. The rapid strides Iowa has made are better realized by comparing her growth with that of other States. In 1850, she stood twenty-seventh of the States of the Union in point of population. In 1860, she ranked twentieth; and in 1870, eleventh. Among the duties devolving upon you, at the present session, will be that of apportioning the State into seven Congressional districts, or, if the bill pending in the United States Senate passes, into nine of them. In justice, the representation in the present Congress, and consequently in the electoral college next fall, should be based upon the census of 1870; but efforts to effect this result have hitherto failed, and will not probably now be renewed. An apportionment of the State into senatorial districts for four years, and into representative districts for two years, will also be necessary. The judicial districts may now also be re-organized for four years. I would suggest the creation of another judicial district, in order to relieve some of our over-burdened districts, and, at the same time, to provide for the newer but more rapidly growing counties.

REUNION OF IOWA SOLDIERS.—Chapter nine-nine of the acts of last session appropriated the sum of $15,000 for the expenses of a reunion of Iowa soldiers then in contemplation. Arrangements were forthwith entered into for the accomplishment of the object. The time for the reunion was postponed until August 31st and September 1st, 1870. All the railroad companies in the State very generously agreed to transport the enlisted men of the late war free of charge, and the officers half fare; while the United States government loaned several hundred tents for the accommodation of the multitude. Contracts were entered into for all the supplies needed, and the most elaborate arrangements were made for the subsistence of the guests of the State. Upon the 31st day of August, 1870, it is estimated that not far from thirty thousand Iowa soldiers were convened at Des Moines, besides an immense concourse of citizens attracted by the grand occasion. The Secretary of War was in attendance and delivered the oration. General Sherman and other distinguished officers of the army were also present. The railroads, especially those coming into the city, were tasked to their utmost capacity, but did their work extremely well. The most admirable order prevailed during the reunion; and the meeting throughout was one of intense interest and enthusiastic enjoyment, long to be remembered by the soldiers of Iowa. The whole cost of the reunion to the State was $14,090.15, leaving undrawn, of the appropriation for the purpose, the sum of $909.85. The details of the expenditures, with vouchers, will be found on file in office of the Treasurer of State.

FOX AND WISCONSIN RIVER IMPROVEMENT.—In my last message I called the attention of the legislature to the efforts being put forth for opening up to navigation the waters of the Fox and Wisconsin rivers so as to enable the people of the State to transport grain and products from the Mississippi river to the lakes by water. In 1870 Congress appropriated the sum of $100,000 for this work. The act making this appropriation provided for the appointment of a board of arbitrators to estimate the value of the interest of the Green Bay and Mississippi Canal Company in the improvement. Hon. Wm. Larabee, of Iowa, on the part of the United States, and Hon. Jas. R. Doolittle, of Wisconsin, on the part of the Company, were selected as such arbitrators. They chose Hon. Paul Dillingham, of Vermont, as the third member of the Board. Upon the 15th of November, this Board decided upon the award, which is understood to be as follows: For value of locks, dams, franchises, water-power, personal property, etc., the sum of $1,047,070; from which is to be deducted the sum of $723,070 for value of lands sold; leaving a balance of $325,000; or, if only the improvement proper be taken, of $145,000. The company having previously agreed to accept the amount, the improvement has become the property of the Government, and we may now look for the continued progress of the work.

CENTENIAL CELEBRATION.—Congress at a recent session passed an act looking to a national centennial celebration in 1876, in the shape of a world's fair, for which the city of Philadelphia was very properly chosen as the place. The act provides for the selection of a board of commissioners, consisting of one from each State, to be named by its executive. I accordingly designated Hon. Robert Lowry, of Scott county, as such commissioner, and Hon. Coker F. Clarkson, of Grundy county, as commissioner alternate. The board, it is understood, is called to meet early in the coming spring to enter upon its important labors.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION AND AMENDMENTS.—Pursuant to the requirements of the constitution and the provisions of chapter 168 of the acts of last session, the question, “Shall there be a convention to revise the constitution and amend the same,” was submitted to the people at the general election of 1870, there were cast “For a convention,” etc., twenty-four thousand eight hundred and forty-six votes; and “Against a convention,” etc., eighty-two thousand and sixty-nine votes. So the people decided not to hold a convention.

There will come before you for advancement another stage, if you so order, three amendments to the fundamental law. One of these proposes to remove the provision restricting the right of suffrage to “male” citizens. The effect of the other two, if adopted, will be to remove all disqualifications for holding seats in the General Assembly on account of either sex or color.

CODIFICATION OF THE LAWS.—The call for a convention having been decided in the negative, the commissioners appointed by chapter 75, of the acts of the last session, immediately entered upon the work of revising the laws. Shortly afterwards, Mr. John C. Polley, of Clinton county, one of the members of the commission, having removed from the State, tendered his resignation, I appointed Mr. William G. Hammond, of the University Law School, his successor. The report of the commission has been printed and transmitted to the members elect of the Fourteenth General Assembly. You have therefore been enabled to examine the recommendations of the Commissioners, with their reasons therefor. To the changes they propose, your experience will doubtless enable you to add others. I endorse in the main the recommendations of the report, and sincerely hope that the code recommended, with such amendments as the general Assembly may see fit to make, will soon become the law of the State.

I may remark that the changes proposed in the criminal code are, in my judgment, well calculated to render punishment for crime, if in some cases less severe, in all more certain and effective. The suggestion made by the Commissioners in favor of the abolition of the grand jury, if it can be done constitutionally, I most heartily endorse; and I am prepared to go further, and to recommend, as I now do, the steps be taken by you towards the amendment of the constitution, whereby the control of this subject may be brought within that scope of the powers of the General Assembly. My observation satisfies me that the grand jury is a costly and useless relic of by-gone days, and that its abolition will work no detriment whatever to the cause of justice.

My attention has been forcibly called during my term of office to a number of instances where sub-contractors upon railroads, after receiving pay upon their contracts, have absconded, defrauding the laboring men in their employ, who are ill able to afford the loss, sometimes causing absolute suffering, and even leading to mob violence. It is a species of downright fraud, and if it can be reached by a penal statute, it would seem that it ought to be.

VACANCIES IN OFFICE.—Twice since the last session resignations have been made to me by public officers, to take effect at some future period, a general election intervening. A question was raised as to the legality of an election to fill the vacancies at such general election. I should, without hesitation, have included the offices thus to be vacated in the usual election proclamation, believing the spirit of the law would justify it; but the officers tendering their resignations, in order to avoid any question, withdrew them, and immediately renewed them to take effect before the election. I suggest the amendment of the statute upon this subject, so as to remove all doubt, and to consider vacancies thus in prospect as actually existing for the purpose of election or appointment.

Subsequently to your last meeting, the offices of Lieutenant-Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives became vacant the incumbents having been elected Representatives in Congress. In September last, the President pro tem. of the Senate resigned his seat in that body, thereby vacating its presidency. Thus all the offices, whose incumbents could perform the duties of the Governor in case of a vacancy in this office, were themselves vacant, leaving no one qualified by law to succeed to the governorship. After an examination of the constitution, and of the law bearing upon the question, I determined to act upon the authority conferred by section 10, article 4, of the constitution, and section 664 of the revision, and accordingly appointed Hon. Henry C. Bulis, of Winneshiek county, Lieutenant-Governor of the State. I am aware that, in thus naming a presiding officer for the Senate, I ventured upon delicate ground, and went perhaps to the verge of the constitutional power of the executive; but trust that the emergency which alone could have induced me to act, will also be my justification.

The examination I made at the time this matter was before me, led me to observe, more closely than I had before, the language of the constitution upon the subject; and I found that under a strict construction of that instrument, the Lieutenant-Governor only can succeed to the Governorship, upon the death, resignation, or impeachment of the Governor. The provision for the succession of the President pro tempore of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, applies only to cases where the Lieutenant-Governor, while exercising the duties of the office of Governor, shall die, resign or be impeached. The undoubted intent of the constitution is that these officers shall succeed in the order named, whenever a vacancy shall happen in the executive office, but the literal fact is as I have stated. I suggest that, if the General Assembly deem it within the range of its powers, an act be passed supplementing the constitutional provisions respecting the succession to the gubernatorial office, and especially providing for any emergency similar to the one above referred to.

ROAD LAWS.—Much complaint is made of the inefficiency of our present road laws. There are large outlays, it is said for the repair of roads, with very small returns. The amount levied during the year 1870 for road taxes was $268,137.46; and this was exclusive of road-poll taxes. It is believed that one-fourth of this amount, judiciously expended, would affect more permanent improvement than can be accomplished under the present wasteful management. The abolition of the existing road-districts, with township supervision under an officer selected for the purpose, who would be enabled to systematize the work upon the roads, would, it is thought, give us much better roads with smaller expenditure. There is much justice in the complaint, and I deem it only proper to invite your attention to the subject.

INSURANCE.—Two national conventions of State officers for the purpose of considering the subject of insurance and of laws for the security of the insured, were held in the city of New York during the past year. To the later one, held October 18th, having been invited to send a delegate, I appointed Hon. John Russell, Auditor of State, to represent the State of Iowa. The meeting was held at a grave moment. The terrible conflagrations of that month, involving the loss of hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of property, were yet fresh in the minds of all; and the failure of many insurance companies was feared as a consequence of their tremendous losses. Several days were spent in deliberation, the convention seeming to be actuated to an unusual degree by an intelligent purpose to accomplish worthy results. A draft of a uniform law was agreed upon, to be submitted to the legislatures of the several States. It will doubtless be laid before you early in the session. Whatever changes are made, or new provisions introduced into our insurance law, I recommend that no company, home or foreign, be permitted to do business in the State without a paid up capital of at least $50,000.

