EXPLANATION OF VOTES ON SENATE FILE NO. 280.

MR. SPEAKER—I vote "aye" on this bill only because my constituents have demanded a primary election bill, and this is the only one before the House.

S. A. FEAY.

MR. SPEAKER—I vote "aye" on this bill because I am emphatically for a primary law and find this is the best law this Legislature will allow to pass.

CLYDE G. SPARKS.

MR. SPEAKER—I vote "aye" and explain my vote thus: The party is pledged to a primary law. I believe this primary law will prove the most expensive, the most unsatisfactory, the most unpopular measure ever passed by any General Assembly in this State, and my judgment is that there will be a demand for its repeal.

J. F. OFFILL.

MR. SPEAKER—My reason for voting for this bill is that my party is pledged to a primary law.

GEO. W. SWAN.

MR. SPEAKER—My reason for voting "no" is that I was in favor of referring the bill to the Committee on Elections, which was defeated.

SIMON MILLER.

MR. SPEAKER—I was absent when the roll call was taken on House File No. 395, or Senate File No. 280, and would have voted "yea" had I been present.

W. L. HARDING.

MR. SPEAKER—I was under the doctor's care when the primary bill came up. There were some points in the bill that did not suit me, but I am in favor of a primary law, therefore would have voted "aye" had I been able to be present.

THOMAS GENEVA.

MR. SPEAKER—I was absent when the roll call was taken on Senate File No. 280, on account of the funeral of an old soldier friend and neighbor, Alfred Greer, and would have voted "aye" had I been present.

WM. ANDERSON.

On motion of Moore of Linn, the House adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

A BILL for an act to provide for the government of certain cities (amending Title Five (5) of the Code).

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That any city of the first class, or with special charter, now or hereafter having a population of 25,000 or over, as shown by the last preceding State census, may become organized as a city under the provisions of this act by proceeding as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. Upon petition of electors equal in number to twenty-five per centum of the votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding city election of any such city, the mayor shall, by proclamation, submit the question of organizing as a city under this act at a special election to be held at a time specified therein, and within two months after said petition is filed. If said plan is not adopted at the special election called, the question of adopting said plan shall not be re-submitted to the voters of said city for adoption within two years thereafter, and then the question to adopt shall be re-submitted upon the presentation of a petition signed by electors equal in number to twenty-five per centum of the votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding general city election.

At such election, the proposition to be submitted shall be, "Shall the proposition to organize the city of (name the city), under Chapter (naming the chapter containing this act) of the acts of the Thirty-second General Assembly, be adopted?" and the election thereupon shall be conducted, the vote canvassed, and the result declared in the same manner as provided by law in respect to other city elections. If the majority of the votes cast shall be in favor thereof, the city shall thereupon proceed to the election of a mayor and four councilmen, as hereinafter provided. Immediately after such proposition is adopted, the mayor shall transmit to the Governor, to the Secretary of State, and to the County Auditor, each a certificate stating that such proposition was adopted.

At the next regular city election after the adoption of such proposition, there shall be elected a mayor and four councilmen. In the event, however, that the next regular city election does not occur within one year after such special election, the mayor shall, within ten days after such special election, by proclamation, call a special election for the election of a mayor and four councilmen, sixty days' notice being given in such call; such election in either case to be conducted as hereinafter provided.

All by-laws, ordinances and resolutions lawfully passed and in force in any such city under its former organization shall remain in force until altered or repealed by the council elected under the provisions of this act. The territorial limits of such city shall remain the same as under its former organization and all rights and property of every description which were vested in any such city under its former organization, shall vest in the same under the organization herein contemplated, and no right or liability either in favor of or against it, existing at the time, and no suit or prosecution of any kind shall be affected by such change, unless otherwise provided for in this act.

No franchise or right to occupy or use the streets, highways, bridges or public places in any such city shall be granted, renewed or extended, except by ordinance, and every franchise or grant for interurban or street railways, gas or water works, electric light or power plants, heating plants, telegraph or telephone systems, or other public service utilities within said city, must be authorized or approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at a general or special election.

Sec. 13. No officer or employe elected or appointed in any such city shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or job for work or materials, or the profits thereof, or services to be furnished or performed for the city; and no such officer or employe shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or job for work or materials or the profits thereof, or services to be furnished or performed for any person, firm or corporation operating an interurban railway, street railway, gas works, water works, electric light or power plant, heating plant, telegraph line, telephone exchange, or other public utility within the territorial limits of said city. No such officer or employe shall accept or receive, directly or indirectly, from any person, firm or corporation operating within the territorial limits of said city, any interurban railway, street railway, gas works, water works, electric light or power plant, heating plant, telegraph line or telephone exchange, or other business using or operating under a public franchise, any frank, free pass, free ticket or free service, or accept or receive, directly or indirectly, from any such person, firm or corporation, any other service upon terms more favorable than is granted to the public generally. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor, and every such contract or agreement shall be void.

Such prohibition of free transportation shall not apply to policemen or firemen in uniform; nor shall any free service to city officials provided by any franchise or ordinance be affected by this section. Any officer or employe of such city who, by solicitation or otherwise, exerts his influence, directly or indirectly, to influence other officers or employes of such city to adopt his political views or to favor any particular person or candidate for office, or who shall in any manner contribute money, labor or other thing of value to any person for election purposes, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days.

Sec. 14. Immediately after organizing, the council shall, by ordinance, appoint three civil service commissioners, who shall hold office, one until the first Monday in April in the second year after his appointment, one until the first Monday in April of the fourth year after his appointment, and one until the first Monday in April of the sixth year after his appointment. Each succeeding council shall, as soon as practicable after organizing, appoint one commissioner for six years, who shall take the place of the commissioner whose term of office expires. The chairman of the commission for each biennial period shall be the member whose term first expires. No person while on the said commission shall hold or be a candidate for any office of public trust. Two of said members shall constitute a quorum to transact business. The commissioners must be citizens of Iowa, and residents of the city for more than three years next preceding their appointment.

The council may remove any of said commissioners during their term of office for cause, four councilmen voting in favor of such removal, and shall fill any vacancy that may occur in said commission for the unexpired term. The city council shall provide suitable rooms in which the said civil service commission may hold its meetings. They shall have a clerk, who shall keep a record of all its meetings, such city to supply the said commission with all necessary equipment to properly attend to such business.

(a) Before entering upon the duties of their office, each of said commissioners shall take and subscribe an oath, which shall be filed and kept in the office of the city clerk, to support the constitution of the United States and of the State of Iowa, and to obey the laws, and to aim to secure and maintain an honest and efficient force, free from partisan distinction or control, and to perform the duties of his office to the best of his ability.

(b) Said commission shall, on the first Monday of April and October of each year, or oftener if it shall be deemed necessary, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the council, hold examinations for the purpose of determining the qualifications of applicants for positions, which examinations shall be practical and shall fairly test the fitness of the persons examined to discharge the duties of the position to which they seek to be appointed. Said commission shall, as soon as possible after such examination, certify to the council double the number of persons necessary to fill vacancies, who, according to its records, have the highest standing for the positions they seek to fill as a result of such examination, and all vacancies which occur, that come under the civil service, prior to the date of the next regular examination, shall be filled from said list so certified; provided, however, that should the list for any cause be reduced to less than three for any division, then the council or the head of the proper department may temporarily fill a vacancy, but not to exceed thirty days.

(c) All persons subject to such civil service examination shall be subject to removal from office or employment by the council for misconduct or failure to perform their duties under such rules and regulations as it may adopt, and the chief of police, chief of the fire department, or any superintendent or foreman in charge of municipal work, may peremptorily suspend or discharge any subordinate then under his direction for neglect of duty or disobedience of orders, but shall, within twenty-four hours thereafter, report such suspension or discharge, and the reason therefor, to the superintendent of his department, who shall thereupon affirm or revoke such discharge or suspension according to the facts.

Such employe or the officer discharging or suspending him may, within five days of such ruling, appeal therefrom to the council, which shall fully hear and determine the matter.

(d) The council shall have the power to enforce the attendance of witnesses, the production of books and papers, and power to administer oaths in the same manner and with like effect, and under the same penalties, as in the case of magistrates exercising criminal or civil jurisdiction under the statutes of Iowa.

Said commissioners shall make annual report to the council, and it may require a special report from said commission at any time; and said council may prescribe such rules and regulations for the proper conduct of the business of the said commission as shall be found expedient and advisable, including restrictions on appointment, promotions, removals for cause, roster of employes, certification of records to the auditor, and restrictions on payment to persons improperly employed.

(e) The council of such city shall have power to pass ordinances imposing suitable penalties for the punishment of persons violating any of the provisions of this act relating to the civil service commission.

(f) The provisions of this section shall apply to all appointive officers and employes of such city, except those especially named in Section Eight (8) of this act, commissioners of any kind (laborers whose occupation requires no special skill or fitness), election officials, and mayor's secretary and assistant solicitor, where such officers are appointed; provided, however, that existing employes heretofore appointed, or employed after competitive examination, or for long service under the provisions of Chapter Thirty-one (31), acts of the Twenty-ninth General Assembly, and subsequent amendments thereto, shall retain their positions without further examination unless removed for cause.

All officers and employes in any such city shall be elected or appointed with reference to their qualifications and fitness, and for the good of the public service, and without reference to their political faith or party affiliations.

It shall be unlawful for any candidate for office, or any officer in any such city, directly or indirectly, to give or promise any person or persons any office, position, employment, benefit, or anything of value, for the purpose of influencing or obtaining the political support, aid or vote of any person or persons.

Every elective officer in any such city shall, within thirty days after qualifying, file with the city clerk, and publish at least once in a daily newspaper of general circulation, his sworn statement of all election and campaign expenses, and by whom such funds were contributed.

Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor and be a ground for removal from office.

SEC. 15. The council shall each month print in pamphlet form a detailed itemized statement of all expenses of the city during the preceding month, and furnish printed copies thereof to the State library, the city library, the daily newspapers of the city, and to persons who shall apply therefor at the office of the city clerk. At the end of each year the council shall cause a full and complete examination of all the books and accounts of the city to be made by competent accountants, and shall publish the result of such examination in the manner above provided for publication of statements of monthly expenditures.

