JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

FIRST CALENDAR DAY FIRST SESSION DAY

Senate Chamber
Des Moines, Iowa, Monday, January 14, 1980

Pursuant to chapter two (2), section two point one (2.1), Code of Iowa, the 1980 regular session of the Sixty-eighth General Assembly convened at 10:00 a.m., and the Senate was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Terry E. Branstad.

Prayer was offered by Dr. Arndt F. Braaten, president of Waldorf College, Forest City, Iowa.

LEGISLATIVE PHYSICIAN FOR THE DAY

Dr. Axel Lund, Marshalltown, Iowa.

OPENING REMARKS BY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Lieutenant Governor Branstad addressed the Senate as follows:

Last year the Senate convened with many new senators, new leadership and a new president and secretary of the senate. With bipartisan cooperation, the session progressed smoothly and a significant number of important accomplishments were achieved.

This year with 49 veteran senators, experienced leadership and continued bipartisan cooperation even more will be accomplished. I am pleased to welcome Senator-elect Gary Baugher and we are looking forward to his active participation in the senate.

This is not only the beginning of a new session, it is also the beginning of a new decade. Iowa has emerged as an innovative leader providing new opportunities for its citizens. We are the first state in the nation where the two political parties have worked together to achieve greater public participation in the political system, our precinct caucuses are currently the spotlight of national attention.

The Iowa legislature has an opportunity to build on this progress. For example, we can develop a reasonable nonpartisan approach to reapportioning the legislature with the goal to encourage citizen participation rather than gaining partisan advantage.

It is evident that innovation is essential to the future well-being of this state and nation. New approaches are needed to solve the problems of energy, transportation and soil conservation.

We have an opportunity to help family farms and business by increasing inheritance tax exemptions. Indexing the inheritance tax should also be seriously considered.

The problems of usury, gifts to public officials, product liability and transportation funding are not going to disappear. We should face these issues and do our best to resolve them.

We have an opportunity this session to set a trend for the 1980's by recognizing and addressing the concerns of Iowans.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Leaves of absence were granted as follows:

Senator Carney for the week on request of Senator Hultman and Senator Kinley for the day on request of Senator Junkins.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION 101

By: Committee on Rules and Administration

- 1 Be It Resolved by the Senate, That the permanent rules
- 2 of the senate for the 1980 session of the sixty-eighth general

3 assembly be amended as follows:

4 Rule 4

5 Sessions of the General Assembly

6 The election of officers, organization, hiring and 7 compensation of employees, and committees of the senate shall 8 carry over from the first to the second regular sessions and 9 to any extraordinary sessions of the same general assembly.

10 All bills and resolutions introduced in the first regular 11 session of a general assembly and all appointments received 12 from the governor for senate confirmation, which are not 13 withdrawn, lost, or indefinitely postponed shall carry over 14 into the second regular session and to any extraordinary session 15 of the same general assembly. Except as provided by this 16 rule, [they shall be automatically referred back to committee] 17 upon the adjournment of the first regular session and any 18 extraordinary session, each bill or resolution shall be 19 automatically referred back to the committee to which it was 20 originally assigned. The secretary of the senate shall publish 21 in the Journal a list of the bills returned to committee under 22 this rule. Within seven days after the first committee meeting 23 after the convening of the second regular session, committees 24 shall either authorize the chair to refer such bills and 25 resolutions to a subcommittee for consideration or report 26 them out to the floor and place them on the calendar. The 27 committee chair shall report to the senate the bill or 28 resolution number and the names of the subcommittee members.

29 Bills and resolutions which have been voted upon on final 30 passage in any session shall remain on the calendar in the

1 same status as at the end of the session at any subsequent 2 regular or extraordinary session.

3 Appointments received from the governor for senate 4 confirmation shall not be returned to committee.

5 Rule 12

6 Form and Withdrawal of Motions, Amendments and Signatures

7 Motions need not be in writing unless required by the pres-8 ident or by the senate. No motion requires a second. Any 9 amendment, motion (including a motion to reconsider), or 10 resolution may be withdrawn by the mover if it has not been 11 amended by the senate and if no amendment is pending. All 12 amendments to bills, resolutions, and reports shall be in 13 writing and filed before being acted upon by the senate.

14 No amendment to the Rules of the Senate, resolution, or 15 bill, or amendment to an amendment or conference committee 16 report shall be considered by the membership of the senate 17 without a copy of said amendment to rule, resolution, bill, 18 amendment to an amendment, or conference committee report 19 being on the desks of the entire membership of the senate

20 prior to consideration.

21 All amendments, reports, petitions or other documents 22 requiring a signature shall have the name typed under the 23 place for the signature. Once a signature is affixed and 24 the document containing the signature filed at the secretary 25 of the senate's desk, it shall not be removed.

26 When an amendment to a main amendment is filed that would 27 negate the effect of the main amendment and thereby leave 28 the bill unchanged, the presiding officer shall have the 29 authority to declare the amendment to the main amendment out 30 of order, subject to an appeal to the full senate.

31 Rule 13

32 Order and Precedence of Motions

33 When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received 34 but to adjourn, to recess, questions of privilege, to lay 35 on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a

1 day certain, to refer, to amend, to postpone indefinitely,
2 to defer, or incidental motions. A substitute is not in order 3 unless it is in the form of a motion to substitute. Such 4 motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are 5 named. No motion to postpone to a day certain, to refer, 6 or postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall be again allowed 7 on the same day with regard to the same question. A motion 8 to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have 9 precedence over all amendments and, if carried, shall be 10 considered equivalent to the rejection of the bill.

11 A motion to strike everything after the enacting clause
12 has precedence over a committee amendment and all other 13 amendments except one to strike the enacting clause.

14 Rule 24

15 Reconsideration

16 When a main motion or main question has been decided by 17 the senate, any senator having voted on the prevailing side 18 may move to reconsider the vote on the same or next legislative 19 day. Motions to reconsider a vote by which a bill or joint 20 resolution was adopted on final passage shall be in writing 21 and filed with the secretary of the senate. A motion to 22 reconsider an amendment to a main motion or main question
23 shall be in writing and [filed with the Secretary of the Senate 24 anytime] taken up for consideration only prior to the 25 disposition of the main question or upon reconsideration of 26 the main question. A constitutional majority is necessary 27 to reconsider a bill or joint resolution. During three 28 legislative days from the date the motion to reconsider a 29 bill or resolution is filed, only the mover may call it up.
30 Thereafter, any senator may call up the motion. If a date 31 for adjournment has been set by resolution of the senate,

32 any senator may call up a motion to reconsider at any time 33 within three days prior to the date set for adjournment.
 34 If the motion to reconsider a bill or resolution prevails, 35 motions to reconsider amendments thereto shall be in order

1 and shall be disposed of without delay.
 2 A motion that any action taken by the senate be reconsidered 3 and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table shall 4 be a single and indivisible motion, known as the double-5 barreled motion, which if carried, shall have the effect 6 of preventing reconsideration unless a motion to take from 7 the table prevails. A constitutional majority is necessary 8 for the double-barreled motion to prevail on a bill or joint 9 resolution. The double-barreled motion can only be made from 10 the floor after the vote is announced and the member who moved 11 the final reading shall have priority in making it.
 12 A motion to reconsider and lay on the table shall have 13 priority over a motion to reconsider if they are both filed 14 on the same legislative day.
 15 In the event that a motion to reconsider is pending at 16 the end of the first session or any extraordinary session 17 of any general assembly, or the general assembly adjourns 18 sine die, and the motion has not been voted upon by the senate, 19 it shall be determined to have failed.

20 Rule 37

21 First Reading and Commitment

22 Upon the first reading of an individual bill or resolution, 23 or a house committee bill or resolution, the president shall 24 refer the bill or resolution to an appropriate standing 25 committee unless otherwise ordered by the senate. If the 26 bill or resolution is a senate committee bill or resolution, 27 the president shall place it on the calendar after its first 28 reading. If the subject of the bill or resolution is not 29 germane to the title of the committee presenting it, the 30 president or the senate may refer it to a committee deemed 31 appropriate.
 32 All bills carrying an appropriation for any purpose or 33 involving the expenditure of state funds shall be referred 34 to the committee on appropriations.
 35 All bills pertaining to the levy, assessment or collection

1 of taxes shall be referred to the committee on ways and means.
 2 Any bill which provides for a new state board, commission,
 3 agency or department or makes separate or autonomous an exist-4 ing state board, commission, agency or department, shall be 5 referred to the committee on state government. This rule

6 shall also apply when such a provision is added to a bill 7 or resolution by amendment adopted by the senate. If the 8 bill or resolution is so referred after being sponsored or 9 reported out by another committee, and if the committee on 10 state government does not report out the bill or resolution 11 within ten legislative days after referral, the bill or 12 resolution shall automatically be restored to the calendar 13 with the same priority it had immediately before referral.

14 Rule 38

15 Rules for Standing Committees

16 The following rules shall govern all standing committees 17 of the senate. Any committee may adopt additional rules which 18 are consistent with these rules:

- 19 1. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum.
- 20 2. The chair of a committee shall refer each bill and 21 resolution to a subcommittee within seven days after the bill 22 or resolution has been referred to the committee. The chair 23 may appoint subcommittees for study of bills and resolutions 24 without calling a meeting of the committee, but the 25 subcommittee must be announced at the next meeting of the 26 committee. No bill or resolution shall be reported out of 27 a committee until the next meeting after the subcommittee 28 is announced, except that the chair of the appropriations 29 committee may make the announcement of the assignment to a 30 subcommittee by placing a notice in the journal. Any bill 31 so assigned by the appropriations committee chair shall be 32 eligible for consideration by the committee upon report of 33 the subcommittee but not sooner than three legislative days 34 following the publication of the announcement in the journal.

35 When a bill or resolution has been assigned to a

1 subcommittee, the chair shall report to the senate the bill
2 or resolution number and the names of the subcommittee members 3 and such reports shall be reported in the journal of the last 4 legislative day of each week.

5 Where standing subcommittees of any committee have been 6 named, the names of the members and the title of the 7 subcommittee shall be published once and thereafter publication 8 of assignments may be made by indicating the title of the 9 subcommittee.

10 3. No bill or resolution shall be considered by a committee 11 until it has been referred to a subcommittee and the 12 subcommittee has made its report unless otherwise ordered 13 by a majority of the members.

14 4. The rules adopted by a committee, including these 15 rules, may be suspended by an affirmative vote of a majority 16 of the members.

17 5. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of 18 a committee is needed to sponsor a committee bill or resolution 19 or to report a bill or resolution out for passage.

20 6. The vote on all bills and resolutions shall be by roll 21 call and a record shall be kept by the secretary.

22 7. No committee, except a conference committee, is 23 authorized to meet when the senate is in session.

24 Rule 39

25 Voting in Committee

26 All committee meetings shall be open at all times. Voting 27 by secret ballot is prohibited. Roll call votes shall be 28 taken in each committee when final action on any bill or 29 resolution is voted, or at the request of a member upon any 30 amendment or motion. All results shall be entered in the 31 minutes which shall be public records. Records of these votes 32 shall be made available by the chair or the committee secretary 33 at any time. This rule also applies to the steering committee 34 and appropriations subcommittees.

35 The committee shall not authorize the introduction of a

1 committee bill or resolution until the members have received 2 final copies of the bill or resolution with amendments 3 incorporated, and typed into proper form by the legislative 4 service bureau, provided that the committee can, by unanimous 5 consent, dispense with this requirement when only technical 6 amendments are necessary to correct the substance of a bill 7 or resolution.

Rule 44

9 Admission to Senate Chamber
10 and Prohibition of Lobbying

11 While the senate is in session and for a period of [ten] 12 fifteen minutes before the convening of any session [until] 13 and fifteen minutes after the daily adjournment, only 14 legislators, employees of the senate, authorized senate 15 interns, immediate families of senators, doctor of the day, 16 minister of the day, and their immediate families and aides 17 to senators shall be allowed in the senate chamber. Employees 18 of the legislative service bureau authorized by its director 19 and employees of the legislative fiscal bureau authorized 20 by its director shall be allowed in the senate chamber. A 21 person or group accompanied by a senator or persons going 22 directly to committee meetings may be admitted during recess.
23 Former legislators not registered as lobbyists in either house
24 shall also be admitted to the senate floor. News reporters 25 shall be permitted to occupy the seats assigned for the press 26 and to go to or from those seats. No other persons shall 27 be allowed on the senate floor without express permission 28 of the presiding officer of the senate. The presiding officer 29 shall require persons normally allowed in the senate chamber,

30 other than senators, to leave the chamber if they are not 31 at that time necessary for the senate's business.

Read first time under Rule 28 and placed on calendar.

COMMITTEE FROM THE HOUSE

A committee from the House appeared and announced that the House was ready to receive the Senate in joint convention.

In accordance with House Concurrent Resolution 101, duly adopted, the Senate proceeded to the House under the direction of the Secretary of the Senate and the Sergeant-at-arms.

JOINT CONVENTION

In accordance with law and House Concurrent Resolution 101, duly adopted, the joint convention was called to order at 10:05 a.m., President Branstad presiding.

Senator Holden moved that the roll call be dispensed with and that the President of the joint convention be authorized to declare a quorum present, which motion prevailed by a voice vote.

President Branstad declared a quorum present and the joint convention duly organized.

Senator Murray moved that a committee of six, three members from the Senate and three members from the House of Representatives, be appointed to notify Governor Ray that the joint convention was ready to receive him.

The motion prevailed by a voice vote and the President appointed as such committee Senators Murray, Baugher and Calhoun on the part of the Senate, and Representatives Hoffmann, Hall and Pope on the part of the House.

The Justices of the Supreme Court and the Judges of the Appellate Court were escorted into the House chamber.

President Branstad introduced the Honorable Howard Baker, United States Senator from Tennessee, and the Honorable Harold Stassen, former Governor from Minnesota, who were present in the House chamber.

The committee waited upon Governor Ray and escorted him to the Speaker's station.

President Branstad then presented Governor Ray, who delivered the following condition of the state message:

MR. PRESIDENT, MR. SPEAKER, MR. CHIEF JUSTICE, JUSTICES AND JUDGES, STATE OFFICIALS, SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES, GUESTS, AND FRIENDS:

This morning I am happy to welcome you all again. As Governor, I am pleased to visit with you again. And, as a friend, I look forward to working with you again.

We start this new session in a new year, in a new decade. The 1970s are history. The 1980s are here and now. They have begun with unrest abroad—and with uncertainty here at home.

We are a people anguished and frustrated over Iran and the Soviet Union—and the inhumanity shown American hostages and the people of Afghanistan.

We are a people angered and upset about inflation—and its impact on our elderly, farmers, working men and women—on all of us.

We are a people alienated and turned off by intrusions into our lives—and the interference we so often encounter.

These things worry us. Some of them hurt us, and we want very much for them to change—for the better.

We want a country that is strong and respected. We want an economy that is sound and productive. Most of all, we want lives that are enriched and charged with purpose. We want to belong, yet we want also to be individuals—free to make our own choices—in our own way.

These are challenges we face together in the 1980s. All ten years are in front of us. We should do so much—and we can, if we so choose. By survey, 79 percent of American teenagers tell us this country is still the land of opportunity. They believe there is hope here. They believe there is a bright future here. I believe they are right. And I can tell you this morning there is no better place to be in the entire country, in the entire world, in the 1980s than right here—between the Mississippi and the Missouri, in this state, this place we call home—Iowa.

The writer, Anthony Harrigan, shared this perception with us last summer: “At a time when American life is full of dislocations and discomforts—gasoline shortages, truckers’ strikes, and perilous economic problems, it is cheering to find communities that offer the good life. Iowa has many of these communities.” He concluded, “. . . there is great beauty in this farming region, and a miracle of productivity unequaled elsewhere in the world.”

What is so good about Iowa—what makes us so proud of Iowa, is that our people strive for excellence. Iowans don’t just go through the motions. Iowans are not satisfied with mediocrity and with a job half done. Iowans want to excel, and they do.

Look at rural Iowans, and you see excellence. Iowa farmers try a little harder—and last year they reaped a billion-and-a-half bushel corn crop, the biggest yield in the history of our state, and we still remained a leader in soybeans and cattle and hog production.

Look at laboring Iowans, and you see excellence. Iowa workers are 25 percent more productive than the national average—and last year that fact, along with other incentives, prompted 100 new companies to locate here, creating more jobs and keeping Iowa’s unemployment rate one of the lowest in the nation.

Look at young Iowans, and you see excellence. Iowa students make an effort to learn from skilled teachers—and last year, 94 percent of Iowa’s schools chalked up test scores at or above the national median, and a recent task force said, “Iowa students may be the best in the nation.”

Look at Iowa events of 1979, and you see excellence. Perfect planning made it possible for Pope John Paul’s visit last October 4 to be a successful, colorful, meaningful, memorable day for us all. Remember also the 45,000 Iowans who picked up millions of bottles and cans during last May’s “Great Iowa Cleanup”—the biggest one-day environmental effort ever.

Look at Iowa developments during 1979, and you see excellence. Consider Iowa's leadership in gasohol sales. We are number one in America. Think about a record 213 entrants in the state's Community Betterment Program. Again, we are number one in America. Reflect on Iowa's enthusiastic efforts during the International Year of the Child. See cities like Marion using, for the first time, our new Urban Revitalization plan to save our downtown areas. And watch the new Iowa Natural Heritage Foundation which we organized last year to save our wetlands, prairies and forest areas.

These are all examples of Iowa excellence—of people volunteering for good causes, of people working with each other, and with government, to make this a better state.

We must keep reaching for excellence in the 1980s—in our lives, in our work, in our communities, and yes, in state government. We here today have a duty to excel to give Iowans the very best, responsive service possible and to improve our good condition.

We can excel with action this year to further streamline Iowa's government. And I ask you to endorse at least ten money-saving ideas from the Governor's Economy Committee.

We can excel with action this year to further enhance Iowa's enviable energy record. And I ask you to approve renewed initiatives for gasohol, solar energy and conservation.

We can excel with action this year to further meet Iowa's human needs. And I ask you to adopt improved programs for the elderly, for the mentally ill, and for other Iowans who deserve our help.

We can excel with action this year to further save Iowa's precious soil. And I ask you to support a robust effort for soil conservation.

These and other sound ideas will work—not for the benefit of government, but for the benefit of the people of this state. These ideas are important. These are relevant. They are timely. And they highlight an agenda that stands for excellence in the 1980s.