COUNTIES AND CITIES.—The counties of Lyon and Osceola have just been organized, elections having been held in those counties last fall for county and town officers. All the counties in the State (ninety-nine in number) are now organized. The act of last session, creating the county of Crocker, has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, in the case of Garfield vs. Brayton, because the proposed county was below the minimum size required by the constitution. I would suggest that, if it be deemed advisable to pass a new act obviating this difficulty, a provision be inserted for the submission of the question to the people, in order to meet another constitutional question raised in the above named case, but not decided by the Supreme Court.

In view of the many instances of issuance by local authorities of bonds, the validity of which has been disputed, causing vexatious litigation, as well as much hard feeling at home and financial discredit abroad, I suggest the propriety of enacting a law requiring that the bonds of cities, towns, and school-districts, before being sold be registered by the Auditor of State, upon satisfactory proofs being made to that officer that such bonds were in all respects legally issued, and that the county, city, or district issuing them has not exceeded the legal limit of indebtedness. Registration, with provision for the prompt payment of interest and principal when due, would tend to elevate the character of the various local securities, and expedite their sale when offered, as well as be beneficial to the credit of the entire State. I have reason to believe, that had this been done a few years ago, multiplied thousands of dollars would have been saved to our various counties and municipalities. One or more of our sister States have adopted the plan here suggested, and its practical effects seem to be most salutary. In my last message I called attention to the fact that pretended bonds of the county of Lyon were afloat. It has recently been reported that attempts would be made to get such fraudulent issues assumed by the organized county. I do not know that there is any likelihood of such scheme being successful, nor, if it were, that it would be held valid by the courts; yet, I would suggest the propriety of prohibiting, by positive law, any assumption of the character mentioned.

MISCELLANEOUS. I recommend that the Secretary of State and the Superintendent of Public instruction be authorized to procure seals for their respective offices, they being frequently required to give certificates which should be attested by seal.

Our statutes lack any provision for the management of savings banks, and the security of depositors therein. Many of the States have adopted laws upon the subject. The utility of those institutions is so familiar to you all, that I need only mention the defect, and invite you take action thereon.

I have thus briefly called your attention to such matters as seemed to me necessary to be presented for your consideration at the commencement of your session. Other subjects will doubtless appear to you as equally important as any I have named; and there are yet others which must, at no distant day, be subjects of legislation. Additional public institutions will be needed. An industrial home for girls, a retreat for idiots and feeble-minded children, and perhaps an asylum for inebriates, are among the prospective charities of the State. The time has not yet come, I apprehend, for action in relation to these meritorious objects. Questions of more immediate importance will demand your attention, and those which will undoubtedly come before you will make your session one of unusual interest. That your deliberations will eventuate in legislation such as will deserve and receive the approbation of your constituents, is my confident anticipation.

Our State, with its first quarter of a century just completed, has already made a history by her progress, her enterprise, and her patriotism, of which all her citizens may be proud. The sparsely settled territory of 100,000 souls, which twenty-five years ago became a State, has grown to an opulent commonwealth, of 1,350,000 people. The luxuriant soil Iowa was known to possess has more than fulfilled its early promise; while her treasures of store and coal, then hardly suspected to exist, have added largely to her wealth. Railroads, then scarcely west of Ohio, now stretch their 3,000 miles of iron in network over the State; and the telegraph goes with them. Her political record has been equally honorable. The first free daughter of the Missouri Compromise, she has been true to her heritage of freedom. Among the first to rush to the support of an endangered Union, and to lay her best blood on the altar of her country, she was also first to strike from her constitution the odious discrimination between her citizens on account of color. The past career of Iowa, both as territory and State, has been honorable, progressive, substantial. May her future be even more so!

Abroad, the year past has been one of sadness to many, both in our own and foreign lands. Our sister State across the Mississippi has seen her mighty metropolis laid in ashes, and farther north Wisconsin and Michigan have been scourged by fire until it seemed that the very heavens were all ablaze. Houses, shops, mills, stores, school-houses, churches, improved farms, cultivated fields, all vanished before the flames; and countless thousands of people were made homeless and deprived of food and clothing. Relief, however, was speedy and munificent, and distant nations vied with our own States in furnishing prompt and generous aid to the needy.

Immediately upon learning of the disaster at Chicago, I at once telegraphed to the mayors of the leading cities of the State, urging prompt measures for relief. The willing people, however, had already set to work in many places, and the fury of the flames was scarcely stayed before money, food, and clothing began to pour into the suffering city from all parts of Iowa as well as from other States; and the work was continued as long as there seemed to be vital need. Liberal contributions were also made for the sufferers of Michigan and Wisconsin.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.—In national affairs, we find a healthful tone. The past two years have witnessed the consummation of the final triumph of the war, in the adoption of manhood suffrage; and we now see all men equal sovereigns before the law. Every citizen now stands the peer of his fellows. The true principles of constitutional liberty have become fixed in the fundamental law, and enthroned in the hearts of the people, never to be obliterated from either. The national administration successfully feels its way along, annually paying one hundred millions of dollars of the public debt, reducing the yearly interest more than sixteen millions of dollars, and at the same time lessening the burden of taxation. The strong arm of the federal power has been wielded for the protection of the rights of citizens, and clandestine organizations, gotten up for the persecution of those whose only crime is that they advocate principles just such as are held by a vast majority in our own State, have been broken up, and their members arrested or disbursed. The mode of entering the civil service has been reformed so far as the President can effect it, and appointment and promotion therein are hereafter to be by merit—so long at least as the present incumbent of the presidential chair shall remain therein. And among the triumphs of the administration, not the least is the settlement of our threatening difficulties with Great Britain by an adjustment highly honorable to all parties.

I have noticed with much pleasure the recommendations and suggestions of the chief magistrate of the United States in his late message, relative to reduction of tariff on articles of necessity not produced in this country, to the postal telegraph, to reform in the civil service, etc. The adoption of the last named measure especially will tend greatly to correct the many abuses which for nearly half a century have been creeping into the administration of the national Government. What the people want and demand is an honest and economical policy in the management of the public affairs. Such a policy will help us materially to return to specie payment, and to steer safely through all financial difficulties; any other will endanger our credit, and cover us with disgrace.

The discovery of the electric telegraph may justly be reckoned among the sublimest achievements of the human mind—perhaps more far-reaching in its effects than any other of the wondrous offspring of the brain of man. Thus calculated for vast beneficence, the widest scope should be given to its powers. This can never be accomplished while it remains the private property of any individual or corporation, much less when it is, as now, practically monopolized. Every argument which can be adduced in favor of a government post-office applies with equal force, in my judgment, to a government telegraph; and the sooner the latter is united with the postal system of the country the sooner will the people realize the full benefit of this great invention. I would suggest to the General Assembly, the propriety of adopting a memorial to Congress expressive of the opinions and wishes of our people relative to this and other important subjects of national legislation.

I cannot close this my last message without expressing to the people of Iowa my grateful acknowledgments for the generous confidence they have reposed in me. During the four years of my service to the State I have received from them a support, a sympathy, and an encouragement which have greatly aided me in the discharge of my official duties.

While administering the office of chief magistrate, I have been filled with increasing respect for the institutions of the State. No one, so well as he who upon this post of observation, has been called to keep constant watch of the whole field, can grasp in thought the feeling, the history and growth of our commonwealth. While discharging my duty, to be diligent in aiding the development of our State, to labor for the success of our schools and charities, and to temper mercy with justice, it has been my privilege to realize the intelligence, justice, and humanity of our people.

In severing my connection with the State government, I cannot close this communication without bearing my willing testimony to the fidelity, zeal, and industry of the various officers of the State, and those associated with me in the different agencies of the government during my administration of its affairs. I shall ever carry with me in my retirement a grateful remembrance of the friendship and courtesy which have always marked our official relations.

To have served the State at this time of its greatest prosperity, and to have been permitted to aid, in an official station, in laying the foundations of her future greatness, may justly be regarded as an honor. But there is honor, too, in being a private citizen of such a State; and as I pass from one station to the other, permit me to unite with you in dedicating ourselves, our commonwealth, and our country anew to freedom and to God.

Governor Carpenter then proceeded to deliver his Inaugural Address, as follows :

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives :

Elected by my fellow-citizens to undertake the duties of Chief Executive of the State, in accordance with custom, I embrace this occasion briefly to express my views upon a few measures which seem to demand legislative action.

Those questions of a national character which have heretofore largely absorbed public attention are now so generally approved by the intelligent and tranquil masses, as to have crystalized into principles. The late amendments to the Federal Constitution are, to-day, not merely regarded as a necessity of State restoration, but a natural outgrowth of our new civilization. Humanity as well as patriotism approves the measures adopted by the Administration to enforce obedience to law where the lingering echoes of treason still awaken a spirit of violence. Public sentiment indorses the peaceful diplomacy, by which it is proposed to settle, without sacrifice of rights, honor, or pride, the rasping questions of international dispute, which have been for years a constant menace of war with Great Britain. The policy of referring proposals contemplating the annexation of foreign territory to the enlightened judgment of public opinion is accepted as a proper dispensation of issues involving national expansion. A new theory of dealing with the Indians upon the frontier, illustrating not only the strength but the mercy of our Christian civilization, is another feature of the wisdom of this Administration, which meets popular approval. The firmness and energy which have been infused into the civil service, holding financial agents to a strict accountability, and demanding honesty and economy in the collection and disbursement of the revenues, commend themselves to the public conscience. A large diminution of federal taxation during the last three years, with an increasing yield in the annual revenue, even at present lower rates, coupled with economical reforms in every department of the public service, promising further tax reduction in the near future, gives additional luster to the present management of the National Treasury. Finally, so administering the finances as to diminish the national debt more than 280,000,000 of dollars in three years, saving the people 17,000,000 of dollars in annual interest, improving the public credit at home and abroad, and appreciating legal-tender currency from more than thirty-three per cent. discount, to within ten per cent. of a gold basis, without even checking commercial enterprise, is indorsed by intelligent citizens as the crowning glory of the President's policy. An Administration illustrating its career with so many beneficent measures needs no factitious bolstering; I shall therefore not pause to consider any questions of exclusively national concern, but will address myself to issues which pertain specially to Iowa and her people.