SEC. 16. If, at the beginning of the term of office of the first council elected in such city under the provisions of this act, the appropriations for the expenditures of the city government for the current fiscal year have been made, said council shall have power, by ordinance, to revise, repeal or change said appropriations and to make additional appropriations.

SEC. 17. In the construction of this act the following rules shall be observed, unless such construction would be inconsistent with the manifest intent or repugnant to the context of the statute:

1. The words "councilman" or "alderman" shall be construed to mean "councilman" when applied to cities under this act.

2. When an office or officer is named in any law referred to in this act, it shall, when applied to cities under this act, be construed to mean the office or officer having the same functions or duties under the provisions of this act, or under ordinances passed under authority thereof.

3. The word "franchise" shall include every special privilege in the streets, highways and public places of the city, whether granted by the State or the city, which does not belong to citizens generally by common right.

4. The word "electors" shall be construed to mean persons qualified to vote for elective offices at regular municipal elections.

SEC. 18. The holder of any elective office may be removed at any time by the electors qualified to vote for a successor of such incumbent. The procedure to effect the removal of an incumbent of an elective office shall be as follows: A petition signed by electors entitled to vote for a successor to the incumbent sought to be removed, equal in number to at least twenty per centum of the entire vote for all candidates for the office of mayor cast at the last preceding general municipal election, demanding an election of a successor of the person sought to be removed, shall be filed with the city clerk, which petition shall contain a general statement of the grounds for which the removal is sought. The signatures to the petition need not all be appended to one paper, but each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number. One of the signers of each such paper shall make an oath before an officer competent to administer oaths that the statements therein made are true as he believes, and that each signature to the paper appended is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be. Within ten days from the date of filing such petition the city clerk shall examine and from the voters' register ascertain whether or not said petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, and, if necessary, the council shall allow him extra help for that purpose; and he shall attach to said petition his certificate, showing the result of said examination. If by the clerk's certificate the petition is shown to be insufficient, it may be amended within ten days from the date of said certificate. The clerk shall, within ten days after such amendment, make like examination of the amended petition, and if his certificate shall show the same to be insufficient, it shall be returned to the person filing the same; without prejudice, however, to the filing of a new petition to the same effect. If the petition shall be found to be sufficient, the clerk shall submit the same to the council without delay. If the petition shall be found to be sufficient the council shall order and fix a date for holding the said election, not less than thirty days or more than forty days from the date of the clerk's certificate to the council that a sufficient petition is filed.

The council shall make or cause to be made publication of notice and all arrangements for holding such election, and the same shall be conducted, returned, and the result thereof declared, in all respects as are other city elections. The successor of any officer so removed shall hold office during the unexpired term of his predecessor. Any person sought to be removed may be a candidate to succeed himself, and unless he requests otherwise in writing, the clerk shall place his name on the official ballot without nomination. In any such removal election, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. At such election if some other person than the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, the incumbent shall thereupon be deemed removed from the office upon qualification of his successor. In case the party who receives the highest number of votes should fail to qualify within ten days after receiving notification of election, the office shall be deemed vacant. If the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, he shall continue in office. The said method of removal shall be cumulative and additional to the methods heretofore provided by law.

Sec. 19. Any proposed ordinance may be submitted to the council by petition signed by electors of the city equal in number to the percentage hereinafter required. The signatures, verifications, authentications, inspection, certification, amendment and submission of such petition shall be the same as provided for petitions under Section Eighteen (18) hereof.

If the petition accompanying the proposed ordinance be signed by electors equal in number to twenty per centum of the votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding general election, and contains a request that the said ordinance be submitted to a vote of the people if not passed by the council, such council shall either

(a) Pass said ordinance without alteration within twenty days after the attachment of the clerk's certificate to the accompanying petition, or

(b) Forthwith after the clerk shall attach to the petition accompanying such ordinance his certificate of sufficiency, the council shall call a special election, unless a general municipal election is fixed within ninety days thereafter, and at such special or general municipal election, if one is so fixed, such ordinance shall be submitted without alteration to the vote of the electors of said city.

But if the petition is signed by not less than ten nor more than twenty per centum of the electors, as above defined, then the council shall, within twenty days, pass said ordinance without change, or submit the same at the next general city election occurring not more than thirty days after the clerk's certificate of sufficiency is attached to said petition.

The ballots used when voting upon said ordinance shall contain these words: "For the ordinance" (stating the nature of the proposed ordinance), and "Against the ordinance" (stating the nature of the proposed ordinance). If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, such ordinance shall thereupon become a valid and binding ordinance of the city; and any ordinance proposed by petition, or which shall be adopted by a vote of the people, cannot be repealed or amended except by a vote of the people.

Any number of proposed ordinances may be voted upon at the same election, in accordance with the provisions of this section; but there shall not be more than one special election in any period of six months for such purpose.

The council may submit a proposition for the repeal of any such ordinance, or for amendments thereto, to be voted upon at any succeeding general city election; and should such proposition so submitted receive a majority of the votes cast thereon at such election, such ordinance shall thereby be repealed or amended accordingly. Whenever any ordinance or proposition is required by this act to be submitted to the voters of the city at any election, the city clerk shall cause such ordinance or proposition to be published once in each of the daily newspapers published in said city; such publication to be not more than twenty or less than five days before the submission of such proposition or ordinance to be voted on.

SEC. 20. No ordinance passed by the council, except when otherwise required by the general laws of the State or by the provisions of this act, except an ordinance for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, which contains a statement of its urgency and is passed by a two-thirds vote of the council, shall go into effect before ten days from the time of its final passage; and if during said ten days a petition signed by electors of the city council in number to at least twenty-five per centum of the entire vote cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding general municipal election at which a mayor was elected, protesting against the passage of such ordinance, be presented to the council, the same shall thereupon be suspended from going into operation, and it shall be the duty of the council to reconsider such ordinance; and if the same is not entirely repealed, the council shall submit the ordinance, as is provided by Subsection b of Section Nineteen (19) of this act, to the vote of the electors of the city, either at the general election or at a special municipal election to be called for that purpose; and such ordinance shall not go into effect or become operative unless a majority of the qualified electors voting on the same shall vote in favor thereof. Said petition shall be in all respects in accordance with the provisions of said Section Nineteen (19) except as to the percentage of signers, and be examined and certified to by the clerk in all respects as is therein provided.

SEC. 21. Any city which has operated for more than six years under the provisions of this act may abandon such organization hereunder, and accept the provisions of the general law of the State then applicable to cities of its population, by proceeding as follows:

Upon the petition of not less than twenty per centum of the electors of such city a special election shall be called, at which the following proposition only be submitted: "Shall the city (name of city) abandon its organization under Chapter.....of the acts of the Thirty-second General Assembly, and become a city under the general law governing cities of like population?"

If the majority of the votes cast at such special election be in favor of such proposition, the officers elected at the next succeeding biennial election shall be those then prescribed by the general law of State for cities of like population, and upon the qualification of such officers such city shall become a city under such general law of the State; but such change shall not in any manner or degree affect the property, rights or liabilities of any nature of such city, but shall merely extend to such change in its form of government.

The sufficiency of such petition shall be determined, the election ordered and conducted, and the results declared, generally as provided by Section Eighteen (18) of this act, in so far as the provisions thereof are applicable.

SEC. 22. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

SECTION 1. Hereafter the penitentiary at Anamosa shall be officially known and designated as "The Reformatory," and shall be the reformatory department of the State Penitentiary of Iowa.

SEC. 2. Any male person who shall be committed to the penitentiary after the 4th day of July, 1907, and who at the time of commitment is between the ages of sixteen and thirty years and who has never before been convicted of a felony, shall be confined in the reformatory; provided, however, that all male persons committed to life imprisonment or for rape, sodomy, incest, robbery, breaking and entering a dwelling house in the night time with the intent to commit therein a public offense, or for treason, shall be kept in the penitentiary at Fort Madison.

SEC. 3. The criminal insane shall continue to be confined in the insane department at Anamosa, as provided in Section Fifty-seven Hundred and Nine (5709) of the Code.

SEC. 4. Any male prisoner confined in the reformatory may be transferred to the penitentiary at Fort Madison, upon order of the Board of Control, for violation of the rules of the reformatory or for insubordination, and a like transfer may be ordered by said board whenever it shall be of the opinion that a prisoner is not a hopeful subject for reformatory treatment.

SEC. 4½. If it shall appear at any time after conviction and incarceration in the reformatory that a prisoner was over thirty years of age at the time of commitment, he shall be at once transferred to the prison at Fort Madison, and he shall likewise be transferred if it shall appear that he had, prior to the last conviction, been convicted of a felony in Iowa or elsewhere.

SEC. 5. The Board of Control may retain in the reformatory such persons as have been or are committed to the penitentiary at Anamosa for crimes committed on or prior to July 4, 1907, except that all persons convicted of murder in the first degree and all persons sentenced to life imprisonment shall be kept and confined in the prison at Fort Madison, and a transfer shall be made as soon as reasonably convenient after July 4, 1907, from the reformatory to the prison at Fort Madison of the persons named in this exception; provided, that prisoners convicted for life who are now beyond fifty-five years of age shall not be removed.

SEC. 6. Whenever there is unoccupied room in the reformatory, and the prison at Fort Madison is overcrowded, the Board of Control may, in its discretion, transfer from the prison at Fort Madison well-behaved and most promising convicts who are confined for their first offenses.

SEC. 7. The inmates of the reformatory shall be employed only on State account, which employment shall be conducive to the teaching of useful trades and callings, so far as is practicable, and the intellectual and moral development of the inmates; provided, however, that the inmates of the reformatory may be employed to complete any contracts for prison labor to be performed in the penitentiary at Anamosa.

SEC. 8. The Board of Control shall cause to be kept at the reformatory and penitentiary such registers and records of prisoners for the use of the Board of Parole as may be approved by the Executive Council.