GOVERNMENT ECONOMY

There is no greater priority for government than to serve people and to do so effectively. You don't need a bloated bureaucracy to have a democracy. I recognized that when I first took office and named a blue-ribbon panel of Iowa business captains to a Governor's Economy Committee. Seventy percent of their proposals are no longer just ideas—they are laws, policies and procedures saving Iowans $50 million in taxes every year.

Last year, in my inaugural message, I told you I would recruit a second Governor's Economy Committee. I did that, and under the leadership of Marvin Pomerantz, 61 management experts from around this state spent the summer and fall examining the executive branch of government.

I received the economy committee report three weeks ago, as did you. It cites specific ways to achieve annual savings of up to $85 million and one-time savings of $13 million.

Those numbers are significant. This report is significant.

Many of the recommendations I can implement by executive action—and I intend to. Others require more review. But today, I submit ten practical ideas you can and should affirm. The checklist includes:

- * Realigning the Merit Employment Department, the P.E.R. board and other units into a Department of Personnel.

- * Combining Department of Environmental Quality commissions and divisions into a unified structure.

- * Merging the Spanish-Speaking Peoples Commission, the Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, the Council for Children, and the Civil Rights Commission into a Department of Human Rights.

- * Abolishing the Crime Commission and moving its grant and planning activities to the Department of Public Safety.

- * Absorbing the Occupational Safety and Health Review Commission into the Industrial Commissioner's Office.

- * Shifting the Mississippi River Parkway Commission to the Development Commission.

- * Using a weight/value formula to set truck registration fees.

- * Consolidating the state's motor pool and highway safety efforts.

- * Centralizing vehicle theft enforcement in the Department of Public Safety.

- * And, pooling the administration of licensing boards while establishing biennial licensing.

These are openers. These are cost-cutting ideas you can easily approve this year. There might well be others.

The men and women of the Governor's Economy Committee and Iowans who want more efficient, more effective government, join me in urging your action this session, this year.

ENERGY

Of Iowa's many success stories in the '70s, few can match the progress we have made with energy. We began working long before "energy crisis" entered everyone's vocabulary. We began working with the unsettling knowledge that Iowa is 98 percent dependent on outside energy sources. But, we did begin working. We unleashed some talented people who have helped Iowa to log an outstanding energy record:

- We learned how to mine, clean and burn Iowa coal.

- We rebuilt 830 miles of energy-saving railroad branchlines, more than all other states combined.

- We created America's first fuel set-aside.

- We turned the corner and cut consumption of gasoline and natural gas.

- We pioneered gasohol marketing.
- We built solar collectors on the Capitol complex.
- We began an energy management program for state facilities and reduced travel.
- We provided funding for public transit.
- We weatherized 15,000 homes for low-income Iowans.
- We started energy education in our schools.

And this past year, Iowa implemented the bottle and can deposit law. It is a law that works. It is a law that is saving the equivalent of 20 million gallons of gas a year. It is a law that also has eliminated 80 to 90 percent of the litter in our state parks. And, it is a law that will stay on the books.

On deck in 1980 are several energy initiatives which should become law, including four key solar priorities:

- First, $1 million for passive solar home demonstration grants.
- Second, new housing authority bonding for solar homes and weatherization.
- Third, a property tax exemption for passive solar energy systems.
- Fourth, protection of access to sunlight.

In other areas, I recommend reciprocity with other states for traffic violations, and an increase in speeding fines and truck weights to save more fuel.

I also advocate stockpiling of a state energy fuel pool, stricter thermal and lighting efficiency standards, energy audits of all public buildings, life-cycle costing in state purchases, additional gasohol marketing, and a mandate to utilities requiring a conservation ethic.

Iowa is an energy leader today. With these 1980 endeavors, and a decade of solar progress, we can remain an energy leader in 1990.

Iowans who think seriously about our nation's energy shortage join me in urging your action this session, this year.

HUMAN NEEDS

Iowa's elderly people, Iowa's young people, Iowa's handicapped people, Iowa's poor people, and Iowa's troubled people all warrant special concern from government—not sympathy, but empathy.

In Iowa we have had compassion and understanding. We have begun the Elderly Tax Credit, pushed nutrition programs, and made strides in health care. The list goes on and on.

We are trying to meet one of the great tests of government—the test of whether we truly help the people we are here to serve. I am here this morning to say we cannot back off—we have an obligation to do what we can to see that these people are not wiped out as victims of inflation.

That is why today I outline for you a series of recommendations to meet human needs, including:

- Making available in other locations the model elderly service program working so well in Scott County.
- Continuing Eldercare to keep senior Iowans in their homes.
- Reorganizing Iowa's mental health system with a focus on local control, and strong standards for county care facilities.
- Beginning special services for deaf Iowans, and supporting family planning.
- Emphasizing progressive programs for juvenile offenders.
- Assuming county costs for alcohol and drug abuse treatment.
- Supporting a physical fitness program to have healthier Iowans.
- Eliminating the 24-hour notice on nursing home complaint investigations.

In addition to these items and an ongoing study of foster care, I will appoint a special task force to review long-term care for older Iowans and to give us options for the '80s.

Not everyone favors the same emphasis on meeting human needs. But none of us would favor ignoring them—and we will not ignore them.

The families of Iowans who need help and treatment join me in urging your action this session, this year.

SOIL CONSERVATION

Next to our people, Iowa's most valuable asset is its good, rich, black soil—the very first link in the long food chain. Our soil is so vital. Listen to what Pope John Paul II told us last fall at Living History Farms, “the land must be conserved with care since it is intended to be fruitful for generation upon generation.”

What a challenge! What a challenge for you and me as we are stewards of this land.

So let us recognize that if we want to export more grain overseas, we have to stop exporting Iowa soil to the Gulf of Mexico. Topsoil loss not only reduces the productivity of our land, it contributes to the pollution of our water and air.

We acted eight years ago with the nation's first state cost-share soil conservation program. We have steadily expanded that effort in the years since.

Just last week I announced a major “Plant Iowa Program” to plant tens of thousands of new trees this year. That will help curb erosion—and so will more conservation education, planning, tillage, and terracing.

While we cannot do it all, we can extend our commitment to Iowa's soil, to Iowa's agriculture, and indeed to Iowa's future. Thus, today I propose a solid 60 percent boost in soil conservation funding. I consider this a “must do” priority.

Twenty short years from now, in the year 2000, Iowa will have a different Governor. I want that Governor to be able to stand before a legislature, as I stand here today, and say, "The best soil anywhere in the world is here in Iowa." And I want that Governor to say, "Thank goodness Iowans 20 years ago had the wisdom to do something to save the soil."

Iowans who love this land, this priceless resource, and those who consume the food it produces, join me in urging your action this session, this year.

Economy, energy, human needs and soil conservation highlight my program report to you today. But other items also merit your attention.

My agenda looks at the privacy of citizens . . . usury . . . air quality standards . . . fire safety . . . trespass laws . . . drunk driving . . . and a novel way to assist family farmers.

And today I also present proposals concerning . . . open collective bargaining . . . bipartisan reapportionment . . . ethics . . . an Iowa office in the nation's capital . . . and the "Fair Play Plan" to protect local governments. You can read the details on these and other items in the written addendum to my message.

A BALANCED BUDGET

There is a lot more we would like to do for Iowa—but, extra money is scarce. In fact, I received a stack of requests for supplemental funding above and beyond our two-year budget you wisely adopted last session. These requests got a critical examination. And no matter how much we want to do, we cannot do everything.

Iowa's government, like its people, is ravaged by inflation the national administration cannot control. Such drastic and damaging inflation compels us to adjust our earlier budget work. So, when we started to put together this supplemental budget, the first thing we did was set aside an additional $88 million for increased school aid—a generous slice of the pie for education.

In addition, there are some other worthy needs we can afford, and today I ask for:

- * Funds to begin shared services at our mental health institutions and to meet fire safety standards.
- * Construction and renovation at our three universities—Iowa, Iowa State and U.N.I.
- * A State Medical Examiner
- * A new Highway Patrol post in Cedar Rapids.
- * Support for the European trade office.
- * Salary adjustments for state employees, and a hike in IPERS for retired workers.

The fiscal year 1981 budget totals $1.9 billion. It ends with a treasury surplus of $60 million—a responsible minimum to make government work.

The grain embargo, inflation, and other economic hazards complicate precise projections. So I caution you to keep a careful eye on revenue estimates, and a cautious attitude on recurring expenditures.

Iowa's budget is balanced. This state is in the black. And that's where we want it to be!

TAX FAIRNESS

Your work in 1980 will cover the spectrum of issues and interests, each affecting some Iowans. But what you do, and what you do not do with taxes, affects all Iowans, their pocketbooks and the kind of service they get from their government.

This second session follows some dramatic tax actions taken in 1979. While you didn't accept all of my proposals, you agreed with my plan to rebate $50 million to the taxpayers—the biggest tax refund in Iowa history. And, I concurred with your plan to index the income tax and hold down taxflation. The upshot from both: our Iowans were the winners.

In 1979 the personal property tax phase-out was also resumed, representing still more tax relief for Iowans, and it should continue.

In 1980, Iowans hit hard by federally fueled inflation can be inspired by the plan to extend the 50 percent indexing of Iowa tax brackets. And I encourage you to do just that.

There are more tax items you can tackle this year to alter the upward tax trajectory.

I recommend you extend assessment limits now protecting homes and farm lands to other classes of property. Iowa's small main street businesses, and others, deserve consideration. Limits on commercial property, along with industrial and utility, will provide it, and save $19 million in commercial property taxes—real help to renters also. Most of that will be offset by the state increasing school aid, providing additional assistance to cities and counties, and giving larger homestead and ag land tax credits.

I again urge you to repeal the sales tax on machinery and equipment—to give Iowa another incentive, to keep up on the competitive cutting edge, to encourage industrial location and expansion, which will stimulate more jobs for Iowa workers.

Three years ago I advocated the gas tax be set at a percentage of the pump price. While the legislature did not accept that approach, it did increase the tax by three cents. However, that increase has quickly been eclipsed by the rapid 50 percent rise in road building costs.

To address this probe, I ask that you again consider the percentage approach without an immediate increase. This, I believe, is a logical method to maintain Iowa's vital road network.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

During your session last year, you displayed some shrewd judgment. You addressed pressing problems, but you also held down taxes. I trust you will do the same this year. That is what representative government is all about. Certainly, I believe your conscientious work is a better answer than the constitutional amendment now being advanced.

So, although it is well intentioned and supported by good people, I urge you to think twice before accepting this amendment.

Later this year, in November, our citizens will vote on another amendment—to assure equal rights for Iowans. Two general assemblies have now approved this amendment. It has my full backing. And this morning, I call upon Iowans to sustain our state's support for human rights.

Finally, it was once said that "there are no obstacles which human wisdom cannot overcome." Today . . . this year . . . this decade, we face obstacles—but they can be overcome.

We have limits on revenue. And yes, we have limits on time. But there is no limit on our imagination. There is no limit on our ingenuity. There is no limit on the "Iowa Way" of solving problems.

Look back at the decade of the 1970s if you will. Look at how much we accomplished. Look at what we created and at the excitement we enjoyed. Look at each other and at yourself. See how much we have progressed. See how far we have come. See how much we have grown.

And now, look back if you will, just this past month. Look at the Iowa "SHARES" campaign as just one example of what Iowans can do when they put their hearts and minds to a task. Iowans understood the desperate plight of hungry, dying humans halfway around the world. Iowans could have sat back and let others cope with this crisis. They didn't. They clipped their "SHARES" coupons. And, Iowans shared some of their wealth with people we don't even know—people who looked to us as their hope for life itself.

We have discovered again that this is a place with a special spirit. Sensing, feeling, knowing that such a splendid Iowa spirit exists, our mission now is to again act in the very best interests of three million good Iowans. We cannot do any less. We can, if we choose, do a great deal more. Lets do it.

Thank you very much.

GOVERNOR'S RECOMMENDATIONS

GOVERNOR'S ECONOMY COMMITTEE

In their report the Governor's Economy Committee outlined an ambitious plan to make state government more efficient and economical in its delivery of services to the people. We should take advantage of this important contribution of top management advice by the private sector. Among the important legislative recommendations that should be addressed promptly are:

1. Realigning the Merit Employment Department, the P.E.R. Board and other units into a Department of Personnel.
2. Combining Department of Environmental Quality commissions and divisions into a unified structure.
3. Merging the Spanish-Speaking Peoples Commission, the Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, the Council for Children, and the Civil Rights Commission into a Department of Human Rights.
4. Abolishing the Crime Commission and moving its grant and planning activities to the Department of Public Safety.
5. Absorbing the Occupational Safety and Health Review Commission into the Industrial Commissioner's Office.
6. Shifting the Mississippi River Parkway Commission to the Development Commission.
7. Using a weight/value formula to set truck registration fees.
8. Consolidating the state's motor pool and highway safety efforts.
9. Centralizing vehicle theft enforcement in the Department of Public Safety.
10. Pooling the administration of licensing boards while establishing biennial licensing.

SOLAR ENERGY DEMONSTRATION GRANTS

The energy conservation value of passive solar construction techniques in homes can be most effectively demonstrated to those who build, finance and buy the estimated 10,000 new homes sold in Iowa annually. The establishment of a grant program of $1 million will provide a means for builders to substitute passive solar homes for conventional homes in their annual major homeshow. Grants of up to $5,000 on each home to cover the incremental cost of such techniques would be provided. The exposure of energy conservation measures to thousands of attending Iowans will be a large boost to our goal of incorporating passive solar techniques in new homes to achieve a 30 percent savings in nonrenewable energy by 1983 and 50 percent by 1985.

SOLAR PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION

To further encourage passive solar space conditioning and hot water heating, the property tax exemption for active solar energy systems should be extended to passive solar systems for new or newly reconstructed residences.

SOLAR AND WEATHERIZATION HOME LOAN PROGRAM

Legislation should be enacted authorizing the Iowa Housing Finance Authority to issue an additional $50 million in bonds to provide low interest loans to persons to purchase and install active or passive solar systems and weatherization materials in excess of government loan requirements within new or existing housing. This program would be a major funding source to achieve the 1983 and 1985 energy savings goals in new home construction.

SOLAR ACCESS

Hopefully, the General Assembly will complete its consideration of solar access legislation by adopting the conference committee report to insure the usefulness of solar energy devices through voluntarily agreed upon solar access easements and covenants.

INCREASED SPEEDING FINES

The national 55 mile-per-hour speed limit was enacted as a conservation measure after the 1973 oil embargo. Inflation has reduced the deterrent value of our present schedule of speeding fines. It is recommended those fines be increased to $2 for each mile an hour over the limit with a minimum fine of $10 for speeding 1 mph to 10 mph over the limit and $30 for speeds 11 mph to 20 mph over the limit. Speeds 21 mph over and higher should continue to require court appearances. Both safer roads and more economical travel will be the result.

JOINING THE NONRESIDENT VIOLATOR COMPACT

The Nonresident Violator Compact between states assures nonresident motorists the same treatment accorded resident motorists receiving citations for traffic violations in a member state. Loss of license will result until the terms of an out-of-state citation are satisfied. Currently, 16 states, including Indiana and Minnesota, have already adopted the Compact and others have the Compact under active consideration.

HEAVIER TRUCKS

Maximum allowable (standard) gross vehicle weights for trucks should be increased to be consistent with the designed capacity of our highways and the federally required "modified bridge formula" so long as the cost of increased highway damage due to the heavier loads is covered by additional fees. There is not expected to be an increase in truck traffic, but this does offer a possible savings of 8 million gallons of fuel annually.

THERMAL AND LIGHTING EFFICIENCY STANDARDS

Our greatest opportunities for energy conservation are found in space conditioning practices. Those who would choose not to construct efficient buildings deprive others of needed energy resources. The legislature has seen the wisdom of this policy in recent amendments to the building code which now is applicable to a large majority of Iowans. Authority is needed to permit the adoption of realistic thermal and lighting standards for new construction throughout the state.

ENERGY AUDITS OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS

Both for operational efficiency and as an example to others of our determination to be less reliant on uncertain energy resources, we should step up state and federal programs to take careful inventory of our energy usage in the over 6,000 public buildings in Iowa. Through a program of training offered by the Energy Policy Council to institutional and local government personnel, we can readily save $12 million annually through energy conservation which will by far exceed the initial investment required. We hope all local officials would be anxious to take advantage of this offer of technical, energy-saving assistance.

CONSERVATION ETHIC FOR UTILITIES

Projected rates of growth in the demand for electricity by consumers and business will require the equivalent of one new large generating station each of the next 20 years. We have ten existing plants now. The difficulties in assembling such large amounts of investment capital, the lead time in construction, and the need for water and fuel all require us to explore alternative avenues to reduce energy demands toward more gradual increases. Incentives for utilities to promote and participate actively in conservation programs should be clearly stated by law. We recommend a conservation ethic be included in the criteria by which the Iowa State Commerce Commission judges the need for increases in utility rates to pay for new generating capacity.

ENERGY EFFICIENT GOVERNMENT PURCHASING

Thousands of dollars can be saved simply by prudent purchasing of more energy efficient materials and products. We will establish an advisory group composed of state and local purchasing officials and private sector experts on procurement and life-cycle cost analysis. By periodic meetings and with staff support from the Energy Policy Council, opportunities to exchange information and methodology and suggest efficiency standards will be greatly enhanced.

EMERGENCY FUEL POOL

Being able to acquire an emergency supply of fuel oil last May was so valuable that we believe we can protect against certain future energy supply emergencies if the state were to own a small reserve of middle distillate fuels. Without involving any risk, trust fund monies could be used to purchase this proposed emergency fuel pool when backed with a guarantee from the general fund. We urge the legislature to explore the possible alternatives for such funding.

DIRECT APPEAL OF COMMERCE COMMISSION RATE DECISIONS

The advantage of allowing direct appeal of Commerce Commission rate decisions from the Commission to the Supreme Court is as advisable as when it was recommended last year. The costs of this litigation continue to be passed along to rate-payers because of this failure to act.

GASOHOL

Iowans have responded so enthusiastically to gasohol that our state is number one in gasohol sales in the nation. We want to help our grain farmers and encourage the investment in grain alcohol distilling plants. This will contribute to self-sufficiency in energy. We should continue the present level of tax exemption with a $1 million general fund transfer to the road fund plus continued support of Development Commission promotion efforts until next year. At that time the impact of quantity production and federal gasohol policies can be assessed.

