The Reverend Allan M. Peterson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Carroll, Carroll, Iowa, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we would begin this legislative day with Thee for we would recognize that you were here before we came to this beautiful world and Thou wilt remain after we are gone, for Thou art eternal in this changing world.

Our Heavenly Father, since Thou art here to stay - in this world, and we are only pilgrims, help us to make our journey in this life one of integrity, making our aim to always have a good conscience before Thee...and as legislators, legislative assistants, clerks, pages, secretaries, officers of the legislature of the state of Iowa, we would ask that Thou would help us to be good stewards of our responsibilities. Direct our thoughts, our speech, our attitudes, so that courtesy may abound in this place and we shall not fear what others may say or publish about us for we would seek the higher goal of pleasing Thee as our God and our heavenly Father.

And when this legislative day is done, and we seek rest at the end of this day, may we have worked so well for the public good that we shall have Thy assurance - "sleep well, good and faithful servants of this state, receive strength from your heavenly Father for the morrow." Amen.

LEGISLATIVE PHYSICIAN FOR THE DAY

Dr. Marvin Moles, Newton, Iowa.

OPENING REMARKS BY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Lieutenant Governor Neu addressed the Senate as follows:

One hundred years ago Lieutenant Governor Frank Campbell addressed the opening session of the Seventeenth General Assembly with these words:

"...too much legislation is one of the growing evils of the day. Fewer laws, and better acquaintance with them is urgently demanded.

Our financial interests require prompt attention and decided action, that the credit of our State may remain unimpaired; that the great humane and other State institutions may be properly supported, and the public enterprises now inaugurated be pushed to speedy completion, and yet our people be not burdened with additional taxation."

Back then there were 42 standing committees to study the areas they felt needed legislative attention. Now, let me mention a few of the areas which I feel need the attention of the 67th General Assembly.

The first area, as many of you have indicated on recent surveys, is that of property taxes. This issue exhausted many legislators last session—nonetheless, on June 30, our short-term solution expires. The legislature will have to either develop a new proposal that will put property taxes in check or continue with the credits. I would suggest you consider the limited amount of new funds available. I see a reluctance to raise any tax significantly. Therefore, some consideration of limitations beyond what we have now may be necessary.

The Governor's Local Government Services Task Force, created by Senate File 1062, studied this question through the interim. The citizens' committee made several recommendations worthy of your consideration. In any instance, if the legislature acts promptly, the budgeting process will not be totally prostituted as it was last year, when we failed to pass Senate File 1062 before the certification date of March 15 for cities, counties and schools.

The second area in which the legislature must act is that of corrections. It is necessary to face the fact that we continue to have a need for correctional institutions. Our correctional institutions are operating at 100 percent of capacity. In fact, the Fort Madison penitentiary population, as of the year ending June 30, 1976, was 847; 37 more inmates were housed within the walls than is recommended. The 144 bed facility at Mt. Pleasant is only a stop-gap measure for the overcrowding problem at our correctional institutions. Based on the age, physical condition, architectural design, projected numbers and characteristics of people to be housed in such facilities, we need to decide how we are going to replace our current inadequate facilities.

It does not appear that the parole board is paroling people at such a rate as to decrease the prison population. Nor will community based corrections eliminate the need for a new facility.

In 1973, Iowa pioneered legislation creating a statewide network of community corrections. It is now starting to get off the ground. In fact, it seems to be moving along quite well in most of the eight judicial districts. By all indications, the last residential facility will open April 1, 1977. Certainly financial support for that effort must be accelerated this year if we expect to see some effect on the institutional populations within the next two years.

Our experience dictates that we deal with the whole area of corrections and stop thinking that any single program (community or institution) can handle the total problem.

Third, and finally, the Legislature should adopt land use legislation with significant local controls. Also, the question of road funding remains an issue that needs the immediate attention of the legislature. I recommend that you consider a gas tax based on a percentage of the pump price to increase the revenue for roads.

The thing that is so frustrating about many of our problems today is that they are not susceptible to one-time solutions. The fact that these problems are unresolved would indicate that this General Assembly—and those of the immediate future—will continue to deal with society's problems on an on-going basis.

Even if this session of the legislature were to deal with the problems of corrections in a manner with which we all could agree, changing circumstances in our society and new attitudes on the part of many would probably require further action by some future legislature.

I think Iowa will continue to have a decent economic development, but the economic miracle is over. We can probably expect a slowdown and with it a delay in some key projects.

As a recent news story observed, Americans tend to think that any problem whatsoever can be easily solved by the old-fashioned method of passing a law. If this attitude prevails during the 67th General Assembly, we will again set a record for the length of the session...and solve few problems in the process.

The motion prevailed and Mr. Cross appeared before the rostrum, was duly sworn and subscribed his name to the oath of office.

By: COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

- 1 Whereas, section sixty-eight B point ten (68B.10), of the
- 2 Code requires that the senate committee on ethics shall prepare
- 3 a code of ethics within thirty days after the commencement
- 4 of the session; and
- 5 Whereas, the Code further provides that the code of ethics
- 6 shall not become effective until approved by the senate, and
- 7 that the code of ethics may be amended either upon the
- 8 recommendation of the ethics committee or by the members of
- 9 the senate; Now Therefore,
- 10 Be It Resolved by the Senate, That the senate code of
- 11 ethics for the sixty-seventh general assembly shall be:

SENATE CODE OF ETHICS

13 Recognizing that service in the Iowa General Assembly is 14 a part-time endeavor and that members of the general assembly
15 are honorable individuals who are active in the affairs of 16 their localities and elsewhere and that it is necessary that 17 they maintain a livelihood and source of income apart from 18 their legislative compensation, the following rules are adopted
19 pursuant to section sixty-eight B point ten (68B.10) of the 20 Code, to assist the members in the conduct of their legislative 21 affairs.

22 1. Taking into account that legislative service is part-
23 time, no legislator shall accept economic or investment
24 opportunity, under circumstances where he knows, or should 25 know, that there is a reasonable possibility that the 26 opportunity is being afforded him with intent to influence
27 his conduct in the performance of his official duties.

28 2. No legislator may charge to or accept from a person,
29 corporation, partnership or association known to have a
30 legislative interest a price, fee, compensation or other

1 consideration for the sale or lease of any property or the
2 furnishing of services which is in excess of that which the
3 legislator would charge another.

4 3. No legislator in order to further his own economic
5 interests, or those of any other person, may disclose or use
6 confidential information acquired in the course of his official 7 duties.

8 4. A member of the general assembly may appear before
9 a governmental agency or board in any representation case,
10 except that he shall not appear before a governmental agency
11 or board if the matter is subject to legislative review.
12 Whenever a member of the general assembly appears before a
13 governmental agency or board, he shall carefully avoid all
14 conduct which might in any way lead members of the general
15 public to conclude that he is using his official position
16 to further his professional success or personal financial 17 interest.

18 5. In order to permit the general assembly to function
19 effectively, a legislator will sometimes be required to vote
20 on bills and participate in committee work which will affect 21 his employment and other monetary interests. In making a
22 decision relative to his activity on given bills or committee
23 work which are subject to the code, the following factors
24 shall be considered:

25 a. Whether a substantial threat to his independence of 26 judgment has been created by the conflict situation.

27 b. The effect of his participation on public confidence
28 in the integrity of the legislature.

- 29 c. Whether his participation is likely to have any 30 significant effect on the disposition of the matter.
31 d. The need for his particular contribution, such as 32 special knowledge of the subject matter, to the effective
33 functioning of the legislature.
34 A legislator with a conflict of interest may participate
35 in floor debate if prior to debate the legislator indicates

- 1 his conflict of interest.
2 6. Each legislator shall file with the secretary of the 3 senate within ten days after the adoption of the Code of 4 Ethics by the senate, and within ten days after the convening
5 of each session of the general assembly, a statement on forms
6 provided by the secretary of the senate setting forth the 7 following information:
8 a. The nature of each business in which he is engaged
9 and the nature of the business of each company in which he
10 or his spouse has a financial interest.
11 b. The name of any state or national business, trade,
12 labor, farm, professional, religious, educational or charitable 13 association, foundation or organization which is involved
14 in supporting or opposing legislation brought before the 15 general assembly and by which he, his partner or business
16 associate is employed or retained or has rendered services
17 for compensation within the last twelve months.
18 c. Every office or directorship held by the legislator
19 in any corporation, firm, enterprise, labor union, farm
20 organization, cooperative, religious, educational or charitable 21 association or organization, or trade or professional 22 association held during the last twelve months and every 23 membership in such an organization which is engaged in ac-
24 tively supporting or opposing legislation in the general
25 assembly. The name of the entity shall be set out.
26 Disclosures required under this rule shall be as of the 27 date filed unless provided to the contrary, and shall be 28 amended to include interests and changes encompassed by this 29 rule that occur while the general assembly is in session.
30 All filings under this rule shall be open to public inspection
31 in the office of the secretary of the senate at all reasonable
32 times.
33 The secretary of the senate shall inform the ethics
34 committee of the statements which are filed and shall report
35 to the ethics committee the names of any senators who appear

- 1 not to have filed complete statements. The ethics committee
2 shall require any senator who appears not to have filed a

3 complete statement to appear before the committee.

4 7. Members of the general assembly are urged to familiarize
5 themselves with chapter 68B and chapter 739 of the Code.

6 8. Legislators shall not charge any amount or item to 7 any charge account to be paid for by any lobbyist or any 8 organization he represents.

9 9. No senator shall charge to the state of Iowa amounts
10 for travel and expenses unless the senator actually has 11 incurred those mileage and expense costs. Senators shall 12 not file the vouchers for weekly mileage reimbursement required
13 by section two point ten (2.10), subsection one (1), of the 14 Code unless the travel was actually incurred at commensurate
15 expense to the senator.

16 10. Complaints against any member of the general assembly
17 or any lobbyist shall be in writing, made under oath and filed
18 with the ethics committee of the house in which the legislator
19 is a member or of the house in which the lobbyist operates.
20 If the ethics committee determines that the complaint sets
21 out an apparent violation of the law or Code of Ethics or 22 Rules Governing Lobbyists, it shall set the matter for hearing, 23 notify the accused of his right to appear in person, to be
24 represented by counsel, to present statements and evidence
25 and to cross-examine witnesses. The committee shall hold 26 a hearing and consider all relevant evidence and shall make 27 its recommendations to the appropriate house.

 13 and chief clerk of the house.

14 The legal counsel of each house shall read and approve
 15 all bills before introduction.

16 Rule 6

17 Companion Bills

18 When identical bills are introduced in each house they

 21 sponsor of the companion bill in the other house. The house
 22 where the bill is first introduced shall print the complete
 23 text. The printed companion bill shall contain the title,

29 Whenever any bill has been substantially amended by either
 30 house, the secretary of the senate or the chief clerk shall 31 order the bill reprinted on paper of a different color. All

32 adopted amendments shall be distinguishable.
 33 The secretary of the senate or the chief clerk may order
 34 the printing of a reasonable number of additional copies of 35 any bill, resolution, amendment, or journal.

 4 prepare a daily clipsheet covering all amendments filed.

5 Rule 9

 9 the general assembly.

10 Rule 10
 11 Certification of Bills and Other Enrollments

12 When any bill or resolution which has passed one house
 13 is rejected or adopted in the other, notice of such action
 14 and the date thereof shall be given to the house of origin
 15 in writing signed by the secretary or the chief clerk.

16 Rule 11
 17 Amendments by Other House

18 I. When a bill which originated in one house is amended
 19 in the other house, the house originating the bill may amend
 20 the amendment, concur in full in the amendment, or refuse
 21 to concur in full in the amendment. Precedence of motions
 22 shall be in that order.

23 A. If the house originating the bill concurs in the 24 amendment, the bill shall then be read for the last time as 25 amended, and placed upon its final passage.

26 B. If the house originating the bill refuses to concur
 27 in the amendment, the bill shall be returned to the amending
 28 house which shall either:

29 1. Recede, after which the bill shall be read for the 30 last time and placed upon its final passage; or

31 2. Insist, which will send the bill to a conference
 32 committee.

33 C. If the house originating the bill amends the amendment, 34 that house shall concur in the amendment as amended and the 35 bill shall be read for the last time as amended, shall be

1 placed on final passage, and shall be returned to the other
 2 house. The other house cannot further amend the bill.

3 1. If the amending house which gave second consideration
 4 to the bill concurs in the amendment to the amendment, the

5 bill shall then be read for the last time as finally amended,
6 and placed upon its final passage.

7 2. If the amending house refuses to concur in the amendment
8 to the amendment, the bill shall be returned to the house
9 originating the bill which shall either:

10 a. Recede, after which the bill shall be read for the 11 last time as amended and placed upon its final passage; or

12 b. Insist, which will send the bill to a conference
13 committee.

14 II. A motion to recede has precedence over a motion to 15 insist. Failure to recede means to insist; and failure to 16 insist means to recede.

17 III. A motion to lay on the table or to indefinitely
18 postpone shall be out of order with respect to motions to 19 recede from or insist upon and to amendments to bills which 20 have passed both houses.

21 IV. A motion to concur, refuse to concur, recede, insist,
22 or adopt a conference committee report is in order even though
23 the subject matter has previously been acted upon.

25 Conference Committee

26 1. Within one legislative day after either house insists 27 upon an amendemnt to a bill, the presiding officer of the 28 house shall appoint five members to a conference committee.
29 The majority leader of the senate, the president pro tempore
30 of the senate and the two assistant majority leaders of the 31 senate shall appoint three majority party members to a
32 conference committee and after consultation with the president
33 of the senate shall also appoint two minority party members
34 to a conference committee. The papers shall remain with the 35 house that originated the bill.

1 2. The conference committee shall meet before the end
2 of the next legislative day after their appointment, shall
3 select a chair and shall discuss the controversy.

4 3. The authority of the committee shall cover free
5 conference during which the committee has authority to propose
6 amendments to any portion of a bill provided the amendment
7 is within the scope of the title of the bill.

8 4. An agreement on recommendations must be approved by 9 at least three members from each house. The committee shall 10 submit two originals of the report signed by at least three 11 members of each house with one signed original and three 12 copies to be submitted to each house. The report shall first
13 be acted upon in the house originating the bill. Such action, 14 including all papers, shall be immediately referred by the

15 secretary of the senate or the chief clerk of the house of 16 representatives to the other house.

17 5. The report of agreement is debatable, but cannot be 18 amended. If the report contains recommended amendments to 19 the bill, adoption of the report shall automatically adopt
20 all amendments contained therein. After the report is adopted,
21 there shall be no more debate, and the bill shall immediately
22 be placed upon its final passage.

23 6. Refusal of either house to adopt the conference
24 committee report has the same effect as if the committee had 25 disagreed.

26 7. If the conference committee fails to reach agreement,
27 a report of such failure signed by at least three members
28 of each house shall be given promptly to each house. The 29 bill shall be returned to the house that originated the bill
30 and the members of the committee shall be immediately
31 discharged and a new conference committee appointed by the 32 presiding officer of the house from members who have not 33 previously served on a conference committee on the bill under 34 consideration. The majority leader of the senate, the pres-
35 ident pro tempore of the senate and the two assistant majority

1 leaders of the senate shall appoint three majority party
2 members and after consultation with the president of the 3 senate shall also appoint two minority party members all of 4 whom shall not have previously served on a conference committee
5 on the bill under consideration.

6 Rule 13

7 Enrollment and Authentication of Bills

8 When a bill or resolution has passed both houses, it shall 9 be enrolled in the house of origin under the direction of 10 either the secretary or the chief clerk and its house of 11 origin shall be certified by the endorsement of the secretary
12 or the chief clerk.

13 After enrollment, each bill shall be signed by the president
14 and by the speaker.

15 Rule 14

16 Concerning other Enrollments

17 All resolutions and other matters which are to be presented
18 to the governor for his approval shall be enrolled, signed,
19 and presented in the same manner as bills.

20 All resolutions and other matters which are not to be 21 presented to the governor or the secretary of state shall 22 be enrolled, signed and retained permanently by the secretary
23 of the senate or chief clerk of the house.

24 Rule 15

25 Transmission of Bills to the Governor

26 After a bill has been signed in each house, it shall be

27 presented to the governor by the secretary or the chief clerk
28 of the house of origin. The secretary or the chief clerk
29 shall report the date of the presentation, which shall be 30 entered upon the journal of the house of origin.

32 Fiscal Notes

33 A fiscal note shall be attached to any bill or joint 34 resolution which will have an annual effect of at least one 35 hundred thousand dollars or a combined total effect within

1 five years after enactment of five hundred thousand dollars
2 or more on the revenues, expenditures or fiscal liability
3 of the state or its subdivisions. This rule does not apply
4 to appropriation measures where the total effect is stated
5 in dollar amounts.

6 The preliminary determination of whether the bill appears 7 to require a fiscal note shall be made by the legislative
8 service bureau which shall indicate that a bill requires a
9 fiscal note by stamping "FISCAL NOTE REQUIRED" prominently
10 on the bill jacket. Upon completion of the bill draft, the 11 legislative service bureau shall immediately send a copy to 12 the legislative fiscal director for his review.

13 When a committee reports a bill to the floor, the committee
14 shall state in the report whether a fiscal note is or is not 15 required.

16 The fiscal note shall be printed on the bill before
17 introduction if practicable; and in any event the secretary
18 of the senate or chief clerk of the house shall attach the 19 fiscal note to the bill when the bill is reported out by a
20 committee.

21 The legislative fiscal director shall prepare the fiscal 22 note within a reasonable time after receiving the request.
23 A copy of the fiscal note shall be filed by the legislative 24 fiscal director with the secretary of the senate or the chief
25 clerk of the house. The legislative fiscal director may 26 request the cooperation of the state comptroller or any state
27 department or agency. If a fiscal note is prepared by the 28 comptroller or any state department or agency at the request
29 of the fiscal director, that fact shall be stated in the note.

30 Each fiscal note shall state in dollars the estimated
31 effect of the bill on the revenues, expenditures, and fiscal 32 liability of the state during each of the first five years
33 after enactment. Sources of funds for expenditures under 34 the bill shall be stated, including federal funds. If the 35 fiscal director cannot make an accurate estimate, he shall

1 state his best available estimate or shall state that no
2 dollar estimate can be made and state concisely the reason.
3 The fiscal note shall be attached or printed in the bill
4 following the explanation or shall be printed in the daily
5 clip sheet.

6 A revised fiscal note may be requested by a committee
7 chairman or a sponsor of the bill if the fiscal effect of 8 the bill has been changed by adoption of an amendment.
9 However, a request for a revised fiscal note shall not delay
10 action on a bill unless so ordered by the presiding officer
11 of the house in which the bill is under consideration.

12 If a date for adjournment has been set, then a 13 constitutional majority of the house in which the bill is 14 under consideration may waive the fiscal note requirement
15 during the three days prior to the date set for adjournment.

16 Rule 17

17 Joint Legislative Intern Committee

19 organize and supervise a legislative intern program for Iowa

 32 to effectively organize and supervise the legislative intern
 33 program.

34 The joint legislative intern committee shall report to 35 the general assembly in January of each year. The report

- 1 shall include a description of the results of the legislative
- 2 intern program during the last preceding session and the
- 3 proposed legislative intern program for the session convening
- 4 during the month the report is submitted.

The Chair announced that Senator Coleman had been elected President pro tempore of the Sixty-seventh General Assembly.

President Neu requested Senators Palmer, Redmond and Priebe to escort Senator Coleman to the rostrum.

Senator Coleman appeared, took the oath of office, was congratulated and presented to the Senate by President Neu.

In accepting the office, Senator Coleman made the following remarks:

Mr. President, Members of the Senate, Ladies and Gentlemen:

It is indeed a high honor and privilege to be standing here this afternoon as your newly-elected President pro tempore. It is with a sense of humility and yet a sense of elation that I accept this office.

As you know, the Iowa Senate has been a very important part of my life for the past twenty years, and now to be elected by you to the only position in state government that is not voted upon the parties or by the people, but by the Senate alone is the proudest point of my political career.

In the years I have served in this body, I have been in both the minority and the majority but whichever group was in power there was always the concern of the people of Iowa that was uppermost in the minds of the Senate. Rare indeed were the times when the minority did not join the majority for solutions of difficult problems.

In this new session, I know there will be differences of opinions on bills of the majority. I hope that if this comes to pass the minority again will provide the help to pass needed legislation.

We have considerable work ahead in solving many perplexing problems, and it must be shared by every member both old and new, and as we work on these matters let us strive to respect each person's opinions and motives, for in our zeal to do our best, let us never forget that deep in the hearts of every senator there lies the desire to do right for our state and its people through legislative leadership and action.

I know that the duties and responsibilities of the President pro tempore are contingent responsibilities only, and this office becomes active if circumstances not now foreseen happen to occur—but if this office should become active, I will earnestly seek the help and counsel of everyone gathered here, for certainly it would only be through that kind of assistance that I could serve effectively the Senate and the citizens of Iowa.

You have accorded me a great honor in selecting me as your President pro tempore of this Senate I so dearly love, and I will serve you in the manner of fairness and frankness as have those many capable people who have preceded me.

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE

President Neu, pursuant to Section 2A.1, 1975 Code of Iowa, announced the reappointment of J. Duane Mortensen as a member of the Iowa Commission on Compensation, Expenses and Salaries for Elected State Officials, for a regular five-year term ending June 30, 1981.

President Neu announced the appointment, in accordance with Section 97B.8, 1975 Code of Iowa, of Senator Warren E. Curtis to the IPERS Advisory Council to fill the unexpired portion of a term ending June 30, 1977.

On motion of Senator Kinley, the Senate adjourned at 4:25 p.m., until 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, January 11, 1977.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

SECOND CALENDAR DAY—SECOND SESSION DAY

Senate Chamber
Des Moines, Iowa, Tuesday, January 11, 1977

The Senate met in regular session, President Neu presiding.

Prayer was offered by the Reverend James Kiernan, pastor of the St. John's Catholic Church, Des Moines, Iowa.

APPROVAL OF THE JOURNAL

Senator Hill of Polk rose to request that although he believed a proposed amendment to the permanent rules of the Senate for the 1977 regular session of the Sixty-seventh General Assembly would eliminate the printing of the text of amendments in the Senate Journal, the established practice of past General Assemblies has been to print the text of amendments, and in accordance with this practice, the text of amendment S-3001 to the Report of the Credentials Committee offered by Senators Hill of Polk and Shaff on page 8 of the Senate Journal should be printed.

The Chair announced it would take the matter of printing texts of amendments in the Senate Journal under advisement and that no corrected Senate Journals would be printed until a ruling was made.

LEGISLATIVE PHYSICIAN FOR THE DAY

Dr. B.G. Wiltfang, Grinnell, Iowa.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Leave of absence was granted as follows:

Senator Taylor for the day on request of Senator Hultman.

COMMITTEE FROM THE HOUSE

A committee from the House appeared and announced that the House was ready to receive the Senate in joint convention.

In accordance with House Concurrent Resolution 1, duly adopted, the Senate proceeded to the House under the direction of the Secretary of the Senate and the Sergeant-at-Arms.

JOINT CONVENTION

In accordance with law and House Concurrent Resolution 1, duly adopted, the joint convention was called to order, President Neu presiding.

Senator Kinley moved that the roll call be dispensed with and that the President of the joint convention be authorized to declare a quorum present, which motion prevailed.

President Neu declared a quorum present and the joint convention duly organized.

Senator Culver moved that a committee of six, three members from the Senate and three members from the House of Representatives, be appointed to notify Governor Ray that the joint convention was ready to receive him.

The motion prevailed and the President appointed as such committee Senators Culver, Miller of Marshall and Priebe on the part of the Senate, and Representatives Cusack, Dieleman and Crabb on the part of the House.

The Justices of the Supreme Court were escorted into the House chamber.

The committee waited upon Governor Ray and escorted him to the Speaker's station. President Neu then presented Governor Ray, who delivered the following condition of the state message:

MR. PRESIDENT, MR. SPEAKER, MR. CHIEF JUSTICE, SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES, STATE OFFICIALS, DISTINGUISHED GUESTS, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

The high visibility points in the lives of public officials are relatively few. One of these, of course, is election day. That time has come and gone and as I look out into this chamber, I see a number of new legislators. I would ask you to help me recognize these new people. Would those who comprise this freshman class of the General Assembly—you men and women who for the first time proudly hold the office of Representative or Senator—please stand.

Will all of you join me in a warm welcome to these new lawmakers.

Congratulations and welcome to our State Capitol as partners in government.

To you newcomers, let me say we look forward to the fresh ideas, energy, vitality and new insights you bring to this Assembly.

I can say to you that you are in for the time of your lives. The time of your lives. Better still, we are all in the time of our lives.

This is much more than a familiar old phrase—it can be an inspirational theme. It is, in fact, the new theme for a special Iowa 2000 follow-up effort that soon will be launched.