SEC. 9. After July 4, 1907, whenever any person over sixteen years of age is convicted of a felony, committed subsequent to July 4, 1907, except treason or murder, the court imposing a sentence of confinement in the penitentiary shall not fix the limit of duration of the same but the term of such imprisonment shall not exceed the maximum term provided by law for the crime of which the prisoner was convicted; provided, that if a person be sentenced for two or more separate offenses and the second or further term is ordered to begin at the expiration of the first and such succeeding term of sentence is specified in the order of commitment, the several terms shall, for the purpose of this act, be construed as one continuous term of imprisonment; and, provided, that where one is convicted of a felony that is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, or by fine, or by imprisonment in the county jail, or both, the court may impose the lighter sentence if it so elect.

SEC. 10. The terms of the members first appointed shall commence July 1, 1907, and the chairman of the board shall be the member whose term first expires. Appointments made when the General Assembly is not in session shall be subject to the approval of the Senate when next in session. A suitable office at the Capitol shall be provided for the use of said board, with such furniture and office supplies as shall be reasonably necessary for the use of the same, and such board shall hold at least four sessions each calendar year. So the bill passed and the title was agreed to.

The following remarks were made by McAllister of Linn upon House File No. 79.

MR. SPEAKER—I wish to make a few remarks upon the bill known as House File No. 79, or the Roster Bill. The old soldiers of Iowa want this bill now, or they do not want it at all. This matter has been before the Legislature for several years and been postponed from one time to another up to the present, and there seems to be an effort to have it still further postponed, but the old soldiers of Iowa are anxious that this bill should pass now, or they do not want it at all.

I can say for myself that I have no interest in this measure. I am an Ohio soldier and have my name recorded in the roster of that state. I do not expect a place upon the commission, nor do I want it. It may be said that the soldiers do not want this roster, but from what I can learn they do want it; there may be several isolated cases where some old soldiers are careless and the old soldiers do not like to ask for too much. The old soldier has ceased to be a dominant factor in the politics of the State. I realize the fact that the government, both State and National, has been magnanimous to the old soldier, and has done more for him than the government of any nation on the face of the earth.

But the old soldiers are fast passing away. It will be but a short time till there will be very few left; in fact, the time will soon come when they will not be able to look after their own dead, and that someone else will have to look after them. I realized this fact at the funeral of a comrade a short time ago, and were it not for the old soldiers and the ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps, but very few would have been at that funeral.

I would further say in regard to the roster that a great many people would prize a roster of the soldiers of the Revolutionary war; they would consider it a priceless heirloom, and many are delving into the archives of history to find out if they are eligible to be Sons and Daughters of the Revolution.

I have a roster of the soldiers of the State of Ohio, and I consider it a prize I would not part with for almost any consideration. I almost daily will take that roster and look over the names of the men who served with me during the war, and the incidents of that war, and the part they took in it, come vividly before my eyes. I can imagine I can see the men who went down in the fierce battles of Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, Mission Ridge, and other battles of the war. Others do not know what comradeship means as do the old soldiers. They are closely knit together and as the years go past that comradeship is still being more closely bound than ever. And I would say that the men who put down the rebellion must stand shoulder to shoulder like Leonidas with the Immortal Three Hundred at the pass of Thermopylae resisting the hosts of Persia, or like the army of Wellington at Waterloo when the squares were being decimated by the shot of the enemy, those small squares kept together so that the Imperial Guard of France, who had never suffered defeat, found those squares impregnable and had to retreat as waves dashed upon the seashore.

I do not expect to again address this House in behalf of the old soldiers, and the time is fast coming when the bronze button on the floor of this House will be a curiosity. I would say the cost of a roster of this State will be a mere pittance and should be acted upon by the members of this House unanimously. Had it not been for the old soldier we might not be here today, because had the soldiers failed in putting down the rebellion, "government by the people and for the people" might have perished from the earth, and instead of being a united nation, this nation might have been divided into fragments.

and the Mississippi river could not be navigated and popular government given a blow from which it might never have recovered.

The soldiers of Iowa ask this as a matter of simple justice, and I think the cost will not be very great, because the children and grandchildren of the soldiers who saved this nation will want to know what their fathers and grandfathers did during the Civil War, and also the regiments in which they served during that great struggle. Other states have compiled rosters, and I am really sorry that Iowa has put this off to so late a date, but it is better to have one now than not to have it at all. Some say we can go to Washington and get their record, but every person who has had fathers and grandfathers in the war does not wish to have to go to Washington to consult that great epoch in our history.

In conclusion, I will say that the old soldiers are going over the river fast (about one hundred and fifty every day), and as a body falling through space increases in velocity the farther it goes, so the old soldiers, the older they grow the more rapidly they are passing away. For my part, I am at present more anxious that my name shall be written upon the Great Roster upon the other side of the river on the Eternal Camping Ground where we shall never part, than to have it written upon any earthly roster, and I feel confident that the greater part of the men who wore the blue will be ready to answer to the last roll call, which will not be long deferred.

I would also say further that if we did not see our great President during the war, that I imagine he will be very close to the Savior of men, as he exemplified all that was Christ-like in his life and character, and instead of marching up Pennsylvania avenue, we will march up the streets of the New Jerusalem so vividly pictured in the vision of Saint John of the Golden City.

I sincerely hope this roster of the valiant soldiers of Iowa will pass this House without a dissenting vote, and thus show to these gallant men the appreciation which their fellow citizens have for their courage and valor, which they displayed during the struggle for the life of this nation.

On motion of Schulte of Clayton, Senate File No. 111, a bill for an act relating to the organization and officers of cities and towns, amending Chapter Two (2), Title Five (5), of the Code, and of the law as it appears in the Supplement to the Code, was taken up and considered.

shall be elected for a term of two years, and the term of councilmen and officers whose terms expire in 1909 shall be extended one year.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

The following message was received from the Governor:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

A few years ago the State purchased the southwest quarter ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of Section Twenty-seven (27), Township Seventy-eight (78), north of Range Twenty-four (24) west of the Fifth (5th) Principal Meridian, for a camp ground for the Iowa National Guard, paying therefor in round numbers \$20,000.

This quarter section lies just north of the United States Army Post. The site was selected largely to make it convenient for the members of the Guard to use the Post rifle range, which is situated a little further south. Since the purchase was made, the Federal Government has arranged an appropriation for the acquisition of rifle ranges in the various states for the use of the National Guard, and Iowa's allotment of this appropriation is about $13,000.00 per year. It has become my duty, under the law of Congress and order of the War Department to recommend to the Secretary of War one or more sites for rifle ranges.

It is impossible to acquire one proximate to the camp ground the State already owns, and it is obvious that the camp ground and rifle range should be adjacent to each other. Investigation has developed two or three locations about ten miles northwest of Des Moines, near the interurban railway, and along the Des Moines river that can be secured and join the range and the camp ground. The quarters section the State has can be sold for considerable more than was paid for it. The proceeds of such a sale, together with the appropriation of the General Government available now, will enable the State and Government to buy each for itself a camp ground and rifle range lying side by side, and to improve both so that the Guard would be much better served than with the present grounds. Options have been taken upon the land desired, and it can be bought for substantially $85.00 per acre.

I therefore recommend the passage of a bill that will authorize the Governor, with the approval of the Executive Council, to sell the present camp grounds above described and use the proceeds in the acquisition and improvement of another site.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT B. CUMMINS.

HOUSE FILE NO. 479.

A BILL for an act to authorize and require street railways, and interurban railroads operating street railways, to permit interurban railroads to use their tracks and terminal facilities and to furnish power to interurban railroads in cities, and providing for fixing the compensation therefor, and authorizing street railways to furnish power to interurban railroads.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That all persons, firms or corporations now or hereafter owning or operating electric street railways in any city (including cities organized under special charters) or town of this State, are hereby authorized and required to permit the use for interurban business only but not for local street railway business, of such of their terminals, tracks, poles and wires as are located in the streets, alleys and public places of said cities and towns, and such portions of their tracks, poles and wires as may cross property owned by said street railway companies in such cities and towns, by the passenger and combination baggage cars of interurban railway companies, for the transportation of passengers, mail, express and baggage; and said street railways shall furnish to said interurban railways, electric power for the operation of their cars and the transaction of their said business in said cities and towns, as to said tracks so furnished; but said street railways shall not be required to furnish electric power except during such hours as their street railway cars may be in operation; nor shall they be required to furnish such power where they have not power houses and machinery sufficient therefor; and they shall have the preference in the use of their own tracks and power so that their own cars shall not be delayed in transit; nor shall they be required to furnish car houses or car barns or access thereto.

Said interurban railway shall pay a reasonable compensation for the privileges and power that may be furnished them as above mentioned under this act. If an agreement for the use of the facilities so furnished and the compensation for the same cannot be made between the interested parties, the question as to the amount of such compensation and the conditions under which said facilities shall be furnished, used and operated, shall be heard and determined by the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Iowa, on petition to the said board by either party to the controversy, ten days' notice in writing of such petition being served upon the opposite party; and any order entered by said Board of Railroad Commissioners, or court upon appeal, shall be subject to modification or review from time to time, upon notice being given as herein provided.

SEC. 2. Each party to the proceeding shall have the right to appeal to the District Court of the county where the street railway in question is located, from any order made by the Board of Railroad Commissioners under this act, which appeal shall be taken within twenty days from the date of the order appealed from, and shall be perfected by serving a notice of appeal upon the other parties to such proceeding and filing the same with the Secretary of the Board of Railroad Commissioners, and by filing within twenty days from the date of such order, a petition in the said District Court, stating the facts and asking the court to determine the matter in controversy.

The Board of Railroad Commissioners shall, when such notice of appeal is filed with its Secretary, forthwith certify to said District Court a transcript of the papers and proceedings before said board, and its order thereon.