STATE WEATHERIZATION PROGRAM

We are weatherizing homes with the use of federal money at the rate of 5,000 homes annually. More can be done, and we are awaiting word from the federal government on the elimination of their unrealistic wage restriction. Their action can eliminate the need for a state initiative.

MENTAL HEALTH REORGANIZATION

We are recommending a reorganization of mental health within the Department of Social Services which will be economical, efficient and will permit a sharing of programs between mental health, mental retardation, corrections, and others. This change is designed to provide increased coordination between communities and institutions, more effective transitions from institutions, and increased state funds for mental health. The structure and funding will enhance local control, will strengthen county care facility standards and will provide incentives for communities to provide local services. The new administration will take effect July, 1980, and the new funding structure in July, 1981.

MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES FOR THE DEAF

Our deaf citizens face not only the same mental and emotional stresses as do those who can hear, but additional ones related to their handicap. Assistance can be provided by the State to assist these people and their families to deal with adjustment problems and with other mental health difficulties through professionally trained staff assigned to the Deaf Services Division of the Health Department.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE FUNDING

We recommend the State assume full funding responsibility for the treatment portion of local substance abuse programs as defined by the Substance Abuse Commission. State financing will provide local property tax relief of $1.7 million, while still retaining a local voice in the administration of alcohol and drug abuse programs. Increased liquor revenue will offset this additional state expense.

ELDERCARE

Continued funding for Eldercare is recommended. The Commission on the Aging will issue a report on the implementation of Eldercare in February at which time program changes can be made if need be.

NURSING HOME REIMBURSEMENT

Inflation and federally mandated minimum-wage increases have put additional stress on Iowa's nursing homes. The current state payment base can be improved and made more current by an annual increase of $2 million in state funds to assure these providers of important health services to our elderly and handicapped.

SHARED SERVICES

To address the problems of convicted offenders with mental illness or retardation, we provide funds for the implementation of shared services at the Clarinda Mental Health Institute.

PHYSICAL FITNESS

Health and fitness contribute much to good productivity and an enjoyable lifestyle. Iowa's businesses and industries are keenly interested in fitness programs for their employees. A State Physical Fitness Coordinator could work with Iowa firms and with schools, communities and retirement centers in designing fitness programs for the benefit of all kinds of Iowans.

INDEXING

The indexing portion of the tax relief bill adopted in 1979 will provide $36 million of tax cuts in FY 81. Our research indicates that because of factors such as the 100 percent deduction of federal income taxes on the state income tax and the great fluctuations in Iowa farm income, there may be some unintended results of full indexing. With the State already committed to additional tax relief of $16 million in the form of extra school aid and the phase-out of the personal property tax during each of the next two years and with research that indicates 50 percent indexing eliminates most taxflation, we recommend extending the indexing bill at its current level of indexing. Two additional years of experience will put us in a much better position to make long-range decisions on indexing.

ASSESSMENT LIMITS

We established important protection for owners of residential and agricultural property with the adoption of limits on the growth of tax valuations in 1977. Because of the property tax shift to other classes of property, we believe it would be timely to place similar assessment limits on commercial, industrial and utility property effective for January 1, 1979, values. We recommend that the State assume the cost of the savings which will result to owners of commercial property and their tenants by additional state aid for schools, increased homestead and ag land tax credits and increased municipal and county assistance. Furthermore, as has always been our belief, people locally should have the authority, if it be their choice, to use optional methods for financing their government services.

REPEAL OF SALES TAX ON MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

Thirty-three of the forty-five states that impose a sales tax exempt all or part of the sale of machinery and equipment used in manufacturing. To be competitive and able to attract new industry and additional job opportunities for Iowans, the sales tax on machinery and equipment should be phased out over a three-year period. The additional investment we can attract as a result of this tax phase-out can be anticipated to compensate for the expected loss of revenue.

SALARIES

The state's biennial salary policy was established in 1979 in conformity with the President's 7 percent wage guidelines. Subsequently, in the face of an annual inflation rate of 13 percent, the President has retreated from those guidelines. Many workers, including federal and local government and school district employees, have received pay increases which are nearer the inflation rate. The State must pay competitively if it is to attract and retain highly skilled and motivated employees. We need to recognize the current, extraordinary circumstances by providing an additional 2 percent salary increase to state and area school employees for the next year. In addition, certain merit classifications have not yet been increased to reflect changing competitive conditions. A centrally administered reclassification fund is proposed to address these high-priority needs.

TITLE XX SUPPLEMENT

The local-purchased service component of the State Title XX plan faces a projected deficit for this fiscal year and the next. Since the federal government has not appropriated any additional funds for Iowa's programs, we are proposing state funds to assist in continuation of these services, which are primarily offered to the developmentally disabled.

CAPITALS

Several important capital needs can be met during the next fiscal year within our limited resources. These include;

Department of Social Services

- major maintenance projects
- correction of life safety deficiencies
- completion of Glenwood renovations
- shared services improvements at Clarinda

Board of Regents

- safety improvements and casualty losses at Iowa State University, the University of Northern Iowa and the Braille and Sight Saving School
- movable equipment for Iowa State University vet medicine remodeling project
- first phase of the speech and dramatic arts classroom building at the University of Iowa
- road and utility renovations to complement the non-state funded Hawkeye Sports Arena at the University of Iowa

Other Departments

- completion of Lucas Building renovation
- completion of Supreme Court renovation

SOIL CONSERVATION

We must take necessary steps to preserve our soil and to challenge, encourage and assist those who have the present responsibility for the land to establish practices to accomplish this goal. Our budget includes a 60 percent increase in our first-in-the-nation soil conservation program to provide additional cost-sharing monies, additional field services for landowners, digitization of soil survey information, and a program of crop loss payments which would encourage summertime construction and, therefore, better utilization of soil-saving construction equipment and personnel.

Soil conservation is an integral portion of comprehensive land use policy. We continue to advocate a local control approach to land use issues while retaining a state perspective for critical areas.

TRESPASS

It is desirable to redefine our current trespass law. Legislation should be adopted to prohibit a person from hunting, fishing or trapping without the permission of the owner or occupant of the land with a serious misdemeanor as the penalty for violation. This would improve landowner/hunter relationships.

AIR QUALITY

This past year the Iowa Air Quality Commission approved revisions to the Iowa State Implementation Plan as required by the Federal Clean Air Act. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has indicated preliminary approval of most of that plan. We successfully sought a change in EPA's unrealistic fugitive dust policy. The Senate's air quality legislation should be finished with the addition of amendments relating to conditional permits and equipment or performance standards. Passage will secure for Iowa a workable air quality policy which balances concern for the environment and people with the need for social and economic growth.

ROAD FUNDING

Inflation, in particular rapidly rising energy and construction costs and reduced gasoline consumption has played havoc with the Department of Transportation's road building program. Our budget supplement recommends an allocation of $1 million from the general fund to the Road Use Tax Fund to replace partially the revenues lost due to the gasohol tax exemption and adoption of a weight/value registration fee for light trucks such as pickups similar to that used for passenger cars. It is proposed that the damage done to highways by additional truck weights be paid for by those vehicles taking advantage of that extra weight. It is also recommended that the current fuel tax be imposed as a "percentage of the pump price."

WASHINGTON, D.C. OFFICE

Many of our budget adjustments this year are due to lost federal funds or shifting federal priorities. The fate of the state portion of federal revenue sharing is precarious. Our financial difficulties are compounded by constant administrative intervention by the federal bureaucracy. The establishment of an Iowa State Office in Washington, D.C., along with the 30 other states that maintain such offices would enhance our position with the federal government.

OPEN PUBLIC COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

The need continues to amend the law governing public access to the public employment collective bargaining process. Voluntary experience has shown the participants and the public benefit from a more comprehensive application of the open meetings law to this vital public sector function.

RIGHTS OF PRIVACY AND PUBLIC DOCUMENTS

The recently issued report of the Citizens Privacy Task Force stated that "the concept (of privacy) is vast and evolving, difficult to precisely define and difficult to preserve." Their legislative recommendations will doubtlessly receive your careful consideration. We will, by executive action, implement a number of the standards set forth in that report and urge all state agencies to review their current rules on the handling of government documents with the Administrative Rules Counsel in the Governor's Office.

REAPPORTIONMENT

The 1980 session will be the last chance to adopt a bipartisan approach for the drawing of congressional and legislative district lines prior to the time the General Assembly must face reapportionment upon completion of the 1980 census. The House has passed reapportionment legislation which will avoid gerrymandering while respecting local political boundaries. Quick action by the Senate can complete this important reform.

FAIR PLAY PLAN

With state limits on property assessment growth and local government budgeting, it is only fair for the state to strive to protect local governments from unexpected and unfunded state-imposed budget increases. While drafting of the fair play plan into statute isn't easy, we need to pursue this protection for local governments. In turn we would welcome the same treatment from the federal government.

ETHICS

Establishing suitable restrictions and guidelines in the bribery and gift statutes remains undone resulting in uncertainty and doubt among well-intentioned public officials. The current bribery statutes should be revised and the gift statute strengthened and clarified.

IPERS BENEFITS INCREASE

Inflation has been especially difficult to bear for those living on pensions and other fixed incomes. With the flexibility the current reserve in the Iowa Public Employees Retirement System (IPERS) trust fund provides, there are several changes in IPERS benefits that can be made to assist future and present retirees as well as remove some current inequities. These are:

—Increase the benefit level for future retirees from 46 percent to 47 percent of the "high-five" average.

—Increase the benefit level for retirees who have retired since January 1, 1976, to 47 percent of the "high-five" average.

—Increase the benefits for retirees who retire prior to 1976 by a flat dollar amount based on years in public service ($.50 per month for each of the first ten years; $1.00 per month for each of the second ten years; $1.50 per month for each of the third ten years).

DRUNK DRIVING

Our roadways continue to be plagued by drunk drivers, one of the great hazards a driver faces. In recent years, 30 percent of all traffic fatalities have been related to the use of alcohol. Revision of the OMVUI statute is necessary to assure that the mandatory two-day jail sentence for such a violation is really mandatory. In addition, presumption of evidence legislation should be pursued.

HOUSING FINANCE AUTHORITY BONDING

There remains a continued need for low-interest loans to low- and moderate-income families and the elderly on fixed incomes to help meet their housing needs. A $250 million increase in the bonding authority of the Iowa Housing Finance Authority will fund the construction of 3,000 single family housing units and 4,000 apartment units for the low-income and elderly. Prompt approval should be given to this request.

FIRE SAFETY

Smoke detectors have proven to be an effective early warning system, and they have saved countless lives. Legislation to require smoke detectors in new and existing apartment houses, hotels, motels and rooming houses could well save more Iowans from the tragic circumstances of a fire at a minimal cost.

FAMILY FARM DEVELOPMENT ACT

Double-digit inflation has increased the cost of farm land, equipment and livestock causing farm operators, particularly beginning farmers, to require ever-increasing credit to finance their operations. Actions by the federal government have further complicated the problem by tightening the money supply and increasing the cost of credit. The Family Farm Development Act is designed to channel funds at reasonable interest rates into the farm credit market to those who need them most. This program would involve existing banks, the Farmers Home Administration guaranteed loan program and a proposed State Authority to issue tax-free agriculture revenue bonds to the public through the municipal bond market. The Family Farm Development Act offers substantial relief to the agricultural credit problem, both for small and medium size ongoing farm operations, and for those who wish to pursue an agricultural career but do not yet have the initial capital to do so.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT FOR TEACHERS

We're past the time when public employees should be required to live within the community or district in which they work. The Senate bill eliminating residency requirements for the teaching profession deserves passage by the House.

USURY

There perhaps has never been a more unsettled time with interest rates than we have seen during the past six months. Some suggest that when interest rates reach 14 to 15 percent on mortgages, people shouldn't borrow. Be that as it may, in a free society individuals who have available advice from realtors and lenders should be free to buy or sell homes as they themselves determine. The federal government has already preempted state usury limits on a temporary basis. That approach seems to be working. Rather than rely on continued federal preemption, we should eliminate the usury limit for residential mortgage loans.

MECHANIC'S LIENS

A measure of protection from misunderstandings by innocent property owners arising under Iowa's mechanic's lien law can be afforded if the General Assembly completes consideration of legislation requiring a supplier of material or labor to give notice to consumers in writing of the possibility of mechanic's lien.

PRODUCTS LIABILITY

Last year we called for the creation of an interim joint underwriting authority to provide basic coverage on products liability and to require specific data from insurance carriers. Such legislation was not forthcoming. In the meantime, we note that policy coverage is now much more available and at a competitive price. The Insurance Commissioner has required all Iowa casualty companies to submit certain data relating to products liability risks. That information will be available after May 1.

Governor Ray was escorted from the House chamber by the committee previously appointed.

On motion of Representative Halvorson from Clayton, the joint convention was dissolved.

APPENDIXANNOUNCEMENT OF INVESTIGATING COMMITTEES FOR GOVERNOR'S APPOINTMENTS

By: Committee on Rules and Administration

1 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives 2 Concurring, That the joint rules of the senate and house for 3 the 1980 session of the sixty-eighth general assembly be 4 amended as follows:

Rule 16

Fiscal Notes

7 A fiscal note shall be attached to any bill or joint 8 resolution which reasonably could have an annual effect of 9 at least one hundred thousand dollars or a combined total 10 effect within five years after enactment of five hundred 11 thousand dollars or more on the aggregate revenues, 12 expenditures or fiscal liability of the state or its 13 subdivisions. This rule does not apply to appropriation 14 measures where the total effect is stated in dollar amounts.

15 The preliminary determination of whether the bill appears 16 to require a fiscal note shall be made by the legislative 17 service bureau which shall indicate that a bill requires a 18 fiscal note by stamping "FISCAL NOTE REQUIRED" prominently 19 on the bill jacket. Upon completion of the bill draft, the 20 legislative service bureau shall immediately send a copy to 21 the legislative fiscal director for his review.

22 When a committee reports a bill to the floor, the committee 23 shall state in the report whether a fiscal note is or is not 24 required.

25 The fiscal note shall be printed on the bill before 26 introduction if practicable; and in any event the secretary 27 of the senate or chief clerk of the house shall attach the 28 fiscal note to the bill when the bill is reported out by a 29 committee.

30 The legislative fiscal director shall prepare the fiscal

1 note within a reasonable time after receiving the request.

2 A copy of the fiscal note shall be filed by the legislative 3 fiscal director, for distribution, with the secretary of the 4 senate or the chief clerk of the house unless within one
 5 legislative day a request for a revised fiscal note is filed 6 with the legislative fiscal director. The legislative fiscal 7 director may request the cooperation of the state comptroller 8 or any state department or agency. If a fiscal note is 9 prepared by the comptroller or any state department or agency 10 at the request of the fiscal director, that fact shall be 11 stated in the note.

12 Each fiscal note shall state in dollars the estimated 13 effect of the bill on the revenues, expenditures, and fiscal 14 liability of the state during each of the first five years 15 after enactment. Sources of funds for expenditures under 16 the bill shall be stated, including federal funds. If the 17 fiscal director cannot make an accurate estimate, he shall 18 state his best available estimate or shall state that no 19 dollar estimate can be made and state concisely the reason.

20 The fiscal note shall be attached or printed in the bill 21 following the explanation or shall be printed in the daily 22 clip sheet.

23 A revised fiscal note may be requested by a committee 24 chairman or a sponsor of the bill if the fiscal effect of 25 the bill has been changed by adoption of an amendment.
 26 However, a request for a revised fiscal note shall not delay 27 action on a bill unless so ordered by the presiding officer 28 of the house in which the bill is under consideration.

29 If a date for adjournment has been set, then a 30 constitutional majority of the house in which the bill is 31 under consideration may waive the fiscal note requirement

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 102

By: Ramsey, Hultman, Drake, Baugher,
Gentleman, Bisenius and Comito

1 Whereas, federal laws and regulations governing 2 the administration of the Title Nineteen (XIX) Medical 3 Assistance program do not penalize individuals who 4 transfer assets to relatives or other persons for the 5 purpose of establishing eligibility for Medical 6 Assistance benefits; and 7 Whereas, this practice is believed to have been 8 followed with some regularity by individuals in this 9 state who are contemplating entering nursing homes and 10 who have real estate or other assets which would make 11 them ineligible for public support through the Medical 12 Assistance program; and 13 Whereas, there are indications that this practice is 14 presently continuing to be followed, with the result 15 that the Medical Assistance program is supporting some 16 nursing home patients whose support should be provided 17 by assets they formerly held; and 18 Whereas, the General Assembly has considered enacting 19 a specific statutory penalty for transfers of assets made 20 in order to establish eligibility for the Medical Assistance 21 program, but has concluded that to do so might be unduly 22 disadvantageous to the state of Iowa and Iowa residents 23 since other states have not and will likely not adopt 24 similar statutes; Now Therefore,
25 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring, That 26 the Congress of the United States is urged to take prompt 27 action to ban in all states the practice of transferring 28 property to relatives or other persons in order to establish 29 eligibility for Medical Assistance benefits; and 30 Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution

1 be sent to the presiding officers of the Senate of the 2 United States, to the Speaker of the House of Repre-
3 sentatives of the United States, to the Secretary of 4 Health, Education and Welfare of the United States, and 5 to each member of Congress from Iowa.

By: Brown

1 Whereas, the United Nations proclaimed 1979 to be 2 the International Year of the Child to promote greater 3 recognition, appreciation, and support for the child-4 ren of the world; and 5 Whereas, children are indeed our most precious and 6 indispensable resource for they not only represent our 7 future, but they also give us a current reflection of 8 valuable traits adults sometimes cover up—honesty, 9 playfulness, affection, respect, love, curiosity, 10 imagination, humor; and 11 Whereas, those characteristics are worthy of positive 12 development in all children for they are valued in all 13 people young and old; and 14 Whereas, the family is the ideal institution to 15 develop positive values and characteristics in all 16 children and adults; and 17 Whereas, a healthily functioning family can provide 18 a divided world a sorely needed model for cooperation, 19 communication, and contentment; and 20 Whereas, attention to the family is an essential 21 follow-up to concerned and appreciative attention to the 22 child; Now Therefore,
 23 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring,
 24 That the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, 25 in its concern and appreciation for children, families, 26 and the future, proclaims the ten years from 1980 through 27 1989 to be celebrated in Iowa as the Decade of the Family.