It was Thomas Mann who said, "Time has no divisions to mark its passage, there is never a thunderstorm or blare of trumpets to announce the beginning of a new month or year."

While that is true in a philosophical sense, people find it necessary to measure time with certain benchmarks.

We have several points now to mark a new beginning in this—the time of our lives.

This is the beginning of a new legislature.

This is the beginning of a new year.

This is the beginning of a new century—Century III for America.

A fresh snowfall sparkling in the winter sunshine invigorates the human spirit. It raises optimism because its untracked expanse invites us to make our mark. The sparkling expanse of challenges and opportunities before us invites our tracks on a crisp and clean new era of time fixed as 1977.

In charting clear directions through the uncluttered landscape of a new year, take care not to litter it with cynicism or pettiness for political gain.

We can make our way with a confidence that comes from experience gained in prior successes—and even failures.

We can proceed with the knowledge we are an especially fortunate community—blessed with resources far greater than most people on this globe, with free and open government, with a resilient economy and an ability to solve problems ourselves.

We can rejoice also in the selection of our political leaders—through the exciting, but orderly process of free elections—a privilege we experienced again in 1976.

And, let me inject that those of you who are followers of the political scene knew my presidential preference. But now the election is behind us.

Our thanks and admiration go out to Gerald Ford for his calm and forthright stewardship. And now, our hopes and prayers go out to Jimmy Carter, who will assume the awesome mantle of the Presidency.

Rarely have solutions to the problems facing a new President appeared more elusive, yet seldom have the people across this country been more united in wishing a new President success. Most certainly we do.

It is the beginning of a new General Assembly—time for the Governor to report to the people of Iowa on the condition of the state.

I can tell you this morning that the condition of the state is basically sound—our economy is strong—our people have confidence—and our future is bright. Why do I say that?

Look at agriculture. Despite last year's drought, our farmers produced another billion bushel corn crop, a near record yield of soybeans and remained first in the nation in hog production. Unfortunately, our cattlemen sustained serious losses, but cattle production turned up 13 per cent.

Despite erratic prices, fluctuating markets and frustrating weather, the fundamental skill and persistence of our farmers kept us foremost in world food production.

Look at industry. Development rebounded in 1976 with new capital investment in Iowa manufacturing plants of nearly $400 million, second highest ever. More than 12,000 new jobs were created for Iowans last year, up over 170 per cent from 1975.

When jobless people can and want to work, any unemployment is too much. However, our unemployment rate is a full 3 points below the national average.

And look at our people. As we begin our 131st year as a state, there is a renaissance of pride among Iowans.

In 1976, some 200,000 Iowans serving on local committees spread the spirit of the Bicentennial. They gave it meaning. They served not just because they liked the hoopla, but because they love our heritage.

Last year we saw a record number of cities and towns compete in our Iowa Community Betterment Program; and every town that participated was a winner.

Wherever you looked in our state in 1976, a wave of intense involvement among our Iowans produced exciting results—the rededication of our Old Capitol in Iowa City, the remodeling of the Five Flags Civic Center in Dubuque, the opening of the UNI-Dome in Cedar Falls, the completion of the community sports complex in Glidden, the development of a handicapped village and elderly housing project in Hartley, and the commitment to construct a civic center in Des Moines are examples that come to mind.

This litany of local achievement will inspire Iowans for future generations.

What you do here in 1977 can do the same. What happens in this legislative session will have downstream effects on the lives of Iowans for years—and even decades.

Remember, programs you start in this legislative session may be deceptively easy to set in motion. Those same programs may later prove to be agonizingly difficult to maintain.

Remember also that problems smothered with money don't necessarily get solved. Consider the corn plant: it thrives with the right amount of moisture, but quickly withers and weakens when flooded.

We are financially solvent because we have shown discipline in money matters.

You are going to find there are times when prudence dictates saying, "no, no, no!"

Avoiding fiscal temptations means keeping a lean and limber government team. It means keeping government's hands out of the people's pockets for every new program or idea. It means keeping steady pressure on the managers of government to develop new answers.

One of the satisfactions a governor experiences is the testing of new ideas, new formulas, and new concepts which do not necessarily carry big price tags. Let me cite a few examples.

Iowa leads the nation in state railroad assistance. We began with a small appropriation which Iowa shippers promptly matched with their own money. Iowa's rail assistance plan proved so successful that 23 other states are now following our leadership. Our soil conservancy and tuition grant programs are also national models.

Visionary legislators who embraced these ideas deserve to share fully in the credit for their success. And our capable government administrators deserve to be recognized for making those ideas work.

During the weeks and months ahead, your work on the state budget will be of critical importance. I will share my budget recommendations with you Friday and obviously, they effect the legislative recommendations I make today.

As you consider what to legislate, you should know that. . .

—People are challenging us to take decisive action on property taxes to prevent them from being driven off their farms and out of their homes. My proposals, to be outlined in detail Friday, will be designed to avoid the painful financial shocks which hit property owners.

—People are challenging us to protect the limited resource upon which we all depend—our precious soil. That can be done with equitable and effective land use legislation.

—People are challenging us to assure them of a clean environment. One workable step is to enact legislation encouraging the return and reuse of beverage containers.

—People are challenging us to reflect society's concern for those who are sick, aged and disabled, and for others who justifiably need our help. We must not back off from that responsibility.

—People are challenging us to make certain that Iowa's transportation system adequately meets their needs. Maintaining our roads needs attention.

—People are challenging us to make government more open. One way would be to open our collective bargaining process to the public.

—And, people are challenging us to further streamline government, tightening control over many of its elements. And I propose to do that.

Let me elaborate on what I've just mentioned. . .

For six years, I have stood before you asking for the protection of our land. After extensive debate and effort, the House did pass a land-use bill. It did not, however, reach my desk for signature.

We have waited long enough. The need is defined. The problem has been thoroughly studied, and we are ready for action this session!

Our environment gives us good reason to be proud of where we live. Nevertheless, Iowans say it is not enough just to have fresh air and clean water, and I agree with them. Why not conserve energy and clean up our countryside by making sure that bottles and cans are returned and reused?

The plan I submit is based on solid experience elsewhere. It has worked in other places and it will work here. Do not delay this simple, but proven idea for two, three or four years. Take action in 1977.

Nowhere do solutions come harder than in the area of human needs. Thus, successes are particularly heartening. An example is our intensive infant care program. Since it began, 500 babies who likely would have died are alive and with their families today.

A woman welfare recipient offers another perspective. She wrote: "I happen to be one who receives help, but it is not because I want to. I would rather pay, but my right side is paralyzed and in June I had another stroke that took my voice. If (someone) would like to take my disabilities and get free medical care, I will trade. But I thank God that there are people in this land who care for people who are less fortunate than they."

I am glad we can care for her and others like her.

Programs to meet human needs are as complex as they are encompassing. They can be as promising as special education for preschool kids with developmental disabilities and as sensible as finding ways to employ our elderly people. They can be as comforting as providing in-home health care services for those needing nursing care and as life-sustaining as Aid to Dependent Children.

They can be costly, too. Just to maintain current human resource program levels will require $52 million in more state money for the biennium. This staggering increase is caused by rising hospital and medical costs, additional eligible recipients and most of all, by a loss in federal funds.

You should resist, as we have, the temptation to abandon the painful struggle for solutions to thorny problems of human services. To those who wonder why we keep struggling, I say, "If we ever stop, you will find out."

As difficult as the answers are, we must seek them, lovingly.

Our network of roads and highways is basic to the continued health of Iowa business and agriculture and it affects all of us. Note that the typical Iowa farm moves an incredible 600 tons on and off its acreage each year—by road. And we should not let that fine system of roads falter.

I urge the legislature to act this session to resolve the questions of funding levels and funding distribution, which will effect an improved classification of our highway system.

State government has already taken great steps to operate in clear view of the public. Opening the collective bargaining process is another step we can take. Public officials negotiate public payrolls in public places. That is a persuasive argument for the public's right to know what goes on in the collective bargaining process.

All of us in government know that the public pulse quickens when you discuss the frustrations of bureaucracy. The longer it takes for government to respond, the harder it is to understand.

Past legislatures have worked with the Executive Branch to make government more efficient. There are many examples, but let me mention two recent ones—the Departments of General Services and Transportation. Those who had confidence in these initiatives have been proven right. The centralization of support functions in General Services has strongly improved the management of state facilities and purchases. And the Department of Transportation's payroll has been reduced by 700 people.

And now I have a number of suggestions for further improvements. These include:

- the merger of our Iowa Drug Abuse Authority and the Alcoholism Division.
- the consolidation of four commissions of the Department of Environmental Quality into one; the absorption of the Natural Resources Council into other existing agencies.
- the restructuring of the boards of the Law Enforcement Academy, the State Fair and the Department of Banking.
- the coordination of our mental health programs.
- and the abolishment of the Hospital and Other Health Facilities Advisory Council, Eugenics Board and the War Surplus Board.

We can seek further efficiencies. We should create a volunteer team to examine the purpose and value of licensing and regulatory boards. This would save both time and money by targeting for extinction and rejecting those boards which we can indeed live without. We don't need a costly, tedious separate review of every single unit of government.

In seeking "sunset" results, let us act responsibly.

There are a number of legislative recommendations spelled out in the written addendum to my remarks, and some I will discuss with you on Friday. My program includes support for education, the pursuit of energy conservation, continued assistance to our cities and towns and improved criminal justice procedures. Recommendations regarding corrections should be reserved until the citizens' task force reports its findings.

This program also includes ideas which I have suggested before as well as new ones—some which come, not from me, but from the public—and many which don't cost much money.

All of these have merit—and, in my opinion, they deserve your consideration.

During this session, you will debate and discuss, and I will support, much more than the legislative suggestions I make today. Indeed, I am told over 500 separate bills have already been drafted and are waiting to be filed!

As you begin to think about which bills you will support, I want to remind you what scientist and humanist Buckminster Fuller said: "The possibility of a good life for any man depends upon the possibility of realizing it for all men."

I suggest we ponder that thought in a slightly different context—that the possibility of a good life for any Iowan depends upon the possibility of realizing it for all Iowans.

That is our goal. To achieve it we must do the very best we can for Iowa's citizens with their finite and limited resources.

I have set a course. I have rejected many requests for increased government spending. And this week I am submitting a program and a budget that are both disciplined and prudent.

The power to legislate is now yours. But as the Iowa Constitution clearly points out, the separation of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial powers shall be maintained. It is that respect filled separation which enables us to have alternate perspectives.

Iowans elected me to do my job. They elected you to do yours. And they expect from each of us the wisdom to know the difference.

Earlier, we recognized the new men and women serving in this General Assembly. I can also tell you that we miss some people who are not here. They are not here because they could not make the sacrifice from their careers and families to serve again in another 298 day General Assembly.

On this, the second day of your new session, I commend you on the initiatives you have already taken to shorten its length—such as an early emphasis on committee work.

This is not an easy time to be in public life. But you are here because you choose to be—because you have a willingness to lead people, or to serve people, and, hopefully, to do both.

The cynicism and distrust of government that abounds at all levels will often be discouraging. But you can take solace in the knowledge that there remains a residual core of trust in government.

Lest you dispute that statement, consider the last time you refueled your car at a service station. I doubt whether you questioned the accuracy of the pump—accuracy regulated by government.

You purchase fresh meat in a grocery store with assurance that the government says it is fresh and wholesome.

The airplane you ride flies through dense overcast guided by people on the ground—and you literally put your life in a government worker's hands.

That trust—latent for the most part—is a part of our daily fabric of life. With our vigilance, government can continue to succeed where it is succeeding—and it can be made to work where it is not. By this process, we build public confidence in government.

At the recent Time Magazine Leadership Conference, I was reminded of the observations of Dr. David Barber of Duke University. When he spoke of trust in government he said: "Sore as the public is, there is strong evidence that they are American to the core: uninterested in revolution, increasingly concerned for the civil liberties, ready for sacrifice on an equal basis with the privileged and above all, watching and waiting for leadership to express and effect their new sense of the country's commitment to community, humaneness and candor."

So it is, also, that our people, Iowans to the core, will be waiting, and watching, as you begin. You, too, can leave a legacy of commitment to community, humaneness and candor, if you want to.

And I know you do!

Thank you.

CHILD CUSTODY JURISDICTION

We must do all we can to minimize the heart-rending conflict over child custody after divorce or separation. The Uniform Child Custody Act provides a mechanism to resolve child custody disputes between parents and guardians caused by conflicting decrees of courts in different states.

CONTINUING EDUCATION FOR WESTERN IOWA

Recent studies have underscored the need for continuing education and degree opportunities. We should remove time and geographical barriers for students, especially those in western Iowa, who cannot participate in traditional higher education by implementing a Regents continuing education program.

CRIMINAL CODE REVISION

No legislative package as massive as the criminal code revision can be undertaken without certain necessary corrections and amendments. You should pay close attention to the fine tuning required for effective implementation.

DRUNK DRIVER CLARIFICATION

Since I asked you to clarify the presumptive evidence rule to help get drunken drivers off the road last year, drunken drivers have killed 277 people in this state. We hardly need more incentive to act.

ENERGY

We must emphasize energy conservation to reduce our state's energy vulnerability. A way we can help do that is by including mandatory lighting and thermal efficiency standards for the state building code.

HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SPILLS

When the responsible party is unable or unwilling to take appropriate action which results in a substantial threat to the public health or environment, the Department of Environmental Quality should be authorized to make arrangements to clean up the spillage of hazardous or toxic substances.

JUVENILE JUSTICE

Review and change our system of juvenile justice so that we have uniform procedures and standards. Juvenile rights need to be clearly defined and protected.

LAND USE

Iowa's most important natural resource—our land—must be protected while recognizing the rights of individual land owners. It is time that final approval be given to land use legislation.

MINORITY STOCKHOLDERS PROTECTION

Under present law, it is possible for a majority of the stockholders of an Iowa corporation to treat its minority investors unfairly. Corrective changes in our corporation law should be adopted to protect minority stockholders.

OPEN MEETINGS

Iowa's open meeting law benefits the public. Collective bargaining sessions should also be open. The negotiations of public payrolls by public officials in public places is a persuasive argument for the public's right to know what goes on in the collective bargaining process.

PHYSICAL FITNESS

We can expand and maximize our school and community physical fitness programs by the placement of a director for the Governor's Physical Fitness and Sports Council in the Department of Public Instruction.

REORGANIZATION OF STATE GOVERNMENT

In continuing to make state government more efficient and effective, the following reorganization proposals are advocated. These include:

—The merger of our Iowa Drug Abuse Authority and the Alcoholism Division.

—The consolidation of the four commissions of the Department of Environmental Quality into one.

—The absorption of the Natural Resources Council into other existing agencies.

—The restructuring of the Law Enforcement Academy Board.

—The restructuring of the State Fair Board.

—The restructuring of the Banking Board.

—The coordination of our mental health programs.

—The abolishment of the Hospital and Other Health Facilities Advisory Council.

—And the abolishment of the Eugenics Board and the War Surplus Board.

RETURNABLE BEVERAGE CONTAINERS

A law requiring returnable beverage containers would have positive effects for Iowa. Energy can be saved, litter reduced, the environment improved, and consumers benefited, based on the solid experience gained in other states.

SCREENING OF REGULATORY BOARDS

The purpose of regulating professions and occupations is to protect the health, safety and welfare of the public. Unnecessary licensure and regulatory proliferation can be prevented by a screening commission to examine pertinent facts and the value of existing and proposed regulatory efforts.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE BENEFITS FUNDING

A new permanent funding plan for the Iowa Unemployment Insurance Fund should be enacted to replace the temporary measures adopted during the past two years. We can adopt a system to pay current unemployment benefits plus rebuild the trust fund to a financially adequate level.

PROPOSALS PREVIOUSLY OFFERED

In earlier sessions of the General Assembly I have recommended the adoption of several innovations and reforms which still warrant your attention. I want to renew my request for these items. They include:

- priority for public use of abandoned railroad right-of-ways
- mobile home tie-downs
- park user fees
- the use of a limited number of private liquor outlets
- uniform bidding for local governments
- Washington, D. C. office

The above legislative items are in no way intended to cover all my recommendations for your action. The Governor's budget message will contain a number of important and essential recommendations and priorities covering the multitude of areas affected by state government.

3 definition:

4 a. Officials and employees of a political party orga-

10 the reporting and dissemination of news and editorials.

11 c. Federal, state, or local government officials and 12 employees who in the course of their official duties submit
13 proposed legislation or amendments to a senator or senate

4 3) State the date and describe the purpose of the 5 expenditure.

6 4) State the total amount expended upon each senator,
7 senate candidate or their immediate families without dividing
8 it or averaging it either among the lobbyists or their 9 employers who joined in the lobbying activity or shared or

10 split the expenditure. If the expenditure was made upon two 11 or more members of the general assembly and it cannot be 12 precisely attributed to each member, the report shall average
13 the expenditure upon all those who attended upon whom the 14 expenditure was made. The fact that averaging was used must 15 be disclosed.

16 5) If a lobbyist represents more than one employer and
17 all employers did not contribute equally to the expenditures,
18 the lobbyist may, in addition to the other reports required,
19 also list each employer and state their pro rata share.

20 6) Be signed by all the lobbyists joining the activity
21 or sharing the expenditure.

22 10. Each month of the year, by the twentieth day of that 23 month, separately or jointly registered lobbyists who have 24 made an expenditure for a gathering at which all members of 25 the general assembly or members of the general assembly in 26 large numbers are invited shall file a report with the 27 secretary of the senate concerning such gatherings during 28 the preceding calendar month. Lobbyists who join with other 29 lobbyists or share or split a lobbying expenditure for such 30 gathering shall report under rule nine (9) and not under this 31 rule. The report shall:

32 1) State the name, business address and phone number of 33 the lobbyist filing the report.

34 2) List the names of the senators, senate candidates or 35 their immediate families who attended the gathering.

1 3) State the total amount expended upon the senator,
2 senate candidate or their immediate families by averaging
3 the total expenditure among all those who attended and upon
4 whom the expenditure was made.

5 4) If a lobbyist represents more than one employer and
6 all employers did not contribute equally to the expenditures,
7 the lobbyist may, in addition to the other reports required,
8 also list each employer and state their pro rata share.

9 11. A lobbyist or lobbyists who can reasonably expect
10 that an amount will be expended by the lobbyist or lobbyists
11 on one occasion which will result in an expenditure in excess
12 of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) in one calendar month
13 cumulatively upon a senator, a senator's spouse and a senator's 14 unemancipated minor children, shall notify the senator of 15 the expected expenditure before it is expended. Upon
16 notification, if the senator agrees to reimburse the lobbyist
17 either for the expenditure or that portion of it in excess
18 of twenty-five dollars, to the extent of the agreed 19 reimbursement, the expenditure shall not be reportable by 20 the lobbyist, provided that the lobbyist is reimbursed prior 21 to the date of filing the monthly report required by these

22 rules. If a lobbyist represents more than one employer, then
23 unless the lobbyist attributes a pro rata share to each 24 employer, the expenditure limitations of this rule apply to 25 the lobbyist personally, notwithstanding the number of 26 employers the lobbyist represents. If a lobbyist representing 27 more than one employer attributes a pro rata share to each
28 employer, then the expenditure limitations of this rule apply
29 to each employer assigned a pro rata share. The expenditure
30 limitations of this rule apply cumulatively to all lobby-
31 ists representing a single employer. Unless a lobbyist
32 attributes a pro rata share to each employer, the total
33 expenses of any joint lobbying activity or the total expense
34 of any shared expense are chargeable, for the purpose of this 35 rule, to each lobbyist joining or sharing the expense. For

1 each lobbyist who attributes a pro rata share to their
2 employers, the total expenses of any joint lobbying activity
3 or the total expense of any shared expense are chargeable,
4 for the purposes of this rule, in the pro rata portion assigned
5 to each employer assigned a pro rata share.

6 12. A lobbyist shall not cumulatively expend upon a
7 senator, senator's spouse and unemancipated minor children
8 more than fifty dollars ($50.00) in any calendar year. For 9 the purpose of determining whether this limit is exceeded,
10 the limitation applies cumulatively to all expenditures
11 reportable under rules eight (8), nine (9), and ten (10)
12 except that campaign contributions are not included. A 13 lobbyist who can reasonably expect that an amount will be 14 expended by the lobbyist on one occasion which will result
15 in an expenditure in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00) in one
16 calendar year upon a senator, senator's spouse and a senator's 17 unemancipated minor children shall notify the senator of the 18 expected expenditure. If a lobbyist represents more than 19 one employer, then unless the lobbyist attributes a pro rata
20 share to each employer, the expenditure limitations of this 21 rule apply to the lobbyist personally, notwithstanding the 22 number of employers the lobbyist represents. If a lobbyist
23 representing more than one employer attributes a pro rata
24 share to each employer, then the expenditure limitations of 25 this rule apply to each employer assigned a pro rata share.
26 The expenditure limitations of this rule apply cumulatively
27 to all lobbyists representing a single employer. Unless a 28 lobbyist attributes a pro rata share to each employer, the 29 total expenses of any joint lobbying activity or the total
30 expense of any shared expense are chargeable, for the purpose
31 of this rule, to each lobbyist joining or sharing the expense.
32 For each lobbyist who attributes a pro rata share to their
33 employers, the total expenses of any joint lobbying activity

34 or the total expense of any shared expense are chargeable,
35 for the purposes of this rule, in the pro rata portion assigned

1 to each employer assigned a pro rata share.
2 13. If a lobbyist's service on behalf of a particular
3 employer, client, or cause is concluded prior to the end of 4 the calendar year, the lobbyist may cancel his or her
5 registration on appropriate forms supplied by the secretary
6 of the senate. Upon cancellation of registration, a lobbyist
7 is not required to file monthly lobbyist activity reports,
8 but is prohibited from engaging in any lobbying activity on 9 behalf of that particular employer, client, or cause until 10 re-registering and complying with these rules.

11 14. Any lobbyist who fails to file a monthly lobbyist
12 activity report as required by these rules shall be deemed 13 to have voluntarily cancelled his or her registration. The 14 secretary of the senate shall notify the lobbyist of such 15 cancellation. Such lobbyist shall be prohibited from engaging
16 in any lobbying activity for the remainder of that calendar
17 year on behalf of any employer, client, or cause without re-
18 registering to lobby and filing all delinquent reports.

19 15. Each person registered any time during the calendar
20 year pursuant to rule 3 shall file with the secretary of the 21 senate a year-end report containing the unitemized total
22 annual expenditures related to lobbying for the previous 23 calendar year incurred by each individual, company, firm,
24 corporation, union, association or cause for whom that person
25 lobbies. Such unitemized total required to be filed by this 26 rule shall include, but shall not be limited to:

- 27 1. The salary or compensation of the registered person.
- 28 2. The expenses incurred to encourage the passage, defeat or 29 modification of legislation including:
 - 30 a. food and refreshment,
 - 31 b. entertainment,
 - 32 c. travel for senators,
 - 33 d. recreation,
 - 34 e. lodging,
 - 35 f. advertisement,

- 1 g. postage and printing,
- 2 3. Other miscellaneous expenses not listed here but incurred
3 to encourage or defeat the passage of legislation.
- 4 The report required by this paragraph shall be filed with 5 the secretary of the senate no later than January 20 of the 6 year subsequent to the calendar year which is reported.

7 16. Lobbyists and the organizations they represent shall 8 not allow any senators to charge any amounts or items to any 9 charge account to be paid for by those lobbyists or by the 10 organizations they represent.

11 17. A lobbyist, or an employer of a lobbyist, shall not 12 offer economic or investment opportunity or promise of employ-
13 ment to any senator with intent to influence his or her con-
14 duct in the performance of official duties.

15 18. A lobbyist, or employer of a lobbyist, shall not pay
16 for membership in or contributions to clubs or organizations
17 on behalf of a senator.

18 19. Lobbyists shall not be permitted on the floor of the 19 senate while the senate is in session. Elected state offi-
20 cials, except the governor, lieutenant governor, and the 21 members of the house of representatives, shall not be permitted
22 on the floor of the senate while the senate is in session
23 to encourage the passage, defeat, or modification of 24 legislation.

25 20. Each senator shall file, each month of the year, by 26 the twentieth day of that month, with the secretary of the 27 senate a report of all items or services of an apparent value
28 in excess of five dollars which he or she received during 29 the preceding month from a lobbyist, or the individual, 30 organization, corporation, or cause represented by the 31 lobbyist. This filing shall include the date each was 32 received, the name of the lobbyist, and the individual, orga-
33 nization, corporation, or cause represented by the lobbyist.
34 The types of items or services shall include all expenditures
35 reportable by lobbyists under these rules. It shall not be

1 necessary to affix a monetary value to each listing. All
2 honoraria for speaking received from a registered lobbyist
3 shall be stated and the amount listed.