The court, or a judge thereof, if the petition is filed in vacation, shall thereupon appoint a commissioner to examine into the necessity of such proceeding, and report the facts and his recommendation in such time as the court or judge may direct, and as soon as possible thereafter the court or judge shall appoint a time and place for the hearing of such petition. The proceedings shall be in equity and subject to all the rules of equity practice, except that the court shall require the issues to be made up at the first term after the petition is filed and give the proceeding precedence over other civil business and try the same thereat, if possible. The action shall be triable de novo upon said appeal, except that the question of compensation for the tracks, poles, wires, terminals and power to be furnished shall first be tried to a jury in the same manner and with the same effect as jury trials in ordinary proceedings, and the jury shall assess, separately, compensation for power to be furnished, on such basis as the court shall direct. No such appeal shall suspend the order appealed from if the interurban railway company on whose behalf said order is made shall file such bond for the payment of damages and costs as the District Court to which such appeal is taken, or a judge thereof, may order and require. In all cases, payment of the compensation awarded shall be made or secured to be made as the Board of Railroad Commissioners or court may order and require before the interurban company desiring the use of the same shall be entitled thereto.

SEC. 3. Street railroad companies desiring so to do shall be authorized to furnish to interurban railway companies, power for the operation of the cars of interurban railway companies outside of cities and towns, but no street railroad company shall be required to furnish such power.

SEC. 4. This act shall apply to those portions of the terminals, tracks, poles and wires of interurban railway companies which are located in the streets, alleys and public places of cities and towns and which are used by such companies for the transaction of a local street railway business; and where an interurban railway company has heretofore built tracks in a city or town used for street railway purposes it may acquire the use of such tracks, poles and wires as may be necessary to complete a terminal loop for the cars operated on such tracks and for the use of its interurban cars only, under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 5. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. The provisions of this act shall not affect any pending litigation.

Meredith of Cass, from the Committee on Contested Elections, presented the following reports:

In the matter of the contest of George S. Mornin vs. Guy A. Feely for a seat as member of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Iowa as Representative from the Sixty-sixth Representative district.

MR. SPEAKER—Your Committee on Contested Elections, to whom was referred the matter of the contest of George S. Mornin, contestant, against Guy A. Feely, incumbent, for a seat as member of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly from the Sixty-sixth Representative district, beg leave to report that they have had the matters involved in said contest under consideration, and do hereby respectfully submit the following report thereon:

First. Your committee desires first to say that, owing to various circumstances over which neither said committee, the contestant, the incumbent nor the attorneys upon either side had any control, all hearing and consideration of the matters involved in said contest were necessarily deferred until Wednesday, the 19th of March, when a partial hearing thereon was had before a full committee, and a final but not full and complete hearing on the 22d ult.; and we further desire to state, with much regret, that, owing to the fact that such hearing has not been reached until late in the session, at a time when the individual members of the committee find themselves burdened with the closing labors of the session, there has not been opportunity to devote that time and patience to the hearing and investigation of said contest to which the merits of the case and the interests of the respective parties thereto were entitled; and your committee does not deem it out of order, nor any reflection upon either of the parties to this contest, to say that, in view of the additional burdens which are yet to devolve upon the individual membership of this committee as a result of the approaching end of the session, said committee could not be expected to give such contest that full and complete hearing to which both contestant and incumbent are entitled under the law and under the statement of contest as filed in said matter. However, it has been agreed by and between the parties to said contest and their respective counsel, after the said final hearing on the 22d of March, that your committee should consider the hearing as closed, deliberate upon the case, and make its report thereon to the House in accordance with its conclusions reached in such deliberations, and in the manner and form as by law provided.

Second. Your committee finds from the evidence submitted in said matter, and from the arguments of counsel upon the legal propositions involved in said contest, that there were irregularities and carelessness on the part of the election boards in several of the election precincts in said district at the general election held therein in November, 1906, which carelessness and irregularities consisted in a laxity of such election boards in the manner of canvassing the vote, the official supervision of the ballots during such canvass, and in the manner of the preservation and return of the ballots and the returns to the County Auditor after the vote had been canvassed and before the canvass of such returns by the Board of Supervisors. However, it does not appear from the evidence presented to this committee that any fraud or intentional wrong was committed by any of the officials composing such various boards of election, or that the general result of such election was in any wise affected thereby, or that the incumbent participated in or was in any wise responsible for such irregularities.

Third. Your committee further finds from the evidence produced upon said hearing that the contestant therein, George S. Mornin, instituted this proceeding and has presented the same in perfect good faith, and in the full faith and belief that he had been rightfully and legally elected to the office of Representative at said election, and that a full and final investigation of the matters alleged in his statement of contest as filed herein would reveal such fact to this House.

Fourth. And after a full and careful consideration of the matters and things involved in said contest as set forth in the statement of contest, and in the pleadings, depositions, evidence and records thus far produced therein, your committee finds that there was not sufficient evidence to show that said incumbent, Guy A. Feely, was not lawfully elected as such Representative.

Fifth. Your committee, therefore, unanimously reports in favor of dismissing said contest, and in declaring the incumbent, Guy A. Feely, to have been duly and legally elected to the office of Representative from the Sixty-sixth Representative district of Iowa, and does hereby most respectfully submit its findings, together with the recommendation that such action be approved and adopted by the House.

Your committee further reports that in preparing the evidence necessary to maintain his contest, it was necessary for the contestant to and he did take depositions of divers persons, and incurred expenses therefor, an itemized statement of which expenses so incurred is as follows, to-wit:

VETO.

The following message was received from the Governor:

To the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

I return to the House of Representatives, in which it originated, House File No. 389, being entitled "An act amendatory of and additional to Chapter Fifteen (15) of the Code and Supplement to the Code, relative to the care and propagation of fish," without my approval.

Section Two (2) of the bill attempts to prohibit seining in that part of our boundary rivers within the jurisdiction of the State, without a license. I have grave doubt whether the State of Iowa can fix the terms upon which fish may be taken from the flowing waters in our boundary rivers; but I would not withhold my approval for this reason alone. The more serious objection to the bill grows out of Section Four (4). This section makes it unlawful for any person to take from these boundary waters, whether by seine or hook and line, or to have in his possession, or buy, sell or transport when so taken, any black or white bass less than eleven inches, any striped bass less than eight inches, any pike less than fourteen inches, any croppie less than seven inches, any pickerel less than fifteen inches, or any catfish less than ten inches in length. Section Two Thousand Five Hundred and Forty (2540) of the Code Supplement, as amended by the acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly, prohibits the taking from the waters of the State (except the boundary waters) any bass, catfish, wall-eyed pike or trout less than six inches in length.

If the bill under consideration were to become a law the sportsman could take with hook and line from the interior waters bass, catfish, pike or trout of six inches or more in length, but could not take them from the Mississippi or Missouri rivers, or other boundary streams unless they were of the size prescribed in Section Four (4).

There is no reason for any such discrimination. The evidence laid before me shows that the angler rarely catches the kinds of fish mentioned in the bill with his hook and line, as large as there provided, and the practical effect of the law would be to prohibit hook and line fishing in these boundary streams.

Again, if a person is about to buy, say, a wall-eyed pike, and he finds one in the market twelve inches long it would be lawful for him to buy it, if it came from the interior waters, but he would be a criminal if it happened to come from boundary waters. I am led to believe that it was not the intent either of the author or supporters of the bill to create the discrimination which, under my construction of the measure, would certainly follow. However that may be, I cannot give it my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT B. CUMMINS.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTES ON THE REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HOUSE FILE NO. 379.

MR. SPEAKER—I vote "aye" on the amendments agreed upon by the conference committee of the House and Senate in regard to Senate amendments to House File No. 379, believing that the bill is not as prohibitory in regard to passes as it should be, but believing that this is the best measure possible to secure from the Senate at this session; I vote for it, as it will, if enacted into law, largely reduce the number of those receiving gratuitous transportation on the railroads of the State.

G. H. VAN HOUTEN.

MR. SPEAKER—We vote "aye" for the adoption of the conference committee report on House File No. 379 for the reason that the session is so near to a close that there is no prospect of getting all passes abolished, which we are in favor of doing.

E. D. BAIRD.

C. F. SWIFT.

MR. SPEAKER—I vote "aye" to adopt the conference committee report on House File No. 379 because I believe it is the best we can do at this time.

SPEAKER KENDALL'S ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

MR. PRESIDENT—I am sure that I but inadequately express the sentiment which occupies the heart of every member of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly, as I extend a most cordial welcome to the Pioneer Law Makers of Iowa.

They come to us as the worthy representatives of another epoch, as a priceless inheritance from another generation, historic for conspicuous and enduring achievement in all the important activities of life.

They emigrated to Iowa with no capital but character, with no asset but industry, with no credit but firm resolve and high purpose. They abandoned homes of comfort and luxury in the east, and, adopting the memorable suggestion of Horace Greeley, even before it was offered, they sought the unbroken prairies, the undefiled streams, the unexplored forests of the "Beautiful Land" to contribute their share toward the establishment of an empire west of the Mississippi river. They have witnessed its development from a feeble frontier settlement into the proudest commonwealth beneath the Stars and Stripes. They have seen its population, its wealth, its manufactures, its mines, its agriculture, its schools, its churches, and its homes multiply and remultiply into imperial grandeur; and, as they now approach the twilight of life, they may observe the great State for which they have sacrificed so much, at the very climax of national prestige and power, at the very zenith of domestic progress and prosperity.

We are proud to greet them this afternoon, to felicitate them upon the length of their days, and to invoke for each of them at the last and final benediction: "Well done, good and faithful servant."

ADDRESS OF HON. C. B. PAUL.

Mr. Speaker, Honored Guests, Fellow Members of this House, and you, Ladies and Gentlemen, whose presence here denotes your interest in these exercises:

It seems singularly fitting to me that we should set aside a portion of time from the deliberations of this House in order to extend words of greeting to these honored citizens who more than a quarter of a century ago were intrusted with the performance of duties similar to ours.