 2 of the Code requires that the senate committee on 3 ethics shall prepare a code of ethics within thirty 4 days after the commencement of the session; Now
 5 Therefore,
 6 Be It Resolved by the Senate, That the senate code 7 of ethics for the 1979 regular session of the sixty-8 eighth general assembly as amended and adopted on 9 February 8, 1979, is adopted as the senate code of 10 ethics for the 1980 regular session of the sixty-11 eighth general assembly.

Read first time and placed on calendar.

By: Committee on Rules and Administration

1 Be It Resolved by the Senate. That the senate rules as 2 amended and adopted on January 11, 1979, be further amended 3 by striking Rules 58 and 59 and inserting in lieu thereof 4 the following:

5 Rule 58

6 Appointments

7 The secretary of the senate shall maintain a file of all 8 appointments received from the governor for confirmation.
9 The file shall show the date an appointment was received from 10 the governor, whether the appointment letter was read to the 11 senate, whether the nominee has been introduced, and whether 12 a committee report has been filed.

13 INVESTIGATING COMMITTEES. All appointments received from 14 the governor shall be referred to the rules and administration 15 committee by the secretary of the senate on the same day they 16 are read to the senate. The rules and administration committee 17 shall establish an en bloc confirmation calendar which must 18 be filed with the secretary of the senate. Within five (5) 19 legislative days after receiving an appointment, the committee 20 shall either place a nominee on the en bloc confirmation 21 calendar or assign the nominee to an appropriate standing 22 committee for further investigation. If the rules and 23 administration committee fails to take action on a nominee 24 within the five (5) days, the nominee shall automatically 25 be placed on the en bloc confirmation calendar.

26 Within the five (5) legislative days after an appointment 27 has been referred to the rules and administration committee, 28 any ten senators may require that the nominee be assigned 29 to an appropriate standing committee by filing a written, 30 signed request therefor with the chairperson of the rules

1 and administration committee.
2 Within ten (10) legislative days after a standing committee 3 receives an appointment for further investigation, the 4 committee shall conduct an investigation of the nominee and 5 file its report thereon with the secretary of the senate, 6 who shall then place the nominee on the individual confirmation 7 calendar. The failure of a committee to file its report 8 within the prescribed time means that the nominee is to be 9 automatically placed, without recommendation, upon the 10 individual confirmation calendar.
11 Any senator of either the rules and administration committee

12 or any investigating committee may request that a nominee 13 be introduced to the full senate prior to a vote on 14 confirmation of the nominee.

15 HEARINGS. Any member of a committee investigating an 16 appointment may obtain a hearing with the nominee by filing 17 a written request with the chair of the investigating committee 18 within five (5) legislative days after the committee receives 19 the appointment. At the hearing, the nominee may be questioned 20 as to his or her qualifications to fulfill the office to which 21 nominated and further questioned as to his or her viewpoints 22 on issues facing the office to which nominated. The public 23 may, at the discretion of the investigating committee, be 24 permitted to submit oral or written statements as to the 25 qualifications of the nominee.

26 Also, within five (5) days after the investigating committee 27 receives an appointment for investigation, any senator may 28 submit written questions to be answered by the nominee prior 29 to consideration of the nominee's confirmation by the senate.

30 VOTING ON CONFIRMATIONS. Upon the motion of the majority 31 leader or his designee, the nominees on the en bloc 32 confirmation calendar shall be confirmed en bloc by the 33 affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the 34 senate. The journal shall reflect a single roll call 35 accompanied by a statement of the names of those individuals

1 subject to the en bloc confirmation vote.

2 Prior to an en bloc vote, any senator may orally request
 3 an individual vote on any nominee on the en bloc confirmation 4 calendar. The senate shall then vote separately on the 5 nominee.

6 Nominees on the individual confirmation calendar shall 7 be confirmed by a two-thirds vote; however, the senate shall 8 take a separate roll call on each nominee, unless by unanimous 9 consent, it determines to take one vote on all nominees under 10 consideration. In any case, the journal shall reflect a 11 single roll call vote for each nominee.

Read first time and placed on calendar.

 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Iowa

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 104

By: Drake and Robinson

- 1 Whereas, the future service level of Iowa's rail trans-
 2 portation system is uncertain as a result of mergers,
 3 bankruptcies and restructuring of midwestern railroads and 4 the resultant reorganization of financially insolvent
 5 carriers; and
 6 Whereas, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad
 7 Company and the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific
 8 Railroad, which provide about fifty percent of Iowa's 9 trackage and rail service, are in bankruptcy and facing 10 liquidation; and
 11 Whereas, the rail restructuring gives Iowa an opportunity
 12 to give direction to the future of Iowa's rail system to meet 13 users' rail service needs; and
 14 Whereas, continued service in Iowa by the Rock Island and 15 Milwaukee railroads may cease on March 2, 1980; and 16 Whereas, discontinued or interrupted service on essential
 17 branchlines and mainlines would create a direct negative
 18 impact upon the industrial and agricultural sectors of Iowa's 19 economy and its future economic growth; and 20 Whereas, the nationally recognized Iowa branchline financial 21 assistance program created by the sixty-fifth general assembly
 22 has been an effective and successful program for preserving 23 and rehabilitating hundreds of miles of viable branchlines;
 24 and

25 Whereas, substantial progress is being made in the branchline
 26 rehabilitation program, it is imperative that we immediately
 27 begin addressing the heavy backlog of needs on mainlines, 28 yards, terminals, and sidings; and
 29 Whereas, in the restructuring process it is necessary that 30 a safe and efficient mainline system is developed and preserved

1 to connect our viable branchlines to market opportunities
 2 in the south, north, east and west; and
 3 Whereas, the state department of transportation has 4 demonstrated effective leadership in rail planning and 5 closely coordinated their activities with the general
 6 assembly, the United States Congress, federal and state
 7 agencies, shipper groups, rail users, other states and the 8 bankruptcy courts to develop a private sector solution
 9 to the midwest rail crisis; Now Therefore,
 10 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring, That 11 the general assembly express support of the state department 12 of transportation and the direction of its efforts to achieve 13 a sound and rational solution to the midwest rail crisis, and 14 the general assembly supports the financial efforts of 15 federal, state and local officials to develop a rail system 16 capable of providing the service essential to the economic 17 health of Iowa and its citizens; and
 18 Be It Further Resolved, That the general assembly pledges
 19 its support through assistance programs to bring about a viable 20 private sector solution to the midwest rail crisis; and 21 Be It Further Resolved, That the general assembly supports
 22 the state department of transportation's efforts to preserve
 23 service on essential and viable Milwaukee lines and to 24 assure a prompt and orderly transfer of property and service
 25 to successor railroads, and secure extended directed service
 26 by the Interstate Commerce Commission on essential Rock Island 27 lines to assure an orderly transfer of property and service to 28 successor railroads; and
 29 Be It Further Resolved, That the general assembly calls upon
 30 the President of the United States, the United States Congress

1 and the Interstate Commerce Commission to provide for a 2 minimum of a sixty day continuation of directed service on 3 those parts of the Rock Island railroad for which the

RECESS

On motion of Senator Hultman, the Senate recessed until 10:30 a.m.

RECONVENED

REQUEST TO RETURN BILL TO SENATE

Senator Hultman asked and received unanimous consent that the Secretary of the Senate request House File 2072, which was passed by the Senate and messaged to the House on February 4, 1980, be returned to the Senate for a correction to division S—5052B of the amendment by Senator Small adopted by the Senate on February 4, 1980.

The Senate stood at ease until the fall of the gavel.

COMMITTEE FROM THE HOUSE

A committee from the House appeared and announced that the House was ready to receive the Senate in joint convention.

In accordance with House Concurrent Resolution 104, duly adopted, the Senate proceeded to the House under the direction of the Secretary of the Senate and the Sergeant-at-Arms.

JOINT CONVENTION

In accordance with law and concurrent resolution, duly adopted, the joint convention was called to order at 10:57 a.m., President Branstad presiding.

Senator Hultman moved that the roll call be dispensed with and that the President of the joint convention be authorized to declare a quorum present, which motion prevailed by a voice vote.

President Branstad declared a quorum present and the joint convention duly organized.

Senator DeKoster moved that a committee of six, consisting of three members from the Senate and three members from the House, be appointed to notify the Honorable W.W. Reynoldson, Chief Justice of the Iowa Supreme Court, that the joint convention was ready to receive him.

The motion prevailed by a voice vote and the Chair appointed as such committee Senators DeKoster, Ramsey and Rush, on the part of the Senate, and Representatives Shimanek, Patchett and Ritsema, on the part of the House.

The Justices of the Supreme Court and the Judges of the Appellate Court were escorted into the House chamber.

The committee waited upon Chief Justice Reynoldson and escorted him to the speaker's station.

President Branstad then presented Chief Justice Reynoldson, who delivered the following State of the Judiciary Message:

MR. PRESIDENT, MADAM SPEAKER, MEMBERS OF THE SIXTY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY, STATE OFFICIALS, AND FELLOW IOWANS:

A year ago, pursuant to your new enactment now found at Section 684.22 of the 1979 Code, and for the first time in Iowa's history, we appeared here to report to you about the judicial branch of government. We are gratified that you did not promptly repeal that statute. We welcome the opportunity to reappear this morning to continue our examination of judicial department problems and to ask for your wisdom and continued assistance and support in resolving them.

As we closed our remarks last year, we voiced our concern with the erosion of public confidence in courts, and the implications that held for our ongoing experiment in self-government. We noted the enormous tensions in our country, and the challenge of foreign ideologies at war with the spirit of the Declaration of Independence.

For several recent weeks Americans were transfixed by televised scenes of violence and chaos in a country in which local law has broken down and international law is spurned. The faulty justice system which contributed to that revolution, and the total absence of one which now exacerbates the tragedy, should furnish a somber backdrop, however remote, to the study of any judicial system here.

Swinging our focus northward from Iran, we note that for years millions of Russian political and ethnic prisoners died in what Solzhenitsyn in his book The Gulag Archipelago described as Russia's "sewage disposal system." During the same time, Article 125 of the Constitution, or "Fundamental Law," of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics essentially contained those same safeguards of freedom found in our Bill of Rights.

And so one must conclude that it takes more than the force long displayed in Iran, and more than brave words like those in the Russian Constitution, to insure basic freedoms and a stable social structure. We suggest that an independent judiciary whose rulings are respected by the people, and attorneys willing to stand up and defend individual rights, are indispensable in any democratic government.

Although time prohibits going into detail, a national survey and The Des Moines Register's "Iowa Poll" both confirm a degree of public dissatisfaction with the courts. One root cause identified is a deep concern with street crime. One also senses that Iowa's citizens, both rural and urban, attuned to the "QuikTrip" philosophy, simply demand faster and cheaper justice.

The national survey additionally disclosed that the general public had little information about our justice system and how it functions. Thirty-seven percent believe an ACCUSED must prove his or her innocence; sixty-two percent believe the county attorney's task is to DEFEND the accused at the tax payer's expense; seventy-one percent believe the United States Supreme Court can overrule any state court decision.

Returning to the public's concerns relating to the judiciary, and without reflection on any other branch of government, we can hardly assume total responsibility for crime in the streets when for every 1000 reported crimes there are only 153 arrests. And we are sure Iowans do not want justice administered with the speed and efficiency of a lynch mob, nor even the efficiency of justice of Peace Roy Bean, who you will recall was the "law west of the Pecos" at the end of the railroad in Vinegaroon, Texas. His was not the rule of law but the rule of one man, administered ad hoc and sometimes at the business end of a six-shooter.

On the other hand, if our system is to operate with less waste of time and money for litigants, we must study our administrative structure and our personnel requirements. And because no citizen should be expected to value a branch of government he or she does not understand, we should explore methods to furnish that knowledge.

ADMINISTRATIVE STRUCTURE

Last year we traced some of the judicial reforms you implemented in the '60's and '70's—a unified court system, a modern procedure for judicial selection and tenure, the Iowa Court of Appeals. We requested your study and ultimate support in making that unified state court system viable and responsive by centralized STATE funding of the STATE system, with a concomitant consolidated budget procedure, and by bringing the personnel who serve the judicial department under its administration. This concept is not new: Twenty-two state court systems now are totally or substantially state funded.

You reacted with characteristic cooperation and concern to face this issue. On April 17, 1979, responding to the language of nonpartisan Senate Resolution 11, your Legislative Council unanimously voted to create a Court Study Joint Subcommittee comprised of the members of the standing Senate Judiciary Committee and the House Judiciary and Law Enforcement Committee. That Joint Subcommittee has met several times. As a result of its deliberations it requested the Legislative Council to apply for federal funds available through the National Center for State Courts to finance the necessary study, and to engage a private contractor for that purpose. Your Council obtained $57,260 in federal funds and contracted with the Resource Planning Corporation, a firm experienced in conducting judicial studies in other states. Its report is scheduled to be presented to the Council by July 31, 1980.

Several of the itemized GOALS of the study now under way are themselves an indictment of the present statutory administrative and support structure for Iowa's judicial department. A unified state court system in 1980 should be so organized administratively that it quickly could provide the legislature with "the costs which presently are incurred in the operation of the Iowa court system" and "the number and types of personnel who presently serve the . . . system."

Our current fragmented administrative structure was erected in the nineteenth century. In this century it has been cobbled up and subjected to jerry-built additions without any consideration of its overall design and efficiency. Time does not permit us to read aloud a portion of the introduction to the request for study bids formulated by the Joint Subcommittee, summarizing some of the bizarre methods by which judicial personnel presently are obtained and paid. We attach it to this message as an appendix, for the insight it furnishes into the existing administrative morass.

There is more involved here than tax relief for local units of government. There is more at stake than the elimination of tensions between the state court system and elements of local government. Above all is the task of preparing Iowa's judicial system for the challenges of the twenty-first century.

Meanwhile, within budgetary constraints and constitutional and statutory parameters, the judiciary has initiated needed reforms through the Iowa Judicial Planning Committee and the Litigation Cost Study Committee.

1. Iowa Judicial Planning Committee.

In 1978, using available federal funds, we created and staffed the Iowa Judicial Planning Committee. Its members include lay persons, judges, attorneys, and administrators. For the first time we are acquiring the capability to make in-depth analyses of current and potential judicial problems and engage in long-range planning to meet them. Such a resource in some form is an accepted adjunct of every well-organized private enterprise of comparable size and budget.

Projects described in the planning committee's 1980 Judicial Action Plan, now being implemented, include a study to devise improved methods of rapidly assembling and disseminating information necessary to administer the department, a study to develop recommendations for improving the structure and organization of the court system, a separate study to recommend improvements for the magistrate system and experiments with "dispute settlement centers" designed to divert from adversary court proceedings certain controversies which may be resolved by mediation or arbitration.

Our planning committee and staff, and the new studies and experiments now launched, contribute toward an undercurrent of excitement in the judicial department—a sense that our options are not exhausted; that there may be ways to help ease the crushing case loads our trial judges carry; that there may be better conveyances for delivering judicial and related services to Iowa's citizens.

2. Litigation Cost Study Committee.

A year ago we reported the appointment of a blue-ribbon committee to study litigation costs, chaired by former Chief Justice C. Edwin Moore. The judges and the uncompensated lay persons and attorneys on this task force worked long and hard. They reported to the supreme court on September 12, 1979. The court studied the committee's recommendations and on October 15, 1979, issued its report which endorsed most of the task force proposals. We have filed with you the necessary civil and criminal rule amendments, and have forwarded these reports to the chairpersons of your standing judiciary committees, identifying the statutory changes required to implement the approved recommendations.

Generally, the reforms include bringing litigation discovery processes under control. A simplified method of taxing costs, adoption of the Uniform Arbitration Act (except as it would force mandatory arbitration of disputes under contracts generally regarded by courts as adhesion, consumer-type contracts), reduction of jury size, increase in interest rate on judgments, and increase in the small claims jurisdictional amount. Several of these innovations should short-cut administrative procedures and save judicial time in order to serve better your constituents who daily appear in our courtrooms. We urge you to adopt these reforms.

PERSONNEL REQUIREMENTS

In addition to a modern administrative structure, Iowa's citizens are entitled to qualified judges in sufficient number to process their legal business.

1. Quality Of Judges.

No one can compute how many of Iowa's three million citizens must be affected, directly or indirectly, by the almost one-half million legal matters processed each year by Iowa's judicial system. Too infrequently we pause to reflect on the awesome frontline responsibility carried by less than 300 judges and magistrates. They daily bear the emotional trauma of adjudicating child custody disputes, balancing the risks in persons' freedom or incarceration, and applying the intricate calculus of adjudicating property rights and damage claims. They seldom grapple with broad policy concepts like legislators, or with cold records and abstract legal philosophy like appellate judges. Each day they must directly face the troubled people, and people in trouble, whose fate and fortune they determine. They operate continually and gallantly in the eye of legal storms.

By June 30 of this year 27 seasoned Iowa judges will be age 65 or over. In this year and a few following years they will all be replaced. To perform the role we have described, and to replace those judges, Iowa must recruit persons of the same character, intelligence, judgment, sensitivity, stamina, drive, and emotional maturity required to reach the top in the private sectors of the legal profession, or in any business or profession for that matter.

But we suggest that today an attorney with those qualifications may view a judicial appointment with some reservations. That potential applicant must weigh exchanging some measure of personal control over his or her economic destiny for a career in which the salary from July 1, 1977, to January 1, 1980, increased only 8.8 percent while the cost of living mushroomed 25.9 percent. He or she might consider that the judges and magistrates who rode a 1,046,000 mile circuit in fiscal year 1979 to bring justice in Iowa's rural population, subsidized the state because their car operating expenses exceeded the reimbursement allowed under statutory limits.

We know that as time permits you will address these issues, as you have in the past. But in considering ways and means to recruit the best for Iowans, we also suggest your reexamine the concepts in House File 54, adopted by the House last year, relating to district associate judges and judicial magistrates. Full-time magistrates must be attorneys and give up private practice. They have responsible jurisdiction in civil actions and criminal cases. They are often designated as juvenile court judges—making choices affecting the futures of Iowa's children. An enactment like House File 54 would offer recruits the title of district associate judge. It would provide them a minimal tenure in office while for the first time affording citizens the right to vote whether they should be retained. Retirement benefits of these judges would remain under IPERS. While the proposed changes from the present structure are few, they could make the difference in the quality of persons who might be influenced to choose a bench career.