4 21. No senator shall solicit or knowingly accept
5 expenditures by any lobbyist of cumulatively more than fifty 6 dollars ($50.00) in any calendar year upon themselves, their
7 spouse and their unemancipated minor children. For the purpose
8 of determining whether this limit is exceeded, the limitation
9 applies cumulatively to all expenditures reportable by the 10 lobbyist under rules eight (8), nine (9) and ten (10).
11 Apparent violations of this rule shall be disposed of by the 12 ethics committee according to the procedures set forth in 13 the Senate Code of Ethics. For the purposes of this rule,
14 "lobbyist" means a lobbyist, as defined in these rules,
15 personally unless they represent more than one employer.
16 If a lobbyist represents more than one employer, then the 17 limitation applies to each employer and not to the lobbyist
18 personally.

19 22. The secretary of the senate shall submit, each month
20 of the year, by the twenty-fifth day of that month, to the 21 senate ethics committee a list of the lobbyists and senators
22 who appear to have failed to file the reports required by 23 rules seven (7) through eleven (11) and twenty-two (22).
24 The senate ethics committee may require, on its own motion,
25 any lobbyist or senator who appears to have failed to file
26 a report or who appears to have filed an incomplete or
27 inaccurate report to appear before the committee to explain
28 the failure to file said report or the incomplete or inaccurate
29 report.

30 23. Any member of the general assembly may file a complaint
31 against a lobbyist or a senator alleging violation of law
32 or the senate rules governing lobbyists. The complaint shall 33 be in writing, made under oath, and filed with the secretary
34 of the senate. The secretary of the senate promptly shall 35 transmit the complaint to the chair of the senate ethics

1 committee, who promptly shall convene that committee to
2 consider the complaint.

3 If the ethics committee determines that the complaint sets
4 out an apparent violation of law or the senate rules governing
5 lobbyists, it shall set the matter for hearing, and then
6 notify the accused of his or her right to appear in person,
7 to be represented by counsel, to present statements and 8 evidence, and to cross-examine witnesses. The committee shall 9 hold a hearing, consider all relevant evidence, and make its 10 recommendation to the senate. Violation of the senate rules
11 governing lobbyists may result in the suspension of a lobbyist, 12 if directed by a two-thirds vote of the senate in accordance 13 with section 68B.10 of the Code.

14 24. The senate ethics committee is authorized to meet
15 during the time the general assembly is not in session to 16 conduct hearings and other business that properly may come
17 before it. If the committee submits a report seeking senate
18 action against a lobbyist after the second regular session
19 of a general assembly has adjourned sine die, said report
20 shall be submitted to and considered by the subsequent general
21 assembly.

22 25. A lobbyist's registration shall be valid for only
23 one calendar year. If an individual desires to continue
24 lobbying activity, he or she must re-register at the begin-
25 ning of each calendar year.

26 26. These rules governing lobbyists shall be in effect
27 throughout the calendar year, whether or not the general
28 assembly is in session.

29 27. The secretary of the senate shall prescribe forms

30 and procedures for compliance with these rules. The secretary
 31 of the senate may require a lobbyist to clarify or explain
 32 any report.
 33 28. All statements and reports under these rules shall 34 be public records open to public inspection at all reasonable
 35 times. Records relating to lobbying in one general assembly

1 shall be retained by the secretary of the senate through the
 2 succeeding general assembly.

1 Bills shall be listed by the secretary in the order they are
2 set for debate.

16 amendment, motion (including a motion to reconsider), or 17 resolution may be withdrawn by the mover if it has not been 18 amended by the senate and if no amendment is pending. All 19 amendments to bills, resolutions, and reports shall be in

35 but to adjourn, to recess, questions of privilege, to lay

1 on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a
 2 day certain, to refer, to amend, to postpone indefinitely,
 3 to defer, or incidental motions. A substitute is not in order
 4 unless it is in the form of a motion to substitute. Such 5 motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are 6 named. No motion to postpone to a day certain, to refer,
 7 or postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall be again allowed
 8 on the same day with regard to the same question. A motion
 9 to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have 10 precedence over all amendments and, if carried, shall be 11 considered equivalent to the rejection of the bill.

Rule 13

- 31 12. Motion for the previous question.
- 32 13. Motion to sustain a decision of the chair.
- 33 14. Motion to strike the enacting clause.
- 34 15. All other motions.

Page 8

- 1 Motions not Debatable
- 2 The following motions are not debatable:
- 3 Adjourn.
 - 4 Recess.
 - 5 Call of the Senate.
 - 6 Lay on Table or Take from Table.
 - 7 Previous Question.
 - 8 A Motion to Reconsider and Lay the Motion to Reconsider
 9 on the Table (Double-barreled Motion).

10 A motion to suspend the rules is debatable.

11 Rule 15

12 Division of the Question

13 Any senator may call for a division of a question, which 14 shall be divided if it includes propositions so distinct that 15 if one is taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain
16 in a technically proper form for the decision of the senate.
17 A motion to strike out and insert is indivisible; but a motion
18 to strike out, if lost, shall not preclude amendments to the 19 matter attempted to be stricken or a motion to strike out
20 and insert.

21 Rule 16

22 The Previous Question

23 The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall debate
24 be closed on the pending question?" A motion for the previous 25 question may be adopted by a majority of the senators present
26 and voting. Its effect shall be to put an end to debate and 27 bring the senate to a direct vote upon the pending question.
28 However, any senator who has not previously spoken on the 29 pending question and who, after the main question is taken
30 up and before the motion for the previous question has been
31 made, requested recognition by depressing the "speak" device
32 may speak no longer than five minutes on the pending question.
33 If action on the pending question continues into another
34 legislative day or is deferred, the previous question shall 35 apply and the requests to be recognized shall be honored.

1 When the motion applies to an amendment, the senator
2 proposing the amendment shall have five minutes to close
3 debate on the amendment.

4 The senator handling the measure under consideration shall
5 have ten minutes to close debate on the main question.

6 Rule 17

7 Call of the Senate

8 Ten senators may file in writing a call of the senate on 9 any single item of legislative business. A call of the senate
10 requires the presence of every senator. The sergeant-at-arms
11 shall return promptly all absent senators. Debate on the 12 item may continue while absent senators are returning, but 13 no vote on the item is in order on it until all have returned.
14 Adoption of a motion to recess or adjourn to a specific time
15 will not lift the call. The call may be lifted, or a senator
16 may be excused from the call without lifting the call, by 17 a vote of a constitutional majority of the senators.

18 Rule 18

19 Committee of the Whole

20 The senate may resolve itself into a committee of the whole

21 senate when it wishes to permit more free and informal dis-
 22 cussion. Persons other than senators may appear and present
 23 information.

24 Any senator may move "that the senate now resolve itself
 25 into a committee of the whole to consider" a stated subject.
 26 The motion to resolve into a committee of the whole is 27 equivalent to a motion to refer.

28 The president of the senate shall be chairman of the 29 committee of the whole unless otherwise ordered by the senate.

30 The procedure in committee of the whole is subject to the 31 rules of the senate. The previous question and the motion
 32 to reconsider shall be in order.

33 The committee of the whole cannot take any final action
 34 and its power is limited to recommendation to the senate.
 35 The proceedings of the committee of the whole, including any

1 roll call vote, shall be printed in the journal.

2 Any senator may at any time, except while voting or while
 3 a senator has the floor, move that "The committee rise and
 4 report" which is equivalent to a motion to adjourn.

5 After adoption of the motion to rise, the chairman shall
 6 report to the senate in the same manner as other committee
 7 reports are given.

Rule 19

Last Reading and Passage of Bills

 10 When a motion to place a bill on its last reading is lost,
 11 the same motion shall be in order at any later time. After 12 the last reading of a bill, no amendment shall be received.
 13 The vote on final passage immediately shall be taken without 14 debate.

Rule 20

Engrossment of Bills

15
 17 An engrossment is a proofreading and verification in order
 18 to be certain that a bill before the senate is identical with 19 the original bill as introduced with all amendments which 20 have been adopted correctly inserted. A bill shall be 21 considered engrossed when ordered to its last reading.

22 In an engrossed bill, all obvious typographical, spelling
 23 or other clerical errors are corrected and section or paragraph 24 numbers and internal references are changed as required to 25 conform the original bill to any amendments which have been
 26 adopted. All such corrections or changes shall be reported
 27 in the journal by the secretary of the senate. The engrossed
 28 bill shall be placed in the bill file with the original bill
 29 and amendments.

Rule 21

Manner of Voting

30
 31

- 32 On voice vote, the question shall be distinctly put in 33 this form: "Those in favor of (the question) say 'aye'."
 34 "Those opposed to (the question) say 'no'."
 35 A non-record or record roll call vote may be requested

1 by any senator or ordered by the president any time before
 2 the results are announced. A non-record roll call shall be
 3 requested by asking for a "division". A record roll call
 4 shall be requested by asking for a "roll call". Upon request
 5 for a non-record or record roll call vote, the president
 6 shall announce that such a roll call vote has been requested
 7 and shall state the question to be put to the senate. The 8 president then shall direct the secretary of the senate to 9 receive the votes.

10 Senators present may cast their votes, either by oper-
 11 ating the voting mechanism located at their assigned desk
 12 or by signaling the president if they are unable to vote at 13 their assigned desk. The president shall enter the votes
 14 of senators signaling their votes.

15 After sufficient time has elapsed for all senators present
 16 to record their votes, the president shall direct the secretary
 17 of the senate to close the voting system. The president shall 18 still enter the senators' votes at any time prior to directing 19 the secretary to lock the voting system. The president shall 20 then immediately announce the vote.

21 During a non-record or record roll call vote, both
 22 individual votes and vote totals shall be indicated openly
 23 on the display boards. On non-record roll calls, only vote
 24 totals shall be printed in the journal.

25 In the event the electronic voting system is not in 26 operating order, the president shall direct the secretary
 27 of the senate to take the roll call by calling the names of 28 the senators in alphabetical order.

Rule 22

Duty of Voting

30 Every senator present when a question is put shall vote
 31 "aye", "no" or "present" unless previously excused by the 32 senate. Upon demand being made by any senator, the secretary
 33 shall call in alphabetical order the names of the senators
 34 not voting or voting "present". Those senators called shall 35

1 vote "aye" or "no" unless the senator states that he or she
 2 has a personal interest in the question or concludes that
 3 he or she should not vote under the senate code of ethics.

Rule 23

Reconsideration

6 When a motion or question has been decided by the senate,
 7 any senator having voted on the prevailing side may move to 8 reconsider the vote on the same or next legislative day.
 9 Motions to reconsider a vote by which a bill or joint
 10 resolution was adopted on final passage shall be in writing
 11 and filed with the secretary of the senate. A motion to 12 reconsider an amendment shall be in writing and filed with 13 the Secretary of the Senate anytime prior to the disposition
 14 of the main question or upon reconsideration of the main ques-
 15 tion. A constitutional majority is necessary to reconsider
 16 a bill or joint resolution. During three legislative days
 17 from the date the motion to reconsider a bill or resolution
 18 is filed, only the mover may call it up. Thereafter, any 19 senator may call up the motion. If a date for adjournment
 20 has been set by resolution of the senate, any senator may 21 call up a motion to reconsider at any time within three days
 22 prior to the date set for adjournment.

23 If the motion to reconsider a bill or resolution prevails,
 24 motions to reconsider amendments thereto shall be in order
 25 and shall be disposed of without delay.

26 A motion that any action taken by the senate be reconsidered
 27 and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table shall 28 be a single and indivisible motion, known as the double-
 29 barreled motion, which, if carried, shall have the effect
 30 of preventing reconsideration unless a motion to take from 31 the table prevails. A constitutional majority is necessary
 32 for the double-barreled motion to prevail on a bill or joint 33 resolution. The double-barreled motion can only be made from 34 the floor after the vote is announced and the member who moved 35 the final reading shall have priority in making it.

1 A motion to reconsider and lay on the table shall have
 2 priority over a motion to reconsider if they are both filed
 3 on the same legislative day.

4 In the event that a motion to reconsider is pending at 5 the end of the first session of any general assembly, or the 6 general assembly adjourns sine die, and the motion has not 7 been voted upon by the senate, it shall be determined to have 8 failed.

9 Rule 24 10 Suspension of Rules and Taking from Table

11 No standing rule or rules incorporated by reference under 12 rule 3 or order of the senate shall be rescinded or suspended, 13 nor shall any matter, tabled upon motion, be taken up, except 14 by an affirmative vote of twenty-six or more senators.

15 INTRODUCTION AND FORM OF BILLS

16 Rule 25

17 Time and Method of Introducing Bills and Amendments

18 All bills to be introduced in the senate shall be typed 19 in proper form by the legislative service bureau and shall 20 be filed with the secretary of the senate not later than 3:00
21 p.m.

22 All amendments shall be typed in proper form and filed
23 with the secretary of the senate not later than 4:30 p.m.,
24 or adjournment, whichever is later.

25 Amendments to bills which have been special ordered for 26 more than five legislative days in advance of the date set
27 for debate shall be filed no later than the second legislative 28 day next preceding the date the bill is to be debated.

29 Rule 26

30 Limit on Introduction of Bills

31 Except those cosponsored by the majority and minority floor
32 leaders no bill or joint resolution shall be introduced in 33 the senate after 4:00 p.m. on Friday of the seventh week of 34 the first regular session of a general assembly unless a 35 written request for drafting the bill has been filed with

1 the legislative service bureau before that time. After
2 adjournment of the first regular session, bills may be prefiled
3 at any time before the convening of the second regular session.
4 No bill shall be introduced after 4:00 p.m. on Friday of the 5 second week of the second regular session of a general assembly
6 unless a written request for drafting the bill has been filed
7 with the legislative service bureau before that time. However,
8 standing committees may introduce bills and joint resolutions
9 at any time. Senate and concurrent resolutions may be 10 introduced at any time.

11 Rule 27

12 Introduction, Reading and Form of Bills and Resolutions

13 Every senate bill and resolution shall be introduced by 14 one or more senators or by any standing committee of the 15 senate and shall at once be given its first reading.

16 If the senate is in session when a bill or resolution is 17 introduced, the first reading shall consist of reading its 18 file number, the title and sponsor of the bill. If the senate
19 is not in session but a journal is published for the day,
20 the first reading shall consist of a journal entry of the 21 bill's file number, title, sponsor and the notation "Read
22 first time under Rule 27."

23 Any bill or resolution approved for introduction by a
24 standing committee during an interim period shall be introduced
25 without further action by the committee at the next succeeding
26 session of the same General Assembly and placed immediately
27 upon the ready calendar.

28 Every bill and resolution referred to committee shall have 29 received two readings before its passage.

30 The subject of every bill shall be expressed in its title.

31 Rule 28

32 Explanations

33 No bill, except appropriations committee bills, shall be 34 introduced unless a concise and accurate explanation is 35 attached. The chief sponsor or a committee to which the bill

1 has been referred may add a revised explanation at any time
2 before the last reading, and it shall be included in the daily
3 clipsheet.

4 Rule 29

5 Resolutions

6 1. A "senate resolution" is a resolution acted upon only 7 by the senate which expresses sentiment or is used for the 8 appointment of special committees within the senate. A senate
9 resolution requires the affirmative vote of a majority of 10 the senators present and voting. It shall be filed with the 11 secretary of the senate and printed in the journal.

12 2. A "concurrent resolution" is a resolution to be adopted
13 by both houses of the general assembly which expresses the 14 sentiment of the general assembly or deals with temporary 15 legislative matters. It may authorize the expenditure, for 16 any legislative purpose, of funds appropriated to the general
17 assembly. A concurrent resolution is not limited to, but 18 may provide for a joint convention of the general assembly,
19 adjournment or recess of the general assembly, or requests
20 to a state agency or to the general assembly or a committee.
21 A concurrent resolution requires the affirmative vote of a
22 majority of the senators present and voting. It shall be 23 filed with the secretary of the senate and printed in the 24 journal.

25 3. A "joint resolution" is a resolution which requires
26 for approval the affirmative vote of a constitutional majority
27 of each house of the general assembly. A joint resolution
28 which appropriates funds or enacts temporary laws must contain
29 the clause "Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State
30 of Iowa:", is equivalent to a bill, and must be transmitted
31 to the governor for his approval. A joint resolution which 32 proposes amendments to the Constitution of the State of Iowa,
33 ratifies amendments to the Constitution of the United States,
34 proposes a request to Congress or an agency of the government
35 of the United States of America, proposes to Congress an

1 amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America,

2 or creates a special commission or committee must contain
 3 the clause "Be It Resolved by the General Assembly of the 4 State of Iowa:" and shall not be transmitted to the governor.
 5 No joint resolution shall amend a statute in the Code of Iowa.

6 Rule 30

7 Resolutions, Applicable Rules

8 Unless specifically provided to the contrary in these 9 rules, all rules applicable to bills shall apply to 10 resolutions, except as altered by Rule 33.

11
 12 COMMITTEES AND COMMITMENT

13 RULE 31

14 Committee Appointments

15 Committee appointments shall be made by the majority leader
 16 after consultation with the leadership of the minority
 17 political party. No senator shall serve on more than five 18 committees. The majority leader shall designate the 19 chairperson and vice-chairperson of each standing committee.
 20 The minority leader shall designate the ranking member of 21 each standing committee from the minority membership of that 22 committee appointed by the majority leader.

2 Rules and administration

3 State government

4 Transportation

5 Ways and means

6 Rule 33

7 Committee on Rules and Administration

8 The committee on rules and administration shall recommend
 9 rules and rule changes to the senate, shall hire senate
 10 employees, shall recommend salary scales for all senate
 11 employees, and shall oversee senate administration matters.

12 The majority party members of the committee on rules and 13 administration will select, for senate approval, an individ-

14 ual to serve as secretary of the senate.

15 The minority party members of the committee on rules and 16 administration will select, for senate approval, an individual
17 to serve as assistant secretary of the senate.

18 Rule 34

19 Budget Committee

20 The budget committee shall consist of thirteen members,
21 eight of whom shall be members of the majority party and five
22 shall be members of the minority party. The budget committee
23 shall receive bills committed to it and shall assign each
24 to one of the budget subcommittees.

25 There shall be eight budget subcommittees which shall be 26 named:

27 Claims

28 Education

29 Human Resources

30 Social Services

31 Natural Resources

32 Regulatory and Finance

33 State Government

34 Transportation and Law Enforcement

35 The budget subcommittees shall receive bills assigned to

1 them or may originate draft bills for sponsorship by the
2 budget subcommittees which are within the subcommittee's
3 jurisdiction as defined by the budget committee. After 4 appropriate consideration of the bill, each subcommittee may
5 submit bills together with the subcommittee's recommended
6 action and any amendments to the budget committee.

7 If bills or bill drafts are first submitted by a budget
8 subcommittee to the budget committee prior to March 15th of 9 each year, the budget committee may either approve the bill
10 and report or re-refer it together with the budget committee's 11 objections to the budget subcommittee from which it was 12 originally referred or which originated the draft bill.

13 If a bill or bill draft is submitted to the budget committee
14 a second time by a budget subcommittee or any bill submitted
15 on or after March 15th of each year, the budget committee
16 may:

17 1. approve the bill and report it;

18 2. approve the bill with amendments and report it with the 19 amendments;

20 3. draft a new bill for sponsorship by the budget
21 committee and report it; or

22 4. re-refer it together with the budget committee's
23 objections to the budget subcommittee from which it
24 was originally referred or which originated the draft
25 bill.

- 26 Draft bills sponsored by budget subcommittees shall be
27 introduced only upon approval of the budget committee.
28 The budget committee is authorized to meet anytime upon 29 call of the chairperson to:
30 1. Act upon bills submitted to it by budget subcommittees
31 as provided by this rule.
32 2. Prepare, review or revise a proposed legislative budget.
33 3. After March 15, initiate any bill relating to budget or 34 appropriation matters.
35 The budget committee may meet jointly with the budget

1 committee of the house of representatives.

2 Rule 35

3 First Reading and Commitment

4 Upon the first reading of an individual bill or resolution,
5 the majority leader, president pro tempore and the two
6 assistant majority leaders shall refer the bill or resolution
7 to an appropriate standing committee unless otherwise ordered
8 by the senate. If the bill or resolution is a committee bill
9 or resolution, the president shall place it on the calendar
10 after its first reading. If the subject of the bill or 11 resolution is not germane to the title of the committee
12 presenting it, the majority leadership or the senate may refer
13 it to a committee deemed appropriate.

14 All bills carrying an appropriation for any purpose or 15 involving the expenditure of state funds shall be referred 16 to the committee on appropriations.

17 All bills pertaining to the levy, assessment or collection
18 of taxes shall be referred to the committee on ways and means.

19 Any bill which provides for a new state board, commission,
20 agency or department or makes separate or autonomous an exist-
21 ing state board, commission, agency or department, shall be
22 referred to the committee on state government. This rule
23 shall also apply when such a provision is added to a bill
24 or resolution by amendment adopted by the senate. If the 25 bill or resolution is so referred after being sponsored or 26 reported out by another committee, and if the committee on 27 state government does not report out the bill or resolution
28 within ten legislative days after referral, the bill or 29 resolution shall automatically be restored to the calendar
30 with the same priority it had immediately before referral.

31 Rule 36

32 Rules for Standing Committees

33 The following rules shall govern all standing committees
34 of the senate. Any committee may adopt additional rules which 35 are consistent with these rules:

1 1. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum.

2 2. The chair of a committee shall refer each bill and
3 resolution to a subcommittee within seven days after the bill
4 or resolution has been referred to the committee. The chair
5 may appoint subcommittees for study of bills and resolutions
6 without calling a meeting of the committee, but the 7 subcommittee must be announced at the next meeting of the 8 committee. No bill or resolution shall be reported out of 9 a committee until the next meeting after the subcommittee
10 is announced, except that the chair of the budget committee
11 may make the announcement of the assignment to a subcommittee
12 by placing a notice in the journal. Any bill so assigned 13 by the budget committee chair shall be eligible for 14 consideration by the committee upon report of the subcommittee
15 but not sooner than three legislative days following the 16 publication of the announcement in the journal.

17 When a bill or resolution has been assigned to a
18 subcommittee, the chair shall report to the senate the bill
19 or resolution number and the names of the subcommittee members
20 and such reports shall be reported in the journal of the last
21 legislative day of each week.

22 Where standing subcommittees of any committee have been 23 named, the names of the members and the title of the 24 subcommittee shall be published once and thereafter publication
25 of assignments may be made by indicating the title of the 26 subcommittee.

27 Bills or resolutions may only be withdrawn from a
28 subcommittee by a majority vote of the committee.

29 3. No bill or resolution shall be considered by a committee
30 until it has been referred to a subcommittee and the 31 subcommittee has made its report unless otherwise ordered
32 by a majority of the members.

33 4. The rules adopted by a committee, including these 34 rules, may be suspended by an affirmative vote of a majority
35 of the members.

1 5. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of
2 a committee is needed to sponsor a committee bill or resolution
3 or to report a bill or resolution out for passage.

4 6. The vote on all bills and resolutions shall be by roll
5 call and a record shall be kept by the secretary.

6 Rule 37
7 Voting in Committee

8 All committee meetings shall be open at all times. Voting
9 by secret ballot is prohibited. Roll call votes shall be

10 taken in each committee when final action on any bill or 11 resolution is voted, or at the request of a member upon any 12 amendment or motion. All results shall be entered in the 13 minutes which shall be public records. Records of these votes
14 shall be made available by the chair or the committee secretary
15 at any time. This rule also applies to the steering committee
16 and budget subcommittees.

17 The committee shall not authorize the introduction of a
18 committee bill or resolution until the members have received
19 final copies of the bill with amendments incorporated, typed
20 into proper form by the legislative service bureau.

21 Rule 38

22 Announcement of Committee Meetings

23 It shall be in order for the chair of any committee to 24 announce to the senate the time and place of committee
25 meetings. The announcement shall include a proposed agenda
26 for the meeting. The sergeant-at-arms shall post at the rear
27 of the chamber the daily schedule of committee meetings.

28 Rule 39

29 Withdrawal of Bills and Resolutions from Committee

30 The secretary of the senate shall note on each bill and 31 resolution the date of its reference to committee. No bill
32 or resolution shall be withdrawn from any committee within 33 fifteen legislative days after the bill or resolution has 34 been referred to the committee and thereafter only upon written
35 petition for the withdrawal of such bill or resolution signed

1 by a constitutional majority of the senators, except as
2 provided in rule 35. Only senators may circulate such a
3 petition.

4 Rule 40

5 Committee Reports

6 All committees shall file a report with the secretary of 7 the senate of:

8 a. All meetings, and
9 b. Bills which are reported out of the committee for floor
10 action.

11 Reports regarding meetings shall be in such form as the 12 secretary shall prescribe and shall state:

13 a. The time the meeting convened; and
14 b. Those senators who were present and absent at the time
15 the meeting convened; and
16 c. The vote on any bill reported out of the committee
17 for floor action; and
18 d. The time the meeting adjourned; and 19 e. An indication of other bills or other matters discussed; and 20 f. Such other matters as the committee chair shall direct.