Fortunate have we been as a nation, in that we have set aside certain days commemorating important events in the nation's history as holidays, that the people might abstain from their usual form of employment and engage themselves as these occasions suggest. Far more important than this, in cultivating love of country and wholesome veneration for our institutions has been the marked disposition of our people to form themselves into various voluntary patriotic societies and associations such as yours. While we may attempt to inculcate a spirit of patriotism by the enactment of stringent statutes, by argument from pulpit and platform and by formal teaching in our public schools, for genuine contagious enthusiasm we must look to such fraternal bodies as the one we entertain today.

Venerable legislators, you have indeed been spared to us from that passing generation which met the peculiar conditions incident to the settlement and growth of this great State. To you was imposed the duty of responding to your country's call in the hour of her deepest tribulation. Strangely significant has it been to me that out of the membership of this General Assembly, only a few wear that little bronze button, the insignia of the Grand Army of the Republic. How eminently proper is it then that some of your number should appear before us today out of the abundance of your experience, offer messages of counsel and advice.

It was given to you as pioneer law makers to establish the "land marks" of legislation, beyond the bounds of which we should not pass. In your far-seeing wisdom, you gave to us educational institutions whose growth and progress must have exceeded your fondest expectations; penal institutions for detention and reformation, which are models of their kind; asylums and schools for our unfortunates and defectives, which are the highest expression of the humanitarian spirit of twentieth century civilization.

You had your problems; we have ours; and future Assemblies will have theirs. The "Galveston plan," or the "Indianapolis system" of city government did not disturb you as they do us, by day and by night. The railroad pass had not begun its insidious and subtle inroads upon the foundations of our commonwealth, nor had vast organizations of corporate wealth made their attack upon the superstructure. The citizens of your day were not so solicitous of their civic rights and privileges that they arose in their might, demanding ingenious combinations whereby the individual voter might in the highest degree express his political ideas, unfettered. Rather, I presume, you were occupied with problems of paper money, and that "red dog" and "wild cat" were familiar terms in your legislative vocabulary. The temperance question, then as now, was a "paramount issue," and when these measures passed to the third reading, no doubt even pioneer law makers felt themselves called to the corridors to "see a man," or sought the comfort and congenial society of the cloak room. These vexatious questions of yours are well summed up in the petition of an itinerant preacher before an early assembly when he prayed: "O Lord, give us sound currency, pure water and an undefiled religion; Amen."

In that early day there might have been some difference in the moral standards of a man as a legislator and the same individual as a private citizen, for the story has been handed down of one who exclaimed in the exuberance of his victory at the polls:

"Be it known from shore to shore
That I am a Methodist no more.

To you who are assembled, we extend a hearty welcome, and, as we grasp your hand in fellowship, may we come into fuller realization of the beautiful sentiment—"Iowa"—the affection of her people, like the river of her borders, flow on to an inseparable union." As I look into the faces of you today, who are nearing the end of life's tollsome journey, I see the evidence of peace, honor and happiness. You testify to lives well lived and duties faithfully performed. To me you bring an inspiration best expressed in another's words:

"Let me but live my life from year to year
With forward face and unreluctant soul,
Not mourning for the things that disappear, or holding Back in fear from what the future veils,
But with a whole and happy heart what pays its toll
To youth and age and travels on with cheer.
So let the way wind up hill or down,
The journey will be joy,
Still seeking what I sought when but a boy,—
New friendship, high adventure and a crown,—
My heart will keep the courage of the quest
And hope the road's last turn will be the best."

ADDRESS OF HON. LAFE YOUNG.

MR. SPEAKER AND GENTLEMEN—I trust that I shall not so far forget myself as to occupy your time so late in the afternoon. It is worth while to be a Pioneer Law Maker just to hear Mrs. Cheek and Lot Abraham sing. While I consent to be classed with the Pioneer Law Makers, I would not have you infer that I was a schoolmate with Black Hawk, or playmate with Wapello, or that I ever went fishing with Mahaska. These pioneers are beyond my time, but in a sense I might be called a pioneer. My biography has never been related, but I confess this afternoon to have been born in Monroe township, Monroe county, Iowa,—the county so ably represented by your Speaker, and so ably represented by the presiding officer of the Pioneer Law Makers' Association. If you want to know anything about my previous career, I refer to these testimonials. (Laughter).

It is good to have been born on the prairie; it is an education to watch the roses grow in front of the farms as the only indication that you are going to have company; it is inspiring to wait two weeks for the older member of the family to go to market into Missouri, where the oldest boy upon one occasion came back with a beard that he did not take away with him. (Laughter). You could even welcome the colporteur, generally a nuisance, but so glad were we to see some one who could bring you tidings from the great outside world. It was interesting to see the great roll or package that the head of the family brought home when he came from the river, the only market,—the Mississippi. A roll of upper leather, and rolls of sole leather, some shoe tacks and wax ends and awls, and all the equipment necessary to clothe and foot the family, and lucky indeed was the youth who drew the red top boots from the family factory. It was good to attend these log school house meetings, where patches were no disgrace; in fact they were the uniform of the neighborhood, and where to have your best girls, with blushes, poorly dissembled, tell you that you had a letter in the postoffice. (Laughter.) It is good to have been on the prairies in the beginning. On the old farm you usually found an old sorrel, the most faithful of all beasts of burden on the place. He would bear upon his broad back all the children that would go to the neighboring thicket plugging, and who could get away from a yellow jacket's nest without any special demoralization, and he would live content upon bright upland hay or consume without complaint the illy cured hay of the swamp, or the bottomland; the old sorrel would work on uncomplainingly with a mule; would take the family to far distant meetings and bring them home safely, the type of fidelity. If there is a heaven for horses, the old sorrel of the old farm of the old time is there. Upon each of these old farms in a family of boys, there was usually one good boy—one to five sometimes was the ratio—that one was the first to get up in the morning to dress his younger brothers and sisters; he was the one of all who never left his plow shoes in the center of the room for his mother to stumble over; the one who never forgot to see that there was wood in the box with which to cook meals before going to the field; that one of the family who never forgot to match a piece of calico when he went to the far distant trading place, and never forgot to bring the neighbors' mail, as well as our own. This type of sterling young manhood was the chief honor and glory of the prairies; the one unalloyed product of standard coin and value; and when the days of the war came, when Abraham Lincoln called for men, he was the first to go; this favorite of the home; this leader of the flock, and, leaving his mother standing in the doorway suppressing a tear in the interest of the cause that she knew that he was to fight for. He marched away to the music of the Union, to be a sacrifice upon the altar of liberty. And, when the smoke of battle cleared, and the dead were reckoned, he was found with broken musket in his hand, beyond the last rampart dead upon the field of battle;—dead in the cause of human liberty.

This it was to be a pioneer.

The Creator, who has tempered the wind to the shorn lamb, has placed the gentle breeze of the inland sea of the far east, weaving itself about green islands and small mountains, where endeavor is cheap and life is illy guarded, while the north coast sailor is placed in guard of the North sea, where the winds blow and the frosts come; the man with piercing eye and whiskers to set his face against the raging storms to discover new worlds, and thus in selecting the pioneers for Iowa and to build the great west, the Creator sent hardy men to face the dangers and build the homes, and we are their descendants, and it behooves us to remember in gratitude the things they did, the lives they lived, and the names they left. Men of Iowa, you have an honored heritage; you have a name in the republic to be envied of all. Especially distinguished for nothing, we are superior in many things.

Once, when riding in a railway train with our great orator, now dead, Henry Clay Dean, a distinguished man, I asked him: "Mr. Dean, you were always known as Henry Clay Dean of Iowa. Why did you leave the State to remove to Missouri?"

Well, he said, "I will tell you. The Black Republican party came in power in Iowa; they enacted a nefarious prohibitory liquor law; there is whiskey gone. They enacted a law abolishing capital punishment (which we did); he said there is hanging gone. They are now rapidly drifting toward the universal belief in religion; there is hell gone. I tell you I won't live in a state that does not believe in whiskey, hanging and hell."

Well, this was only Dean's way of paying a compliment to the great State and its achievements. I hope you may forget, but I was a member of the General Assembly in 1874. We had but one doorkeeper to the Senate. Think what our lives were with only one doorkeeper? (Laughter). We had but one janitor, and he carried the wood for the furnace in the basement; the old Capitol was heated by a furnace, which burned wood. One janitor during that entire session! We were annoyed by but one lobbyist, and his measure failed. (Laughter). We treaded our weary way up the Capitol Hill. We met on the 11th of January, and we adjourned on the 19th of March; we thought we were doing the State some service in adjourning. (Laughter.) I was a member of a number of General Assemblies in my youthful days, and I have only been ambitious to be a member of another. I would like to be a member of a legislative body that not one member of which sought the nomination, and not one which should expect to be elected when he was nominated, and not one of whom expected to be a candidate for another term. (Laughter). Then I believe every fellow would do as he pleased, and I think in the completed judgment, unbiased by any other power, we would have good laws. We were short of committee clerks in those days. The ladies had not appeared on the scene, and, indeed, you are placed beyond the dreams of avarice, and I will not be outdone by Perry or anybody else in the compliments to the ladies. We enacted a number of laws, some of which have been repealed, (unwisely we think); some of which were not sustained by the Supreme Court. We had a new Code to begin on; it was unspotted. It was the Code of 1873, and we cut the first paragraphs out of it; we mutilated it for the first time, and it seemed like a penitentiary offense to begin making laws with a right new Code on your desk; but we did it; other General Assemblies have done likewise, and they will continue to do it in years to come. It is no use to recount these old proceedings.

There is one thing which distinguishes our political life from that period, and that is the death of the partisan spirit. There is no fight between the parties; no bad blood; where everything was partisanship in those days, so soon after the great war, now party lines have almost been wiped out since the pacifying administration of William McKinley, followed by the satisfying administration on the same lines of the present administration, knowing no condition in man, only inquiring as to the quality of their manhood and their capability for service. That distinguishes the recent years of our political life, and it bodes well for the Republic.