Prior to the rebellion, the people of the United States had been for a quarter of a century engaged in the discussion of such moral and political theories as were in their nature constitutional and fundamental. These questions, after years of acrimonious debate, were finally settled by that sternest of all arbiters—the sword. And now that they have been disposed of—and, as is believed wisely and permanently—we are invited to devote more thought and energy to the development of our intellectual and material resources.

Slavery has been abolished: the question now recurs, How shall the interests of free labor be best promoted? A new race has been given the ballot: the question comes back, How shall all men be stimulated to acquire such knowledge as will not only fit them to perform the duties of citizens intelligently, but with advantage to free society? All men have been declared "equal before the law;" now the question receives an added force, How shall all men be brought to feel an equal interest in the preservation of free government, and equal pride in the purity and glory of free institutions?

The great truth expressed by President Madison: "That the public good, the real welfare of the body of the people, is the supreme object to be pursued; and that no form of government, whatever, has any other value than as it may be fitted for the attainment of this object;" is no longer open to discussion.

Groping its way, in pursuance of this idea, through the twilight of liberal thought for nearly a century, this nation has arrived with reluctant steps, at a point in which it acknowledges, by the formality of a constitutional amendment, that the political freedom of every man, and his individual right to representation in its administration, is the chief corner-stone upon which rests the superstructure of free government. This theory is now forever settled and eliminated from political controversy.

Next to political freedom, the most important element of a good government is an intelligent people. Here we approach a question which will test, in some measure, the wisdom of this legislature. The school system of Iowa—when our youthfulness as a State is considered—does not suffer by comparison with that of any State in the Union. But this should not satisfy the aspiration of a people, the affluence of whose intellectual and material resources will render their failure to reach the highest educational possibility an inexcusable folly. That we have attained this advanced position—though occupying a line near the front—will not be argued. While perfection in human institutions is not attainable, every improvement which experience or philosophy suggests to a thinking and progressive people will receive, at least, the response of a fair discussion. In this view, it is my purpose briefly to review an acknowledged need of our common schools.

There is no principle in modern theories of education so well attested, as that to improve our schools, we must improve the training and scholarship of the teachers. And for this purpose there has been no more effective instrumentality devised, than that, so generally adopted by many States, known as Normal Instruction. That in the administration of our State government, a wise economy in the expenditure of money should be observed, cannot be doubted. But intrenchment in any reasonable expenditures for educational purposes would not be economy. The accumulated wealth of the State must, in some manner, and at some time, pay for its own protection. If citizens of large wealth would place a guard over their treasurers, more reliable than locks or bolts of safes, and cheaper than the iron bars of prison cells, the per diem of jurors, or the salaries of sheriffs and judges, that safeguard will be found in enlarging and perfecting the common school system of Iowa, until no citizen can reach maturity without obtaining a fair education.

If asked why this constant effort at improvement is continued, after the great advancement our State has made in this direction, it may be answered: there is an analogy between systems formed by human agency and the character of man. Moral and mental philosophy demonstrate the inability of man to remain stationary. He must either go forward, or he will involuntarily go backward. Thus, it is found in the older States, there must be constant effort to improve the effectiveness of the school system, to keep it in motion, even at the standard it has already attained. It may be said, however, the teacher can obtain the instruction necessary in the High School or University. This, so far as mere culture is concerned, is doubtless true; but, after the general culture is received at these institutions is obtained, the student who is successful in life must become a specialist. The acquisitions of the ordinary course in the College or University may be termed CULTURE. The acquirements made preparatory to a life-work in some profession, constitute TRAINING. And this training, for those who purpose teaching, the Normal school is designed to supply. It may seem a formidable undertaking to bring twelve thousand teachers into this special training, preparatory to their work. For myself, I do not think immediate success will be attained; and for a time the effort will probably seem barren of the desired results. But if a few succeed they will have a reflex influence through Teachers' Institutes and like agencies, upon others, until the profession of the teacher will be lifted to a dignity and usefulness which higher intelligence alone can give it. It has been the experience of all ages, in all departments of human endeavor, that, where a few men were raised above the level of their age, they would go forth, equipped for the activities, "leavening the whole lump." until the age, in turn, was lifted above itself. Such spirit and effectiveness ought to distinguish the educators of Iowa.

The Normal Department connected with the State University, has accomplished much, but facilities should be provided that will enable the system to reach larger results. How and by what means this shall be done will depend upon those steps you may regard as justified by wisdom, and the condition of the treasury, when reasonable provision has been made for enterprises already begun.

While upon the subject of education, I will be excused for alluding to the high position attained by our State University and Agricultural College, among the educational institutions of the country. I am pleased to do this, not only as due to the merits of these institutions, but as their processes of teaching serve to illustrate the principle of special training I have sought, in my remarks upon Normal Schools, to unfold.

While the State University was originally founded upon the theory of exclusively promoting general culture, the practical character of the age has modified its curriculum, until departments for special instruction have given it a standing it could never had acquired or deserved without them. And it is hoped that the day is not distant, when the young men and women of Iowa will not feel it necessary to go into other States to acquire either general literary culture, or professional training. This institution, not only from its history, and the nature of the work it is designed to accomplish, but the character of the able gentlemen who fill its chairs, would seem to command itself to your favorable consideration.

In our Agricultural College the same sentiment, in favor of special training for the duties of life, finds emphatic expression. This College, generously endowed with a grant of public lands from the United States, is designed to secure a liberal education to the industrial classes. Here, the promotion of agriculture, and the mechanic arts are kept prominently in view; whatever branches of learning receive attention, it is designed that nothing shall preclude the study of natural science, in its application to human industry. Men of intellectual vigor are developing this experiment, not only here, but in other States; and in a State so eminently agricultural as Iowa, in my judgment, it commends itself to every man, whose love of his race looks to the future improvement of the foundation upon which human industry rests.

The Experimental Farm connected with the College is being brought into a fine state of cultivation. Agriculture, horticulture, and the mechanic arts are all receiving attention, while labor in every department is being systematized and put upon a paying basis. It is sometimes said that an experimental farm ought not to be connected with any institution of learning, as it will not pay expenses. This argument would be equally good against a chemical laboratory or philosophical apparatus in any college in the country. The idea of improving and perfecting agriculture by a college curriculum is sometimes scouted; but when we remember that the mining schools in Europe have so improved the hand that wields the pick, and even the muscle that wheels the slag from the furnace, as to develop an ability to work low grade ores profitably, which starved uneducated workmen before the establishment of these schools; it must be acknowledged that the multiform specialties of the farm, requiring brain to plan and skill to execute, will be benefitted by scientific instruction. The very fact that the labor of the farm is coming to be so largely performed by machinery necessitates greater intelligence among those who use the machinery. This College already begins to bear fruit. A series of Farmers' Institutes was held last winter in different counties throughout the State, conducted by the President of the College and others connected with it, resulting in numerous appointments and applications for similar Institutes, in different counties of the State, the present winter. Wherever these institutes were held, they have given agriculture a new impulse among the people, eliciting thought, inciting experiments, and tending to increase in the farmer a much needed pride of profession.

A wise disposition of these educational questions will tend to dispose, in advance, of the so-called labor problem. The opinion prevails, in certain quarters, that there is an antagonism between capital and labor, and upon this doctrine parties for political action are being organized. It would seem that, with the diversity of occupation our State is capable of affording, and will afford when her manufacturing ability and illimitable resources are fully developed, with the empire of unoccupied territory in this country, upon which surplus population can overflow for a century to come, this issue would here be indefinitely postponed. This generation having removed the badge of dishonor which slavery affixed to labor, by striking the shackles from every foot that treads our soil, has done more to lift up and dignify human industry than could be accomplished by a dozen social revolutions. But, notwithstanding this, as these labor questions have come in older States, unless their causes are provided against, they will be upon us.

Though political economy may teach that there is no antagonism between capital and labor; that the more capital there is, the more labor will be employed, and the better it will be paid; that capital is simply what is saved by the prudent foresight and self-denial of one class of laborers, to be used in the employment of other labor, to produce more capital; still many will believe in the future, as in the past, that some statute of talismanic power might be framed which would solve every social problem. If the economist argues, upon the proposition to reduce labor by statute to eight hours a day, that such action will diminish the accumulated wealth of the world, by so much as the additional two hours' daily labor, of its combined industry, would produce—and that in proportion to this diminution of wealth, the comforts of mankind will be lessened; that the houses to shelter both capitalist and laborer, the clothing they wear, the food they eat, and their resources for intellectual and social enjoyment will all be diminished, while capital will possess the power, then as now, to appropriate the greater proportional share of the remainder, leaving less for division among those whose sole capital is labor—we may be told this argument is inspired by the tyranny of capital. But when we convince the world that knowledge has greater power than capital; and that if man can be taught to work with so much defter hand and more inventive brain, aided by the ingenious appliances which take the place of muscle, as to be able to accomplish in eight hours as much as he does now in ten, then this social problem will solve itself, without the intervention of statutory force. So, after going round the circle of theories upon which hinge the progress and prosperity of the people, we come back at last to the point from which we started, and emphasize the fact that the intelligence of the coming man will more effectually aid him, than, either labor-strikes or all the arbitrary statutes fixing hours of labor, and prices to be paid therefor, which the ingenuity of political science can devise.