21 Reports regarding bills shall be in such form as the
 22 secretary shall prescribe and shall state:
 23 a. The file number and title of the bill; and 24 b. Whether the committee recommends that the bill be passed,
 25 amended and passed, indefinitely postponed, or without recom-
 26 mendation.
 27 No committee report shall be read, but all committee reports
 28 shall be printed by the secretary in the Journal. Upon
 29 printing, all committee reports shall then stand approved
 30 unless the senate directs otherwise.

31 Rule 41

32 Bills or Resolutions Recommended for Indefinite Postponement
 33 When a question is postponed indefinitely, it shall not
 34 be again acted upon during that general assembly. If a bill
 35 or resolution is reported back from a committee recommending

1 indefinite postponement, the report shall be placed on the
 2 calendar and shall be disposed of within three legislative
 3 days. If not, the committee recommendation shall be considered
 4 adopted. However, no senate bill or resolution recommended
 5 for indefinite postponement shall be considered in the absence
 6 of the chief sponsor or, if a house bill or resolution, in 7 the absence of the senator representing the district in which
 8 the sponsor resides. If a committee report recommends
 9 indefinite postponement, it shall require a vote of thirty-
 10 four senators to prevent indefinite postponement, and debate
 11 shall be limited to ten minutes on each side.

12 GENERAL RULES

13 Rule 42

14 Admission to Senate Chamber 15 and Prohibition of Lobbying

16 While the senate is in session and for a period of ten
 17 minutes before the convening of any session until the daily
 18 adjournment, only legislators, employees of the senate,
 19 authorized senate interns, and aides to senators shall be 20 allowed in the senate chamber. Employees of the legislative 21 service bureau authorized by its director and employees of 22 the legislative fiscal bureau authorized by its director shall 23 be allowed in the senate chamber. A person or group accom-
 24 panied by a senator or persons going directly to committee
 25 meetings may be admitted during recess. Former legislators
 26 not registered as lobbyists in either house shall also be 27 admitted to the senate floor. News reporters shall be 28 permitted to occupy the seats assigned for the press and to 29 go to or from those seats. No other persons shall be allowed
 30 on the senate floor without express permission of the presiding
 31 officer of the senate. The presiding officer shall require

32 persons normally allowed in the senate chamber, other than 33 senators, to leave the chamber if they are not at that time
34 necessary for the senate's business.

35 Rule 43

1 Legislative Interns and Aides

2 Legislative interns for senators shall be allowed on the
3 floor of the senate in accordance with Rule 42; provided that 4 each intern first has been approved by the joint legislative
5 intern committee and the intern has obtained a name badge
6 from the secretary of the senate. The secretary of the senate
7 shall issue an appropriate name badge to all interns for 8 senators approved by the joint legislative intern committee.

9 In addition, those persons designated as "aides to senators"
10 shall be allowed on the floor of the senate, provided that 11 such individual first has been approved by the two senators
12 serving on the joint legislative intern committee and the 13 secretary of the senate, or designee on the joint committee.

COMMITTEE FROM THE HOUSE

A committee from the House appeared and announced that the House was ready to receive the Senate in joint convention.

In accordance with House Concurrent Resolution 2, duly adopted, the Senate proceeded to the House under the direction of the Secretary of the Senate and the Sergeant-at-Arms.

JOINT CONVENTION

In accordance with law and House Concurrent Resolution 2, duly adopted, the joint convention was called to order, President Neu presiding.

President Neu declared a quorum present and the joint convention duly organized.

Senator Kinley moved that a committee of six, consisting of three members from the Senate and three members from the House be appointed to notify Governor Ray that the joint convention was ready to receive him.

The motion prevailed and the Chair appointed as such committee Senators Rush, Bisenius and Slater, on the part of the Senate, and Representatives Dunton, Wells and Varley, on the part of the House.

The committee waited upon Governor Ray and escorted him to the Speaker's station. President Neu then presented Governor Ray, who delivered the following budget address:

MR. PRESIDENT, MR. SPEAKER, SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES, STATE OFFICIALS, DISTINGUISHED GUESTS, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

This is my second message in less than a week. With a longer term for the Governor, there is no inaugural. Something good comes from that. First, it saves the state money, and second, it saves you from listening to a third speech.

On Tuesday, I reported on the condition of the state and submitted my legislative recommendations. A major theme was that of living within our means. This struck a responsive chord with many legislators. I want to thank the people of both parties who expressed their support for my proposals.

I know there are a number of you who relish detail. Today's message should satisfy even the most ravenous appetite.

This is the first time in modern Iowa history the legislature has received the Governor's budget during its first week. I hope this will aid your prompt start with committee work.

To begin, I will discuss the premises used in developing this budget, followed by a review of our financial condition today. I will then present program priorities which will be followed by our anticipated financial condition at the end of the biennium.

I will define a starting point, the rules of the road and a final destination. That destination is a balanced budget, yet one that meets our needs. Like an overland journey, it is likely that if you and I take paths that are too far apart and travel at speeds that are too different, we will end up at different destinations. I doubt that would be to your liking or mine.

The fundamental duty of government is to serve the public—doing neither more nor less than what the public wants, and is willing to pay for.

Like the average homeowner, that means doing the best we can with what we have. A family recognizes its financial limits and often cannot afford that new car, that new TV, or that new toy. These same limits apply to state government.

Accordingly, this budget is based on three premises:

- First, there will be no increase in sales and income taxes.
- Second, we will live within our resources. . . we will have a balanced budget.
- And third, we will get the maximum value for each hard-earned tax dollar.

The notion of no new taxes is a simple one. The public has told us, again and again, they do not want new taxes. In short, it might be said that the one thing the public likes less than new taxes is the politician who raises them.

The concept of living within one's resources is basic to good management.

Smart businessmen and women keep a careful watch on their inventories. Astute farmers try to anticipate the weather and changing markets. Government must also look ahead, avoiding unnecessary burdens on our limited resources.

Getting the best for one's money is also easily understood. No one wants to pay for the toaster that doesn't work, the shampoo that doesn't lather, or the suit that doesn't fit.

Consumer value creates consumer confidence. Government value creates citizen confidence.

PROPERTY TAX

Before discussing the budget, I will address a very major issue. The issue affects every property-owner in Iowa. That issue is obviously property taxes.

News stories, opinion polls, and questionnaires you have answered, list property taxes as the single most important topic of this session. That issue is a lightning rod for discussion in main street cafes across Iowa.

The 1975 equalization of property assessments across 99 counties triggered alarms that the tax levies would skyrocket. They did.

And, early indications from Iowa State University and the Department of Revenue indicate that similar large increases in valuations are still ahead for farmers and homeowners.

I addressed the problem one year ago with a five-part package that, among other things, was designed to cap the amount of property taxes collected and thus, curb spending.

The 1976 legislature wrestled with the problem. It finally mustered the votes to pass legislation which was not only unacceptable to me, but even to some legislators who voted for it! The first year of that tax package was not vetoed because of the approaching deadline for tax collections.

Time was also a problem for our citizens' Task Force that looked at property taxes. I had hoped the task force would have sufficient time to do a complete job. It didn't. Nonetheless, its findings were most helpful in defining the problem. And I want to thank the members of the Task Force, especially Lieutenant Governor Art Neu who chaired it.

It is clear that large jolts in property valuations must be mitigated. Property owners deserve better than to be shocked by the abrupt and immense increases in the taxes they have to pay. Both rural and urban Iowans are asking for tax stability.

Even after the increase in agricultural property assessments that ranged up to 78%, and 53% for residential property, there is a very real possibility that large increases are in store for farmers and homeowners again. Something must be done.

State government doesn't collect or spend a dime of property taxes. That is the activity of local government, yet since the state allows property to be taxed, we have a responsibility for affecting the extent that it can be taxed.

Therefore, we must get to the core of this tax problem, which is the rapidly increasing assessments.

I am submitting to you a plan with 15 parts which will address this major issue. Let me mention several key ones.

- We restrict the growth in assessments of agricultural land and residential properties in an assessing district to not more than 5% a year.
- We continue to provide for uniform procedures for assessing property as well as equalizing property to achieve greater equity in assessments within taxing districts. Yet taxes would be levied only against the limited assessed value of property, not against the full market value.
- We retain the $4500 homestead tax credit and also continue the $42 million for agricultural land tax credits.
- We allow the property tax spending limitations imposed by the last legislative session to expire.

There are significant advantages to this proposal:

- It blocks sharp increases in property assessments.
- It offers predictability and stability.
- It gives local governments budget freedom and a stable growth rate in their tax base.

Cities, counties, and other local jurisdictions face many heavy demands. It is my belief that if the people of a community so desire, they should have the authority to seek other revenue sources. In the spirit of home rule, I recommend that local governments be allowed to have a local option sales tax if the people vote to have it.

Cities and counties can also benefit by a hotel-motel tax. . . similar to what our Iowans pay when they travel out of state. Local officials should decide if they want that source of new income.

You can read the specific proposals of this plan in the addendum to my remarks that will be handed out to you today. As a package, my plan can help resolve the property tax difficulties that beset Iowans.

I ask that you pass—a good bill—early this session!

CORPORATE TAX

Another matter of concern is the uncertainty that hangs over Iowa's corporation tax law. The recent district court ruling has confused business and government alike, and has raised the specter of refund claims.

We await final court action. Pending that outcome, we remain convinced there are advantages to our single-factor formula. It has encouraged business to locate and to expand in our state—creating new jobs for Iowa workers and broadening the tax base.

However, we should not disregard the possibility of an adverse court decision. Specifically, to protect against the contingency of refunds—I am advocating a change in corporate tax payment schedules from annual payments to quarterly payments—consistent with federal corporate income tax collection.

As a result of this change, the state will have a "windfall" of approximately $35 million. Of this amount, it is imperative that the sum of $25 million be set aside in a special reserve account, designated for the payment of refunds . . . if the court ultimately orders it.

If we have learned anything, it is that caution should be used when a matter of substantial importance is pending before our courts. I urge you not to take hasty, ill-advised action. We do not need further disruptions in our business climate.

Iowa industry should be allowed to focus on its task—that of being productive and competitive. Iowa jobs are at stake.

Now, to the current financial condition of the state.

On July 1, 1977, the beginning of the new biennium, we expect a treasury balance of $106 million. For those who had hoped this surplus might be larger, you should remember the last General Assembly appropriated, on a recurring basis, some $30 million over and above my budget.

I have just mentioned our beginning point. Now I want to tell you about the projected revenue for the next two years and what I recommend for appropriations. That will bring us to our destination of a positive balance at the end of this biennium. That is what the challenge of budget balancing is all about.

I would like you to know how we assembled this budget—a biennial budget required by law and one which I believe saves time and dollars as we look ahead beyond just one year.

First, we sought the most accurate revenue projections. We pooled many predictions—especially those from the Comptroller's office, the state economist, university computer models, and from the Governor's Economic Advisory Council. And this was important because it gave us the best possible projections available.

Projections are not an absolute science. We feel it is important that you know the origins of our forecast because they are far superior to a "roll of the dice" or poor projections.

Second, we followed "modified-base" program budgeting.

Third, we again held open budget hearings. This time, we specifically expanded our open hearing process to solicit comment from the general public.

When we put the budget together, it totaled $400 million in appropriation requests over and above revenue estimates. Some suggested their program could be met by adding one little penny to the sales tax. In fact, I've heard that suggestion so many times during the past eight years in which I have served as Governor that we could have easily added one cent each year. . . giving you an eleven cent sales tax, and—a new Governor.

Believe me, we didn't go through the agony of removing taxes on food and drugs just to start adding them back under a different name, when we don't have to.

Since we couldn't print money, my only alternatives were to raise taxes or to slash the requests. I thought of our essential needs that had to be met, and I thought of Iowans' pocketbooks. The choice was clear and I cut $400 million!

And today, I submit to you a balanced budget.

To keep it in balance you must not spend more than our available resources. And, you must not engage in wild spending schemes.

Still, we must maintain the momentum achieved in so many areas. My budget sets the course. Let me highlight some of our priorities . . .

EDUCATION

It has been said that, "What sculpture is to a block of marble, education is to the human soul." We Iowans are committed to a good education, from kindergarten through graduate school. Indeed, over half of our state budget goes for education.

The school foundation plan furnishes funds for local schools and stabilizes local taxes. Begun in 1971, and modified since, this plan is working. It has earned the deserved respect of many early skeptics. And, it is being continued in this budget.

The Regents' institutions have been stunned by the loss of nearly $2 million in federal funds, this school year alone. This budget will offset some of those losses.

This budget also provides:

- Funds to open $44 million worth of new campus facilities recently constructed.
- Money for the long-delayed Lindquist Center at the University of Iowa.
- Nearly $1 million to remove campus barriers so handicapped young Iowans can get the same education as other students.
- And, $500,000 for an innovative continuing education program in western Iowa.

Rural Iowa communities need family doctors. Last June, we graduated our first full class from the recently established Family Practice program of the University of Iowa. Ten communities have new doctors from this class. One-hundred seventy medical students are now enrolled in this program, and my budget gives it strong support.

Programs at the area vocational-technical schools will again receive strong support.

In addition, we will add $500,000 to our novel tuition grant program which helps young Iowans who could not otherwise afford an education. This welcome assistance to students has steadied enrollment at 31 Iowa schools and should be increased to the extent we can.

We all know the financial value of education. What we often overlook is its value to the individual and the contribution he or she makes to society.

Good education remains a top priority in Iowa!

HUMAN RESOURCES

People programs have consistently been a priority during my eight years in office. It is a priority again during this biennium.

We think it is important to continue to provide care, support and assistance for those who truly need our help. We know also that it is becoming more costly to provide that care. And, one big reason is the withdrawal of federal support funds.

We find ourselves with little choice but to shoulder much of that burden—and we will.

My budget recommendations for Human Resource programs include:

- Sufficient funding to support the planned conversion of two of our mental retardation institutions to full intermediate care facilities.
- A reasonable increase in aid to dependent children.
- Additional funds for senior volunteer and employment programs such as RSVP, Green Thumb, and our RICEP program, which you might be interested in knowing, during its first nine months of operation, found jobs for 1,000 workers over the age of 55.
- A renewal of funding for the foster care program.
- And, continued support for our Area Educational Agencies which serve our handicapped children.

Finally, I ask you to extend our community-based corrections system. This is a program which I have steadfastly backed.

Even though this approach will not, nor can it, solve all of our corrections problems, it is a good alternative for many offenders. The Fort Des Moines facility is a prime example of what can be done, and it is a model for 23 other states.

Community-based corrections are relatively new and contemporary, and much remains to be learned by experience. I am, nonetheless, convinced that success or failure will depend heavily upon a commitment on the part of local communities.

We have seen enough success to have hope.

We also await the forthcoming report from the Blue-Ribbon Task Force on Corrections. Their recommendations should be helpful as we look ahead for answers to crowded conditions at our penal institutions.

You should know that headway is being made in policing the welfare system to keep it honest. Our Child Support Recovery Unit is making collections of about $6 million per year properly due for the support of children. And, the error rate in welfare payments has been cut in half.

It is easy to talk tough about welfare—and it sounds popular in most circles. But who among you would raise your hand if I were to ask if you would be willing to turn out an elderly patient from a nursing home because she could not make this month's payment on her own and had no other place to go?

Raise your hand if you could leave a fatherless child to fend for herself because her working mother can't be home to care for her.

Raise your hand if you can—I cannot. I don't think you could either.

As we examine human needs and their costs, we find evidence that the problems in Iowa, as difficult as they are, are more manageable than in most states. We are 25th in population yet we rank 38th in overall crime and 37th in the percentage of people on welfare. We can feel good about those numbers, but we can never be satisfied.

To maintain our current pace—and to cover lost federal dollars, inflation and increased caseloads—will cost an additional $52 million.

The money is in my budget, and I ask that you keep it there.

CONSERVATION AND NATURAL RESOURCES

On Tuesday, I again asked you to approve land use legislation to protect our soil. Today, I ask your continued support for our first-in-the-nation soil conservancy cost-sharing program.

This budget also includes $1 million to preserve undeveloped Iowa land. And, this budget supports our soil survey and topographic mapping projects, and the statewide water study, slated to be finished in 1979.

Even though it is not currently a budgetary item, I want it to be known that the idea of a Rathbun Lodge offers a unique opportunity for the people of this state and we are hopeful the business community will recognize the potential.

Our soil and our forests and our lakes and rivers are so very valuable. We must protect our natural resources so that future Iowans can share their wonder.

TRANSPORTATION

A bright spot in state government is our Department of Transportation. Our unified approach to air, water, rail and highway transportation has achieved national recognition in just two years.

Successful programs such as railroad branch line assistance are continued in this budget. I am pleased to report that funds are beginning to come back from the railroads, enabling us to pare my request from the last biennium. The program is moving into a configuration where it can, to some extent, become financially self-sustaining.

The Great River Road in eastern Iowa has long been sought and has finally been funded by the federal government. My request and departmental funds will utilize all available federal monies, and allow construction to begin.

Finally, adequate funding of the state's roads is a problem, and so is the distribution of those funds. Substantial inequities exist because that distribution under which we are operating today is based on 15-year old needs studies.

The cities deserve a larger share of the Road Use Tax Fund and the counties should not receive less money than at present.

The implementation of functional classification awaits the resolution of both issues.

For two years I have been suggesting a percentage user fee for fuel. I have also urged changes in the distribution formula and those changes still have merit. So far, nothing has happened.

I would be interested in hearing your ideas on this problem. It needs attention, and I will await your recommendations.

Our road system moves food, people, and manufactured goods. It is critical to Iowa's health. We must act this session to preserve that system.

CITIES, TOWNS, COUNTIES

Our local units of government are under pressure. We are offering ways to ease that pressure:

- Adjustment of the Road Use Tax formula just mentioned could make a substantial contribution to cities and towns without adversely affecting counties. Further, we provide for transit assistance which will benefit both.
- Local option taxes, noted earlier in my remarks, could provide both cities and counties with additional flexibility and so could the hotel-motel tax. The extent to which they take advantage of these revenue opportunities will be up to them.
- Even though our federal revenue sharing has been trimmed, this budget continues the local revenue sharing from the state which began in 1969.
- And, this budget provides $6 million in construction grants to help local governments build adequate sewage treatment facilities. This is an integral part of our state's environmental protection.

The above budgetary items add up to significant assistance for our Iowa cities and counties.

OTHER PRIORITIES

My budget also includes specific requests for other worthwhile programs which are in the best interest of the public. I would like to mention a few:

- Iowans pay over $1 billion annually in utility bills. Our small Commerce Commission staff ensures that rates are based on legitimate costs. Increased manpower here will be real consumer protection.
- Expanded law enforcement efforts will continue as state administrators scramble to replace lost federal funds. Failure to replace these funds is to invite increases in crime in Iowa.
- Restaurant inspection is important when you consider that 1 out of 3 meals is eaten away from home. Additional restaurants, sanitation, and consumer confidence demand that government step up its level of inspection. My budget provides for that.
- The National Guard responds whenever we need them during crises such as floods and tornadoes. Their strength and preparedness are invaluable to the strength and security of this state. The $150,000 that would provide a small tuition incentive would be money wisely spent so that our Iowa Guard can remain competitive with neighboring states in recruiting volunteers.
- I request that you restore the $250,000 appropriation for our exciting solar heating facility project which was reverted. I can't believe you lawmakers wanted to "sunset" our solar initiative.
- $375,000 is requested to fund the new Appeals Court.
- The special fund that you gave us for volunteer committees, used so effectively by our Council for Children, is still needed. New long-range energy research will begin soon and a temporary Iowa Paperwork Commission will be created. These are two resourceful initiatives.
- Finally, details concerning capital requests, such as the new vocational-rehabilitation building, are contained in a separate appendix to this message.

If this budget is followed, our financial condition at the end of the biennium will be satisfactory. We will have a balance of $86 million, less than the cost of salary adjustments. And keep in mind, that balance does not include the $25 million reserve we will have set aside for the corporate tax question.

A positive financial condition should be the goal of all managers of public funds. We in Iowa can achieve this goal if we exercise discipline in our financial planning.

In concluding my remarks, I want to share two brief observations.

First, there is reason for concern over federal-state programs. We often become willing participants, only to later become unwilling victims when funding is halted and programs dumped in our laps.

As much as we might like to, we will not be able to always replace federal funds in the future. A wise course might be to thoroughly explore our entanglements with Washington before they boomerang.

Second, there are sound reasons for a conservative budget. If the dollars become available, it is always easy to spend them. On the other hand, if we have another dry year, farm income stands to drop. You can be sure if that happens, we will then be thankful for our cautious budgetary approach.

Last year I declared 18 counties disaster areas because of drought. An over-blown budget could create a financial drought in all 99.

In the coming days of this session, should you begin to weaken in your resolve, I would ask you to recall what Winston Churchill said when he spoke about the role of government in people's lives in Great Britain.

"I do not believe in the power of the state to plan and enforce, no matter how numerous are the committees they set up or the ever growing hordes of officials they employ. . .set the people free. Get out of their way and let them make the best of themselves."

That is a sobering thought as you consider the financial conditions of England where the government tried to do everything for everyone and lost.

We cannot let Iowa get caught in that trap. This budget does not try to provide everything for every Iowan.

Recall the three premises I outlined at the beginning of my remarks.

- No increase in sales and income taxes.
- Living within our resources and balancing our budget.
- Getting maximum value for each tax dollar.

I am personally committed to those tenets and so are all members of my administration.

I hope that my two messages this week will encourage you to think about the challenge we share—that of giving Iowans no more government than they need, want, or can afford.

Thank you.

Recommendations on property taxes submitted to the Sixty-seventh General Assembly, 1977 Session.

The recent experience with the reassessments and equalization that occurred in 1975 remains fresh in our memories. Two classes of property—agricultural and residential—received jolting increases in valuations. The increase in agricultural property assessments ranged up to 78 percent in one county and 53 percent for residential property in another county.

There is a very real prospect that large increases in valuations for farmers and home owners are again in store when reassessment and equalization are required for January 1, 1978.

Having just been hit by one large increase in assessments, Iowa home owners and farmers face the prospect of equally unsettling increases a year from now. Large jolts in property valuations must be alleviated. We must cease the shocking of our property owners. At a time when rural and urban Iowans are yearning for stability in their taxes, we need to design a method that will moderate large increases in property valuations.

State government doesn't collect or spend a dime of property taxes. That is the activity of local government. Yet since the state allows property to be taxed, we have a responsibility for affecting the extent to which it is taxed. Within the limited resources available to state government, what can we do?

We can and should direct our attention to the core of the property tax problem—rapidly increasing assessments. We have a workable approach that will provide an answer to this nagging and difficult problem.

The recommendations that follow in the areas of assessment practices, assessment mechanics and local budgets and finances are a comprehensive response to the property tax question. The adoption of these measures will reassure Iowans that they will not be clobbered by staggering increases in valuations as a common occurrence and help insure fair and equitable assessments for farmers and home owners.

I. Assessment Practices

A. Implement a regulated assessment method which limits the growth of aggregate assessments of agricultural land and residential properties in an assessing district to no more than five percent a year. This is to be implemented January 1, 1978, to correspond with the required reassessment and equalization.

B. Continue uniform procedures for assessing property. Values must be equalized on market value and productivity, as used in the case of agricultural property. Yet taxes would be levied only against the assessed value, not the market value.

C. Retain the present $4,500 homestead tax credit and establish a standing limited appropriation for the $42,000,000 currently being spent on agricultural land tax credits.

D. Retain productivity (50%) for agricultural land valuations.

E. Tax buildings on agricultural land in cities at the full city levy rate yet leave the agricultural land itself at the present reduced tax rate.

II. Assessment Mechanics

A. Require the full disclosure, by affidavit, of the terms of sale of all real estate.

B. Establish a state revolving fund to provide loans to counties and cities which are ordered by the Department of Revenue to do a revaluation of real estate.

C. Require assessors to physically reinspect all real estate every four years.

D. Mandate recertification of all assessors.

III. Local Budgets and Finances

A. Let the property tax spending limitations imposed during the 1976 legislative session expire according to law. Make no change in the traditionally established levy limitations of local governments, such as the $8.10 per $1,000 assessed valuation for a city's general fund.

B. Enable cities and counties by a vote of the people to extend property taxes beyond the limits.

C. Permit local governments to take advantage of a local option sales tax, if and when the voters approve.

D. Permit local governments to take advantage of a local option transient guest (hotel-motel) tax without a referendum as is done in so many other states where Iowans travel.

IV. Research

A. Continue and intensify the research efforts that were initiated by the Local Government Task Force.

B. Establish a major research effort to explore the needs and requirements of local services and alternative ways of effectively and efficiently meeting the necessary services in cities, counties, and school districts.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communications were filed with the Secretary of the Senate on January 28, 1977.