No judicial system can perform better than the quality of its judges. We are proud of the vast majority of our present judges and magistrates who are hardworking, intelligent, conscientious, and concerned jurists. We know you want to maintain that QUALITY.

2. Judicial Force Quantity.

At the same time, you also determine the QUANTITY of Iowa's judicial force. In 1967 you wisely devised a flexible statutory formula, based on population and case filings, to determine the number of district court judges required to process Iowans' legal matters. Since your 1977 amendment freezing those judgeships at 92, civil case filings have climbed 17.8 percent and criminal filings have risen 7.7 percent, for an overall increase in filings of 13.8 percent.

This significant increase in case load entitles the people of Iowa to 15 additional judgeships under the statutory formula, or a total of 107 district court judges. Iowa needs this judge power to provide the speedy justice which deters crime. At the same time, the civil litigation of law-abiding Iowans should not be relegated to the back burner, nor can we eliminate the time required to supervise and expedite probate proceedings and for all other judicial department responsibilities.

In 1977, the year of the judgeship freeze amendment, and in the years which have followed, new legislation which you adopted to meet your constituents' needs has become effective. These legislative innovations have resulted, and will result, in burdensome increases in trial court attention and responsibilities. Some new code provisions which come readily to mind are chapter 229, involuntary hospitalization; chapter 232, juvenile justice act; section 321.215(1), permitting application to district court for temporary restricted driver's license; chapter 455B, department of environmental quality; chapter 553, Iowa competition law; chapter 600, the revised adoption law, and chapter 147, Laws of the 68th General Assembly, the domestic abuse act. All of this legislation ultimately will be challenged, tested, interpreted, and enforced by court actions.

We know you are concerned about taxpayers' dollars and the inherent expense of proposed legislation. Some of those costs may be projected. Others soon appear. But an expense often hidden until it ultimately surfaces in the judgeship formula computation is the cost in terms of additional judge time, and additional judges. That you have been unable to obtain this information from the judicial department IN ADVANCE, in the form of a time-translated-into-expense impact statement, is our shortfall. We intend to rectify it.

For the first time, in all areas of Iowa, judges and magistrates who have volunteered for the task will keep a record of the myriad of duties performed in their daily activities for a three-month period. Our prior statistical reports have provided no empirical evidence of time spent in juvenile, involuntary hospitalization, domestic abuse, probate, pretrial conference, pretrial motion, sentencing and postconviction matters. When the legislation you have under consideration requires a court hearing, we cannot tell you the average length of a hearing in Iowa district court, much less project the length of the particular hearing you contemplate, or estimate the number which will occur each year. Neither can we tell you how many dollars it will cost the taxpayers to fund the expenses of the judicial department in conducting the hearings or trials involved in the proposed enactment. You should have that information.

The Judicial Council, comprised of the chief judge of the Iowa Court of Appeals and the district chief judges, together with our staff, working with the Judicial Planning Committee and utilizing the evidence generated by our volunteer judges and magistrates, will devise the necessary formulae so that, UPON YOUR REQUEST, we can provide you with meaningful judicial impact statements. The same information as it relates to judicial work load may be of interest to you in considering revisions of the statutory judgeship formula and your 1977 freeze amendment.

All of us—you, Governor Ray, and the judiciary—anticipated the Senior Judge Act soon would provide some relief for Iowa's judge shortage. The senior judge is available for 13 weeks of judicial service annually, receives no salary, but his or her retirement compensation will have a limited shelter from the inflation by pro rata escalation with any increase in the salary for the position formerly held. Out of 12 eligible judges retiring prior to December 31, 1979, only Justices Moore and Mason, and Judge James E. Hughes elected senior judge status. Anyone who may have considered the legislete that annual tour of duty. Their reports of judicial service are on file. They held court in various counties in the second and fifth judicial districts, adjudicating equity actions and hearing and deciding motions and applications. However, while each senior judge performs valuable judicial services one-fourth time, the three cannot substitute for one full-time trial judge.

We closed out 1979 with more cases on file in every judicial district—a total of over 4200 more civil and criminal cases pending than were on our dockets at the end of 1978. In view of this case backlog, and the congestion of hearing and probate matters in your trial courts, we know you will move soon to relieve Iowa's citizens from that frustration of justice which results from unresolved controversies and delay in processing important legal matters.

PUBLIC LACK OF KNOWLEDGE OF JUDICIAL SYSTEM

We turn now to a concern we expressed earlier, relating to the public's lack of knowledge of its judicial system and the inevitable erosion of public confidence in the law and the administration of justice. It is basic human nature for people to oppose what they do not understand.

But it is the courtroom crucible which distills truth, that imprints lasting impressions, that sends a clear signal about the law's expectations and the penalties which await law violators. The courtroom is government in action. It can function as a classroom, teaching law and its underlying rationale; it can provide a vivid demonstration of time-tested rules which separate fact from fiction; it can serve as a living laboratory, exploring the application of the substantive laws you enact to a given set of circumstances.

In bygone days when life moved more leisurely, people visited the courtroom. In today's hectic race they go only in response to a subpoena or summons, or when they are directly involved in a legal proceeding.

On November 21, 1979, following the lead of 21 other states and the recommendations of a hardworking Media Advisory Committee, we instituted an experiment to take the courtroom to the people. For one year, under carefully formulated safeguards, the electronic media—television, radio and cameras—will cover Iowa courts, just as the print media and sketch artists have done throughout our history.

Trials with electronic coverage are now in progress. Our media committee is monitoring the experiment, surveying the participants, and will report to us at the year's close. We hope this experiment will be successful—a demonstration that the judiciary and the news media, cooperating, can help Iowans better understand how the judicial branch of their government functions.

CONCLUSION

Before closing we direct your attention to Appendix F, attached to this message, reviewing those improvements we recommended last year which are still pending. An old friend and wise senator told us we simply suggested too many reforms for one session. You will note these items are not for the personal benefit of judges, but for the benefit of Iowans who must use the judicial system. The costs are nonexistent or nominal. In any event, it should be observed here that the same national poll which brought us bad news also brought good news: 74 percent of the public is more willing to spend tax dollars on improving the judiciary than on any other part of the criminal justice system.

A potential item of future business alarms us more. 1980 is the year of the census, triggering the constitutional mandate to reapportion in 1981. One hundred fifty years ago, the young French political philosopher Alexis de Tocqueville, examining America's democracy while the thunder of her revolution still echoed, wrote, "Scarcely any political question arises in the United States that is not resolved, sooner or later, into a judicial question." In Iowa, by constitutional amendment, an ominous political question is converted to a judicial question if your reapportionment is unsuccessful. We implore you to take now the necessary steps to keep that issue from our bench.

In closing, we salute and commend you for the study you have launched, and pledge our full cooperation. We ask you to support the reforms we propose, and we are ready to aid in implementing them.

In the final analysis, the judicial department has no resources unless you provide them. Iowans will hold each of our departments responsible, in varying degrees

—For deterring crime while preserving those basic human rights which distinguish our democracy from dictatorship,

—For accelerating delivery of even-handed justice without shattering those fragile freedoms so vulnerable to impatient haste,

—For effecting economies in legal processes while retaining and recruiting the necessary number of high-quality judges,

—For testing measures to open court operations to Iowans without disrupting trials.

Let us wish each other success in this challenging joint venture.

APPENDIX F

The needs mentioned in the following quoted portions of the Chief Justice's 1979 message have not been addressed:

"1. Judicial Nominating Commissioners.

Members of the Judicial Nominating Commission screen candidates for judgeships and submit nominees for vacancies. This is a vital and often time-consuming duty. We think it simply has been an oversight that you have not provided these commissioners be reimbursed for their mileage, meals and lodging while on state business attending commission meetings. We recommend such reimbursement be provided.

2. Appellate Rules.

We recently met with majority and minority members of your judiciary committees and suggested several technical amendments to statutes which would enable the supreme court, by rule, to conform appellate rules in civil and criminal cases. We recommend adoption of these amendments.

5. Commission On Judicial Qualifications.

This Commission of four lay persons, two lawyers and one judge investigates complaints about judges and makes disciplinary recommendations to the supreme court. It performs an important function. The commission deserves a permanent staff person who could also follow up on complaints. Its jurisdiction should be extended to include complaints against magistrates."

Chief Justice Reynoldson was escorted from the House chamber by the committee previously appointed.

Representative Halvorson from Clayton moved that the joint convention be dissolved, which motion prevailed by a voice vote.

DAVID L. WRAY, Chief Clerk

By: Pellett, Anderson of Audubon, Hansen of O'Brien, Schnekloth, Harbor, Danker, Husak, Corey, Hinkhouse, Lloyd-Jones, Woods, Welsh, Chiodo, Hummel, Lind, Walter, Shull, West, Conlon, Hanson of Delaware, Renken, Smalley, Wells, Pavich, Miller, O'Kane, Gettings, Krewson, Crabb, Connors, Welden, Bennett, Pope, Branstad, Maulsby, Johnson of Linn, Diemer, Egenes, Hullinger, Clark of Lee, Lorenzen, Cochran, Schroeder, Stromer, Johnson of Woodbury, Crawford, Pelton, McKean, Ritsema, Tofte, Shimanek, Holt, Mullins, Spear, Clark of Cerro Gordo, Bruner, De Grott, Menke, Lageschulte, Doyle, Davitt, Avenson and Halvorson of Clayton

- 1 Whereas, the future service level of Iowa's rail trans-
- 2 portation system is uncertain as a result of mergers,
- 3 bankruptcies and restructuring of midwestern railroads and

4 the resultant reorganization of financially insolvent
 5 carriers; and
 6 Whereas, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad
 7 Company and the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific
 8 Railroad, which provide about fifty percent of Iowa's 9 trackage and rail service, are in bankruptcy and facing 10 liquidation; and
 11 Whereas, the rail restructuring gives Iowa an opportunity
 12 to give direction to the future of Iowa's rail system to meet 13 users' rail service needs; and
 14 Whereas, continued service in Iowa by the Rock Island and 15 Milwaukee railroads may cease on March 2, 1980; and 16 Whereas, discontinued or interrupted service on essential
 17 branchlines and mainlines would create a direct negative
 18 impact upon the industrial and agricultural sectors of Iowa's 19 economy and its future economic growth; and
 20 Whereas, the nationally recognized Iowa branchline financial 21 assistance program created by the sixty-fifth general assembly
 22 has been an effective and successful program for preserving
 23 and rehabilitating hundreds of miles of viable branchlines;

1 Whereas, substantial progress is being made in the branchline
 2 rehabilitation program, it is imperative that we immediately
 3 begin addressing the heavy backlog of needs on mainlines,
 4 yards, terminals, and sidings; and
 5 Whereas, in the restructuring process it is necessary that 6 a safe and efficient mainline system is developed and preserved
 7 to connect our viable branchlines to market opportunities
 8 in the south, north, east and west; and
 9 Whereas, the state department of transportation has 10 demonstrated effective leadership in rail planning and 11 closely coordinated their activities with the general
 12 assembly, the United States Congress, federal and state 13 agencies, shipper groups, rail users, other states and the 14 bankruptcy courts to develop a private sector solution
 15 to the midwest rail crisis; Now Therefore,
 16 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate
 17 Concurring, That the general assembly express support of the 18 state department of transportation and the direction of its 19 efforts to achieve a sound and rational solution to the midwest 20 rail crisis, and the general assembly supports the financial 21 efforts of federal, state and local officials to develop a rail 22 system capable of providing the service essential to the economic 23 health of Iowa and its citizens; and
 24 Be It Further Resolved, That the general assembly pledges
 25 its support through the railroad assistance program to help bring about a 26 viable private sector solution to the midwest rail crisis; and

27 Be It Further Resolved, That the general assembly supports
28 the state department of transportation's efforts to preserve
29 service on essential and viable Milwaukee lines and to

1 to successor railroads, and secure extended directed service
2 by the Interstate Commerce Commission on essential and viable 3 Rock Island lines to assure an orderly transfer of property and service to 4 successor railroads; and
5 Be It Further Resolved, That the general assembly calls upon
6 the President of the United States, the United States Congress
7 and the Interstate Commerce Commission to provide for a
8 minimum of a sixty day continuation of directed service on 9 those parts of the Rock Island railroad for which the 10 Trustee has, before March first, begun negotiations.

By: Hultman and Junkins

1 Whereas, House File 2072 provides for a compre-
 2 hensive study of the present property tax structure
 3 and enumerates specific areas of the property tax 4 structure that should be studied; and 5 Whereas, in order that the impact of property taxes

 10 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring,
 11 That the study committee created in House File 2072
 12 shall consider the impact of tax exempt property, 13 particularly but not limited to property owned by the 14 state within political subdivisions, and shall also 15 consider the creation of a tax reimbursement program 16 designed to compensate political subdivisions for the

By: Taylor and Bisenius

- 1 Whereas, of all the land controlled by the federal
- 2 government, over ninety percent is located in thirteen
- 3 western states; and
- 4 Whereas, the historical process of land disposal by
- 5 the federal government which resulted in private
- 6 ownership and productive development of the southern
- 7 and midwest regions of the United States stopped at
- 8 the rocky mountains; and
- 9 Whereas, federal land policies affecting the west
- 10 have become increasingly restrictive in this century,
- 11 culminating with the federal land policy management
- 12 Act of 1976 which declared Congress' intent to hold
- 13 the public lands in federal control in perpetuity; and
- 14 Whereas, at the same time that the public lands
- 15 are restricted from development, the nation is turning

16 to the fossil fuel, solar and geothermal resources of 17 the west to gain energy independence; and 18 Whereas, in the name of environmentalism and con-19 servation, vast areas of the west are being placed in 20 wilderness categories that prevent their exploration 21 for energy and mineral resources or agricultural develop-22 ment; and
23 Whereas, the future development of the communities 24 and economics of the western states is being dictated by 25 Washington, D.C.; and 26 Whereas, national energy demands require that the 27 abundant fuel resources of the west be developed in an 28 orderly and environmentally sound manner; and 29 Whereas, control and management of the public lands by 30 the states will allow responsible development of badly

1 needed energy and mineral resources; Now Therefore,
2 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring,
3 That the general assembly endorses and supports the 4 efforts of the western states known as the "sagebrush 5 rebellion" to gain the equality guaranteed to all 6 states in the Constitution; and 7 Be It Further Resolved, That it is in the national 8 interest that the resources of the west be responsibly 9 developed, and that the development will be most 10 efficient, responsive to local communities and environ-
11 mentally responsible if the unappropriated public lands 12 are placed in state ownership and control; and 13 Be It Further Resolved, That support is specifically 14 extended for the sagebrush rebellion Act which asserts 15 state control over the unappropriated public lands as 16 well as for congressional efforts such as S. 1680, to 17 return the lands to the states; and 18 Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution 19 be forwarded to the president of the United States, the 20 president of the United States senate, the speaker of 21 the house of representatives and to each member of the 22 Congress of the United States; and
23 Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution
24 be forwarded to the presiding officers of the legislatures
25 of the states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, 26 Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, 27 Washington and Wyoming.

Read first time and passed on file.

The bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and the title was agreed to.

COMMITTEE FROM THE HOUSE

A committee from the House appeared and announced that the House was ready to receive the Senate in joint convention.

On motion of Senator Hultman and in accordance with House Concurrent Resolution 108, duly adopted, the Senate proceeded to the House under the direction of the Secretary of the Senate and the Sergeant-at-Arms.

JOINT CONVENTION

In accordance with House Concurrent Resolution 108, duly adopted, the joint convention was called to order, President Branstad presiding.

Senator Hultman moved that the roll call be dispensed with and that the President of the joint convention be authorized to declare a quorum present, which motion prevailed by a voice vote.

President Branstad declared a quorum present, and the joint convention duly organized.

Senator Schwengels moved that a committee of six, three members from the Senate and three members from the House, be appointed to escort the Honorable Arthur A. Neu to the rostrum to deliver an address in observance of Lincoln's Birthday.

The motion prevailed by a voice vote and the President appointed as such committee Senators Carney, Hutchins and Waldstein, on the part of the Senate, and Representatives Crabb, Anderson and Perkins, on the part of the House.

The committee waited upon Mr. Neu and escorted him to the Speaker's station. President Branstad then presented Mr. Neu who addressed the joint convention as follows:

Though I do not purport to be a Lincoln scholar like so many of those who have given these Lincoln Day addresses in the past, still I can't help but have an enduring admiration for Lincoln the President—but perhaps even more for Lincoln the human being. Clearly, the times in which he lived were more dismal than even the greatest pessimist among us would argue that today is. The Union was coming apart. The political process was disintegrating and the war was all about him. He was ridiculed, opposed and in the end assassinated. His army for some time after the war commenced, suffered one defeat after another, and lacked effective leadership until well into the struggle. Lincoln's own people in government were undermining his authority and programs. Foreign governments were seeking to keep the union apart. Clearly, the period of Lincoln's presidency was a great time of stress for the Union—perhaps its greatest crisis.

It might be well for all of us to re-examine the period of the Lincoln Presidency. To do so might give us certain insights into our own era. I have always felt that reading and studying history was more than just a pleasant pasttime. It also gives us a better understanding of history in general so as to enable us to put our own age in perspective. It will also give us a better understanding of what is taking place around us. I don't mean to suggest that answers to the dilemmas we face today will somehow unfold in front of our very eyes, but rather that we can better appreciate that others before us faced difficult circumstances. Hopefully, it will also teach us to be wary of the "quick fix" or "simple solution" that may sound good at the time.

It seems to me at least, that there is an obvious parallel between Lincoln's era and our contemporary sense of crisis. So many commentators see darkness all around us and note the widespread loss of confidence in the vitality of American civilization and in its future. Drift and disillusionment exist; a sense of things going wrong or being out of joint. This really shouldn't be surprising given the events of the sixties and seventies—the assassination of the two Kennedys, of Martin Luther King, Vietnam, Watergate and now the difficult problems of inflation and energy.

We also tend to look back and think that but a few years ago we were invincible and that no nation would dare seize our embassy as did the militants in Iran. Again, it helps to think back to periods still in our lifetime. In the forties we were the undisputed world power with a nuclear monopoly. Yet in the forties Czechoslovakia was subverted by Communists and Chinese Communists were victorious over the Nationalist Chinese. The fifties weren't too much better. In 1952 Nasser triumphed in Egypt; crises in Indochina; the Suez crisis in 1956; the shock of Sputnik in 1957; the toppling of pro-western regimes in Cuba and Iraq in 1958 and Khrushchev's challenges in Berlin. The truth is that we have never been strong enough, nor will we ever be strong enough to control the events of the world. America's current foreign policy problems, though serious, are not graver than problems we have experienced in past moments of our history. They are not necessarily symptomatic of America's decline but rather of the troubled times in which we live and of the global interests we now possess.