The next most important subject capable of being influenced by legislation, upon which depends the solid happiness of the people, is their material progress and prosperity. And as Iowa is so largely agricultural, this inquiry naturally resolves itself into the solution of the problem, How shall the products of the soil be made to yield the largest returns to the producer? To bring the manufactured articles required by our people, and the products of their industry, nearer together, in my judgment, is of paramount importance. That the producer would be materially benefited if the wagon, reaper, plow, and cultivator, with which he plies his industrial enterprises, and the cloth he wears, were manufactured at his market town, whither he could carry his surplus products and exchange them for these necessities, saving cost of transportation long distances both ways,—is a proposition so self-evident that it needs no support by argument. But while the General Government may, as an incident of its power to collect revenue and the necessities of its treasury, be able to discriminate so as to encourage such industries as are compatible with our habits, climate, and resources—and wisely exercises such discrimination—a State having no such authority, it may be asked: How can legislation aid us in this particular? It is answered, if we can do nothing more, it is possible, through our Board of Immigration, to call attention to our manufacturing resources. The fact that Iowa is supplied with coal mines developing veins from six to eleven feet in thickness, which invite new industries to their vicinity; with water power unimproved, with lead-mines, in which new lodes are daily discovered; with black-walnut and other woods for manufacturing purposes; with inexhaustible gypsum beds; with limestone quarries of every variety; with clays for the production of all kinds of brick and pottery; and with other resources inviting skill and capital, so numerous, as to forbid, now and here, the mention—might be set forth in a pamphlet, which, distributed by the Board of Immigration, could not fail to attract attention, and produce results. Two years ago an appropriation of five thousand dollars was made in the interest of immigration, and counting every able-bodied man influenced to settle in Iowa, thereby, as an addition of five hundred dollars to the material wealth of the State, this sum has yielded a percentage in its present and remote influence upon our prosperity, not easily calculated by the ordinary methods of computation.

Another telling influence upon the profits of the producer, in this State, as in others, is the cheapness, accessibility, and abundance of good fuel. While we have coal-mines which will yield sufficient fuel for more than the wants of any probable population in the future of this State: yet owing to costly process of mining, and exorbitant charges upon local freights, this indispensable article is so expensive as largely to discourage immigration. Coal, here, as elsewhere, is coming to be regarded as the principal article for fuel, and it is probable that more than half our population, will throughout all the future depend upon it for this purpose. Indeed, the extent of the coal-fields of Iowa measures the capacity of large portions of our own State, as well as States adjoining us, for occupancy and improvement. Therefore, anything that can be done to promote prospecting for, and the opening of, new mines; to encourage and protect miners in their employment; and to cheapen the transportation of this article, will greatly accelerate the settlement of our fertile prairies, lessen the price of fuel throughout the State, and be an invaluable aid to future manufacturing enterprises.

Another means of promoting the results of industry, by legislative influence, is to keep the burdens of taxation down to the minimum standard. I would carry forward to completion, with judicious economy, those enterprises already commenced. If the prudent man of business, as a legislator, will act upon the same principle in regard to public expenditures which he observes in the conduct of his own private affairs, he will measure his public duties by a standard that will seldom produce extravagance. The danger, usually, is not in the larger appropriations which attract public attention, and the disbursement of which are narrowly watched by the people, but in smaller amounts which receive but little examination, and are voted upon with the remark: "It is but a trifle, anyhow." Perhaps it will not be thought out of place in this connection to say, that during the earlier part of the session, when, unlike its closing hours, there is no haste, the general appropriation bill should be examined and perfected, or as nearly so as practicable; and then amendments sought to be inserted in the last hours, should receive a searching analysis. When individuals, during the confusion necessarily preceding the adjournment, clamor for the recognition of claims which the entire session has afforded them opportunity to fully present, when they could have been thoroughly canvassed, this fact of itself should elicit a careful scrutiny as to their merits.

And here I may not inappropriately speak of the uncalculating manner in which many communities—and especially of the more sparsely populated counties—impose taxes upon themselves. If there is legislative power this should be remedied. I cannot think it would do municipal corporations a very great injustice, so to hedge the privilege of imposing obligations upon themselves, that their power to contract debts will be kept somewhere within the boundary of ability to pay.

Appropriations for our benevolent institutions will, of course, reach the extent of their needs, economically estimated. The Reform School, though of recent origin, is doing a noble work, and commends itself to your consideration. The Soldiers' Orphans' Homes are doubtless becoming less burdensome to the treasury, as the children for whose care and education they were intended, are yearly reaching an age of self-support. Still, while the necessity for such care continues, we will but echo the voice of patriotism, by liberally providing for the children of those noble men who illustrated Iowa in the Great Rebellion. Such appropriations for carrying forward the work upon the Capitol Building, and the Insane Hospital at Independence, as may be necessary and attainable, without increasing the taxes of the people, will doubtless be sanctioned both by wisdom and economy. The condition of the treasury, and the amount that can be judiciously expended upon these buildings in the next two years, evidently should determine the limit of these appropriations. It may be necessary to add some expense to the Penitentiary to make it equal to present requirements. In reference to convict labor, it has always seemed to me that, if the avenues in which such labor could be employed were increased, not leaving the State so entirely dependent upon the grasping caprice of contractors, it would be of advantage to the State and improve the prison management.

No appropriation ought to exceed the amount which can be economically applied to the purpose intended; as, whatever confidence may be reposed in public officials, they should not be tempted to extravagance by appropriations out of proportion to their objects. The honesty and economy with which governments like ours are administered depend upon the people. As the stream does not rise above its source, so, where the people are the source of power, those elected to office generally represent a fair average of the honesty and intelligence of the masses. A late election in a sister State, where the people, especially of the great metropolis, had been wrought up to an appreciation of public duty, by a series of political villainies never paralleled upon this continent, has illustrated the fact, that when the intelligent masses are once aroused, and move with a determinate purpose, they have power to crush venality and corruption as easily as a giant can set foot upon a worm. But, while it is proper to reform political abuses where they have been permitted to grow to overshadowing proportions, it is better for the people to keep so constantly on the alert as to give no opportunity for such abuses to develop.

Cheap and reliable facilities for the exchange of products are the last, though not least important, aids of profitable production to which I propose calling attention at the present time. The consideration of this question will involve a brief discussion of the railway problem. And when it is understood that during the last forty years more than six thousand millions of dollars of the world's capital has been invested in railways, and that throughout our entire country this mode of travel and transportation is fast superseding all others, the importance of finally and equitably defining the relation between railways and the community can, in a measure, be realized. Henry Clay, a statesman of prophetic forecast, believed, a half century ago, that his efforts in behalf of the Cumberland turnpike would connect his name with an enterprise of enduring greatness; and that it would especially be remembered to his credit by the multitude who would journey along it in all the future of the Republic. But to-day, that turnpike, and common roads everywhere, are fast passing into disuse, except as mere local conveniences; whilst the habits of the people are now conformed to a new mode of commerce and communication. The private citizen who could once put his own wagon upon the road, or boat upon the river and lake, now finds himself forced, in order to keep pace with the world's business habits, to intrust his person and his property, in moving from point to point, to a transportation monopoly. A consideration of these facts cannot but impress thinking men with the importance of a railroad question.

I do not regard the pretense that railways are beyond the control of law, in respect to fare and freights, as worthy of more than a moment's consideration. It cannot be conceded that a corporation, when asking the right of eminent domain, may avow the purpose of building a public highway, for which purpose alone it could hope to acquire this prerogative of sovereignty; and, when the right has been conferred and accepted, and is enjoyed, may declare itself independent of statutory control, in the limitation of fares and freights, on the ground that a railway is private property. It has been said that "both currency and internal communication between different portions of a State are exclusively the prerogatives of sovereignty." If, therefore, banks owe a debt to the community as well as their stockholders for the prerogative franchises with which they have been clothed, there can be no question of the consideration due from railways for their still greater privileges. As an individual cannot conclusively determine his own rights in respect to his dealings with community, it is not to be supposed that a vast moneyed power, subject to the restrictions of a common carrier, can assume prerogatives denied, in this regard, to a private citizen. It has always seemed to me that railroad men, to as great an extent at least as any other persons, would have a deep interest in the effectiveness and stability of wholesome statutes, as upon pure and just law the permanent value of their stocks and franchises alone depend; yet it is a fact that the possession of enormous franchises breeds a contempt for law. There can be no clearer duty, therefore, than for the State to maintain its power over railway and all other corporations of her own creation. And if Iowa ever abdicates this sovereignty, she will have proved herself unworthy the dignity of a free commonwealth.

Approaching, however, the question, as to how fares and freights shall be regulated, I am free to admit the difficulties which surround it. Many experiments have been tried in other States, some of which defeated the very end they were intended to promote. If all railways were alike in cost of construction and operation, and in their earnings, the problem could easily be solved; but when the facts confront us, they present unexpected difficulties. That we can, by arbitrary statute, fix the price for freights upon all articles, and on all roads, and do justice to the community and the railways, seems almost impossible. To establish a like freight upon a ton of iron and a ton of tea, or per car for the transportation of a carload of common horses, or the fancy stock of the sportsman or breeder, with the difference in liability in the one case as compared with the other, illustrates the obstacles in the way of adjusting a tariff of freights so as to meet the various demands of commerce. When we consider, further, the difference of expense in operating railways: one having easy grades and running through a level, agricultural country, with light expenses and a local business profitable to stockholders; another through a hilly region, with sharp curvatures, heavy grades and a limited local business: the difficulties are increased. And if we consider the further fact, that one road may be largely supported by passenger traffic, while another is specially a freight, coal, or lumber road, it still further multiplies the obstacles in our pathway.