IN THE MATTER OF)	REPORT OF THE
THE)
RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE)	SUPREME COURT

TO THE 1977 REGULAR SESSION OF THE SIXTY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

Pursuant to sections 684.18(2) and 684.19, The Code, the Supreme Court of Iowa has prescribed and hereby reports to the General Assembly the new Rules of Appellate Procedure as set out in exhibit "A" hereto attached and made a part hereof.

Respectfully submitted,
THE SUPREME COURT OF IOWA
C. EDWIN MOORE, Chief Justice

Des Moines, Iowa
January 28, 1977

EXHIBIT "A"

RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE

July 1, 1977

I. APPEALS IN CIVIL CASES

RULE 1. FROM FINAL JUDGMENT.

(a) All final judgments and decisions of the district court and any final adjudication in the district court under rule 86, Rules of Civil Procedure, involving the merits or materially affecting the final decision, may be appealed to the Supreme Court, except as provided in this rule and in rule 3, Rules of Appellate Procedure. For the purpose of this rule any order granting a new trial (not including an order setting aside a judgment by default other than in actions for dissolution of marriage or annulment) and any order denying a new trial shall be deemed a final decision. Any order setting aside a default decree of dissolution of marriage or annulment shall also be deemed a final decision.

(b) No interlocutory ruling or decision may be appealed except as provided in rule 2, Rules of Appellate Procedure, until after the final judgment or order. No error in such interlocutory ruling or decision is waived by pleading over or proceeding to trial. On appeal from the final judgment, appellant may assign as error such interlocutory ruling or decision or any final adjudication in the trial court under rule 86, Rules of Civil Procedure, from which no appeal has been taken, where such ruling, decision or final adjudication is shown to have substantially affected the rights of the complaining party.

RULE 2. FROM INTERLOCUTORY ORDERS.

(a) Any party aggrieved by an interlocutory ruling or decision, including one appearing specially whose objections to jurisdiction have been overruled, may apply to the Supreme Court or any justice thereof to grant an appeal in advance of final judgment. Such appeal may be granted, after service of the application and hearing as provided in rules 22 and 30, Rules of Appellate Procedure, on finding that such ruling or decision involves substantial rights and will materially affect the final decision and that a determination of its correctness before trial on the merits will better serve the interests of justice. No such application is necessary where the appeal is, pursuant to rule 1, Rules of Appellate Procedure, from a final adjudication in the trial court under rule 86, Rules of Civil Procedure.

(b) The order granting such appeal may be on terms advancing it for prompt submission. It shall stay further proceedings below and may require bond.

RULE 3. AMOUNT IN CONTROVERSY.

Subject to Section 631.16 of The Code and except where the action involves an interest in real estate, no appeal shall be taken in any case where the amount in controversy, as shown by the pleadings, is less than three thousand dollars unless the trial judge, within thirty days after the judgment or order is entered, certifies that the cause is one in which appeal should be allowed. The right of appeal is not affected by any remission of any part of the verdict or judgment.

RULE 4. SCOPE OF REVIEW.

Review in equity cases shall be de novo. In all other cases the appellate courts shall constitute courts for correction of errors at law, and findings of fact in jury-waived cases shall have the effect of a special verdict.

RULE 5. TIME FOR APPEAL.

(a) Appeals to the Supreme Court must be taken within, and not after, thirty days from the entry of the order, judgment or decree, unless a motion for new trial or judgment notwithstanding the verdict as provided in rule 247, Rules of Civil Procedure, or a motion as provided in rule 179(b), Rules of Civil Procedure, is filed, and then within thirty days after the entry of the ruling on such motion; provided however that where an application to the Supreme Court or any justice thereof to grant an appeal under rule 2, Rules of Appellate Procedure, is made within thirty days from the date of such ruling or decision, any appeal allowed upon such application shall be deemed timely taken.

Provided further that if the Supreme Court or any justice determines that the order or decision from which application to appeal under rule 2, Rules of Appellate Procedure, is timely made is a final judgment or decision from which appeal would lie under rule 1, Rules of Appellate Procedure, an appeal therefrom shall also be deemed timely taken and perfected when the order making such determination is filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court, and rule 6(b), Rules of Appellate Procedure, shall apply.

A cross-appeal may be taken within the thirty days for taking an appeal or in any event within five days after the appeal is taken.

(b) No appeal from a judgment, ruling or order taken after it has actually been made by the trial court shall be held insufficient because the clerk of the trial court has not recorded such judgment, ruling or order upon the court records at the time the appeal is taken, if it shall appear that such record has been made prior to ten days after the date on which the appeal is docketed.

RULE 6. HOW TAKEN.

(a) An appeal other than those allowed by order under rule 2 or rule 5, Rules of Appellate Procedure, is taken and perfected by filing a notice with the clerk of the court where the order, judgment or decree was entered, signed by appellant or his attorney. It shall specify the parties taking the appeal and the decree, judgment, order or part thereof appealed from. The appellant shall serve a copy of the notice on each other party or his counsel in the manner prescribed in rule 82(b), Rules of Civil Procedure. The notice presented to the clerk of the trial court for filing shall be accompanied by a proof of service in the form prescribed in rule 82(g), Rules of Civil Procedure. Promptly after filing the notice of appeal with the clerk of the trial court appellant shall mail or deliver to the clerk of the Supreme Court a copy of such notice for his information.

(b) An interlocutory appeal under rule 2, Rules of Appellate Procedure, shall be deemed taken and perfected when the order allowing it is filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court. No notice of such appeal is necessary. The time for any further proceeding on such appeal which would run from the notice of appeal shall run from the date such order is so filed. The clerk of the Supreme Court shall promptly transmit a copy of such order to the attorneys of record and the clerk of the trial court.

RULE 7. SUPERSEDEAS BOND.

(a) No appeal shall stay proceedings under a judgment or order unless appellant executes a bond with sureties, to be filed with and approved by the clerk of the court where the judgment or order was entered. The condition of such bond shall be that appellant will satisfy and perform the judgment if affirmed, or any judgment or order, not exceeding in amount or value the obligation of the judgment or order appealed from, which an appellate court may render or order to be rendered by the trial court; and also all costs and damages adjudged against him on the appeal, and all rents of or damage to property during the pendency of the appeal of which appellee is deprived by reason of the appeal.

(b) If the judgment or order appealed from be for money, the penalty of such bond shall be one hundred twenty-five percent of the amount thereof, including costs, unless, in exceptional cases, the trial court fixes a larger amount; in all other cases, an amount sufficient to save appellee harmless from the consequences of the appeal; but in no event less than three hundred dollars.

(c) No appeal shall vacate or affect the judgment or order appealed from; but the clerk shall issue a written order requiring appellee and all others to stay proceedings under it or such part of it as has been appealed from, when the appeal bond is filed and approved.

RULE 8. BOND—HEARING ON SUFFICIENCY.

If any party to an appeal is aggrieved by the clerk's approval of, or refusal to approve, a supersedeas bond tendered by appellant, he may apply to the trial court, on at least three days notice to the adverse party, to review the clerk's action. Pending such hearing, the court may recall or stay all proceedings under the order or judgment appealed from. On such hearing, the trial court shall determine the sufficiency of the bond, and if the clerk has not approved the bond, the court shall, by written order, fix its conditions and determine the sufficiency of the security; or if the court determines that a bond approved by the clerk is insufficient in security or defective in form, it shall discharge such bond and fix a time for filing a new one, all as appears by the circumstances shown at the hearing.

RULE 9. JUDGMENT ON BOND.

If an appellate court affirms the judgment appealed from, it may, on motion of appellee, render judgment against appellant and the sureties on the appeal bond for the amount of the judgment, with damages and costs; or it may remand the cause to the trial court for the determination of such damages and costs and entry of judgment on the bond.

RULE 10. RECORD ON APPEAL.

(a) COMPOSITION OF RECORD ON APPEAL. The original papers and exhibits filed in the trial court, the transcript of proceedings, if any, and a certified copy of the docket and court calendar entries prepared by the clerk of the trial court shall constitute the record on appeal in all cases.

(b) TRANSCRIPT; DUTY OF APPELLANT TO ORDER; NOTICE IF PARTIAL TRANSCRIPT ORDERED. Within ten days after filing the notice of appeal, appellant shall order from the reporter a transcript of such parts of the proceedings not already on file as he deems necessary for inclusion in the record. If appellant intends to urge on appeal that a finding or conclusion is unsupported by the evidence or is contrary to the evidence, he shall include in the record a transcript of all evidence relevant to such finding or conclusion. Unless all of the proceedings are to be transcribed, appellant shall also within such ten days file with the clerk of the trial court and serve on appellee a description of the parts of the proceedings which he has ordered transcribed. With that description appellant shall file and serve a statement of the issues he intends to present on appeal. If appellee deems a transcript of other parts of the proceedings to be necessary, he shall, within ten days after the service of the statement of appellant, file with the clerk of the trial court and serve on appellant a designation of additional parts to be included. If appellant shall within four days fail or refuse to order such parts, appellee shall either order the parts or apply to the trial court to compel appellant to do so. The ordering party must make satisfactory arrangements with the reporter for payment of the transcript costs.

The reporter's transcript shall be filed with the clerk of the trial court within the time fixed or allowed for docketing the appeal; and these rules relative to such transcript shall also apply to bills of exceptions under rule 241, Rules of Civil Procedure. The cost of the transcript shall be taxed in the trial court.

(c) STATEMENT OF THE EVIDENCE OR PROCEEDINGS WHEN NO REPORT WAS MADE OR WHEN THE TRANSCRIPT IS UNAVAILABLE. If no report of the evidence or proceedings at a hearing or trial was made, or if a transcript is unavailable, appellant may prepare a statement of the evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including his recollection. The statement shall be filed with the clerk of the trial court and served on appellee within twenty days after the filing of the notice of appeal. Appellee may file with the clerk of the trial court and serve on appellant objections or proposed amendments to the statement within ten days after service of appellant's statement. Thereupon the statement and any objections or proposed amendments shall be submitted to the trial court for settlement and approval and as settled and approved shall be included in the record on appeal.

(d) CORRECTION OR MODIFICATION OF THE RECORD. If any difference arises as to whether the record truly discloses what occurred in the trial court, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by that court and the record made to conform to the truth. If anything material to either party is omitted from the record by error or accident or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation or the trial court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the Supreme Court, or the appropriate appellate court on proper suggestion or on its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement be corrected and if necessary that a supplemental record be certified and transmitted. All other questions as to the form and content of the record shall be presented to the Supreme Court, unless the questions arise after the case has been transferred to the Court of Appeals, in which event, they shall be presented to that court.

RULE 11. TRANSMISSION OF RECORD.

(a) TIME FOR TRANSMISSION OF DOCKET ENTRIES. Within fourteen days after the filing of the notice of appeal, the clerk of the trial court shall transmit a certified copy of the docket and calendar entries in the proceeding in the trial court to the clerk of the Supreme Court and all parties or their attorneys. The clerk of the Supreme Court shall thereupon prepare a docket page and assign a number to the case.

(b) TRANSMISSION OF REMAINING RECORD. Within seven days after all required briefs and the appendix have been served or at such earlier time as the parties may agree or the Supreme Court may order, appellant shall request the clerk of the trial court to transmit immediately to the clerk of the Supreme Court the remaining record not already transmitted, including the original papers and exhibits filed in the trial court and any reporter's transcript of proceedings. Appellant shall take all action necessary to enable the clerk of the trial court to assemble and timely transmit the remaining record. If more than one appeal is taken, each appellant shall comply with the provisions of rule 10(b), Rules of Appellate Procedure, and this subdivision.

When request is made by either party for transmission to the Supreme Court of portions of the record in addition to the certified copy of the docket and calendar entries, the clerk of the trial court shall number the documents comprising the remaining record and shall transmit the same to the clerk of the Supreme Court. The clerk of the trial court shall transmit with the remaining record a list of the documents correspondingly numbered and identified with reasonable definiteness. Documents of unusual bulk or weight and physical exhibits other than documents shall not be transmitted by the clerk unless he is directed to do so by a party or by the clerk of the Supreme Court. A party must make advance arrangements with the clerks for the transportation and receipt of exhibits of unusual bulk or weight.

Transmission of the record is effected when the clerk of the trial court mails or otherwise forwards the record to the clerk to the Supreme Court. The clerk of the trial court shall indicate, by endorsement on the face of the record or otherwise, the date upon which the record is transmitted to the Supreme Court.

(c) RETENTION OF TRIAL RECORD IN TRIAL COURT. If the record or any part thereof is required in the trial court for use pending the appeal, the trial court may make an order to that effect, and the clerk of the trial court shall retain the record or parts thereof subject to the request of an appellate court, and shall transmit a copy of the order and of the docket and calendar entries together with such parts of the original record as the parties may designate and as the trial court shall allow. The parts of the record not transmitted to the clerk of the Supreme Court shall nevertheless be part of the record on appeal for all purposes.

(d) PORTIONS OF RECORD NOT TRANSMITTED. Any parts of the record which have not been transmitted to the clerk of the Supreme Court shall, on the order of an appellate court or on the request of any party, be transmitted by the clerk of the trial court to the clerk of the Supreme Court.

RULE 12. DOCKETING APPEAL; FILING RECORD.

(a) DOCKETING THE APPEAL. Within forty days after the filing of the notice of appeal, unless the time is shortened or extended by an order under rule 20, Rules of Appellate Procedure, appellant shall pay the docket fee to the clerk of the Supreme Court, and the clerk shall thereupon enter the appeal upon the docket. If appellant is authorized by the trial court or Supreme Court to prosecute the appeal without prepayment of fees, the clerk shall enter the appeal upon the docket at the request of the party within such forty days. Simultaneously with such payment of the fee or request for docketing without fee, appellant shall serve on appellee and file with the clerk of the Supreme Court a statement as to whether the appeal does or does not involve a contest as to child custody to which rule 17, Rules of Appellate Procedure, applies. An appeal shall be docketed under the title given to the action in the trial court, with appellant identified as such, but if such title does not contain the name of appellant, his name identified as appellant shall be added to the title. The clerk of the Supreme Court shall immediately give notice to all parties or their attorneys of the date on which the appeal is entered on the docket.

(b) CERTIFICATE OF ORDERING TRANSCRIPT. Within fourteen days after filing notice of appeal appellant shall file with the clerk of the Supreme Court and serve on appellee a certificate of ordering transcript. The certificate shall include the name of the reporter, the date on which the transcript was ordered, a description of the portions of proceedings ordered transcribed and a statement regarding the arrangements made with the reporter for payment of the cost of the transcript. The certificate shall be signed by appellant or his attorney.

If for any reason a transcript has not been ordered within ten days after the filing of the notice of appeal, appellant shall file with the clerk of the Supreme Court and serve on appellee within such fourteen days a certificate so stating with a statement of the reason a transcript cannot or will not be prepared.

If, after the filing of the certificate of ordering transcript, a transcript of additional portions of the proceedings is ordered under rule 10(b), Rules of

Appellate Procedure, or otherwise, the party so ordering shall within four days file with the Supreme Court clerk and serve on the other party a supplemental certificate so stating.

(c) DISMISSAL FOR FAILURE TO DOCKET. If appellant shall fail to pay the docket fee when required, any appellee may file a motion in the Supreme Court to dismiss the appeal. The motion shall be supported by a certificate of the clerk of the trial court showing the date and substance of the judgment or order from which the appeal was taken and the date on which the notice of appeal was filed. Appellant may respond by written resistance within fourteen days of service of the motion by appellee. The clerk shall docket the appeal for the purpose of permitting the Supreme Court to entertain the motion without requiring payment of the docket fee, but appellant shall not be permitted to respond without payment of the fee unless he is otherwise exempt from prepayment.

(d) DISMISSAL FOR FAILURE TO TRANSMIT REMAINING RECORD. If appellant shall fail to cause timely transmission of the remaining portions of the record as required by rule 11(b), Rules of Appellate Procedure, any appellee may file a motion in the Supreme Court to dismiss the appeal. The motion shall state on what dates required briefs and the appendix were served on the parties and filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court. The motion shall be supported by a certificate of the clerk of the trial court showing the date and substance of the judgment or order from which the appeal was taken, the date on which the notice of appeal was filed and the expiration date of any order retaining the record or parts thereof in trial court or of any order extending the time for transmitting the record or parts thereof. Appellant may respond by written resistance within fourteen days of service of the motion by appellee.

(e) RESTORING TRIAL COURT JURISDICTION. After an appeal is taken, the filing with the clerk of the trial court of a stipulation in which all parties agree to a dismissal of an appeal shall restore jurisdiction to the trial court for the entry of an order of dismissal of the appeal, which will be a final adjudication. The clerk of the trial court shall forward a copy of such stipulation and order to the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(f) LIMITED REMAND. The appropriate appellate court during appeal or pending application for appeal may remand the cause to the trial court, which shall have jurisdiction for such specific proceedings as may be directed by the appellate court. Notwithstanding such remand, jurisdiction of the appeal shall remain in the appellate court which ordered the remand.

RULE 13. FILING AND SERVICE OF BRIEFS AND AMENDMENTS.

(a) TIME FOR SERVING AND FILING BRIEFS. Appellant shall serve and file his brief within fifty days after the date on which the appeal is docketed. Appellee shall serve and file his brief within thirty days after service of the brief of appellant. If appellant serves and files a reply brief, he shall do so within fourteen days after service of the brief of appellee. The Supreme Court may shorten these periods for serving and filing briefs, either by rule for all cases or for classes of cases or by order in specific cases.

(b) CROSS APPEALS. In the event of a cross appeal, appellant shall serve and file his brief within fifty days after the date on which the appeal is docketed. Appellee (cross appellant) shall serve and file his brief within thirty days after service of the brief of appellant. Appellant (cross appellee) shall serve and file his responsive reply brief within thirty days after service of the brief of appellee. Appellee (cross appellant) may serve and file a reply brief under rule 14(c), Rules of Appellate Procedure, within fourteen days after service of appellant's reply brief.

(c) MULTIPLE ADVERSE PARTIES. If the time for doing any act prescribed by these rules is measured from the date of service of a paper by an adverse party, then in the case of multiple adverse parties the time for doing such act shall be measured from the date of service of the last timely served paper by an adverse party or the date of expiration of time within which the adverse parties had to serve the paper.

(d) AMENDMENTS. An appellant may amend his required brief once within fifteen days after serving the brief, provided no brief has been served in response to his brief. The time for serving and filing of appellee's brief shall be measured from the date of service of the amendment to appellant's brief. An appellee may amend his brief once within ten days after serving his brief, provided no brief has been served in reply to his brief. The time for serving and filing appellant's reply brief shall be measured from the date of service of the amendment to appellee's brief. A reply brief may be amended at any time prior to seven days before submission of the appeal to the appellate court. Any other or further amendments to the briefs may be made only with leave of the appropriate appellate court. An amendment may be conditionally filed with a motion for leave.

(e) NUMBER OF COPIES TO BE FILED AND SERVED. Eighteen copies of each brief or amendment thereto shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court, unless the court by order in a particular case shall direct a different number, and two copies shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented. If a party is allowed by order of the Supreme Court to file typewritten ribbon and carbon copies of a brief, the original and five legible copies shall be filed with the clerk and one copy shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented.

(f) CONSEQUENCE OF FAILURE TO FILE BRIEFS. If appellant fails to file his brief within the time provided by this rule, or within the time as extended, appellee may move for dismissal of the appeal. If appellee fails to timely file his brief, he will not be heard at oral argument except by special permission of the appropriate appellate court.

RULE 14. BRIEFS.

(a) APPELLANT'S BRIEF. The brief of appellant shall contain under appropriate headings and in the following order:

- (1) A table of contents with page references.
- (2) A table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes and other authorities cited, with references to all pages of the brief where they are cited.
- (3) A statement of the issues presented for review. Under each issue separately stated shall be a list of all cases, statutes and other authorities referred to in the argument covering that issue. The authorities which are considered to be the most pertinent and convincing shall be indicated by underlining. Not less than one nor more than four authorities under each separately stated issue shall be so indicated. Failure in the brief to state, to argue or to cite authority in support of an issue may be deemed waiver of that issue.

(4) A statement of the case. The statement shall first indicate briefly the nature of the case, the course of proceedings and the disposition of the case in the trial court. It shall then recite the facts relevant to the issues presented for review. All portions of the statement shall be supported by appropriate references to the record or the appendix in accordance with subdivision (g).

(5) An argument. The argument may be preceded by a summary. The argument shall contain in separately numbered divisions corresponding to the separately stated issues the contentions of appellant with respect to the issues presented and the reasons therefor, with citations to the authorities relied on and to the pertinent parts of the record in accordance with subdivision (g).

(6) A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(b) APPELLEE'S BRIEF. The brief of appellee shall conform to the requirements of subdivision (a) (1) to (6), except that a statement of the case need not be made unless appellee is dissatisfied with the statement of appellant.

(c) REPLY BRIEF. Appellant may file a brief in reply to the brief of appellee, and if appellee has cross-appealed, he may file a brief in reply to the brief of appellant responding to the issues presented by the cross appeal. No further briefs may be filed except with leave of the appropriate appellate court.

(d) REFERENCES IN BRIEFS TO PARTIES. In their briefs and oral arguments counsel should minimize references to parties by such designations as "appellant" and "appellee" and should use the actual names of the parties or descriptive terms such as "plaintiff", "defendant", "the employee", "the injured person", "the taxpayer", "the decedent".

(e) REFERENCES IN BRIEFS TO LEGAL AUTHORITIES. In citing cases the names of parties must be given. In citing Iowa cases, reference must be made to the volume and page where the case may be found in the Iowa Reports, if reported therein, and in the North Western Reporter, if reported therein. In citing cases reference must be made to the court that rendered the opinion and the volume and page where the same may be found in the National Reporter System, if reported therein. E.g., _____ Iowa _____, _____ N.W. _____ (19____); _____ N.W.2d _____ (Iowa 19____); _____ N.W.2d _____ (Iowa Ct. App. 19____); _____ S.W.2d _____ (Mo. Ct. App. 19____); _____ U.S. _____, _____ S.Ct. _____, L.Ed.2d _____ (19____); _____ F.2d _____ (____ Cir. 19____); _____ F. Supp. _____ (S.D. Cal. 19____). When quoting from authorities or referring to a specific point within an authority, the specific page or pages quoted or relied upon shall be given in addition to the required page references. Unpublished opinions of the Iowa appellate courts may not be cited as authority. When treatises or textbooks are cited, the edition must be designated. In citing authorities other than cases, references shall be made as follows: codes, to section number; treatises, textbooks and encyclopedias, to section and page; all others, to page or pages. Use of the "supra" and "infra" forms of citation is discouraged.

(f) REFERENCES IN BRIEFS TO LEGAL PROPOSITIONS. The following propositions are deemed so well established that authorities need not be cited in support of any of them:

(1) Findings of fact in a law action, which means generally any action triable by ordinary proceedings, are binding upon the appellate court if supported by substantial evidence.

(2) In considering the propriety of a motion for directed verdict the court views the evidence in the light most favorable to the party against whom the motion was made.

(3) In ruling upon motions for new trial the trial court has a broad but not unlimited discretion in determining whether the verdict effectuates substantial justice between the parties.

(4) The court is slower to interfere with the grant of a new trial than with its denial.

(5) Ordinarily the burden of proof on an issue is upon the party who would suffer loss if the issue were not established.

(6) In civil cases the burden of proof is measured by the test of preponderance of the evidence.

(7) In equity cases, especially when considering the credibility of witnesses, the court gives weight to the fact findings of the trial court, but is not bound by them.

(8) The party who so alleges must, unless otherwise provided by statute, prove negligence and proximate cause, by a preponderance of the evidence.

(9) A motorist upon a public highway has a right to assume that others using the road will obey the law, including statutes, rules of the road and necessity for due care, at least until he knows or in the exercise of due care should have known otherwise.

(10) Generally questions of negligence, contributory negligence and proximate cause are for the jury; it is only in exceptional cases that they may be decided as matters of law.

(11) Reformation of written instruments may be granted only upon clear, satisfactory and convincing evidence of fraud, deceit, duress or mutual mistake.

(12) Written instruments affecting real estate may be set aside only upon evidence that is clear, satisfactory and convincing.

(13) In construing statutes the court searches for the legislative intent as shown by what the legislature said, rather than what it should or might have said.

(14) In the construction of written contracts, the cardinal principle is that the intent of the parties must control; and except in cases of ambiguity, this is determined by what the contract itself says.

(15) In child custody cases the first and governing consideration of the courts is the best interest of the child.

(16) An issue may be proven by circumstantial evidence; but this evidence must be such as to make the theory reasonably probable, not merely possible, and more probable than any other theory based on such evidence. Generally, however, it is for the jury or other trier of fact to say whether circumstantial evidence meets this test.