All public figures seem to be crying out for more military preparedness in the wake of the events in Iran and Afghanistan. The tacit assumption seems to be that Khomeini and his followers would not have seized the U.S. Embassy nor would Russia have moved into Afghanistan had we a stronger military force. I doubt that to be true. Nonetheless, I feel confident that the kind of increased military spending that seems to be coming will not be examined carefully and that the military will use the funds on increasingly sophisticated weaponry that only an army of PhDs could operate and a nation of bankers could afford. True leadership would see that the proper expenditure of additional funds on weaponry would be for more practical weaponry that could be produced at modest cost, operated by ordinary mortals and be supplied, when deemed necessary, to our allies.

It is not that the crises today are more difficult than at other times in our history, but rather that we don't seem to have any Lincolns around. In fairness to those leading us today, we must remember that Lincoln's greatness was not discerned by his contemporaries, but only became apparent to most people after his death. Nonetheless, people are crying for leadership but so far at least, no one has clearly assumed the role to the satisfaction of the people. Perhaps a Lincoln isn't possible today. Perhaps we so completely expose all the frailties of any person in our national life that even Lincoln himself would be a pathetic caricature of himself.

One of the things I most admire about Lincoln and which is most lacking in our leaders today is that Lincoln was chastened by presidential power—not intoxicated by it. That while he was the consummate politician, he also had a brooding melancholy and fatalism; a sense of the tragic nature of life and, during the Civil War, a remarkable detachment and lack of malice. We need some of those qualities today.

Thank you.

MR. PRESIDENT: I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has on February 20, 1980, adopted the following resolution in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

House Concurrent Resolution 103, a resolution requiring state owned and operated vehicles to henceforth be fueled with gasohol.

By: Pelton of Clinton

- 1 Whereas, the state of Iowa presently imports
- 2 approximately 98% of our energy resources; and

3 Whereas, our nation and state must take all possible 4 actions to reduce our dependence upon foreign sources of 5 energy; and

6 Whereas, a transition to renewable sources of energy, 7 as alternatives to petroleum, is very necessary for energy 8 independence; and

9 Whereas, alcohol, produced from Iowa corn and other 10 biomass, can be utilized as a fuel in intercombustion 11 engines as gasohol; and 12 Whereas, Iowa has been the national leader in the 13 marketing of gasohol, which has proven itself to be an 14 effective, efficient and popular fuel; and

15 Whereas, the utilization of gasohol in motor vehicles
 16 reduces our dependence on imported petroleum and creates a
 17 demand for an Iowa commodity which aids our economy; and

18 Whereas, the state of Iowa should continue to be a 19 national leader in energy conservation through progressive 20 state public policy as we begin to leave the Age of 21 Petroleum; Now Therefore,

22 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the 23 Senate Concurring, That all state owned and operated 24 vehicles shall henceforth be fueled with gasohol, and

25 Be It Further Resolved, That all political subdivisions
 26 in the state of Iowa are urged to adopt policies to utilize 27 gasohol in their vehicle fleet, and

28 Be It Further Resolved, That the Governor of Iowa, 29 the Honorable Robert D. Ray, is urged to issue an

By: Pelton of Clinton
(AS CORRECTED)

1 Whereas, the state of Iowa presently imports approximately 2 98% of our energy resources; and 3 Whereas, our nation and state must take all possible actions 4 to reduce our dependence upon foreign sources of energy; and 5 Whereas, a transition to renewable sources of energy, as 6 alternatives to petroleum, is very necessary for energy 7 independence; and
8 Whereas, alcohol, produced from Iowa corn and other biomass, 9 can be utilized as a fuel in intercombustion engines as 10 gasohol; and 11 Whereas, Iowa has been the national leader in the marketing 12 of gasohol, which has proven itself to be an effective 13 efficient and popular fuel; and 14 Whereas, the utilization of gasohol in motor vehicles
15 reduces our dependence on imported petroleum and creates a
16 demand for an Iowa commodity which aids our economy; and 17 Whereas, the state of Iowa should continue to be a national 18 leader in energy conservation through progressive state public 19 policy as we begin to leave the Age of Petroleum; Now
20 Therefore,
21 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate
22 Concurring, That all state owned and operated vehicles, except 23 diesel powered vehicles, shall henceforth be fueled with 24 gasohol when economically feasible, and

25 Be It Further Resolved, That all political subdivisions
26 in the state of Iowa are urged to adopt policies to utilize 27 gasohol in their vehicle fleet, and 28 Be It Further Resolved, That the Governor of Iowa, the 29 Honorable Robert D. Ray, is urged to issue an executive order 30 to effectuate the intent of this resolution.

By: Committee on Appropriations

- 1 Whereas, chapter two hundred sixty-three A (263A)
- 2 of the Code, provides that the state board of regents
- 3 after authorization by a constitutional majority of
- 4 the general assembly may carry out any project as
- 5 defined in that chapter of the Code at the state
- 6 university of Iowa; and
- 7 Whereas, chapter two hundred sixty-three A (263A)

8 of the Code, authorizes the state board of regents 9 to borrow money and to issue and sell negotiable bonds 10 or notes to pay all or any part of the cost of carrying 11 out such projects at the institution payable solely 12 and only from and secured by an irrevocable pledge 13 of a sufficient portion of the university hospital 14 income; and

15 Whereas, many of the facilities of the hospitals 16 at the state university of Iowa were built more than 17 fifty years ago and are inadequate to meet present 18 and future demands for statewide specialty care and 19 teaching services; and

20 Whereas, three hundred seventy-six beds of the 21 hospitals at the state university of Iowa have been 22 determined by the state department of health to be 23 "nonconforming" and no longer meet modern hospital
24 building codes and standards and detailed studies 25 have shown that upgrading these facilities to modern 26 standards would be prohibitive because of the cost; 27 and

28 Whereas, ninety-one pediatric beds of the three 29 hundred seventy-six nonconforming beds are dispersed 30 throughout the hospital and do not meet present-day

1 standards of a modern tertiary level teaching hospital 2 relating to infection control, patient privacy, and 3 spatial requirements, including parent rooming-in 4 for the optimal delivery of pediatric care; and

5 Whereas, the pediatric and surgical outpatient 6 clinics are located in temporary metal structures 7 that do not conform to codes and standards for patient 8 care areas; and

9 Whereas, to alleviate these conditions, the state 10 board of regents requests authorization to construct 11 an addition to the south of Roy J. Carver Pavilion 12 of approximately one hundred sixty-three thousand 13 gross square feet, to house outpatient clinics and 14 inpatient facilities for ninety-one beds, and to 15 construct supporting mechanical facilities at an 16 estimated total cost of twenty-one million nine hundred 17 forty-eight thousand (21,948,000) dollars of which 18 not more than eighteen million (18,000,000) dollars 19 would be financed by borrowing under the provisions 20 of chapter two hundred sixty-three A (263A) of the 21 Code, and the remainder to be financed by other funds;

22 Now Therefore,

23 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives,
24 The Senate Concurring, That the state board of regents

25 is authorized to construct an addition of one hundred 26 sixty-three thousand gross square feet of floor space,

By: Committee on Appropriations

1 Whereas, the use of federal funds by state agencies 2 has an impact on the state's appropriation process; and

3 Whereas, experiences in Iowa and other states have 4 shown that use of federal funds can result in a level of 5 expenditures for programs that is in excess of that autho-
6 rized by the legislature, thereby creating a distortion 7 or preemption of the legislative prerogative; and

8 Whereas, the federal government has been shifting and is 9 continuing to shift to the state the costs of various 10 federally mandated programs; and

11 Whereas, a comprehensive system for legislative over-12 sight of the use of federal funds does not exist in the 13 state; and

14 Whereas, the General Assembly may better perform its 15 appropriations function if more complete information 16 regarding the extent and impact of the state's use of 17 federal funds is available; Now Therefore,

18 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the 19 Senate Concurring, That the Fiscal Committee is authorized 20 to conduct a study of the impact on the state and its 21 appropriations process of federal funds available to and 22 received by state agencies, for the purpose of determining 23 an effective method for legislative oversight of federal 24 funds. The Legislative Fiscal Bureau shall provide staff

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 113

By: Schwengels, Bergman, Gallagher, Hester, Hulse, Miller of Cerro Gordo, Miller of Marshall, Priebe, Van Gilst and Waldstein

1 Whereas, erosion of soil from cropland in Iowa is 2 occurring at an estimated annual rate of nearly ten 3 tons per acre, and continuation of this rate of soil 4 loss will ultimately be economically disastrous to 5 Iowa agriculture; and 6 Whereas, hearings held around the state during the 7 fall of 1979, by the Soil Conservation Laws Joint Sub-8 committee of the Agriculture and the Natural Resources
9 Committees of the Senate and House of Representatives 10 demonstrated considerable support among farmers and 11 others for greater efforts to end excessive soil erosion, 12 both to preserve the fertility of Iowa cropland and to

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 114

By: Nystrom

1 Whereas, the Governor's Economy Committee '79 has 2 made 386 recommendations designed to provide greater 3 economy in the operation of Iowa state government; and 4 Whereas, in excess of one hundred of those recommenda-5 tions appear to require legislative action and many of 6 the recommendations are extremely complex and require 7 in-depth study and consultation with executive depart-8 ment personnel; and 9 Whereas, the passage of many of the comprehensive 10 recommendations of the Governor's Economy Committee '79, 11 if approved without a detailed study, might create imple-12 mentation problems, particularly in regard to providing 13 proper physical facilities in the case of government 14 reorganization proposals, at a time when the renovation 15 of physical space for executive departments is not yet 16 complete; and
 17 Whereas, the interim period would provide more time
 18 for comprehensive hearings, review of drafts, consulta-19 tion with department personnel, and coordination of 20 proposed bills, in addition to allowing a review of the 21 projected savings; Now Therefore,
 22 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring,
 23 That the Legislative Council is requested to create a
 24 study committee consisting of members of both Houses
 25 representing both political parties for the purpose of 26 reviewing bill drafts designed to carry out the recommenda-27 tions of the Governor's Economy Committee '79, providing 28 for proper hearings in order that those departments affected 29 might be provided adequate opportunity to comment upon the 30 proposals, and in order that a more detailed plan for

- 1 implementation of those recommendations might be
- 2 developed; and
- 3 Be It Further Resolved, That the study committee
- 4 shall make periodic reports to the Legislative Council
- 5 and a final report to the general assembly meeting in
- 6 the year 1981 accompanied by bill drafts designed to
- 7 carry out the recommendations of the study committee.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

The following message was received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT: I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has on February 28, 1980, adopted the following resolution in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

House Concurrent Resolution 114, a resolution requesting the legislative council to create a study committee to study the financial collapse of the southeast Iowa grain elevator.

By: Pellet, Crabb, Husak,
Schroeder, Pope and Chiodo

- 1 Whereas, many farmers and other persons have recently
- 2 suffered severe financial loss because a grain elevator
- 3 did not have sufficient grain to cover outstanding ware-
- 4 house receipts and incurred other debts for which there
- 5 may not be sufficient assets; and
- 6 Whereas, the problems associated with the financial collapse of
- 7 one of the largest grain elevators in southeast Iowa
- 8 are extremely complex and solutions to such problems are
- 9 not readily apparent; and
- 10 Whereas, farmers and other persons want to know what
- 11 can be done to recover their losses and prevent such
- 12 losses in the future; Now Therefore,
- 13 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the
- 14 Senate Concurring, That the legislative council is requested
- 15 to create a study committee consisting of six members of
- 16 the House of Representatives, three representing the House
- 17 committee on agriculture and three representing the House

18 committee on commerce, of which two members from each 19 committee shall represent the majority party and one shall 20 represent the minority party; and six members of the Senate, 21 three representing the Senate committee on agriculture and 22 three representing the Senate committee on commerce, of 23 which two members from each committee shall represent the 24 majority party and one member shall represent the minority 25 party; and

26 Be It Further Resolved, That the study committee shall 27 review the facts which contributed to the financial collapse of the 28 grain elevator, current state and federal laws designed 29 to provide financial protection to consumers, recommenda-30 tions of knowledgeable persons including government

1 officials whose duties relate to administering laws
2 and programs relating to grain elevators and financing;
3 and

4 Be It Further Resolved, That the study committee
5 shall make periodic reports to the legislative council
6 and a final report to the General Assembly meeting in 7 the year 1981 accompanied by bill drafts designed to 8 carry out its recommendations.

By: Committee on Appropriations

- 1 Whereas, the cost to the state of the chronic renal
- 2 disease program administered by the state department of
- 3 health, pursuant to section one hundred thirty-five
- 4 point forty-five (135.45) of the Code has dramatically
- 5 increased during the years of its existence; and
- 6 Whereas, cost containment measures implemented by
- 7 the state department of health appear to be ineffective;
- 8 and
- 9 Whereas, the chronic renal disease program is intended
- i0 to provide lifesaving care for Iowa residents unable to 11 provide for the continuing cost of their care; and 12 Whereas, the financial criteria established by the 13 state department of health appear to provide assistance 14 to individuals who may be able to provide for all or 15 part of the cost of their care; Now Therefore,

 16 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring, 17 That the legislative council direct the legislative 18 fiscal bureau to conduct a program evaluation of the 19 chronic renal disease program and to provide recommenda-20 tions regarding cost containment to the legislative 21 council and the appropriations subcommittee on human 22 resources by December, 1980.

Read first time and placed on calendar.

By: Hutchins and Scott

1 Whereas, the Senate has expressed its concern relat-
 2 ing to the approval process of worker's compensation
 3 insurance rates by passing Senate File 460 which requires 4 certain hearings upon demand prior to approval by the 5 commissioner of insurance of workers' compensation in-6 surance rates; and 7 Whereas, the high costs of securing minimum workers' 8 compensation insurance coverage by agricultural employers 9 have caused concern regarding the lack of workers' com-10 pensation coverage for some agricultural employees and 11 the inability of some agricultural employers to afford 12 the costs of securing workers' compensation coverage for 13 their agricultural employees; and 14 Whereas, the mandatory workers' compensation coverage
 15 required for agricultural employers has been established 16 at the level of one thousand dollars of payroll during 17 the preceding calendar year and does not adequately address 18 the situation of hiring incidental and part-time agri-19 cultural employees; and 20 Whereas, the alternatives to workers' compensation 21 coverage, among which are employer liability for personal 22 injury to employees, mandatory liability insurance
 23 coverage, and mandatory accident or health insurance 24 coverage, have not yet been adequately studied; and 25 Whereas, the interim period would provide more time
 26 for comprehensive study, consultation, and joint prepara-27 tion of legislative proposals; Now Therefore, 28 Be It Resolved by the Senate, That the Legislative 29 Council is requested to create a study committee con-30 sisting of members of both Houses representing both

1 political parties for the purpose of studying the problems
2 of workers' compensation insurance coverage and costs
3 of such coverage, especially minimum workers' compensation
4 insurance coverage costs, and recommending any necessary 5 legislative changes; and
6 Be It Further Resolved, That the study committee make 7 periodic reports to the Legislative Council and a final
8 report to the general assembly meeting in the year 1981
9 accompanied by bill drafts designed to implement any recom-
10 mendations of the study committee.

Read first time and passed on file.

Baugher, Murray, Hutchins,
Palmer and Kinley

- 1 Whereas, the general assembly appropriates funds
- 2 from the general fund of the state annually for the
- 3 operation of the area schools, and for the fiscal
- 4 year commencing July 1, 1980 the appropriated amount
- 5 exceeded fifty million dollars; and
- 6 Whereas, the department of public instruction is
- 7 given the responsibility of allocating the state funds
- 8 to the various area schools; and

- 12 individual area schools; Now Therefore,
- 13 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring,
- 14 That the department of public instruction is directed to 15 review the existing formula along with various alterna-16 tive methods of allocation, and shall report its findings 17 and recommendations to the appropriate joint legislative 18 subcommittees of the committees on appropriations not 19 later than January 15, 1981. Additional factors which 20 the department shall consider are the actual enrollment 21 growth or decline, changes in the enrollment figure 22 between the base year used in the formula and the current 23 year, use of actual full-time equivalent enrollment cost 24 per program at each of the merged area schools rather 25 than a statewide average, and any consistency in allow-

By: Yenger

- 1 Whereas, the Senate has expressed concern that the
- 2 moneys which are wagered on popular sporting events
- 3 such as basketball, baseball, football, and both horse
- 4 and dog races, are considerable; and
- 5 Whereas, the Iowa division of criminal investigation
- 6 has estimated that approximately four to five million
- 7 dollars are illegally wagered in Iowa per month; and
- 8 Whereas, research of gambling law enforcement practices
- 9 by state and local law enforcement agencies indicate that

10 most local police departments cannot effectively deal 11 with large gambling operations, and that enforcement 12 efforts are often directed against low-level gambling 13 violators while high-level operators remain untouched;
 14 and
 15 Whereas, lack of resources, inadequate legal tools, 16 noncooperation by the courts, interjurisdictional problems
 17 and corruption are the principal roadblocks to effective 18 gambling law enforcement; and 19 Whereas, gambling activity, even though illegal, may 20 be the largest untaxed business occurring in Iowa; Now 21 Therefore,
 22 Be It Resolved by the Senate, That the Iowa Senate
 23 requests that the legislative council establish an interim
 24 study committee, consisting of members of both houses
 25 representing both political parties for the purpose of 26 studying the implementation of effective laws dealing 27 with illegal gambling activities; and 28 Be It Further Resolved, That the study committee make 29 periodic reports to the legislative council and a final 30 report to the general assembly meeting in the year 1981,

- 1 accompanied with bill drafts designed to implement
- 2 any recommendations of the study committee.

Read first time and referred to the committee on Rules and Administration.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rush rose on a point of order to question if Senate Resolution 108 had an explanation attached.