There are, however, some abuses which, in my judgment, are capable of remedy by legislative intervention. We are sometimes told that competition will settle all these questions. But this cannot be true. George Stephenson once said, "Where combination is possible, competition is impossible;" and that is true to-day. Indeed, competition not unfrequently proves a source of oppression to the people. Railways are generally designed as commercial channels between certain points, while the intervening country, with its business, is regarded as only an incident of their main purpose. It frequently happens that rival railways, though connecting the same points, widely diverge in their passage through the country they traverse. If, for any cause, competition for the through business becomes sharp at the ends of these lines, freight have at times been reduced below cost, the companies making up their losses by exorbitant charges on the intervening country. An evil of this nature, legislation ought to reach.

The habit of "stock-watering," which has grown up of late years, not only in railway corporations, but in other companies possessing corporate power, ought to be prohibited. Although throwing fictitious stock upon the market, for speculative purposes, may seem harmless to the operators, the tax, which in the way of interest and tolls must be paid by the people, is one feature of the transaction in which there is no fiction.

Allowing drawbacks to large dealers or favorites, thus, in effect, driving small dealers from business, and breaking down competition in the purchase of products, is opposed to public policy, and should evoke statutory inhibition.

Discrimination against water transportation is both unjust and oppressive to the producer, and should elicit regulations; while if the State can encourage, by moral influence, the opening of direct water communication with the Atlantic sea-board, it will aid in giving the West one channel for the shipment of surplus commodities, a large portion of each year, upon which competition can be made effective.

I have thus briefly called attention to some of the points in this matter which seem to demand your attention. With the limited examination I have been able to bestow upon it, I am persuaded that full knowledge of the whole subject is of the first importance. In the determination of the rights and interests of the community and the railways, involving issues so fundamental and important, in my judgment there should be a tribunal which would thoroughly examine the entire field of inquiry, and report facts and conclusions with a spirit of judicial fairness. It may be these anomalous interests have not yet assumed such proportions as to require, immediately, the creation, with the consequent expense, of a commission; but when they shall have reached such proportions, I have no doubt this action will be both wise and expedient. As the rights and duties of the community, the stockholders, and the operators of railways, should be well understood by all parties, I am led to suggest, whether it would not be well to have prepared a compilation or digest, in a single pamphlet volume, of all laws in relation to this subject. Giving them the same convenient form, as our road and school laws would, greatly facilitate ready reference, and remove any excuse for being ignorant of the law.

The question of railroad taxation will also come to your attention. Whilst I have no hesitation in saying that a larger revenue should be collected from our railways, I am not able to see that the same mode of assessment should be adopted as is applied to the assessment of private property. It would seem to be unjust in many particulars, and, withal, very nearly impracticable. But that the property of corporations should be taxed uniformly with that of private citizens is both constitutional and right. It has cost many sacrifices to establish the principle of "equality before the law," and no individual or corporation should escape the operation of a principle so beneficent. This principle should not only be applied in the taxation of railway property, but in dealing with the entire question. If, however, we assess railways in the same manner as other property, a few townships in each county will reap the benefit of all local taxes, and a few towns in the State of all tax upon rolling-stock and other property. For these, with other reasons, it would seem to be unjust to a very large majority of the people of the State, who do not live in townships and counties having railroad advantages.

It would also work injustice to the railways. The value of a railroad is evidently not in its right of way, embankments, masonry, bridges, ties, iron, machinery, locomotives, cars, buildings, &c., &c., but in the essential franchise. And the value of this franchise is dependent upon dividends. If railway property is assessed by the same mode employed in the assessment of other property, the road constructed through the hilliest country, with the most expensive bridging, would be liable to the larger assessment though it paid the least. Such a policy would be dictated by neither wisdom nor justice. The constitutional provision that "the property of all corporations for pecuniary profit shall be subject to taxation the same as that of individuals," while unmistakable as to amount, is, in my judgment, not directory as to the mode of assessment. Therefore, if a policy should be adopted which would operate unequally, in the valuation of railway property, as compared with that of private persons, or the result of which would be to tax, in some instances, railway property at twice its value—having paid once upon hypothecations—it might result in litigation, and perhaps decisions adverse to the State. Indeed, I understand this very liability in relation to mortgaged real estate of private persons, is provided against in the amendments to the Revision of 1860, submitted to you by the Codifying Commissioners.

In saying this much, however, I in no wise deviate from my unyielding conviction that railway companies should be taxed uniformly with every private citizen in the State. Upon this point I would not be misunderstood. Having confidence in your wisdom, as the representatives of the people, I have no doubt you will be able to originate such measures, as a basis upon which to tax this class of property, as will secure to the State the full amount of revenue which should accrue from the aggregate value of all the railways, and at the same time do justice to all parts of the State, and to the railroad companies.

Closing what I have to say upon these questions of a general nature, permit me to call your attention to a matter which though somewhat exceptional in its nature, demands your earliest consideration. I refer to the position of a large number of settlers on what is known as River Land, situated in the Des Moines Valley. I will not stop here to argue that the State should take some action to bring this question to the attention of Congress, and should earnestly besiege that body until such compensation is made to these people, as will enable them to buy their land of the parties in whom the Supreme Court of the United States has lately adjudged the title to exist. It seems to me the simple facts in the case are sufficient to commend it to the favor of every just and humane man.

I desire, however, to answer an objection which has been urged against the claims of these settlers. It is said they knew the title to this land was in dispute, and in going upon it took their chances. This is sufficiently answered by saying, that when different officers of the land department at Washington disagreed in reference to the extent of this grant, whereby it was kept oscillating under conflicting decisions, between the State and general government, for twelve years; and when the Supreme Court, in 1859, decided the grant did not extend above the Raccoon Fork (or city of Des Moines); and when the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Secretary of the Interior, and other ministerial officers of the general government were so far convinced that these lands were open to settlement and pre-emption as to issue patents to hundreds of these claimants and to set apart indemnity lands, under the grant of July 12th, 1862, in place of these pre-emptions, can it be presumed these settlers would be able to see through the technicalities which finally produced a decision of the court holding their titles invalid?

I cannot believe, if the merits of these claims are properly presented to Congress, that they will go unadjusted. A case almost precisely parallel to this, relative to lands on the Virginia soldiers' reservation in Ohio, a portion of which was sold by mistake, in reference to the boundaries of the reservation, to large number of settlers, and afterwards entered by Gen. McArthur and others with Virginia bounty scrip, was fully indemnified by the United States, as far back as 1821; and it is believed the sense of justice is as strong now, both in our people and government, as at any former time. That it will cost something is true; but the army and navy had better be reduced than to suffer this crying wrong to go unadjusted. The love of the people for their government, secured and retained by the knowledge that it will suffer no wrong to its weakest citizen, is a cheaper defense than standing armies. I believe the State should appoint an agent to proceed at once in a thorough examination of each of these disputed titles; that lists should be made containing the name of the settler, the length of time he has occupied the land, the status of his title; whether he has a patent from the general government, a certificate of pre-emption, or simply a squatter's claim; the date of his record title, if he has one, and the probable value of his improvements. This report would enable those pressing these claims at Washington to do so intelligently, and with ability to approximate the appropriation necessary to secure a fair adjustment.

The report of the Codifying Commission will claim your attention. As it is the work of distinguished lawyers, who have given the subject upon which they report deliberate thought and study, I have no doubt the adoption of their suggestions will tend to round out and perfect our code of laws.

In reference to amendments to existing laws generally, in my judgment, it is well to bear in mind that all changes are not reforms. When the people come to know the law, and their habits are conformed to a system, unless it can be materially improved, it is unwise to confuse public business with needless innovations.

But as my predecessor has submitted an able and comprehensive Message—with the conclusions of which I heartily agree—any further reference to these special subjects would be a work of supererogation.

I have thus rapidly reviewed a few of the salient points which have presented themselves to my mind as capable of ministering to the progress, prosperity, and happiness of the people. But, while so much may be expected from intellectual and material growth, I would not be understood as ignoring the fact, that the future of Iowa is largely dependent upon the morals of her citizens. Believing as I do that, "except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it," I am but loyal to a settled conviction of public duty in acknowledging my need, not only of that support which comes from the confidence of the people, but the aid of that Divine Ruler who is too wise to err, and to whose laws nations, as individuals, are alike amenable.

Although gratefully accepted from the hands of a generous people, I am not unmindful of the great responsibilities of the position they have conferred upon me. These reflections impress me the more forcibly when I remember that my acts will be compared by a discriminating public with those of an unbroken succession of predecessors, whose statesmanship has given an added luster to the history of the generation they so wisely served. It in no wise relieves these misgivings, to reflect that this comparison will be all the more sharply drawn from the fact that I assume these duties as the immediate successor of the distinguished gentleman who, during the last four years, has performed them with such signal honor to himself and advantage to the State.

Gentlemen of the Fourteenth General Assembly: The trust confided to us in our co-ordinate departments, is of no ordinary moment. I hope to co-operate with you in measures which will tend to promote the welfare of the people of Iowa. That I shall uniformly be free from error is hardly probable; but, believing in the utmost frankness, in my administration of these duties, I shall have no concealments from you, from my friends in other departments of the State government, or from the people. Even a mistake frankly acknowledged, followed by sincere attempts to retrace the steps taken in a wrong direction, is generally relieved of half its otherwise evil consequences. We may differ upon some measures of public policy. We may, as partisans, be Republicans and Democrats. But there is one particular in which we will not differ: in our abiding love for Iowa and her people, we are one. And my desire is, we may so meet our joint responsibilities that, in the great realm of the future, Iowa, in her character for patriotism, virtue, and intelligence, will stand an exemplar in the sisterhood of States, the number of which no prophet may to-day predict: all constituting "one nation, one sovereign nationality, with one governing civilization, one inspiring history, one alluring hope, one foretold future destiny, and one eternal weight of earthly glory."