(17) Even when the facts are not in dispute or contradicted, if reasonable minds might draw different inferences from them a jury question is engendered.

(g) REFERENCES IN BRIEFS TO THE RECORD. References in the briefs to parts of the record reproduced in the appendix filed with the brief of appellant (see rule 15, Rules of Appellate Procedure) shall be to the pages of the appendix at which those parts appear. If the appendix is deferred, references in the briefs to portions of the record to be reproduced in the appendix shall be made in the manner stated in rule 15(c), Rules of Appellate Procedure. If references are made in the briefs to parts of the record not reproduced in the appendix, the references shall be to the pages of the parts of the record involved, e.g., Answer p. 7, Motion for Judgment p. 2, Transcript p. 231. Intelligible abbreviations may be used. If reference is made to evidence the admissibility of which is in controversy, reference shall be made to the pages of the appendix or of the transcript at which the evidence was identified, offered and received or rejected.

(h) LENGTH OF BRIEFS. Except by permission of the Supreme Court, required briefs shall not exceed fifty pages exclusive of the table of contents and table of authorities and reply briefs shall not exceed twenty-five pages. Such permission may be granted ex parte.

(i) BRIEFS IN CROSS APPEALS. If a cross appeal is filed, the party who first filed his notice of appeal shall be deemed appellant for the purposes of this rule and rules 13 and 15, Rules of Appellate Procedure, unless the parties otherwise agree or the Supreme Court otherwise orders. The brief of appellee shall contain the issues and argument involved in his cross appeal as well as his response to the brief of appellant.

(j) MULTIPLE APPELLANTS OR APPELLEES. In cases involving more than one appellant or appellee, including cases consolidated for purposes of the appeal, any number of either may join in a single brief, and any appellant or appellee may adopt by reference any part of the brief of another. Parties may similarly join in reply briefs.

RULE 15. APPENDIX TO BRIEFS.

(a) DUTY OF APPELLANT; CONTENT; TIME; NUMBER. Appellant shall prepare and file an appendix to the briefs which shall contain: (1) the relevant docket entries in the trial court proceeding; (2) any relevant portions of the pleadings, transcript, instructions, findings, conclusions and opinion; (3) the judgment, order or decision in question; (4) the notice of appeal, and (5) any other parts of the record to which the parties wish to direct the particular attention of the court. Portions of the record shall be set out verbatim in the appendix. Summaries, abstracts or narratives shall not be used unless the parties prepare an agreed statement of the case pursuant to subdivision (f) of this rule. The fact that parts of the record are not included in the appendix shall not prevent the parties or the courts from relying on such parts.

Unless filing is to be deferred pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (c) of this rule, appellant shall serve and file the appendix with his brief. Eighteen copies of the appendix, and of any amendments thereto, shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court and two copies shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented unless the court shall by rule or order direct the filing of a different number. The appendix may be amended by agreement of all the parties at any time prior to assignment of the appeal for submission to an appellate court. The written consent of all the parties must be filed with the amendment. In absence of agreement or after assignment, the appendix may be amended only with leave of the appropriate appellate court. An amendment to the appendix may be conditionally filed with a motion for leave.

(b) DETERMINATION OF CONTENTS; COST OF PRODUCING. The parties are encouraged to agree as to the contents of the appendix. If the parties do agree on such contents, they shall file a short memorandum of that agreement with the clerk of the Supreme Court within fourteen days after the date on which the appeal is docketed. If the parties do not so agree, appellant shall, not later than fourteen days after the date on which the appeal is docketed, serve on appellee and file with the clerk of the Supreme Court a designation of the parts of the record which he intends to include in the appendix and a statement of the issues which he intends to present for review. If appellee desires to direct the particular attention of the court to parts of the record not designated by appellant, he shall, within ten days after service of the designation, file with the clerk of the Supreme Court and serve upon appellant a designation of those parts. Appellant shall include in the appendix the parts thus designated. In designating parts of the record for inclusion in the appendix, the parties shall consider the fact that the entire record is available to the appellate courts for examination and shall not engage in unnecessary designation. Unless the parties otherwise agree, the cost of producing the appendix shall initially be paid by appellant, but if appellant considers that parts of the record designated by appellee for inclusion are unnecessary for the determination of the issues presented, he may so advise appellee and appellee shall advance the cost of including such parts. The cost of producing the appendix shall be taxed as costs in the case, but if either party shall cause matters to be unnecessarily included in the appendix the appropriate appellate court may impose the cost of producing such parts on that party.

(c) ALTERNATIVE METHOD OF DESIGNATING CONTENTS. Preparation of the appendix may be deferred by appellant until after typewritten or page proof copies of all the briefs have been filed. If the preparing and filing of the appendix is thus deferred, the provisions of subdivision (b) of this rule shall apply, except that the designations referred to therein shall be made by each party at the time his required brief is initially served and filed, and a statement of the issues presented shall be unnecessary. Appellant shall not later than ten days after the date on which the appeal is docketed, file with the clerk of the Supreme Court and serve on appellee a notification of his election to defer the appendix.

If a deferred appendix authorized by this subdivision is employed, each party shall serve and file typewritten or page proof copies of his brief or briefs within the time required by rule 13(a), Rules of Appellate Procedure. One typewritten carbon copy or page proof copy of each brief shall be served on opposing counsel and two copies shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court. The initial copies of the briefs shall contain appropriate references to the pages of the parts of the record involved, e.g., Petition p. 6, Judgment p. 5, Transcript p. 298. Within twenty-one days after service of the initial copy of appellee's brief, appellant shall file and serve the appendix.

Within fourteen days after the appendix is served, each party shall serve and file copies of his brief or briefs in the form prescribed by rule 16(a), Rules of Appellate Procedure, containing references to the pages of the appendix in place of or in addition to the initial references to the pages of the parts of the record involved. No other changes may be made in the briefs as initially served and filed, except that typographical errors may be corrected.

(d) ARRANGEMENT OF THE APPENDIX. At the beginning of the appendix shall be inserted a list of the parts of the record which it contains, in the order in which the parts are set out therein, with references to the pages of the appendix at which each part begins. The relevant docket entries shall be set out following the list of contents. Thereafter, other parts of the record shall be set out in chronological order. Portions of the reporter's transcript of proceedings shall be inserted in chronological order based on the date the transcribed proceedings took place rather than on the date the completed transcript was filed. When matter contained in the transcript is set out in the appendix, the original pagination of that matter shall be indicated in the appendix by placing in brackets the number of each page of the transcript at the place in the appendix where that transcript page begins. Omissions in the text of papers, of exhibits or of the transcript, regardless of size, must be indicated by a set of three asterisks. Immaterial formal matter, such as captions, subscriptions and acknowledgments, shall be omitted. A question and its answer may be contained in a single paragraph.

(e) REPRODUCTION OF EXHIBITS. Exhibits or relevant portions thereof designated for inclusion in the appendix may be contained in a separate volume or volumes, suitably indexed. Eighteen copies thereof shall be filed with the appendix and two copies shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented. Relevant portions of the transcript of a proceeding before an administrative agency, board, commission or officer, used in an action in the trial court, may be regarded as an exhibit for the purpose of this subdivision.

(f) AGREED STATEMENT OF THE CASE FILED AS THE APPENDIX. In lieu of an appendix with contents as specified in subdivision (a) and arranged as specified in subdivision (d), the parties may prepare an agreed statement of the case which shall not incorporate by reference any part of the record. The statement shall be in narrative form, shall show how the issues presented by the appeal arose and how they were decided and shall set forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the issues presented. The original agreed statement shall be signed by all parties to the appeal or their counsel, and one copy thereof shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court within fourteen days after the appeal is docketed. As the appendix, appellant shall file and serve with his brief printed or duplicated copies of the agreed statement in the form required by rule 16(a), Rules of Appellate Procedure.

RULE 16. FORM OF BRIEFS, APPENDIX AND OTHER PAPERS.

(a) FORM OF BRIEFS AND APPENDIX. Briefs and the appendix may be produced by standard typographic printing or by any duplicating or copying process which produces a clear black image on white paper. The appendix and briefs shall be printed or duplicated on both sides of the sheet. Carbon copies of briefs and the appendix may not be submitted without permission of the court. All printed or duplicated matter must appear in at least 11 point (small pica) type on opaque, unglazed paper. When utilizing a process which duplicates or copies a typewritten original, lines of typewritten text shall be double spaced. Briefs and the appendix shall be bound on the left in volumes having pages 8 1/2 by 11 inches and type matter 6 by 8 1/2 inches. Margins on the bound side of the sheets shall be not less than 1 1/8 inches suitable for permanent binding procedures. Copies of the reporter's transcript of proceedings and other papers reproduced in a manner authorized by this rule may be inserted in the appendix, but not in such manner as to prevent subsequent uniform permanent binding. Such papers may be informally renumbered and asterisks may be added informally if necessary.

If briefs are produced by commercial printing or duplicating firms, or, if produced otherwise and colored covers are available, the cover of the brief of appellant should be blue; that of appellee, red; that of an intervenor or amicus curiae, green; that of a reply brief, gray. The cover of the appendix should be white. The cover of an amendment should be the same color as the document which it amends. The front covers of the briefs and the appendix, and amendments thereto, shall contain: (1) the name of the court and the appellate number of the case; (2) the title of the case (see rule 12(a), Rules of Appellate Procedure); (3) the nature of the proceeding in court (e.g., Appeal, Certiorari) and the name of the court (and judge), agency or board whose decision is under review; (4) the title of the document (e.g., Brief for Appellant, Appendix), and (5) the name and address of counsel representing the party on whose behalf the document is filed.

(b) FORM OF OTHER PAPERS. Motions and other papers may be produced in the manner prescribed by subdivision (a), or they be typewritten upon opaque, unglazed paper 8 1/2 by 11 inches in size. Lines of typewritten text shall be double spaced. Consecutive sheets shall be attached at the left margin. Carbon copies may be used for filing and service if legible.

A motion or other paper addressed to an appellate court shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the case, the file number and a brief descriptive title indicating the purpose of the paper. Three copies of motions and other papers addressed to the appropriate appellate court shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court and one copy shall be served on each party separately represented unless the appropriate appellate court by order directs otherwise.

(c) PRINTING TAXED AS COSTS. The amount actually paid for printing or otherwise producing necessary copies of briefs and the appendix or copies of records authorized by these rules, exclusive of stenographic expense, shall be certified by the attorney, and if reasonable, shall be taxed in the appellate court as costs.

RULE 17. CHILD CUSTODY CASES.

In appeals involving a contest as to custody of children, adoption or termination of parent-child relationship, and in juvenile court proceedings affecting child placement, the times prescribed in rule 13, Rules of Appellate

Procedure, for serving and filing briefs shall be reduced by one-half. Reply briefs are unnecessary. If filing of the appendix is deferred pursuant to rule 15(c), Rules of Appellate Procedure, the appendix shall be served and filed not more than fifteen days after service of appellee's initial brief and printed or duplicated copies of all the briefs shall be served and filed within seven days after service of the appendix. Court reporters shall give priority to transcription of proceedings in these cases over other civil transcripts. These appeals shall be accorded submission precedence over other civil cases.

RULE 18. BRIEF OF AMICUS CURIAE.

A brief of an amicus curiae may be filed only by leave of the appropriate appellate court granted on motion, at the request of the appropriate appellate court or when accompanied by the written consent of all parties. The brief may be conditionally filed with a motion for leave. A motion for leave shall identify the interest of the applicant and shall state the reasons a brief of an amicus curiae is desirable. Any amicus curiae shall file his brief within the time allowed the party whose position as to affirmance or reversal the brief will support. The appropriate appellate court for cause shown may grant leave for later filing, specifying the period within which an opposing party may respond. A request by an amicus curiae to participate in oral argument will not be granted except for extraordinary reasons.

RULE 19. FAILURE TO PROSECUTE.

When an appellant fails to comply with an appellate rule, the clerk shall notify appellant and his counsel in accordance with rule 30(c), Rules of Appellate Procedure, that upon the expiration of fifteen days from service of notification the appeal will be dismissed for want of prosecution unless appellant remedies the default within such period. Should the appellant fail to comply, the clerk shall enter an order dismissing the appeal for want of prosecution and shall issue a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the district court as the procedendo. Appellant shall not be entitled to remedy his default after a dismissal under this rule, unless by order of the appropriate appellate court. The dismissal of an appeal shall not limit the authority of the Supreme Court to take disciplinary action against defaulting counsel.

An appeal may be dismissed, with or without notice of default, for failure to comply with an appellate rule, upon the motion of a party or of the appropriate appellate court.

RULE 20. SHORTENING OR ENLARGING TIME.

The Supreme Court, and the Court of Appeals as to appeals transferred to it, may upon its own motion or on motion of a litigant shorten or enlarge the time prescribed by the Rules of Appellate Procedure or by the rules of the court or its order for doing any act, or may permit an act to be done after the expiration of such time, but such courts may not enlarge the time for filing a notice of appeal. In cases where rule 17, Rules of Appellate Procedure, applies the motion shall so state.

RULE 21. ORAL ARGUMENT; SUBMISSION.

(a) A party desiring to be heard orally shall so state at the end of his brief; and unless he does so he will not be heard orally except by special permission or order of the appropriate appellate court.

(b) In cases submitted with oral argument, ordinarily the opening argument of appellant shall not exceed twenty-five minutes, the argument of appellee shall not exceed twenty-five minutes and appellant's reply argument shall not exceed ten minutes. The chief justice or chief judge of the appropriate appellate court may extend or shorten the time for oral argument.

(c) The appropriate appellate court may conclude, prior to submission, that even though a substantial issue exists, oral argument would not be of assistance or should be shortened. In such event counsel will be advised accordingly before submission.

(d) Failure to argue orally points properly made in the briefs shall not be deemed waiver thereof.

(e) Appeals shall be submitted to the Supreme Court or transferred to the Court of Appeals substantially in the order they are made ready except when advance submission is accorded by statute, rule or order of the Supreme Court.

(f) If an appeal involves questions of public importance or rights which are likely to be lost or greatly impaired by delay, the Supreme Court may upon the motion of a party or on its own motion order the submission or transfer of the cause in advance of the time at which it would otherwise be submitted or transferred.

RULE 22. WRITS, MOTIONS, ORDERS.

(a) WRITS AND PROCESS, SUPREME COURT. The Supreme Court shall issue all writs and process necessary for the exercise and enforcement of its appellate jurisdiction and in the furtherance of its supervisory and administrative control over all inferior judicial tribunals and officers thereof throughout the state; and may enforce its mandates by fine and imprisonment and imprisonment may be continued until obeyed.

(b) WRITS AND PROCESS, COURT OF APPEALS. The Court of Appeals shall issue writs and other process necessary for the exercise and enforcement of its jurisdiction, but a writ, order or other process in any appeal not transferred to the Court of Appeals by the Supreme Court shall be of no effect.

(c) MOTIONS IN SUPREME COURT AND COURT OF APPEALS. Unless another form is prescribed by these rules, an application for an order or other relief, including an order to dismiss or affirm, shall be made by serving a motion on all other parties to the appeal and filing it with the clerk of the Supreme Court. The motion shall contain or be accompanied by any matter required by a specific provision of these rules governing such a motion, shall state with particularity the grounds on which it is based and shall set forth the order or precise relief sought. Any briefs, affidavits or other papers supporting a motion shall be served and filed with the motion. Except as to motions under rule 22(e), Rules of Appellate Procedure, any party may serve and file a resistance to a motion within fourteen days after service of the motion, unless otherwise ordered by the appropriate appellate court. A reply to the resistance may be served and filed within three days after the service of the resistance.

(d) RULINGS, HEARINGS. Resisted motions will be ruled on by the appropriate appellate court or a justice or judge thereof after the expiration of at least seven days from serving the resistance, unless such court, justice or judge orders a different time for submission of the motion. Unresisted motions will be ruled on after the expiration of at least three days from the last day for filing a resistance unless a different time for submission is ordered. Motions in which all parties join may be ruled on at any time. The court, justice or judge may require briefs to be filed with respect to a motion, and may set any motion for hearing and prescribe notice to be given.

(e) MOTIONS FOR PROCEDURAL OR TEMPORARY ORDERS. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (c) and (d) as to motions generally, motions for procedural orders, including any motion under rule 20, Rules of Appellate Procedure, and motions for temporary orders in which it appears that rights would be lost or greatly impaired by delay, may be ruled upon at any time without awaiting a resistance thereto. Any party adversely affected by such ruling may within fourteen days request reconsideration, vacation or modification of the ruling.

(f) AUTHORITY OF A SINGLE JUSTICE TO ENTERTAIN MOTIONS. In addition to any authority expressly conferred by rule or by statute, a single justice of the Supreme Court may entertain any motion in an appeal or original proceeding in the Supreme Court and grant or deny any relief which may properly be sought by motion, except that a single justice may not dismiss, affirm or otherwise determine an appeal or original proceeding. The action of a single justice may be reviewed by the Supreme Court.

(g) AUTHORITY OF COURT OF APPEALS AND ITS JUDGES TO ENTERTAIN MOTIONS. The Court of Appeals and its judges may entertain motions only in appeals which the Supreme Court has transferred to that court. In such appeals, a single judge of the Court of Appeals may entertain any motion and grant or deny any relief which may properly be sought by motion, except that a single judge may not dismiss, affirm or otherwise determine an appeal. The action of a single judge may be reviewed by the Court of Appeals.

RULE 23. MOTIONS TO DISMISS OR AFFIRM.

(a) MOTIONS TO DISMISS. A motion to dismiss may be served and filed without payment of the docket fee, but appellant shall not be permitted to respond without payment of the fee unless he is otherwise exempt from payment. After consideration, the appropriate appellate court may rule on the motion or may order the motion submitted with the appeal.

(b) MOTIONS TO AFFIRM. Appellee may move the Supreme Court to affirm the appeal on the ground that the issues raised by the appeal are frivolous and the appeal was taken solely for the purpose of delay. The motion shall be served and filed within seven days after service of appellant's brief and shall be supported by so much of the record as necessary to show the ground for the motion. One justice of the Supreme Court may overrule, but only the Supreme Court may sustain, a motion to affirm.

(c) EXCLUDING TIME. The time between the service of a motion to dismiss or affirm and an order overruling it or ordering a motion to dismiss to be submitted with the appeal shall be excluded in measuring the time within which subsequent acts required by these rules must be done.

RULE 24. AFFIRMED OR ENFORCED WITHOUT OPINION.

When the Supreme Court determines that any of the following circumstances exists and is dispositive of a matter submitted to the court for decision: (a) a judgment of the district court is correct; (b) the evidence in support of a jury verdict is sufficient; (c) the order of an administrative agency is supported by substantial evidence, or (d) no error of law appears; and the Supreme Court also determines that the questions are not of sufficient importance to justify an opinion and that an opinion would not have precedential value, the judgment or order may be affirmed or enforced without opinion.

In such case, the Supreme Court may in its discretion enter the following order: "AFFIRMED, see rule 24, Rules of Appellate Procedure."

RULE 25. QUARTERLY PUBLICATION.

A list indicating the disposition of all decisions rendered by the Supreme Court per curiam or under rule 24, Rules of Appellate Procedure, shall be published quarterly in the North Western Reporter, except for such of those decisions as the Supreme Court specially orders to be published in the regular manner. Such decisions published quarterly shall not be cited or relied upon as authority in any litigation in any court in Iowa except when the decision establishes the law of the case, res judicata or collateral estoppel, or in a criminal action or proceeding involving the same defendant or a disciplinary action or proceeding involving the same respondent.

RULE 26. REMANDS.

When a judgment is reversed for error in overruling a motion to direct a verdict, a motion for judgment under rule 243(b), Rules of Civil Procedure or a motion to withdraw an issue from the consideration of the jury, and the granting of the motion would have terminated the case in favor of appellant, the appellate court may enter or direct the trial court to enter final judgment as if such motion had been initially sustained; provided that if it appears from the record that the material facts relating thereto were not fully developed at the trial or if in the opinion of the appellate court the ends of justice will be served thereby, a new trial shall be awarded of such issue or of the whole case.

RULE 27. PETITION FOR REHEARING IN SUPREME COURT.

(a) TIME FOR FILING; CONTENT; ANSWER; ACTION BY SUPREME COURT IF GRANTED. Except as stated in rule 402(e), Rules of Appellate Procedure, a petition for rehearing may be filed within fourteen days after the filing of an opinion by the Supreme Court unless the time is shortened or enlarged by order of that court. The petition shall state with particularity the points of law or fact which in the opinion of the petitioner the Supreme Court has overlooked or misapprehended and shall contain such argument in support of the petition as the petitioner desires to present. Oral argument in support of the petition will not be permitted. No answer to a petition for rehearing will be received unless requested by the Supreme Court, but a petition for rehearing will ordinarily not be granted in the absence of such a request. If a petition for rehearing is granted, the Supreme Court may make a final disposition of the cause without reargument, may order reargument or resubmission or may make such other order as is deemed appropriate under the circumstances.

(b) FORM OF PETITION; LENGTH. The petition shall be in the form prescribed by rule 16(a), Rules of Appellate Procedure, and copies shall be served and filed as prescribed by rules 13(e) and 30, Rules of Appellate Procedure, for the service and filing of briefs. Except by permission of the court, a petition for rehearing shall not exceed ten pages.

RULE 28. COSTS.

All fees and costs shall abide the result of the appeal and be taxed to the unsuccessful party, unless otherwise ordered by the appropriate appellate court.

RULE 29. PROCEDENDO.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court, no procedendo shall issue for fifteen days after an opinion of the Supreme Court is filed, nor thereafter while a petition for rehearing, filed according to these rules, is pending. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court of Appeals, no procedendo shall issue for twenty-one days after an opinion of the Court of Appeals is filed, nor thereafter while an application for further review by the Supreme Court is pending.

RULE 30. FILING AND SERVICE.

(a) FILING. Papers required or permitted to be filed in the Supreme Court or in the Court of Appeals shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court. Filing may be accomplished by mail addressed to the clerk of the Supreme Court, and shall be deemed filed on the day of mailing. To be deemed filed on the day of mailing a paper must contain or be accompanied by a certificate signed by the person who will actually mail the paper. The certificate shall specify the paper filed and the date the paper will be deposited in the United States mail. Papers received by the clerk of the Supreme Court without a certificate shall be deemed filed when received by that clerk. When these rules or an order of an appellate court require multiple copies of a paper to be filed, filing shall not be complete until all required copies are filed. If a motion requests relief which may be granted by a single justice of the Supreme Court, the justice may permit the motion to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the date of filing and shall thereafter transmit it to the clerk of the Supreme Court.

(b) SERVICE OF ALL PAPERS REQUIRED. Copies of all papers filed by any party and not expressly required by these rules to be served by the clerk shall, at or before the time of filing, be served by a party or person acting for him on all other parties to the appeal or review. Service on a party represented by counsel shall be made on counsel.

(c) MANNER OF SERVICE. Service may be personal or by mail. Personal service includes delivery of the copy to a clerk or other responsible person at the office of counsel. Service by mail is complete on mailing.

(d) PROOF OF SERVICE. Papers presented for filing shall contain an acknowledgment of service by the person served or proof of service in the form of a statement of the date, and manner of service and of the names of the persons served, certified by the person who made service. Proof of service may appear on or be affixed to the papers filed. The clerk of the Supreme Court may permit papers to be filed without acknowledgment or proof of service but shall require such proof to be filed promptly thereafter.

(e) ADDITIONAL TIME AFTER SERVICE BY MAIL. Whenever a party is required or permitted to do an act within a prescribed period after service of a paper upon him and the paper is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period.

(f) APPLICABILITY. This rule shall govern filing and service of papers required or permitted to be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court under the Rules of Appellate Procedure.

II. APPEALS IN CRIMINAL CASES

RULE 101. PERFECTING APPEAL.

Appeal in a criminal action shall be taken and perfected within the time and in the manner prescribed by statute.

RULE 102. PROCEDURE.

All procedure after the perfection of an appeal in a criminal case shall be governed by the Rules of Appellate Procedure to the full extent not inconsistent with statute. The appendix prescribed by the Rules of Appellate Procedure shall constitute the abstract. Papers required to be served on the State shall be served upon the attorney general.

RULE 103. DOCKETING CRIMINAL APPEALS.

Criminal appeals shall be docketed as provided in rule 12, Rules of Appellate Procedure. If a defendant appeals and trial court has found him to be indigent and appointed appeal counsel for him, the appeal shall be docketed upon defendant's request without payment of the docket fee.

RULE 104. FRIVOLOUS APPEALS; WITHDRAWAL OF COUNSEL.

(a) If counsel appointed to represent a convicted indigent defendant in an appeal to the Supreme Court is convinced after conscientious investigation of the trial transcript that the appeal, he may move the Supreme Court in writing to withdraw. The motion must be accompanied by a brief referring to anything in the record that might arguably support the appeal.