In this land, the perpetuity of our affairs depends upon the loyalty of the individual, and it is well for our political perpetuity that we do not all become excited at one time. Thus we have an average of sanity, and evenness and conservatism in results; the exercising of wisdom of many minds in making our laws; but think of the old days when newspapers called men hard names simply for political reasons, and public speakers did the same. That is all dead and gone; buried in the coffin with McKinley, who held out the olive branch to the men of the south and sent men of both sections away in peace and unity from the graves of the Spanish-American dead, thus making the union in truth and in fact a union of hearts and hands.

But I have exceeded what I expected to say. I glorify the memory of the men who did things in the old days; I praise men who do things in the present time, with no desire to forget the achievements of those who have gone before. But the pioneer with his strong hand has gone. He came; he conquered. He sent a family to the farther west, and Iowa has his grave in the midst of the grand old forest a thousand miles to the west. They halted at last to rest, and while the forest echoed to the notes, they recognized the kingly coming in the tread of the pioneer. This afternoon we can honor these memories and the State by making new resolves, individually, to meet the cares and responsibilities of life and citizenship with calm judgment, dignity and honor. (Applause).

ADDRESS OF HON. J. C. DE MAR.

MR. SPEAKER AND PIONEER LAW MAKERS OF IOWA—It is with no little pleasure that we stop the wheels of legislation for a brief space of time to welcome to these halls the members of the Pioneer Law Makers' Association of Iowa. In so doing, we are but welcoming you to what is your own,—this magnificent building, these halls of marble, these desks and furnishings are, and by right ought to be, yours, for it is through your far-seeing wisdom and good judgment that they are all made so easily possible. In extending to you this word of greeting and this welcome, we do not deem it an honor to you, but all honor that may attach is ours, by being privileged so to receive you at this time. We do most sincerely honor and esteem you, our forerunners and advisers, and by so doing express to you that there is yet in our breasts a touch of nobility; for the appreciation of nobility, as we appreciate that quality in you, is the beginning of nobility in the heart that so appreciates. That man who is not moved by beauty of soul and character, by noble thought and deed as viewed in others, may never hope to be himself possessed of such characteristics. So by your living example, you inspire us to grow and develop characters of worth.

Yours was the task of developing a state. The materials, you found in the rough. 'Tis true you were given at the outset materials of worth, and that the laws established by that Higher Being resulted in the admixture of sunshine, rain and heat in the proportions best suited to develop our material resources. Yet, after all, there was still required a deft hand to touch and shape into being this gem of the western states. You found this a region of forests, hills and prairies, accessible only under greatest difficulties. Now, there is hardly a locality that has not been transformed, not a locality that can not be reached by rail.

I might continue thus to dilate upon our material resources and growth indefinitely, but you have left us a heritage, more valuable than all these. A state cannot be measured by plows and houses and cattle and pianos and dollars at their disposal, but must be measured by her men. Through your wise foresight you have established for us a system of schools where children receive daily instruction—institutions for the making of men.

Fearlessly and boldly, yet with what careful consideration, you took the initiative in founding a system of laws just and equitable. You had neither prejudice nor precedent. No state has statutes better adapted to the needs of her people than has Iowa. The foundation of our laws was deeply laid, and well. How carefully was each stone placed in its niche, and all the parts of the structure firmly united by the cement of brotherly love and affection—that cement which makes us one people and one commonwealth. How carefully should we consider then, before displacing one of these stones to insert another shaped by our hands. It is not ours to attempt to improve what you have done, but rather to build on to this foundation, so grandly placed. New times have brought new conditions and, with them, new problems which we must meet. You found us in the making. It was your task to foster the institutions and industries which then were infants. Carefully and laboriously have you done this, and with what eminent success! Yet, as we would have them do, these infants have reached the adult stage, and are now giants, which still need oversight. Ours is the task of continuing the control of these creations that they may best subserve our interests. The task is no light one. Should I tell you that a giant is roaming the streets of this city, a man ninety feet in height, who weighs two hundred tons, whose feet are fourteen feet long, whose bootstraps brush the eaves of the houses, whose strides are three rods in length, the bravest of us all would blanch at the thought of meeting him, an adversary. Still his strength would be equal to but three thousand common men. We have just such beings to cope with, beside whom we are mere Lilliputians. Have we the Davids to meet such adversaries? With the courage inspired by your example, and the strength given us for humanity's sake, we hope to succeed. If we do not win, the credit will not be ours. A goodly share belongs to the mothers who have nourished us and trained us in the ways of rectitude; a goodly share to the sisters, who inspire us by their examples of purity and nobility.

Pioneer Law Makers, again we welcome you to our halls. We are ready and glad today to sit at your feet and drink of the knowledge of which you are so bountifully supplied.

ADDRESS OF HON. W. J. MOIR.

MR. SPEAKER—In response to this very interesting and appropriate address on the part of the Association, we have connected with us ex-Senator W. J. Moir. Ex-Senator Moir, will he arise and respond.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly of Iowa:

Would that I was possessed of language sufficiently eloquent to respond to the beautiful thoughts that have been given us this afternoon by your Speaker and by the gentleman who has just addressed us.

Brother Perry has made a little mistake when he said that I was a Senator. I have not that honor. But forty-five years ago I was a member of the House of Representatives, and also of the Tenth. It is a long time ago; almost so far back that the memory of man runneth not to the contrary; and I assure you, fellow Representatives, if I may be allowed that expression, that I feel a little sad today, when I stand before you here and say that I have not been able to find one single co-laborer in the Ninth General Assembly that is in the House. Brother Dugan was in the Senate the same session, and I tell you it makes me feel a little bit sad. I feel like one who treads alone some ancient hall deserted, whose lamps are dead, its garlands fled, and all but me departed. And also I am nearing my eighty-third milestone in life's journey, yet I do not feel like being very pessimistic, but I try to be young as I grow old. I am not pessimistic, like the man that Bede tells about in Minnesota, when he said his hope went dead and his mules went lame and he lost his cows in a poker game, when a hurricane came on a summer day and blew the house he lived in away, and an earthquake came when all was gone and swallowed the land the house had stood on and the tax collector come around and charged him up with a hole in the ground. (Applause.)

Mr. President, I have but recently come from Texas. I had the pleasure of spending the winter in San Antonio, or the greater part of the winter. There are many historic associations that surround San Antonio. There 176 as brave Texans as ever lived in America held 7,000 Mexicans at bay until they slew 2,000 of them, and rather than surrender, gave up their lives in defense of their state. There are many things around San Antonio that are pleasant; especially the roses in January. San Antonio has about the same population that Des Moines has, yet it does not compare with our blessed Des Moines. Texas is a great State geographically speaking. Six different flags have at different times floated over its fair domains. First, France, then Spain, then Mexico, then the Republic of Texas, then the flag of the Southern Confederacy, and now the Glorious Stars and Stripes. Texas is large geographically speaking; it is great geographically speaking. It is twenty-one times larger than my native land, four times larger than England, twenty-one times larger than the State of Massachusetts and nearly five times larger than the State of Iowa, having 265,780 square miles, but with all its salubrious climate, with its cotton industries, its rice industries and its sugar cane industry, I would not swap any Iowa home for two homes in Texas. (Applause). I remember well the beautiful remarks that were made by our worthy Governor yesterday in his address of welcome, when he spoke so feelingly about our homes in Iowa, and he said God Almighty gave us those homes; those homes are the foundation of this State; they are the foundation of the prosperity of this State, and John Howard Paine made his name immortal when he wrote those fourteen lines of "Home, Sweet Home, be it ever so humble, there is no place like home." And W. W. Corcoran performed a glorious deed when he chartered a vessel at his own expense and went to Tunis, Africa, and exhumed the remains of John Howard Paine and took the train to Amsterdam and from that point cabled to the Secretary at Washington and there gave them burial and erected a monument and upon this monument a beautiful shaft, upon which was placed the words:

When that gentle spirit fled to realms beyond the azure dome,
With arms outstretched God's angels said welcome to Heaven's Home, Sweet Home.

L. L. Ainsworth, by the way, one of the best legislators Iowa ever had, a Democrat and a noble one, a union Democrat when we needed union Democrats, said once at one of our meetings that he would like to have this epitaph placed upon his tombstone: "Here lies a fellow who has done many good deeds, but he was too modest to make it known." W. W. Corcoran did not think so. He thought it was wise to make known those beautiful lines of John Howard Paine. But maybe I am getting a little sober in my remarks. When I lived in Vermont I had a brother there by the name of Teasle. Teasle was a great man to collect epitaphs, and a Yankee peddler, who was pretty sharp, by the way, came along one day, and knowing his penchant for collecting epitaphs, said: "Mr. Teasle, I would like to get you up an epitaph." "All right," said Teasle, "I would like one, if you get up one better than I have got." Finally they made a bargain that the peddler was to make him up a good epitaph and he was to give him one before supper and the balance of it after breakfast, and Teasle was to furnish supper, lodging and breakfast. So he told him to give him the verse, and he went on:

"Here lies a man who died of late,
And angels around him patiently wait
With outstretched arms on wings of love
To waft him to realms above."

Old Mr. Teasle thought that was just splendid. He said to his wife: "Mary, I am going to have the best epitaph to be had, and I want you to get up the best supper for this man, give him the best bed, good water to drink, and if you have got any cider, a little of that, too, and in the morning give him the best breakfast you can get up, and she said she would do it. So, when morning came around he says to the peddler: "Now for the other verse." So he gave him a verse: "While hovering around the lower skies impatiently,

In slipped the devil and down to hell he kicked Old Teasle."

I don't know whether he liked that or not. I am rather inclined to think he did not like the last verse.