WHEREAS, Intelligence has been received by this House of the death of the Hon. Martin E. Kaier, Representative elect from the Forty-ninth District; therefore Resolved by the House of Representatives, That with deep and unfeigned sorrow we sincerely deplore the sad and chastening dispensation of Providence that has taken from this General Assembly, in the person of our deceased brother, an honest and efficient citizen, an able, earnest, and upright representative.

Resolved, That to the widow and family so deeply bereft, we extend our warmest sympathies, and hope they may find the balm of consolation by looking to Him who is, indeed, the God of the widow and the fatherless.

Resolved, That these proceedings be ordered spread upon the journal and that the clerk be instructed to forward an engrossed copy of these resolutions to the relict of the deceased.

Resolved, That these resolutions be transmitted to the Senate, and as further indicating our esteem for the deceased that this House do now adjourn.

After the reading of which, Mr. O'Donnell spoke as follows:

MR. SPEAKER: Melancholy indeed is the duty devolved upon me to-day, to add a few words to the resolutions already offered; but while the event that occasions these ceremonies is so deeply afflicting, yet, how eminently fitting; how lasting in its impression for good; how clearly and beautifully evidencing an exalted christian civilization, that we, while engaged in the labors of the day, should cease, for a while, and in our expressions of regret for the departed verify the poetic truth that "Man was made to mourn."

There is no higher type of moral sublimity; no more certain evidence of genuine piety than is exhibited in the person, who, yielding, to reclaim no more forever, the one he has loved can still exclaim, "Thy will be done."

May the agonized widow in looking up have poured into her bleeding bosom the spirit of resignation that is given to the chosen of God; and from the fullness of her heart still be able to say, "Inscrutable as is thy way to me, I know, thou doest all things well." The loss of millions may be recovered, the loss of power may be regained, but the loss of a friend is an irreparable, eternal one indeed. Immeasurably is the bereavement augmented when it is for, not only the good citizen, but the sterling heart of gold. The genial and sincere friend, the one possessed of real nobility of soul. The generous and affectionate parent and the enlarged and cultured mind. In describing such a person I have portrayed the prominent attributes characterizing the Hon. Martin E. Kaier.

Born in Germany in 1841, he, while yet a youth drinking from beneath the fountain whose source is free constitutional liberty, his heart yearned to enjoy its blessings, and early embraced the opportunity to claim as his home the land where he could be peer of the sovereign, aye, sovereign himself. The spirit to move with the "course of empire" caused him to come west, and locating in Du-buque county, he engaged in mercantile business, where he enjoyed the highest confidence of all who knew him. Honored in the service of the government as a postal officer, and in the service of his county as a member of the Board of Supervisors, while yet quite young, he became generally acquainted, and the better he was known the more highly was he esteemed.

Elected in October last a member of this House, he gave promise of still more efficiently and ably serving his people. But, alas! how true, that while in the prime and vigor of manhood, still, our "Hearts like muffled drums are beating, Funeral marches to the grave."

Four weeks ago, I believe, while driving home a distance of ten miles from the city, he had almost unconsciously, both hands frozen. The excruciating torture he suffered belongs to the sphere of imagination, not description, until on Wednesday last he bade farewell to those who cherished his life as their choicest earthly hope, and with heroic endurance, to excel which would have been impossible, he went, after a stewardship of thirty years to receive, let it be hoped, the celestial welcome, "Well done, good and faithful servant enter thou into the joy of the Lord."

Better men have died, for he had his faults and who could wish he had not, and be as we? Had he none, then indeed dissolution could not but translation must have taken him from us. I am glad he had faults, but as he overcame them I rejoice. Better men I say have died—greater men have died; but a soul possessing truer nobility, warmer affections, more exalted honor, more genuine manhood perhaps, never. No doubt his great anxiety and mental distress at being away from what he conceived to be the post of duty, did much to superinduce the nervous fever from which he died. There has been taken from us a noble, true and upright man. A call of the House may be had, but the Sergeant-at-Arms can never, never produce the person of Martin E. Kaier.

Mr. Speaker, 'Tis said the gold-finch sings most sweetly when the hot needle is in its eye; that flowers must be crushed to give forth their greatest sweetness. So, the heart must be wrung that in its chastening we may the purer, better be.

Let us then to-day, panoplied with the more Heavenly Spirit induced by the occasion, profit by the lessons of the hour, that when the summons comes 'twill not be dread, but welcome; sustained in the confidence that we go where life is as pure as a flake of descending snow. Our elysium as beautiful as an angel's dream.

After which Mr. Irish delivered the following address:

MR. IRISH. Mr. Speaker.—I second the motion for the adoption of the resolutions at the Clerk's desk.

This day's session is fitly devoted to honoring the memory of one of our number, chosen as we were chosen, to a place on this floor where the roll is called upon laws devised for the advancement and protection of the interests of the commonwealth whose citizens we are.

Two names have been from day to day called without response, two forms have been absent from our gatherings, and two voices have been lost to our councils. And but now we learn that one of these will be called never more at our desk, and that the form and face we had not seen have passed, forever, away.

It is true that other hands than ours have soothed the sick man's restlessness, have trimmed the silent lamp, and ministered to the weakness and wants that cluster round the final scene. It is true that tears, licensed by a dearer agony than we may know have fallen on the dead man's face, and footsteps fonder and sadder than ours have gone tenderly with him on his last earthly journey.

Though distant from the scenes that saluted his vision as it wandered for the last time beyond the silence and shadows of the sick room to hail the sunbeams which are now to the same eye as the memory of a shadow, for hath it not seen face to face the greater glory of God the Father of us all? yet there are considerations involved which may well claim more than a passing thought while we pause by the grave which has opened in our midst and claimed its own.

Martin Kaier was a young man. Sprung of a hardy race he has found rest in alien soil long before his prime. Not the courage which brought the immigrant over the terrors of the sea, nor the strength that made a home, nor the love that gathered around its hearthstone and summoned to its cheer those now stricken to the heart, nor yet the virtues that marked him for the favor of his fellows who honored him with the highest civic trust in making him a maker of the laws, could avert or delay the summons which in an hour we know not, is waiting for us all.

To me the sadness of death is inexpressible when the young die. The aged who reach four score to find their years a burden greater than they can bear, fade from us and our sorrow is almost joy when we know that they have slept, with weakness and infirmity upon them, to awaken in the full glory of a strength and perfection beside which the strength of man and woman's beauty as we know them are as nothing.

But youth and strength are the elements of that physical perfection which in the case of our friend whose face has faded from amongst men, was the shrine of those manly virtues of the heart which approach spiritual perfectness, and when these are coffined and the clouds cover them it is as the setting of a star that will rise not, the dying of a sunbeam that will trace the morning sky no more, and in the end of such perfection there is a cadence of sadness that will long stir even the lightest heart.

Of his every day walk only the echo has reached me; be it enough to say that a constituency always honoring itself in the choice it makes from year to year of representatives in the law making branch of the State government, chose him with colleagues whom we know are worthy of the place they hold, to share the responsibilities and labor of legislation. A constituency that can never be wrong in the midst of the great memories that cluster around the names of Samuels, Quigly, and Robb, and of those younger recollections which come damp with tears to a stricken people who have followed to an early rest that giant in jurisprudence and gentlest of gentlemen, the lamented Barker.

In his death and the feelings which touch us all with common proof that Humanity can reach a hand over the walls which sect and class and party build about us, there is a profitable lesson of tolerance which we all may learn. For how weak and contemptible appear the issues that divide us and how petty the interests around which we array our forces and do vexing battle when we stand in the sombreness of an event that teaches the instability of States and statutes and all things wrought by human hands!

Thus from the very grave of the good man gone, may spring such thought and fellowship as will temper the scenes we will here share together for a time ere we may press hands and part for the last time, forever!

The resolution was adopted, and on motion of Mr. Evans the House adjourned till next Monday, at ten o'clock, a. m.

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
DES MOINES, IOWA, January 30th, 1872. }

The House convened pursuant to adjournment.

Prayer by Rev. A. I. Craigler.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

The following message was received from the Senate :

MR. SPEAKER.—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Senate has passed the following bill, in which the concurrence of the House is asked :

S. F. No. 40, A bill for an act to regulate taxes and the collection thereof, voted to aid in the construction of railroads.

J. A. T. HULL, Secretary.

Mr. Leahy rose to a question of privilege and offered the following protest to the action of the House on H. F. No. 16, and asked that the same be spread upon the Journal :

The undersigned takes the liberty to dissent from the action of the House, on H. F. No. 16, so far as it pertains to the repeal of chapter 102, laws of the 13th General Assembly, and in support of his position offers the following reasons:

1st. A number of municipal corporations have raised money under the provisions of said act, and invested the same in railroad enterprises, with the understanding that other municipalities along the proposed railway line would lend their aid in a similar manner to the construction of such railway. The abrupt repeal of said act will prevent many of those corporations from furnishing the promised assistance, their mutual railroad project must be abandoned, and the means already invested will be a total loss.

2d. Many of our citizens also have invested their capital in railroad enterprises under the inducement presented of aid voted, and to be voted, under the provisions of said law, by municipal corporations. The sudden repeal of said act will deprive those citizens of the promised support, compel them to abandon work already begun, and jeopardize, if not render a total loss, to capital invested.