(b) Prior to filing any motion to withdraw from an appeal, counsel shall advise his client in writing of the decision as to frivolity accompanied by a copy of counsel's motion and brief, and counsel shall attach to the filed motion a certificate showing service thereof. Counsel's notice to his client shall further advise the client that if he agrees with counsel's decision and does not desire to proceed further with the appeal, the client shall within thirty days from service of the motion and brief clearly and expressly communicate such desire, in writing signed by him, to the Supreme Court.

(c) Receipt of such communication shall result in the appeal being forthwith dismissed.

(d) Counsel's notice to his client shall further advise the client that in the event he desires to proceed with the appeal he shall within such thirty days give like communication to the Supreme Court, raising any points he chooses. The Supreme Court will then proceed, after a full examination of all the proceedings, to decide whether the appeal is wholly frivolous. If it so finds, it may grant counsel's motion to withdraw and dismiss the appeal.

(e) In order to protect his client's rights, counsel desiring to withdraw shall within the time permitted for docketing the appeal under rule 12, Rules of Appellate Procedure, make application pursuant to rule 20, Rules of Appellate Procedure, for extension of time in which to docket the appeal.

(f) If however the Supreme Court finds the legal points to be arguable on their merits and therefore not frivolous, it may grant counsel's motion to withdraw but will prior to submission of the appeal afford the indigent the assistance of new counsel, to be appointed by the trial court. Such new counsel shall proceed with the appeal pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure. Appellant's brief shall raise any issues counsel believes to be meritorious after a conscientious examination of the record. Counsel shall also inform the court in appellant's brief of the issues his client raises and otherwise cause the case to be reviewed in accordance with the Rules of Appellate Procedure.

(g) Defendant's failure to communicate to the Supreme Court within the time provided in this rule or any extension thereof his disagreement with counsel's decision that the appeal is frivolous, or of defendant's desire to proceed with the appeal, shall be deemed an election by him to agree with counsel's decision.

III. DISCRETIONARY REVIEWRULE 201. APPLICATION.

An application for discretionary review shall be filed within the time and in the manner prescribed by statute. Simultaneously the applicant shall also mail a copy of the application to the clerk of the Supreme Court and pay to such clerk a filing fee in the amount prescribed by the Supreme Court for filing an application for permission to appeal. The filing fee shall be waived in a criminal proceeding for discretionary review if the trial court found defendant indigent and appointed appeal counsel for him.

RULE 202. RESISTANCE; RULING.

The application may be resisted and ruled on in the manner prescribed in the Rules of Appellate Procedure relating to motions unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court or a justice thereof.

RULE 203. PROCEDURE; DOCKETING.

If an application for discretionary review is granted, further proceedings shall be had pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure to the full extent not inconsistent with statute. The time for any further proceeding which would run from the notice of appeal shall run from the filing date of the order granting the application for discretionary review. Within forty days after the filing of such order appellant shall pay the docket fee or, if the fee has been waived, request that the proceeding be docketed. The docket fee shall be waived in a criminal proceeding for discretionary review if the trial court found defendant indigent and appointed appeal counsel for him.

IV. ORIGINAL CERTIORARI PROCEEDINGS

RULE 301. PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI.

A petition for a writ of certiorari directed to the district court shall be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court or a justice thereof within the time prescribed by rule 319 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. Copies of the petition shall be filed and served in the manner prescribed by the Rules of Appellate Procedure for the filing and serving of motions.

RULE 302. RESISTANCE; RULING.

The petition may be resisted and ruled on in the manner prescribed in the Rules of Appellate Procedure relating to motions unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court or a justice thereof.

RULE 303. ORIGINAL CERTIORARI PROCEDURE.

The procedure under writs of certiorari granted by the Supreme Court or a justice thereof shall be as prescribed by the Rules of Appellate Procedure to the full extent those rules are not inconsistent with this rule or statute. The proceeding shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner as plaintiff and the district court as defendant. The Rules of Appellate Procedure applicable to appellants shall apply to plaintiffs and those applicable to appellees shall apply to defendants. The times specified in those rules which in appeals run from the filing of notice of appeal shall run from the filing of the order granting the writ, except that plaintiff shall cause the proceeding to be docketed within ten days after the writ is granted. Defendant shall make full return to the writ when requested to do so by plaintiff. Such request shall be made by plaintiff within seven days after all required briefs and the appendix have been served or at such earlier date as the parties may agree or the Supreme Court or a justice thereof may order.

RULE 304. APPEAL OR CERTIORARI.

If any case is brought by appeal or certiorari and the appellate court is of the opinion that the other of these remedies was the proper one, the case shall not be dismissed, but shall proceed as though the proper form of review had been sought.

A petition for writ of certiorari may under this rule be treated by the Supreme Court as an application to grant an appeal pursuant to rule 2, Rules of Appellate Procedure, and conversely an application to grant an appeal may be treated as a petition for certiorari.

Nothing in this rule shall operate to extend the time within which an appeal may be taken.

V. TRANSFER AND FURTHER REVIEW

RULE 401. TRANSFER OF CASES TO COURT OF APPEALS.

(a) The Supreme Court may by order, on its own motion, transfer to the Court of Appeals for decision any case filed in the Supreme Court except a case in which provisions of the Iowa Constitution or statutes grant exclusive jurisdiction to the Supreme Court.

(b) The Supreme Court shall ordinarily retain the following types of cases: (1) cases involving substantial constitutional questions as to the validity of a statute, ordinance or court of administrative rule; (2) cases involving substantial issues in which there is or is claimed to be a conflict with a published decision of the Court of Appeals or Supreme Court; (3) cases involving substantial issues of first impression; (4) cases involving fundamental and urgent issues of broad public importance requiring prompt or ultimate determination by the Supreme Court; (5) cases in which life imprisonment has been imposed; (6) cases involving lawyer discipline, and (7) cases appropriate for summary disposition.

(c) Other cases shall ordinarily be retained by the Supreme Court or be transferred to the Court of Appeals as follows: (1) cases which involve substantial questions of enunciating or changing legal principles shall be retained and (2) cases which involve questions of applying existing legal principles shall be transferred.

RULE 402. APPLICATION FOR FURTHER REVIEW.

(a) NO FEE. No fee shall be required for filing an application to the Supreme Court for further review of a decision of the Court of Appeals.

(b) GROUNDS. An application to the Supreme Court for further review shall allege precisely and in what manner the Court of Appeals: (1) has erred; (2) has rendered a decision which is in conflict with a prior holding of a published Court of Appeals decision or published Supreme Court decision; (3) has not considered a potentially controlling constitutional provision in rendering its opinion, or (4) has decided a case which should have been rendered by the Supreme Court.

(c) FORM AND LENGTH OF APPLICATION AND RESISTANCE AND NUMBER TO BE FILED. Each copy of the application for further review shall contain or be accompanied by a copy of the opinion of the Court of Appeals, showing the date of its filing. The application shall be a single document including a brief in support of the request for review. All contentions in support of the application shall be included therein, including all legal authorities and argument. A party who desires to file a resistance shall do so within ten days after service of the application. The resistance shall be a single document which includes all contentions in opposition to the application. No authorities or argument may be incorporated into the application or the resistance by reference to another document. An application or resistance shall be in the form prescribed by rule 16(a), Rules of Appellate Procedure, except that it may be printed or duplicated on one side of the sheet. The application or resistance shall not exceed twenty pages exclusive of the Court of Appeals opinion, index of contents, table of authorities and permitted evidentiary exhibits and trial court orders. No materials shall be annexed to or filed with an application or resistance other than the opinion of the Court of Appeals, except that, if it is of unusual significance, an evidentiary exhibit not exceeding ten pages and a trial court order not exceeding that length may be annexed. Eighteen copies of an application or a resistance shall be filed. In addition, two copies shall be served on each other party separately represented.

(d) SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFS. If an application for further review is granted, the Supreme Court may require the parties to file supplemental briefs on the merits of all or some of the issues to be reviewed.

(e) PROCEDENDO. When an application for further review is denied by order of the Supreme Court or by operation of law, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall immediately issue procedendo.

VI. OTHER PROCEEDINGS

RULE 501. PROCEDURE IN OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Procedure in all other proceedings in the appellate courts shall, unless otherwise ordered, be the procedure prescribed in the Rules of Appellate Procedure to the full extent not inconsistent with rules specifically prescribing the procedure or with statute. An appendix under the Rules of Appellate Procedure shall be deemed an abstract of record.

VII. FORMS

RULE 601. FORMS.

The Supreme Court may by order prescribe forms for use under the Rules of Appellate Procedure.

VIII. CHANGES AND EFFECTIVE DATES.

RULE 701. CHANGES.

The Supreme Court shall have power, by order, to revoke, change or supplement the Rules of Appellate Procedure, except for rules 1 to 9, inclusive. Such changes or additions shall take effect at such time as the Supreme Court shall prescribe.

RULE 702. EFFECTIVE AND GOVERNANCE DATES.

The Rules of Appellate Procedure shall take effect on July 1, 1977. They shall govern appeals and proceedings in the appellate courts after they take effect, and also all further acts in appeals and proceedings then pending except to the extent that in the opinion of the appropriate appellate court or a justice or judge thereof their application in a particular appeal or proceeding would be infeasible or unjust, in which event the previous rules shall apply.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 8

By: Ramsey, Hultman, Shaw, Gallagher and Culver

- 1 Whereas, as a result of critical heating fuel short-
2 ages in the eastern states federal legislation has been
3 proposed to give the President of the United States the 4 authority to reallocate natural gas supplies; and
5 Whereas, Iowa too currently has a precarious supply

6 demand balance during this unusually cold winter season
 7 although major changes in distribution and storage
 8 capacity combined with dedication to energy conserva-
 9 tion techniques instituted during previous harsh win-
 10 ters have enabled the state to withstand this winter's 11 demands; and

12 Whereas, it should be noted that almost thirteen
 13 percent of all natural gas consumed in Iowa is used for 14 the production of anhydrous ammonia and without this
 15 fertilizer, Iowa farmers could not provide the one point
 16 one billion bushels of corn annually which are so vital
 17 to the nation and the world; and

18 Whereas, the state would not object to the diversion
 19 of natural gas allocated to Iowa to aid homes and hos-
 20 pitals in those states where the shortage is critical;

21 Now Therefore,

22 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring,
 23 That the General Assembly urges the President of the 24 United States to recognize the importance of Iowa's and 25 the midwest's present natural gas allocation in meeting
 26 essential residential and agricultural production needs.

27 Be It Further Resolved, That the General Assembly
 28 urges the President of the United States to not penalize
 29 the people of Iowa for their dedication to energy con-
 30 servation and energy management foresight by diverting

1 the state's fuel supplies to an extent that might
 2 jeopardize the security and well-being of Iowans.

3 Be It Further Resolved, That the General Assembly
 4 urges the Congress and the President of the United
 5 States to formulate a national energy policy, as state
 6 efforts to promote energy conservation and management
 7 are currently being stalled by uncertainties concern-
 8 ing the substance and direction of anticipated future
 9 national efforts in this area.

10 Be It Further Resolved, That the secretary of the 11 senate is directed to send a copy of this resolution
 12 to the President of the United States and the members
 13 of Iowa's congressional delegation.

Read first time under Senate Rule 28 and PASSED ON FILE.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 7

By: House Administration Committee

1 Whereas, certain positions within the Chief Clerk's
 2 Office have been reorganized; and
 3 Whereas, such reorganization necessarily involves the 4 reassignment of duties and responsibilities; and
 5 Whereas, the duties and responsibilities of supervising
 6 the page program and additional duties in the well would more
 7 appropriately and efficiently be consolidated with the duties
 8 and responsibilities of the Recording and Amendment Clerk;
 9 and
 10 Whereas, the result of that consolidation of duties and 11 responsibilities requires the establishment of a new position;
 12 Now Therefore,
 13 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate
 14 Concurring, That a new position, Recording Clerk/Supervisor
 15 of Pages, be established and that the position be paid at 16 grade 22; and
 17 Be It Further Resolved, That in all respects the position
 18 grade, step, and benefits conform with those provided for 19 employees in S.C.R. 4, as adopted.

By: Spencer and Hansen

1 Whereas, Acts of the Sixty-sixth General Assembly,
 2 1976 Session, chapter one thousand two hundred five

3 (1205), section five (5), authorizes the Sixty-seventh
4 General Assembly to disapprove by resolution the plans
5 of the Iowa state conservation commission to construct
6 a marina or basin providing moorings for boats at 7 Gull Point state park or any other point on or adjacent
8 to West Okoboji Lake; and
9 Whereas, the Sixty-seventh General Assembly has 10 determined that the last proposed recommendations
11 of the commission for the location and description
12 of such public boat docking facilities are 13 inappropriate for the area; Now Therefore,
14 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives,
15 the Senate Concurring, That the plans of the Iowa
16 state conservation commission for a basin providing 17 moorings for boats at West Okoboji Lake are 18 disapproved.

By: Murray

1 Whereas, the athletic departments of Iowa State
2 University and the University of Iowa, in response to
3 an overwhelming popular demand throughout the state,
4 scheduled six ISU-UI football games for 1977 through
5 1982; and
6 Whereas, the first five games were scheduled for 7 the University of Iowa stadium because the Iowa State
8 University stadium then existing was inadequate to 9 serve the Iowa spectators which were expected; and 10 Whereas, Iowa State University now has a new 11 stadium which can assure adequate seating for Iowans
12 interested in the ISU-UI football contest on a basis
13 equal to the University of Iowa stadium; and 14 Whereas, the Board in Control of Athletics at the 15 University of Iowa has decided not to cooperate with 16 Iowa State University in sharing facilities and 17 seating allocations so that all Iowa State-Iowa
18 football fans can benefit; and 19 Whereas, the present offer of 5,000 tickets for 20 all students, faculty, alumni, and friends of Iowa
21 State University is an example of this lack of good
22 faith cooperation by the University of Iowa; and
23 Whereas, both of these universities are state
24 institutions, governed by the state board of regents
25 and mandated to live up to the highest ideals of 26 public service to the citizens of the entire state;
27 Now Therefore,

28 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring,
29 That the general assembly deplore the existing lack 30 of good faith cooperation by the Board in Control of

1 Athletics at the University of Iowa, that the general
2 assembly strongly request that the University of Iowa
3 cooperate with Iowa State University for the benefit
4 of all the citizens of the state. It is the general
5 assembly's intent and opinion that such cooperation
6 requires a revision of earlier contracts in order to 7 provide for scheduling the Iowa State-Iowa University
8 football games on a "home and home" basis, alternating
9 sites each year, for the next six years, and the 10 negotiation of further scheduled games on a home and 11 home basis for the years after 1982.

4 Whereas, the United States is presently involved in

The Journal of Friday, February 18, 1977, as corrected, was approved.

Read first time and PASSED ON FILE.

SENATE FILE 131, by Senator Hultman, a bill for an act relating to unemployment compensation benefits for persons discharged for misconduct.

Read first time and PASSED ON FILE.

CONSIDERATION OF BILLS

Senate File 70

On motion of Senator Briles, Senate File 70, a bill for an act relating to self-service gasoline station operation and handicapped persons and providing a penalty, was taken up for consideration.

Senator Scott offered amendment S-3082 to page 1 of the bill and moved its adoption.

Amendment S-3082 was adopted.

Senator Briles offered amendment S-3083 to page 1 of the bill and moved its adoption.

Amendment S-3083 was adopted.

DEFERRED

Senator Hill of Polk moved that action on Senate File 70 be temporarily deferred.

The motion prevailed and action on Senate File 70 was temporarily deferred.

ADOPTION OF RESOLUTION

House Concurrent Resolution 4

On motion of Senator Drake, House Concurrent Resolution 4, a resolution relating to the Iowa Department of Transportation's proposed rule on maximum legal length of a combination of three vehicles filed January 25, 1977, and found on page 214 of the Senate Journal, was taken up for consideration.

Senator Redmond raised the point of order that House Concurrent Resolution 4 was out of order under Senate Rules 29 and 31 since it had no explanation attached as is required on a bill or resolution before it can be introduced in the Senate.

The Chair ruled the point not well taken because Senate Rules 29 and 31 apply only to Senate bills and resolutions.

Since House Concurrent Resolution 4 was introduced in the House, the Senate rules cannot regulate House procedure and the Senate must receive a bill or resolution in the form in which it is received from the House.

Senator Redmond moved that the Senate resolve itself into a committee of the whole for the purpose of receiving testimony from the director and commissioners of the Department of Transportation regarding House Concurrent Resolution 4.

Senator Hutchins raised the point of order that Senator Redmond was out of order to question other Senators on House Concurrent Resolution 4 during his final remarks on whether or not the Senate should resolve itself into a committee of the whole.

The Chair ruled the point not well taken and that Senator Redmond was in order to ask questions of any Senator during final remarks on House Concurrent Resolution 4, but other Senators could not direct questions to Senator Redmond.

Senator Redmond renewed the motion that the Senate resolve itself into a committee of the whole and requested a record roll call.

On the question "Shall the Senate resolve itself into a committee of the whole?" (H.C.R. 4) the vote was:

Ayes, 19:

Bisenius	Craft	Curtis	DeKoster
Doderer	Gallagher	Hansen	Hill, E.M.

-------	--------	---------	-----------

The motion lost.

Senator Junkins took the chair at 11:45 a.m.

Senator Slater offered amendment S-3085 to page 1 of the resolution.

President pro tempore Coleman took the chair at 11:50 a.m.

Senator Hansen moved that House Concurrent Resolution 4 be deferred and that the resolution be returned to the regular calendar as unfinished business under Senate Rule 6.

Senator Hill of Polk rose on a point of parliamentary inquiry to question whether House Concurrent Resolution 4 was out of order since the rule it relates to was filed contrary to Section 307.10, subsection 5, Code 1977, which requires such rules be submitted within five days after the convening of the general assembly and the Senate Journal shows that the resolution was filed on January 17, 1977.

The Chair ruled that it was not empowered to determine the legality of the date of filing.

(Senate File 70 and House Concurrent Resolution 4 pending on recess.)

On motion of Senator Kinley, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Senate reconvened, President pro tempore Coleman presiding.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Leaves of absence were granted as follows:

Senators Priebe and Van Gilst for the day on request of Senator Kinley.

QUORUM CALL

Senator Robinson requested a roll call to determine that a quorum was present.

The roll call revealed a quorum present.

BUSINESS PENDING

House Concurrent Resolution 4

The Senate resumed consideration of House Concurrent Resolution 4 and the motion to defer by Senator Hansen.

--------------	--------	--------	-----------

The motion lost.

The Senate resumed consideration of amendment S-3085 by Senator Slater, offered and pending.

Senator Drake raised the point of order that amendment S-3085 was not germane.

The Chair ruled the point not well taken and amendment S-3085 in order.

Senator Slater moved the adoption of amendment S—3085.

A record roll call was requested.

On the question "Shall amendment S—3085 be adopted?" (H.C.R. 4) the vote was:

Amendment S—3085 was adopted.

Senator Carr offered amendment S—3086 to page 1 of the resolution.

Senator Carr offered amendment S—3087 to amendment S—3086 and moved its adoption.

Senator Drake raised the point of order that amendments S—3086 and S—3087 were not germane.

The Chair ruled the point well taken and amendments S—3086 and S—3087 out of order.

Senator Willits took the chair at 3:40 p.m.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Redmond submitted the following point of order and asked that a ruling be given by the President of the Senate:

February 21, 1977

Arthur A. Neu
Lt. Governor of Iowa and
President of the Iowa Senate

LOCAL

Subject: Request for a parliamentary ruling.

Dear Governor Neu:

Paragraph 5, Section 307.10 of the Iowa Code provides that the Commissioners of the Iowa Department of Transportation may by rule modify the prohibition against the use of 65 foot double bottomed trucks in this State contained in Section 321.457 of the Iowa Code. Paragraph 5, Section 307.10 also states that the General Assembly may approve or disapprove any such rule within 60 days of the specified submission date. These statutes do not provide any indication of the procedure to be followed by the Legislature in officially demonstrating its approval or disapproval.

Pursuant to the powers delegated by Section 307.10, in 1975 the DOT Commissioners adopted a rule allowing 65 foot trucks in Iowa. The rule was submitted to the 66th General Assembly which by its inaction allowed 65 foot trucks to be driven in Iowa. While this rule was not effectively challenged by the Legislature, private citizens blocked the implementation of the rule due to the questionable constitutional legality of the contingencies and prerequisites attached to legislative approval by the DOT.

As of this date, the issues surrounding the controversial 1976 rule are before the Iowa Supreme Court.

House Concurrent Resolution 4 purports to disapprove the latest rule of the DOT regarding the legality of 65 foot trucks. This new rule, which reversed the DOT's previous approval of the 65 foot length, was submitted to the General Assembly on January 17, 1977. I question the effectiveness of this procedure.

The basis of my doubts about the legality of using a resolution to "approve or disapprove" the administrative rule making powers goes to the very heart of the procedural due process provisions in the Iowa Constitution. (See Article III, Sections 1, 10, 16, and 17). It lies in the very fundamental distinctions between legislative law making power and administrative rule making power and bills and resolutions. It further involves the relationship and dual responsibilities for the enactment of laws between the General Assembly and the chief executive officer, the Governor of Iowa. In my opinion, we are attempting by passage of HCR 4 a change in the law of this State which constitutionally must be accomplished by the enactment of a bill.

The Attorney General of this State has addressed this issue previously. In an Opinion addressed to Representative Ray Baily dated May 10, 1967, the Attorney General ruled that the Code of Iowa cannot be amended to permit legislative review and modification or repeal of an administrative rule by either joint or concurrent resolutions. Any such action must be accomplished by the passage of a law subject to the Governor's veto. For a detailed and scholarly review of the principles involved I direct your attention to the copy of this opinion I have attached hereto for your convenience.

Accordingly, I hereby submit to you as President of the Senate the following parliamentary inquiry: Can the Senate in conjunction with the Iowa House, as a matter of internal procedure, constitutionally use a resolution to approve or disapprove an administrative rule?

An answer to this question is extremely important and necessary to the full and fair consideration of HCR 4. Further, it is absolutely necessary to finally establish the proper internal procedures to be used in similar circumstances. In light of these considerations I would hope that we could have a dispositive written ruling on this request in the very near future which shall be printed in the Senate Journal.

Respectfully submitted,

James M. Redmond

The Chair acknowledged receipt of the point of order and indicated that it would be taken under advisement.

Senator Drake moved that the resolution be read the last time now, which motion prevailed, and the resolution was read the last time.

On the question "Shall the resolution be adopted?" (H.C.R. 4) the vote was:

By: Committee on Energy

1 Whereas, because of the unusually severe winter,
2 natural gas shortages are being experienced in the 3 eastern states and have led to the closing of schools,
4 businesses, and factories; and

5 Whereas, the President of the United States has
6 requested that all Americans share the responsibility 7 of conserving energy resources, particularly during
8 this recent crisis, by turning temperature controls
9 in homes, schools, and other buildings to 65 degrees
10 F.; and

11 Whereas, the state of Iowa has led the nation in 12 meaningful energy planning, allowing Iowa to avoid
13 the crisis experienced in many other states, and Iowa
14 should set an example for its citizens by lowering
15 temperature controls in state-owned buildings to 65
16 degrees F.; and

17 Whereas, Iowa is not immune from a future crisis,

18 particularly with the dwindling availability of natural 19 gas, and with the recent federal legislation which 20 authorizes the President to reallocate natural gas
21 supplies among the states; Now Therefore,
22 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives,
23 the Senate Concurring, That the General Assembly urges
24 that, during the winter season, temperature controls
25 in all buildings owned by the state or a political 26 subdivision of the state, except health care
27 facilities, be modified if necessary for efficient
28 operation and set to maintain a temperature of 65
29 degrees F., and
30 Be It Further Resolved, That the General Assembly
31 urges that air conditioning equipment in state
32 buildings not be operational during the months
33 beginning October first and ending May thirty-first 34 unless the outside temperature reaches twenty-seven
35 degrees Celsius.
36 Be It Further Resolved, That the General Assembly
37 requests that further energy conservation efforts
38 be instituted in government-owned buildings, such 39 as turning off lights in buildings when not in use, 40 as a further demonstration of our willingness to 41 assist not only our fellow Americans but also ourselves
42 in tailoring our energy demands to meet supplies.

RULING ON A POINT OF ORDER

Arthur A. Neu
President of the Senate

On February 21, 1977, Senator James Redmond submitted a written point of order regarding the use of a resolution rather than a bill to disapprove the rules of the Department of Transportation. The point of order is recorded at pages 406 and 407 of the Senate Journal.

The requested point of order is a request for a ruling on a point of law and not on a point of parliamentary procedure. As presiding officer I will rule on points of parliamentary procedure as they arise and will not give advisory legal opinions nor advisory procedural opinions.