Well, friends, many changes have taken place since the Ninth General Assembly. You hadn't a railroad then within a hundred miles of Des Moines; you had but a village here at that time; you hadn't any bridges across the river, except one that was at the foot of Walnut street, and I remember for three days in the first session of the Ninth General Assembly that we had to either swim, wade or boat it from the end of that bridge to the foot of Capitol Hill. Those who lived in Des Moines will remember that time. Many other changes have taken place, but I fear if I should undertake to set forth all the changes that have taken place since that time it would weary you. Permit me, without indulging in politics, to call your attention to one thing, and that is the difference between this nation now and then. About that time you remember we had a President by the name of Jimmie Buchanan. Jimmie Buchanan said he could not find anything in the law of God or man that would authorize him to coerce a state. Now, I am inclined to think there is some little difference between Jimmie Buchanan and the gentleman that occupies the presidential chair today. Don't say, now, that I am going to talk politics, because I am not. I believe honestly that Theodore Roosevelt has more individual influence throughout the civilized world today than any prince, potentate or king that wears a crown. (Applause.) He says to Japan and Russia, "Quit fighting," and they quit. He goes down here to San Francisco and he says, "You fellows have got to behave yourselves; you must not have any fuss with the Japanese," and they quit fussing. He goes down to Cuba or sends Secretary Taft, and he tells those Cubans to behave themselves, quiet down and be good, obedient children, and in a measure he made them behave. He says to rich corporations throughout the State, "You must give our people a square deal, or I will see that you do," and you gentlemen in the Legislature are trying to carry out the wishes of President Roosevelt, as I understand it. Alexander beat the world and wept for more to beat; Caesar crossed the Rubicon and never wet his feet; Charlemagne did mighty things whenever he had a chance; Napoleon made the world afraid to wink its eye at France; Frederick of Germany was mighty in his day, when Wellington marched down the road the people give the way, but greater, nobler far is Theodore Roosevelt than the whole combinations of war.

By the bravery of our soldiers, by the gallantry of our navy, and by the wise administration we have had for many years long passed, our nation has become one of the most powerful nations on the globe. Uncle Sam's note is good wherever it is offered throughout the civilized world at a less rate of interest than any other nation can obtain; our flag floats on every ocean, lake and river, and nobody dares to spit on that proud emblem of America while a man-of-war floats on the ocean or a boy in blue draws a sword.

Mr. Speaker, allow me to tender to you and to the Representatives that I now address my most profound thanks, and I speak the sentiment of every one of these old gray-haired pioneers when I say that we tender to you our most profound thanks for this, your generous and hearty welcome that you have extended to us today. May you all live for twenty-five years, and when you become pioneers, as we are, may the legislature of that day extend to you as hearty a welcome as you have extended to us, and may you have at that time as sweet a singer to sing for you as we have today. (Applause).

ADDRESS OF HON. GUY A. FEELY.

Mr. Speaker, Pioneer Law Makers of Iowa and Fellow Members of the House of Representatives:

I consider it a great honor to be given the privilege of making a few remarks upon this occasion to express something of the veneration and esteem in which these Pioneer Legislators are held by their successors and by citizens of Iowa at the present day.

We look back upon the events which have transpired with admiration and veneration, and the mists of the intervening years have added the glamour of romance to the stern realities of the past. Yet no people have more cause to be proud than the citizens of Iowa, when we turn to the history of those sturdy Pioneers whose daring and progressive spirit prompted them to leave their old homes and brave the perils and hardships of an unfamiliar country. And we find the stamp of those pioneers not only on the people who now inhabit this State, but we find their rugged characters and sense of fairness to all men embodied in their laws. Laws which have stood the test of time and have been handed down from generation to generation until the present time.

Some one has said, "Show me the laws of a nation and I will tell you of its people and institutions and of its civilizations." How true this is of Iowa. We are proud of the progress of the people of this State. Of the indomitable spirit, which has transformed our broad prairies and trackless forests into prosperous farms and thriving cities, of our educational institutions, and our churches.

We point with pride to the justice and equality of our laws and I firmly believe that the prosperity and progress of this State of ours is caused by and the result of the high aim of our laws. Laws which are so liberal, yet dangerous; liberal to the honest man, yet so dangerous to the criminal.

You Pioneers who framed our early laws, you had no old established precedents to follow. Your only guide and chart were the broad principles of eternal justice founded upon human experience, your sense of right and wrong, and your belief in the equality of men.

You builded a foundation for our laws so strong and firm, and with such foresight of the future, that those rules of conduct indorsed by you as fair and just still stand in the statutes of this State, a guide not only for the present generation, but a beacon light to shape the course of generations yet to come. Your foundation was built to support a gigantic structure, you knew not its magnitude; but you did your work, and did it well, and the censor has said "Well done."

Today as we look into your kindly faces, lighted up by the memory of days gone by in these legislative halls, and upon your hair touched by the snows of many winters passed in the discharge of duty for your country and your home, we desire to say, we are here trying to carry on the great work, which you have so nobly begun. It has been but a brief space of time since you were here, trying to do your duty as we are trying to do ours; and we say to you, "You are welcome back to your own; these grounds, this stately Capitol, these legislative halls are yours; they belong to you by right of original grant and first occupation." We are only tenants who hold them for a season, under your guidance, and with the purpose of trying to fulfill your prophecy of hope for the future.

I trust that this custom will always prevail, and that during years to come future legislatures will set apart a time during which the pioneer and earlier law makers of Iowa will grace these halls with their presence, and by so doing be an inspiration toward higher ideals and better laws.

RESOLUTIONS IN MEMORIAM

Adopted by the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly.

HON. SAMUEL L. BESTOW.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed on the part of the House to draft suitable resolutions on the life, character and public services of the late Hon. Samuel Lucius Bestow, of Chariton, Lucas county, Iowa, would respectfully submit the following report:

Samuel L. Bestow was born in Erie county, New York, March 8, 1823. He attended the public schools of that county in his boyhood and later alternated between farm work in the summer and school teaching in the winter, until he became of age. He then entered active business life and was for some time engaged in manufacturing. He attended an academy in Rochester, N. Y., and served as Superintendent of Public Schools before leaving his native State.

In 1870 he removed to Iowa, making his home on a new farm near Chariton, Lucas county. At the beginning of the Civil War he volunteered to go into the army but was rejected on account of physical disability.

In the early years of the slavery agitation he was a member of the Republican party. In 1875 he was nominated by the Republican party of Lucas and Clarke counties for State Senator and was duly elected and served in that body during the Sixteenth and Seventeenth General Assemblies. He was the author of the resolution providing for an investigation of the affairs and management of the Fort Madison penitentiary and was made chairman of the Commission.

Soon after, for various reasons, mainly on account of the stand the Republican party took on the liquor and tariff questions, he left the party and allied himself with the Democrats. In 1890 he was their nominee for Lieutenant Governor and was elected to that office with Governor Boies. In the administration of his duties as presiding officer of the Senate he was uniformly courteous and careful. With the membership so evenly divided between the two great parties it was no small matter to preside in such a manner as to please all, but he managed it so skillfully that the resolution of thanks passed at the close of the session was heartily endorsed by every member of the Senate. He showed no favoritism and all recognized an honest effort to give every member his full rights.

It should be remembered that this was the first time since the creation of the office that a Democrat had been chosen to the position of Lieutenant Governor and the first time since the extra session of 1856 that a presiding officer of the Senate had been a Democrat, a period of thirty-six years.

At the time that the Hon. John H. Gear was first elected to the United States Senate, Mr. Bestow received the full vote of the minority for that place, which was a fitting tribute to his abilities and standing. The division in the legislature was 71 for Bestow and 77 for Gear, a passage in the political history of the State not generally remembered.

We owe to Mr. Bestow a debt of gratitude that we can never hope to repay. Regarding a public office as a public trust, he has given to the State, honest, efficient and faithful service; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of this patriotic citizen the State has lost an honored, influential and upright man,

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the Journals of the House and Senate and that an engrossed copy be presented to the family of the deceased by the Secretary of the Senate.

REMARKS OF MR. GEO. W. KOONTZ OF JOHNSON COUNTY, ON THE LIFE AND CHARACTER OF THE LATE HON. SAMUEL L. BESTOW.

MR. SPEAKER—Among that great throng of leaders, whose ability and integrity and energies, have placed the State we love among the first in the sisterhood of States, stands the name of him for whom we have this day turned aside from the ordinary routine of business to pay a tribute of respect to his memory and to mourn his loss.

While he was not one of the territorial pioneers who followed close upon the path of the disappearing aborigines and planned and laid out the foundation of our commonwealth, yet in its early history he settled in the south part of the State, and spent a long and useful life as a leading factor in building up its cities and towns, in extending its rail-ways, in developing its vast agricultural and mineral resources, and in advancing its industrial, educational and religious interests.

He made no claim to oratory, being gifted with that happy faculty of making himself understood by the use of plain words; while tolerant with others and with their views he was firm in his convictions and especially in his political views—never carried away by the sensations of the hour, a strict constitutionalist, a firm believer on sound money, not a foe to corporations yet demanding their obedience by law and fairness to the people, and utterly opposed to sumptuary legislation. He was a fit running mate with that noble Roman, Horace Boies, in the successful campaign of 1892, when the wonderful vote demonstrated that on a sound platform, with good, clean men near the people, that Iowa is not always a sure Republican State.

In 1894 Samuel L. Bestow retired from politics, devoting his time to his private affairs and until called he enjoyed the love and respect of all classes, old, young, high and low, for spotless integrity, a scrupulous sense of duty and faultless manhood. The summons came as the shadows of evening were gathering on a long and well-spent life. He was spared to "calmly look on either life, and here saw nothing to regret nor there to fear."

HON. FRANK T. CAMPBELL.

To the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

WHEREAS, Frank T. Campbell, Lieutenant Governor of Iowa from 1878 to 1882, departed this life after a lingering illness, at his home in Lima, Ohio, on the 6th day of March, A. D. 1907, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the State of Iowa has heard with deep sorrow and regret the death of Iowa's distinguished son and former Lieutenant Governor, and that in his death this commonwealth mourns the loss of one of her honorable and patriotic sons.

Frank T. Campbell was born in the State of Ohio, in the year 1836, and died at the ripe age of seventy-one years. At the age of twenty he moved to Iowa, and settled at Newton in Jasper county, where he became associated with his brother in the management of the Newton Journal. Governor Campbell was a member of the State Senate, and served during the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth General Assemblies, and was active in shaping the important legislation of that period, particularly the legislation referring to the regulation of railway passenger and freight rates. In March, 1888, he was appointed a member of the Railway Commission, and at the November election in the same year was elected to that position, the tenure of that office having been changed from appointive to elective.