The Chair ruled it did not have an explanation attached like those attached to a bill, but that such an explanation is not necessary for a concurrent or simple resolution under Senate Rule 29 for the following reasons: (1) precedent in the Senate that it is not necessary and (2) the explanation of a simple or a concurrent resolution is set forth normally in considerable detail in the Whereas clauses that precede the resolution clauses, and sometimes even in the resolution clauses themselves. A further separate explanation would be repetitive and therefore unnecessary.

By: Drake, Hutchins, Junkins and Hultman

- 1 Whereas, the basic economy of the state of Iowa
- 2 is dependent upon railroad transportation; and
- 3 Whereas, it is critical that rail shipments both
- 4 inbound and outbound not be interrupted for even a
- 5 short period of time; and
- 6 Whereas, a partial disruption or reduction of rail
- 7 service will result in severe economic hardship to
- 8 many individuals and corporations in Iowa; and
- 9 Whereas, the economy of the nation will be adversely
- 10 affected by the reduced ability of Iowa to continue
- 11 contributing to the reduction of the deficit level in
- 12 balance of payments; and
- 13 Whereas, the directed service carrier (Kansas City
- 14 Terminal Railway) is presently maximizing rail service
- 15 in Iowa and has done a commendable job serving the
- 16 "Heartland Core" as well as providing the flexibility
- 17 required beyond Iowa's borders; and
- 18 Whereas, the initiation of temporary service by
- 19 another carrier will result in diminution of service
- 20 and further complicate operational problems unneces-
- 21 sarily; and
- 22 Whereas, labor protection agreements have been signed
- 23 covering employees of bankrupt carriers hired by a
- 24 successor carrier, and legislation, already passed by
- 25 the Senate, is being progressed in the United States
- 26 Congress to protect employees of bankrupt carriers not
- 27 hired by a successor carrier; and
- 28 Whereas, this legislation will encourage potential
- 29 successor carriers to finalize offers to buy Rock Island

30 trackage; Now Therefore,

1 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House
2 Concurring, That the Iowa General Assembly urges
3 the United States Congress to legislate an extension of 4 directed service operations to be continued by the 5 current operator (Kansas City Terminal Railway), for a
6 period of at least forty-five days beyond the expiration 7 of the presently authorized period, which expires on 8 March 23, 1980, and to provide the necessary funding 9 therefor, in order to maintain the present level and 10 frequency of service keeping the "Heartland Core" in 11 Iowa and the extensions beyond Iowa to Minneapolis,
12 St. Paul, Chicago, and Kansas City, intact; and 13 Be It Further Resolved, That the Iowa General
14 Assembly urges that the completed legislation be 15 effected without delay to prevent the service reduc-
16 tion and economic harm which will result if directed 17 service operations are not continued; and 18 Be It Further Resolved, That the secretary of the state
19 of Iowa is directed to send copies of this resolution
20 to the speaker and the clerk of the United States
21 house of representatives, the president and the secre-
22 tary of the United States senate, and each member of the 23 Iowa congressional delegation.

Read first time and referred to the committee on Rules and Administration.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

The following message was received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT: I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has on March 20, 1980, adopted the following resolution in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

House Concurrent Resolution 119, a resolution urging the United States Congress to legislate an extension of directed service operations to be continued by the Kansas City Terminal Railway for a period of at least forty-five days beyond expiration date.

By: Egenes, Davitt, Pellett, Lageschulte,
Anderson of Audubon and Howell

1 Whereas, the basic economy of the state of Iowa
2 is dependent upon railroad transportation; and
3 Whereas, it is critical that rail shipments both
4 inbound and outbound not be interrupted for even a
5 short period of time; and
6 Whereas, a partial disruption or reduction of rail
7 service will result in severe economic hardship to 8 many individuals and corporations in Iowa; and
9 Whereas, the economy of the nation will be adversely
10 affected by the reduced ability of Iowa to continue 11 contributing to the reduction of the deficit level in 12 balance of payments; and
13 Whereas, the directed service carrier (Kansas City
14 Terminal Railway) is presently maximizing rail service
15 in Iowa and has done a commendable job serving the 16 "Heartland Core" as well as providing the flexibility
17 required beyond Iowa's borders; and
18 Whereas, the initiation of temporary service by 19 another carrier will result in diminution of service
20 and further complicate operational problems unneces-
21 sarily; and
22 Whereas, labor protection agreements have been signed
23 covering employees of bankrupt carriers hired by a
24 successor carrier, and legislation, already passed by 25 the Senate, is being progressed in the United States
26 Congress to protect employees of bankrupt carriers not 27 hired by a successor carrier; and
28 Whereas, this legislation will encourage potential
29 successor carriers to finalize offers to buy Rock Island
30 trackage; Now Therefore,

1 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the
2 Senate Concurring, That the Iowa general assembly urges
3 the United States Congress to legislate an extension of 4 directed service operations to be continued by the
5 current operator (Kansas City Terminal Railway), for a
6 period of at least forty-five days beyond the expiration 7 of the presently authorized period, which expires on 8 March 23, 1980, and to provide the necessary funding 9 therefore, in order to maintain the present level and 10 frequency of service keeping the "Heartland Core" in

11 Iowa and the extensions beyond Iowa to Minneapolis,
12 St. Paul, Chicago, and Kansas City, intact; and 13 Be It Further Resolved, That the Iowa general
14 assembly urges that the completed legislation be
15 effected without delay to prevent the service reduc-
16 tion and economic harm which will result if directed 17 service operations are not continued; and 18 Be It Further Resolved, That the secretary of state
19 of Iowa is directed to send copies of this resolution
20 to the speaker and the clerk of the United States
21 house of representatives, the president and the secre-
22 tary of the United States senate, and each member of the 23 Iowa congressional delegation.

Read first time and referred to the committee on Rules and Administration.

45 The majority shall not include any member who has 46 a conflict of interest and a statement by a member 47 of a conflict of interest is conclusive for this 48 purpose. A vacancy in the membership does not impair

50 duties of the board.

1 4. Appointed members of the board are entitled 2 to receive forty dollars per diem for each day spent

29 Sec. 4. NEW SECTION. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS. The 30 general assembly finds and declares as follows:

31 1. The establishment of the program is in all 32 respects for the benefit of the people of the state 33 of Iowa, for the improvement of their health and 34 welfare and for the promotion of the economy, which 35 are public purposes.

36 2. The board will be performing an essential 37 governmental function in the exercise of the powers 38 and duties conferred by this Act.

39 3. There exists a serious problem in this state 40 regarding the ability of nonestablished farmers to 41 acquire agricultural land and improvements and 42 depreciable agricultural property in order to enter 43 farming and the ability of nonestablished 44 business persons to acquire business property in order 45 to start a business.

46 4. This barrier to entry into farming is conducive 47 to consolidation of acreage of agricultural land with 48 fewer individuals resulting in a grave threat to the 49 traditional family farm.

50 5. This barrier to starting a business is conductive

1 to the continuing expansion of very large businesses
2 and the decrease in number of smaller independent 3 businesses resulting in a grave threat to the 4 traditional family business.

5 6. These conditions result in a loss in population, 6 unemployment and a movement of persons from rural 7 communities to urban areas accompanied by added costs 8 to communities for creation of new public facilities 9 and services.

10 7. One major cause of this condition has been 11 recurrent shortages of funds in private channels and 12 the high interest cost of borrowing.

13 8. The ordinary operations of private enterprise
14 and of existing programs of the federal government 15 have not in the past corrected these conditions.

16 9. A stable supply of adequate funds for 17 agricultural and business financing is required to 18 encourage beginning farmers and businesspersons in 19 an orderly and sustained manner and to reduce the 20 problems described in this section.

21 10. Article nine (IX), section three (3), of the 22 Constitution of the State of Iowa requires that, "The 23 General Assembly shall encourage, by all suitable 24 means, the promotion of intellectual, scientific, 25 moral, and agricultural improvement", and agricultural 26 improvement and the public good are served by a policy 27 of facilitating access to capital by beginning farmers 28 unable to obtain capital elsewhere in order to 29 preserve, encourage and protect the family farm.

30 11. It is necessary to create a family enterprise 31 development program to encourage ownership and 32 operation of farms by beginning farmers and to 33 encourage ownership and operation of businesses by 34 beginning businesspersons by providing purchase money 35 loans to beginning farmers and businesspersons who 36 are not able to obtain adequate capital elsewhere 37 and to lower costs through the use of public financing.

38 12. All of the purposes stated in this section 39 are public purposes and uses for which public moneys 40 may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned or granted.

41 Sec. 5. NEW SECTION. GUIDING PRINCIPLES. In 42 the performance of the duties, implementation of the 43 powers, and selection of specific projects to receive 44 assistance under this Act, the board shall be guided 45 by the following principles:

46 1. The board shall not become an owner of real 47 or depreciable agricultural property or business
48 property, except on a temporary basis where necessary 49 in order to implement the projects, to protect its 50 investments by means of foreclosure or other means,

1 or to facilitate transfer of real or depreciable
2 agricultural property for the use of beginning farmers 3 or the transfer of business property for use of 4 beginning businesspersons.

5 2. The board shall exercise diligence and care 6 in selection of projects to receive assistance and 7 shall apply customary and acceptable business and 8 lending standards in selection and subsequent 9 implementation of the projects. The board may delegate 10 primary responsibility for determination and 11 implementation of the projects to any federal 12 governmental agency or instrumentality or state agency 13 which assumes any obligation to repay the loan, either 14 directly or by insurance or guarantee.

15 Sec. 6. NEW SECTION. GENERAL POWERS. The board 16 has all of the powers needed to carry out the program, 17 including but not limited to the power to:

21 3. Make and execute agreements, contracts and 28 public agencies and state agencies may enter into 29 contracts and otherwise cooperate with the board.

37 on any group of mortgage or secured loans, against 38 any loss in connection with the operations and property 39 interests of the program.

41 services.

42 7. Subject to any agreement with bondholders or

43 noteholders, invest or deposit moneys of the program

 46 (452), four hundred fifty-three (453) or four-hundred 47 fifty-four (454) of the Code.
 48 8. Accept appropriations, gifts, grants, loans,
 49 or other aid from public or private entities. A

 12 agronomists, soil conservationists, engineers, 13 attorneys, accountants, construction and finance
 14 experts, and other advisors or enter into contracts 15 or agreements for such services with local, state

 17 12. Make, alter and repeal rules consistent with 18 the provisions of this Act, and subject to chapter 19 seventeen A (17A) of the Code.
 20 Sec. 7. NEW SECTION. ANNUAL REPORT.

1 and improvements and depreciable agricultural property

45 be untrue when made or in the event of a breach of 46 warranty, the mortgage lender shall, at the option 47 of the board, repurchase the loan for the original 48 purchase price adjusted for amounts subsequently paid 49 on it, as the board determines.

33 purpose of refunding outstanding bonds or notes are 34 applied to the purchase or retirement of outstanding 35 bonds or notes or the redemption of outstanding bonds 36 or notes, the proceeds may be placed in escrow and 37 be invested and reinvested in accordance with the 38 provisions of this Act. The interest, income and

50 6. The board may issue negotiable bond anticipation

1 notes and may renew them from time to time but the 2 maximum maturity of the notes, including renewals, 3 shall not exceed ten years from the date of issue 4 of the original notes. Notes are payable from any 5 available moneys of the program not otherwise pledged 6 or from the proceeds of the sale of bonds in 7 anticipation of which the notes were issued. Notes
8 may be issued for any purpose of the program. Notes 9 shall be issued in the same manner as bonds and notes

10 and the resolution authorizing them may contain any 11 provisions, conditions or limitations, not inconsistent 12 with the provisions of this subsection, which the 13 bonds or a bond resolution may contain. Notes may 14 be sold at public or private sale. In case of default 15 on notes or violation of any obligations of the board 16 to the noteholders, the noteholders shall have all 17 the remedies provided in this Act for bondholders.
18 Notes shall be as fully negotiable as bonds of the 19 program.

21 board, including without limitation each bond 22 resolution, indenture of trust or similar agreement,

25 or other action under article nine (9) of the uniform 26 commercial code, or any other law of the state shall

33 8. The members of the board and any person 34 executing bonds, notes or other obligations are not 35 liable personally on the bonds, notes or other 36 obligations or subject to personal liability or 37 accountability by reason of the issuance of the bonds 38 or notes.

39 9. The board shall publish a notice of intention 40 to issue bonds or notes in a newspaper published and 41 of general circulation in the state. The notice shall 42 include a statement of the maximum amount of bonds 43 or notes proposed to be issued, and in general, what 44 net revenues will be pledged to pay the bonds or notes 45 and interest thereon. An action shall not be brought 46 questioning the legality of the bonds or notes or 47 the power of the board to issue the bonds or notes
48 or to the legality of any proceedings in connection 49 with the authorization or issuance of the bonds or 50 notes after sixty days from the date of publication

2 Sec. 16. NEW SECTION. RESERVE FUNDS AND 3 APPROPRIATIONS.

4 1. The board may create and establish for the 5 program one or more special funds, each to be known 6 as a "bond reserve fund" and shall pay into each bond

7 reserve fund any moneys appropriated and made available 8 by the state for the purpose of the fund, any proceeds 9 of sale of notes or bonds to the extent provided in 10 the bond resolutions of the board authorizing their 11 issuance and any other moneys which are available 12 to the board for the purpose of the fund from any 13 other sources. Moneys held in a bond reserve fund, 14 except as otherwise provided in this Act, shall be 15 used as required solely for the payment of the 16 principal of bonds secured in whole or in part by 17 the fund or of the sinking fund payments with respect 18 to the bonds, the purchase or redemption of the bonds, 19 the payment of interest on the bonds or the payments 20 of any redemption premium required to be paid when 21 the bonds are redeemed prior to maturity.

22 2. Moneys in a bond reserve fund shall not be 23 withdrawn from it in an amount that will reduce the 24 amount of the fund to less than the bond reserve fund 25 requirement established for the fund, as provided 26 in this section, except for the purpose of making 27 payment when due of principal, interest, redemption
28 premiums and the sinking fund payments with respect 29 to the bonds for the payment of which other moneys 30 of the program are not available. Any income or 31 interest earned by, or incremental to, a bond reserve 32 fund due to the investment of it may be transferred 33 by the board to other funds or accounts of the program 34 to the extent the transfer does not reduce the amount 35 of that bond reserve fund below the bond reserve fund 36 requirement for it.

37 3. The board shall not at any time issue bonds, 38 secured in whole or in part by a bond reserve fund 39 if, upon the issuance of the bonds, the amount in 40 the bond reserve fund will be less than the bond 41 reserve fund requirement for the fund, unless the 42 board at the time of issuance of the bonds deposits 43 in the fund from the proceeds of the bonds issued 44 or from other sources an amount which, together with 45 the amount then in the fund will not be less than 46 the bond reserve fund requirement for the fund. For 47 the purposes of this section, the term "bond reserve 48 fund requirement" means, as of any particular date 49 of computation, an amount of money, as provided in 50 the bond resolutions of the board authorizing the

1 bonds with respect to which the fund is established, 2 equal to not more than ten percent of the outstanding 3 principal amount of bonds secured by the fund.

4 4. To assure the continued operation and solvency
5 of the board for the carrying out of its purposes, 6 provision is made in subsection one (1) of this section 7 for the accumulation in each bond reserve fund of 8 an amount equal to the bond reserve fund requirement
9 for the fund. In order further to assure maintenance 10 of the bond reserve funds, the board shall, on or 11 before July first of each calendar year, make and 12 deliver to the governor a certificate stating the 13 sum, if any, required to restore each bond reserve 14 fund to its bond reserve fund requirement. Within 15 thirty days after the beginning of the session of 16 the general assembly next following the delivery of 17 the certificate, the governor may submit to both 18 houses printed copies of a budget including any sum 19 required to restore each bond reserve fund to its 20 bond reserve fund requirement. Sums appropriated 21 by the general assembly and paid to the board pursuant 22 to this section shall be deposited by the board in 23 the applicable bond reserve fund.

24 5. Amounts paid over to the board by the state 25 pursuant to the provisions of this section shall 26 constitute and be accounted for as advances by the 27 state to the program and, subject to the rights of 28 the holders of any bonds or notes of the program, 29 shall be repaid to the state without interest from 30 all available operating revenues of the program in 31 excess of amounts required for the payment of bonds, 32 notes or obligations of the program, the bond reserve 33 fund and operating expenses.

34 6. The board shall cause to be delivered to the 35 legislative fiscal committee within ninety days of 36 the close of the fiscal year an annual report certified 37 by an independent certified public accountant, who 38 may be the accountant or a member of the firm of 39 accountants who regularly audits the books and accounts 40 of the program. In the event that the principal 41 amount of any bonds or notes deposited in a bond 42 reserve fund is withdrawn for payment of principal 43 or interest, reducing the amount of that fund to less 44 than the bond reserve fund requirement, the board 45 shall immediately notify the general assembly of this 46 event and shall take steps to restore the fund to 47 its bond reserve fund requirement from any amounts 48 available, other than principal of a bond issue, which 49 are not pledged to the payment of other bonds or 50 notes.

1 Sec. 17. NEW SECTION. REMEDIES OF BONDHOLDERS
2 AND NOTEHOLDERS.

3 1. If the board defaults in the payment of 4 principal or interest on an issue of bonds or notes
5 at maturity or upon call for redemption and the default 6 continues for a period of thirty days or if the board 7 fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of 8 this Act, or defaults in an agreement made with the 9 holders of an issue of bonds or notes, the holders 10 of twenty-five percent in aggregate principal amount 11 of bonds or notes of the issue then outstanding, by 12 instrument filed in the office of the clerk of Polk 13 county and proved or acknowledged in the same manner 14 as a deed to be recorded, may appoint a trustee to 15 represent the holders of the bonds or notes for the 16 purposes provided in this section.

17 2. The board or any trustee appointed under the 18 indenture under which the bonds are issued may, but 19 upon written request of the holders of twenty-five 20 percent in aggregate principal amount of the issue 21 of bonds or notes then outstanding shall:

22 a. Enforce all rights of the bondholders or 23 noteholders including the right to require the board 24 to carry out the agreements with the holders and to 25 perform the duties under this Act.

26 b. Bring suit upon the bonds or notes.

27 c. By action require the board to account as if 28 it were the trustee of an express trust for the 29 holders.

30 d. By action enjoin any acts or things which are 31 unlawful or in violation of the rights of the holders.

32 e. Declare all the bonds or notes due and payable 33 and if all defaults are made good then with the consent 34 of the holders of twenty-five percent of the aggregate 35 principal amount of the issue of bonds or notes then 36 outstanding, annul the declaration and its 37 consequences.