POINT OF ORDER AND RULING

February 15, 1977

Honorable Arthur A. Neu
Lt. Governor, State of Iowa
LOCAL

Subject: Request for a clarification of the Rules of the Senate

Dear Governor Neu:

Paragraph 4, Rule 37 of the Rules of the Senate provides as follows:

"4. The rules adopted by a committee, including these rules, may be suspended by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members." (my emphasis)

The emphasized words in the above-quoted language are ambiguous and unless clarified could have serious consequences. Basically, my question is whether the words "these rules" are limited to Rule 37, "Rules for Standing Committees" or does it extend to all fifty-eight of the Rules of the Senate? I would greatly appreciate a definitive response to this question.

I realize that this request appears to ask for an "advisory opinion" instead of the more traditional "case and controversy" approach. Unfortunately, the committee system decentralizes the operational impact of Rule 37 in a manner that prevents the effective crystalization of this issue. Accordingly, I hope you will consider issuing a ruling despite the lack of an actual situation.

Sincerely,
James M. Redmond

The Honorable James M. Redmond
State Senator
State Capitol
LOCAL

Dear Jim:

Paragraph 4 of Rule 37 only relates to the Rules for Standing Committee set out in Rule 37 and to additional rules adopted by the committees. Standing committees do not have the authority to suspend the rules of the Senate, other than Rule 37.

I do not consider this an advisory opinion, but simply a statement of how Rule 37 as been interpreted since its inception.

Yours very truly,
Arthur A. Neu

MR. PRESIDENT: Pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution 4, the committee on rules and administration submits the following change in grade of the indicated employee to be effective on the date indicated.

Margaret Bruce Grade 13 to Grade 15 effective
March 4, 1977.

GEORGE R. KINLEY, Chairperson

REPORT ON THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF STATE LEGISLATORS MARCH 4 AND 5, 1977

I wish to insert a few brief comments as a result of a meeting of the Education Task Force of the National Conference of State Legislators which I attended in Washington, D.C. on March 4th and 5th, 1977.

As one of the Iowa Members on the Education Task Force, I want to alert members of our legislature to the serious implications of P.L. 94-142 Education of All Handicapped Children Act of 1975.

This federal act mandates the education of all handicapped children similar to the directives we adopted in Iowa in 1974, with the creation of the fifteen A.E.A.'s. However, its mandates appear broader in scope. It has been estimated that the federal act will impose a nine billion dollar cost increase among state governments with the federal budget reimbursing only three billion dollars of that cut.

Fortunately, Iowa has made significant strides toward the inclusion of all handicapped children in our school program and it should be fully implemented by 1978. We will not incur the fiscal impact of the states who failed to demonstrate a leadership role in responding to this education void. Nevertheless, there are important impact areas which I intend to pursue with our Department of Public Instruction as a result of this conference and will be recommending appropriate legislative response as a result of this conference. I will be happy to share material which I received at this conference with any interested legislators.

SENATE RESOLUTION 9

By: Ramsey

- 1 Whereas, the United States house of representatives
- 2 has defeated legislation which would have expanded the
- 3 picketing powers of construction workers and is
- 4 known as the "common situs picketing bill"; and
- 5 Whereas, the common situs picketing bill would have
- 6 greatly increased construction costs which are already
- 7 increasing at an alarming rate; and
- 8 Whereas, it is in the interest of Iowans and the
- 9 members of the public elsewhere that the right of per-
- 10 sons to work be preserved and that costs be held down
- 11 as much as possible; Now Therefore,
- 12 Be It Resolved by the Senate,
- 13 That the United States Congress be commended for exer-
- 14 cising good judgment in disapproving the common situs
- 15 picketing bill and that it be urged to continue its
- 16 resistance to this proposal; and

17 Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolu-
 18 tion be forwarded to members of the Iowa congressional 19 delegation.

20 EXPLANATION

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 13

By: Shaw, Hansen, Robinson, Redmond and Rush

1 Whereas, the bicycle provides a practical, energy
 2 conserving and healthful alternative to motorized trans-
 3 portation; and

4 Whereas, since 1970, the popularity of cycling in
 5 this state has risen sharply as more and more adults
 6 have discovered its value in terms of health, recreation
 7 and transportation; and

8 Whereas, the number of facilities for cyclists has 9 not expanded commensurate with the rise in popularity
 10 of cycling and existing facilities are inadequate; and

11 Whereas, traffic safety would be greatly enhanced if 12 more facilities, such as bikeways, were provided for 13 cyclists; and

14 Whereas, state and federal funds are presently 15 available for the construction of bikeways; and

16 Whereas, abandoned railroad lines may be used for the 17 construction of bikeways to create transportation and 18 recreational facilities and minimize the adverse effects
 19 resulting from the abandonment of railroad lines; Now
 20 Therefore,

21 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representa-
 22 tives Concurring, That the state department of transpor-
 23 tation study the feasibility of acquiring and converting
 24 into a bikeway the railroad line owned by the Waterloo
 25 railroad company which has applied to the United States
 26 interstate commerce commission seeking abandonment and 27 has been granted authority to abandon a section of line
 28 from Cedar Rapids in Linn county to Waterloo in Black
 29 Hawk county; and

30 Be It Further Resolved, That the study shall be sub-

Page 2

1 mitted to the General Assembly thirty days after the
 2 convening of the 1978 Session of the Sixty-seventh

3 General Assembly and that the study consider all aspects
 4 bearing on the feasibility of such project, including
 5 the cost of acquisition of the right-of-way, by either
 6 purchase or eminent domain, the cost of converting the 7 right-of-way into a bikeway together with ancillary
 8 facilities such as comfort stations and camp grounds,
 9 the cost of its continued maintenance and upkeep and an 10 assessment of anticipated benefits of such bikeway to the 11 surrounding communities and the residents of this state.

By: Committee on Agriculture

- 1 Whereas, the United States environmental protection agency,
- 2 hereinafter referred to as EPA, through its office of air

3 and waste management, by publication in the federal register
4 of Thursday, January 13, 1977, Volume 42, No. 9, has proposed,
5 under authority of section 111 of the U.S. Clean Air Act,
6 to impose new standards of performance for new stationary
7 sources of alleged air pollution for farm elevators, country
8 elevators, terminals and dryers which have a cumulative grain
9 "leg" capacity of ten thousand bushels per hour or more if 10 such installations are modified, reconstructed or built new;
11 and

12 Whereas, adoption of such regulations would impose
13 restrictions and regulations of such nature which may result
14 in financial hardship for many farm and country elevators;
15 and

16 Whereas, the EPA has woefully underestimated the number
17 of farm and country elevators that would ultimately be affected
18 and has grossly underestimated the size of average country
19 elevators within major grain producing states; and

20 Whereas, Iowa is one of the leading grain producing,
21 handling and exporting states; and

22 Whereas, the EPA by its admission has not studied nor 23 issued an economic impact statement and has not projected
24 inflationary trends into cost estimates; and

25 Whereas, the Iowa department of environmental quality has,
26 under existing regulations, performed an outstanding job of 27 enforcement of common sense pollution standards now existing 28 which has resulted in excellent control of farm and country
29 elevator particulate matter emissions; Now Therefore,

30 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate

1 Concurring, That the EPA be informed of the overwhelming
2 concern of the general assembly of the state of Iowa for 3 farmers, consumers and country elevators; and

4 Be It Further Resolved, That the EPA is requested to notify,
5 before rules governing grain production or handling are
6 proposed, the Iowa department of environmental quality,
7 department of agriculture and similar departments in other
8 major grain producing or handling states for their review
9 of the proposed rules; and

10 Be It Further Resolved, That the EPA is requested to exempt
11 by specific language farm elevators and that such language
12 further specifically include exemption for country elevators
13 who by definition receive the majority of their grain volume
14 direct from the farm producer as the first purchaser in the 15 grain distribution system; and

16 Be It Further Resolved, That this concurrent resolution
17 being of immediate urgency be dispatched immediately to Mr.
18 John Quarles, acting administrator, EPA, Washington, D.C.,

19 and to the Iowa congressional delegation and that a copy of 20 this concurrent resolution be served upon the house and senate
21 agriculture committees of the Congress of the United States.

The Senate reconvened, President Neu presiding.

COMMITTEE FROM THE HOUSE

A committee from the House appeared and announced that the House was ready to receive the Senate in joint convention.

In accordance with House Concurrent Resolution 13, duly adopted, the Senate proceeded to the House under the direction of the Secretary of the Senate and the Sergeant-at-Arms.

JOINT CONVENTION

PIONEER LAWMAKERS (House Chamber—1:30 p.m.)

In accordance with House Concurrent Resolution 13, duly adopted, the joint convention was called to order, President Neu presiding.

President Neu declared a quorum present and the joint convention duly organized.

Senator Kinley moved that a committee of four be appointed to escort the Pioneer Lawmakers into the House chamber.

The motion prevailed and the President appointed as such committee: Senator Priebe of Kossuth, Senator Bergman of Osceola, Representative Middleswart of Warren and Representative Crabb of Crawford.

The Committee escorted the Pioneer Lawmakers to seats in the House chamber.

President Neu presented Senator C. Joseph Coleman, President pro tempore of the Senate, who welcomed the Pioneer Lawmakers on behalf of the Senate as follows:

Mr. President, Members of the House and Senate, Pioneer Lawmakers, Honored Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen.

It is indeed a rare privilege today for me to welcome the members of the Pioneer Lawmakers Association. What makes it a unique occasion is because in extending a welcome to the Pioneer Lawmakers they in return extend a welcome to me. In a research of past programs I could find no precedent for such a reciprocal welcome.

In the past twenty years I have seen many changes. Today we have much concern about pollution, the latest being noise pollution. I was initiated into my first session by an airplane buzzing the capitol for four hours but having no contest with the lobbyists sitting on the floor behind the senators. All this amidst the efforts of the senators to be heard without a sound system.

We have progressed from triangular pieces of oleo to multiangular pieces of olio representation.

Twenty years ago we confirmed gubernatorial appointments in executive session. Ten years later in 1967 we did this in open session. Today in 1977 we act with "En Bloc" confirmations.

We have progressed from Buster the "Papa Bear" to, in seeing the youth here today, the "Barely Papas".

Almost twenty years ago Judge McManus was the first Lieutenant Governor to claim his wings were clipped before he learned to fly. Lieutenant Governor Neu has also complained his plumes were plucked or is the word "plums".

It has been a delightful and eventful twenty years almost like the expression of one former legislator — "It's been the longest convention I ever attended".

So in the manner of the Senate — I say to you — it is a pleasure to welcome you today and hope that your visit will be both educational and enjoyable and invite you to come back again.

President Neu presented the Honorable Carl V. Nielsen, Speaker pro tempore of the House of Representatives, who welcomed the Pioneer Lawmakers on behalf of the House of Representatives as follows:

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Members of the Pioneer Lawmakers Association of Iowa, fellow members of the Sixty-seventh General Assembly, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have been asked on behalf of the members of the House of Representatives to welcome back the Pioneer Lawmakers and believe me — you are very, very welcome, and I am honored to express that welcome to you.

In your days here in these chambers and in the Senate, you were a part of making laws, adding to customs and traditions that have been passed down to us. When I was asked to talk to you for a few moments today, I looked back over the years via the journals endeavoring to gain guidance as to what others who have addressed you have spoken about.

As in years past, we are today faced with demands that we must do something about; taxes, we must do something about our roads which are deteriorating, our bridges, also our health care costs which are soaring, our prisons are overcrowded, etc., etc. These issues are not new, nor is the degree of difficulty in solving them, and just as you did, we will endeavor to do our best to provide solutions, and will probably go home — not totally satisfied with our efforts.

Others may disagree, but after considering all which has gone on before, it is my opinion that the single greatest legacy which those who served here before have passed on is the unquestioned integrity of the membership of this body. That unquestioned integrity cannot be legislated, it cannot be bought, it does not come about because of news releases, but rather it is earned.

You earned that reputation as our predecessors, and I thank you for it and think we are unanimous in that thanks. It is one of the things we inherit that makes this job tolerable. It is certainly one of the things which must be closely guarded so that others may be elected to a body which has such a high standing. We thank you for the work which you did which gave us a base to work from. We thank you for your continued interest in us and the legislative process which you exhibit by your presence today, and we invite you to return again.

Again, welcome to the House.

President Neu presented the Honorable Wendell Pendleton who responded to the welcome and addressed the joint convention as follows:

Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Speaker, Honorable Senators and Representatives and ladies and gentlemen:

On behalf of my Pioneer Colleagues let me say for all of us that it is a most pleasant occasion to be with you in this great chamber where history is made.

We warm to your welcome and are thankful that the present and future of our great state is in such good hands.

Senator Coleman, while still a relatively young man, is an esteemed member of our association, and we acknowledge additional pleasure because of his words of welcome as well as those of Representative Nielsen.

Every elected official of the State of Iowa automatically becomes a member in our association on the twentieth anniversary of the commencement of his or her service to the State of Iowa. We have a biennial meeting such as this every two years and it affords the legislators of bygone years an opportunity to get together, to reminisce and to enjoy the fellowship of those of you who are the present day stewards of the law making arm of our government.

As members of the Pioneer Lawmakers Association, we look forward to this meeting with anticipation and appreciate your hospitality in affording us the opportunity to share a day with you.

The experience of being a legislator, which seems so frustrating at times, will be looked back upon by you, as it is by all of us who have served in other years, as one of the most rewarding that life can offer. It is a rare opportunity to serve your fellow citizens and to help shape the future progress of your state and the destiny of its people. I remember coming down here for the first time in 1951, four years out of law school and five and a half years out of the Marine Corps. The holdover Senators were paid $1,000.00 for the session, the rest of us $2,000.00. Many of the lawmakers were guilty of nepotism by employing their wives as their clerks. I was guilty. It was the only way I could afford to serve and my beautiful wife, Pheraby, proved to be my greatest asset.

This great chamber brings back the nostalgic memories of bills passed and bills lost. Hearing the Speaker recognize the Gentleman from Buena Vista was a source of great pride and challenge to me. We all look back on the good old days and the opportunity of service.

It is customary for the President of the Pioneers to make a short address with the principal address to follow. Two years ago, our colleague, Andrew Frommelt of Dubuque, addressed the general assembly on the desirability of preserving the citizen oriented legislature rather than a professional organization. If you will indulge me, I hope to make a few observations in a general way concerning our great American heritage and the inherent dangers of inroads to our way of life.

From an economic standpoint, we can take great pride in the strength of our country built on free enterprise. We must cherish this accomplishment and not seek extreme changes which endanger our free society. We must reward those who labor and we must not hold out premiums to able-bodied freeloaders.

Our government spending must be carried forward with wisdom and concern for the taxpayers. We must strive for efficiency and productivity from our civil employees. Taxes must be structured to fall fairly on the people without destroying incentives and the attractiveness of Iowa for new industries. The test of a good legislative body is not necessarily the number of bills it passes, but rather it is the manner in which the body responds to the needs of the people. Someone once suggested that for every new law we put on the books, we should take two old ones off. This observation was frivolous I am sure, but the old saying that "they who govern less, govern best" has some merit to it.

In the arena of criminal law, we should cherish our system which holds a person to be innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Surely we are not ready for the English system which shifts the burden of proof to the accused and holds that a person is guilty until that person proves his or her innocence. The constitutional guarantees of individual rights protects us from a police state. We must not condemn our courts for upholding these cherished American rights because the alternative would be abuse of individual liberties and would pave the way to tyranny. Many constitutional safeguards provide a shield for the guilty, but we can't disregard our constitution without sacrificing the rights of the innocent as well. The Miranda type decisions are blown up out of proportion. A convicted felon gets a new trial and the hue and cry goes out that the courts are turning loose another rapist or a murderer. The media plays up the gory details of the crime but does not fairly follow the ultimate disposition of the great majority of these cases which result in conviction within the rules of competent evidence on retrial.

Many attacks have been made upon the adversary system which prevails in our courts on civil matters. Many of the critics are members of self-serving pressure groups of one kind or another. The common law, the decisions of the courts, has evolved out of human experience and gains its wisdom from a variety of fountains. One is precedent, another is need, and yet another is common sense. As the needs of people become greater and the complexities of modern civilization increase, the common law must change. It has done so but at a moderate and well-reasoned pace. The ambit of liability has continued to grow in the arena of adversary proceedings. The islands of immunity from responsibility have been largely eliminated and wrongdoers are held to answer in damages or are made to redress others for their wrongs. Doctors, lawyers, accountants, architects, engineers and all professional persons selling services are held to a standard of reasonable care free of negligence as well as hospitals, restaurants, manufacturers or others and a failure to observe the standard of due care exposes one to liability to the injured victim. In automobile crash cases, we heard much about "no fault" and great pressure was brought to bear by the media and the insurance industry. An attempt was made to sell it on the premise that it would cut insurance costs. This has proved to be a false premise and you lawmakers are to be congratulated for saving Iowans from this ill-conceived invasion of their rights for reparations from those who negligently maim them or kill their loved ones.

Our system is working and the recent reforms in our judicial process is paying off. Good salaries attract good judges and good judges provide justice for all the citizens of Iowa.

With regard to products liability, we have seen the emergence of the doctrine of "strict liability". This doctrine in capsule form is that when a manufacturer puts a defective product in the stream of commerce, the manufacturer assumes responsibility for damages caused by the defective product which are reasonably foreseeable. Is this so bad? Critics of the law complain of the high cost of insurance to respond in damages. What can be said on the other side in support of the consumer? First, manufacturers are becoming more responsible and careful of the products they sell and distribute. Faulty designs that are dangerous are corrected. Quality of products is monitored and controlled. Secondly, the crisis is not real. In a forty-eight page memo to the White House, Product Safety Letter reported, the Commerce Department-sponsored task force said there is a lack of facts to assess the nature and degree of the problem. "Our study does suggest that there is no nationwide multi-industry product liability 'crisis'." The study did recognize that a number of smaller businesses are having a difficult choice as to whether to go without product liability insurance or to purchase it at a sharply increased premium. The task force called for avoiding specific legislative recommendations until additional studies are completed and all information is carefully evaluated. Consumer advocate Ralph Nader told a Senate committee that he believes the insurance industry is inflating estimates of products liability because it is "trying to stampepe state legislatures into a vast curtailment of product liability rights" of consumers. I trust you will not let this happen in Iowa and that new legislation in this modern field of the law will be approached with caution and care and with regard for the public interest and at the same time recognizing that a just solution must be found for the makers of products.

Please accept my remarks as those of a lawyer and a pioneer lawmaker who still believes in the public interest and the solid future of our great state. Iowa must and will rise to the challenge of helping to feed a hungry world and to keep a favorable balance of trade for the United States of America.

The Honorable Wendell Pendleton then presented honorary memberships of the Pioneer Lawmakers Association to Lillian Leffert, who served fifty-five years in the House of Representatives, starting as secretary to the Judicial Committee in 1919 and retiring as Legal Counsel in 1974; and to Edna Gillespie who served in the Senate for thirty-eight years, retiring as Journal Clerk and Assistant Secretary of the Senate in 1967.

President Neu then presented the Honorable Edward J. McManus who addressed the joint convention as follows:

THE LAW BUSINESS AND A FAVOR

Members of the Sixty-seventh General Assembly, fellow Pioneer Lawmakers and friends:

Some time ago when Wendell asked me to say a few words, I immediately accepted with pleasure for a number of reasons.

1. Hopefully it would be my first opportunity in some time to hear a lawyer say something nice about a judge.

2. A chance to escape briefly from my judicial white tower and mingle with old friends and real people.

3. Finally, for the honor and joy of returning after almost 20 years to these hallowed chambers and visiting with the Iowa legislature that I so dearly revere, admire and love.

Rest assured my affection for this body is not a summer romance — both my grandfather and great grandfather also served in these halls.

Forgive me for staring — after my experience here in the 50's, my old eyes didn't believe they'd ever have the pleasure of seeing what a Democratic majority looked like.

Every session seems to pick up a nickname — we've had the colored oleo session, the mourning dove session — from what I've read recently in the Register and Gazette the Sixty-seventh will be known as the "Fun with Dick and Art" session. Your good humor has been refreshing.

I'd like to leave a thought or two with you this p.m. about this business we're all in together. The law business. You the legislators are in manufacturing, you make the law. The practicing lawyers are in sales — selling their particular versions of the law. My colleagues and I in the judiciary are in purchasing, we buy that version of the law that seems most consonant with a fair and just interpretation of what you intended the law to be.

There is one aspect of our law business perhaps worthy of comment and for which I have no answer. It is the flood of new laws and court decisions with which all citizens must cope.

You have heard the old expression: "We are a government of laws not of men". You had better believe it. Our ships of state float on a sea of laws. And we citizens are all swimming (and hopefully not drowning) in that sea of laws.

I don't like statistics any better than most people but a few illustrate the problem. Iowa Code 1958, 2602 pages, 1975, 3583 pages; Federal Supplement 1932, Vol. 1, 1962, 200 pages, 1962, Vol. 200, 1977, 425 pages; Federal 2d 1925, Vol. 1, 1962, 300 pages, 1962, Vol. 300, 1977, 550 pages.

There used to be a little pamphlet around the legislature that was given to freshmen legislators and school children called "How a Bill Becomes a Law". When we contemplate the impact of all these laws on our people and their purses, perhaps a second edition might be in order entitled "How a Law Becomes a Bill".

Recently Chief Justice Burger of the Supreme Court in a little different context called on Congress to adopt a "Judicial Impact Statement" prior to passage of legislation to determine its impact on the judiciary as an added workload. Maybe a "Public Impact Statement" might be adopted by all legislative bodies prior to legislating to determine the impact of new laws on the public. Perhaps fewer and shorter sessions — computers — I have no answer to this problem of our law business, but let's not lose sight of it.

While I have you as a captive audience I thought I'd exercise my right of petition and ask you for a small favor for the federal courts in Iowa. We are confronted with a recurring problem of having to decide novel questions of Iowa law that have not been settled by the Iowa Supreme Court. Federal judges have no special expertise in this area and in truth engage in refined guesswork often at the delay, expense and confusion of the litigants. Since 1961, thirteen states have adopted a procedure called certification of questions of law which helps solve this problem. This procedure enables the federal courts to ask the state supreme courts for final answers to these uncertain questions of state law. In fact in a 1974 case, the U. S. Supreme Court in a unanimous opinion by Justice Douglas (which is quite a feat in itself) warmly endorsed this procedure by saying: "It does, of course, in the long run save time, energy and resources and helps build a cooperative judicial federalism".

If you get the time, we'd greatly appreciate it.

Finally, I want to pass on to you a law that should be invoked more frequently by all of us in the executive, legislative and judicial branches of government and especially by after luncheon speakers. I came across it in a headline in a newspaper in Greece last year while my wife and I were there on a visit. The news article was a dispatch from the United Nations giving an account of the remarks of the presiding officer at the opening of the 3rd International Conference on the Law of the Sea. He called for an end to long-winded speeches and dreary monologues and to get on with negotiations. The headline in the Athens paper was: "First Sea Law: Cut Out the B--S--".

In deference to this profound legal principle I say thank you and 'til we meet again.

Fitzgerald of Webster moved that the joint convention be dissolved.

The motion prevailed.

The Senate returned to the Senate chamber and resumed regular session, President Neu presiding.

By: Gallagher

- 1 Whereas, Iowa and the nation are facing a serious
- 2 national energy shortage because of the growing demand
- 3 for energy and the increasing technological, economic
- 4 and environmental problems involved in meeting energy
- 5 needs; and

6 Whereas, significant levels of energy conservation
7 and reclamation of valuable resources are possible
8 through the recycling of waste; and 9 Whereas, processes have been developed and have 10 been proven successful which convert waste into many 11 useful products including refuse derived fuel which 12 may be used as a supplementary fuel source in coal
13 fired boilers and road building materials; and 14 Whereas, resource recovery is proving to be an 15 increasing attractive alternative to sanitary
16 landfills because of the shortage of land and environ-
17 mental concerns; Now Therefore,
18 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring,
19 That the legislative council create a study committee
20 composed of members of both houses of the general
21 assembly to study the need for and feasibility of 22 resource recovery systems in Iowa. The study shall 23 include consideration of the social, political,
24 economic, and energy aspects of resource recovery as 25 an answer to solid waste disposal problems and shall 26 specifically address the questions of how resource 27 recovery systems in the state would be funded, the 28 marketability of recovered materials and where resource 29 recovery systems could be located in the state to 30 insure the volume of waste necessary to make the system

2 Be It Further Resolved, That a report of the study

ETERNAL ADVENTURE

By Representative Betty Jean (Beje) Clark, Rockwell

We remember
Those who have possessed the faith
That dared the great adventure
Of service to their state;
Urged on by an inexplicable instinct
To dream of unreachable horizons
Yet doggedly explore paths by which they might be reached.

In our remembering it is not difficult
To envision them in some perfected state
Joyously.....expectantly
Venturing still throughout eternity!