Governor Campbell served as Captain of Company A of the Fortieth Iowa Infantry during the War of the Rebellion, and performed able and patriotic service in behalf of his country.

Be it Further Resolved, That the General Assembly takes this occasion to testify its high appreciation of the exalted character and distinguished public services of Frank T. Campbell, and hereby extends to his bereaved family its sincere sympathy in their sorrow and affliction.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be properly engrossed, authenticated by the President and Secretary of the Senate, and the Speaker and Clerk of the House, and sent to the members of his family.

REMARKS OF MR. J. F. OFFILL OF JASPER COUNTY, ON THE LIFE AND CHARACTER OF HON. FRANK T. CAMPBELL.

MR. SPEAKER—I should feel that the people of Jasper county had not been represented if I should fail to say anything in honor of one of her honored citizens. A feeling of sincere sorrow has been expressed by a large number of friends of the Honorable Frank T. Campbell, who lived for many years among us, and was one of our most worthy citizens, a good citizen and a good business man.

Frank T. Campbell settled in Newton in the year 1856. He entered into the newspaper business with his brother, A. K. Campbell. Soon after coming there they purchased the Newton Express, and shortly afterward changed its name to the Free Press.

When the call came for troops to put down the Rebellion, Mr. Campbell left his interests in his brother's hands and went to the army, enlisting in the Fortieth Iowa, and was elected Captain of Company A of that regiment, and was a faithful and brave soldier. In 1869 he was elected to the State Senate from Jasper county and well represented his people—so well that in 1877 he was nominated and elected Lieutenant Governor, serving four years with marked success as President of the Senate.

In 1888 Governor Larrabee appointed Mr. Campbell State Railroad Commissioner. The following year he was elected to the same office for three years.

Mr. Campbell leaves many warm friends in Jasper county, in whose memory his pleasant greetings will always be remembered.

HON. THOMAS C. BEACH.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to draft resolutions commemorative of the life and character and public service of Honorable Thomas C. Beach, respectfully submit the following report:

Born in Jacksonville, Illinois, January 11, 1831; died in Oskaloosa, January 11, 1906. He was reared on a farm and attended district schools in Illinois. Came to Iowa and entered land in Richland township, Mahaska county, Iowa, in 1853, where he improved a farm and resided thirteen years. Was married to Miss Martha Campbell April 17, 1853, who departed this life February 3, 1904. To them were born five children, four sons and one daughter. Three of his sons and the daughter are respected citizens of Mahaska county. Mark W., Thomas C., Joseph C., and Mary E. Beach, the other son, Luke L., having died.

A stalwart Republican, an honored Mason and a member of the Mystic Shrine. Six years a justice of the peace, a member of the Christian church, a progressive farmer and a public-spirited citizen.

WHEREAS, The Hon. Thomas C. Beach, an honored member of the Fifteenth and Twenty-fourth General Assemblies of Iowa, and a respected citizen of Mahaska county for more than a half century, passed from earth to his reward July 11, 1906;

WHEREAS, The life and high character of the deceased were such as to entitle him to the respect and esteem of all who knew him, and his services to the State and Nation such as to command the confidence and gratitude of his fellow citizens; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of this public-spirited citizen and legislator the State has lost an influential and upright citizen, his family are bereft of a kind and loving father, and his friends of an honest and esteemed man.

Resolved, That we extend to his children and those nearest him our sincere sympathy in their sorrow and affliction; and the Chief Clerk of the House is hereby instructed to transmit an engrossed copy of these resolutions to the bereaved family and to enter the same on the Journal of this House.

HON. JOHN CLARK.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to prepare and present suitable resolutions respecting the life, character and public service of the Hon. John Clark, late a member of this House in the Tenth General Assembly, begs leave to report the following:

The subject of this memorial was born December 9, 1817, at Oxford, Massachusetts, and died August 2, 1906, at Albia, Iowa. He emigrated to the Hawkeye State in 1841, seven years before the commonwealth was admitted into the Union, and he continued his residence in the "beautiful land" until his death. He was a pioneer of unfailing energy, of invincible determination, of intrepid courage. In the years of his earlier vigor he was actively interested in every enterprise which promised to promote the welfare or to enlarge the happiness of his people. No man in southern Iowa contributed more than he to the erection of schools, to the organization of churches, to the foundation of homes, and to the establishment of the enlightened civilization now so uniform throughout the State. His convictions were always positive, but he so tempered his judgments with charity that he rarely offered offense. He was a man who estimated modestly his own merits, but his countrymen recognized his peculiar qualifications for the public service, and he occupied many official positions of trust and responsibility. In all the avenues of activity in which he was engaged his labor was conscientiously performed, and every confidence reposed in him was faithfully redeemed. And so he came to the evening of life with love, honor, obedience, troope of friends to accompany his old age. His days were lengthened beyond four score years and they were full to overflowing of efficient service and its rich reward. And when the grim messenger beckoned him to his eternal home, he lifted his voice to the Savior who died that he might be redeemed, and he said with the tender trustfulness of a little child:

"Thy will, not mine, be done."

The world was better for his having lived in it, and his earthly pilgrimage was an acceptable preparation for the higher sphere into which he has entered.

Resolved, That the foregoing memorial be entered upon the Journal of the House and that an engrossed transcript thereof be presented to the bereaved family of the deceased.

HON. JOHN D. HUNTER.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee, appointed to prepare a memorial to the memory of the late Hon. John D. Hunter, of Webster City, for two consecutive terms a member of the Iowa General Assembly, beg leave to respectfully submit the following:

John D. Hunter was born in Knoxville, Ohio, August 12, 1834. He was educated in the common schools and by attending an academy at Ashland, in his native State, for a single year. He entered his father's printing office as an apprentice at the age of 16 years. At the age of 20 he undertook his first newspaper venture, establishing the Hoosier Banner, at Angola, Indiana. The venture was not a success and he returned to Ohio.

At the age of 19 Mr. Hunter was united in marriage with Miss Sarah A. Gates, at West Unity, Ohio. In 1856 he came to Iowa, crossing the Mississippi river in a ferry at Davenport. His first employment as a printer in Iowa was with the Marion Register. In the fall of 1856 he went to Eldora and secured a position with the Hardin County Sentinel, and in the spring of 1858 purchased a half interest in the paper. In the spring of 1861 he was appointed postmaster of Eldora by President Abraham Lincoln, and in the fall of 1862 was elected Treasurer of Hardin county, but resigned the office the following year, in order to accept a position in the military service, being in the commissary department. At the close of the War, he removed to Iowa Falls and in 1866 moved his family to Webster City, Hamilton county, where he resided until his death. For forty years he edited the Webster City Freeman. He represented his county in the Twelfth and Thirteenth General Assemblies of Iowa, being elected the first time in the fall of 1869. He was appointed postmaster by President Grant in 1876 and served three terms of four years each. He was appointed again by President Harrison in 1891 and served four years.

In 1899 the Webster City Freeman and the Webster City Tribune were consolidated under the name of the Webster City Freeman-Tribune company and Mr. Hunter was made president of the organization—a position he held until the day of his death.

John D. Hunter answered the final summons at 3:45, Tuesday morning, March 19, 1907.

Such in epitome is the story of John D. Hunter's life. But those who knew him will not be content with so brief an outline as the professional biographer might be disposed to leave upon the records of the State. John D. Hunter came to Iowa when Iowa needed men of heroic mould. He had faith in her possibilities from the day that his eyes first looked across her fertile prairies. Here he was content to take his chances with the fickle goddess of fame and fortune. It was his ambition to build up a newspaper which should be welcomed in the homes of the territory which he sought to cover. Forty years of active newspaper work built up a loyal constituency and made him a leader, counsellor and trusted friend of a multitude of people. He enjoyed the respect and held the confidence of the leading men of the State. He was a partisan of the pronounced type but loyalty to country was a dominating principle of his life.

The last years of John D. Hunter's life were years of pain. With more than Spartan fortitude he withstood the assaults of disease until the course of nature had been run and then entered into "that dreamless sleep."

"His life was gentle, and the elements
So mixed in him that nature might stand up
And say to all the world, 'This was a man.'"

Resolved, That the foregoing memorial be adopted by the House, and that it be entered upon the Journal, and an engrossed copy thereof be sent to the family of the deceased; and further that copies thereof be sent to the Webster City Freeman Tribune, the Webster City Journal, and the Webster City Graphic Herald.

HON. J. C. ROBESON.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee, appointed to prepare resolutions commemorative of the life, character and public service of the Honorable J. C. Robeson, late a member of this House, beg leave to report the following memorial:

The Honorable J. C. Robeson was born near Hamilton, Ohio, January 7, 1834, and removed twenty years later to Iowa, where he continued his residence until his death, July 16, 1906. He inherited from his sturdy Scotch ancestry a strong body, a clear brain, and a clean heart, and with this abundant equipment he came to the West as a pioneer in the advance guard of civilization. Scarcely had he become habituated to his new home when President Lincoln issued his call for volunteers to preserve the integrity of the threatened Republic, and he was one of the first promptly to enlist in the immortal army of freedom. He was a soldier, patriotic, brave and true, serving to the end, until the last armed enemy of the Government had unconditionally surrendered. And then, with all the unfading honor which accompanies arduous duty nobly done, he returned to resume the employments of civil citizenship. He was an active advocate of every good cause, and he never hesitated to contribute of his time, his labor and his means to promote the general welfare. With him the interests of the church, the home and the school were always paramount, and he was ever ready to sacrifice to the uttermost for their advancement. He was a faithful husband, an indulgent father, an upright citizen, an exemplary man. Elected to the Twentieth General Assembly as Representative from Monroe county, his record is one of intelligent fidelity to the constituency which honored itself by honoring him. His modest life was full of valuable and enduring achievement, and his memory will be an inspiration to all within the circle of his acquaintance.

Resolved, That a transcript of this memorial be furnished the family of the deceased, and entered upon the Journal of this House.