38 3. The trustee shall also have all powers necessary 39 or appropriate for the exercise of functions
40 specifically set forth or incident to the general 41 representation of bondholders or noteholders in the 42 enforcement and protection of their rights.

43 4. Before declaring the principal of bonds or 44 notes due and payable, the trustee shall first give 45 thirty days notice in writing to the governor, to 46 the board and to the attorney general of the state.

47 5. The district court has jurisdiction of any 48 action by the trustee on behalf of bondholders or

49 noteholders. The venue of the action shall be in 50 Polk county.

35 holders of bonds or notes as to the custody, 36 collection, security, investment and payment of moneys
37 of the program, of moneys held in trust or otherwise

GOVERNOR'S ITEM VETO MESSAGE

March 28, 1980

The Honorable Melvin D. Synhorst
Secretary of the State
State Capitol Building

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I hereby transmit Senate File 2241, an act relating to appropriations for the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1979 and 1980, by supplementing and adjusting appropriations and amending restrictions contained in the Acts of the Sixty-eighth General Assembly, 1979 Session, and making additional appropriations.

Senate File 2241 is approved March 28, 1980, with the following exceptions which I hereby disapprove.

I am unable to approve the item designated as Section 19 which reads as follows:

Sec. 19. The appropriation from the general fund of the state to the department of social services made for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1979 and ending June 30, 1980 by the Acts of the Sixty-eighth General Assembly, 1979 Session, chapter eight (8), section eight (8), subsection four (4), is reduced by six hundred ten thousand (610,000) dollars.

I am unable to approve the item designated as Section 30 which reads as follows:

Sec. 30. Notwithstanding the provisions of section eight point thirty-nine (8.39) of the Code, funds appropriated under sections eighteen (18) and twenty (20) of this Act shall not be subject to transfer to any other department, institution or agency. Any unencumbered or unobligated balance of any appropriation made under sections eighteen (18) or twenty (20) of this Act which exists on June 30, 1980 shall revert to the fund from which it was appropriated.

The purpose of Section 19 of this bill is to reduce the FY 1980 medical assistance (Title XIX) appropriation by $610,000. The Department of Social Services believes that such a reduction can be made without adversely affecting this medical assistance program.

On the other hand, this bill does not appropriate sufficient funds to cover the anticipated increase in the Aid to Dependent Children caseload. This deficiency can be partially met by retaining the $610,000 in this bill and making a fund transfer under Section 8.39 of the Iowa Code. The Chairmen of the Social Services Appropriations Subcommittees concur in this course of action.

While as Governor I have used this transfer authority sparingly and have not used it at all during this fiscal year, I do believe it should be employed on occasion when a mandated program must be funded and the appropriation is insufficient. This option needs to be available in this case.

It is difficult to estimate accurately the costs of the medical assistance and the Aid to Dependent Children programs. The legislature has tended to regard these two appropriations as though they were standing unlimited appropriations due to the difficulty in estimating their final costs. While it is always hoped that adjustments at the end of the year will not be necessary for the ADC and medical assistance programs, it seldom happens.

Since the time I submitted our budget recommendations to the General Assembly and the Social Services Appropriations Subcommittees acted upon the requests, the Department of Social Services has reported that the current caseload is 102,300, which is 4,000 persons more on a per-month average than was estimated in January. In addition to the $4,570,000 contained in this bill, the Department of Social Services estimates that slightly more than $1,000,000 will be necessary to maintain current benefit levels for the remainder of this fiscal year.

The under-funding in ADC and the surplus in medical assistance just discussed underscores the need for flexibility in the executive branch once legislative appropriations have been made. Section 30 of this bill restricts the Governor and State Comptroller's authority to transfer funds from one agency to another when the original appropriation has proven to be insufficient to meet the legitimate expenses of the receiving agency. The transfer authority provides flexibility to make necessary adjustments when unforeseen or changing circumstances arise.

Previously, I have vetoed limitations on the transfer authority. The law contains safeguards giving the legislature an opportunity to review and comment on any proposed transfer. We have accepted and respected such comments, and, indeed, several transfers have been modified or eliminated following receipt of recommendations from legislators.

In 1969 the people of this State voted to amend the Constitution of the State of Iowa to allow the Governor to "disapprove any item" of an appropriation bill. Since then there have been several court cases and a number of Attorney General opinions which have attempted to demarcate this gubernatorial authority. Throughout those discussions runs the thread of separability, that is, will the vetoed item alter positively or negatively the function of the appropriation to which it is purportedly attached? If there remains no "scar tissue" from excising such provision, then assuredly it is an item within the meaning of the Iowa Constitution.

In this bill, Section 30 is totally unrelated to Sections 18 and 20. Its deletion will not in any manner effect the purposes of those appropriations. While we do not anticipate making transfers from the appropriations affected by Section 30, nonetheless, the restriction violates the transfer authority established by law and sets a bad precedent. I would hope that the legislative branch would want to work with the executive branch in determining budget policy without circumventing a statutory authority allowing limited flexibility which is indeed desirable to implement the budget effectively.

For these reasons, I hereby disapprove these items in accordance with Amendment 4 of the Amendments of 1968 to the Constitution of the State of Iowa. All other items of Senate File 2241 are hereby approved this date.

Sincerely,
ROBERT D. RAY
Governor

1 Whereas, the President of the United States has 2 imposed a grain embargo that has had severe reper-3 cussions on the economy of the nation; and 4 Whereas, this policy has had a disastrous effect on 5 the economy of rural Iowa and has resulted in a declin-6 ing market for farm commodities; and 7 Whereas, extreme inflationary pressure, coupled with 8 rapidly rising fuel and fertilizer prices, record high 9 interest rates and an apparent cheap food policy, have 10 forced the liquidation of cow herds and other breeding 11 stock and have brought many farmers to the brink of 12 bankruptcy; and

13 Whereas, assurances that necessary steps have been 14 taken to lessen the economic effect of the embargo have 15 not been accompanied by timely and effective action by 16 the Department of Agriculture; and

17 Whereas, the Department of Agriculture has refused to 18 provide for the set-aside of crop acres for the coming 19 crop year and has even started to sell back grain con-20 tracts acquired to protect the large grain companies at 21 the time of the embargo, in spite of present severely 22 depressed market conditions resulting in even greater 23 losses for farmers; Now Therefore,

24 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring, 25 That the general assembly requests that the embargo of 26 the sale of agricultural products to the Soviet Union 27 be lifted; and

28 Be It Further Resolved, That the chief clerk of the 29 house of representatives and the secretary of the senate 30 provide copies of this resolution to the President of the RULING ON POINT OF ORDER (Raised during morning session)

Pertaining to the point of order previously raised by Senator Junkins that House Files 2089 and 2280 were improperly on the Senate Calendar because the bills did not have the required majority vote from members of the committee on State Government on March 27, 1980, the Chair stated he would not rule at this particular time, but announced that he was going to find the point well taken.

Senator Nystrom asked unanimous consent that House Files 2089 and 2280 remain on the Senate Calendar.

The Chair ruled the point well taken and Senator Nystrom's request out of order.

The Chair ruled the point of order raised by Senator Junkins that House Files 2089 and 2280 were improperly on the Senate Calendar well taken under Senate Rule 38 and House Files 2089 and 2280 were removed from the calendar and sent back to the committee on State Government.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

By: Yenger, Van Gilst,
Ramsey and Brown

1 Whereas, ninety-five percent of the energy used in 2 Iowa is imported; and coal is Iowa's most abundant energy 3 resource and is estimated at over three billion tons of 4 recoverable coal, enough to last the state for hundreds 5 of years; and 6 Whereas, the past seventy years have seen a ninety 7 percent reduction in the production of Iowa coal result-8 ing in the decline of Iowa's coal industry to the point 9 of extinction; and 10 Whereas, thirteen million tons of coal were used in 11 Iowa in 1979, but only seven percent was Iowa coal; and 12 Whereas, the current energy crisis necessitates the 13 establishment of efficient energy production priorities
14 which emphasize the utilization of local energy sources 15 instead of furthering the reliance on unstable energy 16 sources from unfriendly nations; and 17 Whereas, the application of federal air quality standards 18 threaten further economic disruption and unemployment to 19 significant portions of Iowa; and 20 Whereas, the importance of air quality for Iowa's 21 citizens is well recognized, it should also be recognized 22 that data indicates that previous federal scientific 23 studies upon which air quality standards were set have 24 proved to be vague; Now Therefore,
25 Be It Resolved by the Senate, That the United 26 States Environmental Protection Agency be urged 27 to take prompt action to reevaluate all sulfur 28 air quality studies and standards affecting Iowa; and 29 Be It Further Resolved, That the state of Iowa through 30 the Iowa Department of Environmental Quality, working

Page 2

1 with the United States Environmental Protection Agency, 2 a representative from the Governor's Office, and 3 other interested parties, reevaluate by September 1, 1980
4 Iowa's air quality regulations to allow for the burning 5 of considerably more Iowa coal in an environmentally 6 acceptable manner; and 7 Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolut-

8 tion be forwarded to the president of the United States, 9 to the United States Environmental Protection Agency, 10 to the President of the United States Senate, to the 11 Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, 12 and to each member of Congress from Iowa.

By: Junkins, Hutchins and Rush

1 Whereas, adequate transportation is vital to the 2 economy of the state of Iowa; and 3 Whereas, Senate File 2210 is designed to improve the 4 transportation system for the state of Iowa; and 5 Whereas, Joint Rule 18 of the Iowa General Assembly
6 prevents timely consideration of Senate File 2210; Now
7 Therefore,
8 Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring,
9 That pursuant to Joint Rule 1 of the Iowa General Assembly, 10 Joint Rule 18 is suspended insofar as it affects the 11 consideration of Senate File 2210 and Senate File 2210 12 shall be eligible for consideration by the Senate and 13 the House without the restrictions contained in Joint 14 Rule 18.

Read first time and referred to the committee on Rules and Administration.

Action on House File 2495 and division S—5644B was temporarily deferred.

COMMITTEE FROM THE HOUSE

A committee from the House appeared and announced that the House was ready to receive the Senate in joint convention.

In accordance with House Concurrent Resolution 126, duly adopted, the Senate proceeded to the House under the direction of the Secretary of the Senate and the Sergeant-at-arms.

JOINT CONVENTION

In accordance with law and House Concurrent Resolution 126, duly adopted, the joint convention was called to order at 10:28 a.m. President Branstad presiding.

Senator Hultman moved that the roll call be dispensed with and that the President of the joint convention be authorized to declare a quorum present, which motion prevailed by a voice vote.

President Branstad declared a quorum present and the joint convention duly organized.

Senator Murray moved that a committee of six, three members from the Senate and three members from the House of Representatives, be appointed to notify Governor Ray that the joint convention was ready to receive him.

The motion prevailed by a voice vote and the President appointed as such committee Senators Murray, Holden and Palmer on the part of the Senate and Representatives Welden, Cusack and Stromer on the part of the House.

The Justices of the Supreme Court and the Judges of the Appellate Court were escorted into the House chamber.

The committee waited upon Governor Ray and escorted him to the Speaker's station.

MR. PRESIDENT, MR. SPEAKER, MR. CHIEF JUSTICE, JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT AND MEMBERS OF THE APPELLATE COURT, STATE OFFICIALS, SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES, DISTINGUISHED GUESTS AND FRIENDS:

For the record, today is Wednesday, not Thursday, which means this is not the day of the annual Governor's Prayer Breakfast.

Scheduling this speech one day before the Prayer Breakfast was not deliberate, although it may be appropriate!

On the second day of this Second Session of the Sixty-eighth General Assembly, I presented to you and to our Iowans my report on the Condition of the State for 1980. I emphasized in my remarks that Americans, and Iowans, "...are a people angered and upset about inflation—and its impact on our elderly, farmers, working men and women—on all of us." That feeling is even more true today.

Since January, the national economy has moved from bad to worse. Today we have nearly 20 percent inflation, and no comfort. Today we have 20 percent interest rates, and little credit. And today, thanks to the federal Administration and Congress, we have 100 percent frustration and a lot of confusion.

We balance our budgets here in Iowa, but we do not live in a vacuum. We have been hurt by the grain embargo. We have been hurt by disastrous federal farm policies. We have been hurt by hyper-inflation—the highest since the end of World War II.

Our present economy was "made in Washington." And it is now being "broken" in Washington, and is spinning into a recession—with resulting ravages rippling all the way from the Potomac to the Mississippi and Missouri, and the land in between, our home, Iowa.

Our Governor's Economic Advisory Council met one week ago today and shared some gloomy news. They noted the embargo, depressed grain markets, and a 28 percent drop in hog prices. They cited skyrocketing prices for fuel, fertilizers, and other farm supplies. They learned that tax receipts from farmers are already down some 16.5 percent. They forecast an unprofitable year and even some farm bankruptcies. And, it's painful to watch an Iowa farm family forced to sell their equipment, livestock and land and leave their lifestyle.

The bottom line is predictable, though not very pleasant. Because of federal government decisions, Iowans will have a tougher time making ends meet in the months ahead—and so will state government. State revenues were up 14.1 percent during fiscal year 1979. This fiscal year, it is estimated they will increase less—down to 9.9 percent. Next fiscal year, 6.1 percent.

Iowa's budget is being further squeezed by the unfortunate loss of federal revenue sharing. This program worked. This program cost virtually nothing to run. This program helped provide tax relief here in Iowa. Yet now, it is being dropped. At long last, there is serious talk about balancing the national budget. But, the burden is being shifted to the states. Iowa's budget will lose $14 million during fiscal year 1981, and $28 million each year after that.

Some suggest the end of federal revenue sharing should cause the demise of state revenue sharing. I reject this notion. We will not merely pass this loss on. Local units of government are also hard-pressed today, and funds for county and municipal assistance will be forthcoming next year, and I trust, in the future.

At the state level, the loss of revenue and of revenue sharing will have a significant impact. We project that total revenues will be down $33 million from earlier estimates for the current fiscal year and $62 million during fiscal year 1981—a drop in anticipated income for the entire biennium of $95 million. Because of these numbers, we are revamping our biennial budget.

My legislative program identified several important priorities in January. They are no less important today. But what is absolutely imperative is that we preserve a budget that is balanced, a budget with a workable balance, and a budget which still considers the taxpayer with some tax relief.

Obviously, our work this past week has not been easy. We have seen the problem and made the tough choices. I am here this morning to outline them for you:

1. We will immediately halt the construction of capital projects totaling $22 million. Needed building and remodeling will continue only when we can pay the bills.

2. As of today, I am ordering a freeze in state hiring. Even though the latest EEO report shows that the number of full-time permanent employees on the central payroll is down, we will place a lid on employment. And filling a vacancy will have to be reviewed by the Comptroller and the Governor's Office. Additionally, I am directing all departments and agencies to further restrain purchasing and discretionary spending. And I would expect the other two branches of government to follow this practice.

3. I ask the legislature to provide a more realistic measurement of the cost of living for the School Foundation Plan and for income tax indexing. The GNP deflator should replace the CPI for these purposes.

4. We need to postpone for one year any increase in the personal property tax phaseout.

5. We will defer or drop two-thirds of the supplemental appropriations advanced in January. These cuts total some $40 million, and are detailed in the information you will receive. These cuts are shared across-the-board. No part of the executive branch was exempt.

The supplementals that remain are not only relevant, they are urgent. They include funding for some vital human services such as Aid for Dependent Children and Medicaid. They include funding for programs where a second-year appropriation was not passed in 1979. For example, this revision continues the $800,000 requested earlier for eldercare, to give essential services to senior Iowans who are trying to live on fixed incomes. And, some remaining supplementals include funding for services which are needed more during strained economic times.

In January, I identified soil conservation as a key priority and recommended a 60 percent increase in funding. I remain convinced this is a priority. Even though we cannot provide as much as I originally hoped, I continue to press for more dollars for Iowa's soil and Iowa's future.

My efforts to obtain a 2 percent salary increase for state employees were based on my belief this was reasonable and fair. I must, however, recognize that if money is not available, this cannot be realized. I regret this move because state workers, just like their neighbors, are victims of inflation.

6. By not giving extra property tax relief and moving to the 78 percent school foundation level, it will be possible to continue income tax indexing. The alternative would be to forego indexing, but we would then lose the safety valve in the event of a deeper recession. It is also essential that the school aid formula be modified for future planning.

The state has furnished substantial property tax relief in recent years through the school foundation plan. And, during this session, further property tax relief has been provided for commercial, industrial and utility property by placing assessment limits similar to those on farm land and residential property.

There was good reason to provide this tax relief, and other kinds of tax relief already offered to Iowans, but there is a limit to what we can afford and what we can do.

Some of you are discussing changing the inheritance tax. There is merit to this idea, but if we don't or won't have the money, we cannot do it.

You will recall I suggested removing the sales tax on machinery and equipment to stimulate new jobs. But again, as valuable an idea as it is, if we don't have the money, we cannot do it.

We can give additional benefits to workers covered under IPERS, but the increase must come from the pension fund itself, as I earlier recommended.

The revisions to the budget I submit today should leave the General Fund with an unobligated balance of $71.8 million as of June 30, 1980, and $63.7 million on June 30, 1981, just slightly above the minimum $60 million.

This budget is tight. As I said in January, "There is a lot more we would like to do for Iowa—but, extra money is scarce." And that is especially so today.

I ask you to study these budget changes carefully. And I implore you to act with insight and not by impulse.

We have shown some good judgment in the past. We suffered an economic downturn ten years ago and we endured. Indeed, we were able to move Iowa into the forefront as a national leader in so many ways during the 1970s.

Today, in the fourth month of the new decade, Iowa remains resilient, progressive and poised for the 1980s. And we have talented people working on challenging issues such as energy, transportation, and so many more.

We must always look for ways to keep giving Iowans the good government they want and deserve—efficiently and effectively. The men and women who served on the Governor's Economy Committee '79 showed us a number of ways to do just that. Worthy ideas are being implemented in the executive branch. Others require your approval, and I ask that you review these ideas this session, this summer and this fall.

It was Anatole France who said, "The future is hidden even from the men who make it."

What you have been doing this session, and what you will be doing in these closing weeks is helping to shape the future of Iowa. And, just as we could not foresee in January all that is happening in April, neither can we now foresee with certainty everything that will happen in September, or next year, or the year after that. The economy could become worse. Hopefully it will get better.