Although it seems quite clear that such a law ought not to have found a place on our statute book, yet having been made the law of the State by two successive General Assemblies and sanctioned by its highest judicial tribunal, those of our citizens who, confiding in the wisdom of the Legislature and the judiciary, have proceeded in conformity with the provisions of said act, and who have been induced thereby to make large outlays of capital, ought not to be subjected to serious pecuniary losses by its sudden repeal.

M. H. LEAHY,
Franklin county.

Mr. Duncombe offered the following resolution:

Memorial and Joint Resolution, asking Congress for the establishment, erection, and maintenance of a Marine Hospital, at Sioux City, Iowa.

Your memorialists, the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, respectfully represent, That the present laws of trade and commerce upon the Upper Missouri river, make Sioux City the rendezvous, and starting point for four-fifths of all the commerce upon that river; that during the last season of navigation, twenty-seven large steamers were employed in the commerce of the Upper Missouri river, plying between Sioux City and Fort Benton, a distance of about 2,500 miles, and that there is a contemplated increase of the number of said boats to forty, for the business of said river for the coming seasons; that from the large number of men employed in said commerce there are regularly collected the legitimate hospital dues, contributed by seamen from their wages for their support in cases of misfortune and sickness.

Your memorialists further show, that there have many serious accidents and much sickness occurred among the said seamen, rendering them unable to labor and as a consequence, they become immediate objects of charity, and their care and support entirely devolve upon the civil authorities of Sioux City. That during the past season there were at least a dozen cases of fractured limbs, several cases of fever and other diseases, besides a case of small pox. Owing to its location all these cases, together with many others not reported, fell directly to the care of the city.

Your memorialists would further represent that Sioux City being the last point reached by railroad on the frontier, all the military serving at the posts on the upper Missouri, pass through that place, and annually there are many discharged soldiers who reach Sioux City, sick and destitute, and worthy objects of charity.

Your memorialists know of no marine hospital within a very great distance of this point, and are of the opinion that justice and charity demand its location at this point; therefore,

Resolved, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives requested to use their influence to secure the passage of an act of Congress providing for a marine hospital at Sioux City, and that a copy of this memorial be forwarded by the Secretary of State to each of the Senators and Representatives of Iowa in Congress.

WHEREAS, The Thirteenth General Assembly of the State of Iowa did in due form, by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, agree to proposed amendments to the State constitution, as follows:

First. Strike from section one of article two of said constitution the word "male."

Second. Resolution in relation to the binding of the report of the Codifying Commissioners.

Resolution herewith subscribed.

C. V. GARDNER, 2d Asst. Secretary.

The hour having arrived for the consideration of the special order,—H. F. No. 20, A bill for an act making it unlawful for any members of the General Assembly to receive mileage, postage stamps, stationery or other perquisites to be paid for out of the State Treasury, the bill was taken up and considered.

Leave was granted to Mr. Beresheim to offer the following joint resolution, which was adopted:

A Joint Resolution, instructing our Senators and requesting our Representatives in Congress to take such action as will secure the eastern terminus of the Union Pacific Railroad in Iowa, according to the terms and conditions of the Act of Congress providing therefor, and protesting on behalf of the State of Iowa against the action of that Company, in making a contract with Omaha, providing "That the eastern terminus shall be and remain in said city of Omaha," and for other purposes.

WHEREAS, The Act of Congress under which, with amendments thereto, the Union Pacific Railroad was constructed, provided "That the said Union Pacific Railroad Company is hereby authorized and required to construct a single line of railroad and telegraph from a point on the Western boundary of the State of Iowa, to be fixed by the President of the United States."

WHEREAS, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, did, on the 7th day of March, 1864, establish that point on the western boundary of the State of Iowa, east of and opposite the east line of section 10, in township 15, north of range 13, east of the sixth principal meridian, in the Territory of Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, Congress in 1864, in order to enable said Company "To make convenient and necessary connections with other roads," authorized said Company "to establish and maintain all necessary ferries upon and across the Missouri river," and "to construct bridges over said Missouri river," and provided by said Act of Congress, that such bridge "shall be built, kept and maintained at the expense of said Company; and,

WHEREAS, Congress authorized said Company "for the more perfect connection of any railroads that are, or shall be constructed to the Missouri river," to issue such bonds and secure the same by mortgage on the bridge and approaches and appurtenances as it may deem needful to construct and maintain its bridge over said river, and the tracks and depots required to perfect the same, as now authorized by act of Congress,"

"Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed so as to change the eastern terminus of the Union Pacific Railroad from the place where it is now fixed under existing laws," and

WHEREAS, Said Company was by act of Congress, required to operate said road, "as one continuous line;" and

WHEREAS, By contract made in January, 1872, between said company and the city of Omaha, said company agreed with said city "that the eastern terminus of the Union Pacific Railroad shall be and remain at said city of Omaha," and expressly provided that said company will "transfer upon said grounds" in Omaha "all its passengers, baggage, express matter, mails, and freight, north, south, or east bound," all of which is in direct and flagrant violation of the spirit and letter of the law, and in direct conflict with the acts of Congress, creating and giving aid to said company, and in direct conflict with the agreement and understanding between said company and the city of Council Bluffs; and

WHEREAS, Congress provided in the original act to "aid in the construction of" this railroad, "that in case said company shall fail to comply with the terms and conditions of this act by not completing said road and telegraph and branches within a reasonable time, or by not keeping the same in repair and use, but shall permit the same for an unreasonable time to remain unfinished, or out of repair, and unfit for use, Congress may pass any act to insure the speedy completion of said road and branches, or put the same in repair and use, and may direct the income of said railroad and telegraph line to be thereafter devoted to the use of the United States, to repay all such expenditures, caused by the default and neglect of said company, etc."

Therefore be it resolved by the General Assembly of Iowa, That our senators be instructed, and our representatives requested to use their influence to protect the State of Iowa in her rights in continuing the eastern terminus of the Union Pacific Railroad within her boundary as provided by law, and that they exercise their full powers in securing a full and complete investigation of all the matter herein referred to; and in case it is found necessary in order to compel the Union Pacific Railroad Company to carry out according to the spirit and letter of the law, the construction, completion and operation of their road so as to make the terminus thereof in fact in Iowa, and the transfers from the Iowa railroads, in fact in Iowa, that they take the necessary steps to secure such congressional action as will by means of "the use of the income of said railroad," or by such other means as they may deem most effectual in securing the object, complete said road into Iowa, and will provide all necessary buildings, tracks and improvements in Iowa for the transfer of all passengers, freights, mails, express matters and business in said State of all Iowa railroads.

Be it further resolved by the General Assembly of Iowa, That we now enter our solemn protest against the unqualified and unmistakable fraud attempted to be perpetrated on our State, her people, and her railroad companies by the flagrant violation of law, by said Union Pacific Railroad Company in the contract above referred to, with the city of Omaha.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State furnish a copy of these resolutions to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, and to each of the Government Directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

Mr. Durham, from Special Committee appointed to visit the Reform School, submitted the following the report, which was ordered to be placed on file and be printed.

To the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Your joint committee appointed to visit the State Reform School proceeded, during the recess, to discharge that duty, and herewith present the following report:

That we made personal examination of the premises, and found the buildings in good condition and kept in the best of order. Your committee believe that the money appropriated at the last session of the legislature for the support of the school, has been legitimately and economically expended. We found the youth in charge, under the skillful management of Superintendent McCarty, well cared for mentally, morally, and physically, being comfortably clothed, cleanly in appearance, and under the influence of wholesome restraint, and proper education. Your committee are unanimous in the opinion that the institution is one of vital importance to the State; that while its beneficial effects are already being felt in a large degree, we are fully persuaded that its influence for good has only begun. Inasmuch as the present location is near one corner of the State on rented ground, and with a view to a permanent location of the school, we would recommend that the trustees be at once authorized to purchase grounds at some central point on or near some line of railroad for a permanent location of the school, upon grounds so purchased and owned by the State, and appropriations made to secure the requisite buildings thereon, and other needful facilities, at the earliest possibly day. We would represent to you, that the fencing on the farm is in very bad repair, and inasmuch as the school cannot be removed this year, and the lease of the State has six years to run, we are of the opinion that it would be to the best interest of the State to appropriate sufficient amount to repair the fencing on the farm. Your committee are also of the opinion that idleness is one of the great incentives to crime, and in order to reform the youth, they must have employment, both mentally and physically, and owing to the limited number of teams and farming implements in the hands of the Superintendent, and but few workshops on the farm, he cannot now profitably employ all the boys in the school, we are, therefore, unanimous in the opinion that it would be to the interest of the school for the State to purchase at least three or four more teams for the use of the same, giving employment for a greater number of boys, and hence cultivating more land, thereby making the school a source of income.

Your committee recommend that such legislation be had as will secure to the school all the facilities necessary to render it, in the highest degree, successful; and that an appropriation sufficient to permanently locate the school be made.

It might be proper for your committee to state that they believe the school has been managed as successfully up to the present time as could have been expected with the limited means and facilities in the hands of the trustees, and we recommend that an appropriation be made adequate to meet the current necessities without placing the trustees under the necessity of borrowing money without authority.

For a detailed account of the present condition of the institution, we refer you to the biennial report of the trustees and superintendent of said school. Submitted by

No. 11, A bill for an act to amend an act, &c., beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do not pass. They have reconsidered the whole question with the desire to reduce the penalty as low as possible, consistently with the proper collection of taxes, and the keeping up of the credit of warrants and bonds of towns, and counties, and State. After a careful review of all the elements of the discussion, they report, that in their opinion any considerable reduction of the penalty would result in finding no purchasers for delinquent lands, except for the best lots; that delinquencies would largely increase from year to year; and with these would come additional burdens on payers of taxes within towns and counties. They believe, also, that the result would be a larger delinquency on the part of nonresident land-owners, who would employ their money in speculations elsewhere; and that it would tend to restore the former financial troubles in the counties from which they are now escaping.

No. 254, A bill for an act to amend section 781, Revision of 1860, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be amended by inserting after the word "shall," in the seventeenth line of the first section, the words "after the 1st day of January 1873," and by striking out section two, and that being so amended it do pass.

the petition be returned to the files without further action thereon ; as the principle involved in this appropriation for the relief of a number, involves the right of one, whose property is destroyed, to come for the like relief; and would practically establish the State as an insurer against providential fires. Finding no precedent for this action in this State, they do not feel justified in recommending it.

Also, H. F. No. 95, A bill for an act to amend section 4, chapter 106, laws of the Thirteenth General Assembly, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be indefinitely postponed, the subject being fully before the House in another bill.

No. 279, A bill for an act to tax railroad property," &c., and against the passage of the bill containing it, for the following reasons :

1st, The constitution provides that the property of corporations "shall be subject to taxation, the same as that of individuals." The Supreme Court has decided that the taxes by said section nine, released to said railroad companies, and the collection whereof it prohibits, were levied by virtue of, and in accordance with the constitution and laws, and that the legislature has no right to exempt railroad property from any kind of taxation to which the property of other citizens is liable.

2d, This bill, by this retroactive section, exempts railroad property from taxation for township and municipal purposes, in violation of the constitution, as has been decided by the Supreme Court in its late decision on that subject.

They cannot, therefore, vote for a bill, which by one of its clauses, violates the constitution, as it has been decided by the Supreme Court, and attempts to accomplish a purpose which is authoritatively declared to be beyond the constitutional power of the General Assembly.

3d. That he was present during the entire forenoon session up to within three minutes of 12 o'clock; that he voted on a bill then on its passage, and left the House supposing that it was impossible to do more than to finish the roll call before the hour of adjournment, and that during this absence of three minutes the roll call on the bill then pending was completed, and the gentleman from

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

By leave, Mr. Kasson, from the Committee on Ways and Means, submitted the following report:

MR. SPEAKER:—Your Committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred Substitute for H. F. No. 281, A bill for an act to amend section 724 of the Revision of 1860, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with an amendment striking out the first proviso of the bill.

Also, memorial of R. G. Orwig, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration, and have instructed me to report the same back to the House with the following report of facts and accompanying resolution, the passage of which is recommended:

First. The committee did not enter into the questions of the fairness or regularity of the judicial proceedings, nor into the personal questions raised in the memorial between Orwig and the referee, Mr. Nourse. They regarded such inquiries as not pertinent to the jurisdiction of this committee.

Second. So much of the memorial as related to the finances of the State, they believed it to be their duty to examine.

In this respect they find that the property originally conveyed to a trustee as security for the funds alleged to have been wrongfully taken from the State, was estimated, on the sworn statement of T. F. Withrow, among others, at thirty thousand dollars.

It afterwards appeared that there were liens on the property, which had to be removed to make the title good. This was done at a cost to the State, for the discharge of liens and for attorneys employed in the numerous suits under the direction of the Att'y-General, of $14,751.68.

A suit for the most valuable property, known as the homestead, is still pending.

For the property acquired by the State heretofore sold, there were taken three notes, as follows :

1st, Of Thos. F. Withrow ; dated Dec. 23, 1867, and due Jan. 1, 1870, with interest at 8 per cent—$1,512.

2d, Of J. M. Forney & Co.; dated Jan. 1, 1868, due January 1, 1873, with interest at 8 per cent—$5,000.

3d, Of J. A. Williamson (afterwards assumed by the Hawkeye Insurance Company), dated Feb. 13, 1868, and due Feb. 13, 1873, with interest at 8 per cent—$5,250.

4th, Cash received from sales to the amount of $4,675.58.

The first note of T. F. Withrow the committee found overdue for two years, both in principal and interest. Since their investigation it has been paid in full to the amount of $2,027.70.

One year's interest only has been paid by J. M. Forney & Co., but they are reported good for the whole amount, besides the property security.

The interest was in arrear for one year on the note assumed by the Hawkeye Insurance Company, but is now paid in full, and the company is abundantly responsible independent of security.

The committee is informed that the notes were deposited with the Treasurer for safe-keeping by the late Attorney-General, but that the Treasurer is not the party charged with the prosecution thereof.

The probabilities of the recovery of the homestead property cannot be stated by your committee, as they have no information thereon further than the opinion of the counsel that the State will ultimately acquire the same.

But they deem it important that some officers should be especially charged with all this interest, and with authority to bring to an end the prolonged litigation, if practicable and advantageous to the State.

They therefore recommend the adoption of the resolution herewith reported.

JOHN A. KASSON, Chairman.

MR. SPEAKER:—Your Committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred substitute for S. F. They find the bill referred to them makes provisions more burdensome and oppressive than those of chapter 118 of the laws of the Eleventh General Assembly, and if adopted would probably cost the State considerably more than the $75,000 estimated by the Auditor for the current fiscal term. The substitute proposed by this committee provides for the gratuitous distribution of 50,000 copies of the laws in printed slips, for the information of the electors of this State. This can be done at a cost of less than $2,500 for the 50,000 copies, and will, in their judgment, much more effectually bring knowledge of the laws home to the people and in a form to be more conveniently preserved for reference. The substitute also provides for the publication of the laws in pamphlet form.

Mr. Newbold offered the following resolution which was adopted by the House:

Resolved, That the thanks of the House are eminently due, and hereby tendered to the clerks, sergeant-at-arms, door-keeper, janitors, paper folders, and messengers, of the House, also, postmaster, and his assistant, for their uniform courtesy, efficiency and promptness, with which they have discharged their several duties.

Mr. Leahy moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait on the Governor, and inform him that the House was now ready to adjourn.

The Speaker announced as such committee, Messrs. Leahy, Bergh, and Merrell.

Mr. O'Donnell moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait on the Senate, and inform them that the House was ready to adjourn.

The Speaker appointed as such committee, Messrs. O'Donnell, Kasson, and Gear.

Mr. Irish rose to a question of privilege, and after expressing the sense of the House, as to the estimate in which the Speaker was held by one and all of his associate Representatives, both as a presiding officer, and as a man, he presented in the name of the House, a beautiful cane, on which was encribed, "To the Speaker of the 14th General Assembly."

Mr. Wilson then addressed the House of Representatives as follows:

GENTLEMEN:—Occasions like this mark an era in the life of any man. Whatever anxiety I may have had, relative to my acceptance, whatever apprehension about what might occur in the future, are now set at rest by your generous act and words. It has always been in your power to make my occupancy of the chair a failure or a success, and lest I should doubt your intentions towards me, you chose, in the goodness of your hearts, to combine and lift me higher than poor men are often lifted and enhance the feelings of respect I have entertained for some of you, the feeling of reverence I have entertained for others, and the feelings of sympathy and admiration I have entertained for all.

While these presents are beautiful and intrinsically valuable, and will always be looked upon with pride, the spirit of kindness that has supported me through the session will be treasured the most sacred and remembered with the greatest pleasure. It has been sometimes difficult and perplexing to detect the proper course, and find the true solution of the parliamentary problem; but my greatest anxiety has been to keep the House within its own rules without deciding harshly to the injury of any one's feelings, or repelling any member, however modest.

There has been much good nature displayed; even during the most exciting debates, seldom has consent been refused to any one when he desired a hearing, the House rarely using the rules of suppression. The previous question has been scarcely called for, motions to lay on the table almost unheard of, debate rarely cut off by a suspension of the rules, consequently the counsels of those of you who have not a technical knowledge of parliamentary laws have not been hushed; nor a division demanded till the fullest light beamed on every subject.

I am well aware that such unanimity could not have obtained had party spirit ran higher or the minority been more numerously represented; and I would not be understood as pointing to the existence of a germ of the spirit of contention in the minority party on this floor. Among them are some of our best economists, some of our clearest and most logical thinkers, some of the warmest friends of our charitable and educational institutions; some of the most able and outspoken advocates of legislation against monopoly; some whose technical and analytical minds make them peculiarly valuable in perfecting matters before the House; and also some of the finest specimens of the western legislator and man; but in accounting for the singular good feeling in our counsels—suppose the absence of party lines and party spirit has something to do with it, the consequence is, our files are clear; and our most important business disposed of by permitting every subject to stand or fall on its merits, on a division, instead of being suppressed by combinations sustained by technical rules.

The acts done by the Fourteenth General Assembly will be judged by the people. That every member of the House has done his duty to the best of his ability will be conceded by every unprejudiced mind. The charitable and educational interests of the State have been cared for liberally, provision has been made to reclaim juvenile offenders. The Normal School bill is perhaps the only one whose loss is regretted by many of our best citizens, but a desire to keep the expenses of the State within the present levy will in part explain it.

Legislation has been had in the House relative to the vexed question of railroad tariffs, but the question will be only satisfactorily settled when a larger majority for or against such a law is returned to both branches of the Assembly.

We have had a new revision of the laws before us and in our committees much of the session, which has prolonged its duration, but its magnitude and importance required more time than could be given it while the usual session work demanded our attention, which work we find increases as the State grows in population, and her varied industries expand.

Good natured critics have kindly condescended to speak wisely of some of our actions, who would have perhaps been conspicuous for their silence had they been of our number, but the legislator who is true to his convictions of what is right and just, will find sufficient indorsement in an approving conscience, and I doubt not an approving constituency. There is much I have to thank this House for; my gratitude goes out to every individual member. No man just from his plow could succeed to any reasonable degree without just such consideration and support as I have had. You must permit me a life time of gratitude in which to thank you; no poor words I can now express would sufficiently represent me.
